ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-119 is similar to § 12-35-114 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

The general assembly has delegated the duty to examine applicants for a dental license to the members of the Colorado state board of dental examiners, who are appointed by the governor. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Schroeder, 174 Colo. 343, 483 P.2d 970 (1971).

Moreover, it is not for the supreme court, any more than it is for the trial court, to act as a super dental board. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Schroeder, 174 Colo. 343, 483 P.2d 970 (1971).

Failure to pass all parts of required examination renders a person unqualified to practice dentistry. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Major, 996 P.2d 246 (Colo. App. 1999).

The federal Americans with Disabilities Act does not require the issuance of a license to a person who is otherwise unqualified to practice dentistry. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Major, 996 P.2d 246 (Colo. App. 1999).

The guidelines provided by this section afford the public protection against the incompetent who seeks to practice dentistry, while granting to every applicant a fair and uniform basis for ascertaining whether he is qualified to practice dentistry in Colorado. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Schroeder, 174 Colo. 343, 483 P.2d 970 (1971).

The general assembly has caused the examination procedure that is to be conducted by the state board of dental examiners to be defined by this section. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Schroeder, 174 Colo. 343, 483 P.2d 970 (1971).

The test prescribed by the state board of dental examiners, if carried out in a uniform manner and with an objective and factual basis for determining the qualifications of an applicant, is valid. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Schroeder, 174 Colo. 343, 483 P.2d 970 (1971).

The state board of dental examiners, in conducting an examination and in causing a record to be made of the examination results, failed to comply with this section where the board did not uniformly grade the applicants or make a record of all the grades, nor did the board record the grade of each applicant who took the subjective, practical dentistry examination, and in many instances, the examinations bore grades which were not tied to any factual standards relating to the practical dental work which was assigned to the applicants, but instead, many of the applicants were given grades which were arbitrarily arrived at on the basis of whether the applicant was obviously passing or failing the practical dentistry examination and other applicants were not graded on each phase of the practical examination and were given only an over-all grade. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Schroeder, 174 Colo. 343, 483 P.2d 970 (1971).

12-35-120. Licensure by endorsement. (1) The board shall provide for licensure upon application of any person licensed in good standing to practice dentistry in another state or territory of the United States who provides the credentials and meets the qualifications set forth in this section in the manner prescribed by the board.

(2) The board shall issue a license to an applicant licensed as a dentist in another state or territory of the United States if said applicant has submitted credentials and qualifications for licensure that include:

- (a) Proof of graduation from an accredited dental school;
 - (b) Proof the applicant is currently licensed in another state or United States territory;
 - (c) Proof the applicant has been in practice or teaching dentistry, which involves personally providing care to patients for not less than three hundred hours annually in an accredited dental school for a minimum of five years out of the seven years immediately preceding the date of the receipt of the application, or evidence that the applicant has demonstrated competency as a dentist as determined by the board;
 - (d) Proof the applicant has not been subject to final or pending disciplinary action by any state in which the applicant is or has been previously licensed; except that, if the applicant has been subject to disciplinary action, the board may review such disciplinary action to determine whether the underlying conduct warrants refusal to issue a license;
 - (e) Proof the applicant has passed an examination on the provisions of this article;
 - (f) Proof the applicant has passed an entry level examination acceptable to the board;
- and
- (g) Proof the applicant has met any more stringent criteria established by the board.

12-35-121. Renewal of dental and dental hygienist licenses - fees. Licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies, referred to in this section as the director, and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-121 is similar to § 12-35-117 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Failure to pay fee does not automatically extinguish license. The failure to pay the registration fee to renew the license does not automatically extinguish the license. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Colo., 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

12-35-122. Inactive dental license. (1) Any person licensed to practice dentistry pursuant to this article may apply to the board to be transferred to an inactive status. Such application shall be in the form and manner designated by the board. The board may grant such status by issuing an inactive license, or it may deny the application for any of the causes set forth in section 12-35-129.

(2) Any person applying for a license under this section shall:

(a) Provide an affidavit to the board that the applicant, after a date certain, shall not practice dentistry in this state unless he or she is issued a license to practice dentistry pursuant to subsection (5) of this section;

(b) Pay the license fee as authorized pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.; and

(c) Comply with any financial responsibility standards promulgated by the board pursuant to section 13-64-301 (1), C.R.S.

(3) Such inactive status shall be plainly indicated on the face of any inactive license certificate issued under this section.

(4) The board is authorized to conduct disciplinary proceedings as set forth in section 12-35-129 against any person licensed under this section for any act committed while the person was licensed pursuant to this article.

(5) Any person licensed under this section who wishes to resume the practice of dentistry shall file an application in the form and manner the board shall designate, pay the license fee promulgated by the board pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and meet the financial responsibility requirements promulgated by the board pursuant to section 13-64-301 (1), C.R.S. The board may approve such application and issue a license to practice dentistry or may deny the application for any of the causes set forth in section 12-35-129.

12-35-123. Retired dental and dental hygienist licenses. (1) Any person licensed to practice dentistry or dental hygiene pursuant to this article may apply to the board for retired licensure status. Any such application shall be in the form and manner designated by the board. The board may grant such status by issuing a retired license, or it may deny the application if the licensee has been disciplined for any of the causes set forth in section 12-35-129.

(2) Any person applying for a license under this section shall:

(a) Provide an affidavit to the board stating that, after a date certain, the applicant shall not practice dentistry or dental hygiene, shall no longer earn income as a dentist or dental hygiene administrator or consultant, and shall not perform any activity that constitutes practicing dentistry or dental hygiene pursuant to sections 12-35-113, 12-35-124, and 12-35-125 unless said applicant is issued a license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene pursuant to subsection (5) of this section; and

(b) Pay the license fee authorized by section 24-34-105, C.R.S., which fee shall not exceed fifty dollars.

(3) The retired status of a licensee shall be plainly indicated on the face of any retired license certificate issued under this section.

(4) The board is authorized to conduct disciplinary proceedings pursuant to section 12-35-129 against any person licensed under this section for an act committed while such person was licensed pursuant to this article.

(5) Any person licensed under this section may apply to the board for a return to active licensure status by filing an application in the form and manner the board shall designate pursuant to section 12-35-117, paying the appropriate license fee established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and meeting the financial responsibility requirements issued by the board pursuant to section 13-64-301 (1), C.R.S. The board may approve such application and issue a license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene or may deny the application if the licensee has been disciplined for any of the causes set forth in section 12-35-129.

(6) A dentist in retired status may provide dental services on a voluntary basis to the indigent, if such services are provided on a limited basis and no fee is charged. Such a dentist shall have immunity for voluntary care provided pursuant to this subsection (6).

12-35-124. What constitutes practicing unsupervised dental hygiene. (1) Unless licensed to practice dentistry, a person shall be deemed to be practicing unsupervised dental hygiene who, within the scope of the person's education, training, and experience:

(a) Removes deposits, accretions, and stains by scaling with hand, ultrasonic, or other devices from all surfaces of the tooth and smooths and polishes natural and restored tooth surfaces, including root planing;

(b) Removes granulation and degenerated tissue from the gingival wall of the periodontal pocket through the process of gingival curettage;

(c) Provides preventive measures including the application of fluorides, sealants, and other recognized topical agents for the prevention of oral disease;

(d) Gathers and assembles information including, but not limited to:

(I) Fact-finding and patient history;

(II) Preparation of study casts for the purpose of fabricating a permanent record of the patient's present condition; as a visual aid for patient education, dental hygiene diagnosis, and dental hygiene treatment planning; and to provide assistance during forensic examination;

(III) Extra- and intra-oral inspection;

(IV) Dental and periodontal charting; and

(V) Radiographic and X-ray survey for the purpose of assessing and diagnosing dental hygiene-related conditions for treatment planning for dental hygiene services as described in this section and identifying dental abnormalities for immediate referral to a dentist;

(e) Administers a topical anesthetic to a patient in the course of providing dental care;

(f) Performs dental hygiene assessment, dental hygiene diagnosis, and dental hygiene treatment planning for dental hygiene services as described in this section and section 12-35-125 and identifies dental abnormalities for immediate referral to a dentist; or

(g) Administers fluoride, fluoride varnish, and antimicrobial solutions for mouth rinsing.

(1.5) A dental hygienist shall state in writing and require a patient to acknowledge by signature that any diagnosis or assessment is for the purpose of determining necessary dental hygiene services only and that it is recommended by the American dental association, or any successor organizations, that a thorough dental examination be performed by a dentist twice each year.

(2) Unsupervised dental hygiene may be performed by licensed dentists and licensed dental hygienists without the supervision of a licensed dentist.

(3) (a) Notwithstanding section 12-35-103 (14) or 12-35-113 (1) (b), a dental hygienist may be the proprietor of a place where supervised or unsupervised dental hygiene is performed and may purchase, own, or lease equipment necessary to perform supervised or unsupervised dental hygiene.

(b) A dental hygienist proprietor, or a professional corporation or professional limited liability corporation of dental hygienists, in addition to providing dental hygiene services, may enter into an agreement with one or more dentists for the lease or rental of equipment or office space in the same physical location as the dental hygiene practice, but only if the determination of necessary dental services provided by the dentist and professional responsibility for those services, including but not limited to dental records, appropriate medication, and patient payment, remain with the treating dentist. It shall be the responsibility of the dental hygienist to inform the patient as to whether there is a supervisory relationship between the dentist and the dental hygienist. Such an agreement shall not constitute employment and shall not constitute cause for discipline pursuant to section 12-35-129 (1) (h).

12-35-125. What constitutes practicing supervised dental hygiene. (1) Unless licensed to practice dentistry, a person shall be deemed to be practicing supervised dental hygiene who:

(a) Removes deposits, accretions, and stains by scaling with hand, ultrasonic, or other devices from all surfaces of the tooth and smooths and polishes natural and restored tooth surfaces, including root planing;

(b) Removes granulation and degenerated tissue from the gingival wall of the periodontal pocket through the process of gingival curettage. Such curettage may include the incidental removal of live epithelial tissue and is to be performed under the indirect supervision of a licensed dentist.

(c) Provides preventive measures including, but not limited to, the application of fluorides, sealants, and other recognized topical agents for the prevention of oral disease;

(d) Gathers and assembles information including, but not limited to:

(I) Fact-finding and patient history;

(II) Radiographic and X-ray survey for the purpose of assessing and diagnosing dental hygiene-related conditions for treatment planning for dental hygiene services as described in section 12-35-124 and this section and identifying dental abnormalities for immediate referral to a dentist;

(III) Preparation of study casts;

(IV) Oral inspection; and

(V) Dental and periodontal charting;

(e) Administers a topical anesthetic to a patient in the course of providing dental care;

(f) Administers local anesthetic under the indirect supervision of a licensed dentist pursuant to rules of the board, which shall include minimum education requirements and procedures for such administration;

(g) Performs dental hygiene assessment, dental hygiene diagnosis, and dental hygiene treatment planning for dental hygiene services as described in this section and section 12-35-124 and identifies dental abnormalities for immediate referral to a dentist; or

(h) Administers fluoride, fluoride varnish, and antimicrobial solutions for mouth rinsing.

(2) Supervised dental hygiene may be performed by licensed dentists and, except for the administration of local anesthetic performed under paragraph (f) of subsection (1) of this section, by licensed dental hygienists under the indirect supervision of a licensed dentist in accordance with rules adopted by the board.

12-35-126. Application for dental hygienist license - fee. (1) Every person who desires to qualify for practice as a dental hygienist within this state shall file with the board:

(a) A written application for a license, on which application such applicant shall list:

(I) Any act the commission of which would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-35-129 against a licensed dental hygienist; and

(II) An explanation of the circumstances of such act; and

(b) Satisfactory proof of graduation from a school of dental hygiene that, at the time of the applicant's graduation, was accredited, and proof that the program offered by the accredited school of dental hygiene was at least two academic years.

(2) Such application must be on the form prescribed and furnished by the board, verified by the oath of the applicant, and accompanied by a fee established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(3) An applicant for licensure who has not graduated from an accredited school or program of dental hygiene within the twelve months immediately preceding application, or who has not engaged either in the active clinical practice of dental hygiene or in teaching dental hygiene in an accredited program for at least one year during the five years immediately preceding the application, shall demonstrate to the board that the applicant has maintained the professional ability and knowledge required by this article.

(4) Licenses for dental hygienists shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies, referred to in this section as the director, and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-35-127. Dental hygienist examinations - license - endorsement - liability insurance. (1) Every applicant for dental hygiene licensure shall submit to the board proof of having successfully completed the following:

(a) An examination administered by the joint commission on national dental examinations;

(b) An examination designed to test the applicant's clinical skills and knowledge, which shall be administered by a regional testing agency composed of at least four states or an examination of another state; and

(c) An examination on the provisions of this article.

(2) All examination results required by the board shall be filed with the board and kept for reference for a period of not less than two years. Should an applicant successfully complete such examinations and be otherwise qualified, the applicant shall be granted a license by the board and shall be issued a license certificate signed by the officers of the board.

(3) (a) The board shall provide for licensure upon application of any person licensed in good standing to practice dental hygiene in another state or territory of the United States who has met the requirements of section 12-35-126, subsections (1) and (2) of this section, and paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) and provides the credentials and meets the qualifications set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) in the manner prescribed by the board. The examination for knowledge of the provisions of this article shall be accomplished by the use of a mail-in jurisprudence examination administered by the board.

(b) The board shall issue a license to an applicant duly licensed as a dental hygienist in another state or territory of the United States who has submitted credentials and qualifications for licensure in Colorado. Such credentials and qualifications shall include:

(I) Verification of licensure from any other jurisdiction where the applicant has held a dental hygiene or other health care license;

(II) Evidence of the applicant's successful completion of the national board dental examination administered by the joint commission on national dental examinations;

(III) (A) Verification that the applicant has been engaged either in clinical practice or in teaching dental hygiene or dentistry in an accredited program for at least one year during the three years immediately preceding the date of the receipt of the application; or

(B) Evidence that the applicant has demonstrated competency as a dental hygienist as determined by the board;

(IV) A report of any pending or final disciplinary actions against any health care license held by the applicant at any time; and

(V) A report of any pending or final malpractice actions against the applicant.

(4) A practicing dental hygienist shall have professional liability insurance in the amount of not less than fifty thousand dollars per claim and an aggregate liability limit for all claims during a calendar year of not less than three hundred thousand dollars. Upon request of the board, the dental hygienist shall provide proof of the insurance to the board.

12-35-128. Tasks authorized to be performed by dental assistants or dental hygienists. (1) The responsibility for dental diagnosis, dental treatment planning, or the prescription of therapeutic measures in the practice of dentistry shall remain with a licensed dentist and may not be assigned to any dental hygienist; except that a dental hygienist may perform dental hygiene assessment, dental hygiene diagnosis, and dental hygiene treatment planning for dental hygiene services; identify dental abnormalities for immediate referral to a dentist as described in sections 12-35-124 and 12-35-125; and may administer fluoride, fluoride varnish, and antimicrobial solutions for mouth rinsing as described in sections 12-35-124 and 12-35-125, and resorbable antimicrobial agents pursuant to rules of the board. No dental procedure that involves surgery or that will contribute to or result in an irremediable alteration of the oral anatomy may be assigned to anyone other than a licensed dentist. Prescriptive authority may not be assigned to anyone other than a licensed dentist.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, a dental hygienist may perform any dental task or procedure assigned to the hygienist by a licensed dentist that does not require the professional skill of a licensed dentist; except that such task or procedure shall be performed only under the indirect supervision of a licensed dentist on the premises, or as provided elsewhere in sections 12-35-124 and 12-35-125.

(3) (a) A dental assistant shall not perform the following tasks:

- (I) Diagnosis;
- (II) Treatment planning;
- (III) Prescription of therapeutic measures;
- (IV) Any procedure that contributes to or results in an irremediable alteration of the oral anatomy;
- (V) Administration of local anesthesia;
- (VI) Scaling (supra and sub-gingival), as it pertains to the practice of dental hygiene;
- (VII) Root planing;
- (VIII) Soft tissue curettage;
- (IX) Periodontal probing.

(b) A dental assistant may perform the following tasks under the direct or indirect supervision of a licensed dentist:

- (I) Smoothing and polishing natural and restored tooth surfaces;
- (II) Provision of preventive measures, including the application of fluorides and other recognized topical agents for the prevention of oral disease;
- (III) Gathering and assembling information including, but not limited to, fact-finding and patient history, oral inspection, and dental and periodontal charting;
- (IV) Administering topical anesthetic to a patient in the course of providing dental care;
- (V) Any other task or procedure that does not require the professional skill of a licensed dentist.

(c) A dental assistant may, under the direct supervision of a licensed dentist in accordance with rules promulgated by the board, administer and monitor the use of nitrous oxide on a patient.

(d) (I) A dental assistant may perform intraoral and extraoral tasks and procedures necessary for the fabrication of a complete or partial denture under the direct supervision of a licensed dentist. These tasks and procedures shall include:

- (A) Making of preliminary and final impressions;
- (B) Jaw relation records and determination of vertical dimensions;
- (C) Tooth selection;
- (D) A preliminary try-in of the wax-up trial denture prior to and subject to a try-in and approval in writing of the wax-up trial denture by the licensed dentist;
- (E) Denture adjustments that involve the periphery, occlusal, or tissue-bearing surfaces of the denture prior to the final examination of the denture.

(II) The tasks and procedures in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d) shall be performed in the regularly announced office location of a licensed practicing dentist, and the dentist shall be personally liable for all treatment rendered to the patient. A dental assistant performing these tasks and procedures shall be properly identified as a dental assistant. No dentist shall utilize more than the number of dental assistants the dentist can reasonably supervise.

(III) Prior to any work being performed pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d), the patient shall first be examined by the treating dentist licensed to practice in this state who shall certify that the patient has no pathologic condition that requires surgical correction or other treatment prior to complete denture service.

(4) In addition to the procedure authorized in this section, a dental assistant may make repairs and relines of dentures pursuant to a dental laboratory work order signed by a licensed dentist.

(5) The board may make such reasonable rules as may be necessary to implement and enforce the provisions of this section.

12-35-129. Causes for denial of issuance or renewal - suspension or revocation of licenses - other disciplinary action - unprofessional conduct defined - disciplinary panels - cease and desist. (1) The board may deny the issuance or renewal of, suspend for a specified time period, or revoke any license provided for by this article or may reprimand, censure, or place on probation any licensed dentist or dental hygienist after notice and hearing, which may be conducted by an administrative law judge, pursuant to the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., or it may issue a letter of admonition without a hearing by certified mail (except that any licensed dentist or dental hygienist to whom such a letter of admonition is sent may, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, request in writing to the board a formal hearing thereon, and the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated, and the board shall, upon such request, hold such a hearing) for any of the following causes:

(a) Resorting to fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying for, securing, renewing, or seeking reinstatement of a license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state, in applying for professional liability coverage required pursuant to section 13-64-301, C.R.S., or in taking the examinations provided for in this article;

(b) Any conviction of a felony or any crime that would constitute a violation of this article. For purposes of this paragraph (b), conviction includes the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or a deferred sentence.

(c) Administering, dispensing, or prescribing any habit-forming drug or any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., to any person, including himself or herself, other than in the course of legitimate professional practice;

(d) Conviction of violation of any federal or state law regulating the possession, distribution, or use of any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., and, in determining if a license should be denied, revoked, or suspended or if the licensee should be placed on probation, the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.;

(e) Habitually abusing or excessively using any habit-forming drug or any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or alcohol;

(f) Misusing any drug or controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(g) Aiding or abetting, in the practice of dentistry or dental hygiene, any person not licensed to practice dentistry or dental hygiene as defined under this article or of any person whose license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene is suspended;

(h) Except as otherwise provided in sections 25-3-103.7, 12-35-116, and 12-35-124 (3), C.R.S., practicing dentistry or dental hygiene as a partner, agent, or employee of or in joint venture with any person who does not hold a license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene within this state or practicing dentistry or dental hygiene as an employee of or in joint venture with any partnership, association, or corporation. A licensee holding a license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state may accept employment from any person, partnership, association, or corporation to examine, prescribe, and treat the employees of such person, partnership, association, or corporation.

(i) Violating or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of or conspiring to violate any provision or term of this article or lawful rule or order of the board;

(j) Such physical or mental disability as to render the licensee unable to perform dental or dental hygiene services with reasonable skill and with safety to the patient;

(k) An act or omission constituting grossly negligent dental or dental hygiene practice or that fails to meet generally accepted standards of dental or dental hygiene practice;

(l) Advertising in a manner that is misleading, deceptive, or false;

(m) Engaging in a sexual act with a patient during the course of patient care or within six months immediately following the termination of the licensee's professional relationship with the patient. "Sexual act", as used in this paragraph (m), means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

- (n) Refusing to make patient records available to a patient pursuant to a written authorization-request under section 25-1-802, C.R.S.;
- (o) False billing in the delivery of dental or dental hygiene services, including, but not limited to, performing one service and billing for another, billing for any service not rendered, and committing a fraudulent insurance act, as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;
- (p) Abuse of health insurance pursuant to section 18-13-119, C.R.S.;
- (q) Failing to notify the board, in writing, of the entry of a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction in favor of any party and against the licensee involving negligent malpractice of dentistry or dental hygiene. Such notice shall be given within ninety days after the entry of such judgment and shall contain the name of the court, the case number, and the names of all parties to the action.
- (r) Failing to report a dental or dental hygiene malpractice judgment or malpractice settlement to the board by the licensee within ninety days;
- (s) Failing to furnish unlicensed persons with laboratory work orders pursuant to section 12-35-133;
- (t) Employing a solicitor or other agent to obtain patronage, except as provided in section 12-35-137;
- (u) Willfully deceiving or attempting to deceive the board or its agents with reference to any matter relating to the provisions of this article;
- (v) Sharing any professional fees with anyone except those with whom the dentist or dental hygienist is lawfully associated in the practice of dentistry or dental hygiene; except that it shall not be considered a violation of this paragraph (v) if a licensed dentist or dental hygienist pays to an independent advertising or marketing agent compensation for advertising or marketing services rendered on the licensed dentist's or dental hygienist's behalf by such agent, including compensation that is paid for the results or performance of such services on a per-patient basis;
- (w) The abandonment of a patient by failure to provide reasonably necessary referral of the patient to other licensed dentists or licensed health care professionals for consultation or treatment when such failure to provide referral does not meet generally accepted standards of dental care;
- (x) Failure of a dental hygienist to recommend to any patient that such patient be examined by a dentist or failure of a dental hygienist to refer a patient to a dentist when the dental hygienist detects a condition that requires care beyond the scope of practicing supervised or unsupervised dental hygiene;
- (y) Engaging in any of the following activities and practices:
 - (I) Willful and repeated ordering or performance, without clinical justification, of demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies;
 - (II) The administration, without clinical justification, of treatment that is demonstrably unnecessary;
 - (III) In addition to the provisions of paragraph (x) of this subsection (1), the failure to obtain consultations or perform referrals when failing to do so is not consistent with the standard of care for the profession;
 - (IV) Ordering or performing, without clinical justification, any service, X ray, or treatment that is contrary to recognized standards of the practice of dentistry or dental hygiene as interpreted by the board;
- (z) Falsifying or repeatedly making incorrect essential entries or repeatedly failing to make essential entries on patient records;
 - (aa) Violating the provisions of section 8-42-101 (3.6), C.R.S.;
 - (bb) Violating the provisions of section 12-35-202 or any rule of the board adopted pursuant to said section;
 - (cc) Administering general anesthesia or deep conscious sedation without obtaining a permit from the board in accordance with section 12-35-107 (1) (h);
 - (dd) Failure to report within ninety days after final disposition to the board the surrender of a license to, or adverse action taken against a license by, a licensing agency in another state, territory, or country, a governmental agency, a law enforcement agency, or a court for an act or conduct that would constitute grounds for discipline pursuant to this article;

(ee) Failure to provide adequate or proper supervision when employing unlicensed persons in a dental or dental hygiene practice;

(ff) Engaging in any conduct that constitutes a crime as defined in title 18, C.R.S., which conduct relates to the licensee's practice as a dentist or dental hygienist;

(gg) Practicing outside the scope of dental or dental hygiene practice;

(hh) Failing to establish and continuously maintain financial responsibility as required by section 13-64-301, C.R.S.;

(ii) Advertising or otherwise holding oneself out to the public as practicing a dental specialty in which the dentist has not successfully completed the education specified for the dental specialty as defined by the American dental association.

(2) Any person whose license to practice is revoked is rendered ineligible to apply for any license under this article for at least two years after the date of revocation or surrender of the license. Any subsequent application for licensure shall be treated as an application for a new license.

(3) Any member of the board or professional review committee authorized by the board, any member of the board's or professional review committee's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board or committee, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board or committee member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

(4) The discipline of a licensee by another state, territory, or country shall be deemed the equivalent of unprofessional conduct under this article; except that this subsection (4) shall apply only to discipline that is based upon an act or omission in such other state, territory, or country that is defined substantially the same as unprofessional conduct pursuant to this article.

(5) (a) Nothing in this section shall be construed to deprive any dental patient of the right to choose or replace any professionally recognized restorative material, nor to permit disciplinary action against a dentist solely for removing or placing any professionally recognized restorative material.

(b) Nothing in paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) shall be construed to prevent disciplinary action against a dentist for practicing dentistry in violation of this article.

(6) Complaints relating to the conduct of any dentist or dental hygienist shall be in writing and may be made by any person and, if so made, shall be signed by such person or may be initiated by the board on its own motion. The dentist or dental hygienist complained of shall be given notice of such complaint.

(7) (a) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a person licensed to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state is unable to practice dentistry or dental hygiene with reasonable skill and safety to patients, because of a physical or mental disability or because of excessive use of any habit-forming drug or substance or controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., the board may require such licensed dentist or dental hygienist to submit to mental or physical examinations by a qualified professional designated by the board.

(b) Upon the failure of such licensed dentist or dental hygienist to submit to such mental or physical examinations, unless the failure is due to circumstances beyond the dentist's or dental hygienist's control, the board may suspend such dentist's or dental hygienist's license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state until such time as the dentist or dental hygienist submits to the examinations.

(c) Every person licensed to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state shall be deemed, by so practicing or by applying for a renewal of the person's license to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in this state, to have given consent to submit to mental or physical examinations when directed in writing by the board, and further to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining qualified professional's testimony or examination reports on the ground of privileged communication.

(d) The results of any mental or physical examination ordered by the board shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than before the board.

(e) Investigations, examinations, hearings, meetings, or any other proceedings of the board conducted pursuant to this section shall be exempt from the provisions of any law requiring that proceedings of the board be conducted publicly or that the minutes or records of the board with respect to action of the board taken pursuant to this section are open to public inspection; except that the final action of the board taken pursuant to this section shall be open to the public.

(f) If an investigation discloses an instance of conduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal board action and should be dismissed, but in which the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern shall be sent to the licensee against whom the complaint was made. The person making the complaint shall be sent a notice that a letter of concern has been issued by the board.

(g) The board may include, in any disciplinary order that allows the dentist or dental hygienist to continue to practice, such conditions as the board may deem appropriate to assure that the dentist or dental hygienist is physically, mentally, and otherwise qualified to practice dentistry or dental hygiene in accordance with generally accepted professional standards of practice. Such an order may include any or all of the following:

(I) Submission by the licensee to such examinations as the board may order to determine the licensee's physical or mental condition or professional qualifications;

(II) The taking by the licensee of such therapy, courses of training, or education as may be needed to correct deficiencies found by the board or by such examinations;

(III) The review or supervision of the licensee's practice as may be necessary to determine its quality and to correct any deficiencies;

(IV) The imposition of restrictions on the licensee's practice to assure that such practice does not exceed the limits of the licensee's capabilities.

(8) (a) If a professional review committee is established pursuant to this section to investigate complaints against a person licensed to practice dentistry under this article, the committee shall include in its membership at least three persons licensed to practice dentistry under this article, but such committee may be authorized to act only by:

(I) The board; or

(II) A society or an association of persons licensed to practice dentistry under this article whose membership includes not less than one-third of the persons licensed to practice dentistry under this article residing in this state if the licensee whose services are the subject of review is a member of such society or association.

(b) Any member of the board or a professional review committee authorized by the board and any witness or consultant appearing before the board or such professional review committee shall be immune from suit in any civil action brought by a licensee who is the subject of a professional review proceeding if such member, witness, or consultant acts in good faith within the scope of the function of the board or such committee, has made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which such member, witness, or consultant acts, and acts in the reasonable belief that the action taken by such member, witness, or consultant is warranted by the facts. The immunity provided by this paragraph (b) shall extend to the members of an authorized professional review committee of a society or an association of persons licensed pursuant to this article and witnesses or consultants appearing before such committee if such committee is authorized to act as provided in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (8).

(9) A professional review committee of a society or an association of persons licensed pursuant to this article shall:

(a) Notify the board within sixty days after the review committee analyzes care provided by a licensee and determines that such care may not meet generally accepted standards or has otherwise violated any provision of this article. Such care may be subject to disciplinary action by the board.

(b) Allow a periodic audit of records of the review committee to be performed by the board or designee of the board who shall be a licensed or retired dentist from any state. Such audit shall be conducted no more than twice annually. If any pattern of behavior of a licensee is identified that may constitute reasonable grounds to believe there has been a violation of this article, all relevant records of the review committee shall be subject to a subpoena issued by the board.

(10) The proceedings and records of a review committee shall be held in confidence and shall not be subject to discovery or introduction into evidence in any civil action against a dentist arising out of the matters that are the subject of evaluation and review by such committee. However, records of closed proceedings and investigations shall be available to the particular licensee under review and the complainant involved in the proceedings. No person who was in attendance at a meeting of such committee shall be permitted or required to testify in any such civil action as to any evidence or other matters produced or presented during the proceedings of such committee or as to any findings, recommendations, evaluations, opinions, or other actions of such committee or any members thereof. However, information, documents, or records otherwise available from original sources are not to be construed as immune from discovery or use in any such civil action merely because they were presented during proceedings of such committee, and any documents or records that have been presented to the review committee by any witness shall be returned to the witness, if requested by the witness or if ordered to be produced by a court in any action, with copies thereof to be retained by the committee at its discretion. Any person who testifies before such committee or who is a member of such committee shall not be prevented from testifying as to matters within such person's knowledge, but the person shall not be asked about his or her testimony before such a committee or opinions he or she formed as a result of said committee hearings.

(11) If the board finds the charges proven and orders that discipline be imposed, it may also order the licensee to take such courses of training or education as may be needed to correct deficiencies found as a result of the hearing.

(12) (a) On and after January 1, 2005, the chairperson of the board shall divide those members of the board other than the chairperson into two panels of six members each.

(b) Each panel shall act as both an inquiry panel and a hearing panel. Members of the board may be reassigned from one panel to the other by the chairperson. The chairperson may be a member of both panels, but in no event shall the chairperson or any other member who has considered a complaint as a member of a panel acting as an inquiry panel take any part in the consideration of a formal complaint involving the same matter.

(c) All matters referred to one panel for investigation shall be heard, if referred for formal hearing, by the other panel or a committee of such panel. However, in its discretion, either inquiry panel may elect to refer a case for formal hearing to a qualified administrative law judge in lieu of a hearing panel of the board for an initial decision pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(d) The initial decision of an administrative law judge may be reviewed pursuant to section 24-4-105 (14) and (15), C.R.S., by the filing of exception to the initial decision with the hearing panel that would have heard the case if it had not been referred to an administrative law judge or by review upon the motion of such hearing panel. The respondent or the board's counsel shall file such exception.

(e) An investigation shall be under the supervision of the panel to which the investigation is assigned. The person making such investigation shall report the results of the investigation to the assigning panel for appropriate action.

(13) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(14) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (14), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this part 1 have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (15) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (15) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (15). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (15) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (15) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 1, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (15), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(16) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 1, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 1, any order issued pursuant to this part 1, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 1, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(17) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(18) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-35-130.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-129 is similar to § 12-35-118 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, and former § 12-35-118 is similar to repealed laws antedated to CSA, C. 52, § 12, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

"Suspension" vs. "revocation" construed. Suspension means a temporary interruption of a privilege while revocation means a permanent cancellation of a privilege. Suspension is a lesser sanction than revocation because a suspended license remains viable, although withheld, during the suspension. Bassett v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 727 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1986).

Statute does not restrict time period for revoked licensee to apply for a new license. The "Dental Practice Law" does not contain a provision restricting the time period in which a revoked licensee may apply for a new license and, therefore, board exceeded its statutory authority by revoking dentist's license for a fixed period of time. Bassett v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 727 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1986).

Failure to pass all parts of required examination renders a person unqualified to practice dentistry. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Major, 996 P.2d 246 (Colo. App. 1999).

The federal Americans with Disabilities Act does not require the issuance of a license to a person who is otherwise unqualified to practice dentistry. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Major, 996 P.2d 246 (Colo. App. 1999).

Unprofessional conduct means that which is by general opinion considered to be grossly unprofessional because immoral or dishonorable, as distinguished from a mere violation of a code of professional ethics prescribed by a board of health. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932).

Evidence insufficient to support finding of "unprofessional conduct" by reason of abandonment. Lee v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 654 P.2d 839 (Colo. 1982).

"Gross incompetence" construed. The term "gross incompetence", in the context of dentistry, connotes such an extreme deficiency on the part of a dentist in the basic knowledge and skill necessary to dental diagnosis and treatment that one may reasonably question his ability to practice dentistry at the threshold level of professional competence. Lee v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 654 P.2d 839 (Colo. 1982).

Evidence insufficient to support finding of "gross incompetence". Lee v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 654 P.2d 839 (Colo. 1982).

Evidence sufficient to support finding of "gross incompetence". Bassett v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 727 P.2d 864 (Colo. App. 1986) (decided under law in effect prior to 1986 repeal and reenactment of subsection (1)).

"Negligent malpractice" construed. In the case of dentistry, the phrase "negligent malpractice" means the failure of a dentist to exercise that degree of knowledge, skill and care used by other dentists engaging in the same type of practice in the same or a similar community. Lee v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 654 P.2d 839 (Colo. 1982).

Evidence sufficient to support finding of "negligent malpractice". Lee v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 654 P.2d 839 (Colo. 1982).

"Abandonment" construed. In the context of former subsection (2)(s) (now subsection (1)(w)), "abandonment" connotes an unjustified renunciation by the dentist of his professional relationship with the patient and a repudiation of his responsibility for the patient's condition. This type of conduct generally involves a higher degree of culpability than the failure to use reasonable care associated with substandard treatment. Lee v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 654 P.2d 839 (Colo. 1982).

Dentists, although licensed, who engage in the practice of their profession as employees of a dental corporation which has been ousted from practice in the state, held guilty of gross violation of their professional duties. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932).

It was held that a complaint to revoke a dentist's license, alleging generally gross violation of professional duty, might destroy itself by specifying a particular act in support of the charge which appears on its face to be innocent, because in such a case the general allegation might have yielded to the specific, and the complaint would have been demurrable on jurisdictional grounds. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dis-

A pattern of record-keeping in which the dentist licensee repeatedly makes incorrect critical entries or regularly omits essential entries concerning patients may constitute a basis for disciplinary action under this section. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Micheli, 928 P.2d 839 (Colo. App. 1996).

Record-keeping that is significant in terms of a patient's care and treatment but not characterized by falsity or repetitiveness may be addressed under former subsection (1)(j) (now subsection (1)(k)), while record-keeping that is characterized by falsity or by repetitiveness can be properly addressed under former subsection (1)(y) (now subsection (1)(z)). State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Micheli, 928 P.2d 839 (Colo. App. 1996).

Public interest prohibiting fee splitting, as expressed in subsection (1)(v), outweighs any private interests in enforcing the payment terms of agreement in which fees payable to defendants were a direct percentage of fees paid for dental services. Although voiding the contract works some degree of inequity upon defendants, they are not unreasonably prejudiced, as the law likely permits them to recover the reasonable value of the services they have provided. Mason v. Orthodontic Ctrs. of Colo., 516 F. Supp. 2d 1205 (D. Colo. 2007).

Judicial review of board orders in disciplinary proceedings was specifically provided for in former subsection (3), which was repealed in 1977. Cross v. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 37 Colo. App. 504, 552 P.2d 38 (1976).

12-35-130. Review of board action. (1) The court of appeals, by appropriate proceedings under section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S., may review any final action of the board to:

- (a) Deny or refuse to issue or renew a license;
- (b) Suspend a license;
- (c) Revoke a license;
- (d) Censure a licensee;
- (e) Issue a letter of admonition to a licensee;
- (f) Place a licensee on probation;
- (g) Issue a reprimand to a licensee; or
- (h) Issue an order to cease and desist.

(2) The provisions of this section apply to a license issued to a dentist or dental hygienist.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-130 is similar to § 12-35-115 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Supreme court may not act as licensing board. It is not within the scope of judicial review for the supreme court to act as a professional licensing board. In re Maul v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 668 P.2d 933 (Colo. 1983).

This section guarantees a hearing to every aggrieved applicant. Colo. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Schroeder, 174 Colo. 343, 483 P.2d 970 (1971).

Board's participation with hearing officer violates practitioner's protections. Where the board participates jointly with the hearing officer in conducting the proceedings involving a practitioner, in using the hearing officer as its legal advisor during its deliberations, and in entering the initial fact-finding decision, the board violates the statutory provisions of this article, and the practitioner is not required to demonstrate any prejudice to him as a result of these statutory violations. In re Maul v. State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs, 668 P.2d 933 (Colo. 1983).

12-35-131. Use of forged or invalid diploma or certificate. It is unlawful for any person to use or attempt to use as his or her own a diploma of a dental college or school, or a license or license renewal certificate, of any other person, or to use or attempt to use a forged diploma, license, license renewal certificate, or identification. It is also unlawful for any person to file with the board a forged document in response to a request by the board for documentation of an applicant's qualifications for licensure.

12-35-132. Sale of forged or invalid diploma or license certificate. (1) It is unlawful to sell or offer to sell a diploma conferring a dental or dental hygiene degree or a license or license renewal certificate granted pursuant to this article or prior dental practice laws, or to procure such diploma or license or license renewal certificate:

(a) With the intent that it be used as evidence of the right to practice dentistry or dental hygiene by a person other than the one upon whom it was conferred or to whom such license or license renewal certificate was granted; or

(b) With fraudulent intent to alter the document and use or attempt to use it when it is so altered.

12-35-133. Employment of unlicensed person by dentist - penalty. (1) Every duly licensed dentist who uses the services of any unlicensed person for the purpose of constructing, altering, repairing, or duplicating any denture, plate, partial plate, bridge, splint, or orthodontic or prosthetic appliance shall be required to furnish such unlicensed person with a written laboratory work order in such form as shall be approved by the board, which form shall be dated and signed by such dentist for each separate and individual piece of work. Said laboratory work order shall be made in duplicate form, the duplicate copy to be retained by the dentist in a permanent file for a period of two years and the original copy to be retained in a permanent file for a period of two years by the unlicensed person to whom it was furnished, and both of such permanent files shall be open to inspection at any reasonable time by the board or its duly constituted agent.

(2) Failure of the dentist to keep such permanent records of laboratory work orders shall subject such dentist to disciplinary action as deemed appropriate by the board.

(3) Failure of any such unlicensed person to have in the person's possession a laboratory work order signed by a licensed dentist, or a written work order signed by the initial recipient of the laboratory work order that is identifiable with each denture, plate, partial plate, bridge, splint, or orthodontic or prosthetic appliance in the possession of such unlicensed person, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-35-135 is similar to § 12-35-132 as it existed prior to the 2003 repeal of article 35 of title 12, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

In a suit for an injunction under this section against the owner of a dental laboratory, where there was an issue as to whether the person who committed the alleged violation was the owner or his agent, it made no difference as far as the injunction was concerned, because the injunction could not have been avoided even had the violator been an agent. People ex rel. Dunbar v. Kogul, 179 Colo. 394, 501 P.2d 738 (1972).

12-35-136. Attorney general shall represent board and members. The attorney general of the state of Colorado shall counsel with and advise the board in connection with its duties and responsibilities under this article. If litigation is brought against the board or any of its individual members in connection with actions taken by it or them under the provisions of this article and such actions are free of malice, fraud, or willful neglect of duty, the attorney general shall defend such litigation without cost to the board or to any individual member thereof.

12-35-137. Independent advertising or marketing agent - injunctive proceedings. (1) Notwithstanding section 12-35-129 (1) (t), a licensed dentist or dental hygienist may employ an independent advertising or marketing agent to provide advertising or marketing services on the dentist's or dental hygienist's behalf, and the same shall not be considered unprofessional conduct.

(2) The board shall not have the authority to regulate, directly or indirectly, advertising or marketing activities of independent advertising or marketing agents except as provided in this section. The board may, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, apply for an injunction in district court to enjoin any independent advertising or marketing agent from the use of advertising or marketing that the court finds on the basis of the evidence presented by the board to be misleading, deceptive, or false; except that a licensed dentist or dental hygienist shall not be subject to discipline by the board, injunction, or prosecution in the courts under this article or any other law for advertising or marketing by an independent advertising or marketing agent if the factual information that the licensed dentist or dental hygienist provides to the independent advertising or marketing agent is accurate and not misleading, deceptive, or false.

12-35-138. Dentist peer health assistance fund. (1) (a) Effective July 1, 2004, as a condition of renewal in this state, every renewal applicant shall pay to the administering entity that has been selected by the board pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) an amount not to exceed fifty-nine dollars per year, which maximum amount may be adjusted on January 1, 2005, and annually thereafter by the board to reflect changes in the United States bureau of statistics consumer price index for the Denver-Boulder consolidated metropolitan statistical area for all urban consumers or goods, or its successor index. Such fee shall be used to support designated providers that have been selected by the board to provide assistance to dentists needing help in dealing with physical, emotional, or psychological problems that may be detrimental to their ability to practice dentistry. Such fee shall not exceed one hundred dollars per year per licensee.

(b) The board shall select one or more peer health assistance programs as designated providers. To be eligible for designation by the board, a peer health assistance program shall:

(I) Provide for the education of dentists with respect to the recognition and prevention of physical, emotional, and psychological problems and provide for intervention when necessary or under circumstances that may be established by rules promulgated by the board;

(II) Offer assistance to a dentist in identifying physical, emotional, or psychological problems;

(III) Evaluate the extent of physical, emotional, or psychological problems and refer the dentist for appropriate treatment;

(IV) Monitor the status of a dentist who has been referred for treatment;

(V) Provide counseling and support for the dentist and for the family of any dentist referred for treatment;

(VI) Agree to receive referrals from the board;

(VII) Agree to make its services available to all licensed Colorado dentists.

(c) The administering entity shall be a qualified, nonprofit private foundation that is qualified under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and shall be dedicated to providing support for charitable, benevolent, educational, and scientific purposes that are related to dentistry, dental education, dental research and science, and other dental charitable purposes.

(d) The responsibilities of the administering entity shall be to:

(I) Collect the required annual payments, directly or through the board;

(II) Verify to the board, in a manner acceptable to the board, the names of all dentist applicants who have paid the fee set by the board;

(III) Distribute the moneys collected, less expenses, to the designated provider, as directed by the board;

(IV) Provide an annual accounting to the board of all amounts collected, expenses incurred, and amounts disbursed; and

(V) Post a surety performance bond in an amount specified by the board to secure performance under the requirements of this section. The administering entity may recover the actual administrative costs incurred in performing its duties under this section in an amount not to exceed ten percent of the total amount collected.

(e) .The board, at its discretion, may collect the required annual payments payable to the administering entity for the benefit of the administering entity and shall transfer all such payments to the administering entity. All required annual payments collected or due to the board for each fiscal year shall be deemed custodial funds that are not subject to appropriation by the general assembly, and such funds shall not constitute state fiscal year spending for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.

(2) (a) Any dentist who is a referred participant in a peer health assistance program shall enter into a written agreement with the board prior to such dentist becoming a participant in such program. Such agreement shall contain specific requirements and goals to be met by the participant, including the conditions under which the program will be successfully completed or terminated, and a provision that a failure to comply with such requirements and goals shall be promptly reported to the board and that such failure shall result in disciplinary action by the board.

(b) Notwithstanding section 12-35-129 and section 24-4-104, C.R.S., the board may immediately suspend the license of any dentist who is referred to a peer health assistance program by the board and who fails to attend or to complete such program. If such dentist objects to such suspension, he or she may submit a written request to the board for a formal hearing on such suspension within ten days after receiving notice of such suspension, and the board shall grant such request. In such hearing the dentist shall bear the burden of proving that his or her license should not be suspended.

(c) Any dentist who is accepted into a peer health assistance program in lieu of disciplinary action by the board shall affirm that, to the best of his or her knowledge, information, and belief, he or she knows of no instance in which he or she has violated this article or the rules of the board, except in those instances affected by the dentist's physical, emotional, or psychological problems.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create any liability on behalf of the board or the state of Colorado for the actions of the board members in making grants to peer assistance programs, and no civil action may be brought or maintained against the board or the state for an injury alleged to have been the result of the activities of any state-funded peer assistance program or the result of an act or omission of a dentist participating in or referred by a state-funded peer assistance program. However, the state shall remain liable under the provisions of the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of title 24, C.R.S., if an injury alleged to have been the result of an act or omission of a dentist participating in or referred by a state-funded peer assistance program occurred while such dentist was performing duties as an employee of the state.

(4) The board is authorized to promulgate rules necessary to implement the provisions of this section.

SAFETY TRAINING FOR UNLICENSED X-RAY TECHNICIANS

Cross references: For similar provisions in article 32 of this title regulating podiatrists, see part 2 of said article; for similar provisions in article 33 of this title regulating chiropractors, see part 2 of said article; for similar provisions in article 36 of this title regulating medical practitioners, see part 2 of said article.

12-35-201. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that public exposure to the hazards of ionizing radiation used for diagnostic purposes should be minimized wherever possible. Accordingly, the general assembly finds, determines, and declares that for any dentist or dental hygienist to allow an untrained person to operate a machine source of ionizing radiation, including without limitation a device commonly known as an “X-ray machine”, or to administer such radiation to a patient for diagnostic purposes is a threat to the public health and safety.

(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that dentists and dental hygienists utilizing unlicensed persons in their practices provide those persons with a minimum level of education and training before allowing them to operate machine sources of ionizing radiation; however, it is not the general assembly’s intent to discourage education and training beyond this minimum. It is further the intent of the general assembly that established minimum training and education requirements correspond as closely as possible to the requirements of each particular work setting as determined by the state board of dental examiners pursuant to this part 2.

(3) The general assembly seeks to ensure, and accordingly declares its intent, that in promulgating the rules authorized by this part 2, the board will make every effort, consistent with its other statutory duties, to avoid creating a shortage of qualified individuals to operate machine sources of ionizing radiation for beneficial medical purposes in any area of the state.

12-35-202. Board authorized to issue rules. (1) (a) The state board of dental examiners shall adopt rules prescribing minimum standards for the qualifications, education, and training of unlicensed persons operating machine sources of ionizing radiation and administering such radiation to patients for diagnostic medical use. No licensed dentist or dental hygienist shall allow any unlicensed person to operate any machine source of ionizing radiation or to administer such radiation to any patient unless such person has met the standards then in effect under rules adopted pursuant to this section. The board may adopt rules allowing a grace period in which newly hired operators of machine sources of ionizing radiation shall receive the training required pursuant to this section.

(b) For purposes of this part 2, “unlicensed person” means a person who does not hold a current and active license entitling the person to practice dentistry or dental hygiene under the provisions of this article.

(2) The board shall seek the assistance of licensed dentists or licensed dental hygienists in developing and formulating the rules promulgated pursuant to this section.

(3) The required number of hours of training and education for all unlicensed persons operating machine sources of ionizing radiation and administering such radiation to patients shall be established by the board by rule. This standard shall apply to all persons in dental settings other than hospitals and similar facilities licensed by the department of public health and environment pursuant to section 25-1.5-103, C.R.S. Such training and education may be obtained through programs approved by the appropriate authority of any state or through equivalent programs and training experience, including on-the-job training as determined by the board.

12-35.5-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that it is in the interest of the public health, safety, and welfare to require registration of massage therapists. Because proper and safe massage therapy is of statewide concern, this article is deemed to be an exercise of the police powers of the state.

(2) The general assembly further declares that the practice of massage therapy by any person not registered pursuant to this article is adverse to the best interests of the people of this state. It is not, however, the intent of the general assembly in enacting this article to prevent, restrict, or inhibit the practice of massage therapy by any duly registered person.

12-35.5-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Advertise” means to publish, display, or disseminate information and includes, but is not limited to, the issuance of any card, sign, or direct mail, or causing or permitting any sign or marking on or in any building or structure or in any newspaper, magazine, or directory, or any announcement or display via any televised, computerized, electronic, or telephonic networks or media.

(2) “Applicant” means a person applying for massage therapy registration.

(3) “Approved massage school” means:

(a) A massage therapy educational school that has a valid certificate of approval from the division of private and occupational schools in accordance with the provisions of article 59 of this title;

(b) A massage therapy educational program certified by the Colorado community college system; or

(c) A massage therapy educational entity or program that is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency.

(4) “Compensation” means something of value or benefit, whether in cash, in kind, or in any other form.

(5) “Director” means the director of the division.

(6) “Division” means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(7) “Massage” or “massage therapy” means a system of structured touch, palpation, or movement of the soft tissue of another person’s body in order to enhance or restore the general health and well-being of the recipient. Such system includes, but is not limited to, techniques such as effleurage, commonly called stroking or gliding; petrissage, commonly called kneading; tapotement or percussion; friction; vibration; compression; passive and active stretching within the normal anatomical range of movement; hydromassage; and thermal massage. Such techniques may be applied with or without the aid of lubricants, salt or herbal preparations, water, heat, or a massage device that mimics or enhances the actions possible by human hands. “Massage” or “massage therapy” does not include therapeutic exercise, intentional joint mobilization or manipulation, or any of the methods described in section 12-35.5-110 (1) (e).

(8) “Massage therapist” means an individual registered by this state to engage in the practice of massage therapy. The terms “masseuse” and “masseur” are synonymous with the term “massage therapist”.

(9) "Person" means a natural person only.

(10) "Registrant" means a massage therapist registered pursuant to this article.

Source: L. 2008: Entire article added, p. 1982, § 2, effective July 1.

12-35.5-104. Use of massage titles restricted. Only a person registered under this article as a massage therapist may use the titles "massage therapist", "registered massage therapist", "massage practitioner", "masseuse", "masseur", the letters "M.T." or "R.M.T.", or any other generally accepted terms, letters, or figures that indicate that the person is a massage therapist.

Source: L. 2008: Entire article added, p. 1983, § 2, effective July 1.

12-35.5-105. Limitations on authority. (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed as authorizing a massage therapist to perform any of the following acts:

- (a) The practice of medicine pursuant to article 36 of this title;
- (b) The practice of physical therapy pursuant to article 41 of this title;
- (c) The practice of chiropractic pursuant to article 33 of this title; or
- (d) Any other forms of healing or healing arts not authorized by this article.

Source: L. 2008: Entire article added, p. 1983, § 2, effective July 1.

12-35.5-106. Registration required. On or after April 1, 2009, except as otherwise provided in this article, a person in this state who practices massage therapy or who represents oneself as being able to practice massage therapy must possess a valid registration issued by the director pursuant to this article and rules promulgated pursuant to this article.

Source: L. 2008: Entire article added, p. 1983, § 2, effective July 1.

12-35.5-107. Registration - reciprocity - denial of registration application. (1) Every applicant for a registration to practice massage therapy shall:

- (a) Attain a degree, diploma, or otherwise successfully complete a massage therapy program that consists of at least five hundred total hours of course work and clinical work from an approved massage school;
- (b) Pass one of the following examinations:
 - (I) The massage and bodywork licensing examination offered by the federation of state massage therapy boards;
 - (II) A national certification examination offered by the national certification board for therapeutic massage and bodywork; or
 - (III) An examination approved by the director;
- (c) Submit an application in the form and manner specified by the director;
- (d) Pay a fee in an amount determined by the director; and
- (e) Submit to a criminal history record check in the form and manner as described in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) In addition to the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, each applicant shall have his or her fingerprints taken by a local law enforcement agency for the purpose of obtaining a fingerprint-based criminal history record check. The applicant is required to submit payment by certified check or money order for the fingerprints and for the actual costs of the record check at the time the fingerprints are submitted to the Colorado bureau of investigation. Upon receipt of fingerprints and receipt of the payment for costs, the Colorado bureau of investigation shall conduct a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation and shall forward the results of the criminal history record check to the director.

(3) After an applicant has fulfilled the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the director shall issue a registration to the applicant.

(4) For a period of one year after the date that applications for registration are made available, the director may issue a registration to a person who submits the application, fee, and criminal history record check pursuant to paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of subsection (1) of this section and who:

(a) Has at least five years of professional experience practicing massage therapy and has completed at least three hundred hours of massage training; or

(b) Meets one of the following qualifications:

(I) The applicant has attained a degree, diploma, or otherwise successfully completed a massage therapy program that consists of at least five hundred total hours of course work and clinical work from an approved massage school; or

(II) The applicant has passed an examination described in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section.

(5) The director shall issue a registration to an applicant who otherwise meets the qualifications set forth in this article and who submits satisfactory proof and certifies under penalty of perjury that the applicant currently possesses an unrestricted license or registration, in good standing, to practice massage therapy under the laws of another state or territory of the United States or a foreign country if:

(a) The director determines that the qualifications for massage therapy licensure or registration in the other state, territory, or foreign country are substantially equivalent to those required by this section;

(b) The applicant submits proof of experience and competency on a form determined by the director;

(c) The applicant submits to a criminal history record check pursuant to subsection (2) of this section; and

(d) The director reviews any disciplinary actions taken against the applicant.

(6) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, the director may deny a registration if the applicant has committed any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-35.5-111 or if the director determines, subsequent to the criminal history record check, that the applicant was convicted of or plead guilty to a charge of unlawful sexual behavior as defined in section 16-22-102, C.R.S., or any prostitution-related offense, whether or not the act was committed in Colorado.

12-35.5-108. Registration expiration - effect - renewal - reinstatement - penalty.

(1) Registrations issued pursuant to this article shall be valid for the period of time established by the director. Registrations shall be renewed in accordance with the schedule set forth by the director.

(2) A registration not renewed within the time period specified in the schedule established by the director shall be deemed expired. A person in possession of an expired registration shall not practice massage therapy until he or she reinstates such registration.

(3) The director shall establish application forms and fee amounts for renewal of registrations and reinstatement of expired registrations. A person renewing or reinstating a registration shall submit an application in the form and manner set forth by the director and shall pay a fee in an amount set forth by the director.

12-35.5-109. Fees. All fees collected pursuant to this article shall be determined, collected, and appropriated in the manner set forth in section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and periodically adjusted in accordance with section 24-75-402, C.R.S. The fees shall be adequate to cover the direct and indirect expenses incurred for implementation of this article.

12-35.5-110. Scope of article - exclusions - authority for clinical setting. (1) Nothing in this article prohibits or requires a massage therapy registration for any of the following:

(a) The practice of massage therapy that is a part of a program of study by students enrolled in a massage therapy program at an approved massage therapy school. Students enrolled in such programs shall be identified as "student massage therapists" and shall not hold themselves out as registered massage therapists. Student massage therapists shall practice massage therapy only under the immediate supervision of a massage therapist holding a valid and current registration. Faculty members teaching nonclinical aspects of massage therapy shall not be required to be registered massage therapists.

(b) The practice of massage therapy by a person employed by the United States government or any federal governmental entity while acting in the course and scope of such employment;

(c) The practice of massage therapy by a person who is a resident of another state and who is in Colorado temporarily under one of the following circumstances:

(I) The person is traveling with and administering massage therapy to members of a professional or amateur sports organization, dance troupe, or other such athletic organization;

(II) The person provides massage therapy, without compensation, at a public athletic event such as the olympic games, special olympics, youth olympics, or marathons, if the massage therapy is provided no earlier than forty-eight hours prior to the commencement of the event and no later than twenty-four hours after the conclusion of the event;

(III) The person is part of an emergency response team or is otherwise working with or for disaster relief officials to provide massage therapy in connection with a disaster situation; or

(IV) The person is participating as a student in or instructor of an educational program, if:

(A) The program does not exceed sixteen days in duration; or

(B) The program exceeds sixteen days in duration and the person obtains a grant of an extension of time from the director prior to the seventeenth day;

(d) The person provides massage therapy to members of the person's immediate family;

(e) The person provides alternative methods that employ contact and does not hold himself or herself out as a massage therapist. For the purposes of this paragraph (e), "alternative methods that employ contact" include, but are not limited to:

(I) Practices in which only the soft tissue of a person's hands, feet, or ears are manipulated;

(II) Practices using touch, words, and directed movements to deepen a person's awareness of movement patterns in his or her body, such as the Feldenkrais method, the Trager approach, and body-mind centering;

(III) Practices using touch to affect the human energy systems, such as reiki, shiatsu, and Asian or polarity bodywork therapy;

(IV) Structural integration practices such as Rolfing and Hellerwork; and

(V) The process of muscle activation techniques.

(f) (I) The practice of animal massage if the person performing massage on an animal:

(A) Does not prescribe drugs, perform surgery, or diagnose medical conditions; and

(B) Has earned a degree or certificate in animal massage from a school approved by the private occupational school division of the Colorado department of higher education under article 59 of this title, an out-of-state school offering an animal massage program with an accreditation recognized by the United States department of education, or a school that is exempt under section 12-59-104.

(II) As used in this paragraph (f), "animal massage" means a method of treating the body of an animal for remedial or hygienic purposes through techniques that include rubbing, stroking, kneading, or tapping with the hand or an instrument or both, which techniques may be applied with or without the aid of a massage device that mimics the actions possible using human hands.

12-35.5-111. Grounds for discipline - definitions. (1) The director is authorized to take disciplinary action pursuant to section 12-35.5-112 against any person who has:

(a) Advertised, represented, or held himself or herself out as a registered massage therapist after the expiration, suspension, or revocation of his or her registration;

(b) Engaged in a sexual act with a client while a therapeutic relationship exists. For the purposes of this paragraph (b):

(I) "Sexual act" means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(II) "Therapeutic relationship" means the period of time commencing with the initial session of massage and ending upon written termination of the relationship from either party.

(c) Failed to refer a patient to a general health care practitioner when the services required by the client are beyond the level of competence of the massage therapist or beyond the scope of massage practice;

(d) Falsified information in any application or attempted to obtain or obtained a registration by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(e) Fraudulently obtained or furnished a massage therapy registration; a renewal or reinstatement of a registration, diploma, certificate, or record; or aided and abetted any such acts;

(f) A dependence on or addiction to alcohol or any habit-forming drug or abuses or engages in the habitual or excessive use of any such habit-forming drug or any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102, C.R.S., but the director may take into account the registrant's participation in a rehabilitation program when considering disciplinary action;

(g) A physical or mental condition or disability that renders the registrant unable to provide massage therapy with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health or safety of clients receiving massage services;

(h) Refused to submit to a physical or mental examination when so ordered by the director pursuant to section 12-35.5-114;

(i) Failed to notify the director, in writing, of the entry of a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction in favor of any party and against the licensee for malpractice of massage therapy or any settlement by the licensee in response to charges or allegations of malpractice of massage therapy. Such notice shall be given within ninety days after the entry of the judgment or settlement and, in the case of a judgment, shall contain the name of the court, the case number, and the names of all parties to the action.

(j) Been convicted of a felony or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or committed any act specified in this section. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of a conviction or plea shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, the director shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(k) Advertised, represented, held himself or herself out in any manner, or used any designation in connection with his or her name as a massage therapist without being registered or exempt pursuant to this article;

(l) Violated or aided or abetted a violation of any provision of this article, any rule adopted under this article, or any lawful order of the director; or

(m) Been convicted of or pled guilty to a charge of unlawful sexual behavior as defined in section 16-22-102, C.R.S., or any prostitution-related offense, whether or not the act was committed in Colorado.

12-35.5-112. Disciplinary proceedings - injunctions - investigations - hearings - judicial review. (1) The director may revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to renew a registration of or place on probation a registrant in accordance with the disciplinary proceedings described in this section upon proof that the person committed a violation of section 12-35.5-111.

(2) The director may request the attorney general to seek an injunction, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to enjoin any person from committing an act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this subsection (2), the attorney general shall not be required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(3) (a) The director is authorized to investigate, hold hearings, and gather evidence in all matters related to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the director pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and this article.

(b) The director or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the director. The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct hearings, take evidence, and make findings and report them to the director.

(c) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or registrant resides or conducts business, upon application by the director with notice to the subpoenaed person or registrant, may issue to the person or registrant an order requiring that person or registrant to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(4) (a) The director, the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts.

(b) A person who in good faith makes a complaint or report or participates in an investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result from such participation.

(5) An employer of a massage therapist shall report to the director any disciplinary action taken against the massage therapist or the resignation of such massage therapist in lieu of disciplinary action for conduct that violates this article.

(6) On completion of an investigation, the director shall find one of the following:

(a) The complaint is without merit and no further action need be taken with reference thereto;

(b) There is no reasonable cause to warrant further action; or

(c) The complaint discloses misconduct by the registrant that warrants formal action. When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution. Rather, the director shall initiate disciplinary proceedings pursuant to subsection (7) of this section.

(7) (a) A disciplinary proceeding shall be commenced when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that a registrant has committed any act that violates section 12-35.5-111.

(b) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to that article by the director or by an administrative law judge, at the director's discretion.

(c) If, after the hearing, the director finds the charges proven and orders that discipline be imposed, he or she shall also determine the extent of such discipline. The director may revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to renew a registration, or place a registrant on probation.

(d) If the director finds the charges against the registrant proved and orders that discipline be imposed, the director may require, as a condition of reinstatement, that the registrant take therapy or courses of training or education as may be needed to correct any deficiency found.

(8) A final action of the director may be judicially reviewed by the court of appeals in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S., and judicial proceedings for the enforcement of an order of the director may be instituted in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

12-35.5-113. Cease-and-desist orders. (1) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required registration, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(2) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other provision of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (2) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unregistered practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(3) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(4) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(5) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order as provided in subsection (2) of this section.

12-35.5-114. Mental and physical examination of registrants. (1) If the director has reasonable cause to believe that a registrant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, the director may order the registrant to take a mental or physical examination administered by a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director. Refusal by a registrant to submit to a mental or physical examination that has been properly ordered by the director pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, unless due to circumstances beyond the registrant's control, constitutes grounds for discipline pursuant to section 12-35.5-111, and the director may suspend the registrant's registration in accordance with section 12-35.5-112 until the results of the examination are known, and the director has made a determination of the registrant's fitness to practice. The director shall proceed with any such order for examination and determination in a timely manner.

(2) An order to a registrant pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to undergo a mental or physical examination shall contain the basis of the director's reasonable cause to believe that the registrant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For the purposes of any disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article, the registrant shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's testimony or examination reports on the ground that they are privileged communications.

(3) The registrant may submit to the director testimony or examination reports from a physician or other licensed health care professional chosen by the registrant and pertaining to any condition that the director has alleged may preclude the registrant from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. These may be considered by the director in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director.

(4) The results of a mental or physical examination ordered by the director shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the director and shall not be deemed public records nor made available to the public.

12-35.5-116. Professional liability insurance required. It is unlawful for any person to practice massage therapy within this state unless the person purchases and maintains professional liability insurance in an amount not less than fifty thousand dollars per claim with an aggregate liability limit for all claims during the year of three hundred thousand dollars. Professional liability insurance required by this section shall cover all acts within the scope of massage therapy practice as defined by section 12-35.5-103.

12-35.5-118. Local government - regulations - enforcement. (1) No city, county, city and county, or other political subdivision of this state shall enact or enforce any local ordinance that regulates the practice or the profession of massage therapy.

(2) Local government law enforcement agencies may inspect massage therapy registrations and the business premises where massage therapy is practiced for compliance with applicable laws. Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude criminal prosecution for a violation of any criminal law. If such inspection reveals the practice of massage therapy by a person without a valid registration, the person shall be charged with a misdemeanor pursuant to section 12-35.5-115.

ANNOTATION

This article is known as the "medical practice act", Colo. Chiropractic Ass'n v. State, 171 Colo. 395, 467 P.2d 795 (1970).

This article represents the basic law on the healing arts. Colo. Chiropractic Ass'n v. State, 171 Colo. 395, 467 P.2d 795 (1970).

Moreover, this article is the legislative declaration of the prevailing policy of this state in connection with the practice of medicine. Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

Title to former act held sufficient and valid. See Harding v. People, 10 Colo. 387, 15 P. 727 (1887); People ex rel. Colo. Bar Ass'n v. Erbaugh, 42 Colo. 480, 94 P. 349 (1908); People

v. Max, 70 Colo. 100, 198 P. 150 (1921) (cases decided under repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 109, § 1).

Application of article. The supreme court ruled that § 24-4-104 (4), dealing with procedure for issuance, suspension, revocation, or renewal of licenses, was the authority for the state board of medical examiners' summary suspension of a license to practice medicine pending a full hearing, and rejected the view that this article, dealing with medical practice, and § 24-4-103, dealing with rule-making procedure, applied. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. District Court, 191 Colo. 158, 551 P.2d 194 (1976).

12-36-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly declares it to be in the interests of public health, safety, and welfare to enact laws regulating and controlling the practice of the healing arts to the end that the people shall be properly protected against unauthorized, unqualified, and improper practice of the healing arts in this state, and this article shall be construed in conformity with this declaration of purpose.

ANNOTATION

What constitutes the practice of medicine under the Medical Practice Act must be construed in light of the purpose stated in this section. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. McCroskey, 940 P.2d 1044 (Colo. App. 1996).

The board has exclusive jurisdiction to revoke licensure privileges within Colorado regardless of whether the "unprofessional conduct" occurred within or outside of Colorado. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Sullivan, 976 P.2d 885 (Colo. App. 1999).

Applied in Coe v. United States Dist. Court, 676 F.2d 411 (10th Cir. 1982).

12-36-103. Colorado medical board - immunity - subject to termination - repeal of article. (1) (a) (I) There is hereby created the Colorado medical board, referred to in this article as the "board". The board shall consist of sixteen members appointed by the governor and possessing the qualifications specified in this article and as follows:

(A) Eleven physician members;

(B) One member licensed under this article as a physician assistant; and

(C) Four members from the public at large who have no financial or professional association with the medical profession.

(II) The terms of the members of the board shall be four years. For the two physician and one physician assistant appointees added to the board during the calendar year beginning January 1, 2010, the term for one of the physician member appointees shall expire four years after the appointment; the term for the other physician member appointee shall expire three years after the appointment; and the term for the physician assistant appointee shall expire two years after the appointment. Thereafter, the terms of the members of the board shall be four years.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 911, § 12, effective August 6, 2003.)

(2) The board shall be comprised at all times of eight members having the degree of doctor of medicine, three members having the degree of doctor of osteopathy, and one physician assistant, all of whom shall have been licensed in good standing and actively engaged in the practice of their professions in this state for at least three years next preceding their appointments, and four members of the public at large.

(3) If a vacancy in the membership of the board occurs for any cause other than expiration of a term, the governor shall appoint a successor to fill the unexpired portion of the term of the member whose office has been so vacated and shall appoint the new member in the same manner as members for a full term. Members of the board shall remain in office until their successors have been appointed. A member of the board may be removed by the governor for continued neglect of duty, incompetence, or unprofessional or dishonorable conduct.

(4) The board shall elect biennially from its members a president and a vice-president. Meetings of the board or any panel established pursuant to this article shall be held as scheduled by the board in the state of Colorado. Except as provided in section 12-36-118 (6), a majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business. All meetings of the board shall be deemed to have been duly called and regularly held, and all decisions, resolutions, and proceedings of the board shall be deemed to have been duly authorized, unless the contrary be proved.

(5) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1827, § 67, effective August 4, 2004.)

(6) (a) (I) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the Colorado medical board created by this section.

(II) The review required by this subsection (6) shall include an analysis of physician responsibilities related to recommendations for medical marijuana and the provisions of section 25-1.5-106, C.R.S.

(b) This article is repealed, effective July 1, 2019.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "Licensing of Occupations and Professions in Colorado", see 35 Dicta 235 (1958).

Annotator's note. Since § 12-36-103 is similar to repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 109, § 1, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

A point was made that this section was unconstitutional, in that it provides for the appointment of the state board of medical examiners by the governor, whereas, under the provision of § 6 of art. IV, Colo. Const., it is contended the governor should "nominate, and by and with the consent of the senate appoint". People v. Osborne, 7 Colo. 605, 4 P. 1074 (1884).

The constitutional provision was construed as not applicable to offices created by statute to be filled as therein otherwise provided. Brown v. People, 11 Colo. 109, 17 P. 104 (1888).

The general assembly under the police power of the state could create the state board of medical examiners and fix its powers and duties. Smith v. People, 51 Colo. 270, 117 P. 612, 36 L.R.A. (n.s.) 158 (1911).

The police power of the state relates to the preservation and promotion of the health, safety, and morals of the people. Smith v. People, 51 Colo. 270, 117 P. 612, 36 L.R.A. (n.s.) 158 (1911).

The law is settled that the general assembly may control the practice of medicine. Smith v.

Such enactments emanate from that branch of the police power of the state having to do with the protection of the public health. Smith v. People, 51 Colo. 270, 117 P. 612, 36 L.R.A. (n.s.) 158 (1911).

It was held, independent of this, that the office being de jure, one appointed to it was de facto an officer, notwithstanding the mode of appointment may have been unconstitutional. Brown v. People, 11 Colo. 109, 17 P. 104 (1888).

Immunity of members. Members who performed statutory functions, both adjudicatory and prosecutorial in nature, are entitled to the common law absolute immunity from damages liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 which has historically been afforded judges, prosecutors, and other officials involved in the judicial process. Horwitz v. Bd. of Medical Examiners, 822 F.2d 1508 (10th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 964, 108 S. Ct. 453, 98 L. Ed.2d 394 (1987).

Majority of board not needed in disciplinary actions. The bifurcation of disciplinary proceedings, by § 12-36-118, into initial investigations by one panel and, upon recommendation, formal hearings by another panel indicates the general assembly's intent to remove the requirement of four votes, formerly in subsection (4), in order to revoke a license after a formal disci-

Applied in Coe v. United States Dist. Court, 676 F.2d 411 (10th Cir. 1982).

12-36-104. Powers and duties of board. (1) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the board by this article, the board has the following powers and duties to:

(a) Adopt and promulgate, under the provisions of section 24-4-103, C.R.S., such rules and regulations as the board may deem necessary or proper to carry out the provisions and purposes of this article which shall be fair, impartial, and nondiscriminatory;

(b) (I) Make investigations, hold hearings, and take evidence in all matters relating to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties vested in the board.

(II) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(III) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1260), ch. 403, p. 1951, § 16, effective July 1, 2010.)

(d) Repealed.

(e) Aid law enforcement in the enforcement of this article and in the prosecution of all persons, firms, associations, or corporations charged with the violation of any of its provisions.

(2) Repealed.

(3) To facilitate the licensure of qualified applicants and address the unlicensed practice of medicine, the unlicensed practice as a physician assistant, and the unlicensed practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, the president of the board shall establish a licensing panel in accordance with section 12-36-111.3 to perform licensing functions in accordance with this article and review and resolve matters relating to the unlicensed practice of medicine, unlicensed practice as a physician assistant, and unlicensed practice as an anesthesiologist assistant. Two panel members constitute a quorum of the panel. Any action taken by a quorum of the panel constitutes action by the board.

ANNOTATION

This section does not deny due process of law because it creates a tribunal, provides for notice and hearing, for evidence and argument. People v. Max, 70 Colo. 100, 198 P. 150 (1921).

In order to accomplish the purpose of this article, protecting the public against unauthorized, unqualified, and improper practice of the healing arts in this state, the state board of medical examiners must have the discretion to determine the generally accepted standard of medical practice. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. McCroskey, 880 P.2d 1188 (Colo. 1994).

A trial court has no jurisdiction to interfere with officers of the state whose duties are imposed by statute. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. District Court, 138 Colo. 227, 331 P.2d 502 (1958).

Therefore, a district court does not have jurisdiction to prohibit a branch of the executive department such as the state board of medical examiners from carrying out its statutory functions. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. District Court, 138 Colo. 227, 331 P.2d 502 (1958).

This section explicitly allows the board of medical examiners to request and receive complete records of physician review proceedings from a hospital. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Khan, 984 P.2d 670 (Colo. App. 1999).

When read in conjunction with § 12-36-118 (4), this section authorizes the attorney general to issue subpoenas and make investigations before and after the filing of the formal complaint. Norton v. Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 821 P.2d 897 (Colo. App. 1991).

This section authorizes state board of medical examiners to issue subpoenas in connection with any investigation described in § 12-36-118 (4). Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

State board of medical examiners is not required to demonstrate that subpoena duces tecum is justified by more than speculation or conjecture; rather, board is required only to demonstrate that the subpoena was issued for a lawful purpose under the procedures established by this article. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

1995 amendment to § 12-36-118 allows investigation of a physician by the inquiry panel prior to the initiation of the informal complaint procedure and there is nothing in that section that would indicate that the permissible scope of the pre-response investigation excludes the issuance of subpoenas. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Khan, 984 P.2d 670 (Colo. App. 1999).

Probable cause to believe a statutory violation has occurred is not required before issuing an investigative subpoena under this section. Rather, justification for issuance is grounded upon a showing that: (1) the investigation is for a lawfully authorized purpose; (2) the information sought is relevant to the issues being investigated; and (3) the subpoena is sufficiently specific to obtain documents that are adequate but not excessive for the inquiry. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

Subpoena duces tecum issued under this section that required doctor to produce complete office records for all cases in which device was used could not be enforced where board could not produce copy of written complaint and clear exposition of act or omission which, if found to have occurred, would constitute unprofessional conduct. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

12-36-104.5. Limitation on authority. The authority granted the board under the provisions of this article shall not be construed to authorize the board to arbitrate or adjudicate fee disputes between licensees or between a licensee and any other party.

12-36-106. Practice of medicine defined - exemptions from licensing requirements - unauthorized practice by physician assistants and anesthesiologist assistants - penalties - rules. (1) For the purpose of this article, "practice of medicine" means:

(a) Holding out one's self to the public within this state as being able to diagnose, treat, prescribe for, palliate, or prevent any human disease, ailment, pain, injury, deformity, or physical or mental condition, whether by the use of drugs, surgery, manipulation, electricity, telemedicine, the interpretation of tests, including primary diagnosis of pathology specimens, images, or photographs, or any physical, mechanical, or other means whatsoever;

(b) Suggesting, recommending, prescribing, or administering any form of treatment, operation, or healing for the intended palliation, relief, or cure of any physical or mental disease, ailment, injury, condition, or defect of any person;

(c) The maintenance of an office or other place for the purpose of examining or treating persons afflicted with disease, injury, or defect of body or mind;

(d) Using the title M.D., D.O., physician, surgeon, or any word or abbreviation to indicate or induce others to believe that one is licensed to practice medicine in this state and engaged in the diagnosis or treatment of persons afflicted with disease, injury, or defect of body or mind, except as otherwise expressly permitted by the laws of this state enacted relating to the practice of any limited field of the healing arts;

(e) Performing any kind of surgical operation upon a human being; or

(f) The practice of midwifery, except:

(I) Services rendered by certified nurse-midwives properly licensed and practicing in accordance with the provisions of article 38 of this title; or

(II) Repealed.

(g) The delivery of telemedicine. Nothing in this paragraph (g) authorizes physicians to deliver services outside their scope of practice or limits the delivery of health services by other licensed professionals, within the professional's scope of practice, using advanced technology, including, but not limited to, interactive audio, interactive video, or interactive data communication.

(2) If a person who does not possess and has not filed a license to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant in this state, as provided in this article, and who is not exempted from the licensing requirements under this article, performs any of the acts that constitute the practice of medicine as defined in this section, the person shall be deemed to be practicing medicine, practicing as a physician assistant, or practicing as an anesthesiologist assistant in violation of this article.

(3) A person may engage in, and is not required to obtain a license or a physician training license under this article with respect to, any of the following acts:

(a) The gratuitous rendering of services in cases of emergency;

(b) The occasional rendering of services in this state by a physician if the physician:

(I) Is licensed and lawfully practicing medicine in another state or territory of the United States without restrictions or conditions on the physician's license;

(II) Does not have any established or regularly used medical staff membership or clinical privileges in this state;

(III) Is not party to any contract, agreement, or understanding to provide services in this state on a regular or routine basis;

(IV) Does not maintain an office or other place for the rendering of such services;

(V) Has medical liability insurance coverage in the amounts required pursuant to section 13-64-302, C.R.S., for the services rendered in this state; and

(VI) Limits the services provided in this state to an occasional case or consultation.

(c) The practice of dentistry under the conditions and limitations defined by the laws of this state;

(d) The practice of podiatry under the conditions and limitations defined by the laws of this state;

(e) The practice of optometry under the conditions and limitations defined by the laws of this state;

(f) The practice of chiropractic under the conditions and limitations defined by the laws of this state;

(g) The practice of religious worship;

- (h) The practice of Christian Science, with or without compensation;
- (i) The performance by commissioned medical officers of the armed forces of the United States of America or of the United States public health service or of the United States veterans administration of their lawful duties in this state as such officers;
- (j) The rendering of nursing services and delegated medical functions by registered or other nurses in the lawful discharge of their duties as such;
- (k) The rendering of services by students currently enrolled in an approved medical college;
- (l) The rendering of services, other than the prescribing of drugs, by persons qualified by experience, education, or training, under the personal and responsible direction and supervision of a person licensed under the laws of this state to practice medicine, but nothing in this exemption shall be deemed to extend or limit the scope of any license, and this exemption shall not apply to persons otherwise qualified to practice medicine but not licensed to so practice in this state;
- (m) The practice by persons licensed or registered under any law of this state to practice a limited field of the healing arts not specifically designated in this section, under the conditions and limitations defined by such law;
- (n) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 30, § 1, effective March 10, 2000.)
- (o) (I) The administration and monitoring of medications in facilities as provided in part 3 of article 1.5 of title 25, C.R.S.
(II) Repealed.
- (p) The rendering of acupuncture services subject to the conditions and limitations provided in article 29.5 of this title;
- (q) (I) The administration of nutrition or fluids through gastrostomy tubes as provided in section 27-10.5-103 (2) (k), C.R.S., as a part of residential or day program services provided through service agencies approved by the department of human services pursuant to section 27-10.5-104.5, C.R.S.;
(II) Repealed.
- (r) (I) The administration of topical and aerosol medications within the scope of physical therapy practice as provided in section 12-41-113 (2);
(II) The performance of wound debridement under a physician's order within the scope of physical therapy practice as provided in section 12-41-113 (3);
- (s) The rendering of services by an athletic trainer subject to the conditions and limitations provided in article 29.7 of this title;
- (t) (I) The rendering of prescriptions by an advanced practice nurse pursuant to section 12-38-111.6.
(II) Repealed.
- (II.5) On or after July 1, 2010, a physician who serves as a preceptor or mentor to an advanced practice nurse pursuant to sections 12-36-106.4 and 12-38-111.6 (4.5) shall have a license in good standing without disciplinary sanctions to practice medicine in Colorado and an unrestricted registration by the drug enforcement administration for the same schedules as the collaborating advanced practice nurse.
- (III) Repealed.
- (IV) It is unlawful and a violation of this article for any person, corporation, or other entity to require payment or employment as a condition of entering into a mentorship relationship with the advanced practice nurse pursuant to sections 12-36-106.4 and 12-38-111.6 (4.5), but the mentor may request reimbursement of reasonable expenses and time spent as a result of the mentorship relationship.
- (u) (I) The provision, to a treating physician licensed in this state, of the results of laboratory tests, excluding histopathology tests and cytology tests, performed in a laboratory certified under the federal "Clinical Laboratories Improvement Act of 1967", as amended, 42 U.S.C. sec. 263a, to perform high complexity testing, as such term is used in 42 CFR 493.1701 and any related or successor provision.
(II) The provision, to a pathologist licensed in this state, of the results of histopathology tests and cytology tests performed in a laboratory certified under the federal "Clinical Laboratories Improvement Act of 1967", as amended, 42 U.S.C. sec. 263a, to perform high complexity testing, as such term is used in 42 CFR 493.1701 and any related or successor provision.

(v) The rendering of services by any person serving an approved internship, residency, or fellowship as defined by this article for an aggregate period not to exceed sixty days.

(w) A physician lawfully practicing medicine in another state or territory providing medical services to athletes or team personnel registered to train at the United States olympic training center at Colorado Springs or providing medical services at an event in this state sanctioned by the United States olympic committee. The physician's medical practice shall be contingent upon the requirements and approvals of the United States olympic committee and shall not exceed ninety days per calendar year.

(x) Repealed.

(y) The rendering of services by an emergency medical service provider certified under section 25-3.5-203, C.R.S., if the services rendered are consistent with rules adopted by the executive director or chief medical officer, as applicable, under section 25-3.5-206, C.R.S., defining the duties and functions of emergency medical service providers.

(3.2) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit patient consultation between a practicing physician licensed in Colorado and a practicing physician licensed in another state or jurisdiction.

(4) All licensees designated or referred to in subsection (3) of this section, who are licensed to practice a limited field of the healing arts, shall confine themselves strictly to the field for which they are licensed and to the scope of their respective licenses, and shall not use any title, word, or abbreviation mentioned in paragraph (d) of subsection (1) of this section, except to the extent and under the conditions expressly permitted by the law under which they are licensed.

(5) (a) A person licensed under the laws of this state to practice medicine may delegate to a physician assistant licensed by the board pursuant to section 12-36-107.4 the authority to perform acts that constitute the practice of medicine to the extent and in the manner authorized by rules promulgated by the board, including the authority to prescribe medication, including controlled substances, and dispense only such drugs as designated by the board. Such acts shall be consistent with sound medical practice. Each prescription issued by a physician assistant licensed by the board shall be imprinted with the name of his or her supervising physician. Nothing in this subsection (5) shall limit the ability of otherwise licensed health personnel to perform delegated acts. The dispensing of prescription medication by a physician assistant shall be subject to the provisions of section 12-42.5-118 (6).

(b) (I) If the authority to perform an act is delegated pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5), the act shall not be performed except under the personal and responsible direction and supervision of a person licensed under the laws of this state to practice medicine. A licensed physician may be responsible for the direction and supervision of up to four physician assistants at any one time, and may be responsible for the direction and supervision of more than four physician assistants upon receiving specific approval from the board. The board, by rule, may define what constitutes appropriate direction and supervision of a physician assistant.

(II) For purposes of this subsection (5), "personal and responsible direction and supervision" means that the direction and supervision of a physician assistant is personally rendered by a licensed physician practicing in the state of Colorado and is not rendered through intermediaries. The extent of direction and supervision shall be determined by rules promulgated by the board and as otherwise provided in this paragraph (b); except that, when a physician assistant is performing a delegated medical function in an acute care hospital, the board shall allow supervision and direction to be performed without the physical presence of the physician during the time the delegated medical functions are being implemented if:

(A) Such medical functions are performed where the supervising physician regularly practices or in a designated health manpower shortage area;

(B) The licensed supervising physician reviews the quality of medical services rendered by the physician assistant by reviewing the medical records to assure compliance with the physicians' directions; and

(C) The performance of the delegated medical function otherwise complies with the board's regulations and any restrictions and protocols of the licensed supervising physician and hospital.

(III) Repealed.

(c) to (f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1260), ch. 403, p. 1966, § 35, effective July 1, 2010.)

(g) Pursuant to section 12-36-129 (6), the board may apply for an injunction to enjoin any person from performing delegated medical acts that are in violation of this section or of any rules promulgated by the board.

(h) This subsection (5) shall not apply to any person who performs delegated medical tasks within the scope of the exemption contained in paragraph (1) of subsection (3) of this section.

(i) and (j) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1260), ch. 403, p. 1966, § 35, effective July 1, 2010.)

(k) Repealed. / (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1260), ch. 403, p. 1966, § 35, effective July 1, 2010.)

(6) Repealed.

(7) (a) A physician licensed in this state that practices as an anesthesiologist may delegate tasks constituting the practice of medicine to an anesthesiologist assistant licensed pursuant to section 12-36-107.3 who has been educated and trained in accordance with rules promulgated by the board. The delegated medical tasks referred to in this paragraph (a) are limited to the medical functions that constitute the delivery or provision of anesthesia services as practiced by the supervising physician.

(b) An anesthesiologist assistant shall perform delegated medical tasks only under the direct supervision of a physician who practices as an anesthesiologist. A patient or the patient's representative shall be advised if an anesthesiologist assistant is involved in the care of a patient. Unless approved by the board, a supervising physician shall not concurrently supervise more than three anesthesiologist assistants; except that the board may, by rule, allow an anesthesiologist to supervise up to four anesthesiologist assistants on and after July 1, 2016. The board may consider information from anesthesiologists, anesthesiologist assistants, patients, and other sources when considering a ratio change of supervision of anesthesiologist assistants. Direct supervision of anesthesiologist assistants may be transferred between anesthesiologists of the same group or practice in accordance with generally accepted standards of care.

(c) Nothing in this subsection (7) affects the practice of dentists and dental assistants practicing pursuant to article 35 of this title.

12-36-106.3. Collaborative agreements with advanced practice nurses - repeal. (Repealed)

Editor’s note: Subsection (4) provided for the repeal of this section, effective July 1, 2010. (See L. 2009, p. 2179.)

12-36-106.4. Collaboration with advanced practice nurses with prescriptive authority - preceptorships - mentorships - board rules. (1) (a) A physician licensed pursuant to this article may, and is encouraged to, serve as a preceptor or mentor to an advanced practice nurse who is applying for prescriptive authority pursuant to section 12-38-111.6 (4.5). A physician who serves as a preceptor or mentor to an advanced practice nurse seeking prescriptive authority shall:

(I) Be practicing in Colorado and shall have education, training, experience, and active practice that corresponds with the role and population focus of the advanced practice nurse; and in Colorado and an unrestricted registration by the drug enforcement administration for the same schedules as the advanced practice nurse.

(II) Have a license in good standing without disciplinary sanctions to practice medicine

(b) A physician serving as a preceptor or mentor to an advanced practice nurse pursuant to section 12-38-111.6 (4.5) shall not require payment or employment as a condition of entering into the preceptorship or mentorship relationship, but the physician may request reimbursement of reasonable expenses and time spent as a result of the preceptorship or mentorship relationship.

(c) Upon successful completion of a mentorship as described in section 12-38-111.6 (4.5) (b) (I), the physician shall verify by his or her signature that the advanced practice nurse has successfully completed the mentorship within the required period.

(2) While serving as a mentor pursuant to section 12-38-111.6 (4.5) (b) (I), a physician shall assist the advanced practice nurse in developing an articulated plan for safe prescribing, as described in section 12-38-111.6 (4.5) (b) (II) and shall verify through his or her signature that the advanced practice nurse has developed an articulated plan in compliance with said section.

(3) For purposes of an advanced practice nurse who obtained prescriptive authority prior to July 1, 2010, as described in section 12-38-111.6 (4.5) (c), or who has prescriptive authority from another state and obtains prescriptive authority in this state, as described in section 12-38-111.6 (4.5) (d), physicians may, and are encouraged to, assist those advanced practice nurses in developing the articulated plans required by those sections and verifying, through the physician's signature, the development of the required plans. The physician verifying an advanced practice nurse's articulated plan shall be practicing in Colorado and have education, training, experience, and active practice that corresponds with the role and population focus of the advanced practice nurse.

(4) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4), the board shall adopt rules to implement this section, which rules shall take effect on July 1, 2010. The board shall consider the recommendations of the nurse-physician advisory task force for Colorado health care submitted in accordance with section 24-34-109, C.R.S., concerning the role of physicians in collaborating with advanced practice nurses with prescriptive authority. The rules shall be complementary to rules adopted by the state board of nursing pursuant to section 12-38-111.6 (4.5) (f) (I).

(b) (I) The director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies shall review the rules adopted by the board pursuant to this subsection (4) to determine if the rules complement the rules of the state board of nursing. If the director determines that the rules of the two boards are not complementary, the director shall adopt rules that supersede and replace the rules of the two boards regarding prescriptive authority of advanced practice nurses and collaboration between advanced practice nurses and physicians, and such rules shall take effect on July 2, 2010.

(II) If the director determines that the two boards have adopted complementary rules regarding the prescriptive authority of advanced practice nurses and collaboration between advanced practice nurses and physicians, the director shall not adopt rules that supersede and replace the rules of the two boards, but the director shall review any amendments to those rules by either board to ensure that the rules remain complementary. If the director determines that an amendment to the rules by the Colorado medical board or the state board of nursing results in rules on prescriptive authority and collaboration that are no longer complementary, the amendment shall not take effect.

12-36-106.5. Child health associates - scope of practice. On and after July 1, 1990, any person who, on June 30, 1990, was certified only as a child health associate under the laws of this state shall, upon application to the board, be granted licensure as a physician assistant. The practice of any such person shall be subject to sections 12-36-106 (5) and 12-36-107.4; except that such practice shall be limited to patients under the age of twenty-one.

12-36-107. Qualifications for licensure. (1) Subject to the other conditions and provisions of this article, a license to practice medicine shall be granted by the board to an applicant only upon the basis of:

- (a) The passing by the applicant of an examination approved by the board;
- (b) The applicant's passage of examinations conducted by the national board of medical examiners, the national board of examiners for osteopathic physicians and surgeons, the federation of state medical boards, or any successor to said organizations, as approved by the board;
- (c) Any combination of the examinations provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (1) approved by the board;
- (d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1260), ch. 403, p. 1959, § 27, effective July 1, 2010.)
- (e) (I) Endorsement, if the applicant for licensure by endorsement:
 - (A) Files an application and pays a fee as prescribed by the board;
 - (B) Holds a current, valid license in a jurisdiction that requires qualifications substantially equivalent to the qualifications for licensure in this state as specified in this section;
 - (C) Submits written verification that he or she has actively practiced medicine in another jurisdiction for at least five of the immediately preceding seven years or has otherwise maintained continued competency as determined by the board; and
 - (D) Submits proof satisfactory to the board that he or she has not been and is not subject to final or pending disciplinary or other action by any state or jurisdiction in which the applicant is or has been previously licensed; except that, if the applicant is or has been subject to such action, the board may review the action to determine whether the underlying conduct warrants refusal of a license pursuant to section 12-36-116.
- (II) Upon receipt of all documents required by this paragraph (e), the board shall review the application and make a determination of the applicant's qualification to be licensed by endorsement.

(2) No person shall be granted a license to practice medicine as provided by subsection (1) of this section unless such person:

- (a) Is at least twenty-one years of age;
 - (b) Is a graduate of an approved medical college; and
 - (c) Has completed either an approved internship of at least one year or at least one year of postgraduate training approved by the board.
- (3) to (5) Repealed.

ANNOTATION

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Hospitals not Licensed to Practice Medicine.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

This section lays down the conditions under which one may be licensed to practice medicine. Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

Under this section, "a license to practice medicine shall be granted by the board to an applicant" who meets certain requirements. Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

Requirements of this section work in conjunction with the requirements of § 12-36-107.6. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Sadoris, 825 P.2d 39 (Colo. 1992) (decided under law in effect prior to 1988 repeal of § 12-36-107.5 and amendment of § 12-36-107.6).

Past events. A plain reading of subsection (2) allows the board to consider past events in determining whether an applicant should be denied a medical license on grounds of unprofessional conduct. Hall v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 876 P.2d 77 (Colo. App. 1994).

Board has wide discretion in deciding whether to deny a license, and decision shall be upheld if it was related to the applicant's conduct and abilities, was not an abuse of discretion, and was not manifestly excessive in relation to the needs of the public. Hall v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 876 P.2d 77 (Colo. App. 1994).

II. HOSPITALS NOT LICENSED TO PRACTICE MEDICINE.

A license to practice medicine does not contemplate hospital operations as coming within its terms. Purcell v. Poor Sisters of St. Francis Seraph, 147 Colo. 478, 364 P.2d 184 (1961); Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

This enactment is an expression of the legislative will that hospitals and doctors require different licenses. Purcell v. Poor Sisters of St. Francis Seraph, 147 Colo. 478, 364 P.2d 184

These licenses authorize related but different activities, and the issuance of the one does not permit operation under the other. Purcell v. Poor Sisters of St. Francis Seraph, 147 Colo. 478, 364 P.2d 184 (1961); Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

The general assembly plainly and unequivocally has treated these pursuits as separate and distinct, requiring different licenses. Purcell v. Poor Sisters of St. Francis Seraph, 147 Colo. 478, 364 P.2d 184 (1961); Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

A licensed physician is the principal when performing medical services in a hospital. Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

The hospital and its employees subserve him in his ministrations to the patient, he having the sole and final control in the matter of diagnosis, treatment and surgery. Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

Possessed of this authority, it follows that his actions as doctor are his responsibility. Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

Since the relationship between physician and patient is personal, a hospital which employs physicians on its staff is not liable for the negligence of a physician in the discharge of his professional duty. It is powerless under the law to command or forbid any act in the practice of his profession unless it knows or should know of the want of skill of such physician. Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

Hospital is not liable for actions of resident physicians who are employed by the hospital even though not licensed by the state. Rodriguez v. City & County of Denver, 702 P.2d 1349 (Colo. App. 1984).

Unless it employs those whose want of skill is known, or should be known, to it, or by some special conduct or neglect makes itself responsible for their malpractice, it cannot be held liable therefor. Moon v. Mercy Hosp., 150 Colo. 430, 373 P.2d 944 (1962).

12-36-107.2. Distinguished foreign teaching physician license - qualifications.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, an applicant of noteworthy and recognized professional attainment who is a graduate of a foreign medical school and who is licensed in a foreign jurisdiction, if that jurisdiction has a licensing procedure, may be granted a distinguished foreign teaching physician license to practice medicine in this state, upon application to the board in the manner determined by the board, if the following conditions are met:

(a) The applicant has been invited by a medical school in this state to serve as a full-time member of its academic faculty for the period of his or her appointment, at a rank equal to an associate professor or higher;

(b) The applicant's medical practice is limited to that required by his or her academic position, the limitation is so designated on the license in accordance with board procedure, and the medical practice is also limited to the core teaching hospitals affiliated with the medical school, as identified by the board, on which the applicant is serving as a faculty member.

(2) An applicant who meets the qualifications and conditions set forth in subsection (1) of this section but is not offered the rank of associate professor or higher may be granted a temporary license, for one year only, to practice medicine in this state, as a member of the academic faculty, at the discretion of the board and in the manner determined by the board. If the applicant is granted a temporary license, he or she shall practice only under the direct supervision of a person who has the rank of associate professor or higher.

(3) A distinguished foreign teaching physician license is effective and in force only while the holder is serving on the academic staff of a medical school. The license expires one year after the date of issuance and may be renewed annually only after the board has specifically determined that the conditions specified in subsection (1) of this section will continue during the ensuing period of licensure. The board may require an applicant for licensure under this section to present himself or herself to the board for an interview. The board may withdraw licensure granted under this section prior to the expiration of the license for unprofessional conduct as defined in section 12-36-117.

(4) The board may establish and charge a fee for a distinguished foreign teaching physician license pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., not to exceed the amount of the fee for renewal of a physician's license.

(5) The board shall promulgate rules specifying standards related to the qualification and supervision of distinguished foreign teaching physicians.

12-36-107.3. Anesthesiologist assistant license - qualifications - effective date.

(1) To be licensed as an anesthesiologist assistant under this article, an applicant must be at least twenty-one years of age and must have:

(a) Successfully completed an education program for anesthesiologist assistants that conforms to standards delineated by the commission on accreditation of allied health education programs, or its successor organization, and approved by the board;

(b) Successfully completed the national certifying examination for anesthesiologist assistants that is administered by the national commission for certification of anesthesiologist assistants or a successor organization; and

(c) Submitted an application to the board in the manner designated by the board and paid the appropriate fee established by the board pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(2) A person applying for a license to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant in this state shall notify the board, in connection with his or her application for licensure, of the commission of any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action against a licensed anesthesiologist assistant under section 12-36-117, along with an explanation of the circumstances of the act. The board may deny licensure to any applicant as set forth in section 12-36-116.

(3) A person licensed to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant shall not perform any act that constitutes the practice of medicine within a hospital or ambulatory surgical center licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., or required to obtain a certificate of compliance pursuant to section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (II), C.R.S., unless the licensed anesthesiologist assistant obtains authorization from the governing board of the hospital or ambulatory surgical center. The governing board of a hospital or ambulatory surgical center may grant, deny, or limit a licensed anesthesiologist assistant's authorization based on the governing board's established procedures.

(4) The board may take any disciplinary action with respect to an anesthesiologist assistant license as it may with respect to the license of a physician, in accordance with section 12-36-118.

(5) The board shall license and keep a record of anesthesiologist assistants who have been licensed pursuant to this section. A licensed anesthesiologist assistant shall renew his or her license in accordance with section 12-36-123.

(6) This section takes effect July 1, 2013.

12-36-107.4. Physician assistant license - qualifications. (1) To be licensed as a physician assistant under this article, an applicant shall be at least twenty-one years of age and shall have:

(a) Successfully completed an education program for physician assistants that conforms to standards approved by the board, which standards may be established by utilizing the assistance of any responsible accrediting organization;

(b) Successfully completed the national certifying examination for physician assistants that is administered by the national commission on certification of physician assistants or a successor organization or successfully completed any other examination approved by the board; and

(c) Submitted an application to the board in the manner designated by the board and paid the appropriate fee established by the board pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(2) The board may determine whether any applicant for licensure as a physician assistant possesses education, experience, or training in health care that is sufficient to be accepted in lieu of the qualifications required for licensure under subsection (1) of this section.

(3) A person applying for a license to practice as a physician assistant in this state shall notify the board, in connection with his or her application for licensure, of the commission of any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action against a licensed physician assistant under section 12-36-117, along with an explanation of the circumstances of the act. The board may deny licensure to any applicant as set forth in section 12-36-116.

(4) A person licensed as a physician assistant shall not perform any act that constitutes the practice of medicine within a hospital or nursing care facility that is licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., or that is required to obtain a certificate of compliance pursuant to section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (II), C.R.S., without authorization from the governing board of the hospital or nursing care facility. The governing board may grant, deny, or limit a physician assistant's authorization based on its own established procedures.

(5) The board may take any disciplinary action with respect to a physician assistant license as it may with respect to the license of a physician, in accordance with section 12-36-118.

(6) The board shall license and keep a record of physician assistants who have been licensed pursuant to this section. A licensed physician assistant shall renew his or her license in accordance with section 12-36-123.

12-36-107.6. Foreign medical school graduates - degree equivalence. (1) For graduates of schools other than those approved by the liaison committee for medical education or the American osteopathic association, or the successor of either entity, the board may require three years of postgraduate clinical training approved by the board. An applicant whose foreign medical school is not an approved medical college is eligible for licensure at the discretion of the board if the applicant meets all other requirements for licensure and holds specialty board certification, current at the time of application for licensure, conferred by a regular member board of the American board of medical specialties or the American osteopathic association. The factors to be considered by the board in the exercise of its discretion in determining the qualifications of such applicants shall include the following:

- (a) The information available to the board relating to the medical school of the applicant; and
 - (b) The nature and length of the post-graduate training completed by the applicant.

12-36-111.3. Licensing panel. (1) (a) The president of the board shall establish a licensing panel consisting of three members of the board as follows:

(I) One panel member shall be a licensed physician having the degree of doctor of medicine;

(II) One panel member shall be a licensed physician having the degree of doctor of osteopathy; and

(III) One panel member shall be a public member of the board.

(b) The president may rotate the licensing panel membership and the membership on the inquiry and hearing panels established pursuant to section 12-36-118 so that all members of the board, including the board president, may serve on each of the board panels.

(c) If the president determines that the board lacks a member to serve on the licensing panel that meets the criteria specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the president may appoint another board member to fill the vacancy on the panel.

(2) The licensing panel shall review and make determinations on applications for a license under this article.

(3) The licensing panel shall review and resolve matters relating to the unlicensed practice of medicine. If it appears to the licensing panel, based upon credible evidence in a written complaint by any person or upon credible evidence in a motion of the licensing panel, that a person is practicing or has practiced medicine, practiced as a physician assistant, or practiced as an anesthesiologist assistant without a license as required by this article, the licensing panel may issue an order to cease and desist the unlicensed practice. The order must set forth the particular statutes and rules that have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlicensed practices immediately cease. The respondent may request a hearing on a cease-and-desist order in accordance with section 12-36-118 (14) (b). Section 12-36-118 (10), exempting board disciplinary proceedings and records from open meetings and public records requirements, does not apply to a hearing or any other proceeding held by the licensing panel pursuant to this subsection (3) regarding the unlicensed practice of medicine. The procedures specified in section 12-36-118 (15), (16), (17), and (18) apply to allegations and orders regarding the unlicensed practice of medicine before the licensing panel.

12-36-114. Issuance of licenses - prior practice prohibited. (1) If the board determines that an applicant possesses the qualifications required by this article, the board shall issue to the applicant a license to practice medicine.

(2) Prior to the approval of such license, the applicant shall not engage in the practice of medicine in this state, and any person who practices medicine in this state without first obtaining approval of such license shall be deemed to have violated the provisions of this article.

(3) All holders of a license to practice medicine granted by the board, or by the state board of medical examiners as constituted under any prior law of this state, shall be accorded equal rights and privileges under all laws of the state of Colorado, shall be subject to the same duties and obligations, and shall be authorized to practice medicine, as defined by this article in all its branches.

12-36-114.3. Pro bono license - qualifications - reduced fee - rules. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the board may issue a pro bono license to a physician to practice medicine in this state for not more than sixty days in a calendar year if the physician:

(a) Holds an active and unrestricted license to practice medicine in Colorado and is in active practice in this state;

(II) Has been on inactive status pursuant to section 12-36-137 for not more than two years; or

(III) Holds an active and unrestricted license to practice medicine in another state or territory of the United States;

(b) Attests to the board that he or she:

(I) Does not charge for his or her services; except that the facility at which the services are provided may charge on a not-for-profit basis for the provision of services; or

(II) Works for and may be compensated by an organization that does not charge Colorado patients for its services;

(c) Has never had a license to practice medicine in this state or in another state or territory revoked or suspended, as verified by the applicant in the manner prescribed by the board;

(d) Is not the subject of an unresolved complaint;

(e) Maintains commercial professional liability insurance coverage in accordance with section 13-64-301, C.R.S.; and

(f) Pays the fee established by the board.

(2) The board shall establish and charge an application fee for an initial and renewal pro bono license, not to exceed one-half the amount of the fee for a renewal of a physician's license and not to exceed the cost of administering the license.

(3) A pro bono license is subject to the renewal requirements set forth in section 12-36-123.

(4) A physician granted a pro bono license under this section shall not simultaneously hold a full license to practice medicine issued under this article.

(5) A physician granted a pro bono license under this section is subject to discipline by the board for committing unprofessional conduct, as defined in section 12-36-117, or any other act prohibited by this article.

(6) The board may refrain from issuing a pro bono license in accordance with section 12-36-116.

(7) The board may adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

12-36-114.5. Reentry license. (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, the board may issue a reentry license to a physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant who has not actively practiced medicine, practiced as a physician assistant, or practiced as an anesthesiologist assistant, as applicable, for the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of an application for a reentry license, or who has not otherwise maintained continued competency during such period, as determined by the board. The board may charge a fee for a reentry license.

(2) (a) In order to qualify for a reentry license, the physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant shall submit to evaluations, assessments, and an educational program as required by the board. The board may work with a private entity that specializes in physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant assessment to:

(I) Determine the applicant's competency and areas in which improvement is needed, if any;

(II) Develop an educational program specific to the applicant; and

(III) Upon completion of the educational program, conduct an evaluation to determine the applicant's competency.

(b) (I) If, based on the assessment, the board determines that the applicant requires a period of supervised practice, the board may issue a reentry license, allowing the applicant to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, as applicable, under supervision as specified by the board.

(II) After satisfactory completion of the period of supervised practice, as determined by the board, the reentry licensee may apply to the board for conversion of the reentry license to a full license to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, as applicable, under this article.

(c) If, based on the assessment and after completion of an educational program, if prescribed, the board determines that the applicant is competent and qualified to practice medicine without supervision or practice as a physician assistant or as an anesthesiologist assistant with supervision as specified in this article, the board may convert the reentry license to a full license to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, as applicable, under this article.

(3) A reentry license shall be valid for no more than three years and shall not be renewable.

12-36-116. Refusal of license - issuance subject to probation. (1) The board may refrain from issuing a license or may grant a license subject to terms of probation if the board determines that an applicant for a license:

- (a) Does not possess the qualifications required by this article;
- (b) Has engaged in unprofessional conduct, as defined in section 12-36-117;
- (c) Has been disciplined in another state or foreign jurisdiction with respect to his or her license to practice medicine, license to practice as a physician assistant, or license to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant; or
- (d) Has not actively practiced medicine, practiced as a physician assistant, or practiced as an anesthesiologist assistant for the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of such application or otherwise maintained continued competency during such period, as determined by the board.

(2) For purposes of this section, "discipline" includes any matter that must be reported pursuant to 45 CFR 60.8 and is substantially similar to unprofessional conduct, as defined in section 12-36-117.

(3) An applicant whose application is denied or whose license is granted subject to terms of probation may seek review pursuant to section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.; except that, if an applicant accepts a license that is subject to terms of probation, such acceptance shall be in lieu of and not in addition to the remedies set forth in section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Failure of the board to make specific findings is not prejudicial to an applicant for a license to practice, where the application was dismissed “on the ground that the board was not satisfied that he possessed the qualifications required by the statute to entitle him to a license”. State Bd. of Med. Exam’rs v. Brown, 70 Colo. 116, 198 P. 274 (1921) (decided under repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 109, 1311).

Board has wide discretion in deciding whether to deny a license, and decision shall be upheld if it was related to the applicant’s conduct and abilities, was not an abuse of discretion, and was not manifestly excessive in relation to the needs of the public. Hall v. State Bd. of Med. Exam’rs, 876 P.2d 77 (Colo. App. 1994).

12-36-117. Unprofessional conduct. (1) “Unprofessional conduct” as used in this article means:

(a) Resorting to fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying for, securing, renewing, or seeking reinstatement of a license to practice medicine or a license to practice as a physician assistant in this state or any other state, in applying for professional liability coverage, required pursuant to section 13-64-301, C.R.S., or privileges at a hospital, or in taking the examination provided for in this article;

(b) Procuring, or aiding or abetting in procuring, criminal abortion;

(c) to (e) Repealed.

(f) Any conviction of an offense of moral turpitude, a felony, or a crime that would constitute a violation of this article. For purposes of this paragraph (f), “conviction” includes the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or the imposition of a deferred sentence.

(g) Administering, dispensing, or prescribing any habit-forming drug or any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., other than in the course of legitimate professional practice;

(h) Any conviction of violation of any federal or state law regulating the possession, distribution, or use of any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., and, in determining if a license should be denied, revoked, or suspended, or if the licensee should be placed on probation, the board shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S. For purposes of this paragraph (h), “conviction” includes the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or the imposition of a deferred sentence.

(i) Habitual or excessive use or abuse of alcohol, a habit-forming drug, or a controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(j) Repealed.

(k) The aiding or abetting, in the practice of medicine, of any person not licensed to practice medicine as defined under this article or of any person whose license to practice medicine is suspended;

(m) (I) Except as otherwise provided in sections 12-36-134, 25-3-103.7, and 25-3-314, C.R.S., practicing medicine as the partner, agent, or employee of, or in joint venture with, any person who does not hold a license to practice medicine within this state, or practicing medicine as an employee of, or in joint venture with, any partnership or association any of whose partners or associates do not hold a license to practice medicine within this state, or practicing medicine as an employee of or in joint venture with any corporation other than a professional service corporation for the practice of medicine as described in section 12-36-134. Any licensee holding a license to practice medicine in this state may accept employment from any person, partnership, association, or corporation to examine and treat the employees of such person, partnership, association, or corporation.

(II) (A) Nothing in this paragraph (m) shall be construed to permit a professional services corporation for the practice of medicine, as described in section 12-36-134, to practice medicine.

(B) Nothing in this paragraph (m) shall be construed to otherwise create an exception to the corporate practice of medicine doctrine.

(n) Violating, or attempting to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisting in or abetting the violation of or conspiring to violate any provision or term of this article;

(o) Failing to notify the board, as required by section 12-36-118.5 (1), of a physical or mental illness or condition that impacts the licensee's ability to perform a medical service with reasonable skill and with safety to patients, failing to act within the limitations created by a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the licensee unable to perform a medical service with reasonable skill and with safety to the patient, or failing to comply with the limitations agreed to under a confidential agreement entered pursuant to section 12-36-118.5;

(p) Any act or omission which fails to meet generally accepted standards of medical practice;

(q) Repealed.

(r) Engaging in a sexual act with a patient during the course of patient care or within six months immediately following the termination of the licensee's professional relationship with the patient. "Sexual act", as used in this paragraph (r), means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(s) Refusal of an attending physician to comply with the terms of a declaration executed by a patient pursuant to the provisions of article 18 of title 15, C.R.S., and failure of the attending physician to transfer care of said patient to another physician;

(t) (I) Violation of abuse of health insurance pursuant to section 18-13-119, C.R.S.; or

(II) Advertising through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise that the licensee will perform any act prohibited by section 18-13-119 (3), C.R.S.;

(u) Violation of any valid board order or any rule or regulation promulgated by the board in conformance with law;

(v) Dispensing, injecting, or prescribing an anabolic steroid as defined in section 18-18-102 (3), C.R.S., for the purpose of the hormonal manipulation that is intended to increase muscle mass, strength, or weight without a medical necessity to do so or for the intended purpose of improving performance in any form of exercise, sport, or game;

(w) Dispensing or injecting an anabolic steroid as defined in section 18-18-102 (3), C.R.S., unless such anabolic steroid is dispensed from a pharmacy prescription drug outlet pursuant to a prescription order or is dispensed by any practitioner in the course of his professional practice;

(x) Prescribing, distributing, or giving to a family member or to oneself except on an emergency basis any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-204, C.R.S., or as contained in schedule II of 21 U.S.C. sec. 812, as amended;

(y) Failing to report to the board, within thirty days after an adverse action, that an adverse action has been taken against the licensee by another licensing agency in another state or country, a peer review body, a health care institution, a professional or medical society or association, a governmental agency, a law enforcement agency, or a court for acts or conduct that would constitute grounds for disciplinary or adverse action as described in this article;

(z) Failing to report to the board, within thirty days, the surrender of a license or other authorization to practice medicine in another state or jurisdiction or the surrender of membership on any medical staff or in any medical or professional association or society while under investigation by any of those authorities or bodies for acts or conduct similar to acts or conduct that would constitute grounds for action as described in this article;

(aa) Failing to accurately answer the questionnaire accompanying the renewal form as required pursuant to section 12-36-123 (1) (b);

(bb) (I) Engaging in any of the following activities and practices: Willful and repeated ordering or performance, without clinical justification, of demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies; the administration, without clinical justification, of treatment which is demonstrably unnecessary; the failure to obtain consultations or perform referrals when failing to do so is not consistent with the standard of care for the profession; or ordering or performing, without clinical justification, any service, X ray, or treatment which is contrary to recognized standards of the practice of medicine as interpreted by the board.

(II) In determining which activities and practices are not consistent with the standard of care or are contrary to recognized standards of the practice of medicine, the board shall utilize, in addition to its own expertise, the standards developed by recognized and established accreditation or review organizations that meet requirements established by the board by rule. Such determinations shall include but not be limited to appropriate ordering of laboratory tests and studies, appropriate ordering of diagnostic tests and studies, appropriate treatment of the medical condition under review, appropriate use of consultations or referrals in patient care, and appropriate creation and maintenance of patient records.

(cc) Falsifying or repeatedly making incorrect essential entries or repeatedly failing to make essential entries on patient records;

(dd) Committing a fraudulent insurance act, as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(ee) Failing to establish and continuously maintain financial responsibility, as required in section 13-64-301, C.R.S.;

(ff) Repealed.

(gg) Failing to respond in an honest, materially responsive, and timely manner to a complaint issued pursuant to section 12-36-118 (4);

(hh) Advertising in a manner that is misleading, deceptive, or false;

(ii) Repealed.

(jj) Any act or omission in the practice of telemedicine that fails to meet generally accepted standards of medical practice;

(kk) Entering into or continuing in a mentorship relationship with an advanced practice nurse pursuant to sections 12-36-106.4 and 12-38-111.6 (4.5) that fails to meet generally acceptable standards of medical practice;

(ll) Verifying by signature the articulated plan developed by an advanced practice nurse pursuant to sections 12-36-106.4 and 12-38-111.6 (4.5) if the articulated plan fails to comply with the requirements of section 12-38-111.6 (4.5) (b) (II);

(mm) Failure to comply with the requirements of section 14 of article XVIII of the state constitution, section 25-1.5-106, C.R.S., or the rules promulgated by the state health agency pursuant to section 25-1.5-106 (3), C.R.S.

(1.5) (a) A licensee shall not be subject to disciplinary action by the board solely for prescribing controlled substances for the relief of intractable pain.

(b) For the purposes of this subsection (1.5), “intractable pain” means a pain state in which the cause of the pain cannot be removed and which in the generally accepted course of medical practice no relief or cure of the cause of the pain is possible or none has been found after reasonable efforts including, but not limited to, evaluation by the attending physician and one or more physicians specializing in the treatment of the area, system, or organ of the body perceived as the source of the pain.

(2) The discipline of a license to practice medicine, of a license to practice as a physician assistant, or of a license to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant in another state, territory, or country shall be deemed to be unprofessional conduct. For purposes of this subsection (2), “discipline” includes any sanction required to be reported pursuant to 45 CFR 60.8. This subsection (2) applies only to discipline that is based upon an act or omission in such other state, territory, or country that is defined substantially the same as unprofessional conduct pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

(3) (a) For purposes of this section, “alternative medicine” means those health care methods of diagnosis, treatment, or healing that are not generally used but that provide a reasonable potential for therapeutic gain in a patient’s medical condition that is not outweighed by the risk of such methods. A licensee who practices alternative medicine shall inform each patient in writing, during the initial patient contact, of such licensee’s education, experience, and credentials related to the alternative medicine practiced by such licensee. The board shall not take disciplinary action against a licensee solely on the grounds that such licensee practices alternative medicine.

(b) Nothing in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) prevents disciplinary action against a licensee for practicing medicine, practicing as a physician assistant, or practicing as an anesthesiologist assistant in violation of this article.

This section sets forth standards for conduct to which procedures of § 12-36-118 apply. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Jorgensen, 198 Colo. 275, 599 P.2d 869 (1979).

Quality of medical practice must be determined by standard of care of those in same field since, as a general rule, practitioners of one medical specialty are not competent to testify to standards of care of another specialty. Horwitz

v. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 716 P.2d 131 (Colo. App. 1985), cert. denied, 479 U.S. 803, 107 S. Ct. 44, 93 L. Ed.2d 7 (1986).

The words in subsection (1)(p) point to a continued course of conduct rather than to two or more administrations of medication within the course of treatment of specific medical problem. People ex rel. McFarlane v. Pfeiffer, 725 P.2d 19 (Colo. App. 1986).

Subsection (1)(p) encompasses all acts of substandard practice, so to establish a violation of subsection (1)(g) it is necessary to prove actions different from or beyond those which are required to establish substandard medical practice. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Slonim, 844 P.2d 1207 (Colo. App. 1992).

The term "practice of medicine", as defined in § 12-36-106 (1)(b), encompasses a continued process of treatment and healing, not just isolated moments or acts within a course of treatment. People ex rel. McFarlane v. Pfeiffer, 725 P.2d 19 (Colo. App. 1986).

Record-keeping is part of the practice of medicine under subsection (1)(p). State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. McCroskey, 940 P.2d 1044 (Colo. App. 1996).

A single act of medical practice may subsume within itself a diagnosis, a determination of treatment, as well as the treatment itself. People ex rel. McFarlane v. Pfeiffer, 725 P.2d 19 (Colo. App. 1986).

Treatment of single patient where the applicant made 14 to 16 attempts to draw blood over several hours in the morning and afternoon involved two or more acts of substandard care under subsection (1)(p). Hall v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 876 P.2d 77 (Colo. App. 1994).

Renewing a prescription was part of a single act of medical practice and did not constitute "two or more acts or omissions" under subsection (1)(p). State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Slonim, 844 P.2d 1207 (Colo. App. 1992).

Prior felony not sufficient to warrant loss of license. A prior felony conviction, standing by itself, is not sufficient to warrant the denial or revocation of a license. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Jorgensen, 198 Colo. 275, 599 P.2d 869 (1979).

Evidence of circumstances which led to prior felony conviction may be considered by board of medical examiners in deciding to revoke a medical license. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Jorgensen, 198 Colo. 275, 599 P.2d 869 (1979).

Sanctions of doctor under this section not warranted. Where the practice complained of is a continuum, subsumed within the initial failure to evaluate adequately the patient's condition, it becomes a single act of medical practice. People ex rel. McFarlane v. Pfeiffer, 725 P.2d 19 (Colo. App. 1986).

The term "habitual intemperance" under subsection (1)(i) refers to repeated, uncontrolled, excessive drinking and is not an unconstitutionally vague term but is sufficiently specific so that persons licensed to practice medicine can distinguish between permissible and impermissible conduct. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Hoffner, 832 P.2d 1062 (Colo. App. 1992).

Subsection (1)(i) gives fair notice that habitual intemperance is unprofessional conduct and there was no denial of due process in the application of this statutory standard to the evidence adduced at the hearing where respondent's conduct fell within the prohibition since record indicated the respondent was habitually drinking to excess from the fall of 1987 to January 29, 1990. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Hoffner, 832 P.2d 1062 (Colo. App. 1992).

Although evidence that physician's practice was not affected or that no patient had been harmed is relevant for the Board to consider in imposing appropriate discipline, the lack of such evidence is not determinative of the question of whether a physician is "habitually intemperate" under subsection (1)(i). Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Hoffner, 832 P.2d 1062 (Colo. App. 1992).

The absence of any evidence that physician was using drugs illegally at the time of the hearing is not relevant to a finding that he violated subsection (1)(i). Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Davis, 893 P.2d 1365 (Colo. App. 1995).

Evidence of two separate overdoses supports conclusion that applicant engaged in excessive use of a controlled substance under subsection (1)(i). Hall v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 876 P.2d 77 (Colo. App. 1994).

Under subsection (1)(o), unprofessional conduct includes a past mental disability that rendered the applicant at the time unable to perform medical services, and the board may consider the nature, extent, and time of the disability as well as any other relevant considerations and may tailor a sanction appropriate to the applicant's current qualifications to practice medicine. Hall v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 876 P.2d 77 (Colo. App. 1994).

Physician's conviction for wanton assault in the first degree in Kentucky was a conviction of a felony for purposes of subsection (1)(f) where the conviction was punishable by imprisonment for ten years in the Kentucky penitentiary. Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Boyle, 924 P.2d 1113 (Colo. App. 1996).

Neither paragraph (bb) or (cc) of subsection (1) requires proof of fraudulent intent. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Khan, 984 P.2d 670 (Colo. App. 1999).

It would be inconsistent with the declared purpose of the Colorado Medical Practice Act to consider "intent to mislead or deceive" to be a necessary element of false, deceptive, or misleading advertising under subsection (1)(hh). State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Thompson, 944 P.2d 547 (Colo. App. 1996).

12-36-117.5. Prescriptions - requirement to advise patients. (1) A physician licensed under this article, or a physician assistant licensed by the board who has been delegated the authority to prescribe medication, may advise the physician's or the physician assistant's patients of their option to have the symptom or purpose for which a prescription is being issued included on the prescription order.

(2) A physician's or a physician assistant's failure to advise a patient under subsection

(1) of this section shall not be grounds for any disciplinary action against the physician's or the physician assistant's professional license issued under this article. Failure to advise a patient pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not be grounds for any civil action against a physician or physician's assistant in a negligence or tort action, nor shall such failure be evidence in any civil action against a physician or a physician's assistant.

Source: L. 2003: Entire section added, p. 765, § 6, effective March 25.

12-36-118. Disciplinary action by board - immunity - rules. (1) (a) The president of the board shall divide those members of the board other than the president into two panels of six members each, four of whom shall be physician members.

(b) Each panel shall act as both an inquiry and a hearings panel. Members of the board may be assigned from one panel to the other by the president. The president may be a member of both panels, but in no event shall the president or any other member who has considered a complaint as a member of a panel acting as an inquiry panel take any part in the consideration of a formal complaint involving the same matter.

(c) All matters referred to one panel for investigation shall be heard, if referred for formal hearing, by the other panel or a committee of such panel. However, in its discretion, either inquiry panel may elect to refer a case for formal hearing to a qualified administrative law judge in lieu of a hearings panel of the board, for an initial decision pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(d) The initial decision of an administrative law judge may be reviewed pursuant to section 24-4-105 (14) and (15), C.R.S., by the filing of exceptions to the initial decision with the hearings panel which would have heard the case if it had not been referred to an administrative law judge or by review upon the motion of such hearings panel. The respondent or the board's counsel shall file such exceptions.

(2) Investigations shall be under the supervision of the panel to which they are assigned. The persons making such investigation shall report the results thereof to the assigning panel for appropriate action.

(3) (a) In the discharge of its duties, the board may enlist the assistance of other licensees. Licensees have the duty to report to the board any licensee known, or upon information and belief, to have violated any of the provisions of section 12-36-117 (1); except that no licensee who is treating another licensee for a mental disability or habitual intemperance or excessive use of any habit-forming drug shall have a duty to report his or her patient unless, in the opinion of the treating licensee, the impaired licensee presents a danger to himself, herself, or others.

(b) Any member of the board, any member of the board's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this part 1, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this part 1 shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or report or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of such participation.

(4) (a) (I) Written complaints relating to the conduct of a licensee licensed or authorized to practice medicine in this state may be made by any person or may be initiated by an inquiry panel of the board on its own motion. The licensee complained of shall be given notice by first-class mail of the nature of the complaint and shall be given thirty days to answer or explain in writing the matters described in such complaint. Upon receipt of the licensee's answer or at the conclusion of thirty days, whichever occurs first, the inquiry panel may take further action as set forth in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a).

(II) The inquiry panel may then conduct a further investigation, which may be made by one or more members of the inquiry panel, one or more licensees who are not members of the board, a member of the staff of the board, a professional investigator, or any other person or organization as the inquiry panel directs. Any such investigation shall be entirely informal.

(b) The board shall cause an investigation to be made when the board is informed of:

(I) Disciplinary actions taken by hospitals to suspend or revoke the privileges of a physician and reported to the board pursuant to section 25-3-107, C.R.S.;

(II) Disciplinary actions taken as a result of a professional review proceeding pursuant to part 1 of article 36.5 of this title against a physician. Such disciplinary actions shall be promptly reported to the board.

(III) An instance of a medical malpractice settlement or judgment against a licensee reported to the board pursuant to section 10-1-120, C.R.S.; or

(IV) Licensees who have been allowed to resign from hospitals for medical misconduct. Such hospitals shall report the same.

(c) On completion of an investigation, the inquiry panel shall make a finding that:

(I) The complaint is without merit and no further action need be taken with reference thereto;

(II) There is no reasonable cause to warrant further action with reference thereto;

(II.5) The investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and should be dismissed but in which the inquiry panel has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected. In such a case, a confidential letter of concern shall be sent to the licensee against whom the complaint was made.

(III) (A) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(B) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(C) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(IV) (A) The investigation discloses facts that warrant further proceedings by formal complaint, as provided in subsection (5) of this section, in which event the complaint shall be referred to the attorney general for preparation and filing of a formal complaint.

(B) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(d) All proceedings pursuant to this subsection (4) shall be expeditiously and informally conducted so that no licensee is subjected to unfair and unjust charges and that no complainant is deprived of his or her right to a timely, fair, and proper investigation of his or her complaint.

(5) (a) to (d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 95, p. 1062, § 13, effective July 1, 1995.)

(e) All formal complaints shall be heard and determined in accordance with paragraph (f) of this subsection (5) and section 24-4-105, C.R.S. Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, all formal hearings shall be conducted by the hearings panel. The licensee may be present in person and by counsel, if so desired, to offer evidence and be heard in his or her own defense. At formal hearings, the witnesses shall be sworn and a complete record shall be made of all proceedings and testimony.

(f) Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, an administrative law judge shall preside at the hearing and shall advise the hearings panel, as requested, on legal matters in connection with the hearing. The administrative law judge shall provide advice or assistance as requested by the hearings panel in connection with its preparations of its findings and recommendations or conclusions to be made. The administrative law judge may administer oaths and affirmations, sign and issue subpoenas, and perform other duties as authorized by the hearings panel.

(g) (I) To warrant a finding of unprofessional conduct, the charges shall be established as specified in section 24-4-105 (7), C.R.S. Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the hearings panel shall make a report of its findings and conclusions which, when approved and signed by a majority of those members of the hearings panel who have conducted the hearing pursuant to paragraphs (e) and (f) of this subsection (5), shall be and become the action of the board.

(II) If it is found that the charges are unproven, the hearings panel, or an administrative law judge sitting in lieu of the hearings panel pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, shall enter an order dismissing the complaint.

(III) If the hearings panel finds the charges proven and orders that discipline be imposed, it shall also determine the extent of such discipline, which must be in the form of a letter of admonition, suspension for a definite or indefinite period, or revocation of license to practice. The hearings panel also may impose a fine of up to five thousand dollars per violation. In determining appropriate disciplinary action, the hearings panel shall first consider sanctions that are necessary to protect the public. Only after the panel has considered such sanctions may it consider and order requirements designed to rehabilitate the licensee or applicant. If discipline other than revocation of a license to practice is imposed, the hearings panel may also order that the licensee be granted probation and allowed to continue to practice during the period of such probation. The hearings panel may also include in any disciplinary order that allows the licensee to continue to practice such conditions as the panel may deem appropriate to assure that the licensee is physically, mentally, morally, and otherwise qualified to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant in accordance with generally accepted professional standards of practice, including any or all of the following:

(A) Submission by the respondent to such examinations as the hearings panel may order to determine his physical or mental condition or his professional qualifications;

(B) The taking by him of such therapy or courses of training or education as may be needed to correct deficiencies found either in the hearing or by such examinations;

(C) The review or supervision of his practice as may be necessary to determine the quality of his practice and to correct deficiencies therein; and

(D) The imposition of restrictions upon the nature of his practice to assure that he does not practice beyond the limits of his capabilities.

(III.5) Any moneys collected pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (g) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the general fund.

(IV) Upon the failure of the licensee to comply with any conditions imposed by the hearings panel pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (g), unless due to conditions beyond the licensee's control, the hearings panel may order suspension of the licensee's license to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant in this state until such time as the licensee complies with such conditions.

(V) In making any of the orders provided in subparagraphs (III) and (IV) of this paragraph (g), the hearings panel may take into consideration the licensee's prior disciplinary record. If the hearings panel does take into consideration any prior discipline of the licensee, its findings and recommendations shall so indicate.

(VI) In all cases of revocation, suspension, or probation, the board shall enter in its records the facts of such revocation, suspension, or probation and of any subsequent action of the board with respect thereto.

(VII) to (IX) (Deleted by amendment, L. 79, p. 512, § 14, effective July 1, 1979.)

(X) In all cases involving alleged violations of section 12-36-117 (1) (mm), the board shall promptly notify the executive director of the department of public health and environment of its findings, including whether it found that the physician violated section 12-36-117 (1) (mm) and any restrictions it placed on the physician with respect to recommending the use of medical marijuana.

(h) The attorney general shall prosecute those charges which have been referred to him by the inquiry panel pursuant to subparagraph (IV) of paragraph (c) of subsection (4) of this section. The board may direct the attorney general to perfect an appeal.

(i) Any person whose license to practice medicine, to practice as a physician assistant, or to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant is revoked or who surrenders his or her license to avoid discipline is not eligible to apply for any license for two years after the date the license is revoked or surrendered. The two-year waiting period applies to any person whose license to practice medicine, to practice as a physician assistant, to practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, or to practice any other health care occupation is revoked by any other legally qualified board or regulatory entity.

(6) A majority of the members of the board, three members of the inquiry panel, or three members of the hearings panel shall constitute a quorum. The action of a majority of those present comprising such quorum shall be the action of the board, the inquiry panel, or the hearings panel.

(8) If any licensee is determined to be mentally incompetent or insane by a court of competent jurisdiction and a court enters, pursuant to part 3 or part 4 of article 14 of title 15 or section 27-65-109 (4) or 27-65-127, C.R.S., an order specifically finding that the mental incompetency or insanity is of such a degree that the licensee is incapable of continuing to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, the board shall automatically suspend his or her license, and, anything in this article to the contrary notwithstanding, such suspension must continue until the licensee is found by such court to be competent to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant.

(9) (a) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety to patients because of a condition described in section 12-36-117 (1) (i) or (1) (o), it may require such licensee to submit to mental or physical examinations by physicians designated by the board. If a licensee fails to submit to such mental or physical examinations, the board may suspend the license until the required examinations are conducted.

(b) Every licensee shall be deemed, by so practicing or by applying for annual registration of such person's license, to have consented to submit to mental or physical examinations when directed in writing by the board. Further, such person shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's testimony or examination reports on the ground of privileged communication. Subject to applicable federal law, such licensee shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the production of medical records to the board from health care providers that may be necessary for the evaluations described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (9).

(c) The results of any mental or physical examination ordered by the board shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than before the board.

(10) (a) Investigations, examinations, hearings, meetings, or any other proceedings of the board conducted pursuant to this section shall be exempt from any law requiring that proceedings of the board be conducted publicly or that the minutes or records of the board with respect to action of the board taken pursuant to this section be open to public inspection. This subsection (10) shall not apply to investigations, examinations, hearings, meetings, or any other proceedings or records of the licensing panel created pursuant to section 12-36-111.3 related to the unlicensed practice of medicine.

(b) For purposes of the records related to a complaint filed pursuant to this section against a licensee, the board is considered a professional review committee, the records related to the complaint include all records described in section 12-36.5-102 (7), and section 12-36.5-104 (11) applies to those records.

(11) A licensee who, at the request of the board, examines another licensee shall be immune from suit for damages by the person examined if the examining person conducted the examination and made his or her findings or diagnosis in good faith.

(13) Within thirty days after the board takes final action, which is of public record, to revoke or suspend a license or to place a licensee on probation based on competence or professional conduct, the board shall send notice of the final action to any hospital in which the licensee has clinical privileges, as indicated by the licensee.

(14) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person or in its own motion, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or practices immediately cease.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (15) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (15) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (15). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 1, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (15), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom such order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(16) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 1, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 1, any order issued pursuant to this part 1, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 1, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(17) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(18) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-36-119.

(19) If a physician has a restriction placed on his or her license, the restriction shall, if practicable, state whether the restriction prohibits the physician from making a medical marijuana recommendation.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For article, "Law and Strategy in Licensing Disciplinary Proceedings", see 18

Colo. Law. 647 (1988). For article, "Changes in the Medical Practice Act", see 24 Colo. Law. 2155 (1995).

Annotator's note. Since § 12-36-118 is similar to repealed CSA, C. 109, § 13, and laws antecedent thereto, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

The attorney general has avoided violating due process and avoided the appearance of impropriety by establishing an internal system that allows the office to act as both an advocate and an advisor to the decision-making body in the same administrative case. People Ex Rel. Woodard v. Brown, 770 P.2d 1373 (Colo. App. 1989), cert. denied, 783 P.2d 1223 (Colo. 1989).

Immunity of members. Members who performed statutory functions, both adjudicatory and prosecutorial in nature, are entitled to the common law absolute immunity from damages liability under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 which has historically been afforded judges, prosecutors, and other officials involved in the judicial process. Horwitz v. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 822 F.2d 1508 (10th Cir. 1987), cert. denied, 484 U.S. 964, 108 S. Ct. 453, 98 L. Ed.2d 394 (1987).

When read in conjunction with § 12-36-104 (1)(b), this section authorizes the attorney general to issue subpoenas and make investigations before and after filing of the formal complaint. Norton v. Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 821 P.2d 897 (Colo. App. 1991).

State board of medical examiners is not required to demonstrate that subpoena duces tecum is justified by more than speculation or conjecture; rather, board is required only to demonstrate that the subpoena was issued for a lawful purpose under the procedures established under this article. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

State board of medical examiners is authorized to exercise the subpoena powers specified in § 12-36-104 in connection with any investigation described in subsection (4) of this section. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

Probable cause to believe a statutory violation has occurred is not required before issuing an investigative subpoena under this section. Rather, justification for issuance is grounded upon a showing that: (1) the investigation is for a lawfully authorized purpose; (2) the information sought is relevant to the issues being investigated; and (3) the subpoena is sufficiently specific to obtain documents that are adequate but not excessive for the inquiry. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

Subpoena duces tecum issued under this section that required doctor to produce complete office records for all cases in which device was used could not be enforced where board could not produce copy of written complaint and clear exposition of act or omission which, if found to have occurred, would constitute unprofessional conduct. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

1995 amendment to this section allows investigation of a physician by the inquiry panel prior to the initiation of the informal complaint procedure, and there is nothing in this section that would indicate that the permissible scope of the pre-response investigation excludes the issuance of subpoenas. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Khan, 984 P.2d 670 (Colo. App. 1999).

Subsection (4)(a) does not prevent the attorney general from investigating complaints which are referred to the attorney general's office for preparation and filing of a formal complaint. Norton v. Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 821 P.2d 897 (Colo. App. 1991).

Complaint contemplated by subsection (4) need not be factually specific and may be general in nature as long as it gives notice of all matters complained of; however, if the nature of the complaint will determine the jurisdiction of the board to act, the board must clearly demonstrate the nature of the complaint. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Duhon, 867 P.2d 20 (Colo. App. 1993), aff'd, 895 P.2d 143 (Colo. 1995).

Statute does not require that there be an actual harmful effect on a medical practice before the board can take action against a physician. Rather, adverse manifest behavior affecting the practice, if any, is relevant to the degree of severity of the sanction imposed for the unprofessional conduct of habitual intemperance. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Hoffner, 832 P.2d 1062 (Colo. App. 1992); Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Boyle, 924 P.2d 1113 (Colo. App. 1996).

Although evidence that physician's practice was not affected or that no patient had been harmed is relevant for the board to consider in imposing appropriate discipline, the lack of such evidence is not determinative of the question of whether a physician is "habitually intemperate" under § 12-36-117 (1)(i). Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Hoffner, 832 P.2d 1062 (Colo. App. 1992).

The board is allowed great discretion in its determination of the appropriate sanction for unprofessional conduct, and its determination should be upheld on review unless it bears no relation to the conduct, is a gross abuse of discretion, or is manifestly excessive in relation to the needs of the public. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Hoffner, 832 P.2d 1062 (Colo. App. 1992).

Subsection (10) does not create a privilege against discovery of the state board of medical examiners investigatory files in a civil lawsuit; however, the discovery process provided in discovery rules and case law must be followed by the trial court in considering privacy assertions. DeSantis v. Simon, 209 P.3d 1069 (Colo. 2009).

II. JURISDICTION OF STATE BOARD OF MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

Section is not an unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority to board of medical examiners to define "misconduct" because "unprofessional conduct", defined in section 12-36-117, is the same as "misconduct", used in this section. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Jorgensen, 198 Colo. 275, 599 P.2d 869 (1979) (decided prior to 1985 amendment to subsection (5)(g)(I)).

Board need not adopt rules and regulations defining "misconduct" because the definition of "unprofessional conduct" given in § 12-36-117 gives advance notice of the application of "misconduct". Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Jorgensen, 198 Colo. 275, 599 P.2d 869 (1979) (decided prior to 1985 amendment to subsection (5)(g)(I)).

The general assembly has power to enact laws regulating the practice of medicine, and in so doing may create within the executive department a board empowered to administer and enforce such laws. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. District Court, 138 Colo. 227, 331 P.2d 502 (1958).

The sole original jurisdiction to grant or revoke licenses to practice medicine in compliance with the regulatory provisions of this statute is vested in the state board of medical examiners. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. District Court, 138 Colo. 227, 331 P.2d 502 (1958).

The board's authority comes solely from the statute itself and it cannot create new grounds for the revocation of a license. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Weiler, 157 Colo. 244, 402 P.2d 606 (1965).

In addition to this section, the medical board claims that it has legislative powers, delegated to it by the general assembly, but the general assembly cannot delegate its powers, and there is no place in this article where it has been even attempted. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

The general assembly may not delegate the power to make a law, but it may delegate power to determine some fact or a state of things upon which the law, as prescribed, depends. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

The completeness of this section is one of the strongest proofs that no delegation of power was intended. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

Board may review decision and adopt findings different from those of hearing officer where attorney general filed exceptions to decision, complaint charges were not unproven or unfounded, and board expressly concluded that findings were contrary to weight of evidence. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Robertson, 751 P.2d 648 (Colo. App. 1987).

State board of medical examiners abused its discretion by requiring remedial course work for petitioner when it had made no findings of deficiencies at a hearing on the matter.

Horwitz v. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 716 P.2d 131 (Colo. App. 1985), cert. denied, 479 U.S. 803, 107 S. Ct. 44, 93 L. Ed.2d 7 (1986).

The findings of the medical board are persuasive, but not conclusive, and an examination of the record with slavish adherence to the findings and without fidelity to the law and facts would not be a judicial review. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

Where there is filed with the state medical board a sworn complaint charging a physician with one of the offenses denounced by § 12-36-117, the board has at once jurisdiction of the subject matter, and where the accused person appears and contests the complaint on its merits, this gives jurisdiction of the person. Thompson v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 59 Colo. 549, 151 P. 436 (1915).

Initial decision by ALJ on disciplinary action complaint referred to ALJ pursuant to subsection (5)(g)(II) is not final and is properly reviewable by board under § 12-36-119. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Slonim, 844 P.2d 1207 (Colo. App. 1992).

On review of the proceedings the court will not go beyond this and inquire as to the sufficiency of the evidence, or whether the board reached a correct conclusion therefrom. Thompson v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 59 Colo. 549, 151 P. 436 (1915).

In reviewing proceedings of board of medical examiners revoking physician's license, review is limited to whether the board had jurisdiction, abused its discretion, or regularly pursued its authority. Glenn v. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 131 Colo. 586, 284 P.2d 230 (1955).

Applied in State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Reiner, 786 P.2d 499 (Colo. App. 1989).

III. FULL AND FAIR OPPORTUNITY TO BE HEARD.

The provision of this section giving all persons summoned a full and fair opportunity to be heard is mandatory. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Palmer, 157 Colo. 40, 400 P.2d 914 (1965).

Statute does not mandate that a physician be allowed to testify. It requires only that the physician be given an opportunity to be heard. Norton v. Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 821 P.2d 897 (Colo. App. 1991).

There was no denial of due process, and the physician's right to be heard was not violated, where the administrative law judge prohibited the physician from testifying at the hearing after the physician failed to appear for a deposition on five different occasions. Norton v. Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 821 P.2d 897 (Colo. App. 1991).

Physician's right to due process was not violated where the opportunity was afforded to participate in the disciplinary hearing at a meaningful time and in a meaningful manner. Colo. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Boyle, 924 P.2d 1113 (Colo. App. 1996).

This section provides for the mailing of notice, but such a provision is for convenience and is among the least satisfactory methods of providing for notice. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Palmer, 157 Colo. 40, 400 P.2d 914 (1965).

Therefore, personal service, with the return thereon showing actual communication of notice to the parties entitled thereto, is much more certain and susceptible of satisfactory proof, and one who receives it by such method cannot be prejudiced. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Palmer, 157 Colo. 40, 400 P.2d 914 (1965).

The time period to request a hearing pursuant to subsection (4)(c)(III) begins 20 days after receipt of the letter of admonition and not 20 days from the date the board determines the letter was undeliverable. The plain meaning of the term "receipt" in subsection (4)(c)(III) requires actual receipt by the physician. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Roberts, 42 P.3d 70 (Colo. App. 2001).

Due process certainly cannot be said to have been violated when that method is used. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Palmer, 157 Colo. 40, 400 P.2d 914 (1965).

Due process and notice must be differentiated from service or jurisdiction. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Palmer, 157 Colo. 40, 400 P.2d 914 (1965).

When specific time for a hearing is not expressly provided elsewhere, the administrative code provides that notice of the hearing must be timely, and the licensee shall have "opportunity to submit written data, views, and arguments" in order to afford due process. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Palmer, 157 Colo. 40, 400 P.2d 914 (1965).

Where the board on its own motion was advised that respondent had only two days notice, it should have set the matter at another time reasonably sufficient to give him all of the opportunities for defense to which he was entitled. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Palmer, 157 Colo. 40, 400 P.2d 914 (1965).

For the board to go forward and take evidence in his absence and to summarily act to revoke his license was an abuse of discretion and a violation of his rights to a fair and full hearing under procedural due process. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Palmer, 157 Colo. 40, 400 P.2d 914 (1965).

No licensee has a right to a secret, closed nonpublic hearing before the board. Coe v. United States Dist. Court, 676 F.2d 411 (10th Cir. 1982).

IV. REVOCATION OF LICENSE.

A. In General.

Quite clearly the causes designated in § 12-36-117 are exclusive. Graeb v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 55 Colo. 523, 139 P. 1099 (1913).

A physician's license cannot be revoked merely for a violation of professional ethics or the rules of a board of health, because to be actionable, his misdeeds must amount to a breach of law. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

The state board of medical examiners has jurisdiction to enter an order revoking the license of a physician and surgeon to practice only when such order is based upon competent testimony, and it greatly abuses its discretion when it enters such an order without evidence to support it. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

Any conclusion of the board in a proceeding to revoke the license of a physician to practice must be based upon evidence produced before it. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

The opinion of the board members alone as to the merits of the charges is not sufficient, because in the event of a review of its action the court must have before it the evidence upon which the conclusions of the board were based. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

There is no statutory requirement that in proceedings before the state medical board the evidence shall be preserved, and one who neither asks that it be preserved by the board, or that he be permitted to preserve it, is in no position to urge, on certiorari brought, an abuse of discretion. Thompson v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 59 Colo. 549, 151 P. 436 (1915).

When the board disciplines a physician for actions that occur outside of Colorado, the board action is only applicable to the physician's practice of medicine within Colorado. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Sullivan, 976 P.2d 885 (Colo. App. 1999).

Where physician charged with conduct justifying revocation of his license frankly admitted guilt of the acts charged, the board of medical examiners could not do otherwise than revoke his license, because any other course would be unjustified leniency to the detriment of the public welfare. Glenn v. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 131 Colo. 586, 284 P.2d 230 (1955).

B. Grounds for Revocation.

The term "unprofessional" is convertible with "dishonorable", in the common use of the word, and considered as dishonorable in the common judgment of mankind. Sapero v. State

Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

The board has exclusive jurisdiction to revoke licensure privileges within Colorado regardless of whether the "unprofessional conduct" occurred within or outside of Colorado. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Sullivan, 976 P.2d 885 (Colo. App. 1999).

Former clause prohibiting advertisements relative to disease of sexual organs was unconstitutional. Chenoweth v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 57 Colo. 74, 141 P. 132 (1913).

The general assembly has no power to confer the authority upon a board of medical examiners to deny to a physician the right to advertise his business. Chenoweth v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 57 Colo. 74, 141 P. 132 (1914).

Publication of entirely harmless advertisements that could not injuriously affect the public health, safety, morals, or welfare do not justify revocation. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

While such publication may be considered unethical by some, or even many, physicians, and may even constitute ground for exclusion from a medical society, it no more justifies the revocation of a physician's license to practice than would a mere breach of etiquette, or the exhibition of table manners that do not conform to the usage of polite society. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

If this section attempted to make it a ground for revocation of a physician's license, it would be unconstitutional and void. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

Such advertising does not come within the prohibition of this section. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

The publication of libelous matter may be sufficient ground for revoking the license of a physician who publishes the libel. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Spears, 79 Colo. 588, 247 P. 563, 54 A.L.R. 1498 (1926), appeal dismissed, 275 U.S. 508, 48 S. Ct. 158, 72 L. Ed. 398 (1928).

The state board of medical examiners is supposed to know better than laymen the ethics of their profession and what constitutes reprehensible conduct that makes one unfit to engage or continue in the practice of medicine, but an average layman would not experience much difficulty in arriving at the conclusion that a doctor who, without authority of his patient, reveals to the public through a newspaper the nature of the patient's disease or falsely states that he has cured him of an ailment, in order to increase his practice and professional fees, is not a proper person to practice the healing art.

The phrase "manifestly incurable disease" appearing in former statute was held not to refer to condition of a patient and was void for insufficiency. Graeb v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 55 Colo. 523, 139 P. 1099 (1913).

The expression "moral turpitude" in this section is not so indefinite as to render the section void. White v. Andrew, 70 Colo. 50, 197 P. 564 (1921).

The medical board properly revoked the license of a physician who was convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude, which consisted of the sale of morphine by the physician for other than medicinal purposes, and to an habitual user thereof who was not his patient. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Spears, 79 Colo. 588, 247 P. 563 (1926), appeal dismissed, 275 U.S. 508, 48 S. Ct. 158, 72 E. Ed. 398 (1928).

Moral turpitude is excluded except in case of conviction in a court of justice, and is in this way eliminated as a basis for revocation under this section. Graeb v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 55 Colo. 523, 139 P. 1099 (1913).

A licentiate is not acting in the course of practicing his profession, whether it be medicine or chiropractic, when he sells narcotic drugs to an habitual user for the latter's fancied solace or enjoyment and not as an aid to a cure. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Spears, 79 Colo. 588, 247 P. 563 (1926).

The commission of a crime is not sufficient basis for revocation; there must first be a conviction. Graeb v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 55 Colo. 523, 139 P. 1099 (1913).

Violations of the federal narcotic laws may be considered by the board in proceeding for the revocation of a physician's license to practice. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

The state board of medical examiners is not vested with jurisdiction to try alleged offenders against federal narcotic laws, and it may not make findings of such violations by a physician and predicate either malpractice, or immoral, unprofessional, or dishonorable conduct thereon. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

Unlawful acts must be established by competent evidence and must be such as to constitute malpractice, or immoral, unprofessional or dishonorable conduct without regard to any law which makes the doing of them an offense, in order to afford grounds for revocation. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

The revocation of a license of a physician to practice on the ground of alleged unwarranted prescription of narcotics, in the absence of a conviction thereof in a court of competent jurisdiction, must be based upon evidence of malpractice in connection with the prescription or administering of the drug, and no such evidence appearing in the record, action of the board of medical examiners in revoking the license will be reversed by the reviewing court. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

Immoral, unprofessional or dishonorable conduct was the most common statutory ground for revocation or suspension. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

It was essential that a licensed physician be possessed of professional honor, and the general assembly had the power to provide for the revocation of a license to practice medicine for unprofessional or dishonorable conduct, though the physician was not shown to be immoral. Dilliard v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 69 Colo. 575, 196 P. 866 (1921).

Manifestly, it was impossible as well as unnecessary for the general assembly to anticipate all evil deeds that the words "immoral, unprofessional, or dishonorable" were intended to cover, hence the wisdom of looking to the usual definition of such words, or "the common judgment of mankind", for a standard of construction. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

It would be hardly consistent or reasonable for the court to say that the terms "unprofessional or dishonorable" were too indefinite to justify the revocation of the license of a physician while we disbar attorneys for "malconduct in office". Dilliard v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 69 Colo. 575, 196 P. 866 (1921).

Malpractice consists of a failure to exercise that degree of care and skill in diagnosis or treatment that may reasonably be expected from one licensed and holding himself out as a physician, under the circumstances of the particular case. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

Treatment which is proper, judged by correct medical standards, does not constitute malpractice even though it amounts to a violation of law. McKay v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 103 Colo. 305, 86 P.2d 232 (1938).

The Americans with Disabilities Act does not preclude the board from revoking a physician's license where the physician suffers from a chronic sleep condition that may endanger the safety of patients. The board determined that, because of the physician's condition, no reasonable accommodation was available that would ensure patient safety. The court upheld the finding of the board because it had a reasonable basis in the law. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Ogin, 56 P.3d 1233 (Colo. App. 2002).

12-36-118.5. Confidential agreements to limit practice - violation grounds for discipline. (1) If a physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant suffers from a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the licensee unable to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant with reasonable skill and with safety to patients, the physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant shall notify the board of the illness or condition in a manner and within a period determined by the board. The board may require the licensee to submit to an examination or refer the licensee to a peer health assistance program pursuant to section 12-36-123.5 to evaluate the extent of the illness or condition and its impact on the licensee's ability to practice with reasonable skill and with safety to patients.

(2) (a) Upon determining that a physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant with a physical or mental illness or condition is able to render limited medical services with reasonable skill and with safety to patients, the board may enter into a confidential agreement with the physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant in which the physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant agrees to limit his or her practice based on the restrictions imposed by the illness or condition, as determined by the board.

(b) As part of the agreement, the licensee shall be subject to periodic reevaluations or monitoring as determined appropriate by the board. The board may refer the licensee to the peer assistance health program for reevaluation or monitoring.

(c) The parties may modify or dissolve the agreement as necessary based on the results of a reevaluation or of monitoring.

(3) By entering into an agreement with the board pursuant to this section to limit his or her practice, the licensee shall not be deemed to be engaging in unprofessional conduct, and the agreement shall be considered an administrative action and shall not constitute a restriction or discipline by the board. However, if the licensee fails to comply with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to this section, such failure constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to section 12-36-117 (1) (o), and the licensee shall be subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-36-118.

(4) This section shall not apply to a licensee subject to discipline for unprofessional conduct as described in section 12-36-117 (1) (i).

12-36-119. Appeal of final board actions. When the board refuses to grant a license, imposes disciplinary action pursuant to section 12-36-118, or places a licensee on probation, such action may be reviewed by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S., unless the licensee has accepted a license subject to terms of probation as set forth in section 12-36-116 (3).

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-36-119 is similar to repealed CSA, C. 109, § 13, and laws antecedent thereto, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

This statute specifically provides for the reconsideration by the board of any orders issued by it, and court review of any action taken in revoking a physician's license. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. District Court, 138 Colo. 227, 331 P.2d 502 (1958).

Where the state board of medical examiners is proceeding pursuant to its statutory authority, a trial court has no authority to issue an absolute writ, prohibiting the board from performing the duties imposed upon it by law, where a statute provides for reconsideration by the board of any orders issued by it and court review of any action taken in revoking a physician's license. Colo. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. District Court, 138 Colo. 227, 331 P.2d 502 (1958).

The board does not have jurisdiction equal to, or coordinate with, that of the courts, because if any of the orders of the board are defied, it is helpless without judicial process. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

This disparity in powers and duties is not of judicial origin because it cannot be supposed that the express provision reserving the remedy to review the acts of the medical board in either "refusing to grant or in revoking a license to practice medicine", was the product of judicial legislation. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932).

The district court has no power on certiorari to review the action of the board of medical examiners except for excess of jurisdiction, or abuse of discretion. Dilliard v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 69 Colo. 575, 196 P. 866 (1921); White v. Andrew, 70 Colo. 50, 197 P. 564 (1921).

The board has power in the first instance to decide what constitutes unprofessional conduct, but if it abuses that power, the court will reverse its judgment. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932), citing Dilliard v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 69 Colo. 575, 196 P. 866 (1921).

The reviewing court cannot decide the case upon the merits. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Spears, 79 Colo. 588, 247 P. 563 (1926), appeal dismissed, 275 U.S. 508, 48 S. Ct. 158, 72 L. Ed. 398 (1928).

The reviewing court has no power to correct a mistake of fact or erroneous conclusion from the facts, made by the inferior tribunal. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, v. Spears, 79 Colo. 588, 247 P. 563 (1926), appeal dismissed, 275 U.S. 508, 48 S. Ct. 158, 72 L. Ed. 398 (1928).

It is proper for the court to say whether the evidence shows the defendants guilty of moral turpitude. Sapero v. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs, 90 Colo. 568, 11 P.2d 555 (1932); State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Savelle, 90 Colo. 177, 8 P.2d 693, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 562, 53 S. Ct. 5, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932); State Bd. of Dental Exam'rs v. Miller, 90 Colo. 193, 8 P.2d 699, appeal dismissed, 287 U.S. 563, 53 S. Ct. 6, 77 L. Ed. 496 (1932).

Barring doctor whose license is revoked from applying for relicensure for a period of two years is contrary to the plain meaning of subsection (1) (a). Puls v. People ex rel. Woodard, 722 P.2d 424 (Colo. App. 1986).

Section does not restrict board's authority to increase previously imposed sanctions, because it applies only where applicant has demonstrated by his compliance that a lessening of sanctions is warranted. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Robertson, 751 P.2d 648 (Colo. App. 1987).

"Letter of concern" issued to physician after disciplinary proceedings against him were dismissed did not constitute "disciplinary action" taken by the medical board, and therefore not subject to judicial review in the Court of Appeals. Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. B.L.L., 820 P.2d 1190 (Colo. App. 1991).

Initial decision by ALJ on disciplinary action complaint referred to ALJ pursuant to § 12-36-118 (5)(g)(II) is not final and is properly reviewable by board under this section. State Bd. of Med. Exam'rs v. Slonim, 844 P.2d 1207 (Colo. App. 1992).

12-36-122. Physician training licenses. (1) Any person serving an approved internship, residency, or fellowship, as defined by this article, in a hospital in this state may do so for an aggregate period of up to six years under the authority of a physician training license issued pursuant to this subsection and without a license to practice medicine issued pursuant to section 12-36-107 or 12-36-107.6.

(2) No person shall be granted a physician training license unless such person meets the following criteria:

(a) The person has been accepted into and demonstrates the intention to participate in an approved internship, residency, or fellowship, as defined by this article; and

(b) The person is not otherwise licensed to practice medicine in this state.

(3) The board may refrain from issuing a physician training license, or may grant a physician training license subject to terms or probation, for any of the reasons listed in section 12-36-116 (1) (a), (1) (b), or (1) (c). An applicant whose physician training license is denied or is granted subject to terms of probation may seek review pursuant to section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.; except that, if an applicant accepts a physician training license that is subject to terms of probation, such acceptance shall be in lieu of and not in addition to the remedies set forth in section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (3) of this section, the board shall issue a physician training license upon receipt of a statement from the approved internship, residency, or fellowship program stating that the applicant meets the criteria set forth in subsection (2) of this section and that the approved internship, residency, or fellowship accepts responsibility for the applicant's training while in the program. The statement shall be signed by the program director, clinical director, or other physician responsible for the training of the applicant. The statement shall be submitted to the board no later than thirty days prior to the date on which the applicant begins the approved internship, residency, or fellowship in this state.

(5) Where feasible, the applicant shall submit a completed application, on a form approved by the board, on or before the date on which the applicant begins the approved internship, residency, or fellowship in this state. Any physician training license granted pursuant to this section shall expire if a completed application is not received by the board sixty days after the applicant begins the approved internship, residency, or fellowship in this state. The board may establish and charge an application and renewal fee not to exceed fifty dollars for such physician training licenses pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. Such applicants and renewal applicants shall not be required to pay any fee pursuant to section 12-36-123.5.

(6) Except as otherwise provided in this section, such physician training license shall be subject to renewal as set forth in section 12-36-123 (1) (a) and (1) (b). In no event shall any person hold a Colorado physician training license for more than an aggregate period of six years.

(7) A physician training licensee may practice medicine as defined by this article with the following restrictions:

(a) A physician training licensee shall be authorized to practice medicine only under the supervision of a physician licensed to practice medicine pursuant to section 12-36-107 or 12-36-107.6 and only as necessary for the physician training licensee's participation in the approved internship, residency, or fellowship designated on the licensee's application for a physician training license.

(b) (I) A physician training license shall expire:

(A) Within sixty days under the circumstances described in subsection (5) of this section;

(B) At the time the physician training licensee ceases to participate in the approved internship, residency, or fellowship program identified on the licensee's application form; or

(C) At the time the physician training licensee obtains any other license to practice medicine issued by the board.

(II) If a physician training licensee entered an approved internship, residency, or fellowship other than the approved internship, residency, or fellowship indicated on the licensee's application, the licensee shall file a new application with the board pursuant to subsections (4) and (5) of this section.

(c) A physician training licensee shall not have the authority to delegate the rendering of medical services to a person who is not licensed to practice medicine pursuant to section 12-36-106 (3) (I) and shall not have the authority to supervise physician assistants as provided by section 12-36-106 (5).

(d) The issuance of a physician training license shall not be construed to require the board to issue the physician training licensee a license to practice medicine pursuant to section 12-36-107 or 12-36-107.6.

(8) A physician training licensee may be disciplined for unprofessional conduct as defined in section 12-36-117, pursuant to the procedures outlined in section 12-36-118.

(9) Repealed.

(10) Licensed physicians responsible for the supervision of interns, residents, or fellows in graduate training programs shall report to the board no later than thirty days after a physician training licensee has been terminated or has resigned from the approved internship, residency, or fellowship.

12-36-122.5. Intern, resident, or fellow reporting. (1) Notwithstanding any provision of 12-36-118 (10) to the contrary, the board shall inform the licensed physicians responsible for the supervision of an intern, resident, or fellow of any complaint received in writing relating to the intern, resident, or fellow. The board shall also inform the program sponsoring such intern, resident, or fellow of actions of the board regarding such complaint.

(2) The board in its discretion may release records that are not otherwise privileged or confidential by law to the licensed physicians responsible for the supervision of an intern, resident, or fellow, but only if such physician agrees in writing not to redisclose such records or the information contained therein for use outside of any proceeding within the program or practice site.

(3) Licensed physicians responsible for the supervision of interns, residents, or fellows in graduate training programs shall promptly report to the board anything concerning a licensee in the graduate training program that would constitute a violation of this article. The physicians shall also report to the board any licensee who has not progressed satisfactorily in the program because the licensee has been dismissed, suspended, or placed on probation for reasons that constitute unprofessional conduct as defined in section 12-36-117, unless the conduct has been reported to the peer health assistance program pursuant to section 12-36-123.5.

12-36-123. Procedure - registration - fees. (1) (a) All licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and shall increase renewal fees consistent with section 24-34-109 (4), C.R.S., to fund the division's costs in administering and staffing the nurse-physician advisory task force for Colorado health care created in section 24-34-109 (1), C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. A person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(b) The board shall design a questionnaire to accompany the renewal form for the purpose of determining whether a licensee has acted in violation of this article or been disciplined for any action that might be considered a violation of this article or might make the licensee unfit to practice medicine with reasonable care and safety. If an applicant fails to answer the questionnaire accurately, such failure shall constitute unprofessional conduct under section 12-36-117 (1) (aa).

(c) Applicants for relicensure shall not be required to attend and complete continuing medical education programs, except as directed by the board to correct deficiencies of training or education as directed under section 12-36-118 (5) (g) (III) (B).

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-36-123 is similar to repealed CSA, C. 109, § 11, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

The failure of the doctor to pay a small annual registration fee has a very remote and disconnected relation to the promotion of morals, safety, general welfare or the public health. Lipset v. Davis, 119 Colo. 335, 203 P.2d 730 (1949).

When a complete forfeiture of a physician's license is predicated on nonpayment of the annual registration fee, and new conditions of eligibility for reinstatement, far beyond the payment of the delinquent fees, are attempted to be imposed, such regulation is harsh, unwarranted and unreasonable, and therefore invalid, for if good and sufficient cause exists to deprive a doctor of the right to practice his profession, and that cause or disqualification bears a fair relation to the public health, safety, morals or welfare, there is ample authority under section 12-36-118 to accomplish a revocation of his license. Lipset v. Davis, 119 Colo. 335, 203 P.2d 730 (1949).

12-36-123.5. Physicians', physician assistants', and anesthesiologist assistants' peer health assistance program.

(1) to (3) Repealed.

(b) (I) As a condition of physician, physician assistant, and anesthesiologist assistant licensure and renewal in this state, every applicant shall pay, pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subsection (3.5), an amount set by the board, not to exceed sixty-one dollars per year, which maximum amount may be adjusted on January 1, 2011, and annually thereafter by the board to reflect:

(A) Changes in the United States bureau of labor statistics consumer price index for the Denver-Boulder consolidated metropolitan statistical area for all urban consumers, all goods, or its successor index;

(B) Overall utilization of the program; and

(C) Differences in program utilization by physicians, physician assistants, and anesthesiologist assistants.

(II) Based on differences in utilization rates between physicians, physician assistants, and anesthesiologist assistants, the board may establish different fee amounts for physicians, physician assistants, and anesthesiologist assistants.

(III) The fee imposed pursuant to this paragraph (b) is to support designated providers that have been selected by the board to provide assistance to physicians, physician assistants, and anesthesiologist assistants needing help in dealing with physical, emotional, or psychological problems that may be detrimental to their ability to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, as applicable.

(c) The board shall select one or more peer health assistance programs as designated providers. To be eligible for designation by the board, a peer health assistance program must:

(I) Provide for the education of physicians, physician assistants, and anesthesiologist assistants with respect to the recognition and prevention of physical, emotional, and psychological problems and provide for intervention when necessary or under circumstances that may be established by rules promulgated by the board;

(II) Offer assistance to a physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant in identifying physical, emotional, or psychological problems;

(III) Evaluate the extent of physical, emotional, or psychological problems and refer the physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant for appropriate treatment;

(IV) Monitor the status of a physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant who has been referred for treatment;

(V) Provide counseling and support for the physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant and for the family of any physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant referred for treatment;

(VI) Agree to receive referrals from the board;

(VII) Agree to make their services available to all licensed Colorado physicians, licensed Colorado physician assistants, and licensed Colorado anesthesiologist assistants.

(d) The administering entity shall be a qualified, nonprofit private foundation that is qualified under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and shall be dedicated to providing support for charitable, benevolent, educational, and scientific purposes that are related to medicine, medical education, medical research and science, and other medical charitable purposes.

(e) The responsibilities of the administering entity are:

(I) To collect the required annual payments, either directly or through the board pursuant to paragraph (e.5) of this subsection (3.5);

(II) To verify to the board, in a manner acceptable to the board, the names of all physician, physician assistant, and anesthesiologist assistant applicants who have paid the fee set by the board;

(III) To distribute the moneys collected, less expenses, to the approved designated provider, as directed by the board;

(IV) To provide an annual accounting to the board of all amounts collected, expenses incurred, and amounts disbursed; and

(V) To post a surety performance bond in an amount specified by the board to secure performance under the requirements of this section. The administering entity may recover the actual administrative costs incurred in performing its duties under this section in an amount not to exceed ten percent of the total amount collected.

(e.5) The board may collect the required annual payments payable to the administering entity for the benefit of the administering entity and shall transfer all such payments to the administering entity. All required annual payments collected by or due to the board for each fiscal year are custodial funds that are not subject to appropriation by the general assembly, and the distribution of the payments to the administering entity or expenditure of the payments by the administering entity does not constitute state fiscal year spending for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.

(f) No later than June 30, 1994, the board shall transfer the balance in the fund, if any, to the administering entity chosen by the board pursuant to paragraphs (d) and (e) of this subsection (3.5).

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 95, p. 1068, § 17, effective July 1, 1995.)

(5) Nothing in this section creates any liability on the board or the state of Colorado for the actions of the board in making grants to peer assistance programs, and no civil action may be brought or maintained against the board or the state for an injury alleged to have been the result of the activities of any state-funded peer assistance program or the result of an act or omission of a physician, physician assistant, or anesthesiologist assistant participating in or referred by a state-funded peer assistance program.

12-36-125. Division of fees - independent advertising or marketing agent.

(1) (a) If any person holding a license issued by the board or by the state board of medical examiners as constituted under any prior law of this state divides any fee or compensation received or charged for services rendered by him or her as such licensee or agrees to divide any such fee or compensation with any person, firm, association, or corporation as pay or compensation to such other person for sending or bringing any patient or other person to such licensee, or for recommending such licensee to any person, or for being instrumental in any manner in causing any person to engage such licensee in his or her professional capacity; or if any such licensee shall either directly or indirectly pay or compensate or agree to pay or compensate any person, firm, association, or corporation for sending or bringing any patient or other person to such licensee for examination or treatment, or for recommending such licensee to any person, or for being instrumental in causing any person to engage such licensee in his or her professional capacity; or if any such licensee, in his or her professional capacity and in his or her own name or behalf, shall make or present a bill or request a payment for services rendered by any person other than the licensee, such licensee commits a class 3 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, a licensee may pay an independent advertising or marketing agent compensation for the advertising or marketing services rendered on the licensee's behalf by such agent, including compensation which is paid for the results or performance of such services on a per patient basis.

(c) As used in this subsection (1), "independent advertising or marketing agent" means a person, firm, association, or corporation which performs advertising or other marketing services on behalf of licensees, including referrals of patients to licensees resulting from patient-initiated responses to such advertising or marketing services.

(2) Violation of the provisions of this section shall constitute grounds for the suspension or revocation of a license or the placing of the holder thereof on probation.

12-36-129. Unauthorized practice - penalties. (1) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant within this state without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and any person committing a second or subsequent offense commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(2) Any person who engages in any of the following activities commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.:

- (a) Presents as his or her own the diploma, license, certificate, or credentials of another;
- (b) Gives either false or forged evidence of any kind to the board or any board member in connection with an application for a license to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant;
- (c) Practices medicine, practices as a physician assistant, or practices as an anesthesiologist assistant under a false or assumed name; or
- (d) Falsely impersonates another licensee of a like or different name.

(2.5) Any person who violates section 12-36-117 (1) (w) commits a class 5 felony, and any person committing a second or subsequent violation commits a class 3 felony; and such persons shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(3) No action may be maintained against an individual who has been the recipient of services constituting the unlawful practice of medicine, unlawful practice as a physician assistant, or unlawful practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, for the breach of a contract involving the unlawful practice of medicine, unlawful practice as a physician assistant, or unlawful practice as an anesthesiologist assistant or the recovery of compensation for services rendered under such a contract.

(4) When an individual has been the recipient of services constituting the unlawful practice of medicine, unlawful practice as a physician assistant, or unlawful practice as an anesthesiologist assistant, whether or not the individual knew that the rendition of the services was unlawful:

(a) The individual or the individual's personal representative is entitled to recover the amount of any fee paid for the services; and

(b) The individual or the individual's personal representative may also recover a reasonable attorney fee as fixed by the court, to be assessed as part of the costs of the action.

(5) (a) No specialty society, association of physicians, or licensed physician may discriminate against any person licensed to practice medicine if such physician is qualified for membership in the specialty society or association. If board certification or eligibility in a specialty is a membership requirement, certification or eligibility by either the American board of medical specialties or the American osteopathic association based upon the applicant's training as a doctor of medicine or doctor of osteopathy, is sufficient. Notwithstanding any other remedies provided under this article, a licensed physician who is discriminated against in violation of this section shall have a private right of action against the licensed physician or specialty society or association that so discriminates.

(b) Any licensed physician, specialty society, or association of physicians held liable for a violation of this subsection (5) shall pay the costs and reasonable attorney fees incurred by the aggrieved physician associated with his pursuit of any claim for relief authorized by this subsection (5).

(6) (a) The board may, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado and through the attorney general of the state of Colorado, apply for an injunction in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person from committing any act prohibited by this article.

(b) If the board establishes that the defendant has been or is committing an act prohibited by this article, the court shall enter a decree perpetually enjoining the defendant from further committing the act.

(c) An injunctive proceeding may be brought pursuant to this section in addition to, and not in lieu of, all penalties and other remedies provided in this article.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-36-129 is similar to repealed laws antecedent to CSA, C. 109, §§ 14 and 15, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

If a physician has applied for and received from the board of medical examiners the necessary statutory certificate, he would thereby relieve himself from the prohibition and penalty of this section. Riley v. Collins, 16 Colo. App. 280, 64 P. 1052 (1901).

A commissioned surgeon of the United States Army is not required to have a license to practice medicine in this state. Patton v. People, 74 Colo. 322, 221 P. 1086 (1923).

Where defendant, without any license from the state board of medical examiners, maintained an office for receiving, treating, and healing the sick, assumed the title of healer, and claimed that by virtue of power from the Almighty he was able to cure any disease that was amenable to the treatment of medical men, and many that were not, also he made a charge against some of his patients, others he treated without charge, and held that though he belonged to the divine scientific healing mission, an incorporated society, the objects of which were "healing suffering humanity by the laying on of hands", though he was a preacher in that society, and held services on Sunday, where he preached and healed the sick, inasmuch as he healed the sick or complaining, for hire, he had incurred the penalties of this section. Smith v. People, 51 Colo. 270, 117 P. 612 (1911).

Under the former section, one who practiced osteopathy, not prescribing medicine or administering drugs, was not guilty of any offense, though he assumed the title of doctor. Jones v. People, 52 Colo. 130, 120 P. 125 (1911).

12-36-133. Postmortem examinations by licensee - definition - application of this section. (1) As used in this section, "person or persons" shall include any individual, partnership, corporation, body politic, or association.

(2) Consent for a licensee to conduct a postmortem examination of the body of a deceased person shall be deemed sufficient when given by whichever one of the following assumes custody of the body for purposes of burial: Father, mother, husband, wife, child, guardian, next of kin, or, in the absence of any of the foregoing, a friend or a person charged by law with the responsibility for burial. If two or more such persons assume custody of the body, the consent of one of them shall be deemed sufficient.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as a repeal of any provision of part 6 of article 10 of title 30, C.R.S.

12-36-134. Professional service corporations, limited liability companies, and registered limited liability partnerships for the practice of medicine - definitions. (1) Persons licensed to practice medicine by the board may form professional service corporations for such persons' practice of medicine under the "Colorado Business Corporation Act", articles 101 to 117 of title 7, C.R.S., if such corporations are organized and operated in accordance with the provisions of this section. The articles of incorporation of such corporations shall contain provisions complying with the following requirements:

(a) The name of the corporation shall contain the words "professional company" or "professional corporation" or abbreviations thereof.

(b) The corporation is organized solely for the purpose of permitting individuals to conduct the practice of medicine through a corporate entity, so long as all the individuals are actively licensed physicians or physician assistants in the state of Colorado.

(c) The corporation may exercise the powers and privileges conferred upon corporations by the laws of Colorado only in furtherance of and subject to its corporate purpose.

(d) (I) Except as specified in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (d), all shareholders of the corporation are persons licensed by the board to practice medicine in the state of Colorado who at all times own their shares in their own right; except that one or more persons licensed by the board as a physician assistant may be a shareholder of the corporation as long as the physician shareholders maintain majority ownership of the corporation. The shareholders shall be individuals who, except for illness, accident, time spent in the armed services, on vacations, and on leaves of absence not to exceed one year, are actively engaged in the practice of medicine or as a physician assistant in the offices of the corporation.

(II) If a person licensed to practice medicine who was a shareholder of the corporation dies, an heir to the deceased shareholder may become a shareholder of the corporation for up to two years, regardless of whether the heir is licensed to practice medicine. Unless the deceased shareholder was the only shareholder of the corporation, the heir who becomes a shareholder shall be a nonvoting shareholder in all matters concerning the corporation. If the heir of the deceased shareholder ceases to be a shareholder, the shares shall be disposed of pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subsection (1).

(e) Provisions shall be made requiring any shareholder who ceases to be or for any reason is ineligible to be a shareholder to dispose of all his shares forthwith, either to the corporation or to any person having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1).

(f) The president shall be a shareholder and a director and, to the extent possible, all other directors and officers shall be persons having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1). Lay directors, officers, and heirs of deceased shareholders shall not exercise any authority whatsoever over the independent medical judgment of persons licensed by the board to practice medicine in this state. Notwithstanding sections 7-108-103 to 7-108-106, C.R.S., relating to the terms of office and classification of directors, a professional service corporation for the practice of medicine may provide in the articles of incorporation or the bylaws that the directors may have terms of office of up to six years and that the directors may be divided into classes, with the terms of each class staggered to provide for the periodic election of less than all the directors. Nothing in this article shall be construed to cause a professional service corporation to be vicariously liable to a patient or third person for the professional negligence or other tortious conduct of a physician who is a shareholder or employee of a professional service corporation.

(f.5) An heir to a deceased shareholder who becomes a shareholder shall be liable only to the same extent as the deceased shareholder would have been in his or her capacity as a shareholder, had he or she lived and remained a shareholder, for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation.

(g) The articles of incorporation provide and all shareholders of the corporation agree that all shareholders of the corporation are jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation or that all shareholders of the corporation are jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation, except during periods of time when each licensee who is a shareholder or any employee of the corporation has a professional liability policy insuring himself or herself and all employees who are not licensed pursuant to this article who act at his or her direction, in the amount of fifty thousand dollars for each claim and an aggregate top limit of liability per year for all claims of one hundred fifty thousand dollars, or the corporation maintains in good standing professional liability insurance that meets the following minimum standards:

(I) The insurance insures the corporation against liability imposed upon the corporation by law for damages resulting from any claim made against the corporation arising out of the performance of professional services for others by those officers and employees of the corporation who are licensees.

(II) The policies insure the corporation against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the acts, errors, and omissions of all nonprofessional employees.

(III) The insurance is in an amount for each claim of at least fifty thousand dollars multiplied by the number of licensees employed by the corporation. The policy may provide for an aggregate top limit of liability per year for all claims of one hundred fifty thousand dollars also multiplied by the number of licensees employed by the corporation, but no firm shall be required to carry insurance in excess of three hundred thousand dollars for each claim with an aggregate top limit of liability for all claims during the year of nine hundred thousand dollars.

(IV) The policy may provide that it does not apply to: Any dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured corporation or any stockholder or employee thereof; the conduct of any business enterprise, as distinguished from the practice of medicine, in which the insured corporation under this section is not permitted to engage but which nevertheless may be owned by the insured corporation or in which the insured corporation may be a partner or which may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured corporation in its own or in a fiduciary capacity, including the ownership, maintenance, or use of any property in connection therewith; when not resulting from breach of professional duty, bodily injury to, or sickness, disease, or death of any person, or to injury to or destruction of any tangible property, including the loss of use thereof; and such policy may contain reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, and other usual matters.

(2) Repealed.

(3) The corporation shall do nothing that, if done by a licensee employed by the corporation, would violate the standards of professional conduct as provided for in section

12-36-117. Any violation of this section by the corporation is grounds for the board to revoke or suspend the license of the person or persons responsible for the violation.

(4) Nothing in this section diminishes or changes the obligation of each licensee employed by the corporation to conduct his or her practice in accordance with the standards of professional conduct provided for in section 12-36-117. Any licensee who, by act or omission, causes the corporation to act or fail to act in a way that violates the standards of professional conduct, including any provision of this section, is personally responsible for such act or omission and is subject to discipline for the act or omission.

(5) Nothing in this section modifies the physician-patient privilege specified in section 13-90-107 (1) (d), C.R.S.

(6) A professional service corporation may adopt a pension, profit-sharing (whether cash or deferred), health and accident, insurance, or welfare plan for all or part of its employees including lay employees if such plan does not require or result in the sharing of specific or identifiable fees with lay employees, and if any payments made to lay employees, or into any such plan in behalf of lay employees, are based upon their compensation or length of service, or both, rather than the amount of fees or income received.

(7) (a) Corporations shall not practice medicine. Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate a cause of action against a professional corporation for its independent acts of negligence.

(b) Employment of a physician in accordance with section 25-3-103.7, C.R.S., shall not be considered the corporate practice of medicine.

(8) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Articles of incorporation" includes operating agreements of limited liability companies and partnership agreements of registered limited liability partnerships.

(b) "Corporation" includes a limited liability company organized under the "Colorado Limited Liability Company Act", article 80 of title 7, C.R.S., and a limited liability partnership registered under section 7-60-144 or 7-64-1002, C.R.S.; except that the name of an entity other than a corporation shall contain the word "professional" or the abbreviation "prof." in addition to any other words required by the statute under which such entity is organized.

(c) "Director" and "officer" of a corporation includes a member and a manager of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

(d) "Employees" includes employees, members, and managers of a limited liability company and employees and partners of a registered limited liability partnership.

(e) "President" includes all managers, if any, of a limited liability company and all partners in a registered limited liability partnership.

(f) "Share" includes a member's rights in a limited liability company and a partner's rights in a registered limited liability partnership.

(g) "Shareholder" includes a member of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

Records of a professional corporation organized as an independent institutional entity for the continuing conduct of the medical practice of the clinic, which were not treated as being held by the doctors individually but were held in a representative capacity for the clinic, were not possessed by defendant physician as private property which the fifth amendment protects. *United States v. 12-36-135. Injuries to be reported - penalty for failure to report - immunity from liability. (1) (a) It shall be the duty of every licensee who attends or treats a bullet wound, a gunshot wound, a powder burn, or any other injury arising from the discharge of a firearm, or an injury caused by a knife, an ice pick, or any other sharp or pointed instrument that the licensee believes to have been intentionally inflicted upon a person, or an injury arising from a dog bite that the licensee believes was inflicted upon a person by a dangerous dog, as defined in section 18-9-204.5 (2) (b), C.R.S., or any other injury that the licensee has reason to believe involves a criminal act, including injuries resulting from domestic violence, to report the injury at once to the police of the city, town, or city and county or the sheriff of the county in which the licensee is located. Any licensee who fails to make a report as required by this section commits a class 2 petty offense, as defined by section 18-1.3-503, C.R.S., and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than three hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

(b) When a licensee performs a forensic medical examination that includes the collection of evidence at the request of a victim of sexual assault, not in connection with a referring or requesting law enforcement agency, and the licensee's employing medical facility knows where the crime occurred, the facility shall contact the law enforcement agency in whose jurisdiction the crime occurred regarding preservation of the evidence. If the medical facility does not know where the crime occurred, the facility shall contact its local law enforcement agency regarding preservation of the evidence.

(1.5) As used in subsection (1) of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Domestic violence" means an act of violence upon a person with whom the actor is or has been involved in an intimate relationship. Domestic violence also includes any

This section provides an exception to the corporate practice of medicine doctrine by permitting professional corporations to practice medicine and be liable for the negligence of physician employees. Subsection (1)(g) only addresses the manner by which shareholders may limit personal liability for the torts of the corporate employees. Subsection (1)(g) does not preclude the corporation from being held vicariously liable under the doctrine of respondeat superior. Pediatric Neurosurgery, P.C. v. Russell, 44 P.3d 1063 (Colo. 2002) (decided under law in effect prior to 2003 amendment). But see Estate of Harper ex rel. Al-Hamim v. Denver Health & Hosp. Auth., 140 P.3d 273 (Colo. App. 2006).

Corporate practice of medicine doctrine is statutorily altered, but not abolished, in Colorado. Daly v. Aspen Ctr. for Women's Health, Inc., 134 P.3d 450 (Colo. App. 2005).

This section does not create a statutory exception to the common law corporate practice of medicine doctrine. Therefore, health care providers organized under this section are not exposed to vicarious liability. Estate of Harper ex rel. Al-Hamim v. Denver Health & Hosp. Auth., 140 P.3d 273 (Colo. The general assembly legislatively overruled the decision in *Pediatric Neurosurgery, P.C. v. other crime against a person or any municipal ordinance violation against a person when used as a method of coercion, control, punishment, intimidation, or revenge directed against a person with whom the actor is or has been involved in an intimate relationship.

(b) "Intimate relationship" means a relationship between spouses, former spouses, past or present unmarried couples, or persons who are both the parents of the same child regardless of whether the persons have been married or have lived together at any time.

(2) Any licensee who, in good faith, makes a report pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall have immunity from any liability, civil or criminal, that might otherwise be incurred or imposed with respect to the making of such report, and shall have the same immunity with respect to participation in any judicial proceeding resulting from such report.

(3) Any licensee who makes a report pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall not be subject to the physician-patient relationship described in section 13-90-107 (1) (d), C.R.S., as to the medical examination and diagnosis. Such licensee may be examined as a witness, but not as to any statements made by the patient that are the subject matter of section 13-90-107 (1) (d), C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

The plain, clarifying language of subsection (3) states that in cases where a physician has a duty to report an injury to the police, the physician-patient privilege is abrogated only with regard to testimony about the information received from the physician's observations of the patient, not regarding any statements the patient may have made to the physician. People v. Covington, 19 P.3d 15 (Colo. 2001).

Physician duty to report abrogates the physician-patient privilege established in § 13-

90-107, and 1995 amendments to subsection (1) merely clarified that inherent within the reporting statute was an abrogation of the physician-patient privilege as it relates to the bare medical information the physician observed during the examination; otherwise, duty to report would have been rendered meaningless. People v. Covington, 19 P.3d 15 (Colo. 2001).

12-36-136. Determination of death. (1) An individual is dead if:

12-36-137. Inactive license. (1) Any licensee pursuant to section 12-36-114 may apply to the board to be transferred to an inactive status. Such application shall be in the form and manner designated by the board. The board may grant such status by issuing an inactive license or it may deny the application as set forth in section 12-36-116.

(2) Any person applying for a license under this section shall:

(a) Provide an affidavit to the board that the applicant, after a date certain, will not practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant in this state unless the applicant is issued a license to practice medicine, practice as a physician assistant, or practice as an anesthesiologist assistant pursuant to subsection (5) of this section;

(b) Pay the license fee as authorized pursuant to section 12-36-123; and

(c) Comply with any financial responsibility standards promulgated by the board pursuant to section 13-64-301 (1), C.R.S.

(3) Such inactive status shall be plainly indicated on the face of any inactive license issued under this section.

(4) The board is authorized to undertake disciplinary proceedings as set forth in sections 12-36-117 and 12-36-118 against any person licensed under this section for any act committed while the person was licensed pursuant to this article.

(5) Any person licensed under this section who wishes to resume the practice of medicine or to resume practice as a physician assistant shall file an application in the form and manner the board shall designate, pay the license fee promulgated by the board pursuant to section 12-36-123, and meet the financial responsibility requirements promulgated by the board pursuant to section 13-64-301 (1), C.R.S. 12-36-140. Protection of medical records - licensee's obligations - verification of compliance - noncompliance grounds for discipline - rules. (1) Each licensed physician and physician assistant shall develop a written plan to ensure the security of patient medical records. The plan shall address at least the following:

(a) The storage and proper disposal, if appropriate, of patient medical records;

(b) The disposition of patient medical records in the event the licensee dies, retires, or otherwise ceases to practice or provide medical care to patients; and

(c) The method by which patients may access or obtain their medical records promptly if any of the events described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) occurs.

(2) Upon initial licensure under this article and upon renewal of a license, the applicant or licensee, as applicable, shall attest to the board that he or she has developed a plan in compliance with this section.

(3) A licensee shall inform each patient, in writing, of the method by which the patient may access or obtain his or her medical records if an event described in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section occurs.

- (4) A licensee who fails to comply with this section shall be subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-36-118.
- (5) The board may adopt rules as necessary to implement this section.

PART 1

PROFESSIONAL REVIEW PROCEEDINGS - PHYSICIANS

Law reviews: For article, “The Colorado Peer Review Act: The Fog Lifts”, see 30 Colo. Law. 57 (January 2001).

- 12-36.5-101. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that the Colorado medical board created in article 36 of this title and the state board of nursing created in article 38 of this title act for the state in its sovereign capacity to govern licensure, discipline, and professional review of persons licensed to practice medicine, licensed as physician assistants, and licensed to practice nursing and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, respectively, in this state. The general assembly further finds, determines, and declares that:

(a) The authority to provide health care in this state is a privilege granted by the legislative authority of the state; and

(b) It is necessary for the health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state that the appropriate regulatory boards exercise their authority to protect the people of this state from unauthorized practice and unprofessional conduct by persons licensed to provide health care under articles 36 and 38 of this title.

(2) The general assembly recognizes that:

(a) Many patients of persons licensed to provide health care in this state have restricted choices of health care providers under a variety of circumstances and conditions;

(b) Many patients lack the knowledge, experience, or education to properly evaluate the quality of medical or nursing practice or the professional conduct of those licensed to practice medicine, licensed to act as physician assistants, and licensed to practice nursing and granted authority as advanced practice nurses; and

(c) It is necessary and proper that the respective regulatory boards exercise their regulatory authority to protect the health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state.

(3) The general assembly recognizes that, in the proper exercise of their authority and responsibilities under this article, the Colorado medical board and the state board of nursing must, to some extent, replace competition with regulation, and that the replacement of competition by regulation, particularly with regard to persons licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, is related to a legitimate state interest in the protection of the health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state.

ANNOTATION

The Colorado professional review act should not be interpreted to include the federal counterpart statute's presumption that professional review activities are undertaken for the purpose of assuring quality care and patient safety. Northern Colo. Med. Center v. Committee on Anticomp., 914 P.2d 902 (Colo. 1996).

A member of a professional review committee and a governing body that makes the final decision may participate in both the investigation and decision making process. North Colo. Med. Ctr., Inc. v. Nicholas, 27 P.3d 828 (Colo. 2001).

(1) "Authorized entity" means a corporation, organization, or entity that is authorized to establish a professional review committee under section 12-36.5-104 (4) or (5) or under rules of the medical board or nursing board adopted pursuant to section 12-36.5-104 (5).

(2) "CMS" means the federal centers for medicare and medicaid services.

(2.5) "Division" means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(3) "Governing board" means a board, board of trustees, governing board, or other body, or duly authorized subcommittee thereof, of an authorized entity, which board or body has final authority pursuant to the entity's written bylaws, policies, or procedures to take final action regarding the recommendations of a professional review committee.

(4) "Joint commission" means the joint commission or its successor entity.

(5) "Medical board" means the Colorado medical board created in section 12-36-103 (1).

(6) "Professional review committee" means any committee authorized under this article to review and evaluate the competence, professional conduct of, or the quality and appropriateness of patient care provided by, any person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse. "Professional review committee" includes a governing board, a hearing panel appointed by a governing board to conduct a hearing under section 12-36.5-104 (7) (a), and an independent third party designated by a governing board under section 12-36.5-104 (8) (b).

(7) (a) "Records" means any and all written, electronic, or oral communications by any person arising from any activities of a professional review committee, including a governing board, established by an authorized entity under this article or by the agent or staff thereof, including any:

- (I) Letters of reference;
- (II) Complaint, response, or correspondence related to the complaint or response;
- (III) Interviews or statements, reports, memoranda, assessments, and progress reports developed to assist in professional review activities;
- (IV) Assessments and progress reports to assist in professional review activities, including reports and assessments developed by independent consultants in connection with professional review activities; and
- (V) Recordings or transcripts of proceedings, minutes, formal recommendations, decisions, exhibits, and other similar items or documents related to professional review activities or the committee on anticompetitive conduct and typically constituting the records of administrative proceedings.

(b) "Records" does not include any written, electronic, or oral communications by any person that are otherwise available from a source outside the scope of professional review activities, including medical records and other health information.

(8) "State board of nursing" or "nursing board" means the state board of nursing created in section 12-38-104.

12-36.5-103. Use of professional review committees. (1) (a) The general assembly recognizes that:

(I) The medical board and the nursing board, while assuming and retaining ultimate authority for licensure and discipline in accordance with articles 36 and 38 of this title, respectively, and in accordance with this article, cannot practically and economically assume responsibility over every single allegation or instance of purported deviation from the standards of quality for the practice of medicine or nursing, from the standards of professional conduct, or from the standards of appropriate care; and

(II) An attempt to exercise such oversight would result in extraordinary delays in the determination of the legitimacy of the allegations and would result in the inappropriate and unequal exercise of their authority to license and discipline persons licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses.

(b) It is therefore the intent of the general assembly that the medical board and the nursing board utilize and allow professional review committees and governing boards to assist them in meeting their responsibilities under articles 36 and 38 of this title, respectively, and under this article.

(2) All persons licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses are encouraged to serve upon professional review committees when called to do so and to study and review in an objectively reasonable manner the professional conduct of persons licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, including the competence, professional conduct of, or the quality and appropriateness of patient care provided by, those persons.

(3) (a) The use of professional review committees is an extension of the authority of the medical board and nursing board. However, except as otherwise provided in this article, nothing in this article limits the authority of professional review committees properly constituted under this article.

(b) Professional review committees, the members who constitute the committees, governing boards, authorized entities, and persons who participate directly or indirectly in professional review activities are granted certain immunities from liability arising from actions that are within the scope of their activities as provided in section 12-36.5-105. These grants of immunity from liability are necessary to ensure that professional review committees and governing boards can exercise their professional knowledge and judgment.

ANNOTATION

While this section clearly expresses the need for peer review and its importance to the regulation of the practice of medicine, it is insufficient to provide absolute immunity in a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 action. Moore v. Gunnison Valley Hosp., 310 F.3d 1315 (10th Cir. 2002).

A mere statement by the Colorado legislature that peer-review committees are extensions of the state medical board's authority is insufficient to clothe those committees in the same immunity as the board itself. In order for these committees to be viewed as extensions of the medical board and worthy of similar immunity, the state board must exercise adequate oversight and authority over the peer-review committees. Moore v. Gunnison Valley Hosp., 310 F.3d 1315 (10th Cir. 2002).

Professional peer review conduct in a private medical facility does not constitute state action for the purposes of 42 U.S.C. § 1983. A private entity's conduct is fairly attributable to the state only if it meets two criteria: The deprivation is caused by the exercise of some right or privilege created by the state and the entity charged with the deprivation is fairly said to be a state actor. North Colo. Med. Ctr., Inc. v. Nicholas, 27 P.3d 828 (Colo. 2001).

12-36.5-104. Establishment of professional review committees - function - rules - repeal. (1) A professional review committee may be established pursuant to this section to review and evaluate the competence of, the quality and appropriateness of patient care provided by, or the professional conduct of, any person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse.

(2) Licensed physicians who are actively engaged in the practice of medicine in this state must constitute a majority of the voting members of any professional review committee established pursuant to this section for physicians and physician assistants; except that physicians need not constitute the majority of the voting members of a governing board authorized by paragraph (g) of subsection (4) of this section or an independent third party designated by a governing board under paragraph (b) of subsection (8) of this section.

(2.5) A professional review committee that is reviewing the competence of, the quality and appropriateness of patient care provided by, or the professional conduct of, a person licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse must either:

(a) Have, as a voting member, at least one person licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse with a scope of practice similar to that of the person who is the subject of the review; or

(b) Engage, to perform an independent review as appropriate, an independent person licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse with a scope of practice similar to that of the person who is the subject of the review. The person conducting the independent review must be a person who was not previously involved in the review.

(3) A utilization and quality control peer review organization, as defined pursuant to 42 U.S.C. sec. 1320c-1, or any other organization performing similar review services under federal or state law is an approved professional review committee under this article.

(4) A professional review committee established by any of the following authorized entities is an approved professional review committee under this article if it operates in compliance with written bylaws, policies, or procedures that are in compliance with this article and that have been approved by the authorized entity's governing board and if it is registered with the division in accordance with section 12-36.5-104.6:

(a) The medical staff of a hospital licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., or certified pursuant to section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (II), C.R.S.;

(b) The medical staff of a hospital-related corporation. For the purposes of this paragraph (b), an entity is a "hospital-related corporation" if the licensed or certified hospital or holding company of the licensed or certified hospital has ownership or control of the entity;

(c) A society or association of physicians whose membership includes not less than one-third of the doctors of medicine or doctors of osteopathy licensed to practice and residing in this state, if the physician whose services are the subject of the review is a member of the society or association;

(c.5) A society or association of advanced practice nurses licensed and registered pursuant to article 38 of this title and residing in this state, if the advanced practice nurse whose services are the subject of the review is a member of the society or association;

(d) A society or association of physicians licensed to practice and residing in this state and specializing in a specific discipline of medicine, whose society or association has been designated by the medical board as a specialty society or association representative of physicians practicing the specific discipline of medicine, if the physician whose services are the subject of the review is a member of the specialty society or association;

(d.5) A society or association of advanced practice nurses licensed and registered pursuant to article 38 of this title and practicing in a specified nursing role and population focus, as defined by the nursing board, which society or association has been designated by the nursing board as the specific nursing society or association representative of those advanced practice nurses practicing in that nursing role and population focus, if the advanced practice nurse whose services are the subject of the review is a member of the designated nursing society or association.

(e) An individual practice association or a preferred provider organization consisting of persons licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, or a medical group that predominantly serves members of a health maintenance organization licensed pursuant to parts 1 and 4 of article 16 of title 10, C.R.S. A professional review committee established pursuant to this paragraph (e) has jurisdiction to review only persons licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, who are members of the association or organization creating and authorizing that committee; except that the professional review committee may review the care provided to a particular patient referred by a member of the association or organization to another person licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse, who is not a member of the association or organization.

(f) A corporation authorized to insure persons licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses pursuant to article 3 of title 10, C.R.S., or any other organization authorized to insure such persons in this state when designated by the medical board or nursing board under subsection (5) of this section;

(g) The governing board of any authorized entity that has a professional review committee established pursuant to article 36 or article 38 of this title;

(h) Any professional review committee established or created by a combination or pooling of any authorized entities;

(i) (I) A nonprofit corporation or association consisting of representatives from a statewide professional society and a statewide hospital association. The association must consist of persons licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, hospital administrators, and hospital trustees, with a majority of the representatives being persons licensed under article 36 of this title when the subject of the investigation is a person licensed under article 36 of this title, and at least one of the representatives being a person licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse when the subject of the investigation is a person licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse. The association may establish, or contract for, one or more professional review committees to review the care by hospital staff personnel who are licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, with priority given to small rural hospital staffs. These professional review services must be available statewide on a fee-for-service basis to licensed or certified hospitals at the joint request of the governing board and the medical or nursing staff of the hospital or at the sole request of the governing board of the hospital. If a member being reviewed specializes in a generally recognized specialty of medicine or nursing, at least one of the health care providers on the professional review committee must be a person licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse, who practices such specialty.

(II) For purposes of the introductory portion to this subsection (4) and this paragraph (i), the bylaws, policies, or procedures must be in compliance with this article and approved by the nonprofit corporation or association.

(j) The medical or nursing staff of an ambulatory surgical center licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S.;

(k) A professional services entity organized pursuant to section 12-36-134;

(l) A provider network that includes persons licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, and is organized pursuant to part 3 of article 18 of title 6, C.R.S.;

(m) A health system that includes two or more authorized entities with a common governing board;

(n) A trust organization established under article 70 of title 11, C.R.S.;

(o) An entity licensed pursuant to parts 1 and 4 of article 16 of title 10, C.R.S.;

(p) An accountable care organization established under the federal "Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act", Pub.L. 111-148, or other organization with a similar function;

(q) A hospital licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., or certified pursuant to section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (II), C.R.S.; and

(r) An ambulatory surgical center licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S.

(5) The medical board and the nursing board, with respect to the licensees subject to their jurisdiction, may establish by rule procedures necessary to authorize other health care or physician organizations or professional societies as authorized entities that may establish professional review committees.

(6) (a) A professional review committee acting pursuant to this part 1 may investigate or cause to be investigated:

(I) The qualifications and competence of any person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse who seeks to subject himself or herself to the authority of any authorized entity; or

(II) The quality or appropriateness of patient care rendered by, or the professional conduct of, any person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse who is subject to the authority of the authorized entity.

(b) The professional review committee shall conduct the investigation in conformity with written bylaws, policies, or procedures adopted by the authorized entity's governing board.

(7) The written bylaws, policies, or procedures of any professional review committee for persons licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses must provide for at least the following:

(a) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a), if the findings of any investigation indicate that a person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse, and who is the subject of the investigation, is lacking in qualifications or competency, has provided substandard or inappropriate patient care, or has exhibited inappropriate professional conduct and the professional review committee takes or recommends an action to adversely affect the person's membership, affiliation, or privileges with the authorized entity, the professional review committee shall hold a hearing to consider the findings and recommendations unless the person waives, in writing, the right to a hearing or is given notice of a hearing and fails to appear.

(II) If the professional review committee is submitting its findings and recommendations to another professional review committee for review, only one hearing is necessary prior to any appeal before the governing board.

(b) A person who has participated in the course of an investigation is disqualified as a member of the professional review committee that conducts a hearing pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7), but the person may participate as a witness in the hearing.

(c) The authorized entity shall give to the subject of any investigation under this subsection (7) reasonable notice of the hearing, and of any finding or recommendation that would adversely affect the person's membership, affiliation, or privileges with the authorized entity, and the subject of the investigation has a right to be present, to be represented by legal counsel at the hearing, and to offer evidence in his or her own behalf.

(d) After the hearing, the professional review committee that conducted the hearing shall make any recommendations it deems necessary to the governing board, unless otherwise provided by federal law or regulation.

(e) The professional review committee shall give a copy of the recommendations to the subject of the investigation, who then has the right to appeal to the governing board to which the recommendations are made with regard to any finding or recommendation that would adversely affect his or her membership, affiliation, or privileges with the authorized entity.

(f) The professional review committee shall forward a copy of any recommendations made pursuant to paragraph (d) of this subsection (7) promptly to the medical board if the subject of the investigation is licensed under article 36 of this title, or to the nursing board if the subject of the investigation is licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse.

(8) (a) All governing boards shall adopt written bylaws, policies, or procedures under which a person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse who is the subject of an adverse recommendation by a professional review committee may appeal to the governing board following a hearing in accordance with subsection (7) of this section. The bylaws, policies, or procedures must provide that the person be given reasonable notice of his or her right to appeal and, unless waived by the person, has the right to appear before the governing board, to be represented by legal counsel, and to offer the argument on the record as he or she deems appropriate.

(b) The bylaws may provide that a committee of not fewer than three members of the governing board may hear the appeal. Also, the bylaws may allow for an appeal to be heard by an independent third party designated by a governing board under this paragraph (b).

(9) All governing boards that are required to report their final actions to the medical board or the nursing board, as appropriate, are not otherwise relieved of their obligations by virtue of this article.

(10) (a) Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (10), the records of an authorized entity and its professional review committee, its governing board, or the committee on anticompetitive conduct are not subject to subpoena or discovery and are not admissible in any civil suit.

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (a) is effective until September 1, 2013.

(10) (a) Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (10), the records of an authorized entity, its professional review committee, and its governing board are not subject to subpoena or discovery and are not admissible in any civil suit.

Editor's note: This version of paragraph (a) is effective September 1, 2013.

(b) Subject to subsection (13) of this section, the records are subject to subpoena and available for use:

(I) (A) By the committee on anticompetitive conduct.

(B) This subparagraph (I) is repealed, effective September 1, 2013.

(II) By either party in an appeal or de novo proceeding brought pursuant to this part 1;

(III) By a person licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse, in a suit seeking judicial review of an action by the governing board;

(IV) By the Colorado department of public health and environment in accordance with its authority to issue or continue a health facility license or certification for an authorized entity;

(V) By CMS in accordance with its authority over federal health care program participation by an authorized entity;

(VI) By an authorized entity or governing board seeking judicial review;

(VII) By the medical board within the scope of its authority over licensed physicians and physician assistants; and (VIII) By the nursing board within the scope of its authority over advanced practice nurses.

(11) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11), the records of an authorized entity or its professional review committee may be disclosed to:

(I) The medical board, as requested by the medical board acting within the scope of its authority or as required or appropriate under this article or article 36 of this title;

(II) The nursing board, as requested by the nursing board acting within the scope of its authority or as required or appropriate under this article or article 38 of this title;

(III) The Colorado department of public health and environment acting within the scope of its health facility licensing authority or as the agent of CMS;

(IV) CMS, in connection with the survey and certification processes for federal health care program participation by an authorized entity; and

(V) The joint commission or other entity granted deeming authority by CMS, in connection with a survey or review for accreditation.

(b) The medical board, nursing board, and Colorado department of public health and environment shall not make further disclosures of any records disclosed by an authorized entity or its professional review committee under this section.

(12) The records of an authorized entity or its professional review committee or governing board may be shared by and among authorized entities and their professional review committees and governing boards concerning the competence, professional conduct of, or the quality and appropriateness of patient care provided by, a health care provider who seeks to subject himself or herself to, or is currently subject to, the authority of the authorized entity.

(13) Responding to a subpoena or disclosing or sharing of otherwise privileged records and information pursuant to subsection (10), (11), or (12) of this section does not constitute a waiver of the privilege specified in paragraph (a) of subsection (10) of this section or a violation of the confidentiality requirements of subsection (15) of this section. Records provided to any governmental agency, including the department of public health and environment, the committee on anticompetitive conduct, the medical board, and the nursing board pursuant to subsection (10) or (11) of this section are not public records subject to the "Colorado Open Records Act", part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S. A person providing the records to an authorized entity or its professional review committee or governing board, the department of public health and environment, the committee on anticompetitive conduct, the medical board, the nursing board, CMS, the joint commission, or other governmental agency is entitled to the same immunity from liability as provided under section 12-36.5-105 for the disclosure of the records.

(14) Investigations, examinations, hearings, meetings, and other proceedings of a professional review committee or governing board conducted pursuant to this part 1 are exempt from any law requiring that proceedings be conducted publicly or that the records, including any minutes, be open to public inspection.

(15) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (10), (11), or (12) of this section, all proceedings, recommendations, records, and reports involving professional review committees or governing boards are confidential.

(16) A professional review committee or governing board that is constituted and conducts its reviews and activities in accordance with this part 1 is not an unlawful conspiracy in violation of section 6-4-104 or 6-4-105, C.R.S.

12-36.5-104.4. Hospital professional review committees. (1) The quality and appropriateness of patient care rendered by persons licensed under article 36 of this title, licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, and other licensed health care professionals so influence the total quality of patient care that a review of care provided in a hospital is ineffective without concomitantly reviewing the overall competence, professional conduct of, or the quality and appropriateness of care rendered by, such persons.

(2) (a) (I) Whenever a professional review committee created pursuant to section 12-36.5-104 reasonably believes that the quality or appropriateness of care provided by other licensed health care professionals may have adversely affected the outcome of patient care, the professional review committee shall:

(A) Refer the matter to a hospital committee created pursuant to section 25-3-109, C.R.S.; or

(B) Consult with a representative of the other licensed health care professional's profession.

(II) A professional review committee established pursuant to this article may meet and act in collaboration with a committee established pursuant to section 25-3-109, C.R.S.

(b) All matters considered in collaboration with or referred to a committee pursuant to this subsection (2) and all records and proceedings related thereto shall remain confidential and the committee members, governing board, witnesses, and complainants shall be subject to the immunities and privileges as set forth in this article.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to extend the authority or jurisdiction of the medical board to any individual not otherwise subject to the jurisdiction of the board.

12-36.5-104.6. Governing boards to register with division - annual reports - aggregation and publication of data - definition - rules. (1) As used in this section, "adversely affecting" has the same meaning as set forth in 45 CFR 60.3; except that it does not include a precautionary suspension or any professional review action affecting a person licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse, for a period of thirty days or less.

(2) Each governing board that establishes or uses one or more professional review committees to review the practice of persons licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses shall:

(a) Register with the division in a form satisfactory to the division on or before July 1, 2013, if the governing board has one or more existing professional review committees, or, if the governing board first establishes a professional review committee on or after July 1, 2013, within thirty days after approving the written bylaws, policies, or procedures for the professional review committee;

(b) In addition to any other state or federal reporting requirements:

(I) Report annually to the medical board, in a form satisfactory to the medical board, the number of final professional review actions in each of the following categories relating to individuals licensed under article 36 of this title:

(A) Adversely affecting the individual;

(B) In which an authorized entity accepted the individual's surrender of clinical privileges, membership, or affiliation while the individual was under investigation;

(C) In which an authorized entity accepted the individual's surrender of clinical privileges, membership, or affiliation in return for not conducting an investigation; and

(D) In which the professional review committee made recommendations regarding the individual following a hearing pursuant to section 12-36.5-104 (7) (d).

(II) Report annually to the nursing board, in a form satisfactory to the nursing board, the number of final professional review actions in each of the following categories relating to individuals licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses:

(A) Adversely affecting the individual;

(B) In which an authorized entity accepted the individual's surrender of clinical privileges, membership, or affiliation while the individual was under investigation;

(C) In which an authorized entity accepted the individual's surrender of clinical privileges, membership, or affiliation in return for not conducting an investigation; and

(D) In which the professional review committee made recommendations regarding the individual following a hearing pursuant to section 12-36.5-104 (7) (d).

(c) (I) Report to the division, in a de-identified manner, on its professional review activities during the immediately preceding calendar year in a form satisfactory to the division. These reports must include aggregate data, which is limited to the following:

(A) The number of investigations completed during the year;

(B) The number of investigations that resulted in no action;

(C) The number of investigations that resulted in written involuntary requirements for improvement sent to the subject of the investigation by the authorized entity; and

(D) The number of investigations that resulted in written agreements for improvement between the subject of the investigation and the authorized entity.

(II) (A) The medical board and the nursing board shall forward the reports received pursuant to sub-subparagraphs (I) and (II), respectively, of paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) to the division in a de-identified manner.

(B) The division shall not publish any information identifying the governing board or authorized entity making a report under paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) or this paragraph (c), and such reports and information are not public records under the "Colorado Open Records Act", part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.

(III) Reports submitted pursuant to this paragraph (c) must include only investigations in which no final action adversely affecting the subject of the investigation was taken or recommended.

(3) (a) The division shall publish the data provided pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of subsection (2) of this section in aggregate form and without individually identifiable information concerning the governing board, the authorized entity, or any person licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse, who was subject to review.

(b) The division shall maintain and shall publish on-line, through its web site, a current list of all governing boards that are registered in accordance with this section and that otherwise are in compliance with this article.

(4) The division shall adopt rules to implement this section and may collect a reasonable registration fee to recover its direct and indirect costs of administering the registration and publication systems required by this section.

(5) For purposes of this section, an investigation occurs when the authorized entity or its professional review committee notifies the subject of the investigation in writing that an investigation has commenced.

(6) The medical board and the nursing board shall not initiate an investigation or issue a subpoena based solely on the data reported pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section.

(7) (a) A governing board that fails to register with the division pursuant to paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section is not entitled to any immunity afforded under this article until the date that the governing board so registers. A governing board's failure to register does not affect any immunity, confidentiality, or privilege afforded to an individual participating in professional review activities.

(b) A governing board's failure to report as required by this section does not affect any immunity, confidentiality, or privilege afforded to the governing board under this article.

12-36.5-105. Immunity from liability. (1) A member of a professional review committee, a governing board or any committee or third party designated by the governing board under section 12-36.5-104 (8) (b) and any person serving on the staff of that committee, board, panel, or third party, a witness or consultant before a professional review committee, and any person who files a complaint or otherwise participates in the professional review process is immune from suit and liability for damages in any civil or criminal action, including antitrust actions, brought by a person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title who is the subject of the review by such professional review committee unless, in connection with the professional review process, the person provided false information and knew that the information was false.

(2) The governing board and the authorized entity that has established a professional review committee pursuant to section 12-36.5-104 is immune from suit and liability for damages in any civil or criminal action, including antitrust actions, brought by a person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title who is the subject of the review by such professional review committee if the professional review action was taken within the scope of the professional review process and was taken:

(a) In the objectively reasonable belief that the action was in the furtherance of quality health care;

(b) After an objectively reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter;

(c) In the objectively reasonable belief that the action taken was warranted by the facts; and

(d) In accordance with procedures that, under the circumstances, were fair to the person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse.

Hospital review committees, their members, and other participants in the review process are immune from liability for damages when a physician loses hospital privileges, there is no evidence of false information, and the committee acted in compliance with this part and part 2 of article 36.5 of this title. North Colo. Med. Ctr., Inc. v. Nicholas, 27 P.3d 828 (Colo. 2001).

A member of a professional review committee and a governing body that makes the final decision may participate in both the investigation and decision making process. North Colo. Med. Ctr., Inc. v. Nicholas, 27 P.3d 828 (Colo. 2001).

The committee on anticompetitive conduct has no authority to determine whether participants in a professional peer review are entitled to qualified immunity under this section. Pfenninger v. Exempla, Inc., 116 F. Supp. 2d 1184 (D. Colo. 2000).

12-36.5-106. Committee on anticompetitive conduct - repeal - legislative declaration - rules. (1) There is hereby established a permanent, independent committee of the medical board, to be known as the committee on anticompetitive conduct, also referred to in this section as “the committee”.

(2) The committee consists of five persons, none of whom is a member of the medical board, appointed as follows:

(a) The medical board shall appoint four members of the committee, who must be licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as advanced practice nurses, and actively practicing in this state. A member appointed pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall not practice in the same medical subspecialty as any other member and shall not conduct his or her primary practice in the same county as any other member.

(b) The governor shall appoint one member who is an attorney licensed to practice in this state and who has particular expertise and experience in the area of antitrust law.

(3) Each member of the committee shall serve for a term of three years and may be reappointed for one additional term. The initial committee shall be appointed as follows: Two members, including the attorney member, for terms of three years; two members for terms of two years; and one member for a term of one year. All subsequent appointments shall be for terms of three years.

(4) Any member of the committee may be removed by his appointing authority for neglect of duty, incapacity, or misconduct. Any vacancy shall be filled by the appointing authority for the remainder of the vacated term.

(5) The committee shall annually elect a chair from among its members. Any three members of the committee constitute a quorum. Any action of a majority of those present comprising the quorum is the action of the committee. Committee members are compensated as provided in section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S. The committee may utilize the expertise of consultants, including legal, medical, and business specialists. The committee shall assess and collect costs of the consultants as provided in subsection (11) of this section.

(6) The committee shall adopt procedural rules, including emergency rules, pursuant to the rule-making provisions of the “State Administrative Procedure Act”, article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., including rules related to the disqualification of a committee member, which rules shall be guided by section 24-4-105 (1), C.R.S.

(7) A person licensed under article 36 of this title, or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse, and who is the subject of a final action by a governing board, which action results in the denial, termination, or restriction of privileges at or membership or participation in an organization, and who believes that the action resulted from unreasonable anticompetitive conduct may seek direct review of the record by the committee. The review, which is the person’s exclusive remedy, is limited to the sole issue of whether the final board action resulted from unreasonable anticompetitive conduct. Failure to exhaust this administrative remedy before the committee precludes the right of de novo review on the merits of the issue of unreasonable anticompetitive conduct.

(8) Nothing in this article precludes a person otherwise aggrieved by the final action of a governing board from seeking other remedies available to them by law, except as provided in subsection (7) of this section.

(9) The committee shall conduct the review in accordance with the following procedures and, to the extent practicable, in accordance with the procedures used in the district courts of this state:

(a) The aggrieved person must initiate the review by filing a verified complaint with the committee, no later than thirty days after receipt of a notice of final action by the governing board, alleging, with specificity, all facts disclosed in the record and all additional facts known to the complainant that would support his or her allegation that the final action taken by the governing board resulted from unreasonable anticompetitive conduct.

(b) The committee shall mail a copy of the complaint to the governing board and the professional review committee by certified mail, return receipt requested, within five days after the receipt of the complaint by the committee, advising them of their right to file a verified answer to the allegations stated in the complaint. The recipients of the complaint become a party to these proceedings upon receipt of the complaint.

(c) The governing board and professional review committee shall have thirty days after receipt of the complaint to file their verified answer.

(d) Within thirty days of receipt of the complaint, unless the committee, for good cause shown, extends the time period not to exceed an additional thirty days, the committee shall determine whether the complaint alleges sufficient facts which, if true, would substantiate a finding of probable cause that the final action taken by the governing board resulted from unreasonable anticompetitive conduct.

(e) If the committee finds that no probable cause exists, it shall dismiss the complaint, which dismissal constitutes final administrative action.

(f) If the committee finds that probable cause exists, it shall schedule a hearing. At the hearing, the committee shall review the record below on the sole issue of whether the final action of the governing board resulted from unreasonable anticompetitive conduct and shall take evidence only with regard to the additional facts specifically alleged in the complaint or answer regarding unreasonable anticompetitive conduct, except when, in the discretion of the committee, the interests of a fair hearing demand otherwise.

(g) The attendance of witnesses and the production of books, patient records, papers, and other pertinent documents at the hearing may be summoned by subpoenas issued by the chairman of the committee or his designee, which shall be served in the manner provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure for service of subpoenas. Any subpoena issued pursuant to this paragraph (g) shall be enforceable in the district court.

(h) No evidentiary hearing shall last more than eight hours, unless the committee, in its discretion, determines that additional time is necessary in the interests of a fair hearing. Except as provided otherwise in this section, any evidentiary hearing shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-105 (4) and (7), C.R.S.

(i) An evidentiary hearing shall be scheduled within a reasonable time after a finding that probable cause exists.

(j) Within a reasonable time after the completion of its hearing, the committee shall issue its written findings and final order.

(k) If the committee finds by a preponderance of evidence that the final action of the governing board resulted from unreasonable anticompetitive conduct, it shall issue its final order disapproving and setting aside the action or modifying the action taken by the governing board in whole or in part, which final order is binding on the parties. The committee shall mail a copy of the order by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the parties.

(l) If the committee fails to find that the final action of the governing board resulted from unreasonable anticompetitive conduct as provided in paragraph (k) of this subsection (9), it shall issue its order dismissing the complaint, and the final action of the governing board shall stand.

(m) If the committee finds that the record of the governing board is insufficient to permit the committee to reach appropriate findings with regard to unreasonable anticompetitive conduct, it may remand the case for further review by the governing board.

(n) In any case presented to the committee where the practice of the complainant constitutes a clear and present danger to patients, the committee shall refer the case to the medical board or nursing board, as applicable, for action as the board deems appropriate.

(10) (a) Following final administrative action by the committee, only the court of appeals may review the action of the committee through appropriate proceedings brought pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(b) Following final administrative action by the committee, a party aggrieved by the final action of a governing board who wishes to challenge the action of the governing board, rather than the committee's review of the action, has the right to seek de novo review on the merits in a district court in Colorado. In no event shall the medical board, nursing board, or the committee be made parties to the district court action.

(c) As a condition of filing a complaint under paragraph (a) of subsection (9) of this section, the complainant shall post a cash bond or equivalent liquid security of three thousand dollars to cover anticipated costs that may be assessed against him or her. Within thirty days after receipt of service of a complaint on a governing board, or concurrently with the filing of an answer, whichever is earlier, the governing board shall post a cash bond or equivalent liquid security of three thousand dollars to cover anticipated costs that may be assessed against it as a party. The committee may enforce this latter requirement through the district court.

(11) The committee shall assess and collect all costs associated with its activities, including attorney fees incurred by the committee, the per diem and reasonable expenses of each committee member, and other reasonable expenses, from the losing party or as the committee deems appropriate.

(12) The committee shall promulgate rules as necessary for the implementation of this section, including mechanisms to secure the payment of costs as provided in paragraph (c) of subsection (10) and subsection (11) of this section.

(13) (a) A member of the committee, a member of the committee's staff, a person acting as a witness or consultant to the committee, a witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and a person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article is immune from suit in any civil or criminal action, including antitrust actions, and is immune from liability for damages unless, in connection with the professional review process, the person provided false information and knew that the information was false.

(b) The committee is immune from suit in any civil or criminal action, including antitrust actions, and is immune from liability for damages if the professional review action was taken within the scope of the professional review process and was taken:

(I) In the objectively reasonable belief that the action was in the furtherance of quality health care;

(II) After an objectively reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter;

(III) In the objectively reasonable belief that the action taken was warranted by the facts; and

(IV) In accordance with procedures that, under the circumstances, were fair to the person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse.

(14) This section is repealed, effective September 1, 2013. Prior to such repeal, the general assembly anticipates that there will be, and declares its support for, constructive discussion among licensed professionals and other interested parties to consider the proper role, structure, and functions of the committee on anticompetitive conduct and to recommend legislation on this subject for consideration during the 2013 regular session.

The committee on anticompetitive conduct is to assess issues related to competency and only addresses anticompetitive behavior that relates to physician qualification, professional conduct, and quality of patient care, arising out of qualified review committee activities. Ryals v. St. Mary-Corwin Reg. Med. Ctr., 10 P.3d 654 (Colo. 2000).

The committee does not have jurisdiction to address claims that do not arise out of professional review committee activities. It may not award economic remedies and has limited rules concerning evidence and hearings. Ryals v. St. Mary-Corwin Reg. Med. Ctr., 10 P.3d 654 (Colo. 2000).

Physician must exhaust all peer review committee administrative remedies before seeking relief in court, even if physician is seeking monetary damages for common law claims arising out of the process, rather than challenging the final decision of the hospital's governing board. Crow v. Penrose-St. Francis Healthcare Sys., 169 P.3d 158 (Colo. 2007).

Physician's case seeking monetary damages for common law claims is not ripe for judicial review. Because the hospital's governing board has not rendered a final decision, physician has not exhausted available administrative remedies. *Crow v. CONFORMANCE WITH FEDERAL LAW AND REGULATION

12-36.5-201. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that the enactment of this part 2 is necessary in order for the state to comply with the provisions of the federal "Health Care Quality Improvement Act of 1986", as amended. It is the intent of the general assembly that the provisions of this part 2 are to be interpreted as being complementary to the provisions of part 1 of this article. The provisions of this part 2 are intended to be responsive to specific requirements of the federal "Health Care Quality Improvement Act of 1986", as amended. If the provisions of this part 2 conflict with the provisions of part 1 of this article, other than with respect to the specific requirements of the federal "Health Care Quality Improvement Act of 1986", as amended, the provisions of part 1 of this article shall prevail.

- (c) A witness, consultant, or other person who provided information to the authorized entity, professional review committee, or governing board; and
- (d) Any person who participates with or assists the professional review committee or governing board with respect to the professional review activities.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, nothing in this article relieves an authorized entity that is a health care facility licensed or certified pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., or certified pursuant to section 25-1.5-103, C.R.S., of liability to an injured person or wrongful death claimant for the facility’s independent negligence in the credentialing or privileging process for a person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse who provided health care services for the injured or deceased person at the facility. For purposes of this section, the facility’s participation in the credentialing process or the privileging process does not constitute the corporate practice of medicine.

(b) Nothing in this section affects the confidentiality or privilege of any records subject to section 12-36.5-104 (10) or of information obtained and maintained in accordance with a quality management program as described in section 25-3-109, C.R.S. The exceptions to confidentiality or privilege as set forth in sections 25-3-109 (4), C.R.S., and 12-36.5-104 (10) apply.

(c) This subsection (2), as amended, applies to actions filed on or after July 1, 2012.

(3) For the purposes of this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) “Professional review action” means an action or recommendation of a professional review committee that is taken or made in the conduct of professional review activity and that is based on the quality and appropriateness of patient care provided by, or the competence or professional conduct of, an individual person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse, which action affects or may affect adversely the person’s clinical privileges of or membership in an authorized entity. “Professional review action” includes a formal decision by the professional review committee not to take an action or make a recommendation as provided in this paragraph (a) and also includes professional review activities relating to a professional review action. An action is not based upon the competence or professional conduct of a person if the action is primarily based on:

- (I) The person’s association or lack of association with a professional society or association;
- (II) The person’s fees or his or her advertising or engaging in other competitive acts intended to solicit or retain business;
- (III) The person’s association with, supervision of, delegation of authority to, support for, training of, or participation in a private group practice with a member or members of a particular class of health care practitioners or professionals;
- (IV) The person’s participation in prepaid group health plans, salaried employment, or any other manner of delivering health services whether on a fee-for-service basis or other basis;
- (V) Any other matter that does not relate to the quality and appropriateness of patient care provided by, or the competence or professional conduct of, a person licensed under article 36 of this title or licensed under article 38 of this title and granted authority as an advanced practice nurse.
- (b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2012.)

ANNOTATION

The statutory language clearly and unambiguously provides immunity from damages for professional review bodies “in any civil action” wherein a professional peer review has been conducted concerning the credentialing decision for a particular physician. “Any” means “all”. Kauntz v. HCA-HEALTHONE, LLC, 174 P.3d 813 (Colo. App. 2007).

The statute is not ambiguous because it is not silent on its applicable scope: It states that damage immunity applies “in any civil action”. Kauntz v. HCA-HEALTHONE, LLC, 174 P.3d 813 (Colo. App. 2007).

The general assembly either has expressly stated its intent to abrogate common law negligent credentialing claims brought by patients against hospitals or, at a minimum, has done so by clear implication. While the statute does not state that it governs hospital-patient relations, the use of the words “any civil action” in describing the applicability of damages immunity makes it difficult, if not impossible, to discern a lack of clarity or of expression. Kauntz v. HCA-HEALTHONE, LLC, 174 P.3d 813 (Colo. App. 2007).

12-37-101. Scope of article - exemptions - legislative declaration. (1) (a) This article applies only to direct-entry midwives and does not apply to those persons who are otherwise licensed by the state of Colorado under this title if the practice of midwifery is within the scope of such licensure.

(b) (I) A person who is a certified nurse-midwife authorized pursuant to section 12-38-111.5 or a physician as provided in article 36 of this title shall not simultaneously be so licensed and also be registered under this article. A physician or certified nurse-midwife who holds a license in good standing may relinquish the license and subsequently be registered under this article.

(II) A direct-entry midwife shall not represent himself or herself as a nurse-midwife or certified nurse-midwife.

(III) The fact that a direct-entry midwife may hold a practical or professional nursing license does not expand the scope of practice of the direct-entry midwife.

(IV) The fact that a practical or professional nurse may be registered as a direct-entry midwife does not expand the scope of practice of the nurse.

(c) It is the intent of the general assembly that health care be provided pursuant to this article as an alternative to traditional licensed health care and not for the purpose of enabling providers of traditional licensed health care to circumvent the regulatory oversight to which they are otherwise subject under any other article of this title.

(2) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit, or to require registration under this article, with regard to:

(a) The gratuitous rendering of services in an emergency;

(b) The rendering of services by a physician licensed pursuant to article 36 of this title or otherwise legally authorized to practice in this state;

(c) The rendering of services by certified nurse-midwives properly licensed and practicing in accordance with the provisions of article 38 of this title; or

(d) The practice by persons licensed or registered under any law of this state, in accordance with such law, to practice a limited field of the healing arts not specifically designated in this section.

12-37-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Client” means a pregnant woman for whom a direct-entry midwife performs services. For purposes of perinatal or postpartum care, “client” includes the woman’s newborn.

(2) “Direct-entry midwife” means a person who practices direct-entry midwifery.

(3) “Direct-entry midwifery” or “practice of direct-entry midwifery” means the advising, attending, or assisting of a woman during pregnancy, labor and natural childbirth at home, and during the postpartum period in accordance with this article.

(4) “Director” means the director of the division.

(5) “Division” means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(6) “Natural childbirth” means the birth of a child without the use of instruments, surgical procedures, or prescription drugs other than those for which the direct-entry midwife has specific authority under this article to obtain and administer.

(7) “Postpartum period” means the period of six weeks after birth.

(8) “Registrant” means a direct-entry midwife registered pursuant to section 12-37-103.

12-37-103. Requirement for registration with the division of professions and occupations - annual fee - grounds for revocation. (1) Every direct-entry midwife shall register with the division of professions and occupations by applying to the director in the form and manner the director requires. Said application shall include the information specified in section 12-37-104.

(2) Any changes in the information required by subsection (1) of this section shall be reported within thirty days after the change to the division in the form and manner required by the director.

(3) Every applicant for registration shall pay a registration fee to be established by the director in the manner authorized by section 24-34-105, C.R.S. Registrations shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her registration pursuant to the schedule established by the director, such registration shall expire. Any person whose registration has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(4.5) A person who has had his or her registration revoked shall not apply for a new registration until at least two years have elapsed since the date of the revocation.

(5) To qualify to register, a direct-entry midwife must have successfully completed an examination evaluated and approved by the director as an appropriate test to measure competency in the practice of direct-entry midwifery, which examination must have been developed by a person or entity other than the director or the division and the acquisition of which shall require no expenditure of state funds. The national registry examination administered by the midwives' alliance of North America, incorporated, or its successor, must be among those evaluated by the director. The director is authorized to approve any existing test meeting all the criteria set forth in this subsection (5). In addition to successfully completing such examination, a direct-entry midwife is qualified to register if such person has:

- (a) Attained the age of nineteen years;
- (b) Earned at least a high school diploma or the equivalent;
- (c) Successfully completed training approved by the director in:
 - (I) The provision of care during labor and delivery and during the antepartum and postpartum periods;
 - (II) Parenting education for prepared childbirth;
 - (III) Aseptic techniques and universal precautions;
 - (IV) Management of birth and immediate care of the mother and the newborn;
 - (V) Recognition of early signs of possible abnormalities;
 - (VI) Recognition and management of emergency situations;
 - (VII) Special requirements for home birth;
 - (VIII) Recognition of communicable diseases affecting the pregnancy, birth, newborn, and postpartum periods; and
 - (IX) Recognition of the signs and symptoms of increased risk of medical, obstetric, or neonatal complications or problems as set forth in section 12-37-105 (3);
- (d) Acquired practical experience including, at a minimum, experience with the conduct of at least one hundred prenatal examinations on no fewer than thirty different women and observation of at least thirty births;
- (e) Participated as a birth attendant, including rendering care from the prenatal period through the postpartum period, in connection with at least thirty births; and
- (f) Filed documentation with the director that the direct-entry midwife is currently certified by the American heart association or the American red cross to perform adult and infant cardiopulmonary resuscitation ("CPR").

(6) Effective July 1, 2003, in order to be deemed qualified to register, a direct-entry midwife must have graduated from an accredited midwifery educational program or obtained a substantially equivalent education approved by the director. Such educational requirement does not apply to direct-entry midwives who have registered with the division before July 1, 2003.

(7) For purposes of registration under this article, no credential, licensure, or certification issued by any other state meets the requirements of this article, and therefore there is no reciprocity with other states.

12-37-104. Mandatory disclosure of information to clients. (1) Every direct-entry midwife shall provide the following information in writing to each client during the initial client contact:

(a) The name, business address, and business phone number of the direct-entry midwife;

(b) A listing of the direct-entry midwife's education, experience, degrees, membership in any professional organization whose membership includes not less than one-third of all registrants, certificates or credentials related to direct-entry midwifery awarded by any such organization, and the length of time and number of contact hours required to obtain said degrees, certificates, or credentials;

(c) A statement indicating whether or not the direct-entry midwife is covered under a policy of liability insurance for the practice of direct-entry midwifery;

(d) A listing of any license, certificate, or registration in the health care field previously or currently held by the direct-entry midwife and suspended or revoked by any local, state, or national health care agency;

(e) A statement that the practice of direct-entry midwifery is regulated by the department of regulatory agencies. The statement must provide the address and telephone number of the office of midwifery registration in the division and shall state that violation of this article may result in revocation of registration and of the authority to practice direct-entry midwifery in Colorado.

(f) A copy of the emergency plan as provided in section 12-37-105 (6);

(g) A statement indicating whether or not the direct-entry midwife will administer vitamin K to the client's newborn infant and, if not, a list of qualified health care practitioners who can provide that service; and

(h) A statement indicating whether or not the direct-entry midwife will administer Rho(D) immune globulin to the client if she is determined to be Rh-negative and, if not, a list of qualified health care practitioners who can provide that service.

(2) Any changes in the information required by subsection (1) of this section shall be reflected in the mandatory disclosure within five days of the said change.

12-37-105. Prohibited acts - practice standards - informed consent - emergency plan - risk assessment - referral - rules. (1) A direct-entry midwife shall not dispense or administer any medication or drugs except in accordance with section 12-37-105.5.

(2) A direct-entry midwife shall not perform any operative or surgical procedure.

(3) A direct-entry midwife shall not provide care to a pregnant woman who, according to generally accepted medical standards, exhibits signs or symptoms of increased risk of medical or obstetric or neonatal complications or problems during the completion of her pregnancy, labor, delivery, or the postpartum period. Such conditions include but are not limited to signs or symptoms of diabetes, multiple gestation, hypertensive disorder, or abnormal presentation of the fetus.

(4) A direct-entry midwife shall not provide care to a pregnant woman who, according to generally accepted medical standards, exhibits signs or symptoms of increased risk that her child may develop complications or problems during the first six weeks of life.

(5) (a) A direct-entry midwife shall keep appropriate records of midwifery-related activity, including but not limited to the following:

(I) The direct-entry midwife shall complete and file a birth certificate for every delivery in accordance with section 25-2-112, C.R.S.

(II) The direct-entry midwife shall complete and maintain appropriate client records for every client.

(III) Before accepting a client for care, the direct-entry midwife shall obtain the client's informed consent, which shall be evidenced by a written statement in a form prescribed by the director and signed by both the direct-entry midwife and the client. The form shall certify that full disclosure has been made and acknowledged by the client as to each of the following items, with the client's acknowledgment evidenced by a separate signature or initials adjacent to each item in addition to the client's signature at the end of the form:

(A) The direct-entry midwife's educational background and training;

(B) The nature and scope of the care to be given, including the possibility of and procedure for transport of the client to a hospital and transferral of care prenatally;

(C) A description of the available alternatives to direct-entry midwifery care, including a statement that the client understands she is not retaining a certified nurse midwife or a nurse midwife;

(D) A description of the risks of birth, including those that are different from those of hospital birth and those conditions that may arise during delivery;

(E) A statement indicating whether or not the direct-entry midwife is covered under a policy of liability insurance for the practice of direct-entry midwifery; and

(IV) Until the liability insurance required pursuant to section 12-37-109 (3) is available, each direct-entry midwife shall, before accepting a client for care, provide such client with a disclosure statement indicating that the midwife does not have liability insurance. Such statement, to comply with this section, must be printed in at least twelve-point bold-faced type and shall be read to the client in a language she understands. Each client shall sign the disclosure statement acknowledging that she understands the effect of its provisions. A copy of the signed disclosure statement shall be given to the client.

(b) As used in this subsection (5), "full disclosure" includes reading the informed consent form to the client, in a language understood by the client, and answering any relevant questions.

(6) A direct-entry midwife shall prepare a plan, in the form and manner required by the director, for emergency situations. The plan must include procedures to be followed in situations in which the time required for transportation to the nearest facility capable of providing appropriate treatment exceeds limits established by the director by rule. A copy of such plan shall be given to each client as part of the informed consent required by subsection (5) of this section.

(7) A direct-entry midwife shall prepare and transmit appropriate specimens for newborn screening in accordance with section 25-4-1004, C.R.S., and shall refer every newborn child for evaluation, within seven days after birth, to a licensed health care provider with expertise in pediatric care.

(8) A direct-entry midwife shall ensure that appropriate laboratory testing, as determined by the director, is completed for each client.

(9) A direct-entry midwife shall provide eye prophylactic therapy to all newborn children in such direct-entry midwife's care in accordance with section 25-4-301, C.R.S.

(10) A direct-entry midwife shall be knowledgeable and skilled in aseptic procedures and the use of universal precautions and shall use them with every client.

(11) To assure that proper risk assessment is completed and that clients who are inappropriate for direct-entry midwifery are referred to other health care providers, the director shall establish, by rule, a risk assessment procedure to be followed by a direct-entry midwife for each client and standards for appropriate referral. Such assessment shall be a part of each client's record as required in section 12-37-105 (5) (a) (II).

(12) At the time of renewal of a registration, each registrant shall submit the following data in the form and manner required by the director:

- (a) The number of women to whom care was provided since the previous registration;
- (b) The number of deliveries performed;
- (c) The Apgar scores of delivered infants, in groupings established by the director;
- (d) The number of prenatal transfers;
- (e) The number of transfers during labor, delivery, and immediately following birth;
- (f) Any perinatal deaths, including the cause of death and a description of the circumstances; and

(g) Other morbidity statistics as required by the director.

(13) A registered direct-entry midwife may purchase, possess, carry, and administer oxygen. The department of regulatory agencies shall promulgate rules concerning minimum training requirements for direct-entry midwives with respect to the safe administration of oxygen. Each registrant shall complete the minimum training requirements and submit proof of having completed such requirements to the director before administering oxygen to any client.

(14) A registrant shall not practice beyond the scope of his or her education and training or with a mental or physical impairment sufficient to render the registrant unable to perform midwifery services with reasonable skill and with safety to the client.

12-37-105.5. Limited use of certain medications - limited use of sutures - limited administration of intravenous fluids - emergency medical procedures - legislative declaration - rules - repeal. (1) A registrant may obtain prescription medications to treat conditions specified in this section from a registered prescription drug outlet, registered manufacturer, or registered wholesaler. An entity that provides a prescription medication to a registrant in accordance with this section, and who relies in good faith upon the registration information provided by the registrant, is not subject to liability for providing the medication.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (3) of this section, a registrant may obtain and administer:

- (a) Vitamin K to newborns by intramuscular injection;
- (b) Rho(D) immune globulin to Rh-negative mothers by intramuscular injection;
- (c) Postpartum antihemorrhagic drugs to mothers; and
- (d) Eye prophylaxis.

(3) (a) If a client refuses a medication listed in paragraph (a) or (b) of subsection (2) of this section, the registrant shall provide the client with an informed consent form containing a detailed statement of the benefits of the medication and the risks of refusal, and shall retain a copy of the form acknowledged and signed by the client.

(b) If a client experiences uncontrollable postpartum hemorrhage and refuses treatment with antihemorrhagic drugs, the registrant shall immediately initiate the transportation of the client in accordance with the emergency plan.

(4) A registrant shall, as part of the emergency medical plan required by section 12-37-105 (6), inform the client that:

(a) If she experiences uncontrollable postpartum hemorrhage, the registrant is required by Colorado law to initiate emergency medical treatment, which may include the administration of an antihemorrhagic drug by the registrant to mitigate the postpartum hemorrhaging while initiating the immediate transportation of the client in accordance with the emergency plan.

(b) If she experiences postpartum hemorrhage, the registrant is prepared and equipped to administer intravenous fluids to restore volume lost due to excessive bleeding.

(5) The director shall promulgate rules to implement this section. In promulgating such rules, the director shall seek the advice of knowledgeable medical professionals to set standards for education, training, and administration that reflect current generally accepted professional standards for the safe and effective use of the medications, methods of administration, and procedures described in this section, including a requirement that, to administer intravenous fluids, the registrant complete an intravenous therapy course or program approved by the director. The director shall establish a preferred drug list that displays the medications that a registrant can obtain.

(6) (a) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that the issue of whether registrants should be authorized to perform suturing of perineal tears and, if so, what standards for education, training, and practice should be established for the exercise of that authority, is an issue requiring thorough study and consideration. Therefore, as soon as is practicable, representatives of the medical community, the midwife community, the department of regulatory agencies, and other interested parties shall meet and discuss the issue in an effort to reach an accord on what legislative and regulatory changes are appropriate to ensure greater client choice without unduly compromising client safety. The parties to these meetings and discussions shall make the results publicly available through posting on the division's web site or by other appropriate means.

(b) This subsection (6) is repealed, effective July 1, 2013.

12-37-106. Director - powers and duties. (1) In addition to any other powers and duties conferred on the director by law, the director has the following powers and duties:

(a) To adopt such rules as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of this article;

(b) To establish the fees for registration and renewal of registration in the manner authorized by section 24-34-105, C.R.S.;

(c) To prepare or adopt suitable education standards for applicants and to adopt a registration examination;

(d) To accept applications for registration that meet the requirements set forth in this article, and to collect the annual registration fees authorized by this article;

(e) To seek, through the office of the attorney general, an injunction in a court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person from committing an act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this paragraph (e), the director shall not be required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(f) To summarily suspend a registration upon the failure of the registrant to comply with any condition of a stipulation or order imposed by the director until the registrant complies with the condition, unless compliance is beyond the control of the registrant.

12-37-107. Disciplinary action authorized - grounds for discipline - injunctions - rules. (1) If a direct-entry midwife has violated any of the provisions of section 12-37-

103, 12-37-104, 12-37-105, or 12-37-109 (3), the director may deny, revoke, or suspend a registration, issue a letter of admonition to a registrant, place a registrant on probation, or apply for a temporary or permanent injunction against a direct-entry midwife, through the attorney general, in any court of competent jurisdiction, enjoining such direct-entry midwife from practicing midwifery or committing any such violation. Injunctive proceedings under this subsection (1) shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, any other penalties or remedies provided in this article.

(2) (a) (I) The director may assess a civil penalty in the form of a fine, not to exceed five thousand dollars, for violation of a rule or order of the director or any other act or omission prohibited by this article.

(II) The director shall adopt rules establishing a fine structure and the circumstances under which fines may be imposed.

(b) Any moneys collected pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit such moneys to the general fund.

(3) The director may deny, revoke, or suspend a registration or issue a letter of admonition or place a registrant on probation for any of the following acts or omissions:

(a) Any violation of section 12-37-103, 12-37-104, 12-37-105, or 12-37-109 (3);

(b) Failing to provide any information required pursuant to, or to pay any fee assessed in accordance with, section 12-37-103 or providing false, deceptive, or misleading information to the division that the direct-entry midwife knew or should reasonably have known was false, deceptive, or misleading;

(c) Failing to respond in an honest, materially responsive, and timely manner to a letter of complaint from the director;

(d) Failing to comply with an order of the director, including an order placing conditions or restrictions on the registrant's practice;

(e) Engaging in any act or omission that does not meet generally accepted standards of safe care for women and infants, whether or not actual injury to a client is established;

(f) Abuse or habitual or excessive use of a habit-forming drug, a controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or alcohol;

(g) Procuring or attempting to procure a registration in this or any other state or jurisdiction by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, misleading omission, or material misstatement of fact;

(h) Having had a license or registration to practice direct-entry midwifery or any other health care profession or occupation suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction;

(i) Violating any law or regulation governing the practice of direct-entry midwifery in another state or jurisdiction. A plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent accepted by any state agency of another state or jurisdiction may be considered to be the same as a finding of violation for purposes of a proceeding under this article.

(j) Falsifying, failing to make essential entries in, or in a negligent manner making incorrect entries in client records;

(k) Conviction of a felony or acceptance by a court of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea shall be prima facie evidence of such conviction.

(l) Aiding or knowingly permitting any person to violate any provision of this article; or

(m) Advertising through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, web site, e-mail, text message, or otherwise that the registrant will perform any act prohibited by this article.

(4) Any proceeding to deny, suspend, or revoke a registration or place a registrant on probation shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S. Such proceeding may be conducted by an administrative law judge designated pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S. Any final decision of the director shall be subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(5) The director may accept as prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action any disciplinary action taken against a registrant by another jurisdiction if the violation that prompted such disciplinary action would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article.

(6) (a) The director or an administrative law judge may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the director. The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the director, including copies of hospital and physician records. The provider of such copies shall prepare the copies from the original record and shall delete the name of the patient or client, to be retained by the custodian of the records from which the copies were made, but shall identify the patient or client by a numbered code. Upon certification by the custodian that the copies are true and complete except for the patient's or client's name, the copies shall be deemed authentic, subject to the right to inspect the originals for the limited purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the copies. No privilege of confidentiality exists with respect to such copies and no liability lies against the director or the custodian or the director's or custodian's authorized employees for furnishing or using such copies in accordance with this section.

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or registrant resides or conducts business, upon application by the director with notice to the subpoenaed person or registrant, may issue to the person or registrant an order requiring that person or registrant to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(7) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, does not warrant formal action by the director but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the registrant.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the director, by certified mail, to a registrant, such registrant shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition is vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(7.5) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the director and, in the opinion of the director, the complaint should be dismissed, but the director has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the registrant that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the registrant.

(8) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(9) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required registration, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (9), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(10) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unregistered practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (10) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (10) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (10). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required registration or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unregistered practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (10), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(11) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unregistered act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(12) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

12-37-109. Assumption of risk - no vicarious liability - legislative declaration.
(1) (a) It is the policy of this state that registrants shall be liable for their acts or omissions in the performance of the services that they provide, and that no licensed physician, nurse, prehospital emergency medical personnel, or health care institution shall be liable for any act or omission resulting from the administration of services by any registrant. This subsection (1) does not relieve any physician, nurse, prehospital emergency personnel, or health care institution from liability for any willful and wanton act or omission or any act or omission constituting gross negligence, or under circumstances where a registrant has a business or supervised relationship with any such physician, nurse, prehospital emergency personnel, or health care institution. A physician, nurse, prehospital emergency personnel, or health care institution may provide consultation or education to the registrant without establishing a business or supervisory relationship, and is encouraged to accept referrals from registrants pursuant to this article.

Source: Initiated 98: Entire article added, effective upon proclamation of the Governor, December 30, 1998.

ANNOTATION

Colorado Parental Notification Act is unconstitutional. The act violates the rights of minor women protected by the fourteenth amendment to the U.S. Constitution. The U.S. supreme court has required that any abortion regulation except from its reach an abortion medically necessary for the preservation of the mother’s health. The act fails to provide such a health exception, and the delay inherent in the act’s notification requirements will place some women at risk of serious health problems or even death. Planned Parenthood of Rocky Mountains Servs. Corp. v. Owens, 107 F. Supp. 2d 1271 (D. Colo. 2000), aff’d, 287 F.3d 910 (10th Cir. 2002).

12-37.5-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The people of the state of Colorado, pursuant to the powers reserved to them in Article V of the Constitution of the state of Colorado, declare that family life and the preservation of the traditional family unit are of vital importance to the continuation of an orderly society; that the rights of parents to rear and nurture their children during their formative years and to be involved in all decisions of importance affecting such minor children should be protected and encouraged, especially as such parental involvement relates to the pregnancy of an unemancipated minor, recognizing that the decision by any such minor to submit to an abortion may have adverse long-term consequences for her.

(2) The people of the state of Colorado, being mindful of the limitations imposed upon them at the present time by the federal judiciary in the preservation of the parent-child relationship, hereby enact into law the following provisions.

ANNOTATION

The legislative declaration of the Colorado Parental Notification Act does not provide any positive indication that the act should be interpreted in conjunction with the Colorado Children's Code to protect the health of a minor. Planned Parenthood of Rocky Mountains Servs. Corp. v. Owens, 107 F. Supp. 2d 1271 (D. Colo. 2000), aff'd on other grounds, 287 F.3d 910 (10th Cir. 2002).

- (1) "Minor" means a person under eighteen years of age.
- (2) "Parent" means the natural or adoptive mother and father of the minor who is pregnant, if they are both living; one parent of the minor if only one is living, or if the other parent cannot be served with notice, as hereinafter provided; or the court-appointed guardian of such minor if she has one or any foster parent to whom the care and custody of such minor shall have been assigned by any agency of the state or county making such placement.
- (3) "Abortion" for purposes of this article means the use of any means to terminate the pregnancy of a minor with knowledge that the termination by those means will, with reasonable likelihood, cause the death of the minor's unborn offspring.
- (4) "Clergy member" means a priest; a rabbi; a duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed minister of a church; a member of a religious order; or a recognized leader of any religious body.
- (5) "Medical emergency" means a condition that, on the basis of the physician's good-faith clinical judgment, so complicates the medical condition of a pregnant minor as to necessitate a medical procedure necessary to prevent the pregnant minor's death or for which a delay will create a serious risk of substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily function.
- (6) "Relative of the minor" means a minor's grandparent, adult aunt, or adult uncle, if the minor is not residing with a parent and resides with the grandparent, adult aunt, or adult uncle.

12-37.5-104. Notification concerning abortion. (1) No abortion shall be performed upon an unemancipated minor until at least 48 hours after written notice of the pending abortion has been delivered in the following manner:

- (a) The notice shall be addressed to the parent at the dwelling house or usual place of abode of the parent. Such notice shall be delivered to the parent by:
 - (I) The attending physician or member of the physician's immediate staff who is over the age of eighteen; or
 - (II) The sheriff of the county where the service of notice is made, or by his deputy; or
 - (III) Any other person over the age of eighteen years who is not related to the minor; or
 - (IV) A clergy member who is over the age of eighteen.
- (b) Notice delivered by any person other than the attending physician shall be furnished to and delivered by such person in a sealed envelope marked "Personal and Confidential" and its content shall not in any manner be revealed to the person making such delivery.
- (c) Whenever the parent of the minor includes two persons to be notified as provided in this article and such persons reside at the same dwelling house or place of abode, delivery to one such person shall constitute delivery to both, and the 48-hour period shall commence when delivery is made. Should such persons not reside together and delivery of notice can be made to each of them, notice shall be delivered to both parents, unless the minor shall request that only one parent be notified, which request shall be honored and shall be noted by the physician in the minor's medical record. Whenever the parties are separately served with notice, the 48-hour period shall commence upon delivery of the first notice.

(d) The person delivering such notice, if other than the physician, shall provide to the physician a written return of service at the earliest practical time, as follows:

(I) If served by the sheriff or his deputy, by his certificate with a statement as to date, place, and manner of service and the time such delivery was made.

(II) If by any other person, by his affidavit thereof with the same statement.

(III) Return of service shall be maintained by the physician.

(e) (I) In lieu of personal delivery of the notice, the same may be sent by postpaid certified mail, addressed to the parent at the usual place of abode of the parent, with return receipt requested and delivery restricted to the addressee. Delivery shall be conclusively presumed to occur and the 48-hour time period as provided in this article shall commence to run at 12:00 o'clock noon on the next day on which regular mail delivery takes place.

(II) Whenever the parent of the minor includes two persons to be notified as provided in this article and such persons reside at the same dwelling house or place of abode, notice addressed to one parent and mailed as provided in the foregoing subparagraph shall be deemed to be delivery of notice to both such persons. Should such persons not reside together and notice can be mailed to each of them, such notice shall be separately mailed to both parents unless the minor shall request that only one parent shall be notified, which request shall be honored and shall be noted by the physician in the minor's medical record.

(III) Proof of mailing and the delivery or attempted delivery shall be maintained by the physician.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, if the minor is residing with a relative of the minor and not a parent, the written notice of the pending abortion shall be provided to either the relative of the minor or a parent.

(b) If a minor elects to provide notice to a person specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the notice shall be provided in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section.

(3) At the time the physician, licensed health care professional, or staff of the physician or licensed health care professional informs the minor that notice must be provided to the minor's parents prior to performing an abortion, the physician, licensed health care professional, or the staff of the physician or licensed health care professional must inform the minor under what circumstances the minor has the right to have only one parent notified.

ANNOTATION

The provisions of the Parental Notification Act supersede § 19-1-104 (3) of the Children's Code with regard to the provision of notice to parents about abortions. Planned Parenthood of Rocky Mountains Servs. Corp. v. Owens, 287 F.3d 910 (10th Cir. 2002).

As a result, the Parental Notification Act must be held unconstitutional because it lacks a health exception to the parental notification requirement. Planned Parenthood of Rocky Mountains Servs. Corp. v. Owens, 287 F.3d 910 (10th Cir. 2002).

Applied in In re Doe, 166 P.3d 293 (Colo. App. 2007).

12-37.5-105. No notice required - when. (1) No notice shall be required pursuant to this article if:

(a) The person or persons who may receive notice pursuant to section 12-37.5-104 (1) certify in writing that they have been notified; or

(a.5) The person whom the minor elects to notify pursuant to section 12-37.5-104 (2) certifies in writing that he or she has been notified; or

(b) The pregnant minor declares that she is a victim of child abuse or neglect by the acts or omissions of the person who would be entitled to notice, as such acts or omissions are defined in "The Child Protection Act of 1987", as set forth in title 19, article 3, of the Colorado Revised Statutes, and any amendments thereto, and the attending physician has reported such child abuse or neglect as required by the said act. When reporting such child abuse or neglect, the physician shall not reveal that he or she learned of the abuse or neglect as the result of the minor seeking an abortion.

(c) The attending physician certifies in the pregnant minor's medical record that a medical emergency exists and there is insufficient time to provide notice pursuant to section 12-37.5-104; or

(d) A valid court order is issued pursuant to section 12-37.5-107.

12-37.5-106. Penalties - damages - defenses. (1) Any person who performs or attempts to perform an abortion in willful violation of this article:

(a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 2364, § 7, effective June 3, 2003.)

(b) Shall be liable for damages proximately caused thereby.

(2) It shall be an affirmative defense to any civil proceedings if the person establishes that:

(a) The person relied upon facts or information sufficient to convince a reasonable, careful and prudent person that the representations of the pregnant minor regarding information necessary to comply with this article were bona fide and true; or

(b) The abortion was performed to prevent the imminent death of the minor child and there was insufficient time to provide the required notice.

(3) Any person who counsels, advises, encourages or conspires to induce or persuade any pregnant minor to furnish any physician with false information, whether oral or written, concerning the minor's age, marital status, or any other fact or circumstance to induce or attempt to induce the physician to perform an abortion upon such minor without providing written notice as required by this article commits a class 5 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

12-37.5-107. Judicial bypass.

(2) (a) If any pregnant minor elects not to allow the notification required pursuant to section 12-37.5-104, any judge of a court of competent jurisdiction shall, upon petition filed by or on behalf of such minor, enter an order dispensing with the notice requirements of this article if the judge determines that the giving of such notice will not be in the best interest of the minor, or if the court finds, by clear and convincing evidence, that the minor is sufficiently mature to decide whether to have an abortion. Any such order shall include specific factual findings and legal conclusions in support thereof and a certified copy of such order shall be provided to the attending physician of said minor and the provisions of section 12-37.5-104 (1) and section 12-37.5-106 shall not apply to the physician with respect to such minor.

(b) The court, in its discretion, may appoint a guardian ad litem for the minor and also an attorney if said minor is not represented by counsel.

(c) Court proceedings under this subsection (2) shall be confidential and shall be given precedence over other pending matters so that the court may reach a decision promptly without delay in order to serve the best interests of the minor. Court proceedings under this subsection (2) shall be heard and decided as soon as practicable but in no event later than four days after the petition is filed.

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, an expedited confidential appeal to the court of appeals shall be available to a minor for whom the court denies an order dispensing with the notice requirements of this article. Any such appeal shall be heard and decided no later than five days after the appeal is filed. An order dispensing with the notice requirements of this article shall not be subject to appeal.

(e) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the minor is not required to pay a filing fee related to an action or appeal filed pursuant to this subsection (2).

(f) If either the district court or the court of appeals fails to act within the time periods required by this subsection (2), the court in which the proceeding is pending shall immediately issue an order dispensing with the notice requirements of this article.

(g) The Colorado supreme court shall issue rules governing the judicial bypass procedure, including rules that ensure that the confidentiality of minors filing bypass petitions will be protected. The Colorado supreme court shall also promulgate a form petition that may be used to initiate a bypass proceeding. The Colorado supreme court shall promulgate the rules and form governing the judicial bypass procedure by August 1, 2003. Physicians shall not be required to comply with this article until forty-five days after the Colorado supreme court publishes final rules and a final form.

12-37.5-108. Limitations. (1) This article shall in no way be construed so as to:

- (a) Require any minor to submit to an abortion; or
 - (b) Prevent any minor from withdrawing her consent previously given to have an abortion; or
 - (c) Permit anything less than fully informed consent before submitting to an abortion.
- (2) This article shall in no way be construed as either ratifying, granting or otherwise establishing an abortion right for minors independently of any other regulation, statute or court decision which may now or hereafter limit or abridge access to abortion by minors.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-38-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Nurse Practice Act".

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-38-101 as it existed prior to 1980.

12-38-102. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby declares it to be the policy of this state that, in order to safeguard the life, health, property, and public welfare of the people of this state and in order to protect the people of this state from the unauthorized, unqualified, and improper application of services by individuals in the practice of nursing, it is necessary that a proper regulatory authority be established. The general assembly further declares it to be the policy of this state to regulate the practice of nursing through a state agency with the power to enforce the provisions of this article.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "Acts of Diagnosis by Nurses and the Colorado Professional Nursing Practice Act", see 45 Den. L.J. 467 (1968).

12-38-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) Repealed.
- (2) "Approved education program" means a course of training conducted by an educational or health care institution which implements the basic practical or professional nursing curriculum prescribed and approved by the board.
- (3) "Board" means the state board of nursing.
- (4) "Delegated medical function" means an aspect of care that implements and is consistent with the medical plan as prescribed by a licensed or otherwise legally authorized physician, podiatrist, or dentist and is delegated to a registered professional nurse or a practical nurse by a physician, podiatrist, dentist, or physician assistant. For purposes of this subsection (4), "medical plan" means a written plan, verbal order, standing order, or protocol, whether patient specific or not, that authorizes specific or discretionary medical action, which may include but is not limited to the selection of medication. Nothing in this subsection (4) shall limit the practice of nursing as defined in this article.
- (5) "Diagnosing", within the terms of this article, means the use of professional nursing knowledge and skills in the identification of, and discrimination between, physical and psychological signs or symptoms to arrive at a conclusion that a condition exists for which nursing care is indicated or for which referral to appropriate medical or community resources is required.
- (6) and (7) Repealed.
- (7.4) "Licensee" means a person licensed pursuant to this article.
- (7.8) "Panel" means either panel of the board created in section 12-38-116.5 (1).
- (8) "Practical nurse", "trained practical nurse", "licensed vocational nurse", or "licensed practical nurse" means a person who holds a license to practice pursuant to the provisions of this article as a licensed practical nurse in this state or is licensed in another state and is practicing in this state pursuant to section 24-60-3202, C.R.S., with the right to use the title "licensed practical nurse" and its abbreviation, "L.P.N.".
- (8.5) (a) "Practice of advanced practice nursing" means an expanded scope of professional nursing in a scope, role, and population focus approved by the board, with or without compensation or personal profit, and includes the practice of professional nursing, as defined in subsection (10) of this section.
- (b) "Practice of advanced practice nursing" includes prescribing medications as may be authorized pursuant to section 12-38-111.6.
- (c) Nothing in this subsection (8.5) shall alter the definition of the practice of professional nursing, as defined in subsection (10) of this section.
- (9) (a) "Practice of practical nursing" means the performance, under the supervision of a dentist, physician, podiatrist, or professional nurse authorized to practice in this state, of those services requiring the education, training, and experience, as evidenced by knowledge, abilities, and skills required in this article for licensing as a practical nurse pursuant to section 12-38-112, in:

- (I) Caring for the ill, injured, or infirm;
- (II) Teaching and promoting preventive health measures;
- (III) Acting to safeguard life and health; or
- (IV) Administering treatments and medications prescribed by:
 - (A) A legally authorized dentist, podiatrist, or physician; or
 - (B) Physician assistant implementing a medical plan pursuant to subsection (4) of this section.
- (b) "Practice of practical nursing" includes the performance of delegated medical functions.

(c) Nothing in this article shall limit or deny a practical nurse from supervising other practical nurses or other health care personnel.

(10) (a) "Practice of professional nursing" means the performance of both independent nursing functions and delegated medical functions in accordance with accepted practice standards. Such functions include the initiation and performance of nursing care through health promotion, supportive or restorative care, disease prevention, diagnosis and treatment of human disease, ailment, pain, injury, deformity, and physical or mental condition using specialized knowledge, judgment, and skill involving the application of biological, physical, social, and behavioral science principles required for licensure as a professional nurse pursuant to section 12-38-111.

(b) The "practice of professional nursing" shall include the performance of such services as:

- (I) Evaluating health status through the collection and assessment of health data;
- (II) Health teaching and health counseling;
- (III) Providing therapy and treatment that is supportive and restorative to life and well-being either directly to the patient or indirectly through consultation with, delegation to, supervision of, or teaching of others;
- (IV) Executing delegated medical functions;
- (V) Referring to medical or community agencies those patients who need further evaluation or treatment;
- (VI) Reviewing and monitoring therapy and treatment plans.

(11) "Registered nurse" or "registered professional nurse" means a professional nurse, and only a person who holds a license to practice professional nursing in this state pursuant to the provisions of this article or who holds a license in another state and is practicing in this state pursuant to section 24-60-3202, C.R.S., shall have the right to use the title "registered nurse" and its abbreviation, "R.N.".

(12) "Treating" means the selection, recommendation, execution, and monitoring of those nursing measures essential to the effective determination and management of actual or potential human health problems and to the execution of the delegated medical functions. Such delegated medical functions shall be performed under the responsible direction and supervision of a person licensed under the laws of this state to practice medicine, podiatry, or dentistry.

(13) "Unauthorized practice" means the practice of practical nursing or the practice of professional nursing by any person who has not been issued a license under the provisions of this article, or is not practicing in this state pursuant to section 24-60-3202, C.R.S., or whose license has been suspended or revoked or has expired.

ANNOTATION

The definition of the practice of professional nursing in subsection (10) includes the handling of patient records. Thus, petitioner could be disciplined for failing to properly handle patient records. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

Failure to furnish medical records in a timely fashion to patients violates generally accepted standards of nursing practice, warranting disciplinary action. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1125 (Colo. App. 1992).

Subsection (10)(b)(III) appears to contemplate the actual performance of patient services or the supervision of such services. Further, respondent's conduct as vice-president of nursing care services did not constitute the practice of professional nursing as the board's own interpretation of the statutory term "supervision" required. Tryon v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 989 P.2d 216 (Colo. App. 1998).

In interpreting a statute, a reviewing court must accord deference to the interpretation adopted by the agency charged with enforcement of the statute unless the agency's interpretation is inconsistent with its own rules. Tryon v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 989 P.2d 216 (Colo. App. 1998).

12-38-104. State board of nursing created. (1) (a) There is hereby created the state board of nursing in the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies, which board shall consist of eleven members who are residents of this state, appointed by the governor as follows:

(I) Two members of the board shall be licensed practical nurses engaged in the practice of practical nursing and licensed in this state;

(II) Seven members of the board shall be licensed professional nurses who are actively employed in their respective nursing professions and licensed in this state. The professional nurse members shall have been employed for at least three years in their respective categories. Members shall be as follows:

(A) One member shall be engaged in professional nursing education;

(B) One member shall be engaged in practical nursing education in a program that prepares an individual for licensure;

(C) One member shall be engaged in home health care;

(D) One member shall be registered as an advanced practice nurse pursuant to section 12-38-111.5;

(E) One member shall be engaged in nursing service administration; and

(F) Two members shall be engaged as staff nurses, including one staff nurse who is employed in a hospital and one employed in a nursing care facility;

(III) Two members of the board shall be persons who are not currently licensed and have not been previously licensed as health care providers, and who are not employed by or in any way connected with, or have any financial interest in, a health care facility, agency, or insurer.

(IV) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-239), ch. 401, p. 2165, § 3, effective July 1, 2009.)

(b) Any statutory change in board composition shall be implemented when the terms of current members expire, and no member shall be asked to resign before the end of a term due to such statutory changes.

(b.5) When making appointments to the board, the governor shall strive to achieve geographical, political, urban, and rural balance among the board membership.

(c) (I) Each member of the board shall be appointed for a term of three years; except that members appointed to the board for a first or second term on or after July 1, 2009, shall be appointed for a term of four years.

(II) Any interim appointment necessary to fill a vacancy which has occurred by any reason other than the expiration of a term shall be for the remainder of the term of the individual member whose office has become vacant.

(III) A member may be reappointed for a subsequent term at the pleasure of the governor, but no member shall serve for more than two consecutive terms.

(d) Notwithstanding the provisions of this subsection (1) to the contrary, if, as determined by the governor, an appropriate applicant for membership on the board pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) is not available to serve on the board for a particular term, the governor may appoint a nurse whose license is in good standing to fill the vacancy for the length of that term. At the end of such term, if the governor, after a good faith attempt, cannot find an appropriate applicant pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the governor may appoint a nurse whose license is in good standing to fill the vacancy for one term.

(1.5) The board shall elect annually from its members a president.

(2) (a) Repealed.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-239), ch. 401, p. 2165, § 3, effective July 1, 2009.)

(3) Each member of the board shall receive the same per diem compensation and reimbursement of expenses as those provided for members of boards and commissions in the division of professions and occupations pursuant to section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S.

12-38-107. Employees - executive officer. After consultation with the board, the director of the division of professions and occupations shall appoint an executive administrator for the board and such other personnel as are deemed necessary, pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution. At least one member of the board shall serve on any panel convened by the department of personnel to interview candidates for the position of executive administrator.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-38-208 as it existed prior to 1980.

12-38-108. Powers and duties of the board - rules. (1) The board has the following powers and duties:

(a) To approve, pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the board, educational programs in this state preparing individuals for licensure, including approving curricula, conducting surveys, and establishing standards for such educational programs; to deny approval of or withdraw approval from such educational programs for failure to meet required standards as established by this article or pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the board; and to further establish standards in accordance with this article in the form of rules and regulations to determine whether institutions outside this state shall be deemed to have acceptable educational programs and whether graduates of institutions outside this state shall be deemed to be graduates of approved educational programs for the purpose of licensing requirements in this state; and to determine by rule when accreditation by a state or voluntary agency may be accepted in lieu of board approval;

(b) (I) To examine, license, reactivate, and renew licenses of qualified applicants and to grant to such applicants temporary licenses and permits to engage in the practice of practical nursing and professional nursing in this state within the limitations imposed by this article. Licenses shall be renewed, reactivated, or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed, reactivated, or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees, reactivation fees, and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and may increase fees to obtain or renew a professional nurse license or advanced practice nurse authority consistent with section 24-34-109 (4), C.R.S., to fund the division's costs in administering and staffing the nurse-physician advisory task force for Colorado health care created in section 24-34-109 (1), C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(II) In order to facilitate the licensure of qualified applicants, the board may, in its discretion, assign licensing functions in accordance with this article to either panel. Any action taken by a quorum of the assigned panel shall constitute action by the board.

(b.5) To revoke, suspend, withhold, limit the scope of, or refuse to renew any license, to place a licensee or temporary licensee on probation, to impose an administrative fine on a licensee, or to issue a letter of admonition to a licensee in accordance with the procedures set forth in section 12-38-116.5 upon proof that such licensee has committed an act that constitutes grounds for discipline under section 12-38-117 or 12-42-113;

(c) To permit the executive officer, during the period between board meetings, to administer examinations, issue licenses by endorsement and examination, renew licenses, and issue temporary licenses and permits to qualified applicants, pursuant to rules and regulations adopted by the board;

(d) To adopt and revise rules and regulations concerning qualifications needed to practice as a practical nurse when such practice requires preparation and skill beyond that of a practical nurse pursuant to section 12-38-112;

(e) Repealed.

(f) To provide by regulation for the legal recognition of nurse licensees from other states;

(g) To charge and collect appropriate fees;

(h) To investigate and conduct hearings upon charges for the discipline of nurses in accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and to impose disciplinary sanctions as provided in this article;

(i) To cause the prosecution and enjoinder of any person violating the provisions of this article and incur necessary expenses therefor;

(j) To adopt rules and regulations necessary to carry out the purposes of this article, such rules and regulations to be promulgated in accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.;

(k) To administer the licensing and regulation of psychiatric technicians pursuant to article 42 of this title and to adopt and revise rules and regulations consistent with the laws of this state as may be necessary:

(I) To renew, grant, suspend, limit the scope of, and revoke licenses of psychiatric technicians in accordance with article 42 of this title;

(II) To prescribe standards and approve curricula for educational programs preparing persons for licensure as psychiatric technicians;

(III) To provide for surveys of such programs at such times as the board may deem necessary;

(IV) To accredit such programs as meet the requirements of the board and article 42 of this title;

(V) To deny accreditation to or withdraw accreditation from educational programs for failure to meet prescribed standards;

(VI) To conduct hearings pursuant to section 12-42-114;

(VII) To cause the prosecution and enjoinder of any person violating the provisions of article 42 of this title and incur necessary expenses therefor;

(I) (I) (A) Repealed.

(B) To conduct criminal history record checks on any individual under the jurisdiction of the board, against whom a complaint has been filed.

(C) Repealed.

(II) For purposes of this paragraph (I), "criminal history record check" means a written review of an individual's criminal conviction history.

(1.1) (a) The board shall appoint advisory committees pursuant to section 12-38-109 of at least three psychiatric technicians to advise the board on matters pertaining to psychiatric technician testing. The board shall, in its discretion, assign matters referred to the board by the psychiatric technicians advisory committee to a panel for consideration and implementation, if necessary.

(2) When the board determines that rules and regulations are completed and established, the board shall make copies available at a reasonable cost.

(3) The board shall, in its discretion, assign matters referred to the board by the nurse aide advisory committee, created pursuant to section 12-38.1-110, to a panel for consideration and implementation, if necessary.

(4) The board shall administer the provisions of the nurse licensure compact pursuant to section 24-60-3202, C.R.S. Before recognizing a nurse license from another state that is party to the nurse licensure compact, the board shall determine that such state's qualifications for a nursing license are substantially equivalent to or more stringent than the minimum qualifications for issuance of a Colorado license under this article.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-38-211 as it existed prior to 1980.

12-38-111. Requirements for professional nurse licensure. (1) The board shall issue a license to engage in the practice of professional nursing to any applicant who:

(a) Submits an application containing such information as the board may prescribe;

(b) Submits proof satisfactory to the board in such manner and upon such forms as the board may require to show that the applicant has completed a professional nursing educational program which meets the standards of the board for approval of educational programs or which is approved by the board and to show that the applicant holds a certificate of graduation from or a certificate of completion of such approved program;

(c) Repealed.

(d) Passes an examination as provided in section 12-38-110 or is eligible for and is granted licensure by endorsement as provided in subsection (2) of this section;

(e) Pays the required fee.

(2) The board may issue a license by endorsement to engage in the practice of professional nursing in this state to a nurse who is licensed to practice professional nursing in another state or a territory of the United States or in a foreign country if the applicant presents proof satisfactory to the board that, at the time of application for a Colorado license by endorsement, the applicant possesses credentials and qualifications which are substantially equivalent to requirements in Colorado for licensure by examination. The board may specify by rule and regulation what shall constitute substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications.

(3) The board shall design a questionnaire to be sent to all licensees who apply for license renewal. Each applicant for license renewal shall complete the board-designed questionnaire. The purpose of the questionnaire is to determine whether a licensee has acted in violation of this article or been disciplined for any action that might be considered a violation of this article or might make the licensee unfit to practice nursing with reasonable care and safety. If an applicant fails to answer the questionnaire accurately, such failure shall constitute grounds for discipline under section 12-38-117 (1) (v). The board may include the cost of developing and reviewing the questionnaire in the fee paid under paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section. The board may refuse an application for license renewal that does not accompany an accurately completed questionnaire.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-38-212 as it existed prior to 1980.

12-38-111.5. Requirements for advanced practice nurse registration - legislative declaration - definition - advanced practice registry. (1) The general assembly hereby recognizes that some individuals practicing pursuant to this article have acquired additional preparation for advanced practice and hereby determines that it is appropriate for the state to maintain a registry of such individuals. Such registry shall be known as the "advanced practice registry".

(2) As used in this section, "advanced practice nurse" means a professional nurse who is licensed to practice pursuant to this article, who obtains specialized education or training as provided in this section, and who applies to and is accepted by the board for inclusion in the advanced practice registry.

(3) The board shall establish the advanced practice registry and shall require that a nurse applying for registration identify his or her role and population focus. The board shall establish reasonable criteria for designation of specific role and population foci based on currently accepted professional standards. A nurse who is included in the advanced practice registry has the right to use the title "advanced practice nurse" or, if authorized by the board, to use the title "certified nurse midwife", "clinical nurse specialist", "certified registered nurse anesthetist", or "nurse practitioner". These titles may be abbreviated as "A.P.N.", "C.N.M.", "C.N.S.", "C.R.N.A.", or "N.P.", respectively. It is unlawful for any person to use any of the titles or abbreviations listed in this subsection (3) unless included in the registry and authorized by the board to do so.

(4) (a) Repealed.

(b) On and after July 1, 1995, until July 1, 2008, the requirements for inclusion in the advanced practice registry shall include the successful completion of a nationally accredited education program for preparation as an advanced practice nurse or a passing score on a certification examination of a nationally recognized accrediting agency, or both, if applicable, as defined in rules adopted by the board.

(c) On and after July 1, 2008, the requirements for inclusion in the advanced practice registry shall include the successful completion of an appropriate graduate degree as determined by the board; except that individuals who are included in the registry as of June 30, 2008, but have not successfully completed such degree, may thereafter continue to be included in the registry and to use the appropriate title and abbreviation.

(d) On and after July 1, 2010, in addition to the requirements of paragraph (c) of this subsection (4), a professional nurse shall obtain national certification from a nationally recognized accrediting agency, as defined by the board by rule, in the appropriate role and population focus in order to be included in the advanced practice registry; except that professional nurses who are included in the registry as of June 30, 2010, but have not obtained such national certification, may thereafter continue to be included in the registry and to use the appropriate title and abbreviation.

(e) A professional nurse may be included in the advanced practice registry by endorsement if the professional nurse meets one of the following qualifying standards:

(I) The professional nurse is recognized as an advanced practice nurse in another state or jurisdiction and has practiced as an advanced practice nurse for at least two of the last five years immediately preceding the date of application for inclusion in the advanced practice registry; or

(II) The professional nurse holds national certification as provided in paragraph (d) of this subsection (4) and possesses an appropriate graduate degree as determined by the board.

(5) A nurse who meets the definition of advanced practice nurse, as defined in subsection (2) of this section, and the requirements of section 12-38-111.6, may be granted prescriptive authority as a function in addition to those defined in section 12-38-103 (10).

(6) An advanced practice nurse shall practice in accordance with the standards of the appropriate national professional nursing organization and have a safe mechanism for consultation or collaboration with a physician or, when appropriate, referral to a physician. Advanced practice nursing also includes, when appropriate, referral to other health care providers.

(7) (a) In order to enhance the cost efficiency and continuity of care, an advanced practice nurse may, within his or her scope of practice and within the advanced practice nurse-patient relationship, sign an affidavit, certification, or similar document that:

(I) Documents a patient's current health status;

(II) Authorizes continuing treatment, tests, services, or equipment; or

(III) Gives advance directives for end-of-life care.

(b) Such affidavit, certification, or similar document may not:

(I) Be the prescription of medication unless the advanced practice nurse has been granted prescriptive authority pursuant to section 12-38-111.6; or

(II) Be in conflict with other requirements of law.

12-38-111.6. Prescriptive authority - advanced practice nurses - rules. (1) The board may authorize an advanced practice nurse who is listed on the advanced practice registry, has a license in good standing without disciplinary sanctions issued pursuant to section 12-38-111, and has fulfilled requirements established by the board pursuant to this section to prescribe controlled substances or prescription drugs as defined in part 1 of article 42.5 of this title.

(2) (a) The board shall adopt rules to implement this section.

(b) Rules adopted pursuant to this section shall reflect current, accepted professional standards for the safe and effective use of controlled substances and prescription drugs.

(3) (a) An advanced practice nurse may be granted authority to prescribe prescription drugs and controlled substances to provide treatment to clients.

(b) and (c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-239), ch. 401, p. 2174, § 20, effective July 1, 2009.)

(d) (I) An advanced practice nurse who has been granted authority to prescribe prescription drugs and controlled substances under this article may advise the nurse's patients of their option to have the symptom or purpose for which a prescription is being issued included on the prescription order.

(II) A nurse's failure to advise a patient under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d) shall not be grounds for any disciplinary action against the nurse's professional license issued under this article. Failure to advise a patient pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d) shall not be grounds for any civil action against a nurse in a negligence or tort action, nor shall such failure be evidence in any civil action against a nurse.

(4) Repealed.

(4.5) (a) On or after July 1, 2010, or, if the director of the division of professions and occupations adopts rules pursuant to subparagraph (II) of paragraph (f) of this subsection (4.5), on or after July 2, 2010, an advanced practice nurse applying for prescriptive authority shall provide evidence to the board of the following:

(I) An appropriate graduate degree as determined by the board pursuant to section 12-38-111.5 (4) (c);

(II) Satisfactory completion of specific educational requirements in the use of controlled substances and prescription drugs, as established by the board, either as part of a degree program or in addition to a degree program;

(III) National certification from a nationally recognized accrediting agency, as defined by the board by rule pursuant to section 12-38-111.5 (4) (d), unless the board grants an exception;

(IV) Professional liability insurance as required by section 12-38-111.8; and

(V) (A) Completion of a mutually structured, post-graduate preceptorship, as defined by the board by rule, consisting of not less than one thousand eight hundred documented hours, to be completed within the immediately preceding five-year period. The preceptorship shall be conducted either with a physician or a physician and an advanced practice nurse who has prescriptive authority and experience in prescribing medications. The physician and, if applicable, advanced practice nurse serving as a preceptor to the applicant shall be actively practicing in this state and shall have education, training, experience, and active practice that corresponds with the role and population focus of the applicant.

(B) The physician and, if applicable, advanced practice nurse serving as a preceptor shall not require payment or employment as a condition of entering into the preceptorship relationship, but a preceptor may request reimbursement of reasonable expenses and time spent as a result of the preceptorship relationship.

(b) Upon satisfaction of the requirements set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5), the board may grant provisional prescriptive authority to an advanced practice nurse. The provisional prescriptive authority that is granted shall be limited to those patients and medications appropriate to the advanced practice nurse's role and population focus. In order to retain provisional prescriptive authority and obtain and retain full prescriptive authority pursuant to this subsection (4.5) for patients and medications appropriate for the advanced practice nurse's role and population focus, an advanced practice nurse shall satisfy the following requirements:

(I) (A) Within five years after the provisional prescriptive authority is granted, the advanced practice nurse shall obtain an additional one thousand eight hundred hours of documented experience in a mutually structured mentorship either with a physician or with a physician and advanced practice nurse who has prescriptive authority and experience in prescribing medications. The mentorship need not be with the same persons who provided the preceptorship specified in subparagraph (V) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5), but the mentor shall be practicing in Colorado and have education, training, experience, and active practice that corresponds with the role and population focus of the advanced practice nurse.

(B) The physician and, if applicable, advanced practice nurse serving as a mentor shall not require payment or employment as a condition of entering into the mentorship relationship, but the mentor may request reimbursement of reasonable expenses and time spent as a result of the mentorship relationship.

(C) Upon successful completion of the mentorship period, the mentor shall provide his or her signature to verify that the advanced practice nurse has successfully completed the mentorship within the required period after the provisional prescriptive authority was granted.

(D) If an advanced practice nurse with provisional prescriptive authority fails to complete the mentorship required by this subparagraph (I) within the specified period, the advanced practice nurse's provisional prescriptive authority expires for failure to comply with the statutory requirements.

(II) Within five years after obtaining provisional prescriptive authority, the advanced practice nurse shall develop an articulated plan for safe prescribing that documents how the advanced practice nurse intends to maintain ongoing collaboration with physicians and other health care professionals in connection with the advanced practice nurse's practice of prescribing medication within his or her role and population focus. The articulated plan shall guide the advanced practice nurse's prescriptive practice. The physician or physician and advanced practice nurse that mentored the advanced practice nurse as described in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b) shall provide his or her signature to verify that the advanced practice nurse has developed an articulated plan. The advanced practice nurse shall retain the articulated plan on file, shall review the plan annually, and shall update the plan as necessary. The articulated plan is subject to review by the board, and the advanced practice nurse shall provide the plan to the board upon request. If an advanced practice nurse with provisional prescriptive authority fails to develop the required articulated plan within the specified period, the advanced practice nurse's provisional prescriptive authority expires for failure to comply with the statutory requirements. An articulated plan developed pursuant to this subparagraph (II) shall include at least the following:

(A) A mechanism for consultation and referral for issues regarding prescriptive authority;

(B) A quality assurance plan;

(C) Decision support tools; and

(D) Documentation of ongoing continuing education in pharmacology and safe prescribing.

(III) The advanced practice nurse shall maintain professional liability insurance as required by section 12-38-111.8.

(IV) The advanced practice nurse shall maintain national certification, as specified in subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5), unless the board grants an exception.

(c) An advanced practice nurse who was granted prescriptive authority prior to July 1, 2010, shall satisfy the following requirements in order to retain prescriptive authority:

(I) (A) Except as provided in sub-subparagraph (B) of this subparagraph (I), no later than July 1, 2011, the advanced practice nurse shall develop an articulated plan as specified in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (4.5); except that to verify development of an articulated plan, the advanced practice nurse shall obtain the signature of either a physician or a physician and advanced practice nurse who has prescriptive authority and experience in prescribing medications, is practicing in Colorado, and has education, training, experience, and active practice that corresponds with the role and population focus of the advanced practice nurse developing the plan. If an advanced practice nurse with prescriptive authority granted prior to July 1, 2010, fails to develop the required articulated plan within the specified period, the advanced practice nurse's prescriptive authority expires for failure to comply with the statutory requirements.

(B) The board shall extend the deadline for an advanced practice nurse to develop an articulated plan if the advanced practice nurse satisfies the requirements of this subparagraph (B), but in no event shall the board extend the deadline beyond September 30, 2012. Prior to September 30, 2012, an advanced practice nurse seeking a deadline extension shall submit to the board an application, the required fee, a signed verification that he or she developed an articulated plan by, or had an existing collaborative agreement with a physician on, July 1, 2011, and any other information or documentation required by the board.

(II) The advanced practice nurse shall maintain professional liability insurance as required by section 12-38-111.8.

(III) The advanced practice nurse shall maintain national certification, as specified in subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5), unless:

(A) The advanced practice nurse was included on the advanced practice registry prior to July 1, 2010, and has not obtained national certification;

(B) The advanced practice nurse was included on the advanced practice registry prior to July 1, 2008, and has not completed a graduate degree as specified in section 12-38-111.5 (4) (c); or

(C) The board grants an exception.

(d) (I) On or after July 1, 2010, or, if the director of the division of professions and occupations adopts rules pursuant to subparagraph (II) of paragraph (f) of this subsection (4.5), on or after July 2, 2010, an advanced practice nurse who has obtained prescriptive authority from another state may obtain provisional prescriptive authority in this state if the advanced practice nurse satisfies the following requirements:

(A) The advanced practice nurse satisfies the requirements of subparagraphs (I), (II), (III), and (IV) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5); and

(B) The advanced practice nurse has three thousand six hundred hours of documented experience prescribing medications without significant adverse prescribing issues, as determined by the board.

(II) Once an advanced practice nurse with prescriptive authority from another state obtains provisional prescriptive authority in this state, the advanced practice nurse shall satisfy the following requirements in order to obtain and maintain full prescriptive authority in this state:

(A) Within one year after obtaining provisional prescriptive authority in this state, the advanced practice nurse shall develop an articulated plan, as described in subparagraph (I) of paragraph (c) of this subsection (4.5); except that, if the advanced practice nurse with prescriptive authority from another state fails to develop the required articulated plan within the specified period, the advanced practice nurse's provisional prescriptive authority expires for failure to comply with the statutory requirements; and

(B) The advanced practice nurse shall maintain national certification, as specified in subparagraph (III) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (4.5), unless the board grants an exception.

(e) During the second year of implementation of this subsection (4.5) and rules adopted pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection (4.5), the board shall conduct random audits of articulated plans to ensure the plans satisfy the requirements of this subsection (4.5) and rules adopted pursuant to paragraph (f) of this subsection (4.5).

(f) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (f), the board shall adopt rules to implement this subsection (4.5), which rules shall take effect on July 1, 2010. The board shall consider the recommendations of the nurse-physician advisory task force for Colorado health care submitted in accordance with section 24-34-109, C.R.S., concerning prescriptive authority of advanced practice nurses. The rules shall be complementary to rules adopted by the Colorado medical board pursuant to section 12-36-106.4.

(II) (A) The director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies shall review the rules adopted by the board pursuant to this paragraph (f) prior to the effective date of the rules to determine if the rules complement the rules of the Colorado medical board. If the director determines that the rules of the two boards are not complementary, the director shall adopt rules that supersede and replace the rules of the two boards regarding prescriptive authority of advanced practice nurses and collaboration between advanced practice nurses and physicians, and such rules shall take effect on July 2, 2010.

(B) If the director determines that the two boards have adopted complementary rules regarding the prescriptive authority of advanced practice nurses and collaboration between advanced practice nurses and physicians, the director shall not adopt rules that supersede and replace the rules of the two boards, but the director shall review any amendments to those rules by either board to ensure that the rules remain complementary. If the director determines that an amendment to the rules by the state board of nursing or the Colorado medical board results in rules on prescriptive authority and collaboration that are no longer complementary, the amendment shall not take effect.

(5) and (6) Repealed.

(7) An advanced practice nurse who obtains prescriptive authority pursuant to this section shall be assigned a specific identifier by the board. This identifier shall be available to the Colorado medical board and the board of pharmacy. The board shall establish a mechanism to assure that the prescriptive authority of an advanced practice nurse may be readily verified.

(8) (a) The scope of practice for an advanced practice nurse may be determined by the board in accordance with this article.

(b) The board may consider information provided by nursing, medical, or other health professional organizations, associations, or regulatory boards.

(c) (I) Prescriptive authority by an advanced practice nurse shall be limited to those patients appropriate to such nurse's scope of practice. Prescriptive authority may be limited or withdrawn and the advanced practice nurse may be subject to further disciplinary action in accordance with this article if such nurse has prescribed outside such nurse's scope of practice or for other than a therapeutic purpose.

(II) Nothing in this section shall be construed to require a registered nurse to obtain prescriptive authority to deliver anesthesia care.

(9) All prescriptions must comply with applicable federal and state laws, including article 42.5 of this title and part 2 of article 18 of title 18, C.R.S.

(10) Nothing in this section shall be construed to permit dispensing or distribution, as defined in section 12-42.5-102 (11) and (12), by an advanced practice nurse, except for samples, under article 42.5 of this title and the federal "Prescription Drug Marketing Act of 1987".

(11) No advanced practice nurse registered pursuant to section 12-38-111.5 shall be required to apply for or obtain prescriptive authority.

(12) Nothing in this section shall limit the practice of nursing as defined in section 12-38-103 (9) or (10) by any nurse including, but not limited to, advanced practice nurses.

12-38-111.8. Professional liability insurance required - advanced practice nurses in independent practice - rules. (1) It is unlawful for any advanced practice nurse engaged in an independent practice of professional nursing to practice within the state of Colorado unless the advanced practice nurse purchases and maintains or is covered by professional liability insurance in an amount not less than five hundred thousand dollars per claim with an aggregate liability for all claims during the year of one million five hundred thousand dollars.

(2) Professional liability insurance required by this section shall cover all acts within the scope of practice of an advanced practice nurse as defined in this part 1.

(3) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the board, by rule, may exempt or establish lesser liability insurance requirements for advanced practice nurses.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to confer liability on an employer for the acts of an advanced practice nurse that are outside the scope of employment or to negate the applicability of the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of title 24, C.R.S.

12-38-112. Requirements for practical nurse licensure. (1) The board shall issue a license to engage in the practice of practical nursing to any applicant who:

(a) Submits an application containing such information as the board may prescribe;

(b) Submits proof satisfactory to the board in such manner and upon such forms as the board may require to show that the applicant has completed a practical nursing educational program which meets the standards of the board for approval of educational programs or which is approved by the board and to show that the applicant holds a certificate of graduation from or a certificate of completion of such approved program;

(c) Repealed.

(d) Passes an examination as provided in section 12-38-110 or is eligible for and is granted licensure by endorsement as provided in subsection (2) of this section;

(e) Pays the required fee.

(2) The board may issue a license by endorsement to engage in the practice of practical nursing in this state to any applicant who has been duly licensed or registered as a practical nurse or who is entitled to perform similar services under laws of another state or a territory of the United States or a foreign country if the applicant presents proof satisfactory to the board that, at the time of application for a Colorado license by endorsement, the applicant possesses credentials and qualifications which are substantially equivalent to requirements in Colorado for licensure by examination. The board may specify by rule and regulation what shall constitute substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications.

(3) The board shall design a questionnaire to be sent to all licensed practical nurses who apply for license renewal. Each applicant for license renewal shall complete the board-designed questionnaire. The purpose of the questionnaire is to determine whether a licensee has acted in violation of this article or been disciplined for any action that might be considered a violation of this article or might make the licensee unfit to practice nursing with reasonable care and safety. If an applicant fails to answer the questionnaire accurately, such failure shall constitute grounds for discipline under section 12-38-117 (1) (v). The board may include the cost of developing and reviewing the questionnaire in the fee paid under paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section. The board may refuse an application for license renewal that does not accompany an accurately completed questionnaire.

12-38-112.5. Retired volunteer nurse licensure. (1) The board may issue a license to a retired volunteer nurse who meets the requirements set forth in this section.

(2) A retired volunteer nursing license shall only be issued to an applicant who is at least fifty-five years of age and:

(a) Currently holds a license to practice nursing, either as a practical nurse or as a professional nurse and such license is due to expire unless renewed; or

(b) Has retired from the practice of nursing and is not currently engaged in the practice of nursing either full-time or part-time and has, prior to retirement, maintained full licensure in good standing in any state or territory of the United States.

(3) A nurse who holds a retired volunteer nursing license shall not accept compensation for nursing tasks that are performed while in possession of the license. A retired volunteer nursing license shall permit the retired nurse to engage in volunteer nursing tasks within the scope of the nurse's license.

(4) An applicant for a retired volunteer nursing license shall submit to the board an application containing such information as the board may prescribe, a copy of the applicant's most recent nursing license, and a statement signed under penalty of perjury in which the applicant agrees not to receive compensation for any nursing tasks that are performed while in possession of the license.

(6) A person who possesses a retired volunteer nursing license shall be immune from civil liability for actions performed within the scope of the nursing license unless it is established that injury or death was caused by gross negligence or the willful and wanton misconduct of the licensee. The immunity provided in this subsection (6) shall apply only to the licensee and shall not affect the liability of any other individual or entity. Nothing in this subsection (6) shall be construed to limit the ability of the board to take disciplinary action against a licensee.

(7) The fee for a retired volunteer nursing license, including assessments for legal defense, peer assistance, and other programs for which licenses are assessed, shall be no more than fifty percent of the license renewal fee, including all such assessments, established by the board for an active nursing license.

(8) The board shall design a questionnaire to be sent to all retired volunteer nurses who apply for license renewal. Each applicant for license renewal shall complete the board-designed questionnaire. The purpose of the questionnaire is to determine whether a licensee has acted in violation of this article or been disciplined for any action that might be considered a violation of this article or might make the licensee unfit to practice nursing with reasonable care and safety. If an applicant fails to answer the questionnaire accurately, such failure shall constitute grounds for discipline under section 12-38-117 (1) (v). The board may include the cost of developing and reviewing the questionnaire in the fee paid under subsection (7) of this section. The board may refuse an application for license renewal that does not accompany an accurately completed questionnaire.

(9) The board shall deny an application for the reactivation of a practical or professional nurse license for a retired volunteer nurse if the board determines that the nurse requesting reactivation has not actively volunteered as a nurse for the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the application for license reactivation or has not otherwise demonstrated continued competency to return to the active practice of nursing in a manner approved by the board.

12-38-115. Temporary licenses and permits. (1) The board may issue a temporary license to practice for a period of four months to an applicant for licensure by endorsement, pending compliance with the requirements for licensure. To obtain a temporary license, the applicant for licensure by endorsement shall show evidence of current licensure in another state or country or in a territory of the United States.

(2) Repealed.

(3) The board may issue a permit to practice as a practical or professional nurse for a period not to exceed two years or as determined by the board to any person from another state or a territory of the United States or a foreign country who is in this state for special training or for observation of nursing educational programs upon proof to the board by such person that he is currently licensed to practice as a nurse in the state, territory, or country of his residency. The nursing practice permitted by such permit shall be limited to that practice performed as part of the special training or nursing educational program.

(3.5) The board may, as it deems appropriate, issue a permit to a person who is under the supervision of a professional nurse licensed pursuant to this article.

(4) A person holding a permit may engage in the practice of practical or professional nursing only under the personal and responsible supervision and direction of a person licensed by the board to engage in the practice of professional nursing.

(5) The board shall summarily withdraw a temporary license or permit issued pursuant to this section if the board determines that the license holder fails to meet the requirements of this section or section 12-38-110, 12-38-111, or 12-38-112. The holder of a temporary license or permit summarily withdrawn has the right to a hearing which shall be conducted pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., by the board or by an administrative law judge at the board's discretion.

12-38-116. Approval of educational programs. (1) Any institution in this state desiring to receive from the board approval of its educational program which prepares individuals for licensure as a practical or as a professional nurse shall apply to the board and submit evidence that it is prepared to carry out an educational program which complies with the provisions of this article and with rules and regulations adopted by the board pursuant to this article.

(2) For the practice of practical nursing, such educational program shall include:

(a) Content fundamental to the knowledge and skills required for clinical nursing appropriate to the practice of practical nursing;

(b) Content relating to the principles of biological, physical, social, and behavioral sciences.

(3) For the practice of professional nursing, such educational program shall include:

(a) Content fundamental to the knowledge and skills required for clinical nursing appropriate to the practice of professional nursing;

(b) Content relating to the principles of biological, physical, social, and behavioral sciences.

(4) Any educational program for practical or professional nurses in this state which was accredited by the former boards of nursing prior to July 1, 1980, shall be deemed to be an approved educational program for the purpose of this article, but such approval shall be subject to the powers and duties of the board under section 12-38-108 to deny or to withdraw approval.

12-38-116.5. Disciplinary procedures of the board - inquiry and hearings panels.

(1) (a) The president of the board shall divide the other ten members of the board into two panels of five members each. Members representing the three different categories of membership (licensed practical nurses, professional nurses, and persons not licensed, employed, or in any way connected with, or with any financial interest in, any health care facility, agency, or insurer) shall be divided between the two panels as equally as possible.

(b) Each panel shall act as both an inquiry and a hearings panel. Members of the board may be assigned from one panel to the other by the president. The president may be a member of both panels, but in no event shall the president or any other member who has considered a complaint as a member of a panel acting as an inquiry panel take any part in the consideration of a formal complaint involving the same matter.

(c) All matters referred to one panel for investigation shall be heard, if referred for formal hearing, by the other panel or a committee of such panel. However, in its discretion, either inquiry panel may elect to refer a case for formal hearing to a qualified administrative law judge, in lieu of a hearings panel of the board, for an initial decision pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(d) The initial decision of an administrative law judge may be reviewed pursuant to section 24-4-105 (14) and (15), C.R.S., by the filing of exceptions to the initial decision with the hearings panel that would have heard the case if it had not been referred to an administrative law judge or by review upon the motion of such hearings panel. The respondent or the board's counsel shall file such exceptions.

(2) Investigations shall be under the supervision of the panel to which they are assigned. The persons making such investigation shall report the results thereof to the assigning panel for appropriate action.

(3) (a) (I) For the purposes of this section:

(A) "Grounds for discipline" includes grounds under sections 12-38-117 and 12-42-113.

(B) "License" includes licensure for a practical nurse or professional nurse and licensure for a psychiatric technician.

(C) "Nurse", "licensee", or "respondent" includes a practical nurse, a professional nurse, and a psychiatric technician as described in section 12-42-102 (4).

(D) "Practice of nursing" includes the practice of practical nursing, the practice of professional nursing, and the practice as a psychiatric technician.

(II) Written complaints relating to the conduct of a nurse licensed or authorized to practice nursing in this state may be made by any person or may be initiated by an inquiry panel of the board on its own motion. The nurse complained of shall be given notice, unless the board determines the complaint to be without merit of investigation, by first-class mail, and the notice shall state the nature of the complaint and shall state that the failure to respond in a materially factual and timely manner constitutes grounds for discipline. The nurse complained of shall be given thirty days to answer or explain in writing the matters described in such complaint. Upon receipt of the nurse's answer or at the conclusion of thirty days, whichever occurs first, the inquiry panel may take further action as set forth in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (a).

(III) Upon receipt of the nurse's answer or the conclusion of thirty days, the inquiry panel may conduct a further investigation that may be made by one or more members of the inquiry panel, one or more nurses who are not members of the board, a member of the staff of the board, a professional investigator, or any other person or organization as the inquiry panel directs. Any such investigation shall be entirely informal.

(b) The board shall cause an investigation to be made when the board is informed of:

(I) Disciplinary action taken by an employer of a nurse against the nurse or resignation in lieu of a disciplinary action for conduct that constitutes grounds for discipline under section 12-38-117 or 12-42-113. Such employer shall report such disciplinary action or resignation to the board.

(II) An instance of a malpractice settlement or judgment against a nurse;

(III) A nurse who has not timely renewed his or her license and the nurse is actively engaged in the practice of nursing.

(c) On completion of an investigation, the inquiry panel shall make a finding that:

(I) The complaint is without merit and no further action need be taken;

(II) There is no reasonable cause to warrant further action on the complaint;

(III) An instance of conduct occurred that does not warrant formal action by the board and that should be dismissed, but that indications of possible conduct by the nurse were noted that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected. In such a case, a confidential letter of concern shall be sent to the nurse against whom the complaint was made.

(IV) (A) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(B) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(C) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(V) (A) Facts were disclosed that warrant further proceedings by formal complaint, as provided in subsection (4) of this section, and that the complaint should be referred to the attorney general for preparation and filing of a formal complaint.

(B) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(4) (a) All formal complaints shall be heard and determined in accordance with paragraph (b) of this subsection (4) and section 24-4-105, C.R.S. Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, all formal hearings shall be conducted by the hearings panel. The nurse may be present in person or represented by counsel, or both, if so desired, to offer evidence and be heard in the nurse's own defense. At formal hearings, the witnesses shall be sworn and a complete record shall be made of all proceedings and testimony.

(b) Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, an administrative law judge shall preside at the hearing and shall advise the hearings panel on all such legal matters in connection with the hearing as the panel may request. The administrative law judge shall provide such advice or assistance as the hearings panel may request in connection with the preparation of its findings and recommendations or conclusions. Such administrative law judge shall have the authority to administer oaths and affirmations, sign and issue subpoenas, and perform such other duties as the hearings panel may authorize the administrative law judge to perform. Such administrative law judge shall have the qualifications provided in section 24-30-1003 (2), C.R.S.

(c) (I) To warrant a finding of grounds for discipline, the charges shall be established as specified in section 24-4-105 (7), C.R.S. Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section, the hearings panel shall make a report of its findings and conclusions that, when approved by a majority of those members of the hearings panel who have conducted the hearing pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (4), shall be the action of the board.

(II) If it is found that the charges are unproven, the hearings panel, or an administrative law judge sitting in lieu of the hearings panel pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, shall enter an order dismissing the complaint.

(III) If the hearings panel finds the charges proven and orders that discipline be imposed, it shall also determine the extent of such discipline, which may be in the form of a letter of admonition regarding a license or suspension for a definite or indefinite period, revocation, or nonrenewal of a license to practice. In addition to any other discipline that may be imposed pursuant to this section, the hearings panel may impose a fine of no less than two hundred fifty dollars but no more than one thousand dollars per violation on any nurse who violates this article or any rule adopted pursuant to this article. The board shall adopt rules establishing a fine structure and the circumstances under which fines may be imposed. All fines collected pursuant to this subparagraph (III) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer who shall credit the same to the general fund. In determining appropriate disciplinary action, the hearings panel shall first consider sanctions that are necessary to protect the public. Only after the panel has considered such sanctions shall it consider and order requirements designed to rehabilitate the nurse. If discipline other than revocation of a license to practice is imposed, the hearings panel may also order that the nurse be granted probation and allowed to continue to practice during the period of such probation. The hearings panel may also include in any disciplinary order that allows the nurse to continue to practice such conditions as the panel may deem appropriate to assure that the nurse is physically, mentally, and otherwise qualified to practice nursing in accordance with generally accepted standards of practice, including any of the following:

(A) Submission by the respondent to such examinations as the hearings panel may order to determine the respondent's physical or mental condition or the respondent's professional qualifications;

(B) The taking by the respondent of such therapy or courses of training or education as may be needed to correct deficiencies found either in the hearing or by such examinations;

(C) The review or supervision of the respondent's practice of nursing as may be necessary to determine the quality of the respondent's practice of nursing and to correct deficiencies therein; or

(D) The imposition of restrictions upon the nature of the respondent's practice to assure that the respondent does not practice beyond the limits of the respondent's capabilities.

(IV) Upon the failure of the respondent to comply with any conditions imposed by the hearings panel pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c), the hearings panel may order revocation or suspension of the respondent's license to practice in this state until such time as the respondent complies with such conditions.

(V) In making any of the orders provided in subparagraphs (III) and (IV) of this paragraph (c), the hearings panel may take into consideration the respondent's prior disciplinary record. If the hearings panel does take into consideration any prior discipline of the respondent, its findings and recommendations shall so indicate.

(VI) In all cases of revocation, suspension, probation, or nonrenewal, the board shall enter in its records the facts of such revocation, suspension, probation, or nonrenewal and of any subsequent action of the board with respect thereto.

(d) The attorney general shall prosecute those charges that have been referred to the office of the attorney general by the inquiry panel pursuant to subparagraph (V) of paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section. The board may direct the attorney general to perfect an appeal.

(e) Any person whose license to practice nursing is revoked or who surrenders his or her license to avoid discipline shall not be eligible to apply for any license for two years after the date the license is revoked or surrendered. The two-year waiting period applies to any person whose license to practice nursing or any other health care occupation is revoked by any other legally qualified board.

(5) A majority of the members of the board, three members of the inquiry panel, or three members of the hearings panel shall constitute a quorum. The action of a majority of those present comprising such quorum shall be the action of the board, the inquiry panel, or the hearings panel.

(6) Upon the expiration of any term of suspension, the license shall be reinstated by the board if the board is furnished with evidence that the nurse has complied with all terms of the suspension. If such evidence shows the nurse has not complied with all terms of the suspension, the board may revoke or continue the suspension of the license at a hearing, notice of which and the procedure at which shall be as provided in this section.

(7) In case any nurse is determined to be mentally incompetent or insane by a court of competent jurisdiction and a court enters, pursuant to part 3 or part 4 of article 14 of title 15 or section 27-65-109 (4) or 27-65-127, C.R.S., an order specifically finding that the mental incompetency or insanity is of such a degree that the nurse is incapable of continuing the practice of nursing, the nurse's license shall automatically be suspended by the board, and, notwithstanding any provision of this article to the contrary, such suspension shall continue until the nurse is found by such court to be competent to continue the practice of nursing.

(8) (a) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a nurse is unable to practice nursing with reasonable skill and safety to patients because of a condition described in section 12-38-117 (1) (i) or (1) (j) or section 12-42-113 (1) (i) or (1) (j), it may require such nurse to submit to mental or physical examinations by a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the board. If a nurse fails to submit to such mental or physical examinations, the board may suspend the nurse's license until the required examinations are conducted.

(b) Every nurse shall be deemed, by so practicing or by applying for renewal registration of such nurse's license, to have consented to submit to mental or physical examinations when directed in writing by the board. Further, such nurse shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's or other licensed health care professional's testimony or examination reports on the ground of privileged communication. Subject to applicable federal law, such nurse shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the production of medical records to the board from health care providers that may be necessary for the evaluations described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (8). Nothing in this section shall prevent the nurse from submitting to the board testimony or examination reports of a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the nurse to a condition described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (8) that may be considered by the board in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the physician or licensed health care professional designated by the board.

(c) The results of any mental or physical examination ordered by the board shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than before the board and shall not be deemed a public record nor made available to the public.

(d) The board may require that a nurse submit medical records for review in conjunction with an investigation made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8); except that such records shall remain confidential and shall be reviewed by the board only to the extent necessary to conduct an investigation.

(9) (a) Investigations, examinations, hearings, meetings, or any other proceedings of the board conducted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be exempt from the open meetings provisions of the "Colorado Sunshine Act of 1972" contained in part 4 of article 6 of title 24, C.R.S., requiring that proceedings of the board be conducted publicly, and the open records provisions of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., requiring that the minutes or records of the board with respect to action of the board taken pursuant to the provisions of this section be open to public inspection.

(b) Notwithstanding the exemptions in paragraph (a) of this subsection (9), records of disciplinary action taken by the board pursuant to this section shall be open to public inspection pursuant to the open records provisions of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.

(10) A physician or other licensed health care professional who, at the request of the board, examines a nurse shall be immune from suit for damages by the nurse examined if the examining physician or examining licensed health care professional conducted the examination and made findings or a diagnosis in good faith.

(11) All investigations completed or in progress pursuant to section 12-38-117 or 12-42-113, as said sections existed on June 30, 1999, including those cases that have been referred to hearing, are before an administrative law judge, or are awaiting final disposition by the board, shall be referred to a panel of the board by the director of the division of professions and occupations for final adjudication. All actions taken and decisions rendered by the board prior to July 1, 1999, are hereby ratified.

(12) Final board action may be judicially reviewed in the court of appeals, and judicial proceedings for the enforcement of a board order may be instituted in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(13) (a) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board including, but not limited to, hospital and physician records. Upon certification of the custodian that the copies are true and complete except for the patient's name, the copies shall be deemed authentic, subject to the right to inspect the originals for the limited purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the copies. No privilege of confidentiality shall exist with respect to such copies, and no liability shall lie against the board or the custodian or the custodian's authorized employee for furnishing or using such copies in accordance with this subsection (13).

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(14) Any member of the board or the board's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or report or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of such participation.

(15) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee or registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (16) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (16) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (16). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 1, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (16), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom such order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(17) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed or unregistered act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 1, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 1, any order issued pursuant to this part 1, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 1, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(18) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(19) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in subsection (12) of this section.

Procedural due process requires that nurse who signed a stipulation agreeing to six-month licensure suspension be provided with notice that the stipulation had been accepted and an order of suspension entered prior to being charged with violating the provisions of the stipulation agreement. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing v. Lang, 842 P.2d 1383 (Colo. App. 1992).

If due process is to obtain, as it should in these hearings, then obviously it is violated if members of a board are permitted to vote in a revocation matter when they have not attended the hearing, and the respondent thus is denied the right of a full and fair hearing on the charges presented. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam’rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

Such hearings, involving a valued right of a respondent, cannot be conducted on a correspondence school pattern. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam’rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

The board has the power to determine what constitutes gross incompetency, dishonesty, intemperance, immorality, unprofessional conduct, or any habit rendering a nurse unfit as defined by the statute. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam’rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

If such board abuses that power the court, on certiorari, will reverse its judgment and it is proper for the court to determine whether the evidence shows if respondent is guilty of any of the statutory grounds for revocation. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam’rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

Under the strict rule concerning certiorari, the supreme court is permitted to determine whether or not the board abused its discretion. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam’rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

Such determination cannot be made without considering the testimony and the facts before the board, together with the charges made. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam’rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

Certiorari does not mean that the courts, after reviewing the entire record, must permit boards to deprive people of valuable rights arbitrarily and without due process of law. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam’rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

This section does not authorize the nursing board to subpoena records of medical and psychiatric treatment received by a licensee, it only authorizes the subpoena of records which pertain to the professional conduct of such licensee. Colo. Bd. of Nursing v. Bethesda Hosp., 809 P.2d 1051 (Colo. App. 1990).

12-38-117. Grounds for discipline. (1) “Grounds for discipline”, as used in this article, means any action by any person who:

(a) Has procured or attempted to procure a license by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, misleading omission, or material misstatement of fact;

(b) (I) Has been convicted of a felony or any crime that would constitute a violation of this article.

(II) (A) For purposes of this paragraph (b), “conviction” includes the entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or the imposition of a deferred sentence.

(B) A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea shall be prima facie evidence of such conviction.

(III) Repealed.

(c) Has willfully or negligently acted in a manner inconsistent with the health or safety of persons under his care;

(d) Has had a license to practice nursing or any other health care occupation suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction. A certified copy of the order of suspension or revocation shall be prima facie evidence of such suspension or revocation.

(e) Has violated any provision of this article or has aided or knowingly permitted any person to violate any provision of this article;

(f) Has negligently or willfully practiced nursing in a manner which fails to meet generally accepted standards for such nursing practice;

(g) Has negligently or willfully violated any order, rule, or regulation of the board pertaining to nursing practice or licensure;

(h) Has falsified or in a negligent manner made incorrect entries or failed to make essential entries on patient records;

(i) Excessively uses or abuses alcohol, habit-forming drugs, controlled substances, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects, or is diverting controlled substances, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects from the licensee's place of employment; except that the board has the discretion not to discipline the licensee if such licensee is participating in good faith in a program approved by the board designed to end such excessive use or abuse;

(j) Has a physical or mental disability which renders him unable to practice nursing with reasonable skill and safety to the patients and which may endanger the health or safety of persons under his care;

(k) Has violated the confidentiality of information or knowledge as prescribed by law concerning any patient;

(l) Has engaged in any conduct which would constitute a crime as defined in title 18, C.R.S., and which conduct relates to such person's employment as a practical or professional nurse. In conjunction with any disciplinary proceeding pertaining to this paragraph (l), the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(m) (I) Has violated abuse of health insurance pursuant to section 18-13-119, C.R.S.; or

(II) Has advertised through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise that the licensee will perform any act prohibited by section 18-13-119 (3), C.R.S.;

(n) Has engaged in any of the following activities and practices: Willful and repeated ordering or performance, without clinical justification, of demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies; the administration, without clinical justification, of treatment which is demonstrably unnecessary; the failure to obtain consultations or perform referrals when failing to do so is not consistent with the standard of care for the profession; or ordering or performing, without clinical justification, any service, X ray, or treatment which is contrary to recognized standards of the practice of nursing as interpreted by the board;

(o) Has committed a fraudulent insurance act, as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(p) Has prescribed, distributed, or given to himself or herself or a family member any controlled substance as defined in part 2 of article 18 of title 18, C.R.S., or as contained in schedule II of 21 U.S.C. sec. 812;

(q) Has dispensed, injected, or prescribed an anabolic steroid, as defined in section 18-18-102 (3), C.R.S., for the purpose of hormonal manipulation that is intended to increase muscle mass, strength, or weight without a medical necessity to do so or for the intended purpose of improving performance in any form of exercise, sport, or game;

(r) Has dispensed or injected an anabolic steroid, as defined in section 18-18-102 (3), C.R.S., unless such anabolic steroid is dispensed from a pharmacy pursuant to a written prescription or is dispensed by any person licensed to practice medicine in the course of such person's professional practice;

(s) Has administered, dispensed, or prescribed any habit-forming drug or any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., other than in the course of legitimate professional practice;

(t) Has been disciplined by another state, territory, or country based upon an act or omission that is defined substantially the same as a ground for discipline pursuant to this subsection (1);

(u) Willfully fails to respond in a materially factual and timely manner to a complaint issued pursuant to section 12-38-116.5 (3);

(v) Has failed to accurately complete and submit to the board the designated questionnaire upon renewal of a license pursuant to section 12-38-111 (3), 12-38-112 (3), or 12-38-112.5 (8);

(w) (I) Represents himself or herself to an individual or to the general public by use of any word or abbreviation to indicate or induce others to believe that he or she is a licensed practical or professional nurse unless the person is actually licensed as a practical nurse or professional nurse, respectively; or

(II) Uses the title "nurse", "registered nurse", "R.N.", "practical nurse", "trained practical nurse", "licensed vocational nurse", "licensed practical nurse", or "L.P.N." unless the person is licensed by the board;

(x) Practices as a practical or professional nurse during a period when the person's license has been suspended, revoked, or placed on inactive status pursuant to section 12-38-118.5;

(y) Sells or fraudulently obtains or furnishes a license to practice as a nurse or aids or abets therein;

(z) Has failed to report to the board, within forty-five days after a final conviction, that the person has been convicted of a crime, as defined in title 18, C.R.S.; or

(aa) Fails to maintain professional liability insurance in accordance with section 12-38-111.8.

(2) to (5) Repealed.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-38-117 is similar to repealed CSA, C. 114, § 6, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

The purpose of the general assembly in amending the statute in July 1985 was to allow discipline in cases in which a plea of guilty resulted in a conviction. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

The legislative intent in amending subsection (1)(b) was to allow discipline in cases where a guilty plea results in a conviction. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

But subsection (1)(b) does not allow discipline in cases where a guilty plea results in the successful completion of a deferred judgment. Thus, where a nurse's guilty pleas resulted in a deferred judgment and had been dismissed by the time the Board brought charges, the nurse did not have a conviction of guilty and had not violated subsection (1)(b).

Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

A licensing board is, however, entitled to consider the conduct giving rise to criminal charges in the context of other disciplinary rules. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

This section defines the grounds for revocation of a license. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam'rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

This section provides adequate notice of the proscribed conduct to those persons licensed to practice nursing in this state. Kibler v. State, 718 P.2d 531 (Colo. 1986); Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

Licenses once issued are not to be revoked for simply violating rules of the board, or what the board may determine to be professional ethics; it must be for a breach of the statute, and that is a matter for the courts to determine. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam'rs v. Hohu, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

Petitioner violated subsection (1)(a) where she failed to disclose on her application that she had plead guilty to check fraud and that such pleas had not been withdrawn at the time she filed her application. Petitioner knew of such guilty pleas and had a duty to disclose them on her application. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

Subsection (1)(i) requires that an addiction or dependency must be proven to exist at the time of the hearing in order to be the source of a disciplinary action and, in the present case, the state board of nursing erred in imposing discipline where the evidence did not support the conclusion that on the date of the hearing the claimant had an alcohol addiction or dependency. State Bd. of Nursing v. Crickenberger, 757 P.2d 1167 (Colo. App. 1988).

If it was held to be the rule that profanity is a ground for revoking a license, then there could be a serious depletion in the ranks of all professions. Colo. State Bd. of Nurse Exam'rs v. Hohn, 129 Colo. 195, 268 P.2d 401 (1954).

Statute violated where licensee failed to disclose on nursing license application guilty pleas for writing insufficient funds checks when the pleas had not been withdrawn. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

Nurse did not violate statute when, at the time the nursing board brought disciplinary action against her, she did not have an existing conviction for a felony, nor did her pleas of guilty legally exist since they had been dismissed with prejudice. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

Following a successful completion of a deferred judgment, there no longer exists a plea of guilty to a felony and no judgment of conviction ever existed. Therefore, a professional licensing board may not discipline a licensee under the statute. Weber v. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing, 830 P.2d 1128 (Colo. App. 1992).

12-38-118. Withholding or denial of license - hearing. (1) (a) The board is empowered to determine summarily whether an applicant for a license or a temporary license to practice as a nurse possesses the qualifications required by this article, whether there is probable cause to believe that an applicant has done any of the acts set forth in section 12-38-117 as grounds for discipline, or whether the applicant has had a license to practice nursing or any other health care occupation revoked by any legally authorized board.

(b) As used in this section:

(I) "Applicant" includes a nurse seeking reinstatement or reactivation of a license pursuant to section 12-38-118.5, but does not include a renewal applicant.

(II) "Legally authorized board" means a board created pursuant to the laws of this state or of another state for the purpose of licensing or otherwise authorizing a person to engage in a health care occupation. The term includes any governmental entity charged with licensing or other oversight of persons engaged in a health care occupation.

(2) (a) (I) If the board determines that an applicant does not possess the qualifications required by this article, that probable cause exists to believe that an applicant has done any of the acts set forth in section 12-38-117, or that the applicant has had a nursing or other health care occupation license revoked by another legally authorized board, the board may withhold or deny the applicant a license.

(II) The board may refuse to issue a license or temporary license to practice as a nurse to any applicant during the time the applicant's license is under suspension in another state.

(III) The board may refuse to issue a license or may grant a license subject to terms of probation if the board determines that an applicant for a license has not actively practiced practical or professional nursing, or has not otherwise maintained continued competency, as determined by the board, during the two years immediately preceding the application for licensure under this article.

(b) If the board refuses to issue a license to an applicant pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the provisions of section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S., shall apply. Upon such refusal, the board shall provide the applicant with a statement in writing setting forth the following:

(I) The basis of the board's determination that the applicant:

(A) Does not possess the qualifications required by this article;

(B) Has had a nursing or other health care occupation license revoked or suspended by another legally authorized board; or

(C) Has not actively practiced practical or professional nursing, or has not maintained continued competency, during the previous two years; or

(II) The factual basis for probable cause that the applicant has done any of the acts set forth in section 12-38-117.

(c) If the board refuses to issue a license to an applicant on the grounds that the applicant's nursing or other health care occupation license was revoked by another legally authorized board, the board may require the applicant to pass a written examination as provided in section 12-38-110, as a prerequisite to licensure. The applicant shall not be allowed to take the written examination until at least two years after the revocation of the nursing or other health care occupation license.

(3) If the applicant requests a hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S., and fails to appear without good cause at such hearing, the board may affirm its prior action of withholding or denial without conducting a hearing.

(4) Following a hearing, the board shall affirm, modify, or reverse its prior action in accordance with its findings at such hearing.

(5) No action shall lie against the board for the withholding or denial of a license or temporary license without a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this section if the board acted reasonably and in good faith.

(6) (a) At the hearing, the applicant shall have the burden of proof to show that:

(I) The applicant possesses the qualifications required for licensure under this article;

(II) The applicant's nursing or other health care occupation license was not revoked by another legally authorized board; or

(III) The applicant has actively practiced practical or professional nursing, or has maintained continued competency, during the two years prior to application for a license under this article.

(b) The board shall have the burden of proof to show commission of acts set forth in section 12-38-117.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 12-38-119.5 and 12-38-217.5 as they existed prior to 1980.

12-38-118.5. Inactive license status - reactivation. (1) A nurse licensed pursuant to section 12-38-111 or 12-38-112 may request that the board place his or her license on inactive status. Such request shall be made in the form and manner designated by the board.

(2) A nurse requesting inactive license status shall provide an affidavit or other document required by the board certifying that, immediately upon the conferral of inactive status, the nurse shall not practice nursing in the state unless and until the nurse's license is reactivated pursuant to subsection (6) of this section.

(3) Upon receiving the documentation pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, the board shall approve a request for inactive license status. However, the board may deny such a request if the board has probable cause to believe that the requesting nurse has committed any of the acts set forth in section 12-38-117.

(4) A license on inactive status shall constitute a single state license issued by Colorado and without multistate licensure privilege pursuant to part 32 of article 60 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) A nurse with a license on inactive status is not authorized to practice nursing in Colorado. Any nurse practicing nursing while his or her license is inactive shall be subject to disciplinary action pursuant to section 12-38-116.5 and criminal penalties pursuant to section 12-38-123.

(6) (a) A nurse with a license on inactive status who wishes to resume the practice of nursing shall file an application in the form and manner designated by the board and pay the license reactivation fees established pursuant to section 12-38-108. The board shall reactivate such license unless paragraph (b) of this subsection (6) applies.

(b) The board shall deny an application for reactivation of an inactive license:

(I) Pursuant to section 12-38-118; or

(II) If the board determines that the nurse requesting reactivation has not actively practiced nursing in another state for the two-year period immediately preceding the filing of the request for reactivation or has not otherwise demonstrated continued competency to return to the active practice of nursing in a manner approved by the board.

12-38-121. Immunity in professional review. (1) If a professional review committee is established pursuant to section 12-38-109 to investigate the quality of care being given by a person licensed pursuant to this article, it shall include in its membership at least three persons licensed in the same category as the licensee under review, but such committee may be authorized to act only by the board.

(2) Any member of the board or of a professional review committee authorized by the board, any member of the board's or committee's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board or committee, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board or committee member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-38-122. Surrender of license. (1) Prior to the initiation of an investigation or hearing, any licensee or temporary license holder may surrender his license to practice nursing.

(2) Following the initiation of an investigation or hearing and upon a finding that to do so would be in the public interest, the board may allow a licensee or temporary license holder to surrender his license to practice.

(3) The board shall not issue a license or temporary license or permit to a former licensee or temporary license or permit holder whose license has been surrendered unless the licensee meets all of the requirements of this article for a new applicant, including the passing of an examination.

(4) The surrender of a license in accordance with this section removes all rights and privileges to practice nursing, including renewal of a license.

(a) To practice as a practical or professional nurse unless licensed therefor.

(b) to (d) Repealed.

(2) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice practical or professional nursing without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

in violation of subsection (1)(c) where nurse received no notice that the board had accepted the stipulation and entered an order of suspension. Colo. State Bd. of Nursing v. Lang, 842 P.2d 1383 (Colo. App. 1992).

12-38-124. Injunctive proceedings. The board, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, may apply for injunctive relief through the attorney general in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person who does not possess a currently valid or active practical or professional nurse license from committing any act declared to be unlawful or prohibited by this article. If it is established that the defendant has been or is committing an act declared to be unlawful or prohibited by this article, the court or any judge thereof shall enter a decree perpetually enjoining said defendant from further committing such act. In the case of a violation of any injunction issued under the provisions of this section, the court or any judge thereof may summarily try and punish the offender for contempt of court. Such injunctive proceedings shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all penalties and other remedies provided for in this article.

12-38-131. Nursing peer health assistance or nurse alternative to discipline program - fund - rules. (1) As a condition of licensure and for the purpose of supporting a nursing peer health assistance program or a nurse alternative to discipline program, every applicant for an initial license or to reinstate a license and any person renewing a license issued pursuant to this article shall pay to the administering entity designated pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section a fee in an amount set by the board, not to exceed twenty-five dollars per year; except that the board may adjust such amount each January 1 to reflect changes in the United States department of labor's bureau of labor statistics consumer price index, or its successor index, for the Denver-Boulder consolidated metropolitan statistical area for the price of goods paid by urban consumers.

(2) (a) No later than June 30, 2008, the board shall transfer any remaining balance in the impaired professional diversion fund, as such fund existed prior to January 1, 2008, to the administering entity chosen by the board pursuant to paragraph (c) of subsection (3) of this section.

(b) Moneys in the fund shall be used to support a nursing peer health assistance program or nurse alternative to discipline program in providing assistance to licensees needing help in dealing with physical, emotional, psychiatric, psychological, drug abuse, or alcohol abuse problems that may be detrimental to their ability to practice nursing.

(3) (a) The board shall select one or more recognized peer health assistance organizations or nurse alternative to discipline programs as designated providers. For purposes of selecting designated providers, the board shall use a competitive bidding process that encourages participation from interested vendors. To be eligible for designation by the board pursuant to this section, a peer health assistance organization or nurse alternative to discipline program shall:

(I) Offer assistance and education to licensees concerning the recognition, identification, and prevention of physical, emotional, psychiatric, psychological, drug abuse, or alcohol abuse problems and provide for intervention when necessary or under circumstances that may be established in rules promulgated by the board;

(II) Evaluate the extent of physical, emotional, psychiatric, psychological, drug abuse, or alcohol abuse problems and refer the licensee for appropriate treatment;

(III) Monitor the status of a licensee who has been referred for treatment, including assessing continued public protection;

(IV) Provide counseling and support for a licensee and for the family of a licensee referred for treatment;

(V) Receive referrals from the board; and

(VI) Make services available to all licensees statewide.

(b) The board contract with the designated provider or providers selected pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) shall include specific deliverables, performance measures, and documentation of results.

(c) The board shall designate an administering entity for a program established pursuant to this section. Such entity shall be a nonprofit private entity that is qualified under 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and shall be dedicated to providing support for charitable, benevolent, educational, or scientific purposes that are related to nursing, nursing education, nursing research and science, and other nursing charitable purposes.

(d) The administering entity shall:

(I) Collect the required annual payments, directly or through the board;

(II) Distribute the moneys collected, less expenses, to the approved designated provider, as directed by the board;

(III) Provide an annual accounting to the board of all amounts collected, expenses incurred, and amounts disbursed; and

(IV) Post a surety performance bond in an amount specified by the board to secure performance under this section.

(e) The administering entity may recover from the fee required by subsection (1) of this section the actual administrative costs incurred in performing its duties under this section. Such recovery shall not exceed ten percent of the total amount collected.

(f) The board, at its discretion, may collect the required annual payments payable to the administering entity for the benefit of the administering entity and shall transfer all such payments to the administering entity. All required annual payments collected or due to the board for each fiscal year shall be deemed custodial funds that are not subject to appropriation by the general assembly, and such funds shall not constitute state fiscal year spending for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.

(4) Notwithstanding sections 12-38-116.5 and 24-4-104, C.R.S., the board may immediately suspend the license of any licensee who is referred to a peer health assistance program or nurse alternative to discipline program by the board and who fails to attend or to complete the program. If the licensee objects to the suspension, he or she may submit a written request to the board for a formal hearing on the suspension within ten days after receiving notice of the suspension, and the board shall grant the request. In the hearing, the licensee shall bear the burden of proving that his or her license should not be suspended.

(5) The records of a proceeding pertaining to the rehabilitation of a licensee under a program established pursuant to this section shall be confidential and shall not be subject to subpoena unless the licensee has been referred to the board for disciplinary action.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create any liability of the board, members of the board, or the state of Colorado for the actions of the board in making awards to peer health assistance organizations or nurse alternative to discipline programs or in designating licensees to participate in the programs of such organizations. No civil action may be brought or maintained against the board, its members, or the state for an injury alleged to have been the result of an act or omission of a licensee participating in or referred to a program provided by a peer health assistance organization or to a nurse alternative to discipline program. However, the state shall remain liable under the provisions of the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of title 24, C.R.S., if an injury alleged to have been the result of an act or omission of a licensee participating in or referred to a peer health assistance diversion program or nurse alternative to discipline program occurred while such licensee was performing duties as an employee of the state.

(7) The board is authorized to promulgate rules necessary to implement this section.

12-38-132. Delegation of nursing tasks. (1) Any registered nurse, as defined in section 12-38-103 (11), may delegate any task included in the practice of professional nursing, as defined in section 12-38-103 (10), subject to the requirements of this section. In no event may a registered nurse delegate to another person the authority to select medications if such person is not, independent of such delegation, authorized by law to select medications.

(2) Delegated tasks shall be within the area of responsibility of the delegating nurse and shall not require any delegatee to exercise the judgment required of a nurse.

(3) No delegation shall be made without the delegating nurse making a determination that, in his or her professional judgment, the delegated task can be properly and safely performed by the delegatee and that such delegation is commensurate with the patient's safety and welfare.

(4) The delegating nurse shall be solely responsible for determining the required degree of supervision the delegatee will need, after an evaluation of the appropriate factors which shall include but not be limited to the following:

- (a) The stability of the condition of the patient;
- (b) The training and ability of the delegatee;
- (c) The nature of the nursing task being delegated; and
- (d) Whether the delegated task has a predictable outcome.

(5) An employer of a nurse may establish policies, procedures, protocols, or standards of care which limit or prohibit delegations by nurses in specified circumstances.

(6) The board may promulgate rules pursuant to this section, including but not limited to standards on the assessment of the proficiency of the delegatee to perform delegated tasks, and standards for accountability of any nurse who delegates nursing tasks. Such rules shall be consistent with the provisions of part 3 of article 1.5 of title 25 and section 27-10.5-103 (2) (k), C.R.S.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-38.1-101. Legislative declaration. It is declared to be the policy of the state of Colorado that, in order to safeguard life, health, property, and the public welfare of the people of the state of Colorado, and in order to protect the people of the state of Colorado against unauthorized, unqualified, and improper application of services by nurse aides in a medical facility, it is necessary that a proper regulatory authority be established. The general assembly further declares it to be the policy of this state to regulate the practice of nurse aides in medical facilities through a state agency with the power to enforce the provisions of this article. Any person who practices as a nurse aide in a medical facility without qualifying for proper certification and without submitting to the regulations provided in this article endangers the public health thereby. The general assembly hereby finds and declares that this article will meet the requirements of the federal “Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987”.

- 12-38.1-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
- (1) “Approved education program” means:
 - (a) A course of training conducted by an educational or health care institution which implements the basic nurse aide curriculum prescribed and approved by the board.
 - (b) Repealed.
 - (2) “Board” means the state board of nursing in the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies, created in section 12-38-104.

(3) "Certified nurse aide" means a person who meets the qualifications specified in this article and who is currently certified by the board. Only a person who holds a certificate to practice as a nurse aide in this state pursuant to the provisions of this article shall have the right to use the title "Certified Nurse Aide" and its abbreviation, "C.N.A."

(3.5) "Home health agency" means a provider of home health services, as defined in section 25.5-4-103 (7), C.R.S., that is certified by the department of public health and environment.

(4) "Medical facility" means a nursing facility licensed by the department of public health and environment or home health agencies certified to receive medicare or medicaid funds, pursuant to the federal "Social Security Act", as amended, distinct part nursing facilities, or home health agencies or entities engaged in nurse aide practices as such practices are defined in subsection (5) of this section. "Medical facility" does not include hospitals and other facilities licensed or certified pursuant to section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a), C.R.S.

(4.5) "Nursing facility" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 25.5-4-103 (14), C.R.S.

(5) "Practice of a nurse aide" or "nursing aide practice" means the performance of services requiring the education, training, and skills specified in this article for certification as a nurse aide. Such services are performed under the supervision of a dentist, physician, podiatrist, professional nurse, licensed practical nurse, or other licensed or certified health care professional acting within the scope of his license or certificate.

12-38.1-103. Certification - state board of nursing. (1) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the board by law, the board shall have the authority to certify nurse aides to practice in the state of Colorado, and the board shall implement the provisions of this article.

(2) The department of public health and environment, which is otherwise responsible for the regulation of certain medical facilities, shall, as necessary, assist the board in implementing the provisions of this article.

(3) The board shall promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the purposes of this article and to ensure compliance with federal law and regulation relating to nurse aides.

(4) The board shall maintain a registry of all certified nurse aides as well as a record of all final disciplinary action taken against persons under the provisions of this article. Such registry shall conform to all requirements of federal law and regulation.

(5) (a) The board shall not issue a certificate to a former holder of a certificate whose certificate was revoked unless the applicant meets the requirements of this article, has successfully repeated an approved education program as required by the board, and has repeated and passed a competency evaluation.

(b) No nurse aide certificate holder who has had a certificate revoked may apply for recertification before a one-year waiting period after such revocation.

(6) Funding for the nurse aide certification program, as operated by the department of regulatory agencies, shall be provided by the federal medicaid and medicare programs. Medicaid funding shall be secured by the department of health care policy and financing and medicare funding shall be secured by the department of public health and environment. All such funding shall be forwarded to the department of regulatory agencies for its use in operating the nurse aide certification program. The departments of health care policy and financing and public health and environment shall take all reasonable and necessary steps to secure such funding from the federal medicaid and medicare programs.

12-38.1-107. Certification by competency evaluation. (1) All applicants except those certified by endorsement shall be required to pass a clinical competency evaluation. Such evaluation shall be in a written or oral form and shall include the following areas:

(a) Basic nursing skills;

- (b) Personal care skills;
- (c) Recognition of mental health and social services needs;
- (d) Basic restorative services;
- (e) Resident or patient rights.

(2) Competency evaluations shall be held at such times and places as the board determines but shall be held at least four times per year.

12-38.1-108. Approved nurse aide training programs. (1) Except for any medical facility or program that has been explicitly disapproved by the department of public health and environment, the board may approve any nurse aide training program offered by or held in a medical facility or offered and held outside a medical facility. Such approval by the board shall be sufficient to authorize and permit the operation of such training program.

(2) The curriculum content for nurse aide training must include material which will provide a basic level of both knowledge and demonstrable skills for each individual completing the program and be presented in such a manner which will take into consideration individuals with limited literacy skills. The curriculum content must include needs of populations which may be served by an individual medical facility.

(3) The following topics shall be included in the curriculum:

- (a) Communication and interpersonal skills;
- (b) Infection control;
- (c) Safety and emergency procedures;
- (d) Promoting residents' and patients' independence;
- (e) Respecting residents' and patients' rights.

(4) The training program shall be designed to enable participants to develop and demonstrate competency in the following areas:

- (a) Basic nursing skills;
- (b) Personal care skills;
- (c) Recognition of mental health and social services needs;
- (d) Basic restorative services;
- (e) Resident or patient rights.

(5) The board or its designee shall inspect and survey each nurse aide training program it approves during the first year following such approval and every two years thereafter. Such inspection or survey may be made in conjunction with surveys of medical facilities conducted by the department of public health and environment.

(6) The board may require a nurse aide training program to include up to twenty-five percent more hours than the minimum requirements established in the federal "Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1987", as amended, Pub.L. 100-203, 101 Stat. 1330 (1987). Any additional training hours shall be within the subject areas required by federal law.

12-38.1-109. Renewal of certification. Each certificate to practice as a nurse aide shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her certification pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such certificate shall expire. Any person whose certificate has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-38.1-110. Advisory committee. (1) To assist in the performance of its duties under this article, the board may designate an advisory committee, which shall report to the board. Such committee shall be composed of seven members who have expertise in an area under review. One member shall be a certified nurse aide; one member shall be a licensed professional nurse or a licensed practical nurse as defined in section 12-38-103, who supervises certified nurse aides; one member shall represent a home health agency; one member shall represent a nursing facility; one member shall be a department of public health and environment employee; and two members shall be members of the public. Committee members shall receive a per diem allowance pursuant to section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S., for their services and shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses in the performance of their duties from the division of professions and occupations cash fund by the general assembly.

12-38.1-110.5. Medication aides - training - scope of duties - rules. (1) Prior to a certified nurse aide obtaining authority as a medication aide to administer medications, the certified nurse aide shall meet all applicable requirements as established by rules of the board. The board shall promulgate rules regarding the scope of practice, education, experience, and certification requirements for a nurse aide to obtain authority to administer medications. The board shall consider, but not be limited to, reducing the number of required hours of education, expanding the allowable routes of administration, reducing or eliminating the required hours of work experience, and developing different scopes of practice depending on practice setting, if appropriate.

12-38.1-111. Grounds for discipline. (1) The board may suspend, revoke, or deny any person's certification to practice as a nurse aide or authority to practice as a medication aide, or may issue to the person a letter of admonition, upon proof that such person:

(a) Has procured or attempted to procure a certificate by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, misleading omission, or material misstatement of fact;

(b) Has been convicted of a felony or has had a court accept a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony. A certified copy of such conviction or plea from a court of competent jurisdiction shall be prima facie evidence of such conviction or plea. In considering discipline based on the grounds specified in this paragraph (b), the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 2633, § 10, effective June 5, 2003.)

(d) Has had a certification to practice as a nurse aide or to practice any other health care occupation suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction. A certified copy of the order of suspension or revocation shall be prima facie evidence of such suspension or revocation.

(e) Has violated any provision of this article or has aided or knowingly permitted any person to violate any provision of this article;

(f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 2633, § 10, effective June 5, 2003.)

(g) Has negligently or willfully violated any order, rule, or regulation of the board pertaining to practice or certification as a nurse aide;

(h) Has verbally or physically abused a person under the care of the certified nurse aide;

(i) Has habitual intemperance or excessively uses any habit-forming drug or any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects, or is diverting controlled substances, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects from the person's place of employment;

(j) Has misused any drug or controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(k) Has a physical or mental disability which renders him unable to practice as a certified nurse aide with reasonable skill and safety to the patients and which may endanger the health or safety of persons under his care;

(l) Has violated the confidentiality of information or knowledge as prescribed by law concerning any patient;

(m) Has misappropriated patient or facility property;

(n) Has engaged in any conduct that would constitute a crime as defined in title 18, C.R.S., if such conduct relates to the person's ability to practice as a nurse aide. In considering discipline based upon the grounds specified in this paragraph (n), the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(o) Has neglected a person under the care of the certified nurse aide;

(p) Has willfully or negligently acted in a manner inconsistent with the health or safety of persons under his or her care;

(q) Has willfully or negligently practiced as a medication aide in a manner that does not meet generally accepted standards for such practice;

(r) Has willfully or negligently violated any order or rule of the board pertaining to the practice or authorization as a medication aide;

(s) Has practiced in a medical facility as a nurse aide except as provided in this article;

(t) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-138), ch. 400, p. 2160, § 6, effective July 1, 2009.)

(u) Has practiced as a nurse aide during any period when his or her certificate has been suspended or revoked;

(v) Has sold or fraudulently obtained or furnished a certificate to practice as a nurse aide or has aided or abetted therein;

(w) Has failed to respond in a materially factual and timely manner to a complaint as grounds for discipline pursuant to section 12-38.1-114;

(x) Has failed to report a criminal conviction to the board within forty-five days after the conviction.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (1) of this section, the board need not find that the actions which form the basis for the disciplinary action were willful. However, the board, in its discretion, may consider whether such action was willful in determining the sanctions it imposes on the nurse aide.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2003, p. 2633, § 10, effective June 5, 2003.)

(4) An employer of a medication aide shall report conduct that constitutes grounds for discipline pursuant to this section to the board and any disciplinary action taken by the employer against a medication aide or the resignation of a medication aide in lieu of a disciplinary action resulting from such conduct.

Editor's note: Subsections (1)(s), (1)(t), (1)(u), and (1)(v) are similar to former § 12-38.1-118 (1)(a), (1)(b), (1)(c), and (1)(d) as they existed prior to 2006.

12-38.1-112. Withholding or denial of certification. (1) If the board determines that an applicant for an initial certificate to practice as a nurse aide does not possess the qualifications specified in section 12-38.1-105 or 12-38.1-106, that section 12-38.1-111 (1) (n) is applicable, or that there is reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has committed any of the acts set forth in section 12-38.1-111 as grounds for discipline, it may deny the applicant a certificate. When the board denies a certificate, it shall comply with the following procedures:

(a) The provisions of section 24-4-104, C.R.S., shall apply, and the board shall provide the applicant with a written statement that sets forth the basis for the board's determination.

(b) If the applicant requests a hearing pursuant to section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S., the following shall apply:

(I) An applicant whose certification has been denied on the basis of a lack of qualifications has the burden of proof to show that he possesses the qualifications required under this article.

(II) For an applicant whose certification has been denied on the basis of reasonable cause to believe that grounds for discipline exist, the board has the burden of proof to show the commission of acts constituting grounds for discipline under this article.

(c) If a hearing is conducted, the board shall affirm, modify, or reverse its prior determination and action in accordance with the findings resulting from such hearing.

(d) If an applicant who has requested a hearing pursuant to section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S., fails to appear at such hearing, absent a determination by the board that there was good cause for such failure to appear, the board may affirm its prior action of withholding certification without conducting a hearing on the matter.

(e) If the board withholds certification without a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this section, it shall be immune from suit concerning such withholding unless it has acted unreasonably or has failed to act in good faith.

12-38.1-113. Mental and physical competency of nurse aides. (1) If any certified nurse aide is determined to be mentally ill by a court of competent jurisdiction, the board shall automatically suspend his certification, and such suspension shall continue until the certified nurse aide is determined by such court to be restored to competency; duly discharged as restored to competency; or otherwise determined to be competent in any other manner provided by law.

(2) (a) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that the physical or mental condition of a certified nurse aide has resulted in the nurse aide being unable to practice with reasonable skill or that the practice of the nurse aide is a threat to the safety of the nurse aide's patients, the board may require the nurse aide to submit to a mental or physical examination by a physician or other licensed health care provider designated by the board.

(b) If a nurse aide fails to submit to a mental or physical examination, the board may suspend the nurse aide's certification until the required examination or examinations are conducted.

(3) Every person who applies to the board for certification as a nurse aide shall be deemed by virtue of such application to have given his consent to undergo a physical or mental examination at any time if the board so requests. Any request by the board to a nurse aide to submit to such an examination shall be in writing and shall contain the basis upon which the board determined that reasonable cause to believe the condition specified in paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section exists.

(4) A certified nurse aide who has been requested to submit to a physical or mental examination may provide the board with information concerning such nurse aide's physical or mental condition from a physician of the nurse aide's own choice. The board may consider such information in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and information provided by the physician designated by the board to examine the nurse aide.

(5) The results of any mental or physical examination requested by the board pursuant to this section shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding except a proceeding conducted pursuant to this article. The results of such examination shall not be deemed to be public records and shall not be made available to the public.

12-38.1-114. Disciplinary proceedings - hearing officers. (1) The board, through the department of regulatory agencies, may employ hearing officers to conduct hearings as provided by this article or to conduct hearings on any matter within the board's jurisdiction, upon such conditions and terms as the board determines to be appropriate.

(2) A proceeding for discipline of a certified nurse aide may be commenced when the board has reasonable grounds to believe that a nurse aide certified by the board has committed acts which may violate the provisions of this article.

(3) The license of a person certified by the board as a nurse aide may be revoked or such person may otherwise be disciplined upon written findings by the board that the licensee has committed acts that violate the provisions of this article.

(4) Any certified nurse aide disciplined under subsection (3) of this section shall be notified by the board, by a certified letter to the most recent address provided to the board by the certified nurse aide, no later than thirty days following the date of the board's action, of the action taken, the specific charges giving rise to the action, and the certified nurse aide's right to request a hearing on the action taken.

(5) (a) Within thirty days after notification is sent by the board, the certified nurse aide may file a written request with the board for a hearing on the action taken. Upon receipt of the request the board shall grant a hearing to the certified nurse aide. If the certified nurse aide fails to file a written request for a hearing within thirty days, the action of the board shall be final on that date.

(6) The attendance of witnesses and the production of books, patient records, papers, and other pertinent documents at the hearing may be summoned by subpoenas issued by the board, which shall be served in the manner provided by the Colorado rules of civil procedure for service of subpoenas.

(7) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to said article by the board or a hearing officer at the board's discretion.

(8) Failure of the certified aide to appear at the hearing without good cause shall be deemed a withdrawal of his or her request for a hearing, and the board's action shall be final on that date. Failure, without good cause, of the board to appear at the hearing shall be deemed cause to dismiss the proceeding.

(9) (a) No previously issued certificate to engage in practice as a nurse aide shall be revoked or suspended except under the procedure set forth in this section, except in emergency situations as provided by section 24-4-104, C.R.S.

(b) The denial of an application to renew an existing certificate shall be treated in all respects as a revocation.

(10) (a) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board. The person providing documents shall prepare them from the original record and shall delete from the copy provided pursuant to the subpoena the name of the patient, but the patient shall be identified by a numbered code to be retained by the custodian of the records from which the copies were made. Upon certification of the custodian that the copies are true and complete except for the patient's name, they shall be deemed authentic, subject to the right to inspect the originals for the limited purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the copies. No privilege of confidentiality shall exist with respect to such copies, and no liability shall lie against the board or the custodian or the custodian's authorized employee for furnishing or using such copies in accordance with this subsection (10).

(b) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(10.5) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the certificate holder that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the certificate holder.

(11) Any member of the board, any member of the board's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or report or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any criminal or civil liability that otherwise might result by reason of such participation.

(12) An employer of a nurse aide shall report to the board any disciplinary action taken against the nurse aide or any resignation in lieu of a disciplinary action for conduct which constitutes a violation of this article.

(13) Except when a decision to proceed with a disciplinary action has been agreed upon by a majority of the board or its designee and notice of formal complaint is drafted and served on the licensee by first-class mail, any investigations, examinations, hearings, meetings, or any other proceedings of the board related to discipline that are conducted pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be exempt from the open records provisions of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S., requiring that the proceedings of the board be conducted publicly or that the minutes or records of the board with respect to action of the board taken pursuant to the provisions of this section be open to public inspection.

(14) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a certificate holder is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required certificate, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or uncertified practices immediately cease.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (15) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (15) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (15). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required certificate, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 1, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or uncertified practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (15), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(16) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any uncertified act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 1, any rule promulgated pursuant to this part 1, any order issued pursuant to this part 1, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this part 1, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(17) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(18) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-38.1-116.

12-38.1-115. Surrender of certificate. (1) Prior to the initiation of an investigation or hearing, any certified nurse aide may surrender his certificate to practice as a nurse aide to the board.

(2) Following the initiation of an investigation or hearing and upon a finding that to conduct such an investigation or hearing would not be in the public interest, the board may allow a certified nurse aide to surrender his certificate to practice.

(3) The board shall not issue a certificate to a former holder of a certificate whose certificate has been denied, revoked, or surrendered unless a two-year waiting period has passed since the date of the surrender and the applicant has met the requirements of this article, has successfully repeated an approved education program, and has repeated and passed a competency evaluation.

(4) The surrender of a certificate in accordance with this section removes all rights and privileges to practice as a nurse aide, including the right to apply for renewal of a certificate.

12-38.1-117. Exclusions. (1) This article shall not be construed to affect or apply to:

(a) The gratuitous care of friends or family members;

(b) A person for hire who does not represent himself or herself as or hold himself or herself out to the public as a certified nurse aide. However, no person for hire who is not a nurse aide certified under this article shall perform the duties of or hold himself or herself out as being able to perform the full duties of a certified nurse aide.

(c) Nursing assistance in the case of an emergency;

(d) A person who is directly employed by a medical facility while acting within the scope and course of such employment for the first four consecutive months of such person's employment at such medical facility if such person is pursuing initial certification as a nurse aide. A person may utilize this exclusion only once in any twelve-month period. This exclusion shall not apply to any person who has allowed his or her certification to lapse, had his or her certification as a nurse aide suspended or revoked, or had his or her application for such certification denied.

(e) Any person licensed, certified, or registered by the state of Colorado who is acting within the scope of such license, certificate, or registration;

(f) Any person performing services pursuant to sections 12-38-132 and 27-10.5-103 (2) (k), C.R.S., and part 3 of article 1.5 of title 25, C.R.S.

(1) "Board" means the board of examiners of nursing home administrators.

(2) "Nursing home administrator" means any individual licensed and responsible for planning, organizing, directing, and controlling the operation of a nursing home or who in fact performs such functions, whether or not such functions are shared by one or more other persons.

(3) "Nursing home administrator-in-training" means an individual registered with the board pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(4) "Nursing home facility" shall have the same meaning as that set forth in section 25-1-1002, C.R.S., and shall include nursing care facilities, whether proprietary or non-profit, which are licensed under section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (I), C.R.S., or pursuant to the rules for nursing homes promulgated by the department of public health and environment. The term "nursing home" includes but is not limited to nursing homes owned or administered by the state government or any agency or political subdivision thereof.

(5) "Practice of nursing home administration" means the planning, organizing, directing, and control of the operation of a nursing home.

(6) "Reasonable grounds" means facts and circumstances sufficiently strong to warrant a prudent person to believe that the facts and circumstances are true.

12-39-104. Board of examiners of nursing home administrators - creation - subject to termination. (1) (a) The board of examiners of nursing home administrators is hereby created in the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies. The board is composed of the following members appointed by the governor:

(I) Three members who are practicing nursing home administrators duly licensed under this article, at least one of whom shall be from nonprofit facility administration.

(II) Repealed.

(III) Three members shall be representative of the public at large; except that upon the expiration of the term of office of the one member of the board representing the public whose term expires on July 1, 2011, the board shall consist of two members representative of the public at large.

(b) No more than three of the members of the board shall be officials or full-time employees of state government or local governments. The term of office for each member of the board shall be four years. No member of the board shall serve more than two consecutive terms. All the members of the board shall be residents of this state.

(2) (a) The governor shall make appointments to the board. In making an appointment to fill a vacancy on the board in the position of, or to fill the remainder of an unexpired term for, a nursing home administrator who is from nonprofit facility administration, as required by subparagraph (I) of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section, if the governor, after a good-faith attempt, is unable to find a nursing home administrator candidate who comes from nonprofit facility administration to fill the vacancy or complete the unexpired term, the governor may appoint any qualified nursing home administrator to complete the unexpired term or fill the vacancy in that board position. If the appointment is to fill a vacancy, the board member may serve the full term and is eligible for appointment for a second term.

(b) The governor may remove any board member for negligence, incompetency, unprofessional conduct, or willful misconduct. Actions constituting neglect of duty include but are not limited to three unexcused absences from scheduled meetings in any one calendar year. The governor shall fill a vacancy in the membership of the board for the remainder of the unexpired term. A member who is a practicing nursing home administrator or long-term care professional shall serve for a full term only if, during such term, such member is actively employed as a practicing member of his or her profession without a lapse of employment greater than one hundred twenty days.

(3) The board shall elect annually from its membership a chair and vice-chair. The board shall hold two or more meetings each year. At any meeting a majority shall constitute a quorum.

(4) The board shall exercise its powers and perform its duties and functions specified by this article under the department of regulatory agencies and the executive director thereof and the division of professions and occupations as if the same were transferred to the department by a type 1 transfer, as such transfer is defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of title 24, C.R.S.

(5) The director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies may appoint, subject to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, a program director to the board. The program director shall not be a member of the board, but shall have such powers and shall perform such duties as are prescribed by law and the rules of the board. Additional staff may be appointed by the director of the division of professions and occupations to adequately assist the board and the program director in keeping records and in the performance of their duties. These employees, if any, shall be appointed and serve in accordance with section 13 of article XII of the state constitution.

(6) The provisions of section 24-34-104, C.R.S., concerning the termination schedule for regulatory bodies of the state unless extended as provided in that section, are applicable to the board of examiners of nursing home administrators created by this section.

(7) Repealed.

12-39-104.5. Qualifications of board members. (1) A nursing home administrator is qualified to be appointed to the board if the person:

- (a) Is a legal resident of Colorado;
- (b) Is currently licensed as a nursing home administrator; and
- (c) Has been actively engaged as a licensed nursing home administrator for at least three years.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section, a person convicted of a felony in Colorado or any other state or of violating this article or any law governing the practice of nursing home administrators shall not be appointed to or serve on the board.

12-39-105. Powers and duties of the board - rules. (1) (a) The board has the following powers and duties:

(I) (A) To adopt rules defining standards of nursing home administration, including the responsibilities and duties of nursing home administrators, consistent with this article. The standards established in the rules shall be met by individuals in order to receive and retain a license and shall be designed to ensure that nursing home administrators are qualified by education and training in the appropriate field to serve as nursing home administrators.

(B) To develop and apply appropriate techniques, including examinations and investigations, for determining whether an individual meets such standards;

(II) To issue licenses to individuals determined, after application of such techniques, to meet such standards specified in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a);

(III) To revoke, suspend, withhold, or refuse to renew any license previously issued by the board, to place a licensee or temporary license holder on probation, or to issue a letter of admonition to a licensee in accordance with section 12-39-111 (3) in any case where the individual holding any such license is determined to have failed to conform to the standards developed pursuant to subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) or to have committed an act that constitutes grounds for discipline as set forth in section 12-39-111;

(IV) To establish and carry out procedures designed to ensure that individuals licensed as nursing home administrators will, during any period that they serve as such, comply with the requirements of such standards specified in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a);

(V) To conduct investigations, hold hearings, and take evidence in all matters relating to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties vested in the board and, in connection with any investigation following the filing of a signed complaint, an investigation initiated by the board, or any hearing, to administer oaths and issue subpoenas compelling the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, papers, or records relevant to an investigation or hearing;

(VI) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-169), ch. 225, p. 1023, § 6, effective May 4, 2009.)

(b) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board. The person providing documents shall prepare them from the original record and shall delete from the copy provided pursuant to the subpoena the name of the resident, but shall identify the resident by a numbered code, to be retained by the custodian of the records from which the copies were made. Upon certification of the custodian that the copies are true and complete except for the resident's name, they shall be deemed authentic, subject to the right to inspect the originals for the limited purpose of ascertaining the accuracy of the copies. No privilege of confidentiality shall exist with respect to the copies, and no liability shall lie against the board, the custodian, or the custodian's authorized employee for furnishing or using the copies in accordance with this subsection (1).

(c) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(2) Repealed.

(3) (a) The board shall develop rules, with input from long-term care facility provider associations, the department of public health and environment, the office of the state attorney general, and consumer representatives, concerning factors to be considered in determining performance that fails to meet generally accepted standards for nursing home administrators and whether or not remedial or disciplinary actions are warranted. The board may create an advisory committee to assist the board in developing standards that describe the responsibilities and duties of nursing home administrators.

(b) If after an investigation the board determines that there are reasonable grounds to believe that the performance of a licensed administrator is inconsistent with the health or safety of residents in the care of the facility in which the administrator works and is contrary to standards adopted by the board, the board may initiate disciplinary action as may be warranted.

(4) The board shall have the authority to make rules consistent with law as may be necessary for the proper performance of its duties and to take such other actions as may be necessary to enable the state to meet the requirements set forth in section 1908 of the federal "Social Security Act", the federal rules promulgated thereunder, and other pertinent federal requirements.

ANNOTATION

Applied in In re Estate of Smith v. O'Halloran, 557 F. Supp. 289 (D. Colo. 1983) (decided under prior version of this section).

12-39-106. Qualifications for admission to examination. (1) The board shall admit to examination for licensure as a nursing home administrator any applicant who pays a fee as determined by the board, who submits evidence of suitability prescribed by the board, who is twenty-one years of age or older, and who provides written documentation that the applicant meets one of the following requirements:

(a) The applicant has successfully completed the administrator-in-training program pursuant to section 12-39-107; or

(b) The applicant has successfully completed a bachelor's degree or higher degree in public health administration or health administration, a master's degree in management or business administration, or any degree or degrees deemed appropriate by the board; or

(c) (I) The applicant has successfully completed an associate's degree or higher degree in a health care-related field or a bachelor's degree in business or public administration and has a minimum of one year of experience in administration in a nursing home or hospital. For the purposes of this section, a registered nurse who is a graduate of a three-year diploma program meets the associate degree requirement.

(II) For purposes of the experience required by this paragraph (c), an applicant must have day-to-day, on-site responsibility for supervising, directing, managing, monitoring, or exercising reasonable control over subordinates for one year.

(2) If the applicant fails to provide evidence satisfactory to the board that the applicant meets the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the applicant shall not be admitted to take the licensing examination, and the applicant shall not be entitled to or be granted a license as a nursing home administrator.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-39-106 as it existed prior to 1993.

12-39-107. Administrator-in-training. (1) The board may grant admission into the nursing home administrator-in-training program to an applicant for a nursing home administrator's license who meets the board's criteria for education and experience, pursuant to section 12-39-107.5. Upon successful completion of the one-thousand-hour training period, the applicant is eligible to take the examination.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2009, (SB 09-169), ch. 225, p. 1024, § 8, effective May 4, 2009.)

(3) Every nursing home administrator-in-training shall register the fact of such training with the board in accordance with the rules and on forms provided by the board.

(4) The board shall, by rule, establish a monitoring mechanism that will provide oversight of the administrator-in-training program, including a requirement that an administrator-in-training submit periodic progress reports to the board.

(6) The board may waive any portion required by subsection (1) of this section if it finds that the applicant has prior experience or training sufficient to satisfy requirements established by rule of the board.

12-39-108. Licenses. (1) Any license issued by the board shall be valid for a period determined pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(2) Repealed.

(3) Only an individual who has qualified as a licensed nursing home administrator under the provisions of this article and who holds a valid current license pursuant to the provisions of this section has the privilege of using the title "nursing home administrator" and the right and the privilege of using the abbreviation "N.H.A." after such person's name.

(4) The board shall maintain a list of all licensed nursing home administrators, which list shall show: the place of residence, the name and age of each licensee, any action taken by the board, the number of the license issued to the licensee, and such other pertinent information as the board may deem necessary. The department shall keep a list of applicants who are denied.

(5) The board may issue a temporary license to an applicant for a period not to exceed six months. The board shall promulgate rules and regulations for the issuance of such a temporary license.

(6) A temporary license shall be granted to an applicant who is employed as a hospital administrator by a general hospital licensed or certified by the department of public health and environment. Such temporary permit shall be granted for a period not to exceed twelve months and shall be void at such time the license holder is no longer employed by the general hospital.

(7) The board shall establish, pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and publish annually a schedule of fees for the licensing of nursing home administrators.

(8) All moneys collected or received by the board shall be transmitted to the state treasurer who shall credit the same as provided in section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and the general assembly shall make annual appropriations pursuant to said section for the expenditures of the board incurred in the performance of its duties under this article, which expenditures shall be made from such appropriations upon vouchers and warrants drawn pursuant to law.

(9) No nursing home administrator who has had a license revoked may apply for licensure before a one-year waiting period following the date of such revocation and must comply with all requirements established by rules and regulations of the board.

(10) Each licensee shall, within thirty days, notify the board of any conviction of a felony or the acceptance of a guilty plea or a plea of nolo contendere to a felony.

12-39-109. Examinations. (1) The board shall determine the subjects of the state examination for all applicants for licensure as nursing home administrators.

(2) Examinations shall be held at least semiannually at such times and places as the board shall designate. Any examination shall be prepared or approved by the board.

(3) The board shall have the authority to select and administer a national examination.

12-39-110. Endorsement. (1) (a) The board shall issue a license to any person duly licensed to practice nursing home administration in another state or territory of the United States who:

(I) Provides written documentation verifying that the applicant has passed a national examination administered by a nationally recognized testing entity for nursing home administrators and has passed an examination in another state; and

(II) Successfully completes the Colorado state examination provided in section 12-39-109.

(b) For purposes of this section, “state or territory” includes the District of Columbia and the commonwealth of Puerto Rico.

(2) An applicant for licensure under this section shall submit to the board, in a manner prescribed by the board, all of the following:

(a) Evidence that the applicant holds a current, active license to practice nursing home administration issued by a state or territory of the United States other than Colorado. Such evidence shall include a license history from the state or territory that issued the license, indicating whether any disciplinary or other adverse actions are currently pending or have ever been taken in connection with that license and the final disposition of such actions, if any. If an applicant is or has been licensed in more than one state or territory other than Colorado, the applicant shall submit a license history or similar record as described in this paragraph (a) from each such state or territory.

(b) A license history or similar record, as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), relating to any license or registration which the applicant holds or has held in any other health care occupation in any state or territory other than Colorado. For purposes of this section, “health care occupation” includes without limitation the practices of medicine, dentistry, psychiatry, psychology, nursing, physical therapy, gerontology, chiropractic, podiatry, midwifery, optometry, pharmacy, and any other practice in which individuals are treated for medical or psychological problems or conditions, as well as the rendition of any service supportive to or ancillary to those practices.

(c) (I) Verification that the applicant has been engaged in the practice of nursing home administration, has taught in a health care administration program, or has served as a member of a nursing home survey or accreditation team for one year immediately preceding the date of the receipt of the application, or has been engaged in one of the services described in this subparagraph (I) for three of the five years immediately preceding the date of the receipt of the application; or

(II) Evidence that the applicant has demonstrated competency as a nursing home administrator as determined by the board.

12-39-111. Grounds for discipline. (1) The board has the power to revoke, suspend, withhold, or refuse to renew any license, to place on probation a licensee or temporary license holder, or to issue a letter of admonition to a licensee in accordance with the procedures set forth in subsection (3) of this section, upon proof that such person:

(a) Has procured or attempted to procure a license by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, misleading omission, or material misstatement of fact;

(b) Has been convicted of a felony or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a felony. A certified copy of the judgment of conviction by a court of competent jurisdiction shall be prima facie evidence of such conviction. In considering a possible revocation, suspension, or nonrenewal of a license or temporary license the board shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(c) Has had a license to practice nursing home administration or any other health care occupation suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction. A certified copy of the order of suspension or revocation shall be prima facie evidence of such suspension or revocation.

(d) Has violated or aided or abetted a violation of any provision of this article, any rule or regulation adopted under this article, or any lawful order of the board;

(e) Has committed or engaged in any act or omission which fails to meet generally accepted standards for such nursing home administration practice or licensure;

(f) Has falsified or made incorrect entries or failed to make essential entries on resident records;

(g) Is addicted to or dependent on alcohol or habit-forming drugs, abuses or engages in the habitual or excessive use of any such habit-forming drug or any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or participates in the unlawful use of controlled substances as specified in section 18-18-404, C.R.S.; except that the board has the discretion not to discipline the licensee if such person is participating, in good faith, in a program approved by the board designed to end such addiction or dependency;

(h) Has a physical or mental disability that renders the licensee unable to practice nursing home administration with reasonable skill and safety to the residents and that may endanger the health or safety of persons under the licensee's care;

(i) Has violated the confidentiality of information or knowledge as prescribed by law concerning any resident;

(j) Has violated section 18-13-119, C.R.S., concerning the abuse of health insurance;

(k) Has failed to post in the nursing home facility in a conspicuous place and in clearly legible type a notice giving the address and telephone number of the board and stating that complaints may be made to the board;

(l) Has practiced as a nursing home administrator without a license;

(m) Has used in connection with the person's name any designations tending to imply that the person is a licensed nursing home administrator, unless the person in fact holds a valid license;

(n) Has practiced as a nursing home administrator during a period when the person's license has been suspended or revoked; or

(o) Has sold, fraudulently obtained, or furnished a license to practice as a nursing home administrator, or has aided or abetted therein.

(2) The board need not find that the actions which are grounds for discipline were willful or negligent, but it may consider the same in determining the nature of disciplinary sanctions to be imposed.

(3) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(4) If the board finds the charges proven and orders that discipline be imposed, it may also require the licensee to participate in a treatment program or course of training or education as a requirement for reinstatement as may be needed to correct any deficiency found in the hearing.

(5) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

12-39-112. Withholding or denial of license - hearing. The board has the authority, pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., to determine whether an applicant for a license or a temporary license to practice as a nursing home administrator possesses the qualifications required by this article, or whether there are reasonable grounds to believe that such applicant has done any of the acts set forth in section 12-39-111 as grounds for discipline. As used in this section, "applicant" does not include a person seeking the renewal of a license.

12-39-113. Mental and physical examination of licensees. (1) (a) If the board has reasonable grounds to believe that a licensee or temporary license holder is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety to residents because of a condition described in section 12-39-111 (1) (g) or (1) (h), it may require the person to submit to a mental or physical examination by a physician or other licensed health care professional it designates. Upon the failure of the person to submit to the mental or physical examination, unless due to circumstances beyond the person's control, the board may suspend the person's license until the person submits to the required examinations.

(b) Every licensee or temporary license holder by engaging in the practice of nursing home administration in this state or by applying for the renewal of a license or temporary license shall be deemed to have given consent to submit to a mental or physical examination when so directed in writing by the board. The direction to submit to such an examination shall contain the basis of the board's reasonable grounds to believe that the licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety to residents because of a condition described in section 12-39-111 (1) (g) or (1) (h). The licensee shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's or other licensed health care professional's testimony or examination reports on the ground of privileged communication.

(2) Nothing in this section shall prevent the licensee from submitting testimony or examination reports of a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the licensee that pertains to a condition described in section 12-39-111 (1) (g) or (1) (h) that may be considered by the board in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the board.

(3) The results of any mental or physical examination ordered by the board shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the board and shall not be deemed public records nor made available to the public.

12-39-114. Disciplinary proceedings - administrative law judge - judicial review. (1) The board, through the department of regulatory agencies, has the authority to designate an administrative law judge to conduct hearings on any matter within the board's jurisdiction. Any designated administrative law judge shall have the powers and duties set forth in article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and shall be appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S.

(2) Disciplinary proceedings may be commenced when the board has reasonable grounds to believe that a licensee under the board's jurisdiction has committed acts in violation of section 12-39-111.

(3) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to said article by the board or an administrative law judge, at the board's discretion.

(4) No previously issued license to engage in the practice of nursing home administration shall be revoked or suspended until a hearing has been conducted pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S., or, for emergency situations, pursuant to section 24-4-104 (4), C.R.S. The denial of an application to renew an existing license shall be treated in all respects as a revocation.

(5) Any person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or report or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of such action.

(6) Complaints, investigations, hearings, meetings, or any other proceedings of the board conducted pursuant to the provisions of this article and relating to disciplinary proceedings shall be exempt from the provision of any law requiring that proceedings of the board be conducted publicly or that the minutes or records of the board with respect to action of the board taken pursuant to the provisions of this article be open to public inspection; except that this exemption shall apply only when the board, or an administrative law judge acting on behalf of the board specifically determines that it is in the best interest of a complainant or other recipient of services to keep such proceedings or documents relating thereto closed to the public, or if the licensee is violating section 12-39-111 (1) (g), participating in good faith in a program approved by the board or designed by the board to end any addiction or dependency specified in said section, and the licensee has not violated any provisions of the board order regarding participation in such a treatment program. If the board determines that it is in the best interest of a complainant or other recipient of services to keep such proceedings or documents relating thereto closed to the public, then the final action of the board shall be open to the public without disclosing the name of the client or other recipient. Final board actions and orders appropriate for judicial review may be judicially reviewed in the court of appeals in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(7) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee.

12-39-115. Temporary advisory committees - immunity. (1) The board may appoint temporary advisory committees, including temporary professional review committees, to assist in the performance of its duties with respect to individual investigations. Each temporary advisory committee shall consist of at least three licensees who have expertise in the area under review. Members of temporary advisory committees shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for the actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

(2) If a professional review committee is established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to investigate the quality of care being given by a person licensed pursuant to this article, such committee shall include in its membership at least three persons licensed in the same category as the licensee under review, but such committee may be authorized to act only by the board.

(3) Any member of the board or of a professional review committee, any member of the board's or committee's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board or committee, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board or committee member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-39-116. Unauthorized practice - penalties.

(1) Repealed.

(2) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice as a nursing home administrator without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and any person who commits a second or subsequent offense commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

12-39-117. Cease-and-desist orders. (1) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(2) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (2) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (2) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom such order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(3) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(4) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(5) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-39-114 (6).

12-39-118. Injunctive proceedings. The board, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, may apply for injunctive relief through the attorney general or the district attorney in any court of competent jurisdiction to enjoin any person who does not possess a currently valid or active nursing home administrator's license from committing any act declared to be unlawful or prohibited by this article. In any action taken pursuant to this section the court shall not require the board to plead or prove irreparable injury or inadequacy of a remedy at law or to post a bond. If it is established that the defendant has been or is committing an act declared to be unlawful or prohibited by this article, the court or any judge thereof shall enter a decree perpetually enjoining said defendant from further committing such act. In the case of a violation of any injunction issued under the provisions of this section, the court or any judge thereof may summarily try and punish the offender for contempt of court. Such injunctive proceedings shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of, all penalties and other remedies provided in this article.

ANNOTATION

The regulation of the practice of optometry by the general assembly is constitutionally permissible under the police power because like other learned professions, it affects the public health, safety, and welfare. Dixon v. Zick, 179 Colo. 278, 500 P.2d 130 (1972).

In carrying out the responsibility of regulating the practice of optometry, a law enacted must reasonably bear upon or relate to the health, safety, and welfare of the public. Dixon v. Zick, 179 Colo. 278, 500 P.2d 130 (1972).

12-40-102. Practice of optometry defined. (1) (a) The “practice of optometry” means the evaluation, diagnosis, prevention, or treatment of diseases, disorders, or conditions of the vision system, eyes, and adjacent and associated structures, including the use or prescription of lenses, prisms, vision therapy, vision rehabilitation, and prescription or nonprescription drugs including schedule III, IV, and V controlled narcotic substances for ocular disease, so long as an optometrist is practicing within the scope of his or her education as is commonly taught in accredited schools and colleges of optometry and is practicing in accordance with applicable federal and Colorado law and board rules.

(b) The following are part of the practice of optometry:

- (I) The removal of superficial foreign bodies from the human eye or its appendages;
- (II) Postoperative care in the following situations:
 - (A) With referral from a physician;
 - (B) If ninety days have expired after the surgery unless the physician justifies medically indicated reasons for extending the postoperative period; and
 - (C) If the patient has been released by the physician;
- (III) The treatment of anterior uveitis;
- (IV) The treatment of glaucoma with all topical and oral antiglaucoma drugs;
- (V) Epilation;
- (VI) Dilation and irrigation of the lacrimal system;
- (VII) Punctal plug insertion and removal;
- (VIII) Anterior corneal puncture;
- (IX) Corneal scraping for cultures;
- (X) Debridement of corneal epithelium; and
- (XI) Removal of corneal epithelium.

(c) Any person who is engaged in the prescribing or performing without referral of visual training or orthoptics, the prescribing of any contact lenses, including plano or cosmetic contact lenses, the fitting or adaptation of such contact lenses to the human eye, the use of scientific instruments to train the visual system or any abnormal condition of the eyes for the correction or improvement of, or the relief to, the visual function, or who holds oneself out as being able to do so, is engaged in the practice of optometry.

(d) The “practice of optometry” does not include:

(I) Surgery of or injections into the globe, orbit, eyelids, or ocular adnexa. “Surgery” means any procedure in which human tissue is cut, altered, or otherwise infiltrated by mechanical or laser means.

(II) The use of schedule I or II narcotics;

(III) Treatment of posterior uveitis; or

(IV) The use of injectable drugs, except for the use of an epinephrine auto-injector to counteract anaphylactic reaction.

(2) A licensed optometrist who uses or prescribes prescription or nonprescription drugs shall provide the same level and standard of care to his or her patients as the standard of care provided by an ophthalmologist using or prescribing the same drugs.

(3) A therapeutic optometrist is an optometrist licensed pursuant to this article who meets the requirements of section 12-40-109.5 (1.5) and (3). A licensed optometrist shall not use prescription or nonprescription drugs for treatment of eye disease or disorder or for any therapeutic purpose unless he or she is a therapeutic optometrist.

(b) Nothing in this section prohibits an optometrist from charging a fee for prescribing, adjusting, fitting, adapting, or dispensing ophthalmic devices, such as contact lenses, that are classified by the federal food and drug administration as a drug, as long as the drug delivered by the ophthalmic device is not a schedule I or II controlled substance.

(7) (a) An optometrist who meets the requirements established by the board pursuant to sections 12-40-107 (1) (n) and 12-40-109.5 (3) may treat anterior uveitis and glaucoma.

ANNOTATION

Optometrists may prescribe contact lenses.
Winograd v. Johnson, 38 Colo. App. 432, 561 P.2d 1274 (1976).

Applied in Dixon v. State Bd. of Optometric Exam'rs, 39 Colo. App. 200, 565 P.2d 960 (1977).

12-40-103. Proprietor defined. (1) The term “proprietor”, as used in this article, includes any person, group, association, or corporation not licensed under this article who:

(a) For financial gain employs optometrists in the operation of an optometry office;

(b) Places, directly or indirectly, in possession of an optometrist such materials or equipment as may be necessary for the operation of an optometrist's office on the basis of any fee splitting, income division, profit sharing, or similar agreement or on any basis that has the effect of any such agreement, but the term “proprietor” does not include the bona fide seller of optometry equipment or material secured by chattel mortgage, conditional sales contract, or other title retention agreements or the bona fide leasing of such equipment by the manufacturer or by his or her franchised dealer; or

(c) Under the guise of a rental percentage lease or sublease or other leasing or rental arrangement, participates in the direction and control of a licensee's practice and business or in the receipts or profits accruing therefrom, but a bona fide percentage sale lease basing the rental of the premises let upon a percentage of gross income of not to exceed the reasonable, going rate for like quarters and location, as determined by the board after investigation, shall not be deemed an avoidance of the provisions of this section. Certified copies of all such leasing and rental arrangements and renewals thereof shall be filed with the board by the licensee within thirty days after execution.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-40-103 is similar to repealed CSA, C. 120, § 20, and laws antecedent thereto, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

None of the general prohibitions in § 12-40-118 relate to the geographic location of the place where the practice of the profession is conducted, nor do the proscriptions of this section, but on the contrary, all of the provisions are directed to the conduct of the licensee or a

A physician cannot practice generally as the employee of a layman, whereas an optometrist may. People v. Painless Parker Dentist, 85 Colo. 304, 275 P. 928 (1929).

If a physician practices only the optometric branch of his profession under employment by a layman he is protected by this section. Bebber v. Fisher, 106 Colo. 197, 102 P.2d 741 (1940).

12-40-104. Persons entitled to practice optometry - title protection of optometrists. It shall be unlawful for any person to practice optometry in this state, except those who are duly licensed optometrists before July 1, 1961, pursuant to the law of this state and those who are duly licensed optometrists pursuant to the provisions of this article. A person licensed as an optometrist pursuant to the provisions of this article may use the title “optometrist”, the initials “O.D.”, or the term “doctor of optometry”. No other person shall use the title “optometrist”, “O.D.”, “doctor of optometry”, or any other word or abbreviation to indicate or induce others to believe that one is licensed to practice optometry in this state.

ANNOTATION

This section prohibits an unlicensed person or optician fitting or adapting contact lenses to the human eye. Burt v. People ex rel. Dunbar, 161 Colo. 193, 421 P.2d 480 (1966).

Where an injunction forbids the use of any optical instrument or the performance of any act when done “for the purpose of fitting or adapting contact lenses to the human eye” unless licensed to do so prior thereto, the trial court erred in finding that the optician had violated its order and in adjudging him in contempt, because nothing in the act prohibits an optician from examining and commenting on the physical characteristics of contact lenses. Burt v. People ex rel. Dunbar, 161 Colo. 193, 421 P.2d 480 (1966).

Where the evidence shows that there was no prescribing or fitting or adapting of lenses to eyes, and the optician exercised no medical judgment by his acts and gave no medical advice, his comments relating merely to the physical characteristics of the lenses presented, even the placing of the nonprescription dye in the eyes and looking at the lenses when they were on, so long as he did not attempt to do anything about what he saw, is not within the prohibition of either this section or the injunction. Burt v. People ex rel. Dunbar, 161 Colo. 193, 421 P.2d 480 (1966).

12-40-105. Persons excluded from operation of this article. (1) This article does not apply to:

(a) Professional practice by a physician or surgeon licensed to practice medicine under the laws of the state of Colorado and ancillary or technical assistants working under the direction of any such physician or surgeon, with the exception of the fitting of contact lenses which must be done under the physician's or surgeon's direct supervision;

(b) The practice of optometry in the discharge of their official duties by optometrists or physicians and surgeons in the service of the United States armed forces, public health service, Coast Guard, or veterans administration;

(c) Opticians, persons, firms, and corporations who duplicate or repair spectacles or eyeglasses; opticians, persons, firms, and corporations who supply or sell spectacles, eyeglasses, or ophthalmic lenses, including but not limited to contact lenses, if such spectacles, eyeglasses, and ophthalmic lenses are provided pursuant to a valid prescription;

(d) Persons serving a post-doctorate residency or an optometry student internship under the supervision of an optometrist licensed in Colorado as part of a curriculum from an accredited college of optometry.

12-40-106. State board of optometry - subject to termination. (1) (a) The state board of optometry, referred to in this article as the “board”, is under the supervision and control of the division of professions and occupations as provided by section 24-34-102, C.R.S. The board consists of five optometrists and two members-at-large, to be appointed by the governor to serve for terms of four years; except that no person shall be appointed to serve more than two consecutive terms. Each member of the board, except for the members-at-large, must have been actually engaged and licensed in the practice of optometry in Colorado for the five years preceding the member’s appointment. At least one of the two members-at-large must not be a member or representative of, nor have any direct interest in, any profession, agency, or institution providing health services.

(b) Any four members of the board constitute a quorum for the purpose of holding examinations, granting licenses, or transacting any business connected with the board.

(c) The governor shall fill a vacancy in the membership of the board for the remainder of the unexpired term. The governor may remove a member of the board for misconduct, incompetency, or neglect of duty.

(d) A board member having a personal or private interest in any matter before the board shall disclose such fact to the board and shall not participate in related discussions or votes.

(2) The board shall organize annually by electing one of its members as president and one as vice-president.

12-40-107. Powers and duties of the board - rules. (1) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred upon the board by this article, the board has the following powers and duties:

(a) To determine acceptability of scores from tests administered by any approved or accredited national testing organization;

(b) To prescribe rules to carry out effectively the provisions of this article. The board shall set the passing score of any examination at a minimum acceptable level of competence for the practice of optometry.

(c) Repealed.

(d) To grant licenses in conformity with this article to such applicants as have been found qualified;

(e) and (f) Repealed.

(g) To adopt and promulgate such rules and regulations as the board may deem necessary or proper to carry out the provisions and purposes of this article;

(h) Repealed.

(j) To aid the several district attorneys of this state in the enforcement of this article and in the prosecution of all persons, firms, associations, or corporations charged with the violation of any of its provisions;

(k) To establish programs of education for optometrists wishing to enter new, proven, and generally accepted areas of lawful practice involving techniques for which they have not received appropriate education;

(l) To prepare and distribute to consumers as is reasonably necessary written communication providing information concerning the board and the regulation of optometry in Colorado;

(m) (l) To make investigations, hold hearings, and take evidence in all matters relating to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties vested in the board.

(II) The board or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(III) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board or director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(n) To prescribe rules authorizing optometrists to utilize therapeutic procedures and therapeutic techniques in the practice of optometry as defined in section 12-40-102. These rules shall in no way expand the practice of optometry as defined in section 12-40-102 nor shall such rules include the use of therapeutic or cosmetic lasers. Such rules shall specify approved programs of education offered by an accreditation organization recognized or approved by the commission on recognition of postsecondary accreditation or the United States department of education or their successors.

(2) Repealed.

ANNOTATION

Any regulations by an administrative body charged with the responsibility of implementing the legislative act regulating practice of optometry must reasonably relate to the public health, safety, and welfare. Dixon v. Zick, 179 Colo. 278, 500 P.2d 130 (1972).

State board of optometric examiners must strictly comply with its enabling statute. Sherrerd v. Johnson, 32 Colo. App. 367, 511 P.2d 923 (1973).

The optometry statute contains no provisions governing the procedures to be followed by the board under the rule-making power. Colo. State Bd. of Optometric Exam'rs v. Dixon, 165 Colo. 488, 440 P.2d 287 (1968).

The general provisions of the administrative code are therefore applicable. Colo. State Bd. of Optometric Exam'rs v. Dixon, 165 Colo. 488, 440 P.2d 287 (1968).

Judicial review, including injunctive relief, is available to persons aggrieved by agency "action" including an agency rule, where irreparable damage would otherwise result. Colo. State Bd. of Optometric Exam'rs v. Dixon, 165 ter of law that there was an abuse of discretion in revoking the license under the uncontradicted evidence of immoral and unprofessional conduct. Cardamon v. State Bd. of Optometric Exam'rs, 165 Colo. 520, 441 P.2d 25 (1968).

12-40-107.2. Volunteer optometrist license. (1) A person licensed to practice optometry pursuant to this article may apply to the board for volunteer licensure status. The board shall designate the form and manner of the application. The board may:

(a) Grant the application by issuing a volunteer license; or
(b) Deny the application if the licensee has been disciplined for any of the causes set forth in section 12-40-118.

(2) A person applying for a license under this section:

(a) Must either:

(I) Hold an active and unrestricted license to practice optometry in Colorado and be in active practice in this state; or

(II) Have been on inactive status pursuant to article 70 of this title for not more than two years; and

(b) Shall:

(I) Pay a reduced license fee in lieu of the fee authorized by section 24-34-105, C.R.S. The director shall reduce the volunteer optometrist license fee from the license fee charged pursuant to section 12-40-113 (1) (a).

(II) Attest that, after a date certain, the applicant will no longer earn income as an optometrist;

(III) Maintain liability insurance as provided in section 12-40-126; and

(IV) Comply with the continuing education requirements established in section 12-40-113 (1) (f); except that the board may establish lesser continuing education requirements for volunteer licensees.

(3) The face of each volunteer license issued pursuant to this section shall plainly indicate the volunteer status of the licensee.

(4) The board may conduct disciplinary proceedings pursuant to section 12-40-119 against any person licensed under this section for an act committed while the person was licensed pursuant to this section.

(5) A person licensed under this section may apply to the board for a return to active licensure status by filing an application in the form and manner designated by the board. The board may approve such application and issue a license to practice optometry or may deny the application if the licensee has been disciplined for or engaged in any of the activities set forth in section 12-40-118.

(6) An optometrist with a volunteer license shall provide optometry services only if the services are performed on a limited basis for no fee or other compensation.

12-40-108. Application for license - licensure by endorsement. (1) A person who desires to practice optometry in the state may file with the board an application for a license, giving the information required in a form and manner approved by the board. The applicant shall demonstrate that he or she possesses the following qualifications:

- (a) The applicant has attained the age of twenty-one years.
- (b) The applicant has graduated with the degree of doctor of optometry from a school or college of optometry accredited by a regional or professional accreditation organization that is recognized or approved by the council on postsecondary accreditation or the United States commissioner of education. The board has the authority, upon its investigation and approval of the standards thereof, to approve any other college of optometry.
- (c) The applicant has successfully passed the written examination of the national board of examiners in optometry. The board shall have the authority, upon its investigation and approval of the examination standards, to approve some body other than the national board of examiners in optometry as the examining body.

(d) The applicant is not addicted to or dependent on, and has not habitually or excessively used or abused, intoxicating liquors, habit-forming drugs, or controlled substances as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.

(e) After July 1, 1988, the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 12-40-109.5 or equivalent requirements approved by the board, including passing a standardized national examination in the treatment and management of ocular disease.

(f) After July 1, 1996, the applicant has satisfied the requirements of section 12-40-109.5 (3) or equivalent requirements approved by the board, including passing a standardized national examination in the treatment and management of ocular disease.

(3) (a) The board may issue a license by endorsement to engage in the practice of optometry to an applicant who:

(I) (A) Is currently licensed and is in practice and good standing in another state or territory of the United States or in a foreign country if the applicant presents proof satisfactory to the board at the time of application for a Colorado license by endorsement;

(B) Pays a fee as prescribed by the board; and

(II) (A) Possesses credentials and qualifications that are substantially equivalent to requirements for licensure by examination; or

(B) Has demonstrated competency as an optometrist as determined by the board.

(b) The board shall specify by rule what shall constitute substantially equivalent credentials and qualifications or competency.

12-40-108.5. Current licensees - treatment and therapeutic practice. On and after July 1, 1988, a person who is licensed under this article as an optometrist on June 30, 1988, and who is otherwise qualified under this article may use prescription or nonprescription drugs for examination purposes. However, such optometrist may use prescription or nonprescription drugs for treatment of eye disease or disorder or for any therapeutic purpose only if he or she meets the requirements of section 12-40-109.5 (1.5) and (3) on or after July 1, 1988.

12-40-109. Examination - licenses. (1) The applicant shall take and submit test scores from the board-approved exam. The examination shall be of such a character as to test the qualifications of the applicant to practice optometry.

(2) Each person who makes a passing grade on the practical and clinical examination and who is otherwise qualified shall be granted a license signed by the board. The license provided for in this section shall be in such form and wording as may be adopted by the board. The optometrist shall display his or her license for viewing by his or her patients, as provided in section 12-40-115. An application for initial licensure as an optometrist shall be accompanied by a processing fee in an amount to be determined by the board pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(3) Any person denied a license under this article and believing himself aggrieved thereby may pursue the remedy for review as provided under article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., if such action is instituted within a period of sixty days after the date of denial.

(4) A person who fails to pass the examination provided for in this section may retake the examination the next time said examination is given.

ANNOTATION

Former section required the “standard examination” of all persons desiring to commence or continue the practice except as otherwise provided. Bebber v. Fisher, 106 Colo. 197, 102 P.2d 741 (1940) (decided under repealed CSA, C. 120, § 8).

12-40-109.5. Use of prescription and nonprescription drugs. (1) Notwithstanding section 12-42.5-118, a licensed optometrist may purchase, possess, and administer prescription or nonprescription drugs for examination purposes only if, after July 1, 1983, the optometrist has complied with the following minimum requirements: Successful completion, by attendance and examination, of at least fifty-five classroom hours of study in general, ocular, and clinical pharmacology which must have been completed within twenty-four months preceding the application for certification; except that, in the event that such classroom hours have been completed since 1976, only six of such classroom hours must have been completed within twenty-four months preceding the application for certification. The courses shall be offered by an institution that is accredited by a regional or professional accreditation organization recognized or approved by the council on postsecondary education or the United States department of education or their successors.

(1.5) Notwithstanding section 12-42.5-118, a licensed optometrist may purchase, possess, administer, and prescribe prescription or nonprescription drugs for treatment on and after July 1, 1988, only if the optometrist has complied with the following minimum requirements within twenty-four months preceding the application for certification: Successful completion, by attendance and examination, of at least sixty classroom hours of study in ocular pharmacology, clinical pharmacology, therapeutics, and anterior segment disease; and successful completion by attendance and examination of at least sixty hours of approved supervised clinical training in the examination, diagnosis, and treatment of conditions of the human eye and its appendages. The courses shall be offered by an institution that is accredited by a regional or professional accreditation organization recognized or approved by the council of postsecondary education or the United States department of education or their successors.

(2) The optometrist shall successfully complete a course in cardiopulmonary resuscitation within twenty-four months before using prescription or nonprescription drugs and shall pass a written and clinical examination approved by the board.

(3) In addition to the requirements of section 12-40-108.5, each therapeutic optometrist shall meet all requirements prescribed by the board before commencing treatment of glaucoma or anterior uveitis.

12-40-113. License renewal - requirements - fee - failure to pay. (1) (a) On or before a date designated pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies, licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(b) The board shall establish a questionnaire to accompany the renewal form. Said questionnaire shall be designed to determine if the licensee has acted in violation of or has been disciplined for actions that might be considered as violations of this article or that might make the licensee unfit to practice optometry with reasonable care and safety. Failure of the applicant to answer the questionnaire accurately shall be considered unprofessional conduct as specified in section 12-40-118.

(d) and (e) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1841, § 89, effective August 4, 2004.)

(f) Effective April 1, 1993, in addition to all other requirements of this section for license renewal, the board shall require that each optometrist seeking to renew a license shall have completed twenty-four hours of board-approved continuing education. Any optometrist desiring to renew a license to practice optometry in this state shall submit to the board the information the board believes is necessary to show that the optometrist has fulfilled the continuing education requirements of this paragraph (f). Implementation of this paragraph (f) shall occur within existing appropriations.

ANNOTATION

A licensed physician who was also licensed as an optometrist under the laws of 1913 but who did not apply for a renewal of his license within 30 days in 1925 was either entitled to practice optometry, as the employee of a layman, by virtue of his physician's license, or by virtue thereof, he was entitled, without examination, to an optometrist's license provided he paid the statutory fees. Bebber v. Fisher, 106 Colo. 197, 102 P.2d 741 (1940) (decided under repealed CSA, C. 120, § 15).

12-40-115. Licenses to be displayed. Every practitioner of optometry shall post and keep conspicuously displayed his or her license in the office wherein he or she practices. If an optometrist practices at several locations in the state, the optometrist shall display his or her license number and name in a manner that can be easily recognized by his or her patients. Each association of persons who engage in the practice of optometry under the name of a partnership, association, or any other title shall cause to be displayed and kept in a conspicuous place at the entrance of its place of business the name of each person engaged or employed in said partnership or association in the practice of optometry.

12-40-116. Records to be kept by the board. The board shall keep a record of all persons to whom licenses have been granted under this article. A copy of said records, certified by the board, shall be admitted in any of the courts of this state, in lieu of the originals, as prima facie evidence of the facts contained in said records. A copy of said records certified by the board of a person charged with a violation of any of the provisions of this article shall be evidence that such person has not been licensed to practice optometry.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, “The Perennial Problem of Security Priority and Recordation”, see 24 Rocky Mt. L. Rev. 180 (1952).

Section does not provide for categorization of test scores. While this statute delineates all of the areas that are to be tested and provides that each candidate must score 75 on the entire examination in order to pass, it does not provide for the categorization of test scores so that candidates who each had an average score of 75 on the entire exam passed even though they scored below 75 on one of the three sections of the exam. Sherrerd v. Johnson, 32 Colo. App. 367, 511 P.2d 923 (1973).

12-40-117. Patient’s exercise of free choice - release of patient records. (1) No person shall interfere with any patient’s exercise of free choice in the selection of practitioners licensed to perform examinations for refractions and visual training or corrections within the field for which their respective licenses entitle them to practice.

(2) An optometrist shall release to a patient all medical records pursuant to section 25-1-802, C.R.S.

(3) The optometrist shall release to the patient, upon written request, a valid, written contact lens prescription at the time the optometrist would otherwise replace a contact lens without any additional preliminary examination or fitting. The board shall promulgate rules and regulations defining the components of a valid written contact lens prescription.

12-40-118. Unprofessional conduct defined. (1) The term “unprofessional conduct”, as used in this article, means:

(a) Deceiving or attempting to deceive the board or its agents with reference to any proper matter under investigation by the board;

(b) Publishing or circulating, directly or indirectly, any fraudulent, false, deceitful, or misleading claims or statements relating to optometry services or ophthalmic materials or devices;

(c) Employing or offering compensation or merchandise of value to any salesman, runner, patient, or other person as an inducement to secure his or her services or assistance in the solicitation of patronage for the performing, rendering, supplying, or selling of optometry services or ophthalmic materials or devices;

(d) Resorting to fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying for, securing, renewing, or seeking reinstatement of a license or in taking any examination provided for in this article;

- (e) The habitual or excessive use or abuse of alcohol, a habit-forming drug, or any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;
- (f) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2002, p. 62, § 11, effective July 1, 2002.)
- (g) Repealed.
- (h) Disobeying the lawful rule or order of the board or its officers;
- (i) Practicing optometry while license is suspended;
- (j) Practicing optometry as the partner, agent, or employee of or in joint venture or arrangement with any proprietor or with any person who does not hold a license to practice optometry within this state, except as permitted in section 12-40-122. Any licensee holding a license to practice optometry in this state may accept employment from any person, partnership, association, or corporation to examine and prescribe for the employees of such person, partnership, association, or corporation.
- (k) An act or omission constituting grossly negligent optometry practice or two or more acts or omissions that fail to meet generally accepted standards of optometry practice;
- (l) Sharing any professional fees with any person, partnership, or corporation which sends or refers patients to him, except with licensed optometrists with whom he may be associated in practice;
- (m) Failing to:
 - (I) Notify the board, in a manner and within a period determined by the board, of a physical or mental illness or condition that renders an optometrist unable to treat with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health and safety of persons under the care of an optometrist;
 - (II) Act within the limitations created by a physical or mental illness or condition that renders an optometrist unable to treat with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health and safety of persons under the care of an optometrist; or
 - (III) Practice within the limitations created by the physical or mental illness or condition as specified in a confidential agreement between the optometrist and the board entered into pursuant to section 12-40-118.5 (5).
- (n) Failing to refer a patient to the appropriate health care practitioner when the services required by the patient are beyond the scope of competency of the optometrist or the scope of practice of optometry;
- (o) Aiding or abetting, in the practice of optometry, any person not licensed to practice optometry as defined under this article or any person whose license to practice is suspended;
- (p) Interfering with the free choice of any person selecting a physician or other health care practitioner;
- (q) Any disciplinary action against a licensee to practice optometry in another state or country, which action shall be deemed to be prima facie evidence of unprofessional conduct if the grounds for the disciplinary action would be unprofessional conduct or otherwise constitute a violation of any provision of this article;
- (r) Failing to notify the board of a malpractice final judgment or settlement within thirty days;
- (s) Any act or omission which fails to meet generally accepted standards of care whether or not actual injury to a patient is established;
- (t) Conviction of a felony or the acceptance of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere, or a plea resulting in a deferred sentence to a felony;
- (u) Representing that a noncorrectable condition can be permanently corrected;
- (v) Knowingly making any false or fraudulent statement, written or oral, in connection with the practice of optometry, including falsifying or making incorrect essential entries or failing to make essential entries on patient records;
- (w) Conduct which is likely to deceive or defraud the public;
- (x) Repealed.
- (y) Negligent malpractice;
- (z) (Deleted by amendment, L. 92, p. 2026, § 12, effective July 1, 1992.)
- (aa) (I) Violation of abuse of health insurance pursuant to section 18-13-119, C.R.S.;

(II) Advertising through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise that the licensee will perform any act prohibited by section 18-13-119 (3), C.R.S.;

(bb) Administering, dispensing, or prescribing any prescription drug, as defined in section 12-42.5-102 (34), or any controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., other than in the course of legitimate professional practice;

(cc) Repealed.

(dd) Engaging in any of the following activities and practices:

(I) Repeatedly ordering or performing demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies that lack clinical justification;

(II) Administering treatment that is demonstrably unnecessary and lacks clinical justification; or

(III) Ordering or performing any service, X ray, or treatment that is contrary to recognized standards of the practice of optometry, as interpreted by the board, and lacks clinical justification;

(ee) Committing a fraudulent insurance act, as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(ff) Failing to report to the board any optometrist known to have violated or, upon information or belief, believed to have violated any of the provisions of this article;

(gg) Failing to report to the board any surrender of a license to, or any adverse action taken against a licensee by another licensing agency in another state, territory, or country, any governmental agency, any law enforcement agency, or any court for acts of conduct that would constitute grounds for discipline under the provisions of this article;

(hh) Engaging in a sexual act with a patient while a patient-optometrist relationship exists. For the purposes of this paragraph (hh), "patient-optometrist relationship" means that period of time beginning with the initial evaluation through the termination of treatment. For the purposes of this paragraph (hh), "sexual act" means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(ii) Failing to provide a patient with copies of patient medical records as required by section 25-1-802, C.R.S.;

(jj) Failing to provide a patient with a valid written contact lens prescription as required by section 12-40-117 (3);

(kk) A violation of any provision of this article;

(II) Practicing beyond the scope of education and training prescribed by rules adopted by the board;

(mm) Failing to respond in an honest, materially responsive, and timely manner to a complaint pursuant to section 12-40-119 (1) (b).

ANNOTATION

This section enumerates “general prohibitions” the violation of any provision of which constitutes “unprofessional conduct” and is a ground for revocation or refusal to renew a license. Dixon v. Zick, 179 Colo. 278, 500 P.2d 130 (1972).

None of the general prohibitions in this section relate to the geographic location of the place where the practice of the profession is conducted, nor do the proscriptions of § 12-40-103, but on the contrary, all of the provisions are directed to the conduct of the licensee or a “proprietor”. Dixon v. Zick, 179 Colo. 278, 500 P.2d 130 (1972).

12-40-118.5. Mental and physical examination of licensees. (1) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, the board may require the licensee to submit to a mental or physical examination by a physician or qualified health care provider designated by the board. If the licensee refuses to undergo a mental or physical examination, unless due to circumstances beyond the licensee’s control, the board may suspend the licensee’s license until an examination has occurred, the results of the examination are known, and the board has made a determination of the licensee’s fitness to practice. The board shall proceed with the order for examination and the determination in a timely manner.

(2) An order to a licensee pursuant to subsection (1) of this section to undergo a mental or physical examination shall contain the basis of the board’s reasonable cause to believe that the licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For the purposes of any disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article, the licensee shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician’s testimony or examination reports on the ground that they are privileged communications.

(3) The licensee may submit to the board testimony or examination reports from a physician chosen by such licensee and pertaining to any condition which the board has alleged may preclude the licensee from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. These may be considered by the board in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the physician designated by the board.

(4) The results of any mental or physical examination ordered by the board shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the board and shall not be deemed public records nor made available to the public.

(5) (a) The board may enter into an agreement with an optometrist whose practice is or may be affected by a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the optometrist unable to treat with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health and safety of persons under the care of any optometrist if:

(I) The board believes that one or more limitations of the optometrist’s practice would both enable the optometrist to treat with reasonable skill and safety and would protect the health and safety of persons under the care of the optometrist; and

(II) The optometrist enters into an enforceable agreement with the board to so limit the optometrist’s practice.

(b) An agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection (5):

(I) Is confidential and not subject to disclosure pursuant to the “Colorado Open Records Act”, part 2 of article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.; and

(II) May include provisions for monitoring and reevaluation of the optometrist. The parties may modify or dissolve the agreement as necessary based on the results of the monitoring or reevaluation.

(c) The board may require the licensee to submit to an examination pursuant to this section to evaluate the extent of the illness or condition and its impact on the licensee’s ability to practice with reasonable skill and with safety to patients.

(d) By entering into an agreement with the board pursuant to this section to limit his or her practice, the licensee is not engaging in unprofessional conduct. The agreement is an administrative action and does not constitute a restriction or discipline by the board. However, if the licensee fails to comply with an agreement entered into pursuant to this section, the failure constitutes unprofessional conduct pursuant to section 12-40-118 and the licensee becomes subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-40-119.

(e) For purposes of this subsection (5), “physical or mental illness or condition” does not include the habitual or excessive use or abuse of alcohol, a habit-forming drug, or any controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.

12-40-119. Revocation, suspension, supervision, probation procedure - professional review - reconsideration and review of action by board - rules. (1) (a) With respect to licenses issued pursuant to this article, the board may:

(I) Impose probation, with or without supervision, on a licensee, issue a letter of admonition to a licensee, or suspend, revoke, or refuse to renew any license provided for by this article for any reason stated in section 12-40-118 or for violating any term of probation of the board;

(II) Summarily suspend a license upon the failure of the licensee to comply with any condition of a stipulation or order imposed by the board until the licensee complies with the condition, unless compliance is beyond the control of the licensee; and

(III) Impose a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars on a licensee for a violation of this article or a rule promulgated pursuant to this article other than a violation related to a standard of practice. The board shall, by rule, promulgate a fining schedule with lesser amounts for first violations and increasing amounts for subsequent violations of this subparagraph (III).

(b) Upon its own motion or upon a signed complaint, an investigation may be made if there is reasonable cause to believe that an optometrist licensed by the board has committed an act of unprofessional conduct pursuant to section 12-40-118 or, while under probation, has violated the terms of the probation.

(c) If a licensee requests a hearing to dispute formal board action or if the board finds such probability great and a hearing is conducted, such hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(d) The board may revoke, suspend, deny, issue, reissue, or reinstate licenses granted pursuant to this article or under the previous laws of this state, and the board may take such other intermediate action as may be deemed necessary under the circumstances of each case pursuant to this section.

(2) (a) to (c) Repealed.

(d) The hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S.; except that the board may use an administrative law judge, who shall perform all of those functions indicated in section 24-4-105 (4), C.R.S.

(e) The action of the board in refusing to grant or renew, revoking, or suspending a license, issuing a letter of admonition, or placing a licensee on probation or under supervision pursuant to subsection (1) of this section may be reviewed by the court of appeals by appropriate proceedings under section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(f) (I) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(II) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(III) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(2.1) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee.

(2.3) No person whose license is revoked by the board may reapply for a new license under the provisions of this article for at least two years after any such revocation.

(2.5) Any person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or report or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of such action.

(3) (a) Repealed.

(b) Any member of the board or of a professional review committee authorized by the board, any member of the board's or committee's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board or committee, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board or committee member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

(4) (a) The board, on its own motion or upon application, at any time after the refusal to grant a license, the imposition of any discipline, or the ordering of probation, as provided in this section, may reconsider its prior action and grant, reinstate, or restore such license, terminate probation, or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action. The taking of any such further action, or the holding of a hearing with respect thereto, rests in the sole discretion of the board.

(b) Upon the receipt of such application, it may be forwarded to the attorney general for such investigation as may be deemed necessary. The proceedings shall be governed by the applicable provisions governing formal hearings in disciplinary proceedings. The attorney general may present evidence bearing upon the matters in issue, and the burden shall be upon the applicant seeking reinstatement to establish the averments of the application as specified in section 24-4-105 (7), C.R.S. No application for reinstatement or for modification of a prior order shall be accepted unless the applicant deposits with the board all amounts unpaid under any prior order of the board.

(5) Upon dismissal of a complaint, which has gone to hearing, the board shall notify the complainant that he or she may receive a copy of the investigation report and the response of the optometrist or other person alleged to have violated the act upon payment of costs of copying and mailing such information.

(6) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(7) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(8) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (8) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (8) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (8). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (8), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued, and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(9) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(10) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(11) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order in a court of competent jurisdiction.

ANNOTATION

The contention of counsel for the optometrist that the terms, "immoral", "unprofessional", and "dishonorable" are so vague and indefinite as to unconstitutionally deprive the holder of a license of his right to be fully apprised of charges against him, is without merit. Cardamon v. State Bd. of Optometric Colo., 165 Colo. 520, 441 P.2d 25 (1968).

Double notice not required. In a proceeding to revoke an optometrist's license, neither due process considerations nor the statute require double notice that license revocation proceedings have been initiated, as well as a separate notice of the hearing itself. Dixon v. State Bd. of Optometric Colo., 39 Colo. App. 200, 565 P.2d 960 (1977).

Revocation was not excessive penalty. Where a licensed optometrist permitted two unlicensed employees to practice optometry, the penalty of revocation of his license was not excessive, even though there was no proof that his actions resulted in injury to patients and there was no evidence from which it might be inferred that he was incompetent to practice optometry. Dixon v. State Bd. of Optometric Colo., 39 Colo. App. 200, 565 P.2d 960 (1977).

The supreme court could not say as a matter of law that there was an abuse of discretion by the board in revoking a license under the uncontradicted evidence of immoral and unprofessional conduct. Cardamon v. State Bd. of Optometric Colo., 165 Colo. 520, 441 P.2d 25 (1968).

Applied in People v. Lee Optical Co., 168 Colo. 345, 452 P.2d 21 (1969).

12-40-120. Use of forged or invalid certificate. It is unlawful for any person to use or attempt to use as his or her own a diploma of an optometry school or college, or a license of another person, or a forged diploma or license, or any forged or false identification.

12-40-121. Sale or forgery of degree or license. (1) It is unlawful:

(a) To sell or offer to sell a diploma conferring an optometry degree or a license granted pursuant to this article or prior optometry practice laws;

(b) To procure a diploma or license with intent that it be used as evidence of the right to practice optometry by a person other than the one upon whom it was conferred or to whom such license was granted;

(c) With fraudulent intent to alter such diploma or license or to use or attempt to use it when it is so altered.

12-40-122. Corporate practice prohibited - exceptions. The practice of optometry in a corporate capacity is prohibited, but this prohibition does not apply to a professional corporation formed pursuant to this article or to an optometry practice carried on by a nonprofit organization operating to assist indigent persons.

12-40-123. Enforcement - injunction - defense. (1) When the board has reasonable cause to believe that any person is violating any provision of this article or any lawful rule or regulation issued under this article, it may, in addition to all actions provided for in this article and without prejudice thereto, enter an order requiring such person to desist or refrain from such violation. An action may be brought on the relation of the people of the state of Colorado by the attorney general and the board to enjoin such person from engaging in or continuing such violation or from doing any act in furtherance thereof. In any such action an order or judgment may be entered awarding such preliminary or final injunction as may be deemed proper.

(2) When legal actions are instituted against a board member or authorized personnel for acts occurring while acting in their official capacities and such actions are free of malice, fraud, or willful neglect of duty, the member or employee served shall forthwith transmit any process served upon him to the attorney general who shall furnish counsel and defend against such action without cost to the board member or employee.

12-40-125. Professional service corporations, limited liability companies, and registered limited liability partnerships for the practice of optometry - definitions.

(1) Persons licensed to practice optometry by the board may form professional service corporations for the practice of optometry under the “Colorado Corporation Code”, if such corporations are organized and operated in accordance with the provisions of this section. The articles of incorporation of such corporations shall contain provisions complying with the following requirements:

(a) The name of the corporation shall contain the words “professional company” or “professional corporation” or abbreviations thereof.

(b) The corporation shall be organized solely for the purposes of conducting the practice of optometry only through persons licensed by the board to practice optometry in the state of Colorado.

(c) The corporation may exercise the powers and privileges conferred upon corporations by the laws of Colorado only in furtherance of and subject to its corporate purpose.

(d) All shareholders of the corporation shall be persons who are licensed by the board to practice optometry in the state of Colorado and who at all times own their shares in their own right. They shall be individuals who, except for illness, accident, and time spent in the armed services, on vacations, and on leaves of absence not to exceed one year, are actively engaged in the practice of optometry in the offices of the corporation.

(e) Provisions shall be made requiring any shareholder who ceases to be or for any reason is ineligible to be a shareholder to dispose of all his shares forthwith, either to the corporation or to any person having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1).

(f) The president shall be a shareholder and a director, and, to the extent possible, all other directors and officers shall be persons having the qualifications described in paragraph

(d) of this subsection (1). Lay directors and officers shall not exercise any authority whatsoever over professional matters as defined in this article or in the rules and regulations as promulgated by the board.

(g) The articles of incorporation shall provide, and all shareholders of the corporation shall agree, that all shareholders of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation or that all shareholders of the corporation shall be jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation except during periods of time when the corporation shall maintain in good standing professional liability insurance which shall meet the following minimum standards:

(I) The insurance shall insure the corporation against liability imposed upon the corporation by law in the performance of professional services for others by those officers and employees of the corporation who are licensed by the board to practice optometry.

(II) Such policies shall insure the corporation against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the acts, errors, and omissions of all nonprofessional employees.

(III) The insurance shall be in an amount for each claim of at least fifty thousand dollars multiplied by the number of persons licensed to practice optometry employed by the corporation; the policy may provide for an aggregate maximum limit of liability per year for all claims of one hundred fifty thousand dollars also multiplied by the number of persons licensed to practice optometry employed by the corporation; but no firm shall be required to carry insurance in excess of three hundred thousand dollars for each claim with an aggregate maximum limit of liability for all claims during the year of nine hundred thousand dollars.

(IV) The policy may provide that it does not apply to: Any dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured corporation or any stockholder or employee thereof; the conduct of any business enterprise, as distinguished from the practice of optometry, in which the insured corporation under this section is not permitted to engage but which nevertheless may be owned by the insured corporation or in which the insured corporation may be a partner or which may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured corporation in its own or in a fiduciary capacity including the ownership, maintenance, or use of any property in connection therewith, when not resulting from breach of professional duty, bodily injury to, or sickness, disease, or death of any person, or to injury to or destruction of any tangible property, including the loss of use thereof; and the policy may contain reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, and other usual matters.

(2) Repealed.

(3) The corporation shall do nothing which, if done by a person employed by it and licensed to practice optometry in the state of Colorado, would violate the standards of professional conduct, as provided for in this article. Any violation by the corporation of this section shall be grounds for the board to terminate or suspend its right to practice optometry.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to diminish or change the obligation of each person employed by the corporation and licensed to practice optometry in this state to conduct his practice in accordance with the standards of professional conduct provided for in this article; any person licensed by the board to practice optometry who by act or omission causes the corporation to act or fail to act in a way which violates such standards of professional conduct, including any provision of this section, shall be deemed personally responsible for such act or omission and shall be subject to discipline therefor.

(5) A professional service corporation may adopt a pension, profit-sharing (whether cash or deferred), health and accident insurance, or welfare plan for all or part of its employees including lay employees, if such plan does not require or result in the sharing of specific or identifiable fees with lay employees and if any payments made to lay employees, or into any such plan in behalf of lay employees, are based upon their compensation or length of service, or both, rather than the amount of fees or income received.

(6) Except as provided in this section, corporations shall not practice optometry.

(7) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Articles of incorporation" includes operating agreements of limited liability companies and partnership agreements of registered limited liability partnerships.

(b) "Corporation" includes a limited liability company organized under the "Colorado Limited Liability Company Act", article 80 of title 7, C.R.S., and a limited liability partnership registered under section 7-60-144 or 7-64-1002, C.R.S.

(c) "Director" and "officer" of a corporation includes a member and a manager of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

(d) "Employees" includes employees, members, and managers of a limited liability company and employees and partners of a registered limited liability partnership.

(e) "Share" includes a member's rights in a limited liability company and a partner's rights in a registered limited liability partnership.

(f) "Shareholder" includes a member of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

12-40-126. Financial responsibility - rules. (1) Every optometrist who provides health care services within the state of Colorado shall establish financial responsibility as follows:

(a) By maintaining commercial professional liability insurance coverage with an insurance company authorized to do business in this state in a minimum indemnity amount of one million dollars per incident and three million dollars annual aggregate per year; or

(b) By maintaining a surety bond in a form acceptable to the commissioner of insurance in the amounts set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1); or

(c) By depositing cash or cash equivalents as security with the commissioner of insurance in the amounts set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1); or

(d) By providing any other security acceptable to the commissioner of insurance, which may include approved plans of self-insurance.

(2) (a) The board may, by rule, establish lesser financial responsibility standards than those required in subsection (1) of this section for classes of license holders who have an inactive license or who render limited or occasional optometry services because of administrative or other nonclinical duties, partial or complete retirement, or for other reasons that render the limits provided in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section unreasonable or unattainable.

(b) Nothing in this section precludes or otherwise prohibits a licensed optometrist from rendering appropriate patient care on an occasional basis when the circumstances surrounding the need for such care so warrant.

(3) Each optometrist, as a condition of receiving and maintaining an active license to provide optometry services in this state, shall furnish the board evidence of compliance with subsection (1) of this section. No license shall be issued or renewed unless such evidence of compliance has been furnished.

(4) Notwithstanding the amounts specified in subsection (1) of this section, if the board receives two or more reports concerning any optometrist pursuant to section 12-40-127 during any one-year period, the minimum financial responsibility requirement shall be two times the amount specified in subsection (1) of this section. However, upon motion filed by the optometrist and the presentation of sufficient evidence to the board that one or more such reports involved an action or claim which did not represent any substantial failure to adhere to accepted professional standards of care, the board may reduce such additional amount to that which would be fair and conscionable.

(5) Repealed.

Editor’s note: Amendments to subsection (2) in sections 8 and 26 of Senate Bill 11-094 were harmonized.

12-40-127. Judgments and settlements - reporting. Any final judgment, settlement, or arbitration award against an optometrist for malpractice shall be reported within fourteen days by such optometrist’s malpractice insurance carrier in accordance with section 10-1-125, C.R.S., or by such optometrist if no commercial malpractice insurance coverage is involved to the board for review, investigation, and, where appropriate, disciplinary or other action. Any optometrist who knowingly fails to report as required by this section shall be subject to a civil penalty of not more than two thousand five hundred dollars. Such penalty shall be determined and collected in an action brought by the board in the district court in the city and county of Denver, which court shall have exclusive jurisdiction in such matters. All penalties collected pursuant to this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the general fund.

12-40.5-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that:

(a) Occupational therapy services are provided for the purpose of promoting health and wellness to those who have or are at risk for developing an illness, injury, disease, disorder, condition, impairment, disability, activity limitation, or participation restriction;

(b) Occupational therapy addresses the physical, cognitive, psychosocial, sensory, and other aspects of performance in a variety of contexts to support engagement in everyday life activities that affect health, well-being, and quality of life;

(c) This act is necessary to:

(I) Safeguard the public health, safety, and welfare; and

(II) Protect the public from incompetent, unethical, or unauthorized persons.

(2) The general assembly further determines that it is the purpose of this act to regulate persons who are representing themselves as occupational therapists and who are performing services that constitute occupational therapy.

12-40.5-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Activities of daily living” means activities that are oriented toward taking care of one’s own body, such as bathing, showering, bowel and bladder management, dressing, eating, feeding, functional mobility, personal device care, personal hygiene and grooming, sexual activity, sleep, rest, and toilet hygiene.

(2) “Aide” means a person who is not registered by the director and who provides supportive services to occupational therapists and occupational therapy assistants. An aide shall function only under the guidance, responsibility, and supervision of a registered occupational therapist. The aide shall perform only specifically selected tasks for which the aide has been trained and has demonstrated competence to the registered occupational therapist or occupational therapy assistant.

(3) “Department” means the department of regulatory agencies.

(4) “Director” means the director of the division of professions and occupations.

(5) “Division” means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies created in section 24-34-102, C.R.S.

(6) “Instrumental activities of daily living” means activities that are oriented toward interacting with the environment and that may be complex. These activities are generally optional in nature and may be delegated to another person. “Instrumental activities of daily living” include care of others, care of pets, child-rearing, communication device use, community mobility, financial management, health management and maintenance, home establishment and management, meal preparation and cleanup, safety procedures and emergency responses, and shopping.

(7) “Low vision rehabilitation services” means the evaluation, diagnosis, management, and care of the low vision patient, including low vision rehabilitation therapy, education, and interdisciplinary consultation.

(8) “Occupational therapist” means a person registered to practice occupational therapy under this article.

(9) “Occupational therapy” means the therapeutic use of everyday life activities with individuals or groups for the purpose of participation in roles and situations in home, school, workplace, community, and other settings. The practice of occupational therapy includes:

(a) Methods or strategies selected to direct the process of interventions such as:

(I) Establishment, remediation, or restoration of a skill or ability that has not yet developed or is impaired;

(II) Compensation, modification, or adaptation of an activity or environment to enhance performance;

(III) Maintenance and enhancement of capabilities without which performance of everyday life activities would decline;

(IV) Promotion of health and wellness to enable or enhance performance in everyday life activities; and

- (V) Prevention of barriers to performance, including disability prevention;
- (b) Evaluation of factors affecting activities of daily living, instrumental activities of daily living, education, work, play, leisure, and social participation, including:
 - (I) Client factors, including body functions such as neuromuscular, sensory, visual, perceptual, and cognitive functions, and body structures such as cardiovascular, digestive, integumentary, and genitourinary systems;
 - (II) Habits, routines, roles, and behavior patterns;
 - (III) Cultural, physical, environmental, social, and spiritual contexts and activity demands that affect performance; and
 - (IV) Performance skills, including motor, process, and communication and interaction skills;
- (c) Interventions and procedures to promote or enhance safety and performance in activities of daily living, instrumental activities of daily living, education, work, play, leisure, and social participation, including:
 - (I) Therapeutic use of occupations, exercises, and activities;
 - (II) Training in self-care, self-management, home management, and community and work reintegration;
 - (III) Development, remediation, or compensation of physical, cognitive, neuromuscular, and sensory functions and behavioral skills;
 - (IV) Therapeutic use of self, including a person's personality, insights, perceptions, and judgments, as part of the therapeutic process;
 - (V) Education and training of individuals, including family members, caregivers, and others;
 - (VI) Care coordination, case management, and transition services;
 - (VII) Consultative services to groups, programs, organizations, or communities;
 - (VIII) Modification of environments such as home, work, school, or community and adaptation of processes, including the application of ergonomic principles;
 - (IX) Assessment, design, fabrication, application, fitting, and training in assistive technology; adaptive devices, excluding glasses, contact lenses, or other prescriptive devices to correct vision unless prescribed by an optometrist; and orthotic devices and training in the use of prosthetic devices;
 - (X) Assessment, recommendation, and training in techniques to enhance functional mobility, including wheelchair management;
 - (XI) Driver rehabilitation and community mobility;
 - (XII) Management of feeding, eating, and swallowing to enable eating and feeding performance; and
 - (XIII) Application of physical agent modalities and therapeutic procedures such as wound management; techniques to enhance sensory, perceptual, and cognitive processing; and manual techniques to enhance performance skills.
- (10) "Occupational therapy assistant" means a person who has successfully completed an occupational therapy assistant program approved by the department to assist in the practice of occupational therapy under the supervision of an occupational therapist.
- (11) "Registrant" means an occupational therapist registered pursuant to this article.
- (12) "Supervision" means the giving of aid, directions, and instructions that are adequate to ensure the safety and welfare of clients during the provision of occupational therapy by the occupational therapist designated as the supervisor. Responsible direction and supervision by the occupational therapist shall include consideration of factors such as level of skill, the establishment of service competency, experience, work setting demands, the complexity and stability of the client population, and other factors. Supervision is a collaborative process for responsible, periodic review and inspection of all aspects of occupational therapy services and the occupational therapist is legally accountable for occupational therapy services provided by the occupational therapy assistant and the aide.
- (13) "Vision therapy services" means the assessment, diagnosis, treatment, and management of a patient with vision therapy, visual training, visual rehabilitation, orthoptics, or eye exercises.

12-40.5-104. Use of titles restricted. Only a person registered as an occupational therapist may use the titles “occupational therapist registered”, “registered occupational therapist”, “occupational therapist”, or “doctorate of occupational therapy” or use the abbreviation “O.T.”, “O.T.D.”, or “O.T.R.”, or any other generally accepted terms, letters, or figures that indicate that the person is an occupational therapist.

12-40.5-105. Registration required. Except as otherwise provided in this article, a person shall not practice occupational therapy or represent himself or herself as being able to practice occupational therapy in this state without possessing a valid registration issued by the director in accordance with this article and any rules adopted under this article.

12-40.5-106. Registration - application - qualifications - rules. (1) Educational and experiential requirements. Every applicant for a registration as an occupational therapist shall have:

(a) Successfully completed the academic requirements of an educational program for occupational therapists that is offered by an institution of higher education and accredited by a national, regional, or state agency recognized by the United States secretary of education, or another such program accredited thereby and approved by the director.

(b) Successfully completed a minimum period of supervised fieldwork experience required by the recognized educational institution where the applicant met the academic requirements described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1). The minimum period of fieldwork experience for an occupational therapist is twenty-four weeks of supervised fieldwork experience or satisfaction of any generally recognized past standards that identified minimum fieldwork requirements at the time of graduation.

(2) Application. (a) When an applicant has fulfilled the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the applicant may apply for examination and registration upon payment of a fee in an amount determined by the director. A person who fails an examination may apply for reexamination upon payment of a fee in an amount determined by the director.

(b) The application shall be in the form and manner designated by the director.

(3) Examination. Each applicant shall pass a nationally recognized examination approved by the director. The examination shall measure the minimum level of competence necessary for consumer protection. The director may contract for assistance in creating and administering the examination.

(4) Registration. When an applicant has fulfilled the requirements of subsections (1) to (3) of this section, the director shall issue a registration to the applicant; except that the director may deny a registration if the applicant has committed any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-40.5-110.

(5) Registration by endorsement. (a) An applicant for registration by endorsement shall file an application and pay a fee as prescribed by the director and shall hold a current, valid license or registration in a jurisdiction that requires qualifications substantially equivalent to those required for registration by subsection (1) of this section.

(b) An applicant for registration shall submit with the application verification that the applicant has actively practiced for a period of time determined by rules of the director or otherwise maintained continued competency as determined by the director.

(c) Upon receipt of all documents required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (5), the director shall review the application and make a determination of the applicant's qualification to be registered by endorsement.

(d) The director may deny the registration if the applicant has committed an act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-40.5-110.

(6) Registration renewal. (a) A registrant shall be required to renew the registration issued under this article according to a schedule of renewal dates established by the director. The registrant shall submit an application in the form and manner designated by the director and shall pay a renewal fee in an amount determined by the director.

(b) Registrations shall be renewed or reinstated in accordance with the schedule established by the director, and such renewal or reinstatement shall be granted pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a registrant fails to renew his or her registration pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the registration shall expire. Any person whose registration has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S., for reinstatement.

(7) Fees. All fees collected under this article shall be determined, collected, and appropriated in the same manner as set forth in section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and periodically adjusted in accordance with section 24-75-402, C.R.S.

12-40.5-107. Supervision of occupational therapy assistants. An occupational therapy assistant may practice only under the supervision of an occupational therapist who is registered to practice occupational therapy in this state. The occupational therapist is responsible for occupational therapy evaluation, appropriate reassessment, treatment planning, and interventions based on standard professional guidelines. Supervision of an occupational therapy assistant by an occupational therapist is a shared responsibility. The supervising occupational therapist and the supervised occupational therapy assistant have legal and ethical responsibility for ongoing management of supervision, including providing, requesting, giving, or obtaining supervision. The frequency, level, and nature of supervision shall be determined by the supervising occupational therapist with input from the occupational therapy assistant, and shall be based on a variety of factors, including the clients' required level of care, the treatment plan, and the experience and pertinent skills of the occupational therapy assistant.

12-40.5-108. Scope of article - exclusions. (1) This article shall not prevent or restrict the practice, services, or activities of:

(a) A person licensed or otherwise regulated in this state by any other law from engaging in his or her profession or occupation as defined in the article under which he or she is licensed;

(b) A person pursuing a course of study leading to a degree in occupational therapy at an educational institution with an accredited occupational therapy program if that person is designated by a title that clearly indicates his or her status as a student and if he or she acts under appropriate instruction and supervision;

(c) A person fulfilling the supervised fieldwork experience requirements of section 12-40.5-106 (1) if the experience constitutes a part of the experience necessary to meet the requirement of section 12-40.5-106 (1) and the person acts under appropriate supervision; or

(d) The practice of occupational therapy in this state by any legally qualified occupational therapist from another state or country when providing services on behalf of a temporarily absent occupational therapist registered in this state, so long as the unregistered occupational therapist is acting in accordance with rules established by the director. The unregistered practice shall not be of more than four weeks' duration, and no person shall be authorized by the director to undertake such practice more than once in any twelve-month period.

12-40.5-110. Grounds for discipline - disciplinary proceedings - judicial review.

(1) The director may take disciplinary action against a registrant if the director finds that the registrant has represented himself or herself as a registered occupational therapist after the expiration, suspension, or revocation of his or her registration.

(2) The director may revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to renew a registration, or issue a cease-and-desist order to a registrant in accordance with this section upon proof that the registrant:

(a) Has engaged in a sexual act with a person receiving services while a therapeutic relationship existed or within six months immediately following termination of the therapeutic relationship. For the purposes of this paragraph (a):

(I) "Sexual act" means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration, as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(II) "Therapeutic relationship" means the period beginning with the initial evaluation and ending upon the written termination of treatment.

(b) Has falsified information in an application or has attempted to obtain or has obtained a registration by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(c) Is an excessive or habitual user or abuser of alcohol or habit-forming drugs or is a habitual user of a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102, C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects; except that the director has the discretion not to discipline the registrant if he or she is participating in good faith in a program to end such use or abuse that the director has approved;

(d) Has a physical or mental condition or disability that renders the registrant unable to provide occupational therapy services with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health or safety of individuals receiving services;

(e) Has violated this article or aided or abetted or knowingly permitted any person to violate this article, a rule adopted under this article, or any lawful order of the director;

(f) Had a license or registration suspended or revoked for actions that are a violation of this act;

(g) Has been convicted of or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or committed an act specified in section 12-40.5-111. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of the conviction or plea shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, the director shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(h) Has fraudulently obtained, furnished, or sold any occupational therapy diploma, certificate, registration, renewal of registration, or record or aided or abetted such act;

(i) Has failed to notify the director of the suspension or revocation of the person's past or currently held license, certificate, or registration required to practice occupational therapy in this or any other jurisdiction;

(j) Has refused to submit to a physical or mental examination when ordered by the director pursuant to section 12-40.5-114; or

(k) Has otherwise violated any provision of this article or lawful order or rule of the director.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the director need not find that the actions that are grounds for discipline were willful but may consider whether such actions were willful when determining the nature of disciplinary sanctions to be imposed.

(4) (a) The director may commence a proceeding to discipline a registrant when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that the registrant has committed an act enumerated in this section or has violated a lawful order or rule of the director.

(b) In any proceeding under this section, the director may accept as evidence of grounds for disciplinary action any disciplinary action taken against a licensee or registrant in another jurisdiction if the violation that prompted the disciplinary action in the other jurisdiction would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article.

(5) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to that article by the director or by an administrative law judge, at the director's discretion. The director has the authority to exercise all powers and duties conferred by this article during the disciplinary proceedings.

(6) (a) No later than thirty days following the date of the director's action, an occupational therapist disciplined under this section shall be notified by the director, by a certified letter to the most recent address provided to the director by the occupational therapist, of the action taken, the specific charges giving rise to the action, and the occupational therapist's right to request a hearing on the action taken.

(b) Within thirty days after notification is sent by the director, the occupational therapist may file a written request with the director for a hearing on the action taken. Upon receipt of the request the director shall grant a hearing to the occupational therapist. If the occupational therapist fails to file a written request for a hearing within thirty days, the action of the director shall be final on that date.

(c) Failure of the occupational therapist to appear at the hearing without good cause shall be deemed a withdrawal of his or her request for a hearing, and the director's action shall be final on that date. Failure, without good cause, of the director to appear at the hearing shall be deemed cause to dismiss the proceeding.

(7) (a) The director may request the attorney general to seek an injunction, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to enjoin a person from committing an act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this paragraph (a), the attorney general shall not be required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(b) (I) In accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and this article, the director is authorized to investigate, hold hearings, and gather evidence in all matters related to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the director.

(II) In order to aid the director in any hearing or investigation instituted pursuant to this section, the director or an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (7) is authorized to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant records, papers, books, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter before the director or an administrative law judge.

(III) Upon failure of any witness or registrant to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or registrant resides or conducts business, upon application by the director with notice to the subpoenaed person or registrant, may issue to the person or registrant an order requiring that person or registrant to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. If the person or registrant fails to obey the order of the court, the person or registrant may be held in contempt of court.

(c) The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct hearings, take evidence, make findings, and report such findings to the director.

(8) (a) The director, the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts.

(b) A person participating in good faith in making a complaint or report or in an investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result by reason of the participation.

(9) A final action of the director is subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(10) An employer of an occupational therapist shall report to the director any disciplinary action taken against the occupational therapist or the resignation of the occupational therapist in lieu of disciplinary action for conduct that violates this article.

(11) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(12) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required registration, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(13) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other provision of this article, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to the person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unregistered practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (13) shall be notified promptly by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. The notice may be served on the person against whom the order has been issued by personal service, by first-class, postage prepaid United States mail, or in another manner as may be practicable. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall constitute notice of the order to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be held no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (13). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing be held later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unregistered practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (13), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(14) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an unregistered act or practice; an act or practice constituting a violation of this article, a rule promulgated pursuant to this article, or an order issued pursuant to this article; or an act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with the person.

(15) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

12-40.5-111. Unauthorized practice - penalties. A person who practices or offers or attempts to practice occupational therapy without an active registration issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense. For the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

12-40.5-114. Mental and physical examination of registrants. (1) If the director has reasonable cause to believe that a registrant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, the director may order the registrant to take a mental or physical examination administered by a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director. Except where due to circumstances beyond the registrant's control, if the registrant fails or refuses to undergo a mental or physical examination, the director may suspend the registrant's registration until the director has made a determination of the registrant's fitness to practice. The director shall proceed with an order for examination and shall make his or her determination in a timely manner.

(2) An order requiring a registrant to undergo a mental or physical examination shall contain the basis of the director's reasonable cause to believe that the registrant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For purposes of a disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article, the registrant shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's or licensed health care professional's testimony or examination reports on the grounds that they are privileged communication.

- (3) The registrant may submit to the director testimony or examination reports from a physician chosen by the registrant and pertaining to any condition that the director has alleged may preclude the registrant from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. The testimony and reports submitted by the registrant may be considered by the director in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the physician designated by the director.
- (4) The results of a mental or physical examination ordered by the director shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the director and shall not be deemed a public record or made available to the public.

PART 1

PHYSICAL THERAPISTS

12-41-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Physical Therapy Practice Act".

12-41-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds and declares that the practice of physical therapy by any person who does not possess a valid license issued under the provisions of this article is inimical to the general public welfare. It is not, however, the intent of this article to restrict the practice of any person duly licensed under other laws of this state from practicing within such person's scope of competency and authority under such laws.

(1) "Accredited physical therapy program" means a program of instruction in physical therapy which is accredited as set forth in section 12-41-107 (1) (a) (II).

(1.5) "Board" means the physical therapy board created in section 12-41-103.3.

(2) "Director" means the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(3) "Executive director" means the executive director of the department of regulatory agencies.

(4) Repealed.

(5) "Physical therapist" means a person who is licensed to practice physical therapy. The terms "physiotherapist" and "physical therapy technician" are synonymous with the term "physical therapist".

(5.5) “Physical therapist assistant” means a person who is required to be certified under part 2 of this article and who assists a physical therapist in selected components of physical therapy.

(6) (a) (I) “Physical therapy” means the examination, treatment, or instruction of patients and clients to detect, assess, prevent, correct, alleviate, or limit physical disability, movement dysfunction, bodily malfunction, or pain from injury, disease, and other bodily conditions.

(II) For purposes of this article “physical therapy” includes:

(A) The administration, evaluation, and interpretation of tests and measurements of bodily functions and structures;

(B) The planning, administration, evaluation, and modification of treatment and instruction;

(C) The use of physical agents, measures, activities, and devices for preventive and therapeutic purposes, subject to the requirements of section 12-41-113;

(D) The administration of topical and aerosol medications consistent with the scope of physical therapy practice subject to the requirements of section 12-41-113;

(E) The provision of consultative, educational, and other advisory services for the purpose of reducing the incidence and severity of physical disability, movement dysfunction, bodily malfunction, and pain; and

(F) General wound care, including the assessment and management of skin lesions, surgical incisions, open wounds, and areas of potential skin breakdown in order to maintain or restore the integumentary system.

(b) For the purposes of subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (6):

(I) “Physical agents” includes, but is not limited to, heat, cold, water, air, sound, light, compression, electricity, and electromagnetic energy.

(II) (A) “Physical measures, activities, and devices” includes, but is not limited to, resistive, active, and passive exercise, with or without devices; joint mobilization; mechanical stimulation; biofeedback; postural drainage; traction; positioning; massage; splinting; training in locomotion; other functional activities, with or without assistive devices; and correction of posture, body mechanics, and gait.

(B) “Biofeedback”, as used in this subparagraph (II), means the use of monitoring instruments by a physical therapist to detect and amplify internal physiological processes for the purpose of neuromuscular rehabilitation.

(III) “Tests and measurements” includes, but is not limited to, tests of muscle strength, force, endurance, and tone; reflexes and automatic reactions; movement skill and accuracy; joint motion, mobility, and stability; sensation and perception; peripheral nerve integrity; locomotor skill, stability, and endurance; activities of daily living; cardiac, pulmonary, and vascular functions; fit, function, and comfort of prosthetic, orthotic, and other assistive devices; posture and body mechanics; limb length, circumference, and volume; thoracic excursion and breathing patterns; vital signs; nature and locus of pain and conditions under which pain varies; photosensitivity; and physical home and work environments.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 12-41-102 as it existed prior to 1991.

12-41-103.3. Physical therapy board - created - repeal. (1) (a) The state physical therapy board is hereby created as the agency for regulation of the practice of physical therapy in this state and to carry out the purposes of this article. The board consists of five physical therapist members and two members from the public at large, each member to be appointed by the governor by no later than January 1, 2012, for terms of four years. A member shall not serve more than two consecutive terms of four years. The governor shall give due consideration to having a geographic, political, urban, and rural balance among the board members.

(b) Each member of the board receives the compensation provided for in section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S.

(c) The board exercises its powers and performs its duties and functions under the division of professions and occupations as if the powers, duties, and functions were transferred to the division by a type 1 transfer, as defined in the "Administrative Organization Act of 1968", article 1 of title 24, C.R.S. The division shall provide necessary management support to the board under section 24-34-102, C.R.S.

(d) (I) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the initial terms of the physical therapist members are as follows:

(A) One member serves a two-year term:

(B) Two members serve three-year terms; and

(C) Two members serve four-year terms.

(II) The initial terms for the public members are as follows:

(A) One member serves a two-year term; and

(B) One member serves a four-year term.

(III) This paragraph (d) is repealed, effective September 1, 2016.

(2) A person is qualified to be appointed to the board if the person:

(a) Is a legal resident of Colorado; and

(b) Is currently licensed in good standing, with no restrictions, as a physical therapist and actively engaged in the practice of physical therapy in this state for at least five years preceding his or her appointment, if fulfilling the position of physical therapist on the board.

(3) Should a vacancy occur in any board membership before the expiration of the member's term, the governor shall fill such vacancy by appointment for the remainder of the term in the same manner as in the case of original appointments. A member of the board shall remain on the board until his or her successor has been appointed. A member may be removed by the governor for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

12-41-103.6. Powers and duties of board - reports - publications - rules - repeal.

(1) (a) The board shall administer and enforce this article and rules adopted under this article.

(b) The director retains the authority granted to the board until a board is constituted and rules are promulgated. The director's rules remain in effect until repealed by the director. This paragraph (b) is repealed, effective July 1, 2013.

(2) In addition to any other powers and duties given the board by this article, the board has the following powers and duties:

(a) To evaluate the qualifications of applicants for licensure, administer examinations, issue and renew licenses and permits authorized under this article, and to take disciplinary actions authorized under this article;

(b) To adopt all reasonable and necessary rules for the administration and enforcement of this article, including rules regarding:

(I) The supervision of unlicensed persons by physical therapists, taking into account the education and training of the unlicensed individuals; and

(II) Physical therapy of animals, including, without limitation, educational and clinical requirements for the performance of physical therapy of animals and the procedure for handling complaints to the department of regulatory agencies regarding physical therapy of animals. In adopting such rules, the board shall consult with the state board of veterinary medicine established by section 12-64-105.

(c) (I) To conduct hearings upon charges for discipline of a licensee and cause the prosecution and enjoinder of all persons violating this article:

(II) (A) To administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(B) Upon failure of a witness to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. The court may punish a failure to obey its order as a contempt of court.

(d) To maintain a register listing the name of every physical therapist, including the contact address, last-known place of residence, and the license number of each licensee; and

(e) To promote consumer protection and consumer education by such means as the board finds appropriate.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-41-125 as it existed prior to 2011.

12-41-104. Use of titles restricted. A person licensed as a physical therapist may use the title “physical therapist” or the letters “P.T.” or any other generally accepted terms, letters, or figures which indicate that the person is a physical therapist. No other person shall be so designated or shall use the terms “physical therapist”, “licensed physical therapist”, “physiotherapist”, or “physical therapy technician”, or the letters “P.T.” or “L.P.T.”.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-41-109 as it existed prior to 1991.

12-41-107. Licensure by examination. (1) Every applicant for a license by examination shall:

(a) Successfully complete a physical therapy program:

(I) That is accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency; or

(II) That the board has determined to be substantially equivalent. The general assembly intends that this determination be liberally construed to ensure qualified applicants seeking licensure under this article the right to take the qualifying examination. The general assembly does not intend for technical barriers to be used to deny such applicants the right to take the examination.

(b) Pass a written examination in accordance with subsection (2) of this section that is:

(I) Approved by the board; and

(II) A national examination accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency;

(c) Submit an application in the form and manner designated by the director; and

(d) Pay a fee in an amount determined by the director.

(2) The board may refuse to permit an applicant to take the examination if the application is incomplete, if the applicant is not qualified to sit for the examination, or if the applicant has committed any act which would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-115.

(3) When the applicant has fulfilled all the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the board shall issue a license to the applicant; except that the board may deny the license if the applicant has committed an act which would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-115.

12-41-109. Licensure by endorsement. (1) An applicant for licensure by endorsement shall:

(a) Possess a valid license in good standing from another state or territory of the United States;

(b) Submit an application in the form and manner designated by the director; and

(c) Pay a fee in an amount determined by the director.

(2) Upon receipt of all documents required by subsection (1) of this section, the director shall review the application and determine if the applicant is qualified to be licensed by endorsement.

(3) The board shall issue a license if the applicant fulfills the requirements of subsection (1) of this section and meets any one of the following qualifying standards enumerated in paragraphs (a) to (c) of this subsection (3):

(a) The applicant graduated from an accredited program within the past two years and passed an examination substantially equivalent to that specified in section 12-41-107 (2);

(b) The applicant has practiced as a licensed physical therapist for at least two of the five years immediately preceding the date of the application;

(c) The applicant has not practiced as a licensed physical therapist at least two of the last five years immediately preceding the date of the receipt of the application, and:

(I) The applicant passed an examination in another jurisdiction that is substantially equivalent to the examination specified in section 12-41-107 (1) (b), and has demonstrated competency through successful completion of an internship or demonstrated competency as a physical therapist by fulfilling the requirements established by rules of the board.

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2010, (HB 10-1175), ch. 46, p. 175, § 6, effective July 1, 2011.)

(5) The board may deny a license if the applicant has committed an act which would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-115.

12-41-111. Licensing of foreign-trained applicants. (1) Every foreign-trained applicant for licensing shall:

(a) Have received education and training in physical therapy substantially equivalent to the education and training required at accredited physical therapy programs in the United States;

(b) Possess an active, valid license in good standing or other authorization to practice physical therapy from an appropriate authority in the country where the foreign-trained applicant is practicing or has practiced;

(c) Pass a written examination approved by the board in accordance with section 12-41-107 (1) (b);

(d) Submit an application in the form and manner designated by the director; and

(e) Pay an application fee in an amount determined by the director.

(2) Upon receipt of all documents required by subsection (1) of this section, the director shall review the application and determine if the applicant is qualified to be licensed.

(3) When the applicant has fulfilled all requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the board shall issue a license to the applicant; except that the board may deny the application if the applicant has committed an act which would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-115.

12-41-112. Expiration and renewal of licenses. An applicant for licensure shall pay license, renewal, and reinstatement fees established by the director in the same manner as is authorized in section 24-34-105, C.R.S. A licensee shall renew a license in accordance with a schedule established by the director pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement under section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew a license pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the license expires. A person whose license has expired is subject to the penalties provided in this article and section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-41-116 as it existed prior to 1991.

12-41-112.5. Inactive license - rules. A physical therapist may request that the board inactivate or activate the physical therapist's license. The board shall promulgate rules governing the activation and inactivation of licenses. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the board's rules may limit the applicability of statutory requirements for maintaining professional liability insurance and continuing professional competence for a licensee whose license is currently inactive. The board need not reactivate an inactive license if the physical therapist has committed any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-115. A physical therapist whose license is currently inactive shall not practice physical therapy.

12-41-113. Special practice authorities and requirements - rules. (1) Supervising persons not licensed as a physical therapist. A physical therapist may supervise up to four individuals at one time who are not physical therapists, including certified nurse aides, to assist in the therapist's clinical practice; except that this limit does not include student physical therapists and student physical therapist assistants supervised by a physical therapist for educational purposes. The board shall promulgate rules governing the required supervision. This subsection (1) does not affect or limit the independent practice or judgment of other professions regulated under this title. For purposes of this subsection (1), a "physical therapist assistant" means a person certified under part 2 of this article.

(2) Administration of medications. Physical therapists or physical therapist assistants under the direct supervision of a physical therapist may administer topical and aerosol medications when they are consistent with the scope of physical therapy practice and when any such medication is prescribed by a licensed health care practitioner who is authorized to prescribe such medication. A prescription or order shall be required for each such administration.

(3) Wound debridement. A physical therapist is authorized to perform wound debridement under a physician's order when such debridement is consistent with the scope of physical therapy practice. The performance of such wound debridement shall not be deemed to violate the prohibition against performing surgery pursuant to section 12-41-105 (1) (a).

(4) Physical therapy of animals. (a) A physical therapist is authorized to perform physical therapy of animals when such physical therapy of animals is consistent with the scope of physical therapy practice. In recognition of the special authority granted by this subsection (4), the performance of physical therapy of animals in accordance with this subsection (4) shall not constitute the practice of veterinary medicine, as defined in section 12-64-103, nor shall it be deemed a violation of section 12-64-104.

(b) In recognition of the emerging field of physical therapy of animals, before commencing physical therapy of an animal, a physical therapist shall obtain veterinary medical clearance of the animal by a veterinarian licensed under article 64 of this title.

12-41-114. Scope of article - exclusions. (1) Nothing contained in this article prohibits:

(a) The practice of physical therapy by students enrolled in an accredited physical therapy or physical therapist assistant program and performing under the direction and immediate supervision of a physical therapist currently licensed in this state;

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2001, p. 1254, § 9, effective July 1, 2001.)

(c) The practice of physical therapy in this state by any legally qualified physical therapist from another state or country whose employment requires such physical therapist to accompany and care for a patient temporarily residing in this state, but such physical therapist shall not provide physical therapy services for any other individuals nor shall such person represent or hold himself out as a physical therapist licensed to practice in this state;

(d) The administration of massage, external baths, or exercise that is not a part of a physical therapy regimen;

(e) Any person registered, certified, or licensed in this state under any other law from engaging in the practice for which such person is registered, certified, or licensed;

(f) The practice of physical therapy in this state by a legally qualified physical therapist from another state or country when providing services in the absence of a physical therapist licensed in this state, so long as the unlicensed physical therapist is acting in accordance with rules established by the board. A person shall not practice without a license under this paragraph (f) for more than four weeks' duration or more than once in any twelve-month period.

(g) The practice of physical therapy in this state by a legally qualified physical therapist from another state or country for the purpose of participating in an educational program of not more than sixteen weeks' duration;

(h) The provision of physical therapy services in this state by an individual from another country who is engaged in a physical therapy related educational program if the program is sponsored by an institution, agency, or individual approved by the board, the program is under the direction and supervision of a physical therapist licensed in this state, and the program does not exceed twelve consecutive months' duration without the specific approval of the board;

(i) The practice of any physical therapist licensed in this state or any other state or territory of the United States who is employed by the United States government or any bureau, division, or agency thereof while within the course and scope of the physical therapist's official duties.

12-41-114.5. Professional liability insurance required - rules. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a person shall not practice physical therapy unless the person purchases and maintains professional liability insurance of at least one million dollars per claim and at least three million dollars per year for all claims unless the corporation that employs the physical therapist maintains the insurance required by section 12-41-124 if the insurance covers at least one million dollars per claim and at least three million dollars per year.

(2) The board may by rule establish lesser financial responsibility standards for a class of physical therapists whose practice does not require the level of public protection established by subsection (1) of this section. The board shall not establish greater financial responsibility standards than those established in subsection (1) of this section.

(3) This section does not apply to a physical therapist who is a public employee acting within the course and scope of the public employee's duties and who is granted immunity under the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of title 24, C.R.S.

12-41-114.6. Continuing professional competency - rules. (1) (a) A licensed physical therapist shall maintain continuing professional competency to practice.

(b) The board shall adopt rules establishing a continuing professional competency program that includes, at a minimum, the following elements:

(I) A self-assessment of the knowledge and skills of a physical therapist seeking to renew or reinstate a license;

(II) Development, execution, and documentation of a learning plan based on the assessment; and

(III) Periodic demonstration of knowledge and skills through documentation of activities necessary to ensure at least minimal ability to safely practice the profession; except that a licensed physical therapist need not retake any examination required by section 12-41-107 for initial licensure.

(c) The board shall establish that a licensed physical therapist satisfies the continuing competency requirements of this section if the physical therapist meets the continuing professional competency requirements of one of the following entities:

(I) A state department, including continuing professional competency requirements imposed through a contractual arrangement with a provider;

(II) An accrediting body recognized by the board; or

(III) An entity approved by the board.

(d) (I) After the program is established, a licensed physical therapist shall satisfy the requirements of the program in order to renew or reinstate a license to practice physical therapy.

(II) The requirements of this section apply to individual licensed physical therapists, and nothing in this section requires a person who employs or contracts with a physical therapist to comply with the requirements of this section.

(2) Records of assessments or other documentation developed or submitted in connection with the continuing professional competency program are confidential and not subject to inspection by the public or discovery in connection with a civil action against a licensed physical therapist. A person or the board shall not use the records or documents unless used by the board to determine whether a licensed physical therapist is maintaining continuing professional competency to engage in the profession.

(3) As used in this section, "continuing professional competency" means the ongoing ability of a physical therapist to learn, integrate, and apply the knowledge, skill, and judgment to practice as a physical therapist according to generally accepted standards and professional ethical standards.

12-41-115. Grounds for disciplinary action. (1) The board may take disciplinary action in accordance with section 12-41-116 against a person who has:

(a) Committed any act which does not meet generally accepted standards of physical therapy practice or failed to perform an act necessary to meet generally accepted standards of physical therapy practice;

(b) Engaged in a sexual act with a patient while a patient-physical therapist relationship exists. For the purposes of this paragraph (b), "patient-physical therapist relationship" means that period of time beginning with the initial evaluation through the termination of treatment. For the purposes of this paragraph (b), "sexual act" means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(c) Failed to refer a patient to the appropriate licensed health care professional when the services required by the patient are beyond the level of competence of the physical therapist or beyond the scope of physical therapy practice;

(d) Abandoned a patient by any means, including failure to provide a referral to another physical therapist or to another appropriate health care professional when the referral was necessary to meet generally accepted standards of physical therapy care;

(e) Failed to provide adequate or proper supervision when utilizing unlicensed persons in a physical therapy practice;

(f) Failed to make essential entries on patient records or falsified or made incorrect entries of an essential nature on patient records;

(g) Engaged in any of the following activities and practices: Ordering or performance, without clinical justification, of demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies; the administration, without clinical justification, of treatment that is demonstrably unnecessary; or ordering or performing, without clinical justification, any service, X ray, or treatment that is contrary to recognized standards of the practice of physical therapy as interpreted by the board;

(h) (I) Committed abuse of health insurance as set forth in section 18-13-119 (3), C.R.S.; or

(II) Advertised through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise that the licensee will perform any act prohibited by section 18-13-119 (3), C.R.S.;

(i) Committed a fraudulent insurance act, as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(j) Offered, given, or received commissions, rebates, or other forms of remuneration for the referral of clients; except that a licensee may pay an independent advertising or marketing agent compensation for advertising or marketing services rendered by an agent on the licensee's behalf, including compensation for referrals of clients identified through such services on a per-client basis;

(k) Falsified information in any application or attempted to obtain or obtained a license by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(l) Engaged in the habitual or excessive use or abuse of alcohol, a habit-forming drug, or a controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(m) (I) Failed to notify the board, as required by section 12-41-118.5, of a physical or mental illness or condition that impacts the licensee's ability to perform physical therapy with reasonable skill and safety to patients;

(II) Failed to act within the limitations created by a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the licensee unable to perform physical therapy with reasonable skill and safety to the patient; or

(III) Failed to comply with the limitations agreed to under a confidential agreement entered pursuant to section 12-41-118.5;

(n) Refused to submit to a physical or mental examination when so ordered by the board pursuant to section 12-41-118;

(o) Failed to notify the board in writing of the entry of a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction against the licensee for malpractice of physical therapy or a settlement by the licensee in response to charges or allegations of malpractice of physical therapy, which notice must be given within ninety days after the entry of judgment or settlement and, in the case of a judgment, must contain the name of the court, the case number, and the names of all parties to the action;

(p) Violated or aided or abetted a violation of this article, a rule adopted under this article, or a lawful order of the board;

(q) Been convicted of, pled guilty, or pled nolo contendere to any crime related to the licensee's practice of physical therapy or a felony or committed an act specified in section 12-41-121. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea is conclusive evidence of such conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, the board is governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(r) Fraudulently obtained, furnished, or sold any physical therapy diploma, certificate, license, renewal of license, or record, or aided or abetted any such act;

(s) Advertised, represented, or held himself or herself out, in any manner, as a physical therapist or practiced physical therapy without a license or unless otherwise authorized under this article;

(t) Used in connection with the person's name any designation tending to imply that the person is a physical therapist without being licensed under this article;

(u) Practiced physical therapy during the time the person's license was inactive, expired, suspended, or revoked;

(v) Failed to maintain the insurance required by section 12-41-114.5 or a rule promulgated thereunder;

(w) Failed to respond in an honest, materially responsive, and timely manner to a complaint issued under this article;

(x) Failed to know the contents of this part 1 and any rules promulgated under this part 1; or

(y) Failed to either:

(I) Confirm that a patient is under the care of a physician or other health care professional for the underlying medical condition when providing general wound care within the scope of the physical therapist's practice; or

(II) Refer the patient to a physician or other appropriate health care professional for the treatment of the underlying medical condition when providing general wound care within the scope of the physical therapist's practice.

(2) Subsections (1)(r), (1)(s), (1)(t), and (1)(u) are similar to former § 12-41-121 (1)(a), (1)(b), (1)(c), and (1)(d) as they existed prior to 2006.

12-41-115.5. Protection of medical records - licensee's obligations - verification of compliance - noncompliance grounds for discipline - rules. (1) Each licensed physical therapist responsible for patient records shall develop a written plan to ensure the security of patient medical records. The plan must address at least the following:

- (a) The storage and proper disposal of patient medical records;
 - (b) The disposition of patient medical records in the event the licensee dies, retires, or otherwise ceases to practice or provide physical therapy care to patients; and
 - (c) The method by which patients may access or obtain their medical records promptly if any of the events described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) occurs.
- (2) Upon initial licensure under this part 1 and upon renewal of a license, the applicant or licensee shall attest to the board that he or she has developed a plan in compliance with this section.

(3) A licensee shall inform each patient in writing of the method by which the patient may access or obtain his or her medical records if an event described in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section occurs.

(4) The board may adopt rules reasonably necessary to implement this section.

12-41-116. Disciplinary actions. (1) (a) The board, in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., may issue letters of admonition; deny, refuse to renew, suspend, or revoke any license; place a licensee on probation; or impose public censure or a fine, if the board or the board's designee determines after notice and the opportunity for a hearing that the licensee has committed an act specified in section 12-41-115.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-169), ch. 172, p. 621, § 21, effective July 1, 2011.)

(c) In the case of a deliberate and willful violation of this article or if the public health, safety, and welfare require emergency action, the board may take disciplinary action on an emergency basis under sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action but should not be dismissed as being without merit, the board may send a letter of admonition to the licensee.

(b) When the board sends a letter of admonition to a licensee, the board shall notify the licensee of the licensee's right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct described in the letter of admonition.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(3) In any disciplinary order that allows a physical therapist to continue to practice, the board may impose upon the licensee such conditions as the board deems appropriate to ensure that the physical therapist is physically, mentally, and professionally qualified to practice physical therapy in accordance with generally accepted professional standards. Such conditions may include any or all of the following:

(a) Examination of the physical therapist to determine his or her mental or physical condition, as provided in section 12-41-118, or to determine professional qualifications;

(b) Any therapy, training, or education that the board believes necessary to correct deficiencies found either in a proceeding in compliance with section 24-34-106, C.R.S., or through an examination under paragraph (a) of this subsection (3);

(c) A review or supervision of a licensee's practice that the board finds necessary to identify and correct deficiencies therein;

(d) Restrictions upon the nature and scope of practice to ensure that the licensee does not practice beyond the limits of the licensee's capabilities.

(3.5) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, the board may send a confidential letter of concern to the licensee.

(4) The board may take disciplinary action against a physical therapist for failure to comply with any of the conditions imposed by the board under subsection (3) of this section.

(5) A person whose license has expired is subject to the penalties provided in this article and section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(6) A person whose license to practice physical therapy is revoked or who surrenders his or her license to avoid discipline is not eligible to apply for a license for two years after the license is revoked or surrendered. The two-year waiting period applies to a person whose license to practice physical therapy, or to practice any other health care occupation, is revoked by any other legally qualified board or regulatory entity.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former §§ 12-41-118 and 12-41-120 as they existed prior to 1991.

12-41-117. Disciplinary proceedings - investigations - judicial review. (1) The board may commence a proceeding for the discipline of a licensee when the board has reasonable grounds to believe that a licensee has committed an act enumerated in section 12-41-115.

(2) In any proceeding held under this section, the board may accept as prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action any disciplinary action taken against a licensee from another jurisdiction if the violation that prompted the disciplinary action in that jurisdiction would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article.

(3) (a) The board may investigate potential grounds for disciplinary action upon its own motion or when the board is informed of dismissal of a person licensed under this article if the dismissal was for a matter constituting a violation of this article.

(b) A person who supervises a physical therapist shall report to the board when the physical therapist has been dismissed because of incompetence in physical therapy or failure to comply with this article. A physical therapist who is aware that another physical therapist is violating this article shall report such violation to the board.

(5) (a) The board or an administrative law judge may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board pursuant to this article. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(b) Upon failure of a witness to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(6) The board may keep any investigation authorized under this article closed until the results of such investigation are known and either the complaint is dismissed or notice of hearing and charges are served upon the licensee.

(7) (a) The board, the director's staff, a witness or consultant to the board, a witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and a person who lodges a complaint under this article is immune from liability in a civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, witness, or complainant, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts.

(b) Any person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or report or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section shall be immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of such participation.

(8) The board, through the department of regulatory agencies, may employ administrative law judges appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., on a full-time or part-time basis, to conduct hearings under this article or on any matter within the board's jurisdiction upon such conditions and terms as the board may determine.

(9) Final action of the board may be judicially reviewed by the court of appeals by appropriate proceedings under section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S., and judicial proceedings for the enforcement of an order of the board may be instituted in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(10) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(11) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order must set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(b) The board shall promptly notify a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued under paragraph (a) of this subsection (12) of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. The board may serve the notice by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (12) constitutes notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The board shall commence a hearing on an order to show cause no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (12). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event is the hearing to commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (12), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) is effective when issued and is a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(13) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(14) If a person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order. Upon receiving the request, the attorney general or district attorney shall bring the suit as requested.

(15) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in subsection (9) of this section.

12-41-118. Mental and physical examination of licensees. (1) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, the board may require the licensee to take a mental or physical examination by a health care provider designated by the board. If the licensee refuses to undergo such a mental or physical examination, unless due to circumstances beyond the licensee's control, the board may suspend such licensee's license until the results of the examination are known and the board has made a determination of the licensee's fitness to practice. The board shall proceed with an order for examination and determination in a timely manner.

(2) An order issued to a licensee under subsection (1) of this section to undergo a mental or physical examination must contain the basis of the board's reasonable cause to believe that the licensee is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For the purposes of a disciplinary proceeding authorized by this article, the licensee is deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining health care provider's testimony or examination reports on the ground that they are privileged communications.

(3) The licensee may submit to the board testimony or examination reports from a health care provider chosen by such licensee pertaining to the condition that the board has alleged may preclude the licensee from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. These may be considered by the board in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the health care provider designated by the board.

(4) A person shall not use the results of any mental or physical examination ordered by the board as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the board. The examination results are not public records and are not available to the public.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-41-118.5 as it existed prior to 1991.

12-41-118.5. Examinations - notice - confidential agreements. (1) If a physical therapist suffers from a physical or mental illness or condition rendering the licensee unable to practice physical therapy or practice as a physical therapist with reasonable skill and patient safety, the physical therapist shall notify the board of the illness or condition in a manner and within a period of time determined by the board. The board may require the licensee to submit to an examination or to evaluate the extent of the illness or condition and its impact on the licensee's ability to practice with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(2) (a) Upon determining that a physical therapist with a physical or mental illness or condition is able to render limited physical therapy with reasonable skill and patient safety, the board may enter into a confidential agreement with the physical therapist in which the physical therapist agrees to limit his or her practice based on the restrictions imposed by the illness or condition, as determined by the board.

(b) The agreement must specify that the licensee is subject to periodic reevaluations or monitoring as determined appropriate by the board.

(c) The parties may modify or dissolve the agreement as necessary based on the results of a reevaluation or of monitoring.

(d) By entering into an agreement with the board under this subsection (2) to limit his or her practice, the licensee is not engaging in unprofessional conduct. The agreement is an administrative action and does not constitute a restriction or discipline by the board. However, if the licensee fails to comply with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection (2), the failure constitutes grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-115 (1) (m) and the licensee is subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-41-116.

(3) This section does not apply to a licensee subject to discipline under section 12-41-115 (1) (l).

12-41-119. Professional review committees - immunity. (1) A professional review committee may be established pursuant to this section to investigate the quality of care being given by a person licensed under this article. It shall include in its membership at least three persons licensed under this article, but such committee may be authorized to act only by:

- (a) The board;
 - (b) A society or an association of physical therapists whose membership includes not less than one-third of the persons licensed pursuant to this article and residing in this state if the licensee whose services are the subject of review is a member of such society or association; or
 - (c) A hospital licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., or certified pursuant to section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (II), C.R.S.; except that the professional review committee shall include in its membership at least a two-thirds majority of persons licensed under this article. Such review committee may function under the quality management provisions of section 25-3-109, C.R.S.
- (2) Any professional review committee established pursuant to subsection (1) of this section shall report to the board any adverse findings that would constitute a possible violation of this article.
- (3) The board, a member of a professional review committee authorized by the board, a member of the board's or committee's staff, a person acting as a witness or consultant to the board or committee, a witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and a person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article is immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board or committee member, staff, consultant, or witness if the individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article is immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-41-123. Injunctive proceedings. The board may, in the name of the people of Colorado, through the attorney general of Colorado, apply for an injunction to a court to enjoin a person from committing an act declared to be a misdemeanor by this article. If it is established that the defendant has been or is committing an act declared to be a misdemeanor by this article, the court shall enter a decree perpetually enjoining the defendant from further committing the act. If a person violates an injunction issued under this section, the court may try and punish the offender for contempt of court. An injunction proceeding is in addition to, and not in lieu of, all penalties and other remedies provided in this article.

12-41-124. Professional service corporations, limited liability companies, and registered limited liability partnerships for the practice of physical therapy - definitions.

(1) Physical therapists may form professional service corporations for the practice of physical therapy under the "Colorado Business Corporation Act", articles 101 to 117 of title 7, C.R.S., if such corporations are organized and operated in accordance with this section. The articles of incorporation of such corporations must contain provisions complying with the following requirements:

(a) The name of the corporation shall contain the words "professional company" or "professional corporation" or abbreviations thereof.

(b) The corporation must be organized solely for the purposes of conducting the practice of physical therapy only through persons licensed by the board to practice physical therapy.

(c) The corporation may exercise the powers and privileges conferred upon corporations by the laws of Colorado only in furtherance of and subject to its corporate purpose.

(d) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (d), all shareholders of the corporation must be persons licensed by the board to practice physical therapy and who at all times own their shares in their own right. With the exception of illness, accident, or time spent in the armed services, on vacations, or on leaves of absence not to exceed one year, the individuals must be actively engaged in the practice of physical therapy in the offices of the corporation.

(II) If a person licensed to practice physical therapy who was a shareholder of the corporation dies, an unlicensed heir to the deceased shareholder may become a shareholder of the corporation for up to two years. Unless the heir is the only shareholder of the corporation, the heir who becomes a shareholder is a nonvoting shareholder. If the heir of the deceased shareholder ceases to be a shareholder, the owner who received the stocks from the shareholder shall dispose of the shares in accordance with the provisions required by paragraph (e) of this subsection (1). An heir who is not licensed under this article shall not exercise any authority over professional or clinical matters.

(e) Provisions shall be made requiring any shareholder who ceases to be or for any reason is ineligible to be a shareholder to dispose of all such shares forthwith, either to the corporation or to any person having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1).

(f) The president shall be a shareholder and a director, and, to the extent possible, all other directors and officers shall be persons having the qualifications described in paragraph (d) of this subsection (1). Lay directors and officers shall not exercise any authority whatsoever over professional matters.

(g) The articles of incorporation must provide, and all shareholders of the corporation shall agree, that all shareholders of the corporation are jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation or that all shareholders of the corporation are jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation except when the shareholders maintain professional liability insurance that meets the standards of section 12-14-114.5 or when the corporation maintains professional liability insurance that meets the following minimum standards:

(I) The insurer shall insure the corporation against liability imposed upon the corporation by law for damages resulting from any claim made against the corporation arising out of the performance of professional services for others by those officers and employees of the corporation who are licensed by the board to practice physical therapy.

(II) The policies must insure the corporation against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the acts, errors, and omissions of all nonprofessional employees.

(III) The insurance policy must provide for an amount for each claim of at least one hundred thousand dollars multiplied by the number of persons licensed to practice physical therapy employed by the corporation. The policy must provide for an aggregate top limit of liability per year for all claims of three hundred thousand dollars also multiplied by the number of persons licensed to practice physical therapy employed by the corporation, but no firm is required to carry insurance in excess of three hundred thousand dollars for each claim with an aggregate top limit of liability for all claims during the year of nine hundred thousand dollars.

(IV) The policy may provide that it does not apply to:

(A) A dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured corporation or any stockholder or employee thereof;

(B) The conduct of any business enterprise, not including the practice of physical therapy, in which the insured corporation under this section is not permitted to engage but that nevertheless may be owned by the insured corporation, in which the insured corporation may be a partner, or that may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured corporation in its own or in a fiduciary capacity, including the ownership, maintenance, or use of any property in connection therewith, when not resulting from breach of professional duty, bodily injury to, or sickness, disease, or death of any person, or to injury to or destruction of any tangible property, including the loss of use thereof; and

(V) The policy may contain reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, and other usual matters.

(2) The corporation shall do nothing that, if done by a person licensed to practice physical therapy and employed by the corporation, would constitute any ground for disciplinary action, as set forth in section 12-41-115. Any violation by the corporation of this section is grounds for the board to terminate or suspend its right to practice physical therapy.

(3) Nothing in this section diminishes or changes the obligation of each person licensed to practice physical therapy employed by the corporation to practice in accordance with the standards of professional conduct under this article and rules adopted under this article. Physical therapists who by act or omission cause the corporation to act or fail to act in a way that violates the standards of professional conduct, including any provision of this section, is personally responsible for the violation and subject to discipline for the violation.

(4) A professional service corporation may adopt a pension, profit sharing (whether cash or deferred), health and accident insurance, or welfare plan for all or part of its employees, including lay employees, if such plan does not require or result in the sharing of specific or identifiable fees with lay employees and if any payments made to lay employees or into any such plan on behalf of lay employees are based upon their compensation or length of service, or both, rather than the amount of fees or income received.

(5) (a) Except as provided in this section, corporations shall not practice physical therapy.

(b) The corporate practice of physical therapy does not include physical therapists employed by a certified or licensed hospital, licensed skilled nursing facility, certified home health agency, licensed hospice, certified comprehensive outpatient rehabilitation facility, certified rehabilitation agency, authorized health maintenance organization, accredited educational entity, organization providing care for the elderly under section 25.5-5-412, C.R.S., or other entity wholly owned and operated by a governmental unit or agency if:

(I) The relationship created by the employment does not affect the ability of the physical therapist to exercise his or her independent judgment in the practice of the profession;

(II) The physical therapist's independent judgment in the practice of the profession is in fact unaffected by the relationship;

(III) The policies of the entity employing the physical therapist contain a procedure by which complaints by a physical therapist alleging a violation of this paragraph (b) may be heard and resolved;

(IV) The physical therapist is not required to exclusively refer any patient to a particular provider or supplier; except that nothing in this subparagraph (IV) shall invalidate the policy provisions of a contract between a physical therapist and his or her intermediary or the managed care provisions of a health coverage plan; and

(V) The physical therapist is not required to take any other action he or she determines not to be in the patient's best interest.

(c) The provisions of paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) shall apply to professional service corporations, limited liability companies, and registered limited liability partnerships formed for the practice of physical therapy in accordance with this section regardless of the date of formation of the entity.

(d) A physical therapist employed by an entity described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) shall be an employee of the entity for purposes of liability for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employee.

(6) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Articles of incorporation" includes operating agreements of limited liability companies and partnership agreements of registered limited liability partnerships.

(a.5) "Carrier" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 10-16-102 (8), C.R.S.

(b) "Corporation" includes a limited liability company organized under the "Colorado Limited Liability Company Act", article 80 of title 7, C.R.S., and a limited liability partnership registered under section 7-60-144 or 7-64-1002, C.R.S.

(c) "Director" and "officer" of a corporation includes a member and a manager of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

(d) "Employees" includes employees, members, and managers of a limited liability company and employees and partners of a registered limited liability partnership.

(d.3) "Health benefit plan" shall have the same meaning as set forth in section 10-16-102 (21), C.R.S.

(d.5) "President" includes all managers, if any, of a limited liability company and all partners in a registered limited liability partnership.

(e) "Share" includes a member's rights in a limited liability company and a partner's rights in a registered limited liability partnership.

(f) "Shareholder" includes a member of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

PART 2PHYSICAL THERAPIST ASSISTANTS

12-41-201. Additional board authority - rules. (1) In addition to all other powers and duties given to the board by law, the board may:

- (a) Certify physical therapist assistants to practice;
- (b) Evaluate the qualifications of applicants for certification, issue and renew the certifications authorized under this part 2, and take the disciplinary actions authorized under this part 2;
- (c) Conduct hearings upon charges for discipline of a certified physical therapist assistant and cause the prosecution and enjoinder of all persons violating this part 2;
- (d) Administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board;
- (e) Appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board; and
- (f) Establish fines under section 12-41-122.

(2) Upon failure of a witness to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person resides or conducts business, upon application by the board with notice to the subpoenaed person, may issue to the person an order requiring that person to appear before the board; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. The court may punish a failure to obey its order as a contempt of court.

(3) The board may promulgate rules necessary to implement, administer, and enforce this part 2.

12-41-202. Use of titles restricted. A person certified as a physical therapist assistant may use the title "physical therapist assistant" or the letters "P.T.A." or any other generally accepted terms, letters, or figures that indicate that the person is a physical therapist assistant. No other person shall use the terms “physical therapist assistant”, “certified physical therapist assistant”, or any letters or words that indicate that the person is a physical therapist assistant.

12-41-203. Limitations on authority. (1) Nothing in this part 2 authorizes a physical therapist assistant to perform any of the following acts:

(a) Practice of medicine, surgery, or any other form of healing except as authorized by this part 2; or

(b) Use of roentgen rays and radioactive materials for therapeutic purposes, use of electricity for surgical purposes, or diagnosis of disease.

(2) A physical therapist assistant shall not practice physical therapy unless the assistant works under the supervision of a licensed physical therapist.

12-41-204. Certification required. Effective June 1, 2012, except as otherwise provided by this part 2, a person who practices as a physical therapist assistant or who represents oneself as being able to practice as a physical therapist assistant in this state must possess a valid certification issued by the board under this part 2 and rules adopted under this part 2.

12-41-205. Certification by examination - repeal. (1) Every applicant for a certification by examination shall:

(a) (I) Have successfully completed a physical therapist assistant program accredited by the commission on accreditation in physical therapy education or any comparable organization as determined by the board; or

(II) Qualify to take the physical therapy examination established under section 12-41-107;

(b) Pass a written examination that is:

(I) Approved by the board; and

(II) A national examination accredited by a nationally recognized accrediting agency;

(c) Submit an application in the form and manner designated by the director; and

(d) Pay a fee in an amount determined by the director.

(2) The board may refuse to permit an applicant to take the examination if the application is incomplete or indicates that the applicant is not qualified to sit for the examination, or if the applicant has committed any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-210.

(3) When the applicant has fulfilled all the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the board shall issue a certification to the applicant; except that the board may deny certification if the applicant has committed an act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-210.

(4) (a) In lieu of qualifying under subsection (1) of this section, a person may qualify as a physical therapist assistant if the person has at least five years of experience practicing as a physical therapist assistant or is otherwise qualified as determined by the board.

(b) This subsection (4) is repealed, effective June 1, 2013.

12-41-206. Certification by endorsement. (1) An applicant for certification by endorsement shall:

- (a) Possess a valid license, certification, or registration in good standing from another state or territory of the United States;
- (b) Submit an application in the form and manner designated by the director; and
- (c) Pay a fee in an amount determined by the director.

(2) Upon receipt of all documents required by subsection (1) of this section, the director shall review the application and make a determination of the applicant's qualification to be certified by endorsement.

(3) The board shall issue a certification if the applicant fulfills the requirements of subsection (1) of this section and meets any one of the following qualifying standards:

(a) The applicant graduated from an accredited program within the past two years and passed an examination substantially equivalent to the examination specified in section 12-41-205 (1) (b);

(b) The applicant has practiced as a licensed, certified, or registered physical therapist assistant for at least two of the five years immediately preceding the date of the application; or

(c) The applicant has passed an examination in another jurisdiction that is substantially equivalent to the examination specified in section 12-41-205 (1) (b), and has demonstrated competency through successful completion of an internship or demonstrated competency as a physical therapist assistant by fulfilling the requirements established by rules of the board.

(4) The board may deny certification if the applicant has committed an act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-210.

12-41-207. Certification of foreign-trained applicants. (1) Every foreign-trained applicant for certification shall:

(a) Have received education and training as a physical therapist assistant that is substantially equivalent to the education and training required by accredited physical therapist assistant programs in the United States;

(b) Possess an active, valid license, certification, or registration in good standing or other authorization to practice as a physical therapist assistant from an appropriate authority in the country where the foreign-trained applicant is practicing or has practiced;

(c) Pass a written examination approved by the board in accordance with section 12-41-205 (1) (b);

(d) Submit an application in the form and manner designated by the director; and

(e) Pay an application fee in an amount determined by the director.

(2) Upon receipt of all documents and the fee required by subsection (1) of this section, the director shall review the application and determine if the applicant is qualified to be certified.

(3) When the applicant has fulfilled all the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the board shall issue a certification to the applicant; except that the board may deny the application if the applicant has committed an act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-210.

12-41-208. Expiration and renewal of certification. An applicant for certification shall pay certification, renewal, and reinstatement fees established by the director in the same manner as is authorized in section 24-34-105, C.R.S. A certified physical therapist assistant shall renew a certification in accordance with a schedule established by the director pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement under section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew a certification pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the certification expires. A person whose certification has expired is subject to the penalties provided in this part 2 and section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-41-209. Scope of part 2 - exclusions. (1) This part 2 does not prohibit:

(a) Practice as a physical therapist assistant in this state by a legally qualified physical therapist assistant from another state or country whose employment requires the physical therapist assistant to accompany and care for a patient temporarily residing in this state, but the physical therapist assistant shall not provide physical therapy services for another individual nor shall the person represent or hold himself or herself out as a physical therapist assistant certified to practice in this state;

(b) The administration of massage, external baths, or exercise that is not a part of a physical therapy regimen;

(c) A person registered, certified, or licensed in this state under any other law from engaging in the practice for which the person is registered, certified, or licensed;

(d) Practice as a physical therapist assistant in this state by a legally qualified physical therapist assistant from another state or country for the purpose of participating in an educational program of not more than sixteen weeks' duration; or

(e) The practice of a physical therapist assistant licensed, certified, or registered in this or any other state or territory of the United States who is employed by the United States government or a bureau, division, or agency thereof while within the course and scope of the physical therapist assistant's duties.

12-41-210. Grounds for disciplinary action. (1) The board may take disciplinary action in accordance with section 12-41-211 against a person who has:

(a) Committed an act that does not meet generally accepted standards of physical therapist assistant practice or failed to perform an act necessary to meet generally accepted standards of physical therapist assistant practice;

(b) Engaged in sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S., with a patient during the period of time beginning with the initial evaluation through the termination of treatment;

(c) Abandoned a patient by any means;

(d) Failed to make essential entries on patient records or falsified or made incorrect entries of an essential nature on patient records;

(e) (I) Committed abuse of health insurance as set forth in section 18-13-119, C.R.S.; or

(II) Advertised through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise that the certified physical therapist assistant will perform an act prohibited by section 18-13-119, C.R.S.;

(f) Committed a fraudulent insurance act, as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(g) Falsified information in any application or attempted to obtain or obtained a certification by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(h) Engaged in the habitual or excessive use or abuse of alcohol, a habit-forming drug, or a controlled substance as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(i) (I) Failed to notify the board, as required by section 12-41-214, of a physical or mental illness or condition that impacts the certified physical therapist assistant's ability to perform physical therapy with reasonable skill and safety to patients;

(II) Failed to act within the limitations created by a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the certified physical therapist assistant unable to perform physical therapy with reasonable skill and safety to the patient; or

(III) Failed to comply with the limitations agreed to under a confidential agreement entered into under section 12-41-214;

(j) Refused to submit to a physical or mental examination when so ordered by the board under section 12-41-213;

(k) Failed to notify the board in writing of the entry of a final judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction against the certified physical therapist assistant for malpractice or a settlement by the certified physical therapist assistant in response to charges or allegations of malpractice, which notice must be given within ninety days after the entry of judgment or settlement and, in the case of a judgment, must contain the name of the court, the case number, and the names of all parties to the action;

(l) Violated or aided or abetted a violation of this part 2, a rule adopted under this part 2, or a lawful order of the board;

(m) Been convicted of, pled guilty, or pled nolo contendere to a crime related to the certified physical therapist assistant's practice or a felony or committed an act specified in section 12-41-216. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of the conviction or plea is conclusive evidence of the conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, the board is governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(n) Fraudulently obtained, furnished, or sold a physical therapist assistant diploma, certificate, renewal of certificate, or record, or aided or abetted any such act;

(o) Represented, or held himself or herself out as, in any manner, a physical therapist assistant or practiced as a physical therapist assistant without a certification, unless otherwise authorized under this part 2;

(p) Used in connection with the person's name a designation implying that the person is a physical therapist assistant without being certified under this part 2;

(q) Practiced as a physical therapist assistant during the time the person's certification was expired, suspended, or revoked; or

(r) Failed to respond in an honest, materially responsive, and timely manner to a complaint issued under this part 2.

12-41-211. Disciplinary actions. (1) (a) The board, in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., may issue letters of admonition; deny, refuse to renew, suspend, or revoke a certification; place a certified physical therapist assistant on probation; or impose public censure or a fine, if the board or the board's designee determines after notice and the opportunity for a hearing that the certified physical therapist assistant has committed an act specified in section 12-41-210.

(b) In the case of a deliberate and willful violation of this part 2 or if the public health, safety, and welfare require emergency action, the board may take disciplinary action on an emergency basis under sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(2) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action but should not be dismissed as being without merit, the board may send a letter of admonition to the certified physical therapist assistant.

(b) When the board sends a letter of admonition to a certified physical therapist assistant, the board shall notify the certified physical therapist assistant of his or her right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct described in the letter of admonition.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition is vacated and the matter must be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(3) In a disciplinary order that allows a certified physical therapist assistant to continue to practice, the board may impose upon the certified physical therapist assistant conditions that the board deems appropriate to ensure that the certified physical therapist assistant is physically, mentally, and professionally qualified to practice in accordance with generally accepted professional standards. The conditions may include the following:

(a) Examination of the certified physical therapist assistant to determine his or her mental or physical condition, as provided in section 12-41-213, or to determine professional qualifications;

(b) Any therapy, training, or education that the board believes necessary to correct deficiencies found either in a proceeding in compliance with section 24-34-106, C.R.S., or through an examination under paragraph (a) of this subsection (3);

(c) A review or supervision of a certified physical therapist assistant's practice that the board finds necessary to identify and correct deficiencies therein; or

(d) Restrictions upon the nature and scope of practice to ensure that the certified physical therapist assistant does not practice beyond the limits of the certified physical therapist assistant's capabilities.

(4) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the certified physical therapist assistant that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, the board may send a confidential letter of concern to the certified physical therapist assistant.

(5) The board may take disciplinary action against a certified physical therapist assistant for failure to comply with any of the conditions imposed by the board under subsection (3) of this section.

(6) A person whose certification has expired is subject to the penalties provided in this part 2 and section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(7) A physical therapist assistant whose certification is revoked or who surrenders his or her certification to avoid discipline is not eligible to apply for a certification for two years after the certification is revoked or surrendered. The two-year waiting period applies to a person whose certification as a physical therapist assistant is revoked by any other legally qualified board or regulatory entity.

12-41-212. Disciplinary proceedings - investigations - judicial review. (1) The board may commence a proceeding for the discipline of a physical therapist assistant when the board has reasonable grounds to believe that a physical therapist assistant has committed an act enumerated in section 12-41-210.

(2) In a proceeding held under this section, the board may accept as prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action any disciplinary action taken against a physical therapist assistant from another jurisdiction if the violation that prompted the disciplinary action in that jurisdiction would be grounds for disciplinary action under this part 2.

(3) (a) The board may investigate potential grounds for disciplinary action upon its own motion or when the board is informed of dismissal of a person certified under this part 2 if the dismissal was for a matter constituting a violation of this part 2.

(b) A person who supervises a physical therapist assistant shall report to the board when the physical therapist assistant has been dismissed because of incompetence or failure to comply with this part 2. A certified physical therapist assistant who is aware that another person is violating this part 2 shall report the violation to the board.

(4) (a) The board or an administrative law judge may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board under this part 2. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(b) Upon failure of a witness to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or certified physical therapist assistant resides or conducts business, upon application by the board with notice to the subpoenaed person or certified physical therapist assistant, may issue an order requiring that person or certified physical therapist assistant to appear before the board; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(5) The board may keep any investigation authorized under this part 2 closed until the results of the investigation are known and either the complaint is dismissed or notice of hearing and charges are served upon the certified physical therapist assistant.

(6) (a) The board, the director's staff, a witness or consultant to the board, a witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this part 2, or a person who lodges a complaint under this part 2 is immune from liability in a civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as a board member, staff member, consultant, witness, or complainant if the individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted with the reasonable belief that the action taken was warranted by the facts.

(b) A person making a complaint or report in good faith or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section is immune from any liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result by reason of the participation.

(7) The board, through the department of regulatory agencies, may employ administrative law judges appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., on a full-time or part-time basis, to conduct hearings under this part 2 or on any matter within the board's jurisdiction upon the conditions and terms as the board may determine.

(8) Final action of the board may be judicially reviewed by the court of appeals by appropriate proceedings under section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S., and judicial proceedings for the enforcement of an order of the board may be instituted in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(9) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the board shall not resolve the complaint by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(10) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint, that a certified physical therapist assistant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required certification, the board may issue an order to cease and desist the activity. The order must set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or uncertified practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist under paragraph (a) of this subsection (10), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this part 2 have occurred. The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(11) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint, that a person has violated this part 2, then, in addition to any specific powers granted under this part 2, the board may issue to the person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or uncertified practice.

(b) The board shall promptly notify a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued under paragraph (a) of this subsection (11) of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. The board may serve the notice by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon the person against whom the order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (11) constitutes notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The board shall commence a hearing on an order to show cause no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event is the hearing to commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (11) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon the person under paragraph (b) of this subsection (11) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order becomes final as to that person by operation of law. The board shall conduct the hearing in accordance with sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required certification, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this part 2, the board may issue a final cease-and-desist order, directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or uncertified practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued under subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) is effective when issued and is a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(12) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any uncertified act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this part 2, a rule promulgated under this part 2, an order issued under this part 2, or an act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction under this part 2, the board may enter into a stipulation with the person.

(13) If a person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order. Upon receiving the request, the attorney general or district attorney shall bring the suit as requested.

12-41-213. Mental and physical examination of certified physical therapist assistants. (1) If the board has reasonable cause to believe that a certified physical therapist assistant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, the board may require the certified physical therapist assistant to take a mental or physical examination by a health care provider designated by the board. If the certified physical therapist assistant refuses to undergo the mental or physical examination, unless due to circumstances beyond the certified physical therapist assistant's control, the board may suspend the certified physical therapist assistant's certification until the results of the examination are known and the board has made a determination of the certified physical therapist assistant's fitness to practice. The board shall proceed with an order for examination and determination in a timely manner.

(2) An order issued to a certified physical therapist assistant under subsection (1) of this section to undergo a mental or physical examination must contain the basis of the board's reasonable cause to believe that the certified physical therapist assistant is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For the purposes of a disciplinary proceeding authorized by this part 2, the certified physical therapist assistant is deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining health care provider's testimony or examination reports on the ground that they are privileged communications.

(3) The certified physical therapist assistant may submit to the board testimony or examination reports from a health care provider chosen by the certified physical therapist assistant pertaining to the condition that the board has alleged may preclude the certified physical therapist assistant from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. The board may consider such testimony or examination reports in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports of the health care provider designated by the board.

(4) A person shall not use the results of any mental or physical examination ordered by the board as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the board. The examination results are not public records and are not available to the public.

12-41-214. Examinations - notice - confidential agreements. (1) If a certified physical therapist assistant suffers from a physical or mental illness or condition rendering the certified physical therapist assistant unable to practice with reasonable skill and patient safety, the certified physical therapist assistant shall notify the board of the illness or condition in a manner and within a period of time determined by the board. The board may require the certified physical therapist assistant to submit to an examination, or the board may evaluate the extent of the illness or condition and its impact on the certified physical therapist assistant's ability to practice with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(2) (a) Upon determining that a certified physical therapist assistant with a physical or mental illness or condition is able to render limited physical therapy with reasonable skill and patient safety, the board may enter into a confidential agreement with the certified physical therapist assistant in which the certified physical therapist assistant agrees to limit his or her practice based on the restrictions imposed by the illness or condition, as determined by the board.

(b) The agreement must specify that the certified physical therapist assistant is subject to periodic reevaluations or monitoring as determined appropriate by the board.

(c) The parties may modify or dissolve the agreement as necessary based on the results of a reevaluation or of monitoring.

(d) By entering into an agreement with the board under this subsection (2) to limit his or her practice, the certified physical therapist assistant is not engaging in unprofessional conduct. The agreement is an administrative action and does not constitute a restriction or discipline by the board. However, if the certified physical therapist assistant fails to comply with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to this subsection (2), the failure constitutes grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-41-210 (1) (i) and the certified physical therapist assistant is subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-41-211.

(3) This section does not apply to a physical therapist assistant subject to discipline under section 12-41-210 (1) (h).

12-41-215. Reports by insurance companies. (1) (a) Each insurance company licensed to do business in this state and engaged in the writing of malpractice insurance for physical therapist assistants shall send to the board information about any malpractice claim that involves a physical therapist assistant and is settled or in which judgment is rendered against the insured.

(b) In addition, the insurance company shall submit supplementary reports containing the disposition of the claim to the board within ninety days after settlement or judgment.

(2) Regardless of the disposition of any claim, the insurance company shall provide such information as the board finds reasonably necessary to conduct its own investigation and hearing.

- 12-41-217. Violation - fines. (1) Notwithstanding section 12-41-216, the board may assess a fine for a violation of this part 2 or a rule adopted under this part 2.
- (2) The fine shall not be greater than one thousand dollars and shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the general fund.
- (3) All fines must be imposed in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S., but are not a substitute or waiver of a criminal penalty.

12-41-218. Injunctive proceedings. The board may, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, through the attorney general of Colorado, apply for an injunction to a court to enjoin a person from committing an act declared to be a misdemeanor by this part 2. If it is established that the defendant has been or is committing an act declared to be a misdemeanor by this part 2, the court shall enter a decree perpetually enjoining the defendant from further committing the act. If a person violates an injunction issued under this section, the court may try and punish the offender for contempt of court. An injunction proceeding is in addition to, and not in lieu of, all penalties and other remedies provided in this part 2.

12-41.5-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Director” means the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(2) “Division” means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies created in section 24-34-102, C.R.S.

(3) “Licensee” means a respiratory therapist licensed pursuant to this article.

(4) “Medical director” means a licensed physician who holds such title in any inpatient or outpatient facility, department, or home care agency, and who is responsible for the quality, safety, and appropriateness of the respiratory therapy provided.

(5) “Respiratory therapist” means a person who is licensed to practice respiratory therapy pursuant to this article.

(6) “Respiratory therapy” means providing therapy, management, rehabilitation, support services for diagnostic evaluation, and care of patients with deficiencies and abnormalities which affect the pulmonary system under the overall direction of a medical director. Respiratory therapy includes the following:

(a) Direct and indirect pulmonary care services that are safe, aseptic, preventive, and restorative to the patient;

(b) The teaching or instruction of the techniques and skill of respiratory care whether or not in a formal educational setting;

(c) Direct and indirect respiratory care services including but not limited to the administration of pharmacological, diagnostic, and therapeutic agents related to respiratory care procedures necessary to implement a treatment, disease prevention, and pulmonary rehabilitative or diagnostic regimen prescribed by a physician or advanced practice nurse;

(d) Observation and monitoring of signs, symptoms, reactions, general behavior, and general physical response to respiratory care treatment and diagnostic testing for:

(I) The determination of whether such signs, symptoms, reactions, behavior, or general response exhibit abnormal characteristics; or

(II) The implementation based on observed abnormalities of appropriate reporting, referral, or respiratory care protocols or changes in treatment regimen pursuant to a prescription by a physician or advanced practice nurse or the initiation of emergency procedures;

(e) The diagnostic and therapeutic use of the following in accordance with the prescription of a physician or advanced practice nurse: Administration of medical gases, exclusive of general anesthesia; aerosols; humidification; environmental control systems and biomedical therapy; pharmacologic agents related to respiratory care procedures; mechanical or physiological ventilatory support; bronchopulmonary hygiene; respiratory protocol and evaluation; cardiopulmonary resuscitation; maintenance of the natural airways; insertion and maintenance of artificial airways; diagnostic and testing techniques required for implementation of respiratory care protocols; collection of specimens from the respiratory tract; or analysis of blood gases and respiratory secretions and participation in cardiopulmonary research; and

(f) The transcription and implementation of the written and verbal orders of a physician pertaining to the practice of respiratory care.

12-41.5-106. License - reciprocity - effectiveness - fee. (1) An applicant for a license to practice respiratory therapy shall submit to the director written evidence that he or she is credentialed with the national board for respiratory care as a certified or registered respiratory therapist and shall pay a fee as determined by the director. The director shall have on file the standards of practice for examination and accreditation by the national board for respiratory care, and such standards shall be available to the public.

(2) The director shall issue a license to practice respiratory therapy to an applicant who otherwise meets the qualifications set forth in this article and who submits satisfactory proof and certifies under penalty of perjury that the applicant is either:

(a) Currently in possession of an unrestricted license in good standing to practice respiratory therapy under the laws of another state or territory of the United States or foreign country, if the qualifications of the applicant are deemed by the director to be substantially equivalent to those required by this state, and whether the applicant has ever had a disciplinary action taken in regard to the applicant’s license to practice respiratory therapy in another state;

(b) Holding credentials conferred by the national board for respiratory care, which credentials have not been suspended or revoked; or

(c) Functioning in the capacity of a respiratory therapist as of July 1, 2000, and has successfully passed, no later than July 1, 2001, the certification or registration examination of the national board for respiratory care.

12-41.5-107. Renewal of license. (1) At least sixty calendar days prior to the expiration of a license, the director shall notify the licensee of the pending expiration. The director shall make an expiration notice and a renewal form available to the licensee. Before the expiration date, the licensee shall complete the renewal form and return it to the division with the renewal fee.

(2) Upon receipt of the completed renewal form and the renewal fee, the director shall issue a license for the current renewal period pursuant to a schedule established by the director, and such renewal or reinstatement shall be granted pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

12-41.5-109. Grounds for action - disciplinary proceedings. (1) The director may take disciplinary action against a licensee if the director finds that such person has represented himself or herself to be a licensed respiratory therapist after the expiration or suspension of his or her license.

(2) The director has the power to revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to renew a license, place on probation a licensee, or issue a letter of admonition to a licensee in accordance with subsections (3), (4), (5), and (6) of this section upon proof that such person:

(a) Has procured or attempted to procure a license by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, misleading omission, or material misstatement of fact;

(b) (I) Has been convicted of or has entered and had accepted by a court a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to:

(A) A felony pursuant to section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.; or

(B) Any crime as defined in title 18, C.R.S., that relates to such person's employment as a respiratory therapist.

(II) A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea shall be prima facie evidence of such conviction. In conjunction with any disciplinary proceeding pertaining to this paragraph (b), the director shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(c) Has willfully or negligently acted in a manner inconsistent with the health or safety of persons under his or her care;

(d) Has had a license to practice respiratory therapy or any other health care occupation suspended, revoked, or otherwise subjected to discipline in any jurisdiction. A certified copy of the order of suspension, revocation, or discipline shall be prima facie evidence of such suspension, revocation, or discipline.

(e) Has violated this article or has aided or knowingly permitted any person to violate this article;

(f) Practiced respiratory therapy in a manner which failed to meet generally accepted standards for respiratory therapists;

(g) Has negligently or willfully violated any order or rule of the director pertaining to the practice or licensure of respiratory therapy;

(h) Is an excessive or habitual user or abuser of alcohol or habit-forming drugs or is a habitual user of a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects; except that the director has the discretion not to discipline the license holder if he or she is participating in good faith in a program approved by the director designed to end such use or abuse;

(i) Has a physical or mental disability that renders him or her unable to practice respiratory therapy with reasonable skill and safety and that may endanger the health or safety of persons under his or her care;

(j) Has committed:

(I) A fraudulent insurance act as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(II) An abuse of health insurance, as set forth in section 18-13-119, C.R.S., or advertised through any medium that he or she will perform an act prohibited by section 18-13-119 (3), C.R.S.;

(k) Has engaged in any of the following activities or practices:

(I) Willful and repeated ordering and performance, without justification, of demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies;

(II) Administering treatment that is demonstrably unnecessary, without clinical justification;

(III) Failing to obtain consultations or perform referrals when failing to do so is inconsistent with the standard of care for the profession; or

(IV) Ordering or performing, without clinical justification, a service, procedure, or treatment that is contrary to recognized standards of the practice of respiratory therapy as interpreted by the director;

(l) Has practiced respiratory therapy without possessing a valid license issued by the director in accordance with this article and any rules adopted under this article;

(m) Has used in connection with his or her name any designation that implies that he or she is a certified, registered, or licensed respiratory therapist, unless the person is licensed pursuant to this article;

(n) Has practiced respiratory therapy as a licensed respiratory therapist during the time that his or her license was suspended, revoked, or expired;

(o) Has sold, fraudulently obtained, or furnished a license to practice as a licensed respiratory therapist, or has aided or abetted such activity;

(p) Has failed to notify the director of the suspension, probation, or revocation of any of the person's past or currently held licenses, certificates, or registrations required to practice respiratory therapy in this or any other jurisdiction; or

(q) Has knowingly employed any person who is not licensed in the practice of respiratory therapy in the capacity of a respiratory therapist.

(2.5) The director shall revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to renew a license, place a licensee on probation, or issue a cease-and-desist order or letter of admonition to a licensee in accordance with subsections (3), (4), (5), and (6) of this section upon proof that the person:

(a) Has falsified or repeatedly made incorrect essential entries or repeatedly failed to make essential entries on patient records;

(b) Has practiced outside of or beyond the person's area of training, experience, or competence.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the director need not find that the actions that are grounds for discipline were willful but may consider whether such actions were willful when determining the nature of disciplinary sanctions to be imposed.

(4) A disciplinary proceeding may be commenced when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that a licensee has committed acts that may violate this section.

(5) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to such article by the director or by an administrative law judge, at the director's discretion. The director has the authority to exercise all powers and duties conferred by this article during such disciplinary proceedings.

(5.5) (a) The director may request the attorney general to seek an injunction, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to enjoin any person from committing any act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this paragraph (a), the attorney general shall not be required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(b) (I) In accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and this article, the director is authorized to investigate, hold hearings, and gather evidence in all matters related to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the director.

(II) The director or an administrative law judge shall have the power to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the director.

(III) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the director: to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

(6) If the director finds the charges proved and orders that discipline be imposed, the director may require, as a condition of reinstatement, that the licensee take such therapy or courses of training or education as may be needed to correct any deficiency found.

(7) A final action of the director may be judicially reviewed by the court of appeals in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S., and judicial proceedings for the enforcement of an order of the director may be instituted in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

(8) (a) The director, the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts.

(b) A person who in good faith makes a complaint or report or participates in an investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability, civil or criminal, that otherwise might result from such participation.

(9) An employer of a respiratory therapist shall report to the director any disciplinary action taken against such therapist or the resignation of such therapist in lieu of disciplinary action for conduct that violates this article.

(10) (a) Investigations, examinations, hearings, meetings, and other proceedings of the director conducted pursuant to this section shall be exempt from any law that requires:

(I) Such proceedings to be conducted publicly; or

(II) The minutes or records of the director, with respect to action taken pursuant to this section, to be open to the public.

(b) Paragraph (a) of this subsection (10) shall not apply after the director has made a decision to proceed with a disciplinary action and has served by first-class mail a notice of formal complaint on the licensee.

(11) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, does not warrant formal action by the director but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the director, by certified mail, to a licensee, such licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition shall be deemed vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(11.5) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the director and, in the opinion of the director, the complaint should be dismissed, but the director has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued and sent to the licensee.

(12) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(13) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed practices immediately cease.

(14) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (14) shall be promptly notified by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (14) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (14). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (14), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(15) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(16) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(17) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in subsection (7) of this section.

12-41.5-110. Exceptions.

(1) Repealed.

(2) This article does not prohibit:

(a) (I) Any practice of respiratory therapy that is an integral part of a program of study by students enrolled in an accredited respiratory therapy program. Students enrolled in respiratory therapy education programs shall be identified as "student respiratory therapists" and shall only provide respiratory therapy under direct supervision of a respiratory therapist on the premises who is available for prompt consultation or treatment.

(II) The practice of respiratory therapy by pulmonary function technology students or polysomnographic technology students that is an integral part of a program of study that leads to certification or registration for their respective disciplines. Students enrolled in such programs shall be identified as "student pulmonary functions technologists" or "student polysomnographic technologists" and shall practice only under the direct supervision of a respiratory therapist or physician or under the supervision of an individual exempted from the provisions of this article pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection (2).

(III) The practice of respiratory therapy by polysomnographic technologists who are not registered by or do not hold credentials from a nationally recognized organization, but such polysomnographic technologists shall only practice under the supervision of a respiratory therapist, a physician, or an individual exempted from the provisions of this article pursuant to paragraph (g) of this subsection (2).

(b) Self-therapy by a patient or gratuitous therapy by a friend or family member who does not represent himself or herself to be a respiratory therapist;

(c) Any service provided during an emergency that may be included in the definition of the practice of respiratory therapy;

(d) Respiratory therapy services rendered in the course of assigned duties of persons serving in the military or persons working in federal facilities;

(e) Respiratory therapy services rendered in the course of assigned duties of persons delivering oxygen supplies, including the inspection and maintenance of associated apparatus by a person who does not represent himself or herself as a respiratory therapist;

(f) Any person registered, certified, or licensed in this state under this title from engaging in the practice for which such person is registered, certified, or licensed;

(g) The practice of procedures that fall within the definition of respiratory therapy by certified pulmonary function technologists, registered pulmonary function technologists, registered polysomnographic technologists, or others who hold credentials from a nationally recognized organization as determined by the director, including, but not limited to, the national board for respiratory care; except that the scope of practice of a registered polysomnographic technologist shall not exceed oxygen titration with pulse oximetry and noninvasive positive pressure ventilation titration;

(h) The instruction or training of persons to administer emergency oxygen during an aquatic emergency, when such instruction or training is provided by an individual who has been certified to conduct such instruction or training by a nationally recognized certifying agency; or

(i) The practice by an unlicensed person of procedures that fall within the definition of respiratory therapy but that do not require the unlicensed person to perform an assessment, to perform an invasive procedure as defined by the director, or to alter care beyond the scope of approved protocols, so long as the unlicensed person is under supervision as determined appropriate by the respiratory therapist and after such respiratory therapist has considered all of the following:

- (I) The health status and mental and physical stability of the individual receiving care;
- (II) The complexity of the procedures;
- (III) The training and competence of the unlicensed person;
- (IV) The proximity and availability of the respiratory therapist when the procedures are performed;
- (V) The degree of supervision required for the unlicensed person;
- (VI) The length and number of times that the procedure may be performed; and
- (VII) The predictability of the outcome of the procedure.

12-42-101. Legislative declaration. It is declared to be the policy of the state of Colorado that, in order to safeguard life, health, property, and the public welfare of the people of the state of Colorado, and in order to protect the people of the state of Colorado against unauthorized, unqualified, and improper application of interpersonal psychiatric nursing relationships, it is necessary that a proper regulatory authority be established, and adequately provided for. Any person who practices as a psychiatric technician without qualifying for proper registration, and without submitting to the regulations provided in this article, endangers the public health thereby.

12-42-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Accredited psychiatric technician education program" means a course of training conducted by a school for the training of psychiatric technicians carrying out the basic curriculum prescribed by this article and accredited by the board.

(2) "Board" means the state board of nursing.

(3) "Person" includes an individual, firm, partnership, association, or corporation.

(4) The practice as a "psychiatric technician" means the performance for compensation of selected acts requiring interpersonal and technical skills and includes the administering of selected treatments and selected medications prescribed by a licensed physician or dentist, in the care of and in the observation and recognition of symptoms and reactions of a patient with a mental illness or developmental disability under the direction of a licensed physician and the supervision of a registered professional nurse. The selected acts in the care of a patient with a mental illness or developmental disability shall not require the substantial specialized skill, judgment, and knowledge required in professional nursing.

12-42-109. License by endorsement. The board may issue a license without examination to an applicant who is licensed or otherwise registered as a psychiatric technician by another state or a territory of the United States if the requirements for license or registration in such state or territory are substantially equal to the requirements in this article; but in no event shall an applicant be required to meet qualifications higher than those in force in this state at the time of his application for license in this state. Every applicant under this section shall state under oath that he has not committed an act which would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article and that he has completed a four-year high school course of study or the equivalent thereof.

12-42-111. Accredited psychiatric technician educational program. (1) (a) Any institution within the state of Colorado desiring to conduct an accredited preservice psychiatric technician educational program may apply to the board and submit evidence that it is prepared to carry out a psychiatric technician curriculum that contains theoretical content and clinical practice to prepare the psychiatric technician student to care for clients with developmental disabilities or mental illness in institutional and community settings.

(b) Content in a psychiatric technician educational program shall include but shall not be limited to:

(I) Fundamental nursing principles and skills;

(II) Growth and developmental and other physical and behavioral skills;

(III) Mental retardation theory and rehabilitation nursing principles and skills if the technician is to be licensed to care for clients with developmental disabilities; and

(IV) Psychopathology and psychiatric nursing principles and skills if the technician is to be licensed to care for clients with mental illness.

(2) A survey of the institution and its entire psychiatric technician educational program shall be made by the executive secretary or other authorized board employee. Such survey may be conducted in conjunction with an authorized consultant appointed by the board. The persons making such survey shall submit a written report of the survey to the board. One or more board members may participate in any such survey.

(3) If the requirements of this article for an accredited psychiatric technician educational program are met, the institution shall be accredited as a psychiatric technician educational program for psychiatric technicians for work with patients with mental illness or developmental disabilities, for so long as such institution meets the requirements of this article.

(4) The board shall examine, from time to time, the accredited psychiatric technician educational programs of all institutions in the state having such programs. Such examinations shall be made by the executive secretary or other authorized representative of the board, and the results thereof shall be submitted to the board in the form of written reports. If the board determines that an institution having an accredited psychiatric technician educational program is not maintaining the standards required by this article, notice thereof in writing specifying the defect shall be served on such institution by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested. If the institution receiving such notice fails within one year after mailing of such notice to correct the conditions complained of therein, its authority to conduct an accredited psychiatric technician educational program shall be revoked by the board. An institution shall have the right, at any time before the expiration of one year from the date it receives such notice, to demand and be granted a hearing before the board. In case of such demand, no action shall be taken by the board until after the hearing.

12-42-112. Renewal of license. (1) To renew a license issued pursuant to this article, a licensee shall submit an application for renewal pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies, and the license shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, such license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(3) A person who is not engaged as a psychiatric technician in the state shall not be required to pay a renewal fee for so long as he does not so practice, but shall notify the board of his inactive status in writing. Prior to resumption of the practice as a psychiatric technician such person shall be required to notify the board and remit a renewal fee for the current annual period. After a five-year period in an inactive status, such license may be renewed only by complying with the provisions in this article relating to the issuance of an original license.

12-42-113. Grounds for discipline. (1) "Grounds for discipline", as used in this article, means any action by any person who:

(a) Has procured or attempted to procure a license by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, misleading omission, or material misstatement of fact;

(b) (I) Has been convicted of a felony or any crime that would constitute a violation of this article.

(II) (A) For purposes of this paragraph (b), a conviction includes a plea of guilty or nolo contendere or the imposition of a sentence that is deferred prior to final sentencing or dismissal with prejudice.

(B) A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea shall be prima facie evidence of such conviction.

(III) Repealed.

(c) Has willfully or negligently acted in a manner inconsistent with the health or safety of persons under his care;

(d) Has had a license to practice as a psychiatric technician or any other health care occupation suspended or revoked in any jurisdiction. A certified copy of the order of suspension or revocation shall be prima facie evidence of such suspension or revocation.

(e) Has violated any provision of this article or has aided or knowingly permitted any person to violate any provision of this article;

(f) Has negligently or willfully practiced as a psychiatric technician in a manner which fails to meet generally accepted standards for such practice;

(g) Has negligently or willfully violated any order, rule, or regulation of the board pertaining to practice or licensure as a psychiatric technician;

(h) Has falsified or in a negligent manner made incorrect entries or failed to make essential entries on patient records;

(i) Is addicted to or dependent on alcohol or habit-forming drugs, is a habitual user of controlled substances, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects, or is diverting controlled substances, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects from the licensee's place of employment; except that the board has the discretion not to discipline the licensee if such licensee is participating in good faith in a program approved by the board designed to end such addiction or dependency;

(j) Has a physical or mental disability which renders him unable to practice as a psychiatric technician with reasonable skill and safety to the patients and which may endanger the health or safety of persons under his care;

(k) Has violated the confidentiality of information or knowledge as prescribed by law concerning any patient;

(l) Has engaged in any conduct which would constitute a crime as defined in title 18, C.R.S., and which conduct relates to such person's employment as a psychiatric technician;

(m) Willfully fails to respond in a materially factual and timely manner to a complaint issued pursuant to section 12-38-116.5 (3);

(n) Fraudulently obtains, sells, transfers, or furnishes any psychiatric technician diploma, license, renewal of license, or record, or aids or abets another in such activity;

(o) Advertises, represents, or holds himself or herself out in any manner as a psychiatric technician or practices as a psychiatric technician without having a license to practice as a psychiatric technician issued under this article;

(p) Uses in connection with his or her name any designation tending to imply that he or she is a licensed psychiatric technician without having a license issued under this article; or

(q) Practices as a psychiatric technician during the time his or her license is suspended or revoked.

(2) to (6) Repealed.

12-42-114. Withholding or denial of license - hearing. (1) The board is empowered to determine summarily whether an applicant for a license to practice as a psychiatric technician possesses the qualifications required by this article or whether there is probable cause to believe that an applicant has done any of the acts set forth in section 12-42-113 as grounds for discipline. As used in this section, "applicant" does not include a renewal applicant.

(2) If the board determines that an applicant does not possess the qualifications required by this article or that probable cause exists to believe that an applicant has done any of the acts set forth in section 12-42-113, the board may withhold or deny the applicant a license. In such instance, the provisions of section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S., shall apply, and the board shall provide such applicant with a statement in writing setting forth the basis of the board's determination that the applicant does not possess the qualifications required by this article or the factual basis for probable cause that the applicant has done any of the acts set forth in section 12-42-113.

(3) If the applicant requests a hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S., and fails to appear without good cause at such hearing, the board may affirm its prior action of withholding or denial without conducting a hearing.

(4) Following a hearing, the board shall affirm, modify, or reverse its prior action in accordance with its findings at such hearing.

(5) No action shall lie against the board for the withholding or denial of a license without a hearing in accordance with the provisions of this section if the board acted reasonably and in good faith.

(6) At such hearing, the applicant shall have the burden of proof to show that he possesses the qualifications required for licensure under this article. The board shall have the burden of proof to show commission of acts set forth in section 12-42-113.

12-42-115.5. Immunity in professional review. (1) If a professional review committee is established pursuant to section 12-38-109 to investigate the quality of care being given by a person licensed pursuant to this article, it shall include in its membership at least three persons licensed in the same category as the licensee under review, but such committee may be authorized to act only by the board.

(2) Any member of the board or of a professional review committee, any member of the board's or committee's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board or committee, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board or committee member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if such individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-42-115.7. Surrender of license. (1) Prior to the initiation of an investigation or hearing, any licensee may surrender his license to practice as a psychiatric technician.

(2) Following the initiation of an investigation or hearing and upon a finding that to do so would be in the public interest, the board may allow a licensee to surrender his license to practice.

(3) The board shall not issue a license to a former licensee whose license has been surrendered unless the licensee meets all of the requirements of this article for a new applicant, including the passing of an examination.

(4) The surrender of a license in accordance with this section removes all rights and privileges to practice as a psychiatric technician, including renewal of a license.

12-42-116. Exclusions. (1) This article shall not be construed to affect or apply to the gratuitous care of a person with a mental illness by friends or members of the family or to any person taking care of a person with a mental illness for hire who does not represent himself or herself or hold himself or herself out to the public as a trained or licensed psychiatric technician; but no one for hire shall hold himself or herself out as or perform the full duties of a psychiatric technician who is not a psychiatric technician licensed under the provisions of this article.

(2) This article shall not be construed to prohibit the practice as a psychiatric technician by students enrolled in an accredited psychiatric technician educational program or by graduates of such accredited psychiatric technician educational program pending the results of the first licensing examination scheduled by the board following their graduation.

(3) Furthermore, this article shall not be construed to prohibit:

(a) Practical nursing; subsidiary workers in hospitals or similarly related institutions from assisting in the nursing care of patients where adequate medical and nursing supervision is provided;

(b) Subsidiary workers in the offices of persons licensed to practice medicine or dentistry in this state from assisting in the care of patients under the personal and responsible supervision and direction of such persons; or

(c) The practice of any legally qualified psychiatric technician of this state or another state who is employed by the United States government or any bureau, division, or agency thereof while in the discharge of his official duties.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-42.5-101. Public interest. The practice of pharmacy is a professional practice affecting the public health, safety, and welfare and is subject to regulation and control in the public interest. It is a matter of public interest and concern that the practice of pharmacy, as defined in this article, merits and receives the confidence of the public, and that only qualified persons be permitted to practice pharmacy in this state. This article is liberally construed to carry out these objects and purposes. Pursuant to these standards and obligations, the state board of pharmacy may adopt rules of professional conduct in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

12-42.5-102. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires or the term is otherwise defined in another part of this article:

- (1) “Administer” means the direct application of a drug to the body of a patient or research subject by injection, inhalation, ingestion, or any other method.
- (2) “Advertise” means to publish or display information about prescription prices or drugs in any medium.
- (3) “Anabolic steroid” has the same meaning as set forth in section 18-18-102 (3), C.R.S.
- (3.5) “Authorized distributor of record” means a wholesaler with whom a manufacturer has established an ongoing relationship to distribute the manufacturer’s prescription drug. For purposes of this subsection (3.5), an ongoing relationship is deemed to exist between a wholesaler and a manufacturer when the wholesaler, including any affiliated group of the wholesaler as defined in section 1504 of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, complies with the following:
 - (a) The wholesaler has a written agreement currently in effect with the manufacturer evidencing such ongoing relationship; and
 - (b) The wholesaler is listed on the manufacturer’s current list of authorized distributors of record, which list is updated by the manufacturer on no less than a monthly basis.
- (4) “Board” means the state board of pharmacy.

(5) "Bureau" means the drug enforcement administration, or its successor agency, of the United States department of justice.

(6) "Casual sale" means a transfer, delivery, or distribution to a corporation, individual, or other entity, other than a consumer, entitled to possess prescription drugs; except that the amount of drugs transferred, delivered, or distributed in such manner by any registered prescription drug outlet or hospital other outlet shall not exceed ten percent of the total number of dosage units of drugs dispensed and distributed on an annual basis by such outlet.

(6.5) "Chain pharmacy warehouse" means a physical location for prescription drugs that serves as a central warehouse and performs intracompany sales or transfers of prescription drugs to a group of chain pharmacies or other chain pharmacy warehouses that are under common ownership or control. Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a chain pharmacy warehouse receiving distributions on behalf of, or making distributions to, an intracompany pharmacy need not be an authorized distributor of record to be part of the normal distribution channel.

(7) (a) "Compounding" means the preparation, mixing, assembling, packaging, or labeling of a drug or device:

(I) As the result of a practitioner's prescription drug order, chart order, or initiative, based on the relationship between the practitioner, patient, and pharmacist in the course of professional practice; or

(II) For the purpose of, or as an incident to, research, teaching, or chemical analysis and not for sale or dispensing.

(b) "Compounding" also includes the preparation of drugs or devices in anticipation of prescription drug orders based on routine, regularly observed prescribing patterns.

(8) "Controlled substance" shall have the same meaning as in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.

(9) "Delivery" means the actual, constructive, or attempted transfer of a drug or device from one person to another, whether or not for consideration.

(10) "Device" means an instrument, apparatus, implement, machine, contrivance, implant, or similar or related article that is required under federal law to bear the label, "Caution: federal law requires dispensing by or on the order of a physician." "Device" also includes any component part of, or accessory or attachment to, any such article, whether or not the component part, accessory, or attachment is separately so labeled.

(11) "Dispense" means to interpret, evaluate, and implement a prescription drug order or chart order, including the preparation of a drug or device for a patient or patient's agent in a suitable container appropriately labeled for subsequent administration to or use by a patient.

(12) "Distribution" means the transfer of a drug or device other than by administering or dispensing.

(13) (a) "Drug" means:

(I) Substances recognized as drugs in the official compendia;

(II) Substances intended for use in the diagnosis, cure, mitigation, treatment, or prevention of disease in individuals or animals;

(III) Substances, other than food, intended to affect the structure or any function of the body of individuals or animals; and

(IV) Substances intended for use as a component of any substance specified in subparagraph (I), (II), or (III) of this paragraph (a).

(b) "Drug" does not include devices or their components, parts, or accessories.

(14) "Generic drug type" means the chemical or generic name, as determined by the United States adopted names (USAN) and accepted by the federal food and drug administration (FDA), of those drug products having exactly the same active chemical ingredients in exactly the same strength and quantity.

(15) "Hospital" means a general hospital or specialty hospital having a license or certificate of compliance issued by the department of public health and environment.

(16) "Hospital satellite pharmacy" means a satellite that registers pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (10) for the purpose of administration of drugs to patients while being treated in the facility.

(17) "Intern" means a person who is:

(a) (I) Enrolled in a professional degree program of a school or college of pharmacy that has been approved by the board;

(II) Currently licensed by the board to engage in the practice of pharmacy; and

(III) Satisfactorily progressing toward meeting the requirements for licensure as a pharmacist;

(b) Licensed as a pharmacist in Colorado or another state or territory of the United States and in good standing and making the clinical rotations of the nontraditional pharmacy program at the university of Colorado or a substantially equivalent program as determined by the board;

(c) A graduate of an approved professional degree program of a school or college of pharmacy or a graduate who has established education equivalency by obtaining a board-approved foreign pharmacy graduate certification and who is currently licensed by the board for the purpose of obtaining practical experience as a requirement for licensure as a pharmacist; or

(d) A qualified applicant awaiting examination for licensure as a pharmacist or meeting board requirements for licensure.

(18) "Labeling" means the process of preparing and affixing a label to any drug container, exclusive, however, of the labeling by a manufacturer, packer, or distributor of a nonprescription drug or commercially packaged legend drug or device. Any such label shall include all information required by federal and state law or regulation.

(19) "Location" means the physical confines of an individual building or at the same address.

(19.5) "Long-term care facility" means a nursing facility, as defined in section 25.5-4-103 (14), C.R.S., that is licensed pursuant to section 25-1.5-103, C.R.S.

(20) "Manufacture" means to cultivate, grow, or prepare by other process drugs for sale to wholesalers or other persons entitled to purchase drugs other than the ultimate user, but "manufacture" does not include the compounding and dispensing of a prescription drug pursuant to a prescription order.

(20.5) "Manufacturer's exclusive distributor" means a person who contracts with a manufacturer to provide or coordinate warehousing, distribution, or other services on behalf of a manufacturer and who takes title to the manufacturer's prescription drug but who does not have general responsibility to direct the sale or disposition of the manufacturer's prescription drug. To be considered part of the normal distribution channel, as defined in section 12-42.5-301 (6), a manufacturer's exclusive distributor shall be an authorized distributor of record.

(21) "Nonprescription drug" means a drug that may be sold without a prescription and that is labeled for use by the consumer in accordance with the requirements of the law and rules of this state and the federal government.

(22) "Nuclear pharmacy" means a specialized pharmacy that deals with the preparation and delivery of radioactive material as defined in section 25-11-101, C.R.S.

(23) "Official compendia" means the official United States pharmacopeia, national formulary, homeopathic pharmacopoeia of the United States, or any supplements thereto.

(24) "Order" means:

(a) A prescription order that is any order, other than a chart order, authorizing the dispensing of a single drug or device that is written, mechanically produced, computer generated and signed by the practitioner, transmitted electronically or by facsimile, or produced by other means of communication by a practitioner to a licensed pharmacy or pharmacist and that includes the name or identification of the patient, the date, the symptom or purpose for which the drug is being prescribed, if included by the practitioner at the patient's authorization, and sufficient information for compounding, dispensing, and labeling; or

(b) A chart order, which is an order for inpatient drugs or medications that are to be dispensed by a pharmacist, or by a pharmacy intern under the direct supervision of a pharmacist, and administered by an authorized person only during the patient's stay in a hospital, medical clinic operated by a hospital, ambulatory surgical center, hospice, or long-term care facility. The chart order shall contain the name of the patient and the medicine ordered and such directions as the practitioner may prescribe concerning strength, dosage, frequency, and route of administration.

(25) "Other outlet" means:

(a) A hospital that does not operate a registered pharmacy, rural health clinic, federally qualified health center, as defined in section 1861 (aa) (4) of the federal "Social Security Act", 42 U.S.C. sec. 1395x (aa) (4), family planning clinic, school, jail, county or district public health agency, community health clinic, university, or college that:

(I) Has facilities in this state registered pursuant to this article; and

(II) Engages in the compounding, dispensing, and delivery of drugs or devices; or

(b) An ambulatory surgical center licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., a medical clinic operated by a hospital, or a hospice licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., that:

(I) Has facilities in this state registered pursuant to this article; and

(II) Engages in the compounding, dispensing, and delivery of drugs or devices for administration to patients while being treated in the facility.

(26) "Patient counseling" means the oral communication by a pharmacist or intern of information to the patient or caregiver in order to improve therapy by ensuring proper use of drugs and devices.

(27) "Pharmaceutical care" means the provision of drug therapy and other pharmaceutical patient care services by a pharmacist intended to achieve outcomes related to the cure or prevention of a disease, elimination or reduction of a patient's symptoms, or arresting or slowing of a disease process. In addition to the preparation, dispensing, and distribution of medications, "pharmaceutical care" may include assessment and evaluation of the patient's medication-related needs and development and communication of a therapeutic plan with defined outcomes in consultation with the patient and the patient's other health care professionals to attain the desired outcome. This function includes efforts to prevent, detect, and resolve medication-related problems for individual patients. "Pharmaceutical care" does not include prescriptive authority; except that a pharmacist may prescribe only over-the-counter medications to a recipient under the "Colorado Medical Assistance Act" as authorized pursuant to section 25.5-5-322, C.R.S.

(28) "Pharmacist" means an individual licensed by this state to engage in the practice of pharmacy.

(29) "Pharmacist manager" means an individual, licensed in this state as a pharmacist, who has direct control of the pharmaceutical affairs of a prescription drug outlet, and who is not the manager of any other prescription drug outlet.

(29.5) "Pharmacy buying cooperative warehouse" means a permanent physical location that acts as a central warehouse for prescription drugs and from which sales of prescription drugs are made to an exclusive group of pharmacies that are members or member owners of the buying cooperative operating the warehouse.

(30) "Pharmacy technician" means an unlicensed person who performs those functions set forth in paragraph (b) of subsection (31) of this section under the supervision of a pharmacist.

(31) "Practice of pharmacy" means:

(a) The interpretation, evaluation, implementation, and dispensing of orders; participation in drug and device selection, drug administration, drug regimen reviews, and drug or drug-related research; provision of patient counseling; and the provision of those acts or services necessary to provide pharmaceutical care in all areas of patient care; and

(b) (I) The preparation, mixing, assembling, packaging, labeling, or delivery of a drug or device;

(II) Proper and safe storage of drugs or devices; and

(III) The maintenance of proper records for such drugs and devices.

(32) "Practitioner" means a person authorized by law to prescribe any drug or device, acting within the scope of such authority.

(33) "Prescription" means the finished product of the dispensing of a prescription order in an appropriately labeled and suitable container.

(34) "Prescription drug" means a drug that:

(a) Is required by any applicable federal or state law or rule to be dispensed only pursuant to an order;

(b) Is restricted by any applicable federal or state law or rule to use by practitioners only; or

(c) Prior to being dispensed or delivered, is required under federal law to be labeled with one of the following statements:

(I) "Rx only"; or

(II) "Caution: Federal law restricts this drug to use by or on the order of a licensed veterinarian."

(35) "Prescription drug outlet" or "pharmacy" means any pharmacy outlet registered pursuant to this article where prescriptions are compounded and dispensed. "Prescription drug outlet" includes, without limitation, a compounding prescription drug outlet registered pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (9) or specialized prescription drug outlet registered pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (11).

(36) "Refill" means the compounding and dispensing of any drug pursuant to a previously executed order.

(36.3) "Repackage" means repackaging or otherwise changing the container, wrapper, or labeling to further the distribution of a prescription drug, excluding repackaging or labeling completed by the pharmacist responsible for dispensing product to the patient.

(36.5) "Repackager" means a person who repackages prescription drugs.

(37) "Sample" means any prescription drug given free of charge to any practitioner for any reason except for a bona fide research program.

(38) "Satellite" means an area outside the prescription drug outlet where pharmaceutical care and services are provided and that is in the same location.

(39) "Supervision" means that a licensed pharmacist is on the location and readily available to consult with and assist unlicensed personnel performing tasks described in paragraph (b) of subsection (31) of this section.

(40) "Therapeutically equivalent" or "equivalent" means those compounds containing the identical active chemical ingredients of identical strength, quantity, and dosage form and of the same generic drug type, which, when administered in the same amounts, will provide the same therapeutic effect as evidenced by the control of a symptom or disease.

(41) "Ultimate user" means a person who lawfully possesses a prescription drug for his or her own use, for the use of a member of the person's household, or for use in administering to an animal owned by the person or a member of his or her household.

(42) (a) "Wholesale distribution" means distribution of prescription drugs to persons or entities other than a consumer or patient.

(b) "Wholesale distribution" does not include:

(I) Intracompany sales or transfers of prescription drugs, including a transaction or transfer between a division, subsidiary, parent, or affiliated or related company under common ownership or control of an entity;

(II) The sale, purchase, distribution, trade, or transfer of a prescription drug or offer to sell, purchase, distribute, trade, or transfer a prescription drug for emergency medical reasons or during a state or national declaration of emergency;

(III) The sale or transfer of a drug for medical reasons by a retail pharmacy to another retail pharmacy to alleviate a temporary shortage;

(IV) The distribution of prescription drug samples by a manufacturer's representative;

(V) Drug returns, when conducted by a hospital, health care entity, or charitable institution in accordance with 21 CFR 203.23;

(VI) The sale of minimal quantities of prescription drugs by retail pharmacies to licensed practitioners for office use;

(VII) A retail pharmacy's delivery of prescription drugs to a patient or patient's agent pursuant to the lawful order of a licensed practitioner;

(VIII) The sale, transfer, merger, or consolidation of all or part of the business of a pharmacy or pharmacies from or with another pharmacy or pharmacies, whether accomplished as a purchase and sale of stock or business assets;

(IX) The direct sale, purchase, distribution, trade, or transfer of a prescription drug from a manufacturer to an authorized distributor of record to one additional authorized distributor of record but only if an authorized distributor of record that purchases a prescription drug from an authorized distributor of record that purchased the prescription drug directly from the manufacturer:

(A) Provides the supplying authorized distributor of record with a verifiable statement that the product is unavailable from the manufacturer; and

(B) Receives a verifiable statement from the supplying authorized distributor of record that the product was purchased directly from the manufacturer;

(X) The delivery of, or offer to deliver, a prescription drug by a common carrier solely in the common carrier's usual course of business of transporting prescription drugs where the common carrier does not store, warehouse, or take legal ownership of the prescription drug;

(XI) The sale or transfer from a retail pharmacy or chain pharmacy warehouse of expired, damaged, returned, or recalled prescription drugs to the original manufacturer or to a third-party returns processor;

(XII) The sale or transfer of compounded drugs compounded by a retail pharmacy as defined in subsection (7) of this section and as authorized by section 12-42.5-119 (6) (b);

(XIII) The transfer of prescription drugs within Colorado purchased with public funds by the department of public health and environment, created in section 25-1-102, C.R.S., or a district or county public health agency, created pursuant to section 25-1-506, C.R.S., and procured by a physician licensed in Colorado who is either the executive director or the chief medical officer appointed pursuant to section 25-1-105, C.R.S., or a public health director or medical officer of a county or district public health agency selected pursuant to section 25-1-508 (5) (c) (I), C.R.S. The transfers may only be made to the department of public health and environment pursuant to the Colorado medical license of the executive director or chief medical officer, a district or county public health agency pursuant to the Colorado medical license of the public health director or medical officer, or a physician licensed in Colorado.

(43) "Wholesaler" means a person engaged in the wholesale distribution of prescription drugs to persons, other than consumers, who are entitled to possess prescription drugs, including: Repackagers; own-label distributors; private-label distributors; jobbers; brokers; warehouses, including manufacturers' and distributors' warehouses; manufacturers' exclusive distributors; authorized distributors of record; drug wholesalers or distributors; independent wholesale drug traders; pharmacy buying cooperative warehouses; retail pharmacies that conduct wholesale distribution; and chain pharmacy warehouses that conduct wholesale distribution.

ANNOTATION

Under the act of 1887, it was held that the governor may appoint a state board of pharmacy by his own act, and without the advice and consent of the senate, the power to appoint being expressly conferred and such advice and consent not being required. In re Question Propounded by Governor, 12 Colo. 399, 21 P. 488 (1888) (decided prior to earliest source).

12-42.5-104. Membership of board - removal - compensation - meetings.

(1) (a) The board is composed of five licensed pharmacists, each having at least five years’ experience in this state and actively engaged in the practice of pharmacy in this state, and two nonpharmacists who have no financial interest in the practice of pharmacy.

(b) The governor shall make all appointments to the board in accordance with this section.

(c) For purposes of achieving a balance in the membership on the board, the governor shall consider:

(I) Whether the appointee’s home is in:

(A) An urban or rural location; and

(B) An area already represented geographically by another appointee on the board; and

(II) The type of practice of the appointee so that various types of practices are represented on the board.

(d) (I) The term of office of each member is four years.

(II) In the case of an appointment to fill a vacancy, the appointee shall complete the unexpired term of the former board member.

(III) No member of the board may serve more than two consecutive full terms.

(e) No more than four members of the board shall be members of the same major political party.

(f) The governor shall appoint the pharmacist members in a manner to ensure that the term of one member expires July 1 of each year.

(2) The governor may remove any board member for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty.

(3) Each member of the board shall receive the compensation provided for in section 24-34-102 (13), C.R.S.

(4) The board shall hold meetings at least once every four months at the times and places fixed by the board. At one meeting, the board shall elect a president and a vice-president. A majority of the members of the board constitutes a quorum for the conduct of business, and, except as otherwise provided in this part 1, all actions of the board must be by a majority of a quorum. The board shall give full and timely notice of all meetings of the board pursuant to any requirements of state laws. All board meetings and hearings are open to the public; except that the board may conduct any portion of its meetings in executive session closed to the public, as may be permitted by law.

12-42.5-106. Powers and duties. (1) The board shall:

- (a) Inspect, or direct inspectors who are licensed pharmacists to inspect, all outlets and investigate violations of this article;
- (b) Prescribe forms and receive applications for licensure and registration and grant, renew, reactivate, and reinstate licenses and registrations;
- (c) Deny, suspend, or revoke licenses or registrations;
- (d) Apply to the courts for and obtain in accordance with the Colorado rules of civil procedure restraining orders and injunctions to enjoin violations of the laws that the board is empowered to enforce;
- (e) Administer examinations to, and determine the qualifications and fitness of, applicants for licensure or registration;
- (f) Keep a record of:
 - (I) All licenses, registrations, and license and registration renewals, reactivations, and reinstatements for a reasonable period;
 - (II) All suspensions, revocations, and any other disciplinary actions; and
 - (III) Its own proceedings;
- (g) Collect all fees prescribed by this article;
- (h) Fine registrants when consistent with the provisions of this article and the rules adopted pursuant to this article;
 - (i) (I) Conduct investigations, hold hearings, and take evidence in all matters relating to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the board.
 - (II) (A) The board or an administrative law judge may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter before the board.
 - (B) The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence, make findings, and report the findings to the board.
 - (III) Upon failure of any witness to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. The court may hold the person or licensee in contempt of court for failure to obey the order of the court.

(j) Review and approve or reject applications for participation in the pharmacy peer health assistance diversion program pursuant to part 2 of this article and perform any other functions that were performed by the rehabilitation evaluation committee prior to its repeal.

(2) The board has other duties, powers, and authority as may be necessary to enforce this article and the rules adopted pursuant to this article.

(3) The board may:

(a) Adopt a seal to be used only in the manner the board prescribes;

(b) Promulgate rules governing the compounding of pharmaceutical products, which rules must address the following:

(I) Training and qualifications;

(II) Quality control;

(III) Internal operating procedures;

(IV) Procurement of compounding materials;

(V) Formulation, documentation, and testing requirements;

(VI) Equipment standards;

(VII) Facility standards; and

(VIII) A recall system.

(4) (a) (I) Whenever a duly authorized agent of the board finds or has probable cause to believe that, in any registered outlet, any drug, nonprescription drug, or device is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of the "Colorado Food and Drug Act", part 4 of article 5 of title 25, C.R.S., the agent shall affix to the article a tag or other appropriate marking giving notice:

(A) That the article is, or is suspected of being, adulterated or misbranded;

(B) That the article has been detained or embargoed; and

(C) Warning all persons not to remove or dispose of the article by sale or otherwise until the board, its agent, or the court gives provision for removal or disposal.

(II) No person shall remove or dispose of an embargoed article by sale or otherwise without the permission of the board or its agent or, after summary proceedings have been instituted, without permission from the court.

(b) If the board or the court removes the embargo, neither the board nor the state is liable for damages because of the embargo if the court finds that there was probable cause for the embargo.

(c) When an agent finds that an article detained or embargoed under paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) is adulterated or misbranded, the agent shall petition the judge of the district court in whose jurisdiction the article is detained or embargoed for an order for condemnation of the article. When the agent finds that an article so detained or embargoed is not adulterated or misbranded, he or she shall remove the tag or other marking.

(d) (I) If the court finds that a detained or embargoed article is adulterated or misbranded, except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (d), the court shall order the article, after entry of the decree, to be destroyed at the expense of the owner of the article under the supervision of the agent. The owner of the article or the owner's agent shall bear all court costs and fees, storage, and other proper expense.

(II) When the owner can correct the adulteration or misbranding by proper labeling or processing of the article, after entry of the decree and after the owner has paid the costs, fees, and expenses and has posted a good and sufficient bond, conditioned that the article be properly labeled or processed, the court may direct, by order, that the article be delivered to the owner for proper labeling or processing under the supervision of an agent. The owner shall pay the expense of the agent's supervision. The bond must be returned to the owner of the article once the board represents to the court that the article is no longer in violation of the embargo and that the owner has paid the expenses of supervision.

(e) It is the duty of the attorney general or the district attorney to whom the board reports any violation of this subsection (4) to institute appropriate proceedings in the proper courts without delay and to prosecute the matter in the manner required by law. Nothing in this paragraph (e) requires the board to report violations when the board believes the public interest will be adequately served in the circumstances by a suitable written notice or warning.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-42.5-106 is similar to § 12-22-104 as it existed prior to the 1979 repeal and reenactment of former article 22 of this title, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Regulation of pharmacists and sale of drugs authorized by police power. The state has authority under the police power for the protection of the public health and welfare to regulate the practice of pharmacy and the sale of drugs, and to delegate to an administrative agency the power and authority to adopt rules and regulations and provide for their enforcement. Moore v. District Court, 184 Colo. 63, 518 P.2d 948 (1974).

Constitutionality of board's exercise of powers presumed valid. As an administrative agency statutorily created and endowed with specific enumerated powers and duties delegated pursuant to the police power of the state, the board's exercise of those powers within the scope of its authority is entitled to a presumption of validity and constitutionality. Moore v. District Court, 184 Colo. 63, 518 P.2d 948 (1974).

Presumption not lightly cast aside. The presumption of validity of the rules regularly promulgated by the board is not to be lightly cast aside by mere allegations in a complaint of unconstitutionality. Moore v. District Court, 184 Colo. 63, 518 P.2d 948 (1974).

Burden is upon party challenging constitutionality of board's rules to establish by a clear and convincing showing beyond a reasonable doubt the asserted invalidity. Moore v. District Court, 184 Colo. 63, 518 P.2d 948 (1974).

Board not required to issue notice before announcing final decision following changes in penalty. Changes, made by the state board of pharmacy in a hearing officer's penalty for pharmacist's violation of § 12-22-124, rendered without notice to the appellant or without any further hearings following a hearing officer's initial decision and order, were quasi-judicial in nature and thus neither § 12-22-124 nor due process principles required that the board issue any notice prior to announcing its final decision. Mitchell v. Klapper, 626 P.2d 1163 (Colo. App. 1980) (decided under law in effect prior to the 1976 repeal of former sect; 12-22-114 (3)(c)).

12-42.5-107. Drugs, devices, and other materials. (1) The board is responsible for the control and regulation of drugs, including the following:

- (a) The regulation of the sale at retail and the dispensing of drugs;
 - (b) The specification of minimum professional and technical equipment, environment, supplies, and procedures for the compounding or dispensing of medications and drugs;
 - (c) The control of the purity and quality of drugs.
- (2) The board is responsible for the control and regulation of the sale of devices at retail.

12-42.5-109. Reporting - malpractice claims. (1) Each insurance company licensed to do business in this state and engaged in the writing of malpractice insurance for licensed pharmacists and pharmacies, and each pharmacist or pharmacy that self-insures, shall send to the board, in the form prescribed by the board, information relating to each malpractice claim against a licensed pharmacist that is settled or in which judgment is rendered against the insured.

(2) The insurance company or self-insured pharmacist or pharmacy shall provide information relating to each malpractice claim as is deemed necessary by the board to conduct a further investigation and hearing.

(3) Information relating to each malpractice claim provided by insurance companies or self-insured pharmacists or pharmacies is exempt from the provisions of any law requiring that the proceedings of the board be conducted publicly or that the minutes or records of the board be open to public inspection unless the board takes final disciplinary action. The board may use the information in any formal hearing involving a licensee or registrant.

12-42.5-110. Fees. (1) The director of the division of professions and occupations shall determine, and the board shall collect, fees pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., for the following licenses and registrations:

(a) For certifying to another state the grades of a person who has taken the pharmacist examination in this state;

(b) For the initial licensure, upon examination, as a pharmacist, as provided in section 12-42.5-112 (4);

(c) For the initial licensure, without examination and upon presentation of evidence of licensure in another state, as a pharmacist, as provided in section 12-42.5-112 (8);

(d) For the renewal of a license as a licensed pharmacist, as provided in section 12-42.5-114 (1);

(e) For reinstatement as a licensed pharmacist, as provided in section 12-42.5-114 (2);

(f) For the transfer of a prescription drug outlet registration to a new owner, as provided in section 12-42.5-116 (2);

(g) For the transfer of a manager's name, as provided in section 12-42.5-116 (1);

(h) For the issuance of a duplicate certificate to a licensed pharmacist;

(i) For the initial licensure as a pharmacy intern;

(j) For the issuance of a duplicate license of a pharmacy intern;

(k) For the transfer of a prescription drug outlet registration to a new location, as provided in section 12-42.5-116 (2);

(l) For reissuing a prescription drug outlet registration in a new store name, without change of owner or manager, as provided in section 12-42.5-116 (2);

(m) For the initial registration or the renewal of the registration of a prescription drug outlet, as provided in section 12-42.5-116 (2);

(n) For the initial certificate evidencing licensure for all pharmacists;

(o) For the initial and renewal registration of all other outlets under section 12-42.5-117 not covered in this section;

(p) For the initial and renewal registration of all nonresident prescription drug outlets under section 12-42.5-130;

(q) For the initial and renewal registration of humane societies and animal control agencies pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (12).

(2) Any pharmacist licensed in Colorado for fifty years or more as a pharmacist is exempt from the payment of fees under this article and is allowed to practice as a licensed pharmacist.

12-42.5-111. Approval of schools. (1) A school or college of pharmacy that is approved by the board as a school or college of pharmacy from which graduation is required in order for the graduate of the school or college of pharmacy to apply for a license as a pharmacist must meet the requirements set forth by the board.

(2) The board may utilize the facilities, reports, requirements, and recommendations of any recognized accrediting organization in determining the requirements for a school or college of pharmacy.

(3) The board shall maintain a list of approved schools or colleges.

12-42.5-112. Licensure or registrations - applicability - applications - licensure requirements - rules. (1) This article applies to all persons in this state engaged in the practice of pharmacy and to all outlets in this state engaged in the manufacture, dispensing, production, sale, and distribution of drugs, devices, and other materials used in the treatment of injury, illness, and disease.

(2) (a) Every applicant for a license under this article must read and write the English language, or if the applicant is a partnership, each member of the partnership must read and write the English language. If the applicant is a Colorado corporation, the corporation must be in good standing, and if the applicant is a foreign corporation, it must be qualified to do business in this state.

(b) The board shall issue the appropriate registration to each manufacturer and wholesaler that meets the requirements of this article unless the board determines that the issuance of the registration would be inconsistent with the public interest. In determining the public interest, the board shall consider the following factors:

(I) Maintenance of effective controls against diversion of controlled substances into illegitimate medical, scientific, or industrial channels;

(II) Compliance with applicable state and local laws;

(III) Any conviction of the applicant under any federal or state law relating to a controlled substance;

(IV) Past experience in the manufacture or distribution of controlled substances and the existence in the applicant's establishment of effective controls against diversion;

(V) Any false or fraudulent information in an application filed under this part 1;

(VI) Suspension or revocation of the applicant's federal registration to manufacture, distribute, or dispense a controlled substance as authorized by federal law; and

(VII) Any other factors relevant to and consistent with the public peace, health, and safety.

(3) Every applicant for a license or registration under this article shall make written application in the manner and form prescribed by the board, setting forth the applicant's name and address, the applicant's qualifications for the license or registration, and other information required by the board. The applicant shall submit with the application the required fee, and, if the applicant is required to take an examination, the applicant shall appear for examination at the time and place fixed by the board.

(4) (a) (I) An applicant who has graduated from a school or college of pharmacy approved by the board may take an examination before the board.

(II) The examination must be designed fairly to test the applicant's knowledge of pharmacy and other related subjects and must be in a form approved by the board. The examination cannot be administered orally.

(III) An applicant for licensure by examination shall have completed an internship as prescribed by the board.

(b) A person who produces evidence satisfactory to the board that the person has graduated and obtained a degree from a school of pharmacy outside the United States and has passed a foreign graduate equivalency test given or approved by the board may apply to take the examination set forth in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4).

(5) Every applicant for licensure as a pharmacist, whether by examination, transfer of license, reactivation, or reinstatement, shall take a jurisprudence examination approved by the board that tests such applicant's knowledge of the laws of this state.

(6) No applicant shall exercise the privileges of licensure or registration until the board grants the license or registration.

(7) The board may require any applicant for licensure to display written or oral competency in English. The board may utilize a standardized test to determine language proficiency.

(8) A person licensed by examination and in good standing in another state may apply for a license transfer. The board shall designate a clearinghouse for license transfer applicants, and a person applying for a license transfer shall apply through the clearinghouse designated by the board.

(9) The board shall adopt rules as necessary to ensure that any person who manufactures drugs and any wholesaler of drugs possesses the minimum qualifications required for wholesale drug distributors pursuant to the federal "Prescription Drug Marketing Act of 1987", 21 U.S.C. sec. 353, as amended.

(10) A person whose license has been revoked shall not reapply for licensure earlier than two years after the effective date of the revocation.

(11) Issuance of a license or registration under this section and section 12-42.5-117 does not entitle a licensee or registered facility or outlet to wholesale, manufacture, distribute, dispense, or professionally use controlled substances beyond the scope of his or her federal registration.

12-42.5-113. Exemptions from licensure - hospital residency programs - home renal dialysis - research companies. (1) The board is authorized to approve hospital residency programs in the practice of pharmacy. Persons accepted into an approved hospital residency program who are licensed to practice pharmacy in another state are exempt from the licensing requirements of this article so long as their practice is limited to participation in the residency program.

(2) This article does not apply to the sale or delivery of a dialysis solution if all of the following conditions are met:

(a) The sale or delivery is made directly by the manufacturer to a person with chronic kidney failure or to the designee of the person;

(b) The sale or delivery is for the purpose of self-administration by the person pursuant to an order by a physician lawfully practicing in this state; and

(c) The solution is sold or delivered in original packages, properly labeled, and unadulterated in accordance with the requirements of the "Colorado Food and Drug Act", part 4 of article 5 of title 25, C.R.S., and the "Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act".

(3) A manufacturer that must obtain a prescription drug or device solely for use in its research, development, or testing procedures and that does not further distribute the drug or device may apply to the board for a waiver of registration pursuant to this subsection (3). The board may grant a waiver if the manufacturer submits to the board the name of the drug or device it requires and an affidavit certifying that the drug or device will only be used for necessary research, development, or testing procedures and will not be further distributed. A waiver granted pursuant to this subsection (3) does not apply to a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or in federal law.

(4) An employee of a facility, as defined in section 25-1.5-301, C.R.S., who is administering and monitoring medications to persons under the care or jurisdiction of the facility pursuant to part 3 of article 1.5 of title 25, C.R.S., need not be licensed by the board to lawfully possess controlled substances under this article.

12-42.5-114. Expiration and renewal of licenses or registrations. (1) All licenses and registrations expire pursuant to a schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations within the department of regulatory agencies and must be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director of the division of professions and occupations may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license or registration pursuant to the schedule established by the director of the division of professions and occupations, the license or registration expires. Any person whose license or registration expires is subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(2) A pharmacist who fails to renew his or her license on or before the applicable renewal time may have his or her license reinstated for the remainder of the current renewal period by filing a proper application, satisfying the board that the pharmacist is fully qualified to practice, and paying the reinstatement fee as provided in section 12-42.5-110 (1) (e) and all delinquent fees.

(3) Except for good cause shown, the board shall not grant a license to a pharmacy intern more than two years after the applicant has ceased to be an enrolled student in a college or school of pharmacy approved by the board.

12-42.5-115. Continuing education. (1) Except as permitted in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, the board shall not renew, reinstate, or reactivate the license of any pharmacist until the pharmacist presents evidence that he or she has completed twenty-four hours of approved continuing pharmaceutical education within the preceding two years. Subject to subsection (9) of this section, the evidence may be provided by checking a sign-off box on the license renewal application.

(2) (a) The board may renew the license of a pharmacist who presents acceptable evidence that the pharmacist was unable to comply with subsection (1) of this section.

(b) The board may grant a six-month compliance extension to pharmacists who are unable to comply with subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The board may renew the license for the first renewal period following the issuance of the original license without requiring a pharmacist to complete any continuing pharmaceutical education if the pharmacist obtains a license within one year after the completion of the pharmacist's pharmaceutical education.

(4) To qualify for continuing education credit, a program of continuing pharmaceutical education must be currently approved by the accreditation council on pharmaceutical education or an equivalent accrediting body as determined by the board.

(5) Each program of continuing pharmaceutical education must consist of at least one continuing education unit, which is one hour of participation in an organized continuing educational experience, including postgraduate studies, institutes, seminars, lectures, conferences, workshops, correspondence courses, cassette programs, programmed learning courses, audiovisual programs, internet programs, and any other form of presentation that is accredited.

(6) Any aspect of the practice of pharmacy may be the subject of a program of continuing pharmaceutical education, including pharmaceuticals, compounding, pharmacology, pharmaceutical chemistry, biochemistry, physiology, microbiology, pharmacy administration, and professional practice management.

(7) A program of continuing pharmaceutical education may include the following:

(a) A definite stated objective;

(b) Presentation in an organized manner; and

(c) A method of program evaluation that is suitable to the type of program being presented.

(8) A program of continuing pharmaceutical education must meet the requirements as established by the accrediting body.

(9) The board may annually audit up to five percent of the pharmacists licensed and residing in Colorado to determine compliance with this section.

(10) If a licensed pharmacist fails to obtain the twenty-four hours of approved continuing pharmaceutical education, the pharmacist's license becomes inactive. An inactive licensee is not required to comply with any continuing pharmaceutical education requirement so long as the licensee remains inactive, but the licensee must continue to pay applicable fees, including renewal fees. The board shall note "inactive status" on the face of any license it issues to a licensee while the licensee remains inactive. Should an inactive pharmacist wish to resume the practice of pharmacy after being placed on an inactive list, the pharmacist shall file an application to activate his or her license, pay the license renewal fee, and, subject to subsections (2) and (3) of this section, meet the twenty-four-hour continuing education requirement. If a licensed pharmacist engages in the practice of pharmacy while on inactive status, that conduct may be grounds for license revocation under this article.

12-42.5-116. Prescription drug outlet under charge of pharmacist. (1) (a) A prescription drug outlet must be under the direct charge of a pharmacist manager. A proprietor who is not a pharmacist shall comply with this requirement and shall provide a manager who is a pharmacist.

(b) The registration of any prescription drug outlet becomes void if the pharmacist manager in whose name the prescription drug outlet registration was issued ceases to be engaged as the manager. The owner shall close the prescription drug outlet unless the owner:

(I) Employs a new pharmacist manager; and

(II) Within thirty days after termination of the former manager's employment:

(A) Applies to transfer the registration to the new pharmacist manager; and

(B) Pays the registration transfer fee.

(c) At the time the pharmacist manager in whose name the registration was obtained ceases to be employed as the pharmacist manager, he or she shall immediately report to the board the fact that he or she is no longer manager of the prescription drug outlet. The pharmacist manager is responsible as the manager until the cessation of employment is reported. The proprietor of the prescription drug outlet shall also notify the board of the termination of managership.

(2) A prescription drug outlet shall not commence business until it applies to the board for a registration and receives from the board a registration showing the name of the proprietor and the name of the manager. Upon transfer of the ownership of a prescription drug outlet, the new proprietor shall submit to the board an application to transfer the registration of the prescription drug outlet, and, upon approval of the transfer by the board, the board shall transfer the registration to the new proprietor. Upon the change of name or location of a prescription drug outlet, the registrant shall submit an application to change the name or location and the applicable fee, and, upon approval of the application, the board shall issue a new registration showing the new name or new location.

(3) (a) A prescription drug outlet operated by the state of Colorado or any political subdivision of the state is not required to be registered but, in lieu of a registration, must apply to the board, on a form approved by the board, for a certificate of compliance. The board shall determine whether the prescription drug outlet is operated in accordance with the laws of this state and the rules of the board. If the board determines that the prescription drug outlet is operated in accordance with state laws and board rules, except for the holding of a prescription drug outlet registration, the board shall issue a certificate of compliance, which certificate expires and may be renewed in accordance with section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. Once the board issues the certificate of compliance, the prescription drug outlet has the rights and privileges of, and is treated in all respects as, a registered prescription drug outlet. The provisions of this article with respect to the denial, suspension, or revocation of a prescription drug outlet registration apply to a certificate of compliance.

(b) An outlet as recognized in section 12-42.5-117 (1) (d) need not be under the direct charge of a pharmacist, but a licensed pharmacist shall either initially interpret all prescription orders compounded or dispensed from the outlet or provide written protocols for compounding and dispensing by unlicensed persons. An outlet qualifying for registration under this paragraph (b) may also apply to the board for a waiver of the requirements concerning physical space, equipment, inventory, or business hours as necessary and consistent with the outlet's limited public welfare purpose. In determining the granting or denial of a waiver application, the board shall ensure that the public interest criteria set forth in section 12-42.5-101 are satisfied. All other provisions of this article, except as specifically waived by the board, apply to the outlet.

(4) Every outlet and every pharmacist and pharmacy intern regularly practicing shall conspicuously display the registration and license, respectively, within the premises of the place of practice or outlet.

(5) The pharmacist responsible for the prescription order or chart order may delegate certain specific tasks described in section 12-42.5-102 (31) (b) to a person who is not a pharmacist or pharmacy intern but who is an unlicensed assistant under the pharmacist's supervision if, in the pharmacist's professional judgment, the delegation is appropriate; except that the pharmacist shall not make the delegation if the delegation jeopardizes the public health, safety, or welfare, is prohibited by rule of the board, or violates section 12-42.5-126 (1).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-22-119 as it existed prior to 2012.

12-42.5-117. Registration of facilities - rules. (1) All outlets with facilities in this state shall register with the board in one of the following classifications:

- (a) Prescription drug outlet;
- (b) Wholesale drug outlet;
- (c) Manufacturing drug outlet;

(d) Any other outlet, as may be authorized by this article or that meets the definition of outlet as set forth in section 12-42.5-102 (25).

(2) The board shall establish, by rule, criteria, consistent with section 12-42.5-112 and with the public interest as set forth in section 12-42.5-101, that an outlet that has employees or personnel engaged in the practice of pharmacy must meet to qualify for registration in each classification.

(3) The board shall specify by rule the registration procedures applicants must follow, including the specifications for application for registration and the information needed.

(4) Registrations issued by the board pursuant to this section are transferable or assignable only pursuant to this article and rules established by the board.

(5) It is lawful for a person to sell and distribute nonprescription drugs. Any person engaged in the sale and distribution of nonprescription drugs is not improperly engaged in the practice of pharmacy, and the board shall not promulgate any rule pursuant to this article that permits the sale of nonprescription drugs only by a licensed pharmacist or only under the supervision of a licensed pharmacist or that would otherwise apply to or interfere with the sale and distribution of nonprescription drugs.

(6) The board shall accept the licensure or certification of nursing care facilities and intermediate care facilities required by the department of public health and environment as sufficient registration under this section.

(7) A separate registration is required under this section for any area outside the outlet that is not a satellite where pharmaceutical care and services are provided and for any area outside the outlet that is under different ownership from the outlet.

(8) No hospital outlet filling inpatient chart orders shall sell or otherwise transfer any portion of its prescription drug inventory to another registered outlet for sale or dispensing at retail. This subsection (8) does not limit any transfer of prescription drugs for the hospital's own use or limit the ability of a hospital outlet to engage in a casual sale.

(9) (a) Subject to paragraph (b) of this subsection (9), a prescription drug outlet may register as a compounding prescription drug outlet.

(b) The board shall not register a facility as a compounding prescription drug outlet unless:

(I) The facility has been accredited by a board-approved compounding accreditation entity to be within acceptable parameters to compound more than ten percent of the facility's total sales; and

(II) Ownership of the facility is vested solely in a pharmacist.

(c) To be approved by the board to accredit a compounding prescription drug outlet, a compounding accreditation entity shall be, at a minimum, a scientific organization with expertise in compounding medications.

(10) (a) On or after January 1, 2013, a satellite shall register as a hospital satellite pharmacy if the satellite:

(I) Is located in a facility that is under the same management and control as the building or site where the prescription drug outlet is located; and

(II) Has a different address than the prescription drug outlet.

(b) The board shall adopt rules as necessary to implement this subsection (10). At a minimum, the rules must set forth the manner in which a satellite is to apply for a hospital satellite pharmacy registration and the limits on the distance of satellites from the main prescription drug outlet.

(11) On or after January 1, 2013, a prescription drug outlet may register as a specialized prescription drug outlet if it engages in the compounding, dispensing, and delivery of drugs and devices to, or the provision of pharmaceutical care to residents of, a long-term care facility. The board shall adopt rules as necessary to implement this subsection (11).

(12) (a) A humane society that is duly registered with the secretary of state and has been in existence and in business for at least five years in this state as a nonprofit corporation, or an animal control agency that is operated by a unit of government, shall register with the board.

(b) The board may issue a limited license to a humane society or animal control agency to perform the activities described in section 12-42.5-118 (17).

(c) The board shall adopt rules as necessary to ensure strict compliance with this subsection (12) and section 12-42.5-118 (17) and, in conjunction with the state board of veterinary medicine, shall develop criteria for training individuals in the administration of the drug or combination of drugs.

(d) Nothing in this subsection (12) applies to a licensed veterinarian.

(13) A facility or outlet applying for a registration under this section shall have adequate and proper facilities for the handling and storage of controlled substances and shall maintain proper control over the controlled substances to ensure the controlled substances are not illegally dispensed or distributed.

(14) The board shall not issue a registration under this section to a manufacturer or distributor of marijuana or marijuana concentrate, as those terms are defined in section 27-80-203 (15) and (16), C.R.S., respectively.

12-42.5-118. Compounding - dispensing - sale of drugs and devices - rules.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this section or part 2 of article 80 of title 27, C.R.S., no drug, controlled substance, or device shall be sold, compounded, dispensed, given, received, or held in possession unless it is sold, compounded, dispensed, given, or received in accordance with this section.

(2) Except as provided in subsection (7) of this section, a manufacturer of drugs may sell or give any drug to:

- (a) Any wholesaler of drugs;
- (b) A licensed hospital;
- (c) An other outlet;
- (d) A registered prescription drug outlet; or
- (e) Any practitioner authorized by law to prescribe the drugs.

(3) (a) A wholesaler may sell or give any drug or device to:

- (I) Another wholesaler of drugs or devices;
- (II) Any licensed hospital;
- (III) A registered prescription drug outlet;
- (IV) An other outlet; or
- (V) Any practitioner authorized by law to prescribe the drugs or devices.

(b) A wholesaler may sell or deliver to a person responsible for the control of an animal a drug intended for veterinary use for that animal only if a licensed veterinarian has issued, prior to such sale or delivery, a written prescription order for the drug in the course of an existing, valid veterinarian-client-patient relationship as defined in section 12-64-103 (15.5); except that, if the prescription order is for a drug that is not a controlled substance or is a controlled substance listed on schedule III, IV, or V, the licensed veterinarian may issue an oral prescription order for that drug. If the licensed veterinarian issues an oral prescription order for a controlled substance listed on schedule III, IV, or V, the licensed veterinarian shall provide a written prescription to the wholesaler within three business days after issuing the oral order.

(4) Only a registered prescription drug outlet or other outlet registered pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (1) (d) may compound or dispense a prescription. Initial interpretation and final evaluation, as defined by the board, may be conducted at a location other than a registered prescription drug outlet or other outlet registered pursuant to this article in accordance with rules adopted by the board.

(5) (a) A registered prescription drug or licensed hospital other outlet may:

(I) Make a casual sale or loan of or give a drug to another registered outlet or to a wholesaler of drugs;

(II) Sell or give a drug to a practitioner authorized by law to prescribe the drug;

(III) Supply an emergency kit or starter dose, as defined by the board by rule, to:

(A) Any facility approved by the board for receipt of an emergency kit;

(B) Any home health agency licensed by the department of public health and environment and approved by the board for receipt of an emergency kit; and

(C) Any licensed hospice approved by the board for receipt of an emergency kit in compliance with subsection (12) of this section.

(b) In the case of a county or district public health agency that operates registered other outlets, one registered other outlet may make a casual sale of a drug to another registered other outlet if:

(I) The drug is sold in the original sealed container in which it was originally received from the wholesaler;

(II) A casual sale is not made to a registered other outlet that is not owned or operated by that county or district public health agency; and

(III) The amount sold does not exceed the ten percent limit established by section 12-42.5-102 (6).

(c) Pursuant to section 17-1-113.1, C.R.S., the department of corrections may transfer, deliver, or distribute to a corporation, individual, or other entity entitled to possess prescription drugs, other than a consumer, prescription drugs in an amount that is less than, equal to, or in excess of five percent of the total number of dosage units of drugs dispensed and distributed on an annual basis.

(6) (a) A practitioner may personally compound and dispense for any patient under the practitioner's care any drug that the practitioner is authorized to prescribe and that the practitioner deems desirable or necessary in the treatment of any condition being treated by the practitioner, and the practitioner is exempt from all provisions of this article except section 12-42.5-126.

(b) The board shall promulgate rules authorizing a pharmacist to compound drugs for office use by a practitioner. The rules must limit the amount of drugs a pharmacist may compound to no more than ten percent of the total number of drug dosage units dispensed and distributed on an annual basis by the outlet.

(c) Nothing in this section prohibits an optometrist licensed pursuant to article 40 of this title or a physician licensed pursuant to article 36 of this title from charging a fee for prescribing, adjusting, fitting, adapting, or dispensing ophthalmic devices, such as contact lenses, that are classified by the federal food and drug administration as a drug, as long as the activity is within the scope of practice of the optometrist pursuant to article 40 of this title or the scope of practice of the physician pursuant to article 36 of this title.

(7) Distribution of any sample may be made only upon written receipt from a practitioner, and the receipt must be given specifically for each drug or drug strength received.

(8) It is lawful for the vendor of any drug or device to repurchase the drug or device from the vendee to correct an error, to retire an outdated article, or for other good reason, under rules the board may adopt to protect consumers of drugs and devices against the possibility of obtaining unsafe or contaminated drugs or devices.

(9) A duly authorized agent or employee of an outlet registered by the board is not deemed to be in possession of a drug or device in violation of this section if he or she is in possession of the drug or device for the sole purpose of carrying out the authority granted by this section to his or her principal or employer.

(10) Any hospital employee or agent authorized by law to administer or dispense medications may dispense a twenty-four-hour supply of drugs on the specific order of a practitioner to a registered emergency room patient.

(11) The original, duplicate, or electronic or mechanical facsimile of a chart order by the physician or lawfully designated agent constitutes a valid authorization to a pharmacist or pharmacy intern to dispense to a hospitalized patient for administration the amounts of the drugs as will enable an authorized person to administer to the patient the drug ordered by the practitioner. The practitioner is responsible for verifying the accuracy of any chart order he or she transmitted to anyone other than a pharmacist or pharmacist intern within forty-eight hours of the transmittal.

(12) Any facility approved by the board, any home health agency certified by the department of public health and environment and approved by the board, and any licensed hospice approved by the board may maintain emergency drugs provided and owned by a prescription drug outlet, consisting of drugs and quantities as established by the board.

(13) An intern under the direct and immediate supervision of a pharmacist may engage in the practice of pharmacy. An intern, as defined in section 12-42.5-102 (17) (a), engaged in the practice of pharmacy within the curriculum of a school or college of pharmacy in accordance with section 12-42.5-102 (17) (a), may be supervised by a manufacturer registered pursuant to section 12-42.5-112 or by another regulated individual as provided for in rules adopted by the board.

(14) A manufacturer or wholesaler of prescription drugs shall not sell or give any prescription drug, as provided in subsections (2) and (3) of this section, to a licensed hospital or registered outlet or to any practitioner unless the prescription drug stock container bears a label containing the name and place of business of the manufacturer of the finished dosage form of the drug and, if different from the manufacturer, the name and place of business of the packer or distributor.

(15) (a) A compounding prescription drug outlet registered pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (9) may dispense and distribute compounded drugs without limitation to practitioners or to prescription drug outlets under common ownership with the pharmacist who owns the compounding prescription drug outlet.

(b) The following may distribute compounded and prepackaged medications, without limitation, to pharmacies under common ownership of the entity:

(I) A prescription drug outlet owned and operated by a hospital that is accredited by the joint commission on accreditation of healthcare organizations or a successor organization; and

(II) A prescription drug outlet operated by a health maintenance organization, as defined in section 10-16-102, C.R.S.

(c) (I) A prescription drug outlet shall not compound drugs that are commercially available except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (c).

(II) A pharmacist may compound a commercially available drug if the compounded drug is significantly different from the commercially available drug or if use of the compounded drug is in the best medical interest of the patient, based upon the practitioner's drug order, including the removal of a dye that causes an allergic reaction. If the pharmacist compounds a drug in lieu of a commercially available product, the pharmacist shall notify the patient of that fact.

(16) A prescription drug outlet may allow a licensed pharmacist to remove immunizations and vaccines from the prescription drug outlet for the purpose of administration by a licensed pharmacist, or an intern under the supervision of a pharmacist certified in immunization, pursuant to rules promulgated by the board. The board shall promulgate rules regarding the storage, transportation, and record-keeping of immunizations and vaccines that are administered off-site.

(17) (a) A humane society or animal control agency that is registered with the board pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (12) is authorized to:

(I) Purchase, possess, and administer sodium pentobarbital, or sodium pentobarbital in combination with other prescription drugs that are medically recognized for euthanasia, to euthanize injured, sick, homeless, or unwanted pets and animals; and

(II) Purchase, possess, and administer drugs commonly used for the chemical capture of animals for control purposes or to sedate or immobilize pet animals immediately prior to euthanasia.

(b) A society or agency registered pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (12) shall not permit a person to administer scheduled controlled substances, sodium pentobarbital, or sodium pentobarbital in combination with other noncontrolled prescription drugs that are medically recognized for euthanasia unless the person has demonstrated adequate knowledge of the potential hazards and proper techniques to be used in administering the drug or combination of drugs.

(18) Persons registered as required under this part 1, or otherwise licensed or registered as required by federal law, may possess, manufacture, distribute, dispense, or administer controlled substances only to the extent authorized by their registrations or federal registrations or licenses and in conformity with this article and with article 18 of title 18, C.R.S.

12-42.5-119. Limited authority to delegate activities constituting practice of pharmacy to pharmacy interns or pharmacy technicians. (1) A pharmacist may supervise up to three persons who are either pharmacy interns or pharmacy technicians, of whom no more than two may be pharmacy interns. If three pharmacy technicians are on duty, at least one must be certified by a nationally recognized certification board, possess a degree from an accredited pharmacy technician training program, or have completed five hundred hours of experiential training in duties described in section 12-42.5-102 (31) (b) at the pharmacy as certified by the pharmacist manager.

(2) The pharmacy shall retain documentation verifying the training for review by the pharmacist responsible for the final check on prescriptions filled by the pharmacy technician and shall make the documentation available for inspection by the board.

(3) The supervision ratio specified in subsection (1) of this section does not include other ancillary personnel who may be in the prescription drug outlet but who are not performing duties described in section 12-42.5-102 (31) (b) that are delegated to the interns or pharmacy technicians.

12-42.5-120. Prescription required - exception. (1) Except as provided in section 18-18-414, C.R.S., and subsection (2) of this section, an order is required prior to dispensing any prescription drug. Orders shall be readily retrievable within the appropriate statute of limitations.

(2) A pharmacist may refill a prescription order for any prescription drug without the practitioner's authorization when all reasonable efforts to contact the practitioner have failed and when, in the pharmacist's professional judgment, continuation of the medication is necessary for the patient's health, safety, and welfare. The prescription refill may only be in an amount sufficient to maintain the patient until the practitioner can be contacted, but in no event may a refill under this subsection (2) continue medication beyond seventy-two hours. However, if the practitioner states on the prescription that no emergency filling of the prescription is permitted, then the pharmacist shall not issue any medication that is not authorized by the prescription. Neither a prescription drug outlet nor a pharmacist is liable as a result of refusing to refill a prescription pursuant to this subsection (2).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-22-122 as it existed prior to 2012.

12-42.5-121. Labeling. (1) A prescription drug dispensed pursuant to an order must be labeled as follows:

(a) Drugs compounded and dispensed pursuant to a chart order for a patient in a hospital must bear a label containing the name of the outlet, the name and location of the patient, the identification of the drug, and, when applicable, any suitable control numbers, the expiration date, any warnings, and any precautionary statements.

(b) (I) If the prescription is for an anabolic steroid, the purpose for which the anabolic steroid is being prescribed must appear on the label.

(II) If the prescription is for any drug other than an anabolic steroid, the symptom or purpose for which the drug is being prescribed must appear on the label, if, after being advised by the practitioner, the patient or the patient's authorized representative so requests. If the practitioner does not provide the symptom or purpose for which a drug is being prescribed, the pharmacist may fill the prescription order without contacting the practitioner, patient, or patient's representative, unless the prescription is for an anabolic steroid.

(2) Except as otherwise required by law, any drug dispensed pursuant to a prescription order must bear a label prepared and placed on or securely attached to the medicine container stating at least the name and address of the prescription drug outlet, the serial number and the date of the prescription or of its dispensing, the name of the drug dispensed unless otherwise requested by the practitioner, the name of the practitioner, the name of the patient, and, if stated in the prescription, the directions for use and cautionary statements, if any, contained in the prescription.

12-42.5-122. Substitution of prescribed drugs authorized - when - conditions.

(1) A pharmacist filling a prescription order for a specific drug by brand or proprietary name may substitute an equivalent drug product if the substituted drug product is the same generic drug type and, in the pharmacist's professional judgment, the substituted drug product is therapeutically equivalent, is interchangeable with the prescribed drug, and is permitted to be moved in interstate commerce. A pharmacist making a substitution shall assume the same responsibility for selecting the dispensed drug product as he or she would incur in filling a prescription for a drug product prescribed by a generic name; except that the pharmacist is charged with notice and knowledge of the federal food and drug administration list of approved drug substances and manufacturers that is published periodically.

(2) (a) If, in the opinion of the practitioner, it is in the best interest of the patient that the pharmacist not substitute an equivalent drug for the specific drug he or she prescribed, the practitioner may convey this information to the pharmacist in any of the following manners:

(I) Initialing by hand or electronically a preprinted box that states "dispense as written" or "DAW";

(II) Signing by hand or electronically a preprinted box stating "do not substitute" or "dispense as written"; or

(III) Orally, if the practitioner communicates the prescription orally to the pharmacist.

(b) The practitioner shall not transmit by facsimile his or her handwritten signature, nor preprint his or her initials, to indicate "dispense as written".

(3) If a pharmacist makes a substitution, the pharmacist shall communicate the substitution to the purchaser in writing and orally, label the container with the name of the drug dispensed, and indicate on the file copy of the prescription both the name of the prescribed drug and the name of the drug dispensed in lieu of the prescribed drug. The pharmacist is not required to communicate a substitution to institutionalized patients.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, the pharmacist shall not substitute a drug product as provided in this section unless the drug product substituted costs the purchaser less than the drug product prescribed. The prescription shall be priced as if it had been prescribed generically.

(5) If a prescription drug outlet does not have in stock the prescribed drug product and the only equivalent drug product in stock is higher priced, the pharmacist, with the consent of the purchaser, may substitute the higher priced drug product. This subsection (5) applies only to a prescription drug outlet located in a town, as defined in section 31-1-101 (13), C.R.S.

12-42.5-123. Unprofessional conduct - grounds for discipline. (1) The board may suspend, revoke, refuse to renew, or otherwise discipline any license or registration issued by it, after a hearing held in accordance with the provisions of this section, upon proof that the licensee or registrant:

(a) Is guilty of misrepresentation, fraud, or deceit in procuring, attempting to procure, or renewing a license or registration;

(b) Is guilty of the commission of a felony or has had accepted by a court a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or has received a deferred judgment and sentence for a felony;

(c) Has violated:

(I) Any of the provisions of this article, including commission of an act declared unlawful in section 12-42.5-126;

(II) The lawful rules of the board; or

(III) Any state or federal law pertaining to drugs;

(d) Is unfit or incompetent by reason of negligence or habits, or for any other cause, to practice pharmacy;

(e) Is addicted to, dependent on, or engages in the habitual or excessive use or abuse of intoxicating liquors, a habit-forming drug, or a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(f) Knowingly permits a person not licensed as a pharmacist or pharmacy intern to engage in the practice of pharmacy;

(g) Has had his or her license to practice pharmacy in another state revoked or suspended, or is otherwise disciplined or has committed acts in any other state that would subject him or her to disciplinary action in this state;

(h) Has engaged in advertising that is misleading, deceptive, or false;

(i) Has dispensed a schedule III, IV, or V controlled substance order as listed in sections 18-18-205 to 18-18-207, C.R.S., more than six months after the date of issue of the order;

(j) Has engaged in the practice of pharmacy while on inactive status;

(k) Has failed to meet generally accepted standards of pharmacy practice;

(l) Fails or has failed to permit the board or its agents to conduct a lawful inspection;

(m) Has violated any lawful board order;

(n) Has committed any fraudulent insurance act as defined in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(o) Has willfully deceived or attempted to deceive the board or its agents with regard to any matter under investigation by the board;

(p) Has failed to notify the board of any criminal conviction or deferred judgment within thirty days after the conviction or judgment;

(q) Has failed to notify the board of any discipline against his or her license in another state within thirty days after the discipline;

(r) (I) Has failed to notify the board of a physical or mental illness or condition that affects the person's ability to treat clients with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health or safety of persons under his or her care;

(II) Has failed to act within the limitations created by a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the person unable to practice pharmacy with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health or safety of persons under his or her care; or

(III) Has failed to comply with the limitations agreed to under a confidential agreement entered pursuant to section 12-42.5-134;

(s) Has had his or her federal registration to manufacture, distribute, or dispense a controlled substance suspended or revoked.

(2) In considering the conviction of a crime, the board is governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under former provisions similar to this section.

Hearing to revoke or suspend professional license is a disciplinary, not criminal proceeding. Commerce City Drug v. State Bd. of Pharmacy, 32 Colo. App. 216, 511 P.2d 935 (1973).

Administrative and procedural requirements in suspension of pharmacy license were fulfilled where the record discloses that the complaint gave licensee adequate notice of the nature of the charge and the alleged violation, and licensee was given a full hearing and opportunity to defend. Commerce City Drug v. State Bd. of Pharmacy, 32 Colo. App. 216, 511 P.2d 935 (1973).

Effect of merger of pharmacies on suspension proceedings. Where two pharmacies merged and the board had initiated a license suspension proceeding against the nonsurviving pharmacy before the merger, before the board could have taken any action against the license of the surviving pharmacy, a separate and distinct license from the nonsurviving pharmacy, there must have been a violation alleged against the surviving pharmacy, and the board must comply with the pertinent provisions of the drugs and druggist statute pertaining to the procedure for suspension of a pharmacy license. Alcott Pharmacy, Inc. v. State Bd. of Pharmacy, 35 Colo. App. 248, 531 P.2d 987 (1975).

Whether the person named on a drug prescription was or was not a patient of the prescribing physician was not material in action brought by the state board of pharmacy to suspend a pharmacy license on the ground that the licensee had dispensed a different drug or brand of drug in place of the drug or brand ordered or prescribed. Commerce City Drug v. State Bd. of Pharmacy, 32 Colo. App. 216, 511 P.2d 935 (1973).

Order suspending license ambiguous. Order of the board suspending pharmacy license for 14 days, seven days to run concurrent, the remaining seven days to be held in abeyance for three years to commence 60 days after service of the decision, taken as a whole was ambiguous as to when the suspension should take effect. Commerce City Drug v. State Bd. of Pharmacy, 32 Colo. App. 216, 511 P.2d 935 (1973).

Board may consider circumstances surrounding applicant's criminal conduct in determining whether to reinstate license. The applicant's rehabilitation alone does not mandate licensure. Colo. State Bd. of Pharmacy v. Priem, 2012 COA 5, 272 P.3d 1136.

12-42.5-124. Disciplinary actions. (1) (a) The board may deny or discipline an applicant, licensee, or registrant when the board determines that the applicant, licensee, or registrant has engaged in activities that are grounds for discipline.

(b) The board may suspend or revoke a registration issued pursuant to section 12-42.5-117 (12) upon determination that the person administering a drug or combination of drugs to an animal has not demonstrated adequate knowledge required by sections 12-42.5-117 (12) and 12-42.5-118 (17).

(2) (a) Proceedings for the denial, suspension, or revocation of a license or registration and any judicial review of a suspension or revocation must be conducted in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the board or, at the board's discretion, an administrative law judge, shall conduct the hearing and opportunity for review.

(b) Upon finding that grounds for discipline pursuant to section 12-42.5-123 exist, the board may impose one or more of the following penalties on a person who holds or is seeking a new or renewal license or registration:

(I) Suspension of the offender's license or registration for a period to be determined by the board;

(II) Revocation of the offender's license or registration;

(III) Restriction of the offender's license or registration to prohibit the offender from performing certain acts or from practicing pharmacy in a particular manner for a period to be determined by the board;

(IV) Refusal to renew the offender's license or registration;

(V) Placement of the offender on probation and supervision by the board for a period to be determined by the board;

(VI) Suspension of the registration of the outlet that is owned by or employs the offender for a period to be determined by the board.

(c) The board may limit revocation or suspension of a registration to the particular controlled substance which was the basis for revocation or suspension.

(d) If the board suspends or revokes a registration, the board may place all controlled substances owned or possessed by the registrant at the time of the suspension or on the effective date of the revocation order under seal. The board may not dispose of substances under seal until the time for making an appeal has elapsed or until all appeals have been concluded, unless a court orders otherwise or orders the sale of any perishable controlled substances and the deposit of the proceeds with the court. When a revocation becomes final, all controlled substances may be forfeited to the state.

(e) The board shall promptly notify the bureau and the appropriate professional licensing agency, if any, of all charges and the final disposition of the charges and of all forfeitures of a controlled substance.

(3) The board may also include in any disciplinary order that allows the licensee or registrant to continue to practice conditions that the board deems appropriate to assure that the licensee or registrant is physically, mentally, morally, and otherwise qualified to practice pharmacy in accordance with the generally accepted professional standards of practice, including any or all of the following:

(a) Requiring the licensee or registrant to submit to examinations that the board may order to determine the licensee's physical or mental condition or professional qualifications;

(b) Requiring the licensee to take therapy courses of training or education that the board deems necessary to correct deficiencies found either in the hearing or by examinations required pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (3);

(c) Requiring the review or supervision of the licensee's practice to determine the quality of and correct deficiencies in his or her practice; and

(d) Imposing restrictions upon the nature of the licensee's practice to assure that he or she does not practice beyond the limits of his or her capabilities.

(4) Upon failure of the licensee or registrant to comply with any conditions imposed by the board pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, unless due to conditions beyond the licensee's or registrant's control, the board may order suspension of the license or registration in this state until the licensee or registrant complies with the conditions.

(5) (a) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a), in addition to any other penalty the board may impose pursuant to this section, the board may fine any registrant violating this article or any rules promulgated pursuant to this article not less than five hundred dollars and not more than five thousand dollars for each violation.

(II) In addition to any other penalty the board may impose pursuant to this section, the board may fine a registrant violating part 4 of this article not less than five hundred dollars and not more than one thousand dollars for the first time the board imposes a fine, not more than two thousand dollars for the second time the board imposes a fine, and not more than five thousand dollars for a third or subsequent time the board imposes a fine. If a registrant violates an agreement to refrain from committing subsequent violations of part 4 of this article, the board may impose a fine of not more than one thousand dollars for each violation of the agreement.

(b) The board shall transmit any moneys collected as administrative fines pursuant to this subsection (5) to the state treasurer for credit to the general fund.

(6) (a) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but should not be dismissed as being without merit, the board may send a letter of admonition by certified mail to the licensee or registrant against whom the complaint was made or who was the subject of investigation and, in the case of a complaint, may send a copy of the letter of admonition to the person making the complaint.

(b) When the board sends a letter of admonition to a licensee or registrant complained against, the board shall include in the letter a statement advising the licensee or registrant that the licensee or registrant has the right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that the board initiate formal disciplinary proceedings to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) If the licensee or registrant timely requests adjudication, the letter of admonition is vacated, and the board shall process the matter by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(7) (a) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board but the board determines that the conduct could warrant action if continued, the board may send a confidential letter of concern to the licensee or registrant against whom the complaint was made or who was the subject of investigation. If a complaint precipitated the investigation, the board shall send a response to the person making the complaint.

(b) A confidential letter of concern is not discipline.

(8) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the board shall not resolve the complaint by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(9) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee or registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public or a person is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, the board may issue an order to cease and desist the activity. The board shall set forth in the order the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (9), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. The board shall conduct the hearing pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(10) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to the person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed or unregistered practice.

(b) The board shall promptly notify a person against whom the board has issued an order to show cause pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (10) of the issuance of the order and shall include in the notice a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. The board may serve the notice upon the person against whom the order is issued by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (10) constitutes notice to the person.

(c) (I) The board shall commence the hearing on an order to show cause no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (10). The board may continue the hearing by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the board commence the hearing later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (10) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon the person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (10) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order becomes final as to that person by operation of law. The hearing must be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or registration or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, the board may issue a final cease-and-desist order directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (10), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) is effective when issued and is a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(11) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed or unregistered act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, or any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with the person.

(12) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(13) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-42.5-125.

12-42.5-126. Unlawful acts. (1) It is unlawful:

- (a) To practice pharmacy without a license;
- (b) To obtain or dispense or to procure the administration of a drug by fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, or subterfuge, by the forgery or alteration of an order, or by the use of a false name or the giving of a false address;
- (c) To willfully make a false statement in any order, report, application, or record required by this article;
- (d) To falsely assume the title of or falsely represent that one is a pharmacist, practitioner, or registered outlet;
- (e) To make or utter a false or forged order;
- (f) To affix a false or forged label to a package or receptacle containing drugs;
- (g) To sell, compound, dispense, give, receive, or possess any drug or device unless it was sold, compounded, dispensed, given, or received in accordance with sections 12-42.5-118 to 12-42.5-122;
- (h) Except as provided in section 12-42.5-122, to dispense a different drug or brand of drug in place of the drug or brand ordered or prescribed without the oral or written permission of the practitioner ordering or prescribing the drug;
- (i) To manufacture, process, pack, distribute, sell, dispense, or give a drug, or the container or labeling of the drug, that, without authorization, bears the trademark, trade name, or other identifying mark, imprint, or device, or any likeness thereof, of a drug manufacturer, processor, packer, or distributor other than the person who in fact manufactured, processed, packed, or distributed such drug, container, or label and that thereby falsely purports or is represented to be the product of or to have been packed or distributed by such other drug manufacturer, processor, packer, or distributor;

(j) For an employer or an employer's agent or employee to coerce a pharmacist to dispense a prescription drug against the professional judgment of the pharmacist;

(k) For an employer, an employer's agent or employee, or a pharmacist to use or coerce to be used nonpharmacist personnel in any position or task that would require the nonpharmacist to practice pharmacy or to make a judgmental decision using pharmaceutical knowledge or in violation of the delegatory restrictions enumerated in section 12-42.5-116 (5);

(l) To dispense any drug without complying with the labeling, drug identification, and container requirements imposed by law.

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under former provisions similar to this section.

Criminal provisions not overlapping. Former § 12-22-319 (now § 12-22-315) and this section do not proscribe the same conduct and hence do not violate the constitutional guarantees of equal protection and due process. People v. Wellington, 633 P.2d 1390 (Colo. 1981); People v. Caponey, 647 P.2d 668 (Colo. 1982).

Board not required to issue notice before announcing final decision following changes in penalty. Changes, made by the state board of pharmacy in hearing officer's penalty for pharmacist's violation of this section, rendered without notice to the appellant or without any further hearings following a hearing officer's initial decision and order, were quasi-judicial in nature and thus neither this section nor due process principles required that the board issue any notice prior to announcing its final decision. Mitchell v. Klapper, 626 P.2d 1163 (Colo. App. 1980).

12-42.5-127. Unauthorized practice - penalties. Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice pharmacy without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and any person committing a second or subsequent offense commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-22-127 as it existed prior to 2012.

12-42.5-128. New drugs - when sales permissible. (1) No person shall sell, deliver, offer for sale, hold for sale, or give away any new drug not authorized to move in interstate commerce under appropriate federal law.

(2) This section does not apply to a drug intended solely for investigational use by experts qualified by scientific training and experience to investigate the safety and effectiveness of drugs if the drug is plainly labeled to be for investigational use only.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-22-129 as it existed prior to 2012.

12-42.5-130. Nonresident prescription drug outlet - registration. (1) Any prescription drug outlet located outside this state that ships, mails, or delivers, in any manner, drugs or devices into this state is a nonresident prescription drug outlet and shall register with the board and disclose to the board the following:

(a) The location, names, and titles of all principal entity officers and all pharmacists who are dispensing drugs or devices to the residents of this state. The nonresident prescription drug outlet shall submit a report containing this information to the board on an annual basis and within thirty days after any change of office, officer, or pharmacist.

(b) A verification that it complies with all lawful directions and requests for information from the regulatory or licensing agency of the state in which it is licensed as well as with all requests for information made by the board pursuant to this section. The nonresident prescription drug outlet shall maintain at all times a valid, unexpired license, permit, or registration to conduct the prescription drug outlet in compliance with the laws of the state in which it is a resident. As a prerequisite to registering with the board, the nonresident prescription drug outlet shall submit a copy of the most recent inspection report resulting from an inspection conducted by the regulatory or licensing agency of the state in which it is located.

(2) The registration requirements of this section apply only to a nonresident prescription drug outlet that only ships, mails, or delivers, in any manner, drugs and devices into this state pursuant to a prescription order.

(3) A nonresident prescription drug outlet doing business in this state that has not obtained a registration shall not conduct the business of selling or distributing drugs in this state without first registering as a nonresident prescription drug outlet. A nonresident prescription drug outlet shall make application for a nonresident prescription drug outlet registration on a form furnished by the board. The board may require such information as it deems necessary to carry out the purpose of this section.

(4) (a) The board may deny, revoke, or suspend a nonresident prescription drug outlet registration for failure to comply with this section or with any rule promulgated by the board.

(b) The board may deny, revoke, or suspend a nonresident prescription drug outlet registration if the nonresident prescription drug outlet's license or registration has been revoked or not renewed for noncompliance with the laws of the state in which it is a resident.

12-42.5-131. Records. (1) (a) All persons licensed or registered under this article shall keep and maintain records of the receipt, distribution, or other disposal of prescription drugs or controlled substances, shall make the records available to the board upon request for inspection, copying, verification, or any other purpose, and shall retain the records for two years or for a period otherwise required by law.

(b) The board may permit a wholesaler to maintain a portion of its records at a central location that is different from the storage facility of the wholesaler. If the board grants the permission, the wholesaler shall make available all relevant records within forty-eight hours after a request for inspection, copying, verification, or any other purpose by the board. The wholesaler shall make all other records that are available for immediate access readily available to the board.

(2) A wholesaler shall establish and maintain inventories and records of all transactions regarding the receipt and distribution of prescription drugs. A wholesaler shall make its records available to the board in accordance with subsection (1) of this section. A wholesaler shall include the following information in its records:

(a) The source of the prescription drugs, including the name and principal address of the seller or transferor of the prescription drugs and the address of the location from which the prescription drugs were shipped;

(b) The identity and quantity of the drugs received, distributed, or disposed of by the wholesale distributor; and

(c) The dates of receipt, distribution, or other disposition of the prescription drugs.

(3) The record of any controlled substance distributed, administered, dispensed, or otherwise used must show the date the controlled substance was distributed, administered, dispensed, used, or otherwise disposed of, the name and address of the person to whom or for whose use the controlled substance was distributed, administered, dispensed, used, or otherwise disposed of, and the kind and quantity of the controlled substance.

(4) Manufacturing records of controlled substances must include the kind and quantity of controlled substances produced or removed from process of manufacture and the dates of production or removal from process of manufacture.

(5) A person who maintains a record required by federal law that contains substantially the same information as set forth in subsections (1) to (4) of this section is deemed to comply with the record-keeping requirements of this section.

(6) A person required to maintain records pursuant to this section shall keep a record of any controlled substance lost, destroyed, or stolen, the kind and quantity of the controlled substance, and the date of the loss, destruction, or theft.

(7) Prescription drug outlets shall report thefts of controlled substances to the proper law enforcement agencies and to the board within thirty days after the occurrence of the thefts.

(8) A person licensed, registered, or otherwise authorized under this article or other laws of this state shall distribute, administer, dispense, use, or otherwise dispose of controlled substances listed in schedule I or II of part 2 of article 18 of title 18, C.R.S., only pursuant to an order form. Compliance with the provisions of federal law respecting order forms is deemed compliance with this section.

(9) Prescriptions, orders, and records required by this part 1 and stocks of controlled substances are open for inspection only to federal, state, county, and municipal officers whose duty it is to enforce the laws of this state or of the United States relating to controlled substances or the regulation of practitioners. No officer having knowledge by virtue of his or her office, of a prescription, order, or record shall divulge his or her knowledge, except in connection with a prosecution or proceeding in court or before a licensing or registration board or officer to which prosecution or proceeding the person to whom the prescriptions, orders, or records relate is a party.

12-42.5-132. Immunity. Any member of the board, any member of the board's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article is immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as board member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if the individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. Any person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article is immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from participation.

12-42.5-133. Unused medication - licensed facilities - correctional facilities - reuse - rules. (1) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Correctional facility" means a facility under the supervision of the United States, the department of corrections, or a similar state agency or department in a state other than Colorado in which persons are or may be lawfully held in custody as a result of conviction of a crime; a jail or an adult detention center of a county, city, or city and county; and a private contract prison operated by a state, county, city, or city and county.

(a.5) "Licensed facility" means a hospital, hospital unit, community mental health center, acute treatment unit, hospice, nursing care facility, or assisted living residence that is required to be licensed pursuant to section 25-3-101, C.R.S., or a licensed long-term care facility as defined in section 25-1-124 (2.5) (b), C.R.S.

(b) "Medical device" means an instrument, apparatus, implement, machine, contrivance, implant, or similar or related article that is required to be labeled pursuant to 21 CFR part 801.

(c) "Medical supply" means a consumable supply item that is disposable and not intended for reuse.

(d) "Medication" means a prescription that is not a controlled substance.

(2) (a) (I) If donated by the patient, resident, or the patient's or resident's next of kin, a licensed facility may return unused medications, medical supplies, and medical devices to a pharmacist within the licensed facility or a prescription drug outlet in order for the medication to be redispensed to another patient or donated to a nonprofit entity that has the legal authority to possess the medication or to a practitioner authorized by law to prescribe the medication.

(II) (A) A licensed facility may donate unused medications to a person legally authorized to dispense the medications on behalf of a nonprofit entity that has the express purpose of providing medications, medical devices, or medical supplies for the relief of victims who are in urgent need as a result of natural or other types of disasters. A licensed pharmacist shall review the process of donating the unused medications to the nonprofit entity.

(B) Nothing in this subparagraph (II): Creates or abrogates any liability on behalf of a prescription drug manufacturer for the storage, donation, acceptance, or dispensing of a medication or product; or creates any civil cause of action against a prescription drug manufacturer in addition to that which is available under applicable law.

(III) A correctional facility may return unused medications, medical supplies, and medical devices to the pharmacist within the correctional facility or a prescription drug outlet in order for the medication to be redispensed to another patient or donated to a nonprofit entity that has the legal authority to possess the medication or to a practitioner authorized by law to prescribe the medication.

(b) Medications are only available to be dispensed to another person or donated to a nonprofit entity under this section if the medications are:

(I) Liquid and the vial is still sealed and properly stored;

(II) Individually packaged and the packaging has not been damaged; or

(III) In the original, unopened, sealed, and tamper-evident unit dose packaging.

(c) The following medications may not be donated:

(I) Medications packaged in traditional brown or amber pill bottles;

(II) Controlled substances;

- (III) Medications that require refrigeration, freezing, or special storage;
 - (IV) Medications that require special registration with the manufacturer; or
 - (V) Medications that are adulterated or misbranded, as determined by a person legally authorized to dispense the medications on behalf of the nonprofit entity.
- (3) Medication dispensed or donated pursuant to this section must bear an expiration date that is later than six months after the date the drug was donated.
- (4) The board shall adopt rules that allow a pharmacist to redispense medication pursuant to this section and section 25.5-5-502, C.R.S., and to donate medication pursuant to this section.
- (5) Nothing in this section or section 25.5-5-502, C.R.S., creates or abrogates any liability on behalf of a prescription drug manufacturer for the storage, donation, acceptance, or dispensing of an unused donated medication or creates any civil cause of action against a prescription drug manufacturer in addition to that which is available under applicable law.

(2) Amendments to section 12-22-133 by Senate Bill 12-161 were relocated and harmonized with amendments to this section by House Bill 12-1311.

12-42.5-134. Confidential agreement to limit practice - violation - grounds for discipline. (1) If a pharmacist or intern has a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the person unable to practice pharmacy with reasonable skill and safety to clients, the pharmacist or intern shall notify the board of the illness or condition in a manner and within a period determined by the board. The board may require the pharmacist or intern to submit to an examination or refer the pharmacist or intern to the pharmacy peer health assistance diversion program established in part 2 of this article to evaluate the extent of the illness or condition and its impact on the pharmacist's or intern's ability to practice pharmacy with reasonable skill and safety to clients.

(2) (a) Upon determining that a pharmacist or intern with a physical or mental illness or condition is able to render limited services with reasonable skill and safety to clients, the board may enter into a confidential agreement with the pharmacist or intern in which the pharmacist or intern agrees to limit his or her practice based on the restrictions imposed by the illness or condition, as determined by the board.

(b) As part of the agreement, the pharmacist or intern is subject to periodic reevaluations or monitoring as determined appropriate by the board. The board may refer the pharmacist or intern to the pharmacy peer health assistance diversion program for reevaluation or monitoring.

(c) The parties may modify or dissolve the agreement as necessary based on the results of a reevaluation or of monitoring.

(3) By entering into an agreement with the board pursuant to this section to limit his or her practice, a pharmacist or intern is not engaging in activities prohibited pursuant to section 12-42.5-123. The agreement does not constitute a restriction or discipline by the board. However, if the pharmacist or intern fails to comply with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to this section, the failure constitutes a prohibited activity pursuant to section 12-42.5-123 (1) (r), and the pharmacist or intern is subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-42.5-124.

(4) This section does not apply to a pharmacist or intern subject to discipline for prohibited activities as described in section 12-42.5-123 (1) (e).

PART 2

PHARMACY PEER HEALTH ASSISTANCE
DIVERSION PROGRAM

12-42.5-201. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that the creation of a pharmacy peer health assistance diversion program for those persons subject to the jurisdiction of the board will serve to safeguard the life, health, property, and public welfare of the people of this state. A pharmacy peer health assistance diversion program will help practitioners experiencing impaired practice due to psychiatric, psychological, or emotional problems or excessive alcohol or drug use or addiction. The general assembly further declares that a pharmacy peer health assistance diversion program will protect the privacy and welfare of those persons who provide services and at the same time assist the board in carrying out its duties and responsibilities to ensure that only qualified persons are allowed to engage in providing those services that are under the jurisdiction of the board.

(2) It is the intent of the general assembly that the pharmacy peer health assistance diversion program and its related procedures be utilized by the board in conjunction with, or as an alternative to, the use of disciplinary proceedings by the board, which proceedings are by their nature time-consuming and costly to the people of this state. The pharmacy peer health assistance diversion program is hereby established to alleviate the need for disciplinary proceedings, while at the same time providing safeguards that protect the public health, safety, and welfare. The general assembly further declares that it intends that the board will act to implement the provisions of this article.

12-42.5-202. Definitions. As used in this part 2, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Impaired practice" means a licensee's inability to meet the requirements of the laws of this state and the rules of the board governing his or her practice when the licensee's cognitive, interpersonal, or psychomotor skills are affected by psychiatric, psychological, or emotional problems or excessive alcohol or drug use or addiction.

(2) "Licensee" means any pharmacist or intern who is licensed by the board.

(3) "Peer health assistance organization" means an organization that provides a formal, structured program that meets the requirements specified in this part 2 and is administered by appropriate professionals for the purpose of assisting licensees experiencing impaired practice to obtain evaluation, treatment, short-term counseling, monitoring of progress, and ongoing support for the purpose of arresting and treating the licensee's psychiatric, psychological, or emotional problems or excessive alcohol or drug use or addiction.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-22-602 as it existed prior to 2012.

12-42.5-203. Pharmacy peer health assistance fund. (1) There is hereby created in the state treasury the pharmacy peer health assistance fund. The fund consists of moneys collected by the board and credited to the fund pursuant to subsection (2) of this section. Any interest earned on the investment of moneys in the fund must be credited at least annually to the fund.

(2) (a) As a condition of licensure and licensure renewal in this state, every applicant shall pay to the administering entity that has been selected by the board pursuant to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this subsection (2) an amount set by the board not to exceed fifty-six dollars biennially, which amount shall be used to support designated providers that have been selected by the board to provide assistance to pharmacists and interns needing help in dealing with physical, emotional, psychiatric, psychological, drug abuse, or alcohol abuse problems that may be detrimental to their ability to practice.

(b) The board shall select one or more peer health assistance organizations as designated providers. To be eligible for designation by the board a peer health assistance diversion program shall:

(I) Provide for the education of pharmacists and interns with respect to the recognition and prevention of physical, emotional, and psychological problems and provide for intervention when necessary or under circumstances that may be established by rules promulgated by the board;

(II) Offer assistance to a pharmacist or intern in identifying physical, emotional, or psychological problems;

(III) Evaluate the extent of physical, emotional, or psychological problems and refer the pharmacist or intern for appropriate treatment;

(IV) Monitor the status of a pharmacist or intern who has been referred for treatment;

(V) Provide counseling and support for the pharmacist or intern and for the family of any pharmacist or intern referred for treatment;

(VI) Agree to receive referrals from the board;

(VII) Agree to make their services available to all licensed Colorado pharmacists and interns.

(c) The administering entity must be a qualified, nonprofit, private foundation that is qualified under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and must be dedicated to providing support for charitable, benevolent, educational, and scientific purposes that are related to pharmaceutical education, pharmaceutical research and science, and other pharmaceutical charitable purposes.

(d) The responsibilities of the administering entity are:

(I) To collect the required annual payments, directly or through the board;

(II) To verify to the board, in a manner acceptable to the board, the names of all pharmacist and intern applicants who have paid the fee set by the board;

(III) To distribute the moneys collected, less expenses, to the designated provider, as directed by the board;

(IV) To provide an annual accounting to the board of all amounts collected, expenses incurred, and amounts disbursed; and

(V) To post a surety performance bond in an amount specified by the board to secure performance under the requirements of this section. The administering entity may recover the actual administrative costs incurred in performing its duties under this section in an amount not to exceed ten percent of the total amount collected.

(e) The board, at its discretion, may collect the required annual payments payable to the administering entity for the benefit of the administering entity and shall transfer all such payments to the administering entity. All required annual payments collected or due to the board for each fiscal year are custodial funds that are not subject to appropriation by the general assembly, and the funds do not constitute state fiscal year spending for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.

12-42.5-204. Eligibility - participants. (1) Any licensee may apply to the board for participation in a qualified peer health assistance diversion program.

(2) In order to be eligible for participation, a licensee shall:

(a) Acknowledge the existence or the potential existence of a psychiatric, psychological, or emotional problem or excessive alcohol or drug use or addiction;

(b) After a full explanation of the operation and requirements of the peer health assistance diversion program, agree to voluntarily participate in the program and agree in writing to participate in the program of the peer health assistance organization designated by the board.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the board may summarily suspend the license of any licensee who is referred to a peer health assistance diversion program by the board and who fails to attend or to complete the program. If the board summarily suspends the license, the board shall schedule a hearing on the suspension, which shall be conducted in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

12-42.5-205. Liability. Nothing in this part 2 creates any liability of the board, members of the board, or the state of Colorado for the actions of the board in making awards to pharmacy peer health assistance organizations or in designating licensees to participate in the programs of pharmacy peer health assistance organizations. No civil action may be brought or maintained against the board, its members, or the state for an injury alleged to have been the result of an act or omission of a licensee participating in or referred to a state-funded program provided by a pharmacy peer health assistance organization. However, the state remains liable under the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of title 24, C.R.S., if an injury alleged to have been the result of an act or omission of a licensee participating in or referred to a state-funded peer health assistance diversion program occurred while the licensee was performing duties as an employee of the state.

WHOLESALEERS

12-42.5-301. Definitions. As used in this part 3, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Authentication" means the process of affirmatively verifying that each transaction listed on a pedigree has occurred before any wholesale distribution of a prescription drug occurs.

(2) "Board-registered outlet" means a prescription drug outlet, an other outlet, a nonresident prescription drug outlet, a wholesaler, or a manufacturer.

(3) "Designated representative" means a person authorized by a licensed wholesaler to act as a representative for the wholesaler.

(4) “Drop shipment” means the sale by a manufacturer of the manufacturer’s prescription drug, that manufacturer’s third-party logistics provider, or that manufacturer’s exclusive distributor to a wholesaler whereby the wholesaler takes title to, but not possession of, the prescription drug and the wholesaler invoices the board-registered outlet or practitioner authorized by law to prescribe the prescription drug and the board-registered outlet or the practitioner authorized by law to prescribe the prescription drug receives delivery of the prescription drug directly from the manufacturer of such drug, that manufacturer’s third-party logistics provider, or that manufacturer’s exclusive distributor.

(5) “Facility” means a facility of a wholesaler where prescription drugs are stored, handled, repackaged, or offered for sale.

(6) “Normal distribution channel” means a chain of custody for a prescription drug that goes directly or by drop shipment from a manufacturer of the prescription drug to:

(a) (I) A wholesaler to a pharmacy to a patient or other designated persons authorized by law to dispense or administer a prescription drug to a patient;

(II) A wholesaler to a chain pharmacy warehouse to their intracompany pharmacies to a patient;

(III) A chain pharmacy warehouse to its intracompany pharmacies to a patient; or

(IV) A pharmacy to a patient; or

(b) A manufacturer’s colicensed partner, third-party logistics provider, or exclusive distributor to a wholesaler to a pharmacy to a patient or other designated persons authorized by law to dispense or administer such drug to a patient; or

(c) A manufacturer’s colicensed partner, or that manufacturer’s third-party logistics provider, or exclusive distributor to a wholesaler to a chain pharmacy warehouse to that chain pharmacy warehouse’s intracompany pharmacy to a patient or other designated persons authorized by law to dispense or administer such drug to a patient; or

(d) A wholesaler to a pharmacy buying cooperative warehouse to a pharmacy that is a member or member owner of the cooperative to a patient or other designated person authorized by law to dispense or administer the prescription drug to a patient.

(7) “Pedigree” means a document or electronic file containing information that records each distribution of any given prescription drug that leaves the normal distribution channel.

(8) “Third-party logistics provider” means anyone who contracts with a manufacturer to provide or coordinate warehousing, distribution, or other services on behalf of a manufacturer but does not take title to a prescription drug or have general responsibility to direct the prescription drug’s sale or disposition.

12-42.5-302. Exemptions. (1) (a) The board may exempt a pharmacy benefits entity from the requirements of sections 12-42.5-303 and 12-42.5-304 if the entity’s purchases are solely from a manufacturer or a wholesale distributor in the normal distribution channel, and any subsequent sales or further distributions are to entities other than a wholesaler within the normal distribution channel.

(b) For the purposes of this section, “pharmacy benefits entity” means an entity that is not engaged in the activities of a chain pharmacy warehouse but that assists in the administration of pharmacy benefits under contracts with insurers or to a company under common ownership with that entity.

(2) The board may exempt a wholesaler from any requirement of this part 3 if the wholesaler exclusively distributes animal health medicines. The board may exempt a wholesaler that distributes animal health medicines from the requirements of section 12-42.5-306.

(3) The board shall exempt from the requirements of sections 12-42.5-303 and 12-42.5-304:

(a) A licensed wholesaler operated by a nonprofit organization exempt from taxation under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal “Internal Revenue Code of 1986”, as amended, that engages only in intracompany sales or transfers of prescription drugs to licensed other outlets or pharmacies that are controlled by, or under common ownership or control with, the wholesaler and that purchase drugs directly from the manufacturer or the manufacturer's authorized distributor of record for distribution or transfer to the wholesaler's licensed other outlets, pharmacies, or other areas authorized by state law;

(b) A licensed wholesaler operated by a hospital, a state agency, or a political subdivision if the entity purchases drugs directly from a manufacturer or a manufacturer's authorized distributor of record and if any further distribution is to authorized licensed entities within its own network.

12-42.5-303. Wholesaler license requirements. (1) (a) A wholesaler that resides in this state must be licensed by the board. A wholesaler that does not reside in this state must be licensed in this state prior to engaging in the wholesale distribution of prescription drugs in this state. The board shall exempt a manufacturer and that manufacturer's third-party logistics providers to the extent involving that manufacturer's drugs under contract from any licensing qualifications and other requirements, including the requirements in subparagraphs (VI) and (VII) of paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section, subsections (4) to (6) of this section, and section 12-42.5-304, to the extent the requirements are not required by federal law or regulation, unless the particular requirements are deemed necessary and appropriate following rule-making by the board.

(b) A manufacturer's exclusive distributor and pharmacy buying cooperative warehouse must be licensed by the board as a wholesaler pursuant to this part 3. A third-party logistics provider must be licensed by the board as a wholesale distributor pursuant to this part 3.

(2) (a) The board may adopt rules to approve an accreditation body to evaluate a wholesaler's operations to determine compliance with professional standards and any other applicable laws and to perform inspections of each facility and location where the wholesaler conducts wholesale distribution operations.

(b) An applicant for a license shall pay any fee required by the accreditation body or the board and comply with any rules promulgated by the board.

(c) The board shall not issue or renew a license to a wholesaler who does not comply with this part 3.

(3) (a) An applicant for a wholesaler license shall provide to the board the following information, and any other information deemed appropriate by the board on a form provided by the board:

(I) The name, full business address, and telephone number of the applicant;

(II) The trade and business names used by the applicant;

(III) The addresses, telephone numbers, and names of the contact persons for all facilities used by the applicant for the storage, handling, and distribution of prescription drugs;

(IV) The type of ownership or operation of the applicant;

(V) The names of the owner and the operator of the applicant, including:

(A) The name of each partner if the applicant is a partnership;

(B) The name and title of each officer and director, the name of the corporation, and the state of incorporation, if the applicant is a corporation;

(C) The name of the limited liability company, if the applicant is a limited liability company, and the name of the parent company, if any, and the state of incorporation or formation of both; or

(D) The name of the sole proprietor and the business entity if the applicant is a sole proprietorship;

(VI) A list of the licenses and permits issued to the applicant by any other state that authorizes the applicant to purchase or possess prescription drugs; and

(VII) The name of the applicant's designated representative for the facility, the fingerprints of the designated representative, and a personal information statement for the designated representative that includes information as required by the board, including but not limited to the information in subsection (5) of this section.

(b) A licensee shall complete and return a form approved by the board at each renewal period. The board may suspend or revoke the license of a wholesaler if the board determines that the wholesaler no longer qualifies for a license.

(4) Prior to issuing a wholesaler license to an applicant, the board, the regulatory oversight body from another state, or board-approved accreditation body may conduct a physical inspection of the facility at the business address provided by the applicant. Nothing in this subsection (4) shall preclude the board from inspecting a wholesaler.

(5) The designated representative of an applicant for a wholesaler license shall:

(a) Be at least twenty-one years of age;

(b) Have at least three years of full-time employment history with a pharmacy or a wholesaler in a capacity related to the dispensing and distribution of and the record-keeping related to prescription drugs;

(c) Be employed by the applicant in a full-time managerial position;

(d) Be actively involved in and aware of the actual daily operation of the wholesaler;

(e) Be physically present at the facility of the applicant during regular business hours, except when the absence of the designated representative is authorized, including, but not limited to, sick leave and vacation leave;

(f) Serve in the capacity of a designated representative for only one applicant or wholesaler at a time, except where more than one licensed wholesaler is co-located in the same facility and the wholesalers are members of an affiliated group as defined by section 1504 of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986";

(g) Not have any convictions under federal, state, or local law relating to wholesale or retail prescription drug distribution or a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(h) Not have any felony convictions pursuant to federal, state, or local law; and

(i) Update all of the information required in this part 3 whenever changes occur.

(6) A wholesaler shall obtain a license for each facility it uses for the distribution of prescription drugs.

12-42.5-304. Criminal history record check. Prior to submission of an application, each designated representative shall have his or her fingerprints taken by a local law enforcement agency for the purpose of obtaining a fingerprint-based criminal history record check. The designated representative shall submit payment by certified check or money order for the fingerprints and for the actual costs of the record check at the time the fingerprints are submitted to the Colorado bureau of investigation. Upon receipt of fingerprints and receipt of the payment for costs, the Colorado bureau of investigation shall conduct a state and national fingerprint-based criminal history record check utilizing records of the Colorado bureau of investigation and the federal bureau of investigation.

12-42.5-305. Restrictions on transactions. (1) A wholesaler shall accept prescription drug returns or exchanges from a pharmacy or a chain pharmacy warehouse pursuant to the terms and conditions of the agreement between the wholesale distributor and the pharmacy or chain pharmacy warehouse. The receiving wholesale distributor shall distribute returns or exchanges of expired, damaged, recalled, or otherwise unsaleable pharmaceutical product only to the original manufacturer or to a third-party returns processor. The returns or exchanges of prescription drugs, saleable or unsaleable, including any redistribution by a receiving wholesaler, are not subject to the pedigree requirements of section 12-42.5-306, so long as the drugs are exempt from the pedigree requirement of the federal food and drug administration's currently applicable "Prescription Drug Marketing Act of 1987" guidance. The pharmacies, chain pharmacy warehouses, and pharmacy buying cooperative warehouses are responsible for ensuring that the prescription drugs returned are what they purport to be and shall ensure that those returned prescription drugs were stored under proper conditions since their receipt. Wholesalers are responsible for policing their returns process and helping to ensure that their operations are secure and do not permit the entry of adulterated or counterfeit product. A pharmacist shall not knowingly return a medication that is not what it purports to be.

(2) A manufacturer or wholesaler shall furnish prescription drugs only to a board-registered outlet or practitioner authorized by law to prescribe the drugs. Before furnishing prescription drugs to a person or entity not known to the manufacturer or wholesaler, the manufacturer or wholesaler shall affirmatively verify that the person or entity is legally authorized to receive the prescription drugs by contacting the board.

(3) A manufacturer or wholesaler may furnish prescription drugs to a hospital pharmacy receiving area if a pharmacist or authorized receiving agent signs, at the time of delivery, a receipt showing the type and quantity of the prescription drug received. The pharmacist or authorized receiving agent shall report any discrepancy between the receipt and the type and quantity of the prescription drug actually received to the delivering manufacturer or wholesaler by the next business day after the delivery to the pharmacy receiving area.

(4) A manufacturer or wholesaler shall not accept payment for, or allow the use of, a person's or entity's credit to establish an account for the purchase of prescription drugs from any person other than the owner of record, the chief executive officer, or the chief financial officer listed on the license of a person or entity legally authorized to receive prescription drugs. An account established for the purchase of prescription drugs must bear the name of the licensee. This subsection (4) does not apply to standard ordering and purchasing business practices between a chain pharmacy warehouse, a wholesaler, and a manufacturer.

12-42.5-306. Records - study - authentication - pedigree - rules. (1) A wholesaler shall establish and maintain inventories and records of all transactions regarding the receipt and distribution or other disposition of prescription drugs. The records must include the pedigree for each wholesale distribution of a prescription drug that occurs outside the normal distribution channel.

(2) A wholesaler in the possession of a pedigree for a prescription drug shall verify that each transaction on the pedigree has occurred prior to distributing the prescription drug.

(3) A pedigree shall include all necessary identifying information concerning each sale in the chain of distribution of the product from the manufacturer or the first authorized distributor of record through the acquisition and sale by a wholesaler until final sale to a pharmacy or other person dispensing or administering the prescription drug. The pedigree shall include, at a minimum:

(a) The name, address, telephone number, and, if available, the electronic mail address of each owner of the prescription drug and each wholesaler of the drug;

(b) The name and address of each location from which the prescription drug was shipped, if different from that of the owner;

(c) The transaction dates;

(d) Certification that each recipient has authenticated the pedigree;

(e) The name of the prescription drug;

(f) The dosage form and strength of the prescription drug;

(g) The size and number of containers;

(h) The lot number of the prescription drug; and

(i) The name of the manufacturer of the finished dosage form.

(4) A purchaser or wholesaler shall maintain each pedigree for three years after the date of the sale or transfer of the prescription drug and shall make the pedigree available for inspection or use within five business days upon the request of an authorized law enforcement officer or an authorized agent of the board.

(5) This section does not apply to a retail pharmacy or chain pharmacy warehouse if the retail pharmacy or chain pharmacy warehouse does not engage in the wholesale distribution of prescription drugs.

(6) The board shall adopt rules as necessary for the implementation of this part 3.

PART 4

ELECTRONIC MONITORING OF PRESCRIPTION DRUGS

12-42.5-401. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly finds, determines, and declares that:

(a) Prescription drug abuse occurs in this country to an extent that exceeds or rivals the abuse of illicit drugs;

(b) Prescription drug abuse occurs at times due to the deception of the authorized practitioners where patients seek controlled substances for treatment and the practitioner is unaware of the patient's other medical providers and treatments;

(c) Electronic monitoring of prescriptions for controlled substances provides a mechanism whereby practitioners can discover the extent of each patient's requests for drugs and whether other providers have prescribed similar substances during a similar period of time;

(d) Electronic monitoring of prescriptions for controlled substances provides a mechanism for law enforcement officials and regulatory boards to efficiently investigate practitioner behavior that is potentially harmful to the public.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-22-701 as it existed prior to 2012.

12-42.5-402. Definitions. As used in this part 4, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Controlled substance” means any schedule II, III, IV, or V drug as listed in sections 18-18-204, 18-18-205, 18-18-206, and 18-18-207, C.R.S.

(2) “Division” means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(3) “Drug abuse” or “abuse” means utilization of a controlled substance for nonmedical purposes or in a manner that does not meet generally accepted standards of medical practice.

(4) “Prescription drug outlet” or “pharmacy” means any resident or nonresident pharmacy outlet registered or licensed pursuant to this article where prescriptions are compounded and dispensed.

(5) “Program” means the electronic prescription drug monitoring program developed or procured by the board in accordance with section 12-42.5-403.

12-42.5-403. Prescription drug use monitoring program. (1) The board shall develop or procure a prescription controlled substance electronic program to track information regarding prescriptions for controlled substances dispensed in Colorado, including the following information:

(a) The date the prescription was dispensed;

(b) The name of the patient and the practitioner;

(c) The name and amount of the controlled substance;

(d) The method of payment;

(e) The name of the dispensing pharmacy; and

(f) Any other data elements necessary to determine whether a patient is visiting multiple practitioners or pharmacies, or both, to receive the same or similar medication.

(2) Each practitioner and each dispensing pharmacy shall disclose to a patient receiving a controlled substance that his or her identifying prescription information will be entered into the program database and may be accessed for limited purposes by specified individuals.

(3) The board shall establish a method and format for prescription drug outlets to convey the necessary information to the board or its designee. The method must not require more than a one-time entry of data per patient per prescription by a prescription drug outlet.

(4) The division may contract with any individual or public or private agency or organization in carrying out the data collection and processing duties required by this part 4.

12-42.5-404. Program operation - access - rules. (1) The board shall operate and maintain the program.

(2) The board shall adopt all rules necessary to implement the program.

(3) The program is available for query only to the following persons or groups of persons:

(a) Board staff responsible for administering the program;

(b) Any practitioner with the statutory authority to prescribe controlled substances to the extent the query relates to a current patient of the practitioner to whom the practitioner is prescribing or considering prescribing any controlled substance;

(c) Practitioners engaged in a legitimate program to monitor a patient’s drug abuse;

(d) Pharmacists, to the extent the information requested relates specifically to a current patient to whom the pharmacist is dispensing or considering dispensing a controlled substance or to whom the pharmacist is providing clinical patient care services;

(e) Law enforcement officials so long as the information released is specific to an individual patient or practitioner and is part of a bona fide investigation, and the request for information is accompanied by an official court order or subpoena;

(f) The individual who is the recipient of a controlled substance prescription so long as the information released is specific to the individual;

(g) State regulatory boards within the division and the director of the division so long as the information released is specific to an individual practitioner and is part of a bona fide investigation, and the request for information is accompanied by an official court order or subpoena; and

(h) A resident physician with an active physician training license issued by the Colorado medical board pursuant to section 12-36-122 and under the supervision of a licensed physician.

(4) The board shall not charge a practitioner or pharmacy who transmits data in compliance with the operation and maintenance of the program a fee for the transmission of the data.

(5) The board, pursuant to a written agreement that ensures compliance with this part 4, may provide data to qualified personnel of a public or private entity for the purpose of bona fide research or education so long as the data does not identify a recipient of a practitioner who prescribed, or a prescription drug outlet that dispensed, a prescription drug.

(6) The board shall provide a means of sharing information about individuals whose information is recorded in the program with out-of-state health care practitioners and law enforcement officials that meet the requirements of paragraph (b), (c), or (e) of subsection (3) of this section.

12-42.5-405. Prescription drug monitoring fund - creation - gifts, grants, and donations - fee. (1) The board may seek and accept funds from any public or private entity for the purposes of implementing and maintaining the program. The board shall transmit any funds it receives to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the prescription drug monitoring fund, which fund is hereby created. The moneys in the fund are subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly for the sole purpose of implementing and maintaining the program. The moneys in the fund must not be transferred to or revert to the general fund at the end of any fiscal year.

(2) After implementing the program, the board shall seek gifts, grants, and donations on an annual basis for the purpose of maintaining the program. The board shall report annually to the health and human services committee of the senate and the health and environment committee of the house of representatives, or any successor committees, regarding the gifts, grants, and donations requested, of whom they were requested, and the amounts received.

(3) If, based upon the appropriations for the direct and indirect costs of the program, there are insufficient funds to maintain the program, the division may collect an annual fee of no more than seventeen dollars and fifty cents for the fiscal years 2011-12 and 2012-13, twenty dollars for the fiscal years 2013-14 and 2014-15, and twenty-five dollars for each fiscal year thereafter, from an individual who holds a license from the division that authorizes him or her to prescribe a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S. The division shall set the fee pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and shall collect the fee in conjunction with the license renewal fees collected pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. Moneys collected pursuant to this subsection (3) are credited to the prescription drug monitoring fund created in subsection (1) of this section.

12-42.5-408. Exemption - waiver. (1) A hospital licensed or certified pursuant to section 25-1.5-103, C.R.S., a prescription drug outlet located within the hospital that is dispensing a controlled substance for a chart order or dispensing less than or equal to a twenty-four-hour supply of a controlled substance, and emergency medical services personnel certified pursuant to section 25-3.5-203, C.R.S., are exempt from the reporting provisions of this part 4. A hospital prescription drug outlet licensed pursuant to section 12-42.5-112 shall comply with the provisions of this part 4 for controlled substances dispensed for outpatient care that have more than a twenty-four-hour supply.

(2) A prescription drug outlet that does not report controlled substance data to the program due to a lack of electronic automation of the outlet's business may apply to the board for a waiver from the reporting requirements.

PART 1

LEGISLATIVE DECLARATION

12-43-101. Legislative declaration. The general assembly hereby finds and determines that, in order to safeguard the public health, safety, and welfare of the people of this state and in order to protect the people of this state against the unauthorized, unqualified, and improper application of psychology, social work, marriage and family therapy, professional counseling, psychotherapy, and addiction counseling, it is necessary that the proper regulatory authorities be established and adequately provided for. The general assembly therefore declares that there shall be established a state board of psychologist examiners, a state board of social work examiners, a state board of marriage and family therapist examiners, a state board of licensed professional counselor examiners, a state board of registered psychotherapists, and a state board of addiction counselor examiners with the authority to license, register, or certify, and take disciplinary actions or bring injunctive actions, or both, concerning licensed psychologists and psychologist candidates, licensed social workers, licensed marriage and family therapists and marriage and family therapist candidates, licensed professional counselors and licensed professional counselor candidates, registered psychotherapists, and licensed and certified addiction counselors, respectively, and mental health professionals who have been issued a provisional license pursuant to this article.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Editor's note: Sections 12-43-221 to 12-43-229 were added with relocations in 1998 containing provisions of some sections formerly located in part 7 of this article. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

12-43-201. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Board" includes the state board of psychologist examiners, the state board of social work examiners, the state board of licensed professional counselor examiners, the state board of marriage and family therapist examiners, the state board of registered psychotherapists, and the state board of addiction counselor examiners.

(1.3) "Certificate holder" means an addiction counselor certified pursuant to this article.

(1.5) "Certified addiction counselor" means a person who is an addiction counselor certified pursuant to this article.

(1.7) "Director" means the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(1.8) "Division" means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2000, p. 1841, § 17, effective August 2, 2000.)

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-187), ch. 285, p. 1278, § 7, effective July 1, 2011.)

(3.5) "Licensed addiction counselor" means a person who is an addiction counselor licensed pursuant to this article.

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 98, p. 1107, § 4, effective July 1, 1998.)

(5) “Licensed professional counselor” means a person who is a professional counselor licensed pursuant to this article.

(5.5) “Licensed social worker” means a person who:

(a) Is a licensed social worker or licensed clinical social worker; and

(b) Is licensed pursuant to this article.

(6) “Licensee” means a psychologist, social worker, clinical social worker, marriage and family therapist, licensed professional counselor, or addiction counselor licensed pursuant to this article.

(7) “Marriage and family therapist” means a person who is a marriage and family therapist licensed pursuant to this article.

(7.5) “Professional relationship” means an interaction that is deliberately planned or directed, or both, by the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder toward obtaining specific objectives.

(7.7) (a) “Provisional license” means a license or certification issued pursuant to section 12-43-206.5.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-187), ch. 285, p. 1278, § 7, effective July 1, 2011.)

(7.8) (a) “Provisional licensee” means a person who holds a provisional license pursuant to section 12-43-206.5.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-187), ch. 285, p. 1278, § 7, effective July 1, 2011.)

(8) “Psychologist” means a person who is a psychologist licensed pursuant to this article.

(9) (a) “Psychotherapy” means the treatment, diagnosis, testing, assessment, or counseling in a professional relationship to assist individuals or groups to alleviate mental disorders, understand unconscious or conscious motivation, resolve emotional, relationship, or attitudinal conflicts, or modify behaviors that interfere with effective emotional, social, or intellectual functioning. Psychotherapy follows a planned procedure of intervention that takes place on a regular basis, over a period of time, or in the cases of testing, assessment, and brief psychotherapy, psychotherapy can be a single intervention.

(b) It is the intent of the general assembly that the definition of psychotherapy as used in this article be interpreted in its narrowest sense to regulate only those persons who clearly fall within the definition set forth in this subsection (9).

(9.1) (a) “Registered psychotherapist” means a person:

(I) Whose primary practice is psychotherapy or who holds himself or herself out to the public as being able to practice psychotherapy for compensation; and

(II) Who is registered with the state board of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5 to practice psychotherapy in this state.

(b) “Registered psychotherapist” also includes a person who:

(I) Is a licensed school psychologist licensed pursuant to section 22-60.5-210 (1) (b), C.R.S.;

(II) Is practicing outside of a school setting; and

(III) Is registered with the state board of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5.

(9.3) “Registrant” means a psychologist candidate, marriage and family therapist candidate, or licensed professional counselor candidate registered pursuant to section 12-43-304 (7), 12-43-504 (5), or 12-43-603 (5), respectively, or a registered psychotherapist.

12-43-202. Practice outside of or beyond professional training, experience, or competence - general scope of practice for licensure, registration, or certification.

(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, no licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is authorized to practice outside of or beyond his or her area of training, experience, or competence.

(2) The practice of psychotherapy is one area of practice for mental health professionals licensed, certified, or registered pursuant to this article but may not be the only or primary practice area of such professionals, other than persons registered as psychotherapists pursuant to part 7 of this article. The requirements for licensure, registration, or certification as a mental health professional pursuant to this article are contained in sections 12-43-303, 12-43-403, 12-43-503, 12-43-602.5, and 12-43-803, which define the practice of psychology, social work, marriage and family therapy, licensed professional counseling, and addiction counseling, respectively.

12-43-203. Boards - meetings - duties - powers - removal of members - immunity.

(1) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred or imposed upon each board by this article or by any other law, each board shall have the powers specified in this section.

(2) (a) (I) Each board shall annually hold a meeting and elect from its membership a chairperson and vice-chairperson. Each board shall meet at such times as it deems necessary or advisable or as deemed necessary and advisable by the chairperson or a majority of its members. Each board may conduct meetings by electronic means. Each board shall give reasonable notice of its meetings in the manner prescribed by law. A majority of each board constitutes a quorum at any meeting or hearing.

(II) All meetings are open to the public, except when:

(A) A board, or an administrative law judge acting on behalf of a board, specifically determines that the harm to a complainant or other recipient of services to keep such proceedings or related documents open to the public outweighs the public interest in observing the proceedings; or

(B) The licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is participating in good faith in a program approved by the board designed to end an addiction or dependency and the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has not violated the board's order regarding the person's participation in the treatment program.

(III) If the board determines that it is in the best interest of a complainant or other recipient of services to keep proceedings or related documents closed to the public, the final action of the board must be open to the public without disclosing the name of the client or other recipient. In all open meetings, the board shall take reasonable steps to keep the names of the recipients of services confidential.

(b) The proceedings of each board shall be conducted pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(3) Each board is authorized to:

(a) Adopt, and from time to time revise, such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out its powers and duties;

(b) Adopt an examination;

(c) Examine for, deny, withhold, or approve the license of an applicant, and renew licenses pursuant to section 12-43-212;

(d) Appoint advisory committees to assist in the performance of its duties;

(e) Conduct hearings as necessary to carry out its powers and duties.

(3.5) In carrying out its duties related to the approval of applications for licensure, registration, or certification pursuant to this section, section 12-43-212, and this article, each board shall delegate the function of the preliminary review and approval of applications to the staff of the board, with approval of an application ratified by action of the board. Each board, in its sole discretion, may individually review any application requiring board consideration prior to the approval of the application pursuant to section 12-43-212 and this article.

(4) Each board shall maintain current lists of the names of all licensees, registrants, and certificate holders and records of cases and decisions rendered by the board. In addition, each board shall keep an accurate record of the results of all examinations.

(5) Repealed.

(6) Publications of each board intended for circulation in quantity outside the board shall be issued in accordance with the provisions of section 24-1-136, C.R.S.

(7) (a) A member of a board or of a professional review committee authorized by a board, a member of staff to a board or committee, a person acting as a witness or consultant to a board or committee, a witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and a person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article is immune from liability in a civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as a board or committee member, staff, consultant, or witness, respectively, if the individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him or her was warranted by the facts. A person participating in good faith in lodging a complaint or participating in an investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article is immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

(b) A person participating in good faith in the making of a complaint or report or participating in any investigative or administrative proceeding before the board pursuant to this article is immune from any civil or criminal liability that might result by reason of the action.

(8) (Deleted by amendment, L. 98, p. 1108, § 6, effective July 1, 1998.)

(9) Any board member having an immediate personal, private, or financial interest in any matter pending before the board shall disclose the fact and shall not vote upon such matter.

(10) The governor may remove any board member for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty. Actions constituting neglect of duty shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of board members to attend three consecutive meetings or at least three-quarters of the board's meetings in any one calendar year.

(11) (a) (I) Subject to the requirements of subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a), a professional review committee may be established pursuant to this subsection (11) to investigate the quality of care being given by a person licensed, registered, or certified pursuant to this article. If a professional review committee is established, it must include in its membership at least three persons licensed, registered, or certified under this article, and such persons must be licensees, registrants, or certificate holders in the same profession as the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder who is the subject of a professional review proceeding.

(II) A professional review committee may be authorized to act only by a society or an association of persons licensed, registered, or certified pursuant to this article whose membership includes not less than one-third of the persons licensed, registered, or certified pursuant to this article residing in this state if the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder whose services are the subject of review is a member of the society or association.

(b) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 1849, § 101, effective August 4, 2004.)

(12) The boards shall develop rules or policies to provide guidance to persons licensed, registered, or certified pursuant to this article to assist in determining whether a relationship with a client or potential client is likely to impair his or her professional judgment or increase the risk of client exploitation in violation of section 12-43-222 (1) (i).

12-43-204. Fees - renewal. (1) All fees collected pursuant to this article shall be determined, collected, and appropriated in the same manner as set forth in section 24-34-105, C.R.S.

(2) Each board may charge fees established pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., to all applicants for licensure, registration, or certification under this article.

(3) Every person licensed, registered, or certified to practice psychology, social work, marriage and family therapy, professional counseling, psychotherapy, or addiction counseling within the state shall renew his or her license, registration, or certification pursuant to a schedule established by the director, and licenses, registrations, and certifications shall be renewed pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license, registration, or certification pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the license, registration, or certification expires. Any person whose license, registration, or certification expires is subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S.

(3.5) The director shall coordinate fee-setting pursuant to this section so that all licensees, registrants, and certificate holders pay fees as required by this section and section 12-43-702.5 (1).

12-43-205. Records. (1) Each board shall keep a record of proceedings and a register of all applications for licenses, registrations, or certifications, which must include:

- (a) The name and age of each applicant;
- (b) The date of the application;
- (c) The mailing address of the applicant;
- (d) A summary of the educational and other qualifications of each applicant;

- (e) Whether or not an examination was required and, if required, proof that the applicant passed the examination;
- (f) Whether licensure, registration, or certification was granted;
- (g) The date of the action of the board;
- (h) Other information the board deems necessary or advisable in aid of the requirements of this section.

12-43-206.5. Provisional license - fees. (1) (a) The board may issue a provisional license to an applicant who has completed a post-graduate degree that meets the educational requirements for licensure in section 12-43-304, 12-43-403, 12-43-504, 12-43-603, or 12-43-804, as applicable, and who is working in a residential child care facility as defined in section 26-6-102 (8), C.R.S., under the supervision of a licensee.

(b) A provisional license issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (1) terminates at the earliest of:

(I) Thirty days after termination of the provisional licensee's employment with a qualifying residential child care facility, unless the provisional licensee obtains and submits to the board proof of employment with another residential child care facility; or

(II) Thirty days after termination of the provisional licensee's supervision by a licensee unless the provisional licensee obtains and submits to the board proof of supervision by another licensee.

(c) A provisional licensee shall notify the board of any change in supervision within thirty days after the change.

(2) Each board may charge an application fee to an applicant for a provisional license. All fees collected pursuant to this subsection (2) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the division of professions and occupations cash fund pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. An application for a provisional license must identify the name, contact information, and license number of the licensee providing supervision of the provisional licensure applicant.

12-43-211. Professional service corporations for the practice of psychology, social work, marriage and family therapy, professional counseling, and addiction counseling - definitions. (1) Licensees, registrants, or certificate holders may form professional service corporations for the practice of psychology, social work, marriage and family therapy, professional counseling, psychotherapy, or addiction counseling under the “Colorado Business Corporation Act”, articles 101 to 117 of title 7, C.R.S., if the corporations are organized and operated in accordance with this section. The articles of incorporation of a professional service corporation formed pursuant to this section must contain provisions complying with the following requirements:

(a) The name of the corporation shall contain the words “professional company” or “professional corporation” or abbreviations thereof.

(b) The corporation must be organized by licensees, registrants, or certificate holders for the purpose of conducting the practice of psychology, social work, marriage and family therapy, professional counseling, psychotherapy, or addiction counseling by the respective licensees, registrants, or certificate holders of those practices. The corporation may be organized with any other person, and any person may own shares in such corporation, if the following conditions are met:

(I) The practice of psychology, as defined in section 12-43-303, by the professional service corporation is performed by or under the supervision of a licensed psychologist, and any psychologist member of the professional service corporation remains individually responsible for his or her professional acts and conduct as provided elsewhere in this article;

(II) (Deleted by amendment, L. 98, p. 1111, 11, effective July 1, 1998.)

(III) The practice of social work, as defined in section 12-43-403, by the professional service corporation is performed by a licensed social worker acting independently or under the supervision of a person licensed pursuant to this article or a licensed social worker. Any licensed social worker member of the professional service corporation remains individually responsible for his or her professional acts and conduct as provided elsewhere in this article.

(IV) The practice of marriage and family therapy, as defined in section 12-43-503, by the professional service corporation is performed by a licensed marriage and family therapist acting independently or under the supervision of a person licensed pursuant to this article or a licensed marriage and family therapist. Any licensed marriage and family therapist member of the professional service corporation remains individually responsible for his or her professional acts and conduct as provided elsewhere in this article.

(V) The practice of professional counseling, as defined in section 12-43-601, by the professional service corporation is performed by a licensed professional counselor acting independently or under the supervision of a person licensed pursuant to this article or a licensed professional counselor. Any licensed professional counselor member of the professional service corporation remains individually responsible for his or her professional acts and conduct as provided elsewhere in this article.

(VI) The practice of addiction counseling, as defined in section 12-43-802, by the professional service corporation is performed by a licensed addiction counselor acting independently or under the supervision of a person licensed pursuant to this article or a licensed addiction counselor. Any licensed addiction counselor member of the professional service corporation remains individually responsible for his or her professional acts and conduct as provided in this article; or

(VII) The practice of psychotherapy, as defined in section 12-43-201, by the professional service corporation is performed by a registered psychotherapist acting independently or under the supervision of a person licensed pursuant to this article or a registered psychotherapist. Any registered psychotherapist member of the professional service corporation remains individually responsible for his or her professional acts and conduct as provided in this article.

(c) The corporation may exercise the powers and privileges conferred upon corporations by the laws of Colorado only in furtherance of and subject to its corporate purpose.

(d) and (e) Repealed.

(f) Lay directors and officers shall not exercise any authority whatsoever over professional matters.

(g) The articles of incorporation must provide, and all shareholders of the corporation must agree, that either all shareholders of the corporation are jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation or that all shareholders of the corporation are jointly and severally liable for all acts, errors, and omissions of the employees of the corporation except during periods when the corporation maintains professional liability insurance that meets the following minimum standards:

(I) The insurance insures the corporation against liability imposed upon the corporation by law for damages resulting from any claim made against the corporation arising out of the performance of professional services for others by those officers and employees of the corporation who are licensed, registered, or certified to practice under this article or by those employees who provide professional services under supervision.

(II) The insurance insures the corporation against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the acts, errors, and omissions of all nonprofessional employees.

(III) The insurance is in an amount for each claim of at least one hundred thousand dollars multiplied by the number of persons licensed, registered, or certified to practice under this article who are employed by the corporation. The policy may provide for an aggregate maximum limit of liability per year for all claims of three hundred thousand dollars also multiplied by the number of licensees, registrants, or certificate holders employed by the corporation, but no corporation is required to carry insurance in excess of three hundred thousand dollars for each claim with an aggregate maximum limit of liability for all claims during the year of nine hundred thousand dollars.

(IV) The insurance policy may provide that it does not apply to: Any dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured corporation or any stockholder or employee of the corporation; or the conduct of any business enterprise, as distinguished from the practice of licensees, registrants, or certificate holders, in which the insured corporation under this section is not permitted to engage but that nevertheless may be owned by the insured corporation or in which the insured corporation may be a partner or that may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured corporation in its own or in a fiduciary capacity, including the ownership, maintenance, or use of any property in connection therewith, when not resulting from breach of professional duty of, bodily injury to, or sickness, disease, or death of any person or to injury to or destruction of any tangible property, including the loss of use of tangible property.

(V) The insurance policy may contain reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, and other usual matters.

(2) The corporation shall not act or fail to act in a manner that would violate section 12-43-222 (1). Any violation of this section by the corporation is grounds for a board to discipline any licensee, registrant, or certificate holder who is a member of or is employed by the corporation pursuant to section 12-43-224.

(3) Nothing in this section diminishes or changes the obligation of each licensee, registrant, or certificate holder employed by the corporation to conduct his or her practice in a manner that does not violate section 12-43-222 (1). Any licensee, registrant, or certificate holder who, by act or omission, causes the corporation to act or fail to act in a way that violates section 12-43-222 (1) or this section is personally responsible for the act or omission and is subject to discipline by the board.

(4) A professional service corporation may adopt a pension, profit sharing (whether cash or deferred), health and accident, insurance, or welfare plan for all of its employees, including lay employees, if such plan does not require or result in the sharing of specific or identifiable fees with lay employees and if any payments made to lay employees, or into any such plan in behalf of lay employees, are based upon their compensation or length of service, or both, rather than the amount of fees or income received.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to modify the privileges regarding confidential communications specified in sections 12-43-218 and 13-90-107 (1) (g), C.R.S.

(6) Nothing in this article limits persons licensed, registered, or certified under this article from forming a corporation with persons licensed, registered, or certified under this article.

(7) As used in this section, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Articles of incorporation" includes operating agreements of limited liability companies and partnership agreements of registered limited liability partnerships.

(b) "Corporation" includes a limited liability company organized under the "Colorado Limited Liability Company Act", article 80 of title 7, C.R.S., and a limited liability partnership registered under section 7-60-144 or 7-64-1002, C.R.S.

(c) "Director" and "officer" of a corporation includes a member and a manager of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

(d) "Employees" includes employees, members, and managers of a limited liability company and employees and partners of a registered limited liability partnership.

(e) "Share" includes a member's rights in a limited liability company and a partner's rights in a registered limited liability partnership.

(f) "Shareholder" includes a member of a limited liability company and a partner in a registered limited liability partnership.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Operating a Personal Service Corporation", see 17 Colo. Law. 2011 (1988).

12-43-212. Denial of license, registration, or certification - reinstatement.

(1) Each board is empowered to determine whether an applicant for licensure, registration, or certification, or for registry as a candidate for licensure, registration, or certification, possesses the qualifications required by this article.

(2) If a board determines that an applicant does not possess the applicable qualifications required by this article or, for a licensed clinical social worker, licensed social worker, licensed marriage and family therapist, licensed professional counselor, licensed addiction counselor, or level II or III certified addiction counselor, is unable to demonstrate his or her continued professional competence as required by section 12-43-411, 12-43-506, 12-43-605, or 12-43-805, respectively, the board may deny the applicant a license, registration, or certification or deny the reinstatement of a license, registration, or certification. If the application is denied, the board shall provide the applicant with a statement in writing setting forth the basis of the board's determination that the applicant does not possess the qualifications or professional competence required by this article. The applicant may request a hearing on the determination as provided in section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S.

(3) If a board has any reason to believe that or receives any information that an applicant has committed any of the acts set forth in section 12-43-222 (1) as grounds for discipline, the board may deny a license, registration, or certification to the applicant if the board determines that there is a basis for the denial. The order of the board to grant or deny a license, registration, or certification constitutes final agency action.

(4) A board, on its own motion or upon application, at any time after the refusal to grant a license, registration, or certification, may reconsider its prior action and grant a license, registration, or certification. The board has sole discretion to determine whether to take further action on the application after it refuses to grant a license, registration, or certification.

12-43-213. Legislative intent - schools and colleges - examinations. It is the intent of the general assembly that the definition relating to full-time courses of study and institutions of higher education for graduation of persons who are qualified to take examinations for licensure under this article be liberally construed by each board under the board's rule-making powers to ensure the right to take the examinations. It is not the intent that technical barriers be used to deny the ability to take an examination.

12-43-214. Mandatory disclosure of information to clients. (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, every licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall provide the following information verbally and in writing to each client during the initial client contact:

(a) The name, business address, and business phone number of the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder;

(b) (I) An explanation of the levels of regulation applicable to mental health professionals under this article and the differences between licensure, registration, and certification, including the educational, experience, and training requirements applicable to the particular level of regulation; and

(II) A listing of any degrees, credentials, certifications, registrations, and licenses held or obtained by the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder, including the education, experience, and training the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder was required to satisfy in order to obtain the degree, credentials, certifications, registrations, or licenses;

(c) A statement indicating that the practice of licensed or registered persons in the field of psychotherapy is regulated by the division, and an address and telephone number for the board that regulates the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder;

(d) A statement indicating that:

(I) A client is entitled to receive information about the methods of therapy, the techniques used, the duration of therapy, if known, and the fee structure;

(II) The client may seek a second opinion from another therapist or may terminate therapy at any time;

(III) In a professional relationship, sexual intimacy is never appropriate and should be reported to the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder;

(IV) The information provided by the client during therapy sessions is legally confidential in the case of licensed marriage and family therapists, social workers, professional counselors, and psychologists; licensed or certified addiction counselors; and registered psychotherapists, except as provided in section 12-43-218 and except for certain legal exceptions that will be identified by the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder should any such situation arise during therapy; and

(e) If the mental health professional is a registered psychotherapist, a statement indicating that a registered psychotherapist is a psychotherapist listed in the state's database and is authorized by law to practice psychotherapy in Colorado but is not licensed by the state and is not required to satisfy any standardized educational or testing requirements to obtain a registration from the state.

(2) If the client is a child who is consenting to mental health services pursuant to section 27-65-103, C.R.S., disclosure shall be made to the child. If the client is a child whose parent or legal guardian is consenting to mental health services, disclosure shall be made to the parent or legal guardian.

(3) In residential, institutional, or other settings where psychotherapy may be provided by multiple providers, disclosure shall be made by the primary therapist. The institution shall also provide a statement to the patient containing the information in paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection (1) of this section and a statement that the patient is entitled to the information listed in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section concerning any psychotherapist in the employ of the institution who is providing psychotherapy services to the patient.

(4) The disclosure of information required by subsection (1) of this section is not required when psychotherapy is being administered in any of the following circumstances:

(a) In an emergency;

(b) Pursuant to a court order or involuntary procedures pursuant to sections 27-65-105 to 27-65-109, C.R.S.;

(c) The sole purpose of the professional relationship is for forensic evaluation;

(d) The client is in the physical custody of either the department of corrections or the department of human services and such department has developed an alternative program to provide similar information to such client and such program has been established through rule or regulation;

(e) The client is incapable of understanding such disclosure and has no guardian to whom disclosure can be made;

(f) By a social worker practicing in a hospital that is licensed or certified under section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (I) or (1) (a) (II), C.R.S.;

(g) By a person licensed or certified pursuant to this article, or by a registered psychotherapist practicing in a hospital that is licensed or certified under section 25-1.5-103 (1) (a) (I) or (1) (a) (II), C.R.S.

(5) If the client has no written language or is unable to read, an oral explanation shall accompany the written copy.

(6) Unless the client, parent, or guardian is unable to write, or refuses or objects, the client, parent, or guardian shall sign the disclosure form required by this section not later than the second visit with the psychotherapist.

12-43-215. Scope of article - exemptions. (1) Any person engaged in the practice of religious ministry shall not be required to comply with the provisions of this article; except that such person shall not hold himself or herself out to the public by any title incorporating the terms “psychologist”, “social worker”, “licensed social worker”, “LSW”, “licensed clinical social worker”, “clinical social worker”, “LCSW”, “licensed marriage and family therapist”, “LMFT”, “licensed professional counselor”, “LPC”, “addiction counselor”, “licensed addition counselor”, “LAC”, “certified addition counselor”, or “CAC” unless that person has been licensed or certified pursuant to this article.

(2) The provisions of this article shall not apply to the practice of employment or rehabilitation counseling as performed in the private and public sectors; except that the provisions of this article shall apply to employment or rehabilitation counselors practicing psychotherapy in the field of mental health.

(3) The provisions of this article shall not apply to employees of the department of human services, employees of county departments of social services, or personnel under the direct supervision and control of the department of human services or any county department of social services for work undertaken as part of their employment.

(4) The provisions of this article shall not apply to persons who are licensed pursuant to section 22-60.5-210, C.R.S., and who are not licensed under this article for work undertaken as part of their employment by, or contractual agreement with, the public schools.

(5) Nothing in this section limits the applicability of section 18-3-405.5, C.R.S., which applies to any person while he or she is practicing psychotherapy as defined in this article.

(6) The provisions of this article shall not apply to mediators resolving judicial disputes pursuant to part 3 of article 22 of title 13, C.R.S.

(8) The provisions of section 12-43-702.5 shall not apply to employees of community mental health centers or clinics as those centers or clinics are defined by section 27-66-101, C.R.S., but such persons practicing outside the scope of employment as employees of a facility defined by section 27-66-101, C.R.S., shall be subject to the provisions of section 12-43-702.5.

(9) The provisions of this article shall not apply to a person who resides in another state and who is currently licensed or certified as a psychologist, marriage and family therapist, clinical social worker, professional counselor, or addiction counselor in that state to the extent that the licensed or certified person performs activities or services in this state, if the activities and services are:

- (a) Performed within the scope of the person's license or certification;
 - (b) Do not exceed twenty days per year in this state;
 - (c) Are not otherwise in violation of this article; and
 - (d) Disclosed to the public that the person is not licensed or certified in this state.
- (10) The provisions of this article do not apply to a professional coach, including a life coach, executive coach, personal coach, or business coach, who has had coach-specific training and who serves clients exclusively as a coach, as long as the professional coach does not engage in the practice of psychology, social work, marriage and family therapy, licensed professional counseling, psychotherapy, or addiction counseling, as those practices are defined in this article.

ANNOTATION

Nothing in this article establishes a continuing, legitimate expectation or entitlement to practice psychology under repealed exemptions previously found in this section. Therefore, plaintiffs previously exempt have no cognizable property interest in practicing psychology under the repealed exemptions. Soc. of Comm. & Inst. Psychologists v. Lamm, 741 P.2d 707 (Colo. 1987) (decided under § 12-43-114 as it existed prior to the 1988 repeal and reenactment of this article).

12-43-216. Title use restrictions. A psychologist, social worker, marriage and family therapist, professional counselor, or addiction counselor may only use the title for which he or she is licensed, certified, or registered under this article. Except as provided in section 12-43-306 (3), no other person shall hold himself or herself out to the public by any title or description of services incorporating the terms “licensed clinical social worker”, “clinical social worker”, “LCSW”, “licensed social worker”, “LSW”, “marriage and family therapist”, “LMFT”, “professional counselor”, “LPC”, “psychologist”, “psychologist candidate”, “psychology”, “psychological”, “addiction counselor”, “licensed addiction counselor”, “LAC”, “certified addiction counselor”, or “CAC”, and no other person shall state or imply that he or she is licensed to practice social work, marriage and family therapy, professional counseling, psychology, or addiction counseling. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a person from stating or using the educational degrees that such person has obtained.

12-43-217. Judicial review of final board actions and orders. Final actions and orders of a board appropriate for judicial review may be judicially reviewed in the court of appeals, and judicial proceedings for the enforcement of a board order may be instituted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

12-43-218. Disclosure of confidential communications. (1) A licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall not disclose, without the consent of the client, any confidential communications made by the client, or advice given to the client, in the course of professional employment. A licensee's, registrant's, or certificate holder's employee or associate, whether clerical or professional, shall not disclose any knowledge of said communications acquired in such capacity. Any person who has participated in any therapy conducted under the supervision of a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder, including group therapy sessions, shall not disclose any knowledge gained during the course of such therapy without the consent of the person to whom the knowledge relates.

(2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply when:

(a) A client or the heirs, executors, or administrators of a client file suit or a complaint against a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder on any cause of action arising out of or connected with the care or treatment of the client by the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder;

(b) A licensee, registrant, or certificate holder was in consultation with a physician, registered professional nurse, licensee, registrant, or certificate holder against whom a suit or complaint was filed based on the case out of which said suit or complaint arises;

(c) A review of services of a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is conducted by any of the following:

(I) A board or a person or group authorized by the board to make an investigation on its behalf;

(II) The governing board of a hospital licensed pursuant to part 1 of article 3 of title 25, C.R.S., where the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder practices or the medical staff of such hospital if the medical staff operates pursuant to written bylaws approved by the governing board of the hospital; or

(III) A professional review committee established pursuant to section 12-43-203 (11) if said person has signed a release authorizing such review.

(3) The records and information produced and used in the review provided for in paragraph (c) of subsection (2) of this section do not become public records solely by virtue of the use of the records and information. The identity of a client whose records are reviewed shall not be disclosed to any person not directly involved in the review process, and procedures shall be adopted by a board, hospital, association, or society to ensure that the identity of the client is concealed during the review process itself and to comply with section 12-43-224 (4).

(4) Subsection (1) of this section shall not apply to any delinquency or criminal proceeding, except as provided in section 13-90-107, C.R.S., regarding any delinquency or criminal proceeding involving a licensed psychologist.

(5) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prohibit any other disclosures required by law.

(6) This section does not apply to covered entities, their business associates, or health oversight agencies, as each is defined in the federal "Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996", as amended by the federal "Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act", and the respective implementing regulations.

Making it a criminal act for a social worker to reveal a privileged communication from a client was irreconcilable with § 19-3-304. Human Servs. Inc. v. Woodward, 765 P.2d 1052 (Colo. App. 1988) (decided under § 12-63.5-115 prior to its repeal in 1988).

When a psychotherapist reveals opinions to third parties without the client's consent, the psychotherapist is negligent. A divorced mother of two children was seeking therapy concerning allegations that the ex-husband and father of the children had abused the children. The mother was dissatisfied with treatment and ended the therapeutic relationship. The psychotherapist sent a letter to the father of the children and the new therapist for the mother and children opining that the mother's actions were alienating the father from the children. Such letter prompted the father to modify his custody arrangement with the mother. By sending the letter to the father, the psychotherapist was negligent and breached the duty of care to the mother. Mitchell v. Ryder, 20 P.3d 1229 (Colo. App. 2000).

12-43-219. Article not to restrict other professions. (1) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit any member of any other profession who is duly licensed or certified pursuant to the laws of this state from rendering service consistent with his or her training and professional ethics so long as the professional does not hold himself or herself out to the public by any title or description to which such professional is not entitled pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(2) No person licensed pursuant to article 38 of this title shall be subject to the jurisdiction of a board created pursuant to this article to the extent such person is under the jurisdiction of the state board of nursing.

12-43-221. Powers and duties of the boards - rules. (1) In addition to all other powers and duties conferred and imposed upon the boards, as defined in section 12-43-201 (1), each board has the following powers and duties with respect to the licensing, registration, and certification of the persons licensed, registered, or certified by each individual board pursuant to this article:

(a) To annually elect one of its members as chairperson and one as vice-chairperson. Each board may meet at such times and adopt such rules for its government as it deems proper.

(b) (I) To make investigations, hold hearings, and take evidence in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and this article in all matters relating to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties vested in each board.

(II) Each board, or an administrative law judge acting on the board's behalf, may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter before the board. Each board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board pursuant to paragraph (e) of this subsection (1).

(III) Upon failure of a witness to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the board; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. The court may punish the failure to obey the order of the court as a contempt of court.

(c) To aid the several district attorneys of this state in the enforcement of this article and in the prosecution of all persons, firms, associations, or corporations charged with the violation of any of its provisions and to report to the appropriate district attorney any violation of this article that it reasonably believes involves a criminal violation;

(d) To take disciplinary actions in conformity with this article;

(e) Through the department of regulatory agencies and subject to appropriations made to the department of regulatory agencies, to employ administrative law judges on a full-time or part-time basis to conduct any hearings required by this article. The administrative law judges shall be appointed pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S.

(f) To notify the public of all disciplinary actions taken against licensees, registrants, or certificate holders pursuant to this article.

(2) Pursuant to this part 2 and article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., each board is authorized to adopt and revise rules as necessary to enable the board to carry out the provisions of this part 2 with respect to the regulation of the persons licensed, registered, or certified by each individual board pursuant to this article.

ANNOTATION

The board's declaratory order to comply with the provisions of a subpoena within a set period of time does not constitute enforcement of the subpoena, but rather establishes a time frame within which a person subject to the subpoena must comply in order to avoid enforcement by a court of competent jurisdiction. Colo. Bd. of Psychologist Exam'rs v. I.W., 140 P.3d 186 (Colo. App. 2006).

12-43-221.5. Confidential agreement to limit practice - violation grounds for discipline. (1) If a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the person unable to practice his or her mental health profession with reasonable skill and with safety to clients, the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall notify the board that regulates his or her profession of the illness or condition in a manner and within a period determined by his or her oversight board. The applicable board may require the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder to submit to an examination or refer the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder to a peer health assistance program, if such program exists, to evaluate the extent of the illness or condition and its impact on the licensee's, registrant's, or certificate holder's ability to practice with reasonable skill and with safety to clients.

(2) (a) Upon determining that a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder with a physical or mental illness or condition is able to render limited services with reasonable skill and with safety to clients, the applicable board may enter into a confidential agreement with the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder in which the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder agrees to limit his or her practice based on the restrictions imposed by the illness or condition, as determined by the applicable board.

(b) As part of the agreement, the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is subject to periodic reevaluations or monitoring as determined appropriate by the applicable board. The board may refer the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder to a peer assistance health program, if one exists, for reevaluation or monitoring.

(c) The parties may modify or dissolve the agreement as necessary based on the results of a reevaluation or of monitoring.

(3) By entering into an agreement with the applicable board pursuant to this section to limit his or her practice, the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is not engaging in activities prohibited pursuant to section 12-43-222. The agreement does not constitute a restriction or discipline by the applicable board. However, if the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder fails to comply with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to this section, the failure constitutes a prohibited activity pursuant to section 12-43-222 (1) (f), and the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-43-223.

(4) This section does not apply to a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder subject to discipline for prohibited activities as described in section 12-43-222 (1) (e).

12-43-222. Prohibited activities - related provisions. (1) A person licensed, registered, or certified under this article violates this article if the person:

(a) Has been convicted of or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or received a deferred sentence to a felony charge. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of such conviction or plea is conclusive evidence of the conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, each board is governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(b) Has violated or attempted to violate, directly or indirectly, or assisted or abetted the violation of, or conspired to violate any provision or term of this article or rule promulgated pursuant to this article or any order of a board established pursuant to this article;

(c) Has used advertising that is misleading, deceptive, or false;

(d) (I) Has committed abuse of health insurance pursuant to section 18-13-119, C.R.S.;

(II) Has advertised through newspapers, magazines, circulars, direct mail, directories, radio, television, or otherwise that the person will perform any act prohibited by section 18-13-119, C.R.S.;

(e) Habitually or excessively uses or abuses alcohol, a habit-forming drug, or a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S.;

(f) (I) Fails to notify the board that regulates his or her profession of a physical or mental illness or condition that affects the person's ability to treat clients with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health or safety of persons under his or her care;

(II) Fails to act within the limitations created by a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the person unable to treat clients with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health or safety of persons under his or her care; or

(III) Fails to comply with the limitations agreed to under a confidential agreement entered pursuant to section 12-43-221.5;

(g) (I) Has acted or failed to act in a manner that does not meet the generally accepted standards of the professional discipline under which the person practices. Generally accepted standards may include, at the board's discretion, the standards of practice generally recognized by state and national associations of practitioners in the field of the person's professional discipline.

(II) A certified copy of a malpractice judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction is conclusive evidence that the act or omission does not meet generally accepted standards of the professional discipline, but evidence of the act or omission is not limited to a malpractice judgment.

(h) Has performed services outside of such person's area of training, experience, or competence;

(i) Has maintained relationships with clients that are likely to impair such person's professional judgment or increase the risk of client exploitation, such as treating employees, supervisees, close colleagues, or relatives;

(j) Has exercised undue influence on the client, including the promotion of the sale of services, goods, property, or drugs in such a manner as to exploit the client for the financial gain of the practitioner or a third party;

(k) Has failed to terminate a relationship with a client when it was reasonably clear that the client was not benefiting from the relationship and is not likely to gain such benefit in the future;

(l) Has failed to refer a client to an appropriate practitioner when the problem of the client is beyond such person's training, experience, or competence;

(m) Has failed to obtain a consultation or perform a referral when such failure is not consistent with generally accepted standards of care;

(n) Has failed to render adequate professional supervision of persons practicing pursuant to this article under such person's supervision according to generally accepted standards of practice;

(o) Has accepted commissions or rebates or other forms of remuneration for referring clients to other professional persons;

(p) Has failed to comply with any of the requirements pertaining to mandatory disclosure of information to clients pursuant to section 12-43-214;

(q) Has offered or given commissions, rebates, or other forms of remuneration for the referral of clients; except that a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder may pay an independent advertising or marketing agent compensation for advertising or marketing services rendered on the person's behalf by such agent, including compensation that is paid for the results of performance of such services on a per-patient basis;

(r) Has engaged in sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration, as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S., with a client during the period of time in which a therapeutic relationship exists or for up to two years after the period in which such a relationship exists;

(s) Has resorted to fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying for or in securing licensure or taking any examination provided for in this article;

(t) Has engaged in any of the following activities and practices:

(I) Repeated ordering or performing demonstrably unnecessary laboratory tests or studies without clinical justification for the tests or studies;

(II) The administration, without clinical justification, of treatment that is demonstrably unnecessary;

(III) Ordering or performing any service or treatment that is contrary to the generally accepted standards of the person's practice and is without clinical justification;

(IV) Using or recommending rebirthing or any therapy technique that may be considered similar to rebirthing as a therapeutic treatment. "Rebirthing" means the reenactment of the birthing process through therapy techniques that involve any restraint that creates a situation in which a patient may suffer physical injury or death. For the purposes of this subparagraph (IV), a parent or legal guardian may not consent to physical, chemical, or mechanical restraint on behalf of a child or ward.

(u) Has falsified or repeatedly made incorrect essential entries or repeatedly failed to make essential entries on patient records;

(v) Has committed a fraudulent insurance act, as set forth in section 10-1-128, C.R.S.;

(w) Has sold or fraudulently obtained or furnished a license, registration, or certification to practice as a psychologist, social worker, marriage and family therapist, licensed professional counselor, psychotherapist, or addiction counselor or has aided or abetted in such activities; or

(x) Has failed to respond, in the manner required by the board, to a complaint filed with or by the board against the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder.

(2) A disciplinary action relating to a license, registration, or certification to practice a profession licensed, registered, or certified under this article or any related occupation in any other state, territory, or country for disciplinary reasons constitutes prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action, including denial of licensure, registration, or certification, by a board. This subsection (2) applies only to disciplinary actions based upon acts or omissions in such other state, territory, or country substantially similar to those acts or omissions set out as grounds for disciplinary action pursuant to subsection (1) of this section.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-43-222 is similar to § 12-43-704 as it existed prior to the 1998 amendment to part 2 of article 43 of title 12, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Applied in Davis v. Bd. of Psychologist Exam'rs, 791 P.2d 1198 (Colo. App. 1989).

12-43-223. Authority of boards - cease-and-desist orders - rules. (1) (a) If a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder violates any provision of section 12-43-222, the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder may:

- (I) Deny, revoke, or suspend the person's license, registration, or certification;
- (II) Deny, revoke, or suspend the listing of a registered psychotherapist in the state board of registered psychotherapists database;
- (III) Issue a letter of admonition to a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder;
- (IV) Issue a confidential letter of concern to a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder;
- (V) Place a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder on probation; or
- (VI) Apply for an injunction pursuant to section 12-43-227 to enjoin a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder from practicing the profession for which the person is licensed, registered, or certified under this article.

(b) When a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder violates an administrative requirement of this article, the board regulating the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder may impose an administrative fine on the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder, not to exceed five thousand dollars per violation. Each board shall adopt rules establishing a schedule of fines setting forth different levels of fines based on whether the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has committed a single violation or subsequent violations of administrative requirements.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-187), ch. 285, p. 1287, § 15, effective July 1, 2011.)

(4) (a) If it appears to a board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee or registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(5) (a) If it appears to a board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing such person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed or unregistered practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom such order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (5) shall constitute notice thereof to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (5) does not appear at the hearing, a board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (5) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after such board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If a board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license or registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing such person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices.

(IV) A board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (5), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(6) If it appears to a board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed or unregistered act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(7) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, a board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(8) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of a board's determination or of a board's final order as provided in section 12-43-224 (5).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-43-704.5 as it existed prior to 1998.

12-43-224. Disciplinary proceedings - judicial review - mental and physical examinations - multiple licenses. (1) (a) A proceeding for discipline of a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder may be commenced when the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has reasonable grounds to believe that the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder under the board's jurisdiction has committed any act or failed to act pursuant to the grounds established in section 12-43-222 or 12-43-226.

(b) A licensee, registrant, or certificate holder who holds more than one license, registration, or certification pursuant to this article, who has committed any act or failed to act pursuant to the grounds established in section 12-43-222 or 12-43-226, is subject to disciplinary action by all boards that license, register, or certify the person pursuant to this article. The findings, conclusions, and final agency order of the first board to take disciplinary action pursuant to this section against the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder, or any disciplinary action taken by the state grievance board as it existed prior to July 1, 1998, is prima facie evidence against the person in any subsequent disciplinary action taken by another board concerning the same act or series of acts.

(c) If a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder who applies for a license, registration, or certification pursuant to this article has been disciplined by any board created pursuant to this article, or the state grievance board as it existed prior to July 1, 1998, the findings, conclusions, and final agency order of the first board to take disciplinary action pursuant to this section against the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is prima facie evidence against the person in any subsequent application made for a license, registration, or certification to any other board created pursuant to this article.

(2) (a) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in the manner prescribed by the "State Administrative Procedure Act", article 4 of title 24, C.R.S.

(b) Each board, through the department of regulatory agencies, may employ administrative law judges, on a full-time or part-time basis, to conduct hearings as provided by this article or on any matter within the board's jurisdiction upon such conditions and terms as such board may determine. A board may elect to refer a case for formal hearing to an administrative law judge, with or without an assigned advisor from such board. If a board so elects to refer a case with an assigned advisor and such advisor is a member of the board, the advisor shall be excluded from such board's review of the decision of the administrative law judge. The advisor shall assist the administrative law judge in obtaining and interpreting data pertinent to the hearing.

(c) (I) Except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (c), a board shall not deny, revoke, or suspend a licensee's, registrant's, or certificate holder's right to use a title and shall not place a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder on probation pursuant to the grounds established in sections 12-43-222 and 12-43-226 until a hearing has been conducted if required pursuant to section 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(II) The board that licenses, registers, or certifies a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder pursuant to this article may summarily suspend the person's license, registration, or certification, subject to the limitation of section 24-4-104, C.R.S., under the following circumstances:

(A) In emergency situations, as provided for by section 24-4-104, C.R.S.;

(B) The licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has been adjudicated by a court of competent jurisdiction as being a person who is gravely disabled, mentally retarded, mentally incompetent, or insane or as a person with a mental illness by a court of competent jurisdiction; or

(C) The licensee, registrant, or certificate holder violates paragraph (e) of this subsection (2).

(d) If a board has reasonable cause to believe that a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder whom the board licenses, registers, or certifies pursuant to this article is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety to patients, the board may require the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder to submit to mental or physical examinations designated by the board. Upon the failure of the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder to submit to a mental or physical examination, and unless the person shows good cause for such failure, the board may act pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (2) or enjoin a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder pursuant to section 12-43-227 until the person submits to the required examinations.

(e) Every licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is deemed to have consented to submit to mental or physical examinations when directed in writing by the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder pursuant to this article and to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examiner's testimony or examination reports on the ground of privileged communication.

(f) The results of any mental or physical examination ordered by a board may be used as evidence in any proceeding initiated by a board or within that board's jurisdiction in any forum.

(3) Disciplinary actions may consist of the following:

(a) Revocation of a license, registration, or certification. (I) Revocation of a license, registration, or certification by a board means that the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder shall surrender his or her license, registration, or certification.

(II) Any person whose license, registration, or certification to practice is revoked is ineligible to apply for any license, registration, or certification issued under this article for at least three years after the date of surrender of the license, registration, or certification. Any reapplication after such three-year period is treated as a new application.

(b) Suspension of a license, registration, or certification. Suspension of a license, registration, or certification by the board that licenses, registers, or certifies such licensee, registrant, or certificate holder pursuant to this article is for a period to be determined by the applicable board.

(c) Probationary status. A board may impose probationary status on a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder. If a board places a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder on probation, it may include conditions for continued practice that the board deems appropriate to assure that the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder is physically, mentally, and otherwise qualified to practice in accordance with generally accepted professional standards of practice, including any of the following:

(I) Submission by the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder to examinations a board may order to determine the person's physical or mental condition or professional qualifications;

(II) Participation in therapy or courses of training or education the board determines necessary to correct deficiencies found either in the hearing or by such examinations;

(III) Review or supervision of the person's practice as may be necessary to determine the quality of, and correct any deficiencies in, that practice; and

(IV) The imposition of restrictions upon the nature of the person's practice to assure that he or she does not practice beyond the limits of his or her capabilities.

(d) Issuance of letters of admonition. (I) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, does not warrant formal action by the board but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, a letter of admonition may be issued and sent, by certified mail, to the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder.

(II) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, by certified mail, to a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder, the letter also must advise the person that he or she has the right to request, in writing within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(III) If the request for adjudication is timely made, the letter of admonition is vacated and the matter shall be processed by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(e) Issuance of confidential letters of concern. When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board but indicates to the board conduct by the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, the board may issue and send to the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder a confidential letter of concern. The letter must advise the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder that the board is concerned about a complaint it received about the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder and must specify what action, if any, the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder should take to assuage the board's concern. Confidential letters of concern are confidential, and the board shall not disclose the existence of such a letter or its contents to members of the public or in any court action unless the board is a party to the action.

(f) Deferred settlement or judgment. When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(4) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4), if a complaint is dismissed, records of investigations, examinations, hearings, meetings, and other proceedings of the board conducted pursuant to this section are exempt from the open records law, article 72 of title 24, C.R.S.

(b) The exemption from the open records law specified in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) does not apply:

(I) When a decision to proceed with a disciplinary action has been agreed upon by a majority of the members of the applicable board and a notice of formal complaint is drafted and served on the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder by first-class mail; or

(II) Upon final agency action.

(c) In any final agency action or formal complaint, the board, when it deems necessary, shall redact all names of clients or other recipients of services to protect such persons' confidentiality.

(5) Final board actions and orders appropriate for judicial review may be judicially reviewed in the court of appeals, and judicial proceedings for the enforcement of a board order may be instituted in accordance with section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(6) (Deleted by amendment, L. 98, p. 1120, § 18, effective July 1, 1998.)

(7) Any board member having an immediate personal, private, or financial interest in any matter pending before the board shall disclose the fact to the board and shall not vote upon such matter.

(8) Any licensee, registrant, or certificate holder against whom a malpractice claim is settled or a judgment rendered in a court of competent jurisdiction shall notify the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder pursuant to this article of the judgment or settlement within sixty days after the disposition.

(9) Any licensee, registrant, or certificate holder who has direct knowledge that a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder has violated section 12-43-222 or 12-43-226 has a duty to report the violation to the board that licenses, registers, or certifies the licensee, registrant, or certificate holder pursuant to this article unless reporting the violation would violate the prohibition against disclosure of confidential information without client consent pursuant to section 12-43-218.

12-43-226. Unauthorized practice - penalties.

(1) Repealed.

(2) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice as a psychologist, social worker, marriage and family therapist, licensed professional counselor, psychotherapist, or addiction counselor without an active license, registration, or certification issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense. Any person who commits a second or any subsequent offense commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(3) Repealed.

(4) No action may be maintained for the breach of a contract involving the unlawful practice of psychology, social work, professional counseling, marriage and family therapy, addiction counseling, or psychotherapy or for the recovery of compensation for services rendered under such a contract.

(5) When an individual has been the recipient of services prohibited by this article, whether or not such person knew that the rendition of the services were unlawful:

(a) Such person or such person's personal representative is entitled to recover the amount of any fee paid for the services; and

(b) Damages for injury or death occurring as a result of the services may be recovered in an appropriate action without any showing of negligence.

12-43-227. Injunctive proceedings. (1) A board may, in the name of the people of the state of Colorado, through the attorney general of the state of Colorado, apply for an injunction in any court of competent jurisdiction:

(a) To enjoin any person licensed, registered, or certified by that board pursuant to this article from committing any act prohibited by this article;

(b) To enjoin a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder regulated by that board from practicing the profession for which the person is licensed, registered, or certified under this article if the person has violated section 12-43-224 (2) (d) or 12-43-222.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-187), ch. 285, p. 1309, § 37, effective July 1, 2011.)

(2) If the board demonstrates that the defendant has been or is committing any act prohibited by this article, the court shall enter a decree perpetually enjoining the defendant from further committing the act or from practicing any profession licensed, registered, or certified pursuant to this article.

(3) Injunctive proceedings are in addition to, and not in lieu of, penalties and other remedies provided in this article.

(4) When seeking an injunction under this section, a board is not required to allege or prove either that an adequate remedy at law does not exist or that substantial or irreparable damage would result from a continued violation.

12-43-227.5. Mental health professional peer health assistance program - fees - administration - rules. (1) (a) On and after July 1, 2012, as a condition of licensure, registration, or certification and renewal in this state, every person applying for a new license, registration, or certification or to renew his or her license, registration, or certification shall pay a fee, for use by the administering entity selected by the director pursuant to this subsection (1), in an amount not to exceed twenty-five dollars per application for a new or to renew a license, registration, or certification. The director may adjust the maximum fee amount on January 1, 2013, and annually thereafter to reflect changes in the United States bureau of statistics consumer price index for the Denver-Boulder consolidated metropolitan statistical area for all urban consumers or goods, or its successor index. The fee shall be forwarded to the chosen administering entity for use in supporting designated providers selected to provide assistance to licensees, registrants, or certificate holders needing help in dealing with physical, emotional, or psychological conditions that may be detrimental to their ability to practice their mental health profession.

(b) The director, in consultation with the boards, shall select one or more peer health assistance programs as designated providers. For purposes of selecting designated providers, the director shall use a competitive bidding process that encourages participation from interested vendors. To be eligible for designation, a peer health assistance program must:

(I) Provide for the education of mental health professionals with respect to the recognition and prevention of physical, emotional, and psychological conditions and provide for intervention when necessary or under circumstances established by the board by rule;

(II) Offer assistance to a mental health professional in identifying physical, emotional, or psychological conditions;

(III) Evaluate the extent of physical, emotional, or psychological conditions and refer the mental health professional for appropriate treatment;

(IV) Monitor the status of a mental health professional who has been referred for treatment;

(V) Provide counseling and support for the mental health professional and for the family of any mental health professional referred for treatment;

(VI) Agree to receive referrals from the board; and

(VII) Agree to make its services available to all licensed, registered, or certified mental health professionals.

(c) The director may select an entity to administer the mental health professional peer assistance program. An administering entity must be a nonprofit private foundation that is qualified under section 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, and that is dedicated to providing support for charitable, benevolent, educational, and scientific purposes that are related to mental health professions, mental health professional education, mental health research and science, and other mental health charitable purposes.

(d) The administering entity shall:

- (I) Distribute the moneys collected by the division, less expenses, to the designated provider, as directed by the director;
- (II) Provide an annual accounting to the division of all amounts collected, expenses incurred, and amounts disbursed; and
- (III) Post a surety performance bond in an amount specified by the director to secure performance under the requirements of this section. The administering entity may recover the actual administrative costs incurred in performing its duties under this section in an amount not to exceed ten percent of the total amount collected.
- (e) The division shall collect the required annual payments payable to the administering entity for the benefit of the administering entity and shall transfer all such payments to the administering entity. All required annual payments collected or due for each fiscal year are custodial funds that are not subject to appropriation by the general assembly, and the distribution of payments to the administering entity or expenditure of the payments by the administering entity does not constitute state fiscal year spending for purposes of section 20 of article X of the state constitution.
- (2) (a) Any mental health professional who is referred by the applicable board to a peer health assistance program shall enter into a stipulation with the board pursuant to section 12-43-223 (6) before participating in the program. The agreement must contain specific requirements and goals to be met by the participant, including the conditions under which the program will be successfully completed or terminated, and a provision that a failure to comply with the requirements and goals are to be promptly reported to the board and that such failure will result in disciplinary action by the board.
- (b) Notwithstanding sections 12-43-223, 12-43-224, and 24-4-104, C.R.S., the applicable board may immediately suspend the license of any mental health professional who is referred to a peer health assistance program by the board and who fails to attend or to complete the program. If the mental health professional objects to the suspension, he or she may submit a written request to the board for a formal hearing on the suspension within ten days after receiving notice of the suspension, and the board shall grant the request. In the hearing, the mental health professional bears the burden of proving that his or her license, registration, or certification should not be suspended.
- (c) Any mental health professional who self-refers and is accepted into a peer health assistance program shall affirm that, to the best of his or her knowledge, information, and belief, he or she knows of no instance in which he or she has violated this article or the rules of the board, except in those instances affected by the mental health professional's physical, emotional, or psychological conditions.
- (3) Nothing in this section creates any liability on the director, division, or state of Colorado for their actions in making grants to peer assistance programs, and no civil action may be brought or maintained against the board, director, division, or state for an injury alleged to have been the result of the activities of any state-funded peer assistance program or the result of an act or omission of a mental health professional participating in or referred by a state-funded peer assistance program. However, the state remains liable under the "Colorado Governmental Immunity Act", article 10 of title 24, C.R.S., if an injury alleged to have been the result of an act or omission of a mental health professional participating in or referred by a state-funded peer assistance program occurred while such mental health professional was performing duties as an employee of the state.
- (4) The boards may promulgate rules necessary to implement this section. The boards and the director shall seek and obtain input from representatives of each type of mental health professional regulated under this article in the development of the peer health assistance program and related rules.
- (5) As used in this section, "mental health professional" means a psychologist, social worker, marriage and family therapist, licensed professional counselor, psychotherapist, or addiction counselor regulated under this article.

12-43-228. Minimum standards for testing. (1) Every person licensed, registered, or certified under this article must meet the minimum professional preparation standards set forth in this section to engage in the administration, scoring, or interpretation of the following levels of psychometric or electrodiagnostic testing:

(a) General use. There is no educational or experience minimum necessary for a licensee, registrant, or certificate holder to administer standardized personnel selection, achievement, general aptitude, or proficiency tests.

(b) Technical use. A master's degree in anthropology, psychology, counseling, marriage and family therapy, social work, or sociology from a regionally accredited university or college certified by the accrediting agency or body to award graduate degrees and completion of at least one graduate level course each in statistics, psychometric measurement, theories of personality, individual and group test administration and interpretation, and psychopathology is required in order to administer, score, or interpret tests that require technical knowledge of test construction and use or require the application of scientific and psychophysiological knowledge. Such tests include, but are not limited to, tests of general intelligence, special aptitudes, temperament, values, interests, and personality inventories.

(c) Advanced use. A licensee, registrant, or certificate holder must meet all the requirements of paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) and, in addition, completion, at a regionally accredited university or college certified by the accrediting agency or body to award graduate degrees, of at least one graduate-level course in six of the following areas: Cognition, emotion, attention, sensory-perceptual function, psychopathology, learning, encephalopathy, neuropsychology, psychophysiology, personality, growth and development, projective testing, and neuropsychological testing and completion of one year of experience in advanced use practice under the supervision of a person fully qualified under this paragraph (c) in order to practice projective testing, neuropsychological testing, or use of a battery of three or more tests to:

(I) Determine the presence, nature, causation, or extent of psychosis, dementia, amnesia, cognitive impairment, influence of deficits on competence, and ability to function adaptively;

(II) Determine the etiology or causative factors contributing to psychological dysfunction, criminal behavior, vocational disability, neurocognitive dysfunction, or competence; or

(III) Predict the psychological responses to specific medical, surgical, and behavioral interventions.

(2) The board licensing, registering, or certifying any person violating this section may bring disciplinary proceedings or injunctive proceedings against the person pursuant to section 12-43-224 or 12-43-227.

PART 3

PSYCHOLOGISTS

Editor's note: This article was repealed and reenacted in 1988, and this part 3 was subsequently repealed and reenacted in 1998, resulting in the addition, relocation, and elimination of sections as well as subject matter. For amendments to this part 3 prior to 1998, consult the Colorado statutory research explanatory note and the table itemizing the replacement volumes and supplements to the original volume of C.R.S. 1973 beginning on page vii in the front of this volume and the editor's note following the article heading.

12-43-301. Definitions. As used in this part 3, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Approved school" means any university or other institution of higher education offering a full-time graduate course of study in psychology and having programs approved by the American psychological association or the board.

(2) "Board" means the state board of psychologist examiners created by section 12-43-302 (1).

(3) Repealed.

(4) "License" means a certificate of licensure as a licensed psychologist.

(5) Repealed.

(6) "Licensed psychologist" means a person licensed under this part 3.

(7) Repealed.

(8) "Professional psychological training program" means a doctoral training program that:

(a) Is a planned program of study that reflects an integration of the science and practice of psychology; and

(b) For applicants receiving their terminal degrees after 1990, is designated as a doctoral program in psychology by the association of state and provincial psychology boards or the national register of health service providers in psychology, or is accredited by the American psychological association or Canadian psychological association.

12-43-302. State board of psychologist examiners. (1) There is hereby created a state board of psychologist examiners under the supervision and control of the division of professions and occupations of the department of regulatory agencies, created in section 24-1-122 (2) (g), C.R.S.

(2) The board consists of seven members who are citizens of the United States and residents of the state of Colorado as follows:

(a) Four board members must be licensed psychologists, at least two of whom shall be engaged in the direct practice of psychology; except that, if, after a good-faith attempt, the governor determines that an applicant for membership on the board pursuant to this paragraph (a) who is engaged in the direct practice of psychology is not available to serve on the board for a particular term, the governor may appoint a licensed psychologist who is not engaged in the direct practice of psychology.

(b) Three board members must be representatives of the general public, one of whom may be a mental health consumer or family member of a mental health consumer. These individuals must have never been psychologists, applicants or former applicants for licensure as psychologists, members of another mental health profession, or members of households that include psychologists or members of another mental health profession or otherwise have conflicts of interest or the appearance of such conflicts with their duties as board members.

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 130, § 1, effective August 3, 2007.)

(4) (a) Each board member shall hold office until the expiration of such member's appointed term or until a successor is duly appointed. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4), the term of each member shall be four years, and no board member shall serve more than two full consecutive terms. Any vacancy occurring in board membership other than by expiration of a term shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the unexpired term of such member.

(b) The terms of office of the members on the board are modified as follows in order to ensure staggered terms of office:

(I) The second term of office of the licensed psychologist board member and one of the two board members representing the general public, whose second term would otherwise expire on June 30, 2010, shall expire on May 31, 2008, and the governor shall appoint one new licensed psychologist and one new representative of the general public to serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on June 1, 2008.

(II) The initial term of office of the one board member representing the general public whose initial term would otherwise expire on June 30, 2009, shall expire on May 31, 2009, and the board member is eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on June 1, 2009, and expiring on May 31, 2013. On and after the expiration of this board member's term or a vacancy in this position, the governor shall appoint a licensed psychologist to this position on the board, who is eligible to serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on June 1 of the applicable year.

(III) The initial term of office of one of the two licensed psychologist board members whose initial term would otherwise expire on June 30, 2010, shall expire on May 31, 2009. This board member shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term, commencing on June 1, 2009, and expiring on May 31, 2013. On and after the expiration of this board member's term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on June 1 of the applicable year.

(IV) The initial terms of office of the remaining licensed psychologist board member and the other board member representing the general public, whose initial terms would otherwise expire on June 30, 2010, shall expire on May 31, 2010. Each of these board members shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on June 1, 2010, and expiring on May 31, 2014. On and after the expiration of these board members' terms, persons appointed to these positions on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on June 1 of the applicable year.

(V) The second term of office of the remaining board member representing the general public whose second term would otherwise expire on June 30, 2010, shall expire on May 31, 2010. The governor shall appoint one new representative of the general public to serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on June 1, 2010.

(5) The governor may remove any board member for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty after giving the board member a written statement of the charges and an opportunity to be heard thereon. Actions constituting neglect of duty shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of board members to attend three consecutive meetings or at least three quarters of the total meetings in any calendar year.

(6) Each board member shall receive a certificate of appointment from the governor.

12-43-303. Practice of psychology defined. (1) For the purposes of this part 3, the "practice of psychology" means the observation, description, evaluation, interpretation, or modification of human behavior by the application of psychological principles, methods, or procedures, for the purpose of:

(a) Preventing, eliminating, evaluating, assessing, or predicting symptomatic, maladaptive, or undesired behavior;

(b) Evaluating, assessing, or facilitating the enhancement of individual, group, or organizational effectiveness, including personal effectiveness, adaptive behavior, interpersonal relationships, work and life adjustment, health, and individual, group, or organizational performance; or

(c) Providing clinical information to be utilized in legal proceedings.

- (2) The practice of psychology includes:
- (a) Psychological testing and the evaluation or assessment of personal characteristics such as intelligence; personality; cognitive, physical, or emotional abilities; skills; interests; aptitudes; and neuropsychological functioning;
 - (b) Counseling, psychoanalysis, psychotherapy, hypnosis, biofeedback, and behavior analysis and therapy;
 - (c) Diagnosis, treatment, and management of mental and emotional disorder or disability, substance use disorders, disorders of habit or conduct, as well as of the psychological aspects of physical illness, accident, injury, or disability;
 - (d) Psychoeducational evaluation, therapy, and remediation;
 - (e) Consultation with physicians, other health care professionals, and patients regarding all available treatment options with respect to provision of care for a specific patient or client;
 - (f) The provision of direct services to individuals or groups for the purpose of enhancing individual and thereby organizational effectiveness, using psychological principles, methods, or procedures to assess and evaluate individuals on personal characteristics for individual development or behavior change or for making decisions about the individual, such as selection; and
 - (g) The supervision of any of the practices described in this subsection (2).
- (h) to (l) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-187), ch. 285, p. 1311, § 41, effective July 1, 2011.)
- (3) Psychological services may be rendered to individuals, families, groups, organizations, institutions, the public, and the courts.
- (4) The practice of psychology shall be construed within the meaning of this definition without regard to whether payment is received for services rendered.

12-43-304. Qualifications - examinations - licensure. (1) The board shall issue a license as a psychologist to each applicant who files an application in a form and manner required by the board, submits the fee required by the board pursuant to section 12-43-204, and furnishes evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she:

- (a) Is at least twenty-one years of age;
- (b) Is not in violation of any provision of this article or any rules promulgated by the board;
- (c) Holds a doctorate degree with a major in psychology, or the equivalent to such major as determined by the board, from an approved school;
- (d) Has had at least one year of postdoctoral experience practicing psychology under supervision approved by the board; and
- (e) Demonstrates professional competence by passing a single, written examination in psychology as prescribed by the board and a jurisprudence examination administered by the division.

(1.5) (a) The examination by the board described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section shall be given not less than twice per year at such time and place and under such supervision as the board may determine.

- (b) The examination shall test for knowledge of the following three areas:
 - (I) General psychology;
 - (II) Clinical and counseling psychology; and
 - (III) Application of the practice of clinical and counseling psychology, including knowledge of appropriate statutes and professional ethics.

(c) The board or its designated representatives shall administer and determine the pass or fail status of the examination and take any actions necessary to ensure impartiality. The board shall determine the passing score for the examination based upon a level of minimum competency to engage in the practice of psychology.

(2) to (6) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 137, § 1, effective July 1, 2007.)

(7) (a) The board shall register as a psychologist candidate a person who files an application for registration, accompanied by the fee required by section 12-43-204, and who:

(I) Submits evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she has met the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subsection (1) of this section; and

(II) Has not been previously registered as a psychologist candidate by the board.

(b) A psychologist candidate registered pursuant to this subsection (7) is not required to register with the database of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5, and is under the jurisdiction of the state board of psychologist examiners. If the requirements of paragraphs (d) and (e) of subsection (1) of this section are not met within four years, the registration of the psychologist candidate expires and is not renewable unless the board, in its discretion, grants the candidate an extension. A person whose psychologist candidate registration expires is not precluded from applying for licensure or registration with any other mental health board for which the person is qualified.

12-43-305. Rights and privileges of licensure. (1) Any person who possesses a valid, unsuspended, and unrevoked license as a licensed psychologist has the right to:

(a) Engage in the private, independent practice of psychology;

(b) Practice and supervise psychology practice; and

(c) Use the title “psychologist” and the terms “psychology” and “psychological”. No other person may assume these titles or use these terms on any work or letter, sign, figure, or device to indicate that the person using such title or terms is a licensed psychologist.

(2) Any person duly licensed as a psychologist shall not be required to obtain any other license or certification to practice psychology as defined in section 12-43-303 unless otherwise required by the board.

12-43-306. Exemptions. (1) Nothing in this part 3 shall be construed to prevent the teaching of psychology, or the conduct of psychological research, if such teaching or research does not involve the delivery or supervision of direct psychological services to individuals who are themselves, rather than a third party, the intended beneficiaries of such services without regard to the source or extent of payment for services rendered. Nothing in this part 3 shall prevent the provision of expert testimony by psychologists who are exempted by this part 3. Persons holding an earned doctoral degree in psychology from an approved school may use the title “psychologist” in conjunction with the activities permitted in this subsection (1).

(2) Nothing in this part 3 shall be construed to prevent members of other professions licensed under the laws of this state from rendering services within the scope of practice as set out in the statutes regulating their professional practices so long as they do not represent themselves to be psychologists or their services as psychological.

(3) The use of the title “psychologist” may be continued by an unlicensed person who, as of July 1, 1982, is employed by a state, county, or municipal agency or by other political subdivisions or any educational institution chartered by the state, but only so long as such person remains in the employment of the same institution or agency and only in the course of conducting duties for such agency or institution.

(4) Nothing in this part 3 shall be construed to limit the use of an official title on the part of any doctoral level graduate of a research psychology program or an industrial or organizational psychology program from a regionally accredited university while engaged in the conduct of psychological research or the provision of psychological consultation to organizations or institutions if such services do not include the clinical practice of psychology.

(5) Nothing in this part 3 shall be construed to require the new regulation of any occupational or professional group that is not currently subject to regulation under state law.

(6) Nothing in this part 3 prevents the practice of psychotherapy by persons registered with the state board of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5.

(7) No person may engage in the practice of psychology as a psychologist, or refer to himself or herself as a psychologist, unless such person is licensed pursuant to this part 3.

12-43-402. State board of social work examiners. (1) There is hereby created under the supervision and control of the division of professions and occupations of the department of regulatory agencies the state board of social work examiners, which shall consist of seven members who are citizens of the United States and residents of the state of Colorado.

(2) (a) Four board members shall be licensed clinical social workers, at least two of whom shall be engaged in direct social work practice; except that, if, after a good-faith attempt, the governor determines that an applicant for membership on the board pursuant to this paragraph (a) who is engaged in direct social work practice is not available to serve on the board for a particular term, the governor may appoint a licensed clinical social worker who is not engaged in direct social work practice.

(b) Three board members shall be representatives of the general public. These individuals shall have never been a social worker, an applicant or former applicant for licensure as a social worker, a member of another mental health profession, or a member of a household that includes a social worker or a member of another mental health profession or otherwise have conflicts of interest or the appearance of such conflicts with his or her duties as a board member.

(3) (a) Each board member shall hold office until the expiration of such member's appointed term or until a successor is duly appointed. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), the term of each member shall be four years, and no board member shall serve more than two full consecutive terms. Any vacancy occurring in board membership other than by expiration of a term shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term of such member.

(b) The terms of office of the members on the board are modified as follows in order to ensure staggered terms of office:

(I) The second term of office of one of the two licensed clinical social worker board members who, as of July 25, 2010, would have served two four-year terms shall expire on June 30, 2008, and the governor shall appoint a new licensed clinical social worker to serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) commencing on July 1, 2008.

(II) The initial term of office of one of the board members representing the general public whose initial term would otherwise expire on July 25, 2010, expires on June 30, 2008, and the board member is eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on July 1, 2008, and expiring on June 30, 2012. On and after the expiration of this board member's term or a vacancy in this position, the governor shall appoint a licensed clinical social worker to this position on the board, who is eligible to serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) commencing on July 1 of the applicable year.

(III) The term of office of the one member representing the general public who, as of July 25, 2009, would have served one full four-year term and one partial four-year term shall expire on June 30, 2009, and the member shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on July 1, 2009, and expiring on June 30, 2013. On and after the expiration of this board member's term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) commencing on July 1 of the applicable year.

(IV) The term of office of the one licensed clinical social worker board member who, as of July 25, 2010, would have served one full four-year term and one partial four-year term shall expire on June 30, 2009, and the board member shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on July 1, 2009, and expiring on June 30, 2013. On and after the expiration of this board member's term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) commencing on July 1 of the applicable year.

(V) The initial terms of office of the one remaining licensed clinical social worker board member and the two remaining board members representing the general public whose initial terms would otherwise expire on July 25, 2010, shall expire on June 30, 2010, and each of these board members shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term, commencing on July 1, 2010, and expiring on June 30, 2014. On and after the expiration of these board members' terms, persons appointed to these positions on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) commencing on July 1 of the applicable year.

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 132, § 2, effective August 3, 2007.)

(5) The governor may remove any board member for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty after giving the board member a written statement of the charges and an opportunity to be heard thereon. Actions constituting neglect of duty shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of board members to attend three consecutive meetings or at least three quarters of the total meetings in any calendar year.

(6) Each board member shall receive a certificate of appointment from the governor.

(7) When professional judgment specific to clinical practice is required in the review of alleged violations of section 12-43-222, the board may appoint an advisory committee of clinical practitioners to review and make recommendations to the board.

12-43-403. Social work practice defined. (1) For the purposes of this part 4, "social work practice" means the professional application of social work theory and methods by a graduate with a master's degree in social work or a doctoral degree in social work or a bachelor's degree in social work from an accredited social work program, for the purpose of prevention, assessment, diagnosis, and intervention with individual, family, group, organizational, and societal problems, including alcohol and substance abuse and domestic violence, based on the promotion of biopsychosocial developmental processes, person-in-environment transactions, and empowerment of the client system. Social work theory and methods are based on known accepted principles that are taught in professional schools of social work in colleges or universities accredited by the council on social work education.

(2) Professional social work practice may include, but is not limited to:

- (a) Assessment;
- (b) Differential diagnosis;
- (c) Treatment planning and evaluation;
- (d) Measurement of psychosocial functioning;
- (e) Crisis intervention, out-reach, short- and long-term treatment;
- (f) Therapeutic, individual, marital, and family interventions;
- (g) Client education;
- (h) Case management;
- (i) Mediation;
- (j) Advocacy;
- (k) Discharge, referral, and continuity of care planning and implementation;
- (l) Consultation;
- (m) Supervision;
- (n) Research;
- (o) Management and administration;
- (p) Program evaluation and education;
- (q) Social group work;

- (r) Community organization and development;
 - (s) Social policy analysis and development;
 - (t) Psychotherapy;
 - (u) Consultation, supervision, and teaching in higher education; and
 - (v) Counseling.
- (3) Social work practice may take place in a public or private agency or institutional, educational, or independent setting.

(4) Social work practice is directly based upon an advanced educational program that teaches the practitioner to analyze, intervene, and evaluate in ways that are highly differentiated, discriminating, and self-critical. A practitioner must be able to synthesize and apply a broad range of knowledge as well as practice with a high degree of autonomy and skill. A practitioner must be able to refine and advance the quality of his or her practice as well as that of the larger social work profession. These advanced competencies must be appropriately integrated and reflected in all aspects of a social work practice, including the ability to:

- (a) Apply critical thinking skills within professional contexts, including synthesizing and applying appropriate theories and knowledge to practice interventions;
- (b) Practice within the values and ethics of the social work profession and with an understanding of, and respect for, the positive value of diversity;
- (c) Demonstrate the professional use of self;
- (d) Understand the forms and mechanisms of oppression and discrimination and the strategies and skills of change that advance social and economic justice;
- (e) Understand and interpret the history of the social work profession and its current structure and issues;
- (f) Apply the knowledge and skills of a generalist social work perspective to practice with systems of all sizes;
- (g) Apply the knowledge and skills of advanced social work practice in an area of concentration;
- (h) Critically analyze and apply knowledge of biopsychosocial variables that affect an individual's development and behavior and use theoretical frameworks to understand the interactions among and between individuals and social systems;
- (i) Analyze the impact of social policies on client systems, workers, and agencies and demonstrate skills for influencing policy formulation and change;
- (j) Evaluate relevant research studies and apply findings to practice, and demonstrate skills in quantitative research design, data analysis, and knowledge dissemination;
- (k) Conduct empirical evaluations of their own practice interventions and those of other relevant systems; and
- (l) Use communication skills differentially with a variety of client populations, colleagues, and members of the community.

12-43-404. Qualifications - examination - licensure and registration. (1) The board shall license as a licensed social worker any person who files an application in a form and manner required by the board, submits the fee required by the board pursuant to section 12-43-204, and submits evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she:

- (a) Is at least twenty-one years of age;
- (b) Has obtained a master's degree from a graduate school of social work; and
- (c) Demonstrates professional competence by satisfactorily passing an examination in social work as prescribed by the board and a jurisprudence examination administered by the division.

(2) The board shall license as a licensed clinical social worker any person who files an application, in a form and manner required by the board, submits the fee required by the board pursuant to section 12-43-204, and submits evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she:

- (a) Is at least twenty-one years of age;
- (b) Has obtained a master's or doctorate degree from a graduate school of social work;
- (c) Has practiced social work for at least two years under the supervision of a licensed clinical social worker, which practice includes training and work experience in the area of clinical social work practice; and
- (d) Demonstrates professional competence by satisfactorily passing an examination in social work as prescribed by the board and a jurisprudence examination administered by the division.

(2.5) (a) The board or its designated representative shall give the examination described in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section and in paragraph (d) of subsection (2) of this section at least twice per year at a time and place and under the supervision determined by the board.

(b) The board or its designated representatives shall administer and determine the pass or fail status of the examination and take any actions necessary to ensure impartiality. The board shall determine the passing score for the examination based upon a level of minimum competency to engage in social work practice.

12-43-405. Rights and privileges of licensure and a social work degree. (1) Any person who possesses a valid, unsuspended, and unrevoked license as a social worker that was issued pursuant to section 12-43-404 has the right to practice social work under supervision and use the title "licensed social worker", "social worker", and the abbreviation "LSW". No other person shall assume these titles or use these abbreviations on any work or letter, sign, figure, or device to indicate that the person using the same is a licensed social worker or a social worker.

(2) Any person who possesses a valid, unsuspended, and unrevoked license as a clinical social worker that was granted pursuant to section 12-43-404 is entitled to engage in the private, independent practice of clinical social work and has the right to practice and supervise clinical social work practice and use the title "licensed clinical social worker", "clinical social worker", "social worker", or "licensed social worker", and the abbreviation "LCSW". No other person shall assume these titles or use these abbreviations on any work or letter, sign, figure, or device to indicate that the person using the same is a licensed clinical social worker or social worker.

(3) (a) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2005, p. 128, § 8, effective August 8, 2005.)

(b) Any person engaged in providing medically related social services in skilled nursing or nursing care facilities shall not be subject to the requirements of this article so long as that person meets the qualifications of, and provides services in accordance with, the federal regulations governing the medicare and medicaid program participation of these facilities and the Colorado department of public health and environment's regulations for the licensing of these facilities.

(4) Any person duly licensed as a licensed clinical social worker or any person under the supervision of a licensed clinical social worker shall not be required to obtain any other license or certification to practice social work, as defined in section 12-43-403, unless otherwise required by the board of social work examiners.

(5) Any person possessing an earned master's or bachelor's degree in social work from a social work education program accredited by the council on social work education, or a doctoral degree in social work from a doctoral program within a social work education program accredited by the council on social work education has the right to practice social work and to use the title "social worker". Only a person licensed as a clinical social worker or practicing under the supervision of a licensed clinical social worker may assert that he or she is practicing clinical social work or use the title of "clinical social worker".

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Court-ordered Counseling by Social Workers in Colorado", see 15 Colo. Law. 47 (1985).

12-43-406. Scope of part. (1) The practice of social work includes, but is not limited to, the following professional services: Assessment; differential diagnosis; treatment planning and evaluation; measurement of psychosocial functioning; crisis intervention; outreach; short- and long-term treatment; psychotherapy; therapeutic intervention; client education; case management; mediation; advocacy; discharge, referral, and continuity of care planning; consultation; supervision; research; administration; education; social-group work; community organization; and social policy analysis and development. Social work practice also may encompass other current or developing modalities and techniques that are consistent with this scope.

(2) No person may state that he or she is engaged in the practice of social work as a social worker, or refer to himself or herself as a social worker, unless the person is licensed pursuant to this part 4 or possesses an earned social work degree, as defined in section 12-43-401 (11). No person may practice as a clinical social worker unless licensed pursuant to section 12-43-404 (2) or licensed to practice social work and supervised pursuant to section 12-43-404 (1) or (2).

(3) No person may supervise the practice of social work for the purpose of licensure compliance or disciplinary proceedings unless licensed pursuant to section 12-43-404; except that, in cases where no LCSW is available for supervision for licensure, the licensee may apply to the board for approval to be supervised by a person with equivalent experience as determined by the board.

(4) Nothing in this part 4 shall be construed to prevent members of other professions licensed under the laws of this state from rendering services within the scope of practice so long as they do not represent themselves to be social workers or their services as social work.

(5) Nothing in this part 4 prevents the practice of psychotherapy by persons registered with the state board of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5.

12-43-407. Exemptions. Nothing in this part 4 shall be construed to prevent the teaching of social work, or the conduct of social work research, if such teaching or research does not involve the delivery or supervision of direct social work services to individuals who are themselves, rather than a third party, the intended beneficiaries of such services without regard to the source or extent of payment for services rendered. Nothing in this part 4 shall prevent the provision of expert testimony by social workers who are exempted by this part 4. Persons holding an earned doctoral degree in social work from an approved school may use the title “social worker” in conjunction with activities permitted in this section.

12-43-410. Employees of social services. (1) Notwithstanding the exemption in section 12-43-215 (3), an employee of the department of human services, employee of a county department of social services, or personnel under the direct control or supervision of such departments, shall not state that he or she is engaged in the practice of social work as a social worker or refer to himself or herself as a social worker unless the person is licensed pursuant to this part 4 or possesses an earned social work degree, as defined in section 12-43-401 (11).

(2) Notwithstanding the exemption in section 12-43-215 (3), any employee licensed pursuant to this article who is terminated from employment by the department of human services or a county department of social services is subject to review and disciplinary action by the board that licenses or regulates the employee.

(3) An employee of the state department of human services or a county department of social services who has earned a bachelor's or master's degree in social work may apply to the board, for purposes related to licensure under this part 4, for approval for supervision by a person other than a licensed clinical social worker. The board shall consider input from representatives of the state department of human services and the county departments of social services when promulgating the rule concerning what qualifications or experience a person is required to possess in order to supervise an employee pursuant to this subsection (3).

12-43-411. Continuing professional competency - board rules - repeal. (1) (a) In accordance with section 12-43-404, the board issues a license to practice as a clinical social worker or a social worker based on whether the applicant satisfies minimum educational and experience requirements that demonstrate professional competency to practice as a licensed clinical social worker or a licensed social worker, respectively. After a license is issued to an applicant, the licensed clinical social worker or licensed social worker shall maintain continuing professional competency to practice as a licensed clinical social worker or licensed social worker, respectively.

(b) The board shall adopt rules establishing a continuing professional competency program that includes, at a minimum, the following elements:

(I) A self-assessment of the knowledge and skills of a licensed clinical social worker or licensed social worker seeking to renew or reinstate a license;

(II) Development, execution, and documentation of a learning plan based on the assessment; and

(III) Periodic demonstration of knowledge and skills through documentation of activities necessary to ensure at least minimal ability to safely practice the profession. Nothing in this subparagraph (III) shall require a licensed clinical social worker or a licensed social worker to retake any examination required pursuant to section 12-43-404 in connection with initial licensure.

(c) The board shall establish that a licensed clinical social worker or licensed social worker is deemed to satisfy the continuing competency requirements of this section if the licensed clinical social worker or licensed social worker meets the continued professional competence requirements of one of the following entities:

(I) A state department, including continued professional competence requirements imposed through a contractual arrangement with a provider;

(II) An accrediting body recognized by the board; or

(III) An entity approved by the board.

(d) (I) After the program is established, licensed clinical social workers and licensed social workers shall satisfy the requirements of the program in order to renew or reinstate a license to practice as a licensed clinical social worker or as a licensed social worker in Colorado.

(II) The requirements of this section apply to individual licensed clinical social workers or licensed social workers who are licensed pursuant to this part 4, and nothing in this section shall be construed to require a person who employs or contracts with a licensed clinical social worker or licensed social worker to comply with the requirements of this section.

(2) (a) Records of assessments or other documentation developed or submitted in connection with the continuing professional competency program are confidential and not subject to inspection by the public or discovery in connection with a civil action against a licensed clinical social worker or a licensed social worker. The records or documents shall be used only by the board for purposes of determining whether a licensed clinical social worker or licensed social worker is maintaining continuing professional competency to engage in the profession.

(b) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the discovery of information or documents that are otherwise discoverable under the Colorado rules of civil procedure in connection with a civil action against a licensed clinical social worker or licensed social worker.

(3) As used in this section, "continuing professional competency" means the ongoing ability of a licensee to learn, integrate, and apply the knowledge, skill, and judgment to practice as a licensed clinical social worker or as a licensed social worker, as applicable, according to generally accepted industry standards and professional ethical standards in a designated role and setting.

(4) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2014.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 12-43-501 as it existed prior to 1998.

12-43-502. State board of marriage and family therapist examiners. (1) There is hereby created under the supervision and control of the division of professions and occupations of the department of regulatory agencies, created in section 24-1-122 (2) (g), C.R.S., the state board of marriage and family therapist examiners, which shall consist of seven members who are citizens of the United States and residents of the state of Colorado.

(2) (a) The members of the board shall be appointed by the governor as follows:

(I) Three members of the general public who are not regulated by this article; and

(II) Four marriage and family therapists.

(b) The public members shall have never been a marriage and family therapist, an applicant or former applicant for licensure as a marriage and family therapist, a member of another mental health profession, or a member of a household that includes a marriage and family therapist or a member of another mental health profession or otherwise have conflicts of interest or the appearance of such conflicts with his or her duties as a board member.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 916, § 17, effective July 1, 2004.)

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 133, § 3, effective August 3, 2007.)

(4) (a) Each board member shall hold office until the expiration of his or her appointed term or until a successor is duly appointed. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4), members shall serve terms of four years, and no member shall serve more than two full consecutive terms. When the term of each board member expires, the governor shall appoint his or her successor for a term of four years. Any vacancy occurring in the board membership other than by the expiration of a term shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the remainder of the unexpired term of such member.

(b) The terms of office of the members on the board are modified as follows in order to ensure staggered terms of office:

(I) The second term of office of one of the board members representing the general public whose second term would otherwise expire on August 12, 2010, shall expire on July 31, 2008. On and after the expiration of this board member’s term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on August 1 of the applicable year.

(II) The initial term of office of one of the marriage and family therapist board members whose initial term would otherwise expire on August 12, 2010, shall expire on July 31, 2008, and the board member shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on August 1, 2008, and expiring on July 31, 2012. On and after the expiration of this board member’s term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on August 1 of the applicable year.

(III) The term of office of the one board member representing the general public who, as of August 12, 2009, would have served one full four-year term and one partial four-year term expires on July 31, 2009. This board member is eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on August 1, 2009, and expiring on July 31, 2013. On and after the expiration of this board member's term or a vacancy in this position, the governor shall appoint a marriage and family therapist to this position on the board, who is eligible to serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on August 1 of the applicable year.

(IV) The initial term of office of one of the marriage and family therapist board members whose initial term would otherwise expire on August 12, 2010, shall expire on July 31, 2009, and the board member shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing August 1, 2009, and expiring on July 31, 2013. On and after the expiration of this board member's term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on August 1 of the applicable year.

(V) The initial term of office of one of the marriage and family therapist board members whose initial term of office would otherwise expire on August 12, 2010, shall expire on July 31, 2010, and the board member shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on August 1, 2010, and expiring on July 31, 2014. On and after the expiration of this board member's term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on August 1 of the applicable year.

(VI) The second term of office of one of the board members representing the general public whose second term would otherwise expire on August 12, 2010, shall expire on July 31, 2010, and the governor shall appoint one new representative of the general public to serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on August 1, 2010.

(VII) The term of office of the one board member representing the general public who, as of August 12, 2010, would have served one full four-year term and one partial four-year term shall expire on July 31, 2010. This board member shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on August 1, 2010, and expiring on July 31, 2014. On and after the expiration of this board member's term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on August 1 of the applicable year.

(5) The governor may remove any board member for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty after giving the board member a written statement of the charges and an opportunity to be heard thereon. Actions constituting neglect of duty shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of board members to attend three consecutive meetings or at least three quarters of the total meetings in any calendar year.

(6) Each board member shall receive a certificate of appointment from the governor.

12-43-503. Marriage and family therapy practice defined. (1) For the purposes of this part 5, "marriage and family therapy practice" means the rendering of professional marriage and family therapy services to individuals, couples, and families, singly or in groups, whether such services are offered directly to the general public or through organizations, either public or private, for a monetary fee. Marriage and family therapy utilizes established principles that recognize the interrelated nature of individual problems and dysfunctions to assess, understand, diagnose, and treat emotional and mental problems, alcohol and substance abuse, and domestic violence, and modify intrapersonal and interpersonal dysfunctions.

- (2) Professional marriage and family therapy practice may include, but is not limited to:
- (a) Assessment and testing;

- (b) Diagnosis;
 - (c) Treatment planning and evaluation;
 - (d) Therapeutic individual, marital, family, group, or organizational interventions;
 - (e) Psychotherapy;
 - (f) Client education;
 - (g) Consultation; and
 - (h) Supervision.
- (3) Professional marriage and family therapy practice includes practicing within the values and ethics of the marriage and family therapy profession.
- (4) This definition is to be interpreted in a manner that does not impinge upon or otherwise limit the scope of practice of other psychotherapists licensed under this article.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-43-501 (4) as it existed prior to 1998.

12-43-504. Qualifications - examination - licensure and registration. (1) The board shall issue a license as a marriage and family therapist to each applicant who files an application in a form and manner required by the board, submits the fee required by the board pursuant to section 12-43-204, and furnishes evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she:

- (a) Is at least twenty-one years of age;
- (b) Is not in violation of any provision of this article or any rule adopted under this article;
- (c) Holds a master's or doctoral degree from an accredited school or college in marriage and family therapy or its equivalent as determined by the board, such degree to include a practicum or internship in the principles and practice of marriage and family therapy;
- (d) Subsequent to receiving his or her master's or doctoral degree, has had at least two years of post-master's or one year postdoctoral practice in individual and marriage and family therapy, including at least one thousand five hundred hours of face-to-face direct client contact as determined by the board for the purpose of assessment and intervention under board-approved supervision; and
- (e) Demonstrates professional competence by passing an examination in marriage and family therapy prescribed by the board and a jurisprudence examination administered by the division.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 139, § 3, effective July 1, 2007.)

(3) The examination by the board described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section shall be given not less than twice per year at such time and place and under such supervision as the board may determine.

(4) The board or its designated representatives shall administer and determine the pass or fail status of the examination and take any actions necessary to ensure impartiality. The board shall determine the passing score for the examination based upon a level of minimum competency to engage in marriage and family therapy practice.

(5) (a) The board shall register as a marriage and family therapist candidate a person who:

(I) Files an application for registration, accompanied by the fee as required by section 12-43-204;

(II) Submits evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she meets the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subsection (1) of this section; and

(III) Has not been previously registered as a marriage and family therapist candidate by the board.

(b) A marriage and family therapist candidate who registers with the board pursuant to this subsection (5) is under the jurisdiction of the board and is not required to register with the database of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5.

(c) If a candidate does not meet the requirements of paragraphs (d) and (e) of subsection (1) of this section within four years after initial registration, the candidate's registration expires and is not renewable, unless the board, in its discretion, grants the candidate an extension. A person whose marriage and family therapist candidate registration expires is not precluded from applying to this board or to any other board for licensure or registration in a mental health profession for which the person is qualified.

12-43-505. Rights and privileges of licensure and registration. (1) Any person who possesses a valid, unsuspended, and unrevoked license as a licensed marriage and family therapist pursuant to section 12-43-504 has the right to engage in the private, independent practice of marriage and family therapy and has the right to practice and supervise marriage and family therapy practice and use the title "licensed marriage and family therapist" and the abbreviation "LMFT". No other person shall assume these titles or use these abbreviations on any work or letter, sign, figure, or device to indicate that the person using the same is a licensed marriage and family therapist.

(2) No person may engage in the practice of marriage and family therapy unless such person is licensed pursuant to this part 5.

(3) Any person duly licensed as a licensed marriage and family therapist shall not be required to obtain any other license or certification to practice marriage and family therapy as defined in section 12-43-503 unless otherwise required by the board of marriage and family therapist examiners.

(4) Nothing in this part 5 shall be construed to prevent members of other professions licensed under the laws of this state from rendering services within the scope of practice as set out in the statutes regulating their professional practices, provided that they do not represent themselves to be marriage and family therapists, or their services as marriage and family therapy.

(5) Nothing in this part 5 prevents the practice of psychotherapy by persons registered with the state board of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-43-504 as it existed prior to 1998.

12-43-506. Continuing professional competency - board rules - repeal. (1) (a) In accordance with section 12-43-504, the board issues a license to practice marriage and family therapy based on whether the applicant satisfies minimum educational and experience requirements that demonstrate professional competency to practice marriage and family therapy. After a license is issued to an applicant, the licensed marriage and family therapist shall maintain continuing professional competency to practice marriage and family therapy.

(b) The board shall adopt rules establishing a continuing professional competency program that includes, at a minimum, the following elements:

(I) A self-assessment of the knowledge and skills of a licensed marriage and family therapist seeking to renew or reinstate a license;

(II) Development, execution, and documentation of a learning plan based on the assessment; and

(III) Periodic demonstration of knowledge and skills through documentation of activities necessary to ensure at least minimal ability to safely practice the profession. Nothing in this subparagraph (III) shall require a licensed marriage and family therapist to retake any examination required pursuant to section 12-43-504 in connection with initial licensure.

(c) The board shall establish that a licensed marriage and family therapist is deemed to satisfy the continuing competency requirements of this section if the licensed marriage and family therapist meets the continued professional competence requirements of one of the following entities:

(I) A state department, including continued professional competence requirements imposed through a contractual arrangement with a provider;

(II) An accrediting body recognized by the board; or

(III) An entity approved by the board.

(d) (I) After the program is established, a licensed marriage and family therapist shall satisfy the requirements of the program in order to renew or reinstate a license to practice marriage and family therapy in Colorado.

(II) The requirements of this section apply to individual marriage and family therapists who are licensed pursuant to this part 5, and nothing in this section shall be construed to require a person who employs or contracts with a licensed marriage and family therapist to comply with the requirements of this section.

(2) (a) Records of assessments or other documentation developed or submitted in connection with the continuing professional competency program are confidential and not subject to inspection by the public or discovery in connection with a civil action against a licensed marriage and family therapist. The records or documents shall be used only by the board for purposes of determining whether a licensed marriage and family therapist is maintaining continuing professional competency to engage in the profession.

(b) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the discovery of information or documents that are otherwise discoverable under the Colorado rules of civil procedure in connection with a civil action against a licensed marriage and family therapist.

(3) As used in this section, “continuing professional competency” means the ongoing ability of a licensee to learn, integrate, and apply the knowledge, skill, and judgment to practice as a marriage and family therapist according to generally accepted industry standards and professional ethical standards in a designated role and setting.

(4) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2014.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-43-601 as it existed prior to 1998.

12-43-602. State board of licensed professional counselor examiners. (1) There is hereby created the state board of licensed professional counselor examiners under the supervision and control of the division of professions and occupations of the department of regulatory agencies, created in section 24-1-122 (2) (g), C.R.S. The board shall consist of seven members who are citizens of the United States and residents of the state of Colorado.

(2) (a) The members of the board shall be appointed by the governor as follows:

(I) Three members of the general public who are not regulated under this article; and

(II) Four licensed professional counselors.

(b) The public members shall have never been a licensed professional counselor, an applicant or former applicant for licensure as a licensed professional counselor, a member of another mental health profession, or a member of a household that includes a licensed professional counselor or a member of another mental health profession or otherwise have conflicts of interest or the appearance of such conflicts with his or her duties as a board member.

(c) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 917, § 19, effective July 1, 2004.)

(3) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 135, § 4, effective August 3, 2007.)

(4) (a) Each member shall hold office until the expiration of his or her appointed term or until a successor is duly appointed. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4), members shall serve terms of four years, and no member shall serve more than two full consecutive terms. When the term of each board member expires, the governor shall appoint his or her successor for a term of four years. Any vacancy occurring in the board membership other than by the expiration of a term shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the unexpired term of such member.

(b) The terms of office of the members on the board are modified as follows in order to ensure staggered terms of office:

(I) The terms of office of the one licensed professional counselor board member and one of the board members representing the general public who, as of September 12, 2010, would have served one full four-year term and one partial four-year term shall expire on August 31, 2008. Each of these board members shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term, commencing on September 1, 2008, and expiring on August 31, 2012. On and after the expiration of these board members' terms, persons appointed to these positions on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on September 1 of the applicable year.

(II) The term of office of the one board member representing the public whose initial term would otherwise expire on September 12, 2009, expires on August 31, 2009, and the board member is eligible to serve one additional four-year term, commencing on September 1, 2009, and expiring on August 31, 2013. On and after the expiration of this board member's term or a vacancy in this position, the governor shall appoint a licensed professional counselor to this position on the board, who is eligible to serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on September 1 of the applicable year.

(III) The initial term of office of one of the two licensed professional counselor board members whose initial term of office would otherwise expire on September 12, 2010, shall expire on August 31, 2009. This board member shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on September 1, 2009, and expiring on August 31, 2013. On and after the expiration of this board member's term, persons appointed to this position on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on September 1 of the applicable year.

(IV) The initial terms of office of the two remaining board members representing the general public and the one remaining licensed professional counselor whose initial terms would otherwise expire on September 12, 2010, shall expire on August 31, 2010. Each of these board members shall be eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on September 1, 2010, and expiring on August 31, 2014. On and after the expiration of these board members' terms, persons appointed to these positions on the board shall serve terms as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (4) commencing on September 1 of the applicable year.

(5) The governor may remove any board member for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty after giving the board member a written statement of the charges and an opportunity to be heard thereon. Actions constituting neglect of duty shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of board members to attend three consecutive meetings or at least three quarters of the total meetings in any calendar year.

(6) Each board member shall receive a certificate of appointment from the governor.

12-43-602.5. Practice of licensed professional counseling defined. (1) For purposes of this part 6, "practice of licensed professional counseling" means the application of mental health, psychological, or human development principles through cognitive, affective, behavioral, or systematic intervention strategies that address wellness, personal growth, or career development, as well as pathology. A licensed professional counselor may render the application of these principles to individuals, couples, families, or groups.

(2) The practice of professional counseling may include:

- (a) Evaluation;
- (b) Assessment;
- (c) Testing;
- (d) Diagnosis;
- (e) Treatment or intervention;
- (f) Planning;
- (g) Consultation;
- (h) Case management;
- (i) Education;
- (j) Supervision;
- (k) Psychotherapy;
- (l) Research;
- (m) Referral; and
- (n) Crisis intervention.

12-43-603. Licensure - examination - licensed professional counselors. (1) The board shall issue a license as a licensed professional counselor to each applicant who files an application in a form and manner required by the board, submits the fee required by the board pursuant to section 12-43-204, and furnishes evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she:

(a) Is at least twenty-one years of age;

(b) Is not in violation of any provision of this article or any rule adopted under this article;

(c) Holds a master's or doctoral degree in professional counseling from an accredited school or college or an equivalent program as determined by the board. Such degree or program shall include a practicum or internship in the principles and the practice of professional counseling.

(d) Has at least two years of post-master's practice or one year of postdoctoral practice in licensed professional counseling under supervision approved by the board; and

(e) Demonstrates professional competence by passing an examination in professional counseling demonstrating special knowledge and skill in licensed professional counseling as prescribed by the board and a jurisprudence examination administered by the division.

(2) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2007, p. 140, § 4, effective July 1, 2007.)

(3) The examination by the board described in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of this section shall be given not less than twice per year at such time and place and under such supervision as the board may determine.

(4) The board or its designated representatives shall administer and determine the pass or fail status of the examination and take any actions necessary to ensure impartiality. The board shall determine the passing score for the examination based upon a level of minimum competency to engage in the practice of licensed professional counseling.

(5) (a) The board shall register as a licensed professional counselor candidate a person who:

(I) Files an application for registration, accompanied by the fee as required by section 12-43-204;

(II) Submits evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she meets the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of subsection (1) of this section; and

(III) Has not been previously registered as a licensed professional counselor candidate by the board.

(b) A licensed professional counselor candidate who registers with the state board of licensed professional counselor examiners pursuant to this subsection (5) is under the jurisdiction of the board and is not required to register with the database of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5.

(c) If a candidate does not meet the requirements of paragraphs (d) and (e) of subsection (1) of this section within four years after initial registration, the candidate's registration expires and is not renewable, unless the board, in its discretion, grants the candidate an extension. A person whose licensed professional counselor candidate registration expires is not precluded from applying to this board or to any other board for licensure or registration in a mental health profession for which the person is qualified.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-43-603 as it existed prior to 1998.

12-43-604. Rights and privileges of licensure. (1) Any person who possesses a valid, unsuspended, and unrevoked license as a licensed professional counselor has the right to use the title for which he or she is licensed pursuant to section 12-43-603. A licensed professional counselor licensed pursuant to section 12-43-603 has the right to use the abbreviation "LPC". No other person shall assume this title or use this abbreviation on any work or letter, sign, figure, or device to indicate that the person using the same is a licensed professional counselor.

(2) Any person duly licensed as a licensed professional counselor is not required to obtain any other license or certification to practice professional counseling unless otherwise required by the board of licensed professional counselor examiners.

(3) Nothing in this act shall be construed to prevent members of other professions licensed under the laws of this state from rendering services within the scope of practice as set out in the statutes regulating their professional practices, provided that they do not represent themselves to be professional counselors, or their services as professional counseling.

(4) Nothing in this part 6 prevents the practice of psychotherapy by persons registered with the state board of registered psychotherapists pursuant to section 12-43-702.5.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-43-604 as it existed prior to 1998.

12-43-605. Continuing professional competency - board rules - repeal. (1) (a) In accordance with section 12-43-603, the board issues a license to practice professional counseling based on whether the applicant satisfies minimum educational and experience requirements that demonstrate professional competency to practice professional counseling. After a license is issued to an applicant, the licensed professional counselor shall maintain continuing professional competency to practice professional counseling.

(b) The board shall adopt rules establishing a continuing professional competency program that includes, at a minimum, the following elements:

(I) A self-assessment of the knowledge and skills of a licensed professional counselor seeking to renew or reinstate a license;

(II) Development, execution, and documentation of a learning plan based on the assessment; and

(III) Periodic demonstration of knowledge and skills through documentation of activities necessary to ensure at least minimal ability to safely practice the profession. Nothing in this subparagraph (III) shall require a licensed professional counselor to retake any examination required pursuant to section 12-43-603 in connection with initial licensure.

(c) The board shall establish that a licensed professional counselor is deemed to satisfy the continuing competency requirements of this section if the licensed professional counselor meets the continued professional competence requirements of one of the following entities:

(I) A state department, including continued professional competence requirements imposed through a contractual arrangement with a provider;

(II) An accrediting body recognized by the board; or

(III) An entity approved by the board.

(d) (I) After the program is established, a licensed professional counselor shall satisfy the requirements of the program in order to renew or reinstate a license to practice professional counseling in Colorado.

(II) The requirements of this section apply to individual professional counselors who are licensed pursuant to this part 6, and nothing in this section shall be construed to require a person who employs or contracts with a licensed professional counselor to comply with the requirements of this section.

(2) (a) Records of assessments or other documentation developed or submitted in connection with the continuing professional competency program are confidential and not subject to inspection by the public or discovery in connection with a civil action against a licensed professional counselor. The records or documents shall be used only by the board for purposes of determining whether a licensed professional counselor is maintaining continuing professional competency to engage in the profession.

(b) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the discovery of information or documents that are otherwise discoverable under the Colorado rules of civil procedure in connection with a civil action against a licensed professional counselor.

(3) As used in this section, "continuing professional competency" means the ongoing ability of a licensee to learn, integrate, and apply the knowledge, skill, and judgment to practice as a professional counselor according to generally accepted industry standards and professional ethical standards in a designated role and setting.

(4) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2014.

PART 7

STATE BOARD OF REGISTERED PSYCHOTHERAPISTS

12-43-701. Definitions. As used in this part 7, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Board" means the state board of registered psychotherapists created by section 12-43-702.

(2) Repealed.

(3) and (4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (SB 11-187), ch. 285, p. 1282, § 10, effective July 1, 2011.)

12-43-702. State board of registered psychotherapists - creation - subject to termination. (1) There is hereby created the state board of registered psychotherapists, which shall be under the supervision and control of the division of professions and occupations as provided in section 24-34-102, C.R.S. The board shall consist of seven members who are residents of the state of Colorado.

(2) Three members of the board shall be appointed by the governor from the general public who are not regulated by this article with a good faith effort to achieve broad-based geographical representation. Such members are eligible to serve terms of four years. A member must not have any direct involvement or interest in the provision of psychotherapy; except that such member may be or may have been a consumer of such services.

(3) Four members of the board must be registered psychotherapists. The governor shall appoint members to the board to serve terms of four years.

(4) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2004, p. 917, § 21, effective July 1, 2004.)

(5) Members of the state board of registered psychotherapists appointed under subsection (2) or (3) of this section may serve two full consecutive terms.

(6) (a) Each member is eligible to hold office until the expiration of his or her appointed term or until a successor is duly appointed. When the term of each board member expires, the governor shall appoint his or her successor for a term of four years. Any vacancy occurring in the board membership other than by the expiration of a term shall be filled by the governor by appointment for the unexpired term of such member.

(b) For purposes of appointments to the board made on or after July 1, 2011, upon the occurrence of a vacancy in a position held by a member representing the public or upon the expiration of the second term of office of a member representing the public, whichever occurs first, the governor shall appoint a regulated psychotherapist to that position on the board, who is eligible to serve terms as described in subsections (3) and (5) of this section.

(c) The governor may remove any board member for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty. Actions constituting neglect of duty shall include, but not be limited to, the failure of board members to attend three consecutive meetings or at least three-quarters of the board's meetings in any one calendar year.

(7) A majority of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business.

12-43-702.5. Database of registered psychotherapists - unauthorized practice - penalties - data collection. (1) The state board of registered psychotherapists shall maintain a database of all registered psychotherapists. The board shall charge a fee in the same manner as authorized in section 24-34-105, C.R.S., for recording information in the database as required by this section. Information in the database maintained pursuant to this section is open to public inspection at all times.

(2) Any person not otherwise licensed, registered, or certified pursuant to this article who is practicing psychotherapy in this state shall register with the board by submitting his or her name, current address, educational qualifications, disclosure statements, therapeutic orientation or methodology, or both, and years of experience in each specialty area. Upon receipt and review of the required information, the board may approve the psychotherapist for registration in the database required by subsection (1) of this section. A registered psychotherapist shall update this information upon renewal of his or her registration and at other times and under conditions specified by the board by rule. At the time of recording the information required by this section, the registered psychotherapist shall indicate whether he or she has been convicted of, or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to, any felony or misdemeanor.

(3) An unlicensed person whose primary practice is psychotherapy or who holds himself or herself out to the public as able to practice psychotherapy for compensation shall not practice psychotherapy unless the person is registered with the board and included in the database required by this section. Notwithstanding the requirements of this section, a registered psychotherapist shall not use the term “licensed”, “certified”, “clinical”, “state-approved”, or any other term or abbreviation that would falsely give the impression that the psychotherapist or the service that is being provided is recommended by the state, based solely on inclusion in the database.

(4) The state board of registered psychotherapists shall not register a person pursuant to this section unless the person has successfully completed a jurisprudence examination developed and approved by the division.

(5) Any unlicensed person who practices psychotherapy without first complying with the registration requirements of this section commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

PART 8

ADDICTION COUNSELORS

Editor's note: This part 8 was added with relocations in 2008. Former C.R.S. section numbers are shown in editor's notes following those sections that were relocated.

12-43-801. Definitions. As used in this part 8, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Addiction" means a persistent, compulsive dependence on a behavior or substance, including mood-altering behaviors or activities known as process addictions.
- (2) "Administrative supervision" means oversight of treatment agency operations, organization of people and resources, and implementation of policies and procedures in a way that directs activities towards agency goals and objectives.
- (3) "Approved school, college, or university" means any accredited institution of higher education offering a full-time graduate or undergraduate course of study in behavioral health sciences, such as addiction counseling, human services, psychology, rehabilitation, social work, or other behavioral health sciences, that is recognized by an appropriate national organization or is approved by the board.
- (4) "Behavioral health disorders" means both mental and substance use disorders.
- (5) "Board" means the state board of addiction counselor examiners created in section 12-43-802.
- (6) "Certified" means certified as an addiction counselor certified at level I, II, or III.
- (7) "Certified addiction counselor" means an individual who has a certificate issued by the board authorizing the individual to practice addiction counseling commensurate with his or her certification level and scope of practice.
- (8) "Clinical supervision" means:
 - (a) The evaluation and modification or approval by a supervisor of the clinical practice of the person being supervised; and
 - (b) A source of knowledge, expertise, and more advanced skills made available to the person being supervised.
- (9) "Co-occurring disorders" means the existence of one or more substance use disorders, addictive behavioral disorders, or mental disorders presenting concurrently. At the individual level, co-occurring disorders exist when at least one disorder can be established independent of the other, and the disorders are not simply a cluster of symptoms resulting from a single disorder.

(10) “License” means a license issued by the board pursuant to this part 8 to engage in the practice of a licensed addiction counselor.

(11) “Licensed addiction counselor” means a person licensed by the board to provide professional behavioral health disorder treatment.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to the former introductory portion to § 24-34-102 (14)(d) and § 24-34-102 (14)(d)(II) and (14)(d)(III) as they existed prior to 2008.

12-43-802. State board of addiction counselor examiners. (1) There is hereby created a state board of addiction counselor examiners under the supervision and control of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies. Once the governor appoints the board members and the board adopts necessary rules, the board is responsible for regulating addiction counselors pursuant to this part 8 and this article. The director retains the authority to regulate addiction counselors for three months after the date on which all members of the board have been appointed, and the director’s rules adopted pursuant to this part 8 remain in effect until the director repeals the rules.

(2) The board consists of seven members who are citizens of the United States and residents of the state of Colorado. By November 30, 2011, the governor shall appoint the members of the board as follows:

(a) (I) Four board members must be licensed or certified addiction counselors, and except as provided in subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (a), at least two of these four members must be engaged in the direct practice of addiction counseling. The four board members appointed pursuant to this paragraph (a) must include at least one licensed addiction counselor and at least one certified addiction counselor.

(II) If, after a good-faith attempt, the governor determines that a licensed or certified addiction counselor who is engaged in the direct practice of addiction counseling is not available to serve on the board for a particular term, the governor may appoint a licensed or certified addiction counselor who is not engaged in the direct practice of addiction counseling to serve on the board pursuant to this paragraph (a).

(b) Three board members must be representatives of the general public, one of whom may be an addiction counseling consumer or family member of an addiction counseling consumer. These individuals must have never been addiction counselors, applicants, or former applicants for licensure or certification as an addiction counselor, members of another mental health profession, members of households that include addiction counselors or any other mental health professional, or otherwise have conflicts of interest or the appearance of a conflict with their duties as board members.

(3) (a) Each board member shall hold office until the expiration of the member’s appointed term or until a successor is duly appointed. Except as specified in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), the term of each member is four years, and a board member shall not serve more than two full consecutive terms. The governor shall fill a vacancy occurring in board membership, other than by expiration of a term, by appointment for the unexpired term of the member.

(b) The initial terms of office of the members appointed to the board as of January 1, 2012, are modified as follows in order to ensure staggered terms of office:

(I) The initial term of office of one of the board members representing the general public, whose initial term would otherwise expire on December 31, 2015, expires on December 31, 2013, and this board member is eligible to serve one additional four-year term commencing on January 1, 2014, and expiring on December 31, 2017. On and after the expiration of the board member’s term, the term of a person appointed to this member’s position on the board is as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) commencing on January 1 of the applicable year.

(II) The initial terms of office of two of the licensed or certified addiction counselor board members, whose initial terms would otherwise expire on December 31, 2015, expire on December 31, 2013. These board members are eligible to serve one additional four-year term, commencing on January 1, 2014, and expiring on December 31, 2017. On and after the expiration of these board members' terms, the terms of persons appointed to the members' positions on the board are as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3) commencing on January 1 of the applicable year.

(4) The governor may remove any board member for misconduct, incompetence, or neglect of duty. Actions constituting neglect of duty include the failure of board members to attend three consecutive meetings or at least three-fourths of the total meetings in any calendar year.

12-43-803. Practice of addiction counseling defined - scope of practice. (1) For the purposes of this part 8, "addiction counseling" means the application of general counseling theories and treatment methods adapted specifically for working with addictive and other behavioral health disorders. Addiction counselors work in a broad variety of disciplines but share an understanding of the addictive process. An addiction counselor identifies a variety of helping strategies that can be tailored to meet the needs of the client. Addiction counseling relies on the use of evidence-based practices that have been shown to be effective in treating addictive disorders.

(2) The scope of practice of addiction counseling focuses on the following four trans-disciplinary foundations that underlie the work of all addiction counselors:

(a) Understanding addiction: Includes knowledge of models and theories of addiction; recognition of social, political, economic, and cultural contexts within which addiction exists; understanding the behavioral, psychological, physical health, and social effects of using addictive substances or engaging in addictive behaviors; and recognizing and understanding co-occurring disorders.

(b) Treatment knowledge: Includes the philosophies, practices, policies, and outcomes of the most generally accepted and scientifically supported models, along with research and outcome data, of treatment, recovery, relapse prevention, and continuing care for addictive disorders. Treatment knowledge includes the ability to work effectively with families, significant others, social networks, and community systems in the treatment process and understanding the value of a multidisciplinary approach to addiction treatment.

(c) Application to practice: Includes the ability to properly diagnose behavioral health disorders using appropriate assessment and testing instruments and placement criteria; stabilization to reduce negative effects of problematic behaviors; developing helping strategies and treatment levels of care based on the client's stage of readiness for change; cultural competency; and familiarity with medical and pharmacological resources for treatment.

(d) Professional readiness: Includes an understanding of diverse cultures; cultivation of a high level of self-awareness; ability to use critical thinking skills; adherence to ethical standards of conduct; ongoing use of clinical supervision and consultation; crisis management; and knowledge of the importance of prevention and recovery management.

(3) The primary practice dimensions of addiction counseling include the following competencies, as appropriate based on the level of certification or licensure and scope of practice:

- (a) Clinical evaluation, including screening and assessment;
- (b) Clinical intake, discharge, discharge planning, and referral;
- (c) Treatment planning;
- (d) Service coordination, including client advocacy, continuing care planning, and collaboration with other behavioral health professionals;
- (e) Counseling of individuals, groups, families, couples, and significant others;
- (f) Recovery management;
- (g) Case management;
- (h) Client, family, and community education;

- (i) Documentation required for a clinical record;
- (j) Professional and ethical practices;
- (k) Clinical supervision; and
- (l) Intervention.

(4) Scope of practice - licensed addiction counselors. Based on education, training, knowledge, and experience, the scope of practice of a licensed addiction counselor includes behavioral health counseling and may include the treatment of substance use disorders, addictive behavioral disorders, and co-occurring disorders, including clinical evaluation and diagnosis, treatment planning, service coordination, case management, clinical documentation, professional and ethical responsibilities, education and psychotherapy with clients, family, and community, clinical supervisory responsibilities, and intervention.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-34-102 (14)(a) as it existed prior to 2008.

12-43-804. Requirements for licensure and certification - rules. (1) The board shall issue a license as an addiction counselor to an applicant who files an application in the form and manner required by the board, submits the fee required by the board pursuant to section 12-43-204, and submits evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she:

- (a) Is at least twenty-one years of age;
- (b) Is not in violation of any provision of this article or any rules promulgated by the board;
- (c) Holds a master's or doctorate degree in the behavioral health sciences from an accredited school, college, or university or an equivalent program as determined by the board;
- (d) Demonstrates professional competence by:
 - (I) Passing a national examination demonstrating special knowledge and skills in behavioral health disorders counseling as determined by the division of behavioral health in the department of human services and approved by the board; and
 - (II) Passing a jurisprudence examination administered by the division;
- (e) Has met the requirements for a certificate of addiction counseling, level III;
- (f) Has completed the number of clock hours of addiction-specific training, as specified by the board by rule, including training in evidence-based treatment approaches, clinical supervision, ethics, and co-occurring disorders; and
- (g) Has completed at least five thousand hours of clinically supervised work experience.

(2) The board shall issue a certification as an addiction counselor to an applicant who files an application in the form and manner required by the board, submits the fee required by the board pursuant to section 12-43-204, and submits evidence satisfactory to the board that he or she:

- (a) Is at least eighteen years of age;
- (b) Is not in violation of any provision of this article or any rules promulgated by the board or by the state board of human services in the department of human services pursuant to section 27-80-108 (1) (e), C.R.S.;
- (c) Has met the requirements for certification at a particular certification level as specified in rules adopted pursuant to subsection (3) of this section by the state board of human services in the department of human services.

(3) The state board of human services in the department of human services shall promulgate rules, with approval of the board, for certification of addiction counselors in accordance with section 27-80-108 (1) (e), C.R.S.

(4) Nothing in this part 8 prevents members of other professions licensed under the laws of this state from rendering services within their scope of practice as set forth in the statutes regulating their professional practices so long as they do not represent themselves to be certified or licensed addiction counselors.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 24-34-102 (14)(b) and (14)(c) as they existed prior to 2008.

12-43-804.5. Rights and privileges of certification and licensure. (1) Any person who possesses a valid, unsuspended, and unrevoked certificate as a level I, II, or III certified addiction counselor has the right to practice addiction counseling under supervision or consultation as required by the rules of the state board of human services in the department of human services; a level III certified addiction counselor has the right to supervise addiction counseling practice; and all levels of certification have the right to use the title "certified addiction counselor" and the abbreviations "CAC I", "CAC II", or "CAC III", as applicable. No other person shall assume these titles or use these abbreviations on any work or media to indicate that the person using the title or abbreviation is a certified addiction counselor.

(2) Any person who possesses a valid, unsuspended, and unrevoked license as an addiction counselor has the right to practice addiction counseling and to use the title "licensed addiction counselor" or the abbreviation "LAC". No other person shall assume these titles or use these abbreviations on any work or media to indicate that the person using the title or abbreviation is a licensed addiction counselor.

12-43-805. Continuing professional competency - rules - repeal. (1) (a) In accordance with sections 12-43-803 and 12-43-804, the board issues a license or certificate to practice addiction counseling based on whether the applicant satisfies minimum educational and experience requirements that demonstrate professional competency to practice addiction counseling. After a license or a certificate as a level II or level III addiction counselor is issued to an applicant, the licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor shall maintain continuing professional competency to practice addiction counseling.

(b) The board, in consultation with the division of behavioral health in the department of human services and other stakeholders, shall adopt rules establishing a continuing professional competency program that includes, at a minimum, the following elements:

(I) A self-assessment of the knowledge and skills of a licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor seeking to renew or reinstate a license;

(II) Development, execution, and documentation of a learning plan based on the assessment; and

(III) Periodic demonstration of knowledge and skills through documentation of activities necessary to ensure at least minimal ability to safely practice the profession. Nothing in this subparagraph (III) shall require a licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor to retake any examination required pursuant to section 12-43-804 in connection with initial licensure or certification.

(c) A licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor satisfies the continuing competency requirements of this section if the licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor meets the continued professional competence requirements of one of the following entities:

(I) A state department, including continued professional competence requirements imposed through a contractual arrangement with a provider;

(II) An accrediting body recognized by the board; or

(III) An entity approved by the board.

(d) (I) After the program is established, a licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor shall satisfy the requirements of the program in order to renew or reinstate a license or certificate to practice addiction counseling in Colorado.

- (II) The requirements of this section apply to individual addiction counselors who are licensed or level II or level III certified pursuant to this part 8, and nothing in this section shall be construed to require a person who employs or contracts with a licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor to comply with the requirements of this section.
- (2) (a) Records of assessments or other documentation developed or submitted in connection with the continuing professional competency program are confidential and not subject to inspection by the public or discovery in connection with a civil action against a licensed or certified addiction counselor. The records or documents shall be used only by the board for purposes of determining whether a licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor is maintaining continuing professional competency to engage in the profession.
- (b) Subject to the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), nothing in this section shall be construed to restrict the discovery of information or documents that are otherwise discoverable under the Colorado rules of civil procedure in connection with a civil action against a licensed or certified addiction counselor.
- (3) As used in this section, “continuing professional competency” means the ongoing ability of a licensed or level II or level III certified addiction counselor to learn, integrate, and apply the knowledge, skill, and judgment to practice as an addiction counselor according to generally accepted industry standards and professional ethical standards in a designated role and setting.
- (4) This section is repealed, effective July 1, 2014.

12-43.2-102. Registration - penalty - renewal - database - fees - rules. (1) On and after April 1, 2011:

(a) No person may perform the duties of a surgical assistant or surgical technologist unless the person is registered by the director.

(b) A person who performs the duties of a surgical assistant or surgical technologist without being registered commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and for a second or subsequent offense, the person commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

(2) (a) Registrations made pursuant to this article are valid for the period of time established by the director. Each registrant shall renew his or her registration according to a schedule set by the director. If a registrant does not renew his or her registration according to the schedule, the registration expires. A person whose registration has expired shall not perform the duties of a surgical assistant or surgical technologist until he or she reinstates the registration.

(b) The director shall establish a process for renewal of registrations and reinstatement of expired registrations. A person renewing or reinstating a registration shall submit an application in the form and manner established by the director.

(3) (a) The director shall maintain a database of all registrants. The director shall charge a fee in the same manner as authorized in section 24-34-105, C.R.S., for registration in the database. The director shall transmit the fees to the state treasurer, who shall deposit them in the division of professions and occupations cash fund created in section 24-34-105, C.R.S. The director shall use the fees for the administration of this article.

(b) Each registrant shall provide for registration in the database the registrant's name; current address; educational and training qualifications; all current employers; employers within the previous five years; the jurisdictions other than Colorado in which the registrant is or has been licensed, certified, or registered, if applicable; whether the registrant is currently certified by a nationally accredited certifying organization and, if so, which one; and any civil, criminal, or administrative action relating to performing the duties of a surgical assistant or surgical technologist of which the registrant was the subject in this or any other jurisdiction. Registrants shall update such information in the database within thirty days after any change and give the director written notice of any civil, criminal, or administrative actions. When recording the information required by this section, each registrant shall indicate whether he or she has been convicted of or entered a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to any misdemeanor relating to drugs or alcohol or to any felony.

(c) Information in the database shall be open to the public.

(4) The director shall promulgate rules necessary and convenient for the administration of this article.

12-43.2-103. Scope of article - exclusion. (1) This article does not prevent or restrict the practice, services, or activities of:

(a) A person licensed, otherwise regulated, or specifically exempted in this state by any other law from engaging in his or her profession or occupation as defined in the article under which he or she is licensed or otherwise regulated or require a person who is licensed, otherwise regulated, or specifically exempted pursuant to articles 29 to 43.9 of this title to register pursuant to this article; or

(b) A person pursuing a course of study in an accredited educational surgical assistant or surgical technologist program if that person is designated by a title that clearly indicates his or her status as a student and if he or she acts under appropriate instruction and supervision.

Source: L. 2010: Entire article added, (HB 10-1415), ch. 339, p. 1555, § 1, effective August 11.

12-43.2-104. Employers - requirements - references. (1) On and after April 1, 2011, an employer of a registrant shall:

(a) Check the database to verify that the person is registered in the database before the person may perform the duties specified in section 12-43.2-101 (6) or (7); and

(b) Give the director written notice within two weeks after a disciplinary action or investigation that is based on conduct that constitutes a violation of this article. For purposes of this paragraph (b), “disciplinary action” includes termination or resignation of the registrant while under investigation or in lieu of investigation or disciplinary action. The director shall establish a notification form on the department’s web site.

(2) (a) The general assembly hereby finds, determines, and declares that sections 8-2-110 and 8-2-111, C.R.S., which prohibit the maintenance or use of blacklists, were enacted to protect employees from retribution and harassment in the pursuit of their lawful activities. The general assembly further finds, determines, and declares that these prohibitions against blacklisting have in some instances been abused and have been used as a shield by persons responsible for drug violations or patient endangerment.

(b) In response to a request by an employer, it shall not be unlawful nor a violation of the prohibitions against blacklisting specified in section 8-2-110 or 8-2-111, C.R.S., for an employer, when acting in good faith, to disclose information known about any involvement in drug diversion, drug tampering, patient abuse, violation of drug or alcohol policies, or crimes of violence, as listed in section 18-1.3-406 (2) (a), C.R.S., committed by a registrant who is an employee or former employee of the responding employer.

(c) The provision of employment information pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2) does not constitute a violation of the prohibition against blacklisting as provided in sections 8-2-110 and 8-2-111, C.R.S., nor does it constitute an unfair labor practice in violation of any provision of article 3 of title 8, C.R.S.

(d) (I) An employer who provides information pursuant to this subsection (2) to a prospective employer of the registrant upon request of the prospective employer or the registrant is immune from civil liability and is not liable in civil damages for the disclosure or any consequences of the disclosure; except that this immunity does not apply when the registrant shows by a preponderance of the evidence both of the following:

(A) The information disclosed by the current or former employer was false; and

(B) The employer providing the information knew or reasonably should have known that the information was false.

(II) This subsection (2) applies to any employee, agent, or other representative of the current or former employer who is authorized to provide and who provides information in accordance with this subsection (2).

(e) An employer or any officer, director, or employee thereof who discloses information under this subsection (2) shall be presumed to be acting in good faith unless it is shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the employer, officer, director, or employee intentionally or recklessly disclosed false information about the employee or former employee.

(f) Nothing in this subsection (2) shall be construed to abrogate or contradict the provisions of part 1 of article 2 of title 8, C.R.S.

12-43.2-105. Grounds for discipline - disciplinary proceedings - judicial review.

(1) The director may take disciplinary action against a registrant if the director finds that the registrant has represented himself or herself as a registered surgical assistant or technologist after the expiration, suspension, or revocation of his or her registration.

(2) The director may revoke, suspend, deny, or refuse to renew a registration or issue a cease-and-desist order to a registrant in accordance with this section upon proof that the registrant:

(a) Has performed the duties of a surgical assistant or surgical technologist without being registered;

(b) Has falsified information in an application or the database or has attempted to obtain or has obtained a registration by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(c) Is an excessive or habitual user or abuser of alcohol or habit-forming drugs or is a habitual user of a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102, C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects;

(d) Has a physical or mental condition or disability that renders the registrant unable to perform his or her tasks with reasonable skill and safety or that may endanger the health or safety of individuals receiving services;

(e) Has violated this article or aided or abetted or knowingly permitted any person to violate this article, a rule adopted under this article, or any lawful order of the director;

(f) Had a registration, license, or certification suspended, revoked, or denied by another jurisdiction for actions that are a violation of this article;

(g) Has been convicted of or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a misdemeanor related to drugs or alcohol or a felony. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of the conviction or plea shall be conclusive evidence of the conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, the director shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(h) Has fraudulently obtained, furnished, or sold any surgical assistant or surgical technologist diploma, certificate, registration, renewal of registration, or record or aided or abetted such act;

(i) Has failed to notify the director of the suspension, revocation, or denial of the person's past or currently held license, certificate, or registration required to perform the duties of a surgical assistant or surgical technologist in this or any other jurisdiction;

(j) Has refused to submit to a physical or mental examination when ordered by the director pursuant to section 12-43.2-106; or

(k) Has otherwise violated any provision of this article or lawful order or rule of the director.

(3) (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the director need not find that the actions that are grounds for discipline were willful but may consider whether such actions were willful when determining the nature of disciplinary sanctions to be imposed.

(b) Upon the failure of a registrant to comply with any conditions imposed by the director pursuant to subsection (2) of this section, unless compliance is beyond the control of the registrant, the director may suspend the registration of the registrant until the registrant complies with the conditions of the director.

(4) (a) The director may commence a proceeding to discipline a registrant when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that the registrant has committed an act enumerated in this section or has violated a lawful order or rule of the director.

(b) In any proceeding under this section, the director may accept as evidence of grounds for disciplinary action any disciplinary action taken against a registrant in another jurisdiction if the violation that prompted the disciplinary action in the other jurisdiction would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article.

(5) Disciplinary proceedings shall be conducted in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to that article by the director or by an administrative law judge, at the director's discretion. The director has the authority to exercise all powers and duties conferred by this article during the disciplinary proceedings.

(6) (a) The director may request the attorney general to seek an injunction, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to enjoin a person from committing an act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this paragraph (a), the attorney general shall not be required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(b) (I) In accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and this article, the director is authorized to investigate, hold hearings, and gather evidence in all matters related to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the director.

(II) In order to aid the director in any hearing or investigation instituted pursuant to this section, the director or an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (6) is authorized to administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant records, papers, books, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter before the director or an administrative law judge.

(III) Upon failure of any witness or registrant to comply with a subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or registrant resides or conducts business, upon application by the director with notice to the subpoenaed person or registrant, may issue to the person or registrant an order requiring that person or registrant to appear before the director; produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. If the person or registrant fails to obey the order of the court, the person or registrant may be held in contempt of court.

(c) The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct hearings, take evidence, make findings, and report such findings to the director.

(7) (a) The director, the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, an employer who notifies the director pursuant to section 12-43.2-104 (1) (b), and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article shall be immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, employer, or witness, respectively, if such person was acting in good faith within the scope of his, her, or its respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he, she, or it acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that the action taken by him, her, or it was warranted by the facts.

(b) A person participating in good faith in making a complaint or report or in an investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result by reason of the participation.

(8) A final action of the director is subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S.

(9) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(10) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a registrant is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required registration, the director may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or the performance of unregistered activities immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (10), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts in violation of this article have occurred. The hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(11) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other provision of this article, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to the person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unregistered activity.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (11) shall be notified promptly by the director of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. The notice may be served on the person against whom the order has been issued by personal service, by first-class, postage prepaid United States mail, or in another manner as may be practicable. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this paragraph (b) shall constitute notice of the order to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be held no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the director as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing be held later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (11) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served on the person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (11) and such other evidence related to the matter as the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required registration, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unregistered practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(12) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an unregistered act or practice; an act or practice constituting a violation of this article, a rule promulgated pursuant to this article, or an order issued pursuant to this article; or an act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with the person.

(13) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(14) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order as provided in subsection (8) of this section.

(15) The director shall notify the chief medical officer of the department of public health and environment within thirty days after taking action regarding conduct of a registrant that violates either this article or any applicable requirement of title 25, C.R.S., and post a notice of such action on the division's web site.

12-43.2-106. Mental and physical examination. (1) If the director has reasonable cause to believe that a registrant is unable to perform the duties of a surgical assistant or surgical technologist, as appropriate, with reasonable skill and safety, the director may order the registrant to undergo a mental or physical examination administered by a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director. Unless due to circumstances beyond the registrant’s control, if the registrant refuses to undergo a mental or physical examination, the director may suspend the registrant’s registration until the results of the examination are known and the director has made a determination of the registrant’s fitness to perform the duties of a surgical assistant or surgical technologist. The director shall proceed with an order for examination and shall make his or her determination in a timely manner.

(2) An order requiring a registrant to undergo a mental or physical examination shall contain the basis of the director’s reasonable cause to believe that the registrant is unable to work with reasonable skill and safety. For purposes of a disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article, the registrant shall be deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician’s or other licensed health care professional’s testimony or examination reports on the ground that they are privileged communications.

(3) The registrant may submit to the director testimony or examination reports from a physician or other licensed health care professional chosen by the registrant and pertaining to any condition that the director has alleged may preclude the registrant from working with reasonable skill and safety. The testimony and reports submitted by the registrant may be considered by the director in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, testimony and examination reports from the physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director.

(4) The results of a mental or physical examination ordered by the director shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the director and shall not be deemed a public record or made available to the public.

COLORADO MEDICAL MARIJUANA CODE

12-43.3-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Colorado Medical Marijuana Code”.

Source: L. 2010: Entire article added, (HB 10-1284), ch. 355, p. 1648, § 1, effective July 1.

12-43.3-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby declares that this article shall be deemed an exercise of the police powers of the state for the protection of the economic and social welfare and the health, peace, and morals of the people of this state.

(2) The general assembly further declares that it is unlawful under state law to cultivate, manufacture, distribute, or sell medical marijuana, except in compliance with the terms, conditions, limitations, and restrictions in section 14 of article XVIII of the state constitution and this article or when acting as a primary caregiver in compliance with the terms, conditions, limitations, and restrictions of section 25-1.5-106, C.R.S.

Source: L. 2010: Entire article added, (HB 10-1284), ch. 355, p. 1648, § 1, effective July 1.

12-43.3-103. Applicability. (1) (a) On July 1, 2010, a person who is operating an established, locally approved business for the purpose of cultivation, manufacture, or sale of medical marijuana or medical marijuana-infused products or a person who has applied to a local government to operate a locally approved business for the purpose of cultivation, manufacture, or sale of medical marijuana or medical marijuana-infused products which is subsequently granted may continue to operate that business in accordance with any applicable state or local laws. "Established", as used in this paragraph (a), shall mean owning or leasing a space with a storefront and remitting sales taxes in a timely manner on retail sales of the business as required pursuant to section 39-26-105, C.R.S., as well as any applicable local sales taxes.

(b) To continue operating a business or operation as described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), the owner shall, on or before August 1, 2010, complete forms as provided by the department of revenue and shall pay a fee, which shall be credited to the medical marijuana license cash fund established pursuant to section 12-43.3-501. The purpose of the fee shall be to pay for the direct and indirect costs of the state licensing authority and the development of application procedures and rules necessary to implement this article. Payment of the fee and completion of the form shall not create a local or state license or a present or future entitlement to receive a license. An owner issued a local license after August 1, 2010, shall complete the forms and pay the fee pursuant to this paragraph (b) within thirty days after issuance of the local license. In addition to any criminal penalties for selling without a license, it shall be unlawful to continue operating a business or operation without filing the forms and paying the fee as described in this paragraph (b), and any violation of this section shall be prima-facie evidence of unsatisfactory character, record, and reputation for any future application for license under this article.

(c) A county, city and county, or municipality shall provide to the state licensing authority, upon request, a list that includes the name and location of each local center or operation licensed in said county, city and county, or municipality so that the state licensing authority can identify any center or operation operating unlawfully.

(2) (a) Prior to July 1, 2011, a county, city and county, or municipality may adopt and enforce a resolution or ordinance licensing, regulating, or prohibiting the cultivation or sale of medical marijuana. In a county, city and county, or municipality where such an ordinance or resolution has been adopted, a person who is not registered as a patient or primary caregiver pursuant to section 25-1.5-106, C.R.S., and who is cultivating or selling medical marijuana shall not be entitled to an affirmative defense to a criminal prosecution as provided for in section 14 of article XVIII of the state constitution unless the person is in compliance with the applicable county or municipal law.

(b) On or before September 1, 2010, a business or operation shall certify that it is cultivating at least seventy percent of the medical marijuana necessary for its operation.

(c) On and after July 1, 2011, all businesses for the purpose of cultivation, manufacture, or sale of medical marijuana or medical marijuana-infused products, as defined in this article, shall be subject to the terms and conditions of this article and any rules promulgated pursuant to this article; except that a person that has met the deadlines set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section that has not had its application acted upon by the state licensing authority may continue to operate until action is taken on the application, unless the person is operating in a jurisdiction that has imposed a prohibition on licensure. While continuing to operate prior to the licensing authority acting on the application, the person shall otherwise be subject to the terms and conditions of this article and all rules promulgated pursuant to this article.

(d) (I) On and after July 1, 2012, persons who did not meet all requirements of paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section as of July 1, 2010, may begin to apply for a license pursuant to this article. A business or operation that applies and is approved for its license after July 1, 2012, shall certify to the state licensing authority that it is cultivating at least seventy percent of the medical marijuana necessary for its operation within ninety days after being licensed.

(II) For those persons that are licensed prior to July 1, 2012, the person may apply to the local and state licensing authorities regarding changes to its license and may apply for a new license if the license is for a business that has been licensed and the person is purchasing that business or if the business is changing license type.

(III) For a person who has met the deadlines set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section and who has lost his or her location because a city or county has voted pursuant to section 12-43.3-106 to ban his or her operation, the person may apply for a new license with a local licensing authority and transfer the location of its pending application with the state licensing authority.

(e) This article sets forth the exclusive means by which manufacture, sale, distribution, and dispensing of medical marijuana may occur in the state of Colorado. Licensees shall not be subject to the terms of section 14 of article XVIII of the state constitution, except where specifically referenced in this article.

12-43.3-104. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) “Good cause”, for purposes of refusing or denying a license renewal, reinstatement, or initial license issuance, means:

(a) The licensee or applicant has violated, does not meet, or has failed to comply with any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of this article, any rules promulgated pursuant to this article, or any supplemental local law, rules, or regulations;

(b) The licensee or applicant has failed to comply with any special terms or conditions that were placed on its license pursuant to an order of the state or local licensing authority;

(c) The licensed premises have been operated in a manner that adversely affects the public health or welfare or the safety of the immediate neighborhood in which the establishment is located.

(1.5) “Immature plant” means a nonflowering medical marijuana plant that is no taller than eight inches and no wider than eight inches produced from a cutting, clipping, or seedling and that is in a growing container that is no larger than two inches wide and two inches tall that is sealed on the sides and bottom.

(2) “License” means to grant a license or registration pursuant to this article.

(3) “Licensed premises” means the premises specified in an application for a license under this article, which are owned or in possession of the licensee and within which the licensee is authorized to cultivate, manufacture, distribute, or sell medical marijuana in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(4) “Licensee” means a person licensed or registered pursuant to this article.

(5) “Local licensing authority” means an authority designated by municipal or county charter, ordinance, or resolution, or the governing body of a municipality, city and county, or the board of county commissioners of a county if no such authority is designated.

(6) “Location” means a particular parcel of land that may be identified by an address or other descriptive means.

(7) “Medical marijuana” means marijuana that is grown and sold pursuant to the provisions of this article and for a purpose authorized by section 14 of article XVIII of the state constitution but shall not be considered a nonprescription drug for purposes of section 12-42.5-102 (21) or 39-26-717, C.R.S., or an over-the-counter medication for purposes of section 25.5-5-322, C.R.S.

(8) “Medical marijuana center” means a person licensed pursuant to this article to operate a business as described in section 12-43.3-402 that sells medical marijuana to registered patients or primary caregivers as defined in section 14 of article XVIII of the state constitution, but is not a primary caregiver.

(9) “Medical marijuana-infused product” means a product infused with medical marijuana that is intended for use or consumption other than by smoking, including but not limited to edible products, ointments, and tinctures. These products, when manufactured or sold by a licensed medical marijuana center or a medical marijuana-infused product manufacturer, shall not be considered a food or drug for the purposes of the “Colorado Food and Drug Act”, part 4 of article 5 of title 25, C.R.S.

(10) “Medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer” means a person licensed pursuant to this article to operate a business as described in section 12-43.3-404.

(11) “Optional premises” means the premises specified in an application for a medical marijuana center license with related growing facilities in Colorado for which the licensee is authorized to grow and cultivate marijuana for a purpose authorized by section 14 of article XVIII of the state constitution.

(12) “Optional premises cultivation operation” means a person licensed pursuant to this article to operate a business as described in section 12-43.3-403.

(13) “Person” means a natural person, partnership, association, company, corporation, limited liability company, or organization, or a manager, agent, owner, director, servant, officer, or employee thereof.

(14) “Premises” means a distinct and definite location, which may include a building, a part of a building, a room, or any other definite contiguous area.

(15) “School” means a public or private preschool or a public or private elementary, middle, junior high, or high school.

(16) “State licensing authority” means the authority created for the purpose of regulating and controlling the licensing of the cultivation, manufacture, distribution, and sale of medical marijuana in this state, pursuant to section 12-43.3-201.

PART 2

STATE LICENSING AUTHORITY

12-43.3-201. State licensing authority - creation. (1) For the purpose of regulating and controlling the licensing of the cultivation, manufacture, distribution, and sale of medical marijuana in this state, there is hereby created the state licensing authority, which shall be the executive director of the department of revenue or the deputy director of the department of revenue if the executive director so designates.

(2) The executive director of the department of revenue shall be the chief administrative officer of the state licensing authority and may employ, pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, such officers and employees as may be determined to be necessary, which officers and employees shall be part of the department of revenue. The state licensing authority shall, at its discretion, based upon workload, employ no more than one full-time equivalent employee for each ten medical marijuana centers licensed by or making application with the authority. No moneys shall be appropriated to the state licensing authority from the general fund for the operation of this article, nor shall the state licensing authority expend any general fund moneys for the operation of this article.

(3) Repealed.

Source: L. 2010: Entire article added, (HB 10-1284), ch. 355, p. 1652, § 1, effective July 1.

Editor's note: Subsection (3)(c) provided for the repeal of subsection (3), effective July 1, 2011. (See L. 2010, p. 1652.)

12-43.3-202. Powers and duties of state licensing authority. (1) The state licensing authority shall:

(a) Grant or refuse state licenses for the cultivation, manufacture, distribution, and sale of medical marijuana as provided by law; suspend, fine, restrict, or revoke such licenses upon a violation of this article, or a rule promulgated pursuant to this article; and impose any penalty authorized by this article or any rule promulgated pursuant to this article. The state licensing authority may take any action with respect to a registration pursuant to this article as it may with respect to a license pursuant to this article, in accordance with the procedures established pursuant to this article.

(b) (I) Promulgate such rules and such special rulings and findings as necessary for the proper regulation and control of the cultivation, manufacture, distribution, and sale of medical marijuana and for the enforcement of this article. A county, municipality, or city and county that has adopted a temporary moratorium regarding the subject matter of this article shall be specifically authorized to extend the moratorium until June 30, 2012.

(II) Repealed.

(c) Hear and determine at a public hearing any contested state license denial and any complaints against a licensee and administer oaths and issue subpoenas to require the presence of persons and the production of papers, books, and records necessary to the determination of any hearing so held, all in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S. The state licensing authority may, at its discretion, delegate to the department of revenue hearing officers the authority to conduct licensing, disciplinary, and rule-making hearings under section 24-4-105, C.R.S. When conducting such hearings, the hearing officers shall be employees of the state licensing authority under the direction and supervision of the executive director and the state licensing authority.

(d) Maintain the confidentiality of reports or other information obtained from a licensee showing the sales volume or quantity of medical marijuana sold, or revealing any patient information, or any other records that are exempt from public inspection pursuant to state law. Such reports or other information may be used only for a purpose authorized by this article or for any other state or local law enforcement purpose. Any information released related to patients may be used only for a purpose authorized by this article or to verify that a person who presented a registry identification card to a state or local law enforcement official is lawfully in possession of such card.

(e) Develop such forms, licenses, identification cards, and applications as are necessary or convenient in the discretion of the state licensing authority for the administration of this article or any of the rules promulgated under this article;

(f) Prepare and transmit annually, in the form and manner prescribed by the heads of the principal departments pursuant to section 24-1-136, C.R.S., a report accounting to the governor for the efficient discharge of all responsibilities assigned by law or directive to the state licensing authority; and

(g) In recognition of the potential medicinal value of medical marijuana, make a request by January 1, 2012, to the federal drug enforcement administration to consider rescheduling, for pharmaceutical purposes, medical marijuana from a schedule I controlled substance to a schedule II controlled substance.

(2) (a) Rules promulgated pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section may include, but need not be limited to, the following subjects:

(I) Compliance with, enforcement of, or violation of any provision of this article, section 18-18-406.3 (7), C.R.S., or any rule issued pursuant to this article, including procedures and grounds for denying, suspending, fining, restricting, or revoking a state license issued pursuant to this article;

(II) Specifications of duties of officers and employees of the state licensing authority;

(III) Instructions for local licensing authorities and law enforcement officers;

(IV) Requirements for inspections, investigations, searches, seizures, forfeitures, and such additional activities as may become necessary from time to time;

(V) Creation of a range of penalties for use by the state licensing authority;

(VI) Prohibition of misrepresentation and unfair practices;

(VII) Control of informational and product displays on licensed premises;

(VIII) Development of individual identification cards for owners, officers, managers, contractors, employees, and other support staff of entities licensed pursuant to this article, including a fingerprint-based criminal history record check as may be required by the state licensing authority prior to issuing a card;

(IX) Identification of state licensees and their owners, officers, managers, and employees;

(X) Security requirements for any premises licensed pursuant to this article, including, at a minimum, lighting, physical security, video, alarm requirements, and other minimum procedures for internal control as deemed necessary by the state licensing authority to properly administer and enforce the provisions of this article, including reporting requirements for changes, alterations, or modifications to the premises;

(XI) Regulation of the storage of, warehouses for, and transportation of medical marijuana;

(XII) Sanitary requirements for medical marijuana centers, including but not limited to sanitary requirements for the preparation of medical marijuana-infused products;

(XIII) The specification of acceptable forms of picture identification that a medical marijuana center may accept when verifying a sale;

(XIV) Labeling standards;

(XIV.5) Prohibiting the sale of medical marijuana-infused products unless the product is packaged:

(A) In special packaging that is designed or constructed to be significantly difficult for children under five years of age to open and not difficult for normal adults to use properly and that does not allow the product to be seen without opening the packaging material; or

(B) In packaging that is labeled "Medicinal product - keep out of reach of children";

(XV) Records to be kept by licensees and the required availability of the records;

(XVI) State licensing procedures, including procedures for renewals, reinstatements, initial licenses, and the payment of licensing fees;

(XVII) The reporting and transmittal of monthly sales tax payments by medical marijuana centers;

(XVIII) Authorization for the department of revenue to have access to licensing information to ensure sales and income tax payment and the effective administration of this article;

(XIX) Authorization for the department of revenue to issue administrative citations and procedures for issuing, appealing, and creating a citation violation list and schedule of penalties; and

(XX) Such other matters as are necessary for the fair, impartial, stringent, and comprehensive administration of this article.

(b) Nothing in this article shall be construed as delegating to the state licensing authority the power to fix prices for medical marijuana.

(c) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit a law enforcement agency's ability to investigate unlawful activity in relation to a medical marijuana center, optional premises cultivation operation, or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer. A law enforcement agency shall have the authority to run a Colorado crime information center criminal history record check of a primary caregiver, licensee, or employee of a licensee during an investigation of unlawful activity related to medical marijuana.

Editor's note: Subsection (1)(b)(II)(B) provided for the repeal of subsection (1)(b)(II), effective July 1, 2011. (See L. 2010, p. 1653.)

PART 3

STATE AND LOCAL LICENSING

12-43.3-301. Local licensing authority - applications - licenses. (1) A local licensing authority may issue only the following medical marijuana licenses upon payment of the fee and compliance with all local licensing requirements to be determined by the local licensing authority:

- (a) A medical marijuana center license;
- (b) An optional premises cultivation license;
- (c) A medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing license.

(2) (a) A local licensing authority shall not issue a local license within a municipality, city and county, or the unincorporated portion of a county unless the governing body of the municipality or city and county has adopted an ordinance, or the governing body of the county has adopted a resolution, containing specific standards for license issuance, or if no such ordinance or resolution is adopted prior to July 1, 2012, then a local licensing authority shall consider the minimum licensing requirements of this part 3 when issuing a license.

(b) In addition to all other standards applicable to the issuance of licenses under this article, the local governing body may adopt additional standards for the issuance of medical marijuana center, optional premises cultivation, or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer licenses consistent with the intent of this article that may include, but need not be limited to:

- (I) Distance restrictions between premises for which local licenses are issued;
- (II) Reasonable restrictions on the size of an applicant's licensed premises; and
- (III) Any other requirements necessary to ensure the control of the premises and the ease of enforcement of the terms and conditions of the license.

(3) An application for a license specified in subsection (1) of this section shall be filed with the appropriate local licensing authority on forms provided by the state licensing authority and shall contain such information as the state licensing authority may require and any forms as the local licensing authority may require. Each application shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of the persons prescribed by the state licensing authority.

(4) An applicant shall file, at the time of application for a local license, plans and specifications for the interior of the building if the building to be occupied is in existence at the time. If the building is not in existence, the applicant shall file a plot plan and a detailed sketch for the interior and submit an architect's drawing of the building to be constructed. In its discretion, the local or state licensing authority may impose additional requirements necessary for the approval of the application.

12-43.3-302. Public hearing notice - posting and publication. (1) Upon receipt of an application for a local license, except an application for renewal or for transfer of ownership, a local licensing authority may schedule a public hearing upon the application to be held not less than thirty days after the date of the application. If the local licensing authority schedules a hearing for a license application, it shall post and publish public notice thereof not less than ten days prior to the hearing. The local licensing authority shall give public notice by posting a sign in a conspicuous place on the license applicant's premises for which license application has been made and by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the applicant's premises are located.

(2) Public notice given by posting shall include a sign of suitable material, not less than twenty-two inches wide and twenty-six inches high, composed of letters not less than one inch in height and stating the type of license applied for, the date of the application, the date of the hearing, the name and address of the applicant, and such other information as may be required to fully apprise the public of the nature of the application. The sign shall contain the names and addresses of the officers, directors, or manager of the facility to be licensed.

(3) Public notice given by publication shall contain the same information as that required for signs.

(4) If the building in which medical marijuana is to be cultivated, manufactured, or distributed is in existence at the time of the application, a sign posted as required in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be placed so as to be conspicuous and plainly visible to the general public. If the building is not constructed at the time of the application, the applicant shall post a sign at the premises upon which the building is to be constructed in such a manner that the notice shall be conspicuous and plainly visible to the general public.

(5) (a) A local licensing authority, or a license applicant with local licensing authority approval, may request that the state licensing authority conduct a concurrent review of a new license application prior to the local licensing authority's final approval of the license application. Local licensing authorities who permit a concurrent review will continue to independently review the applicant's license application.

(b) When conducting a concurrent application review, the state licensing authority may advise the local licensing authority of any items that it finds that could result in the denial of the license application. Upon correction of the noted discrepancies, if the correction is permitted by the state licensing authority, the state licensing authority shall notify the local licensing authority of its conditional approval of the license application subject to the final approval by the local licensing authority. The state licensing authority shall then issue the applicant's state license upon receiving evidence of final approval by the local licensing authority.

(c) All applications submitted for concurrent review shall be accompanied by all applicable state license and application fees. Any applications that are later denied or withdrawn may allow for a refund of license fees only. All application fees provided by an applicant shall be retained by the respective licensing authority.

12-43.3-303. Results of investigation - decision of authorities. (1) Not less than five days prior to the date of the public hearing authorized in section 12-43.3-302, the local licensing authority shall make known its findings, based on its investigation, in writing to the applicant and other parties of interest. The local licensing authority has authority to refuse to issue a license provided for in this section for good cause, subject to judicial review.

(2) Before entering a decision approving or denying the application for a local license, the local licensing authority may consider, except where this article specifically provides otherwise, the facts and evidence adduced as a result of its investigation, as well as any other facts pertinent to the type of license for which application has been made, including the number, type, and availability of medical marijuana centers, optional premises cultivation operations, or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturers located in or near the premises under consideration, and any other pertinent matters affecting the qualifications of the applicant for the conduct of the type of business proposed.

(3) Within thirty days after the public hearing or completion of the application investigation, a local licensing authority shall issue its decision approving or denying an application for local licensure. The decision shall be in writing and shall state the reasons for the decision. The local licensing authority shall send a copy of the decision by certified mail to the applicant at the address shown in the application.

(4) After approval of an application, a local licensing authority shall not issue a local license until the building in which the business to be conducted is ready for occupancy with such furniture, fixtures, and equipment in place as are necessary to comply with the applicable provisions of this article, and then only after the local licensing authority has inspected the premises to determine that the applicant has complied with the architect's drawing and the plot plan and detailed sketch for the interior of the building submitted with the application.

(5) After approval of an application for local licensure, the local licensing authority shall notify the state licensing authority of such approval, who shall investigate and either approve or disapprove the application for state licensure.

12-43.3-304. Medical marijuana license bond. (1) Before the state licensing authority issues a state license to an applicant, the applicant shall procure and file with the state licensing authority evidence of a good and sufficient bond in the amount of five thousand dollars with corporate surety thereon duly licensed to do business with the state, approved as to form by the attorney general of the state, and conditioned that the applicant shall report and pay all sales and use taxes due to the state, or for which the state is the collector or collecting agent, in a timely manner, as provided in law.

(2) A corporate surety shall not be required to make payments to the state claiming under such bond until a final determination of failure to pay taxes due to the state has been made by the state licensing authority or a court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) All bonds required pursuant to this section shall be renewed at such time as the bondholder's license is renewed. The renewal may be accomplished through a continuation certificate issued by the surety.

12-43.3-305. State licensing authority - application and issuance procedures. (1) Applications for a state license under the provisions of this article shall be made to the state licensing authority on forms prepared and furnished by the state licensing authority and shall set forth such information as the state licensing authority may require to enable the state licensing authority to determine whether a state license should be granted. The information shall include the name and address of the applicant, the names and addresses of the officers, directors, or managers, and all other information deemed necessary by the state licensing authority. Each application shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of such person or persons as the state licensing authority may prescribe.

(2) The state licensing authority shall not issue a state license pursuant to this section until the local licensing authority has approved the application for a local license and issued a local license as provided for in sections 12-43.3-301 to 12-43.3-303.

(3) Nothing in this article shall preempt or otherwise impair the power of a local government to enact ordinances or resolutions concerning matters authorized to local governments.

12-43.3-306. Denial of application. (1) The state licensing authority shall deny a state license if the premises on which the applicant proposes to conduct its business does not meet the requirements of this article or for reasons set forth in section 12-43.3-104 (1) (c) or 12-43.3-305, and the state licensing authority may deny a license for good cause as defined by section 12-43.3-104 (1) (a) or (1) (b).

(2) If the state licensing authority denies a state license pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, the applicant shall be entitled to a hearing pursuant to section 24-4-104 (9), C.R.S., and judicial review pursuant to section 24-4-106, C.R.S. The state licensing authority shall provide written notice of the grounds for denial of the state license to the applicant and to the local licensing authority at least fifteen days prior to the hearing.

12-43.3-307. Persons prohibited as licensees. (1) A license provided by this article shall not be issued to or held by:

- (a) A person until the annual fee therefore has been paid;
- (b) A person whose criminal history indicates that he or she is not of good moral character;
- (c) A corporation, if the criminal history of any of its officers, directors, or stockholders indicates that the officer, director, or stockholder is not of good moral character;
- (d) A licensed physician making patient recommendations;
- (e) A person employing, assisted by, or financed in whole or in part by any other person whose criminal history indicates he or she is not of good character and reputation satisfactory to the respective licensing authority;
- (f) A person under twenty-one years of age;
- (g) A person licensed pursuant to this article who, during a period of licensure, or who, at the time of application, has failed to:
 - (I) Provide a surety bond or file any tax return with a taxing agency;
 - (II) Pay any taxes, interest, or penalties due;
 - (III) Pay any judgments due to a government agency;
 - (IV) Stay out of default on a government-issued student loan;
 - (V) Pay child support; or
 - (VI) Remedy an outstanding delinquency for taxes owed, an outstanding delinquency for judgments owed to a government agency, or an outstanding delinquency for child support;

(h) A person who has discharged a sentence in the five years immediately preceding the application date for a conviction of a felony or a person who at any time has been convicted of a felony pursuant to any state or federal law regarding the possession, distribution, manufacturing, cultivation, or use of a controlled substance; except that the licensing authority may grant a license to an employee if the employee has a state felony conviction based on possession or use of a controlled substance that would not be a felony if the person were convicted of the offense on the date he or she applied for licensure;

(i) A person who employs another person at a medical marijuana facility who has not passed a criminal history record check;

(j) A sheriff, deputy sheriff, police officer, or prosecuting officer, or an officer or employee of the state licensing authority or a local licensing authority;

(k) A person whose authority to be a primary caregiver as defined in section 25-1.5-106 (2), C.R.S., has been revoked by the state health agency;

(l) A person for a license for a location that is currently licensed as a retail food establishment or wholesale food registrant; or

(m) An owner, as defined by rule of the state licensing authority, who has not been a resident of Colorado for at least two years prior to the date of the owner's application; except that:

(I) Repealed.

(2) (a) In investigating the qualifications of an applicant or a licensee, the state and local licensing authorities may have access to criminal history record information furnished by a criminal justice agency subject to any restrictions imposed by such agency. In the event the state or local licensing authority considers the applicant's criminal history record, the state or local licensing authority shall also consider any information provided by the applicant regarding such criminal history record, including but not limited to evidence of rehabilitation, character references, and educational achievements, especially those items pertaining to the period of time between the applicant's last criminal conviction and the consideration of the application for a state license.

(b) As used in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), "criminal justice agency" means any federal, state, or municipal court or any governmental agency or subunit of such agency that administers criminal justice pursuant to a statute or executive order and that allocates a substantial part of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice.

(c) At the time of filing an application for issuance or renewal of a state medical marijuana center license, medical marijuana-infused product manufacturer license, or optional premises cultivation license, an applicant shall submit a set of his or her fingerprints and file personal history information concerning the applicant's qualifications for a state license on forms prepared by the state licensing authority. The state or local licensing authority shall submit the fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting fingerprint-based criminal history record checks. The Colorado bureau of investigation shall forward the fingerprints to the federal bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting fingerprint-based criminal history record checks. The state or local licensing authority may acquire a name-based criminal history record check for an applicant or a license holder who has twice submitted to a fingerprint-based criminal history record check and whose fingerprints are unclassifiable. An applicant who has previously submitted fingerprints for state licensing purposes may request that the fingerprints on file be used. The state or local licensing authority shall use the information resulting from the fingerprint-based criminal history record check to investigate and determine whether an applicant is qualified to hold a state license pursuant to this article. The state or local licensing authority may verify any of the information an applicant is required to submit.

12-43.3-308. Restrictions for applications for new licenses. (1) The state or a local licensing authority shall not receive or act upon an application for the issuance of a state or local license pursuant to this article:

(a) If the application for a state or local license concerns a particular location that is the same as or within one thousand feet of a location for which, within the two years immediately preceding the date of the application, the state or a local licensing authority denied an application for the same class of license due to the nature of the use or other concern related to the location;

(b) Until it is established that the applicant is, or will be, entitled to possession of the premises for which application is made under a lease, rental agreement, or other arrangement for possession of the premises or by virtue of ownership of the premises;

(c) For a location in an area where the cultivation, manufacture, and sale of medical marijuana as contemplated is not permitted under the applicable zoning laws of the municipality, city and county, or county;

(d) (I) If the building in which medical marijuana is to be sold is located within one thousand feet of a school, an alcohol or drug treatment facility, the principal campus of a college, university, or seminary, or a residential child care facility. The provisions of this section shall not affect the renewal or reissuance of a license once granted or apply to licensed premises located or to be located on land owned by a municipality, nor shall the provisions of this section apply to an existing licensed premises on land owned by the state, or apply to a license in effect and actively doing business before said principal campus was constructed. The local licensing authority of a city and county, by rule or regulation, the governing body of a municipality, by ordinance, and the governing body of a county, by resolution, may vary the distance restrictions imposed by this subparagraph (I) for a license or may eliminate one or more types of schools, campuses, or facilities from the application of a distance restriction established by or pursuant to this subparagraph (I).

(II) The distances referred to in this paragraph (d) are to be computed by direct measurement from the nearest property line of the land used for a school or campus to the nearest portion of the building in which medical marijuana is to be sold, using a route of direct pedestrian access.

(III) In addition to the requirements of section 12-43.3-303 (2), the local licensing authority shall consider the evidence and make a specific finding of fact as to whether the building in which the medical marijuana is to be sold is located within any distance restrictions established by or pursuant to this paragraph (d).

12-43.3-309. Transfer of ownership. (1) A state or local license granted under the provisions of this article shall not be transferable except as provided in this section, but this section shall not prevent a change of location as provided in section 12-43.3-310 (13).

(2) For a transfer of ownership, a license holder shall apply to the state and local licensing authorities on forms prepared and furnished by the state licensing authority. In determining whether to permit a transfer of ownership, the state and local licensing authorities shall consider only the requirements of this article, any rules promulgated by the state licensing authority, and any other local restrictions. The local licensing authority may hold a hearing on the application for transfer of ownership. The local licensing authority shall not hold a hearing pursuant to this subsection (2) until the local licensing authority has posted a notice of hearing in the manner described in section 12-43.3-302 (2) on the licensed medical marijuana center premises for a period of ten days and has provided notice of the hearing to the applicant at least ten days prior to the hearing. Any transfer of ownership hearing by the state licensing authority shall be held in compliance with the requirements specified in section 12-43.3-302.

12-43.3-310. Licensing in general. (1) This article authorizes a county, municipality, or city and county to prohibit the operation of medical marijuana centers, optional premises cultivation operations, and medical marijuana-infused products manufacturers' licenses and to enact reasonable regulations or other restrictions applicable to medical marijuana centers, optional premises cultivation licenses, and medical marijuana-infused products manufacturers' licenses based on local government zoning, health, safety, and public welfare laws for the distribution of medical marijuana that are more restrictive than this article.

(2) A medical marijuana center, optional premises cultivation operation, or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer may not operate until it has been licensed by the local licensing authority and the state licensing authority pursuant to this article. In connection with a license, the applicant shall provide a complete and accurate list of all owners, officers, and employees who work at, manage, own, or are otherwise associated with the operation and shall provide a complete and accurate application as required by the state licensing authority.

(3) A medical marijuana center, optional premises cultivation operation, or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer shall notify the state licensing authority in writing within ten days after an owner, officer, or employee ceases to work at, manage, own, or otherwise be associated with the operation. The owner, officer, or employee shall surrender his or her identification card to the state licensing authority on or before the date of the notification.

(4) A medical marijuana center, optional premises cultivation operation, or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer shall notify the state licensing authority in writing of the name, address, and date of birth of an owner, officer, manager, or employee before the new owner, officer, or employee begins working at, managing, owning, or being associated with the operation. The owner, officer, manager, or employee shall pass a fingerprint-based criminal history record check as required by the state licensing authority and obtain the required identification prior to being associated with, managing, owning, or working at the operation.

(5) A medical marijuana center, optional premises cultivation operation, or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer shall not acquire, possess, cultivate, deliver, transfer, transport, supply, or dispense marijuana for any purpose except to assist patients, as defined by section 14 (1) of article XVIII of the state constitution.

(6) All officers, managers, and employees of a medical marijuana center, optional premises cultivation operation, or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer shall be residents of Colorado upon the date of their license application. An owner shall meet the residency requirements in section 12-43.3-307 (1) (m). A local licensing authority shall not issue a license provided for in this article until that share of the license application fee due to the state has been received by the department of revenue. All licenses granted pursuant to this article shall be valid for a period not to exceed two years after the date of issuance unless revoked or suspended pursuant to this article or the rules promulgated pursuant to this article.

(7) Before granting a local or state license, the respective licensing authority may consider, except where this article specifically provides otherwise, the requirements of this article and any rules promulgated pursuant to this article, and all other reasonable restrictions that are or may be placed upon the licensee by the licensing authority. With respect to a second or additional license for the same licensee or the same owner of another licensed business pursuant to this article, each licensing authority shall consider the effect on competition of granting or denying the additional licenses to such licensee and shall not approve an application for a second or additional license that would have the effect of restraining competition.

(8) (a) Each license issued under this article is separate and distinct. It is unlawful for a person to exercise any of the privileges granted under a license other than the license that the person holds or for a licensee to allow any other person to exercise the privileges granted under the licensee's license. A separate license shall be required for each specific business or business entity and each geographical location.

(b) At all times, a licensee shall possess and maintain possession of the premises or optional premises for which the license is issued by ownership, lease, rental, or other arrangement for possession of the premises.

(9) (a) The licenses provided pursuant to this article shall specify the date of issuance, the period of licensure, the name of the licensee, and the premises or optional premises licensed. The licensee shall conspicuously place the license at all times on the licensed premises or optional premises.

(b) A local licensing authority shall not transfer location of or renew a license to sell medical marijuana until the applicant for the license produces a license issued and granted by the state licensing authority covering the whole period for which a license or license renewal is sought.

(10) In computing any period of time prescribed by this article, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be counted as any other day.

(11) A licensee shall report each transfer or change of financial interest in the license to the state and local licensing authorities thirty days prior to any transfer or change pursuant to section 12-43.3-309. A report shall be required for transfers of capital stock of any corporation regardless of size.

(12) Each licensee shall manage the licensed premises himself or herself or employ a separate and distinct manager on the premises and shall report the name of the manager to the state and local licensing authorities. The licensee shall report any change in manager to the state and local licensing authorities thirty days prior to the change pursuant to section 12-43.3-309.

(13) (a) A licensee may move his or her permanent location to any other place in the same municipality or city and county for which the license was originally granted, or in the same county if the license was granted for a place outside the corporate limits of a municipality or city and county, but it shall be unlawful to cultivate, manufacture, distribute, or sell medical marijuana at any such place until permission to do so is granted by the state and local licensing authorities provided for in this article.

(b) In permitting a change of location, the state and local licensing authorities shall consider all reasonable restrictions that are or may be placed upon the new location by the governing board or local licensing authority of the municipality, city and county, or county and any such change in location shall be in accordance with all requirements of this article and rules promulgated pursuant to this article.

(14) Repealed.

12-43.3-311. License renewal. (1) Ninety days prior to the expiration date of an existing license, the state licensing authority shall notify the licensee of the expiration date by first class mail at the licensee’s address of record with the state licensing authority. A licensee shall apply for the renewal of an existing license to the local licensing authority not less than forty-five days and to the state licensing authority not less than thirty days prior to the date of expiration. A local licensing authority shall not accept an application for renewal of a license after the date of expiration, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section. The state licensing authority may extend the expiration date of the license and accept a late application for renewal of a license provided that the applicant has filed a timely renewal application with the local licensing authority. All renewals filed with the local licensing authority and subsequently approved by the local licensing authority shall next be processed by the state licensing authority. The state or the local licensing authority, in its discretion, subject to the requirements of this subsection (1) and subsection (2) of this section and based upon reasonable grounds, may waive the forty-five-day or thirty-day time requirements set forth in this subsection (1). The local licensing authority may hold a hearing on the application for renewal only if the licensee has had complaints filed against it, has a history of violations, or there are allegations against the licensee that would constitute good cause. The local licensing authority shall not hold a renewal hearing provided for by this subsection (1) for a medical marijuana center until it has posted a notice of hearing on the licensed medical marijuana center premises in the manner described in section 12-43.3-302 (2) for a period of ten days and provided notice to the applicant at least ten days prior to the hearing. The local licensing authority may refuse to renew any license for good cause, subject to judicial review.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a licensee whose license has been expired for not more than ninety days may file a late renewal application upon the payment of a nonrefundable late application fee of five hundred dollars to the local licensing authority. A licensee who files a late renewal application and pays the requisite fees may continue to operate until both the state and local licensing authorities have taken final action to approve or deny the licensee's late renewal application unless the state or local licensing authority summarily suspends the license pursuant to article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., this article, and rules promulgated pursuant to this article.

(b) The state and local licensing authorities may not accept a late renewal application more than ninety days after the expiration of a licensee's permanent annual license. A licensee whose permanent annual license has been expired for more than ninety days shall not cultivate, manufacture, distribute, or sell any medical marijuana until all required licenses have been obtained.

(c) Notwithstanding the amount specified for the late application fee in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the state licensing authority by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of the fee if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., by reducing the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of the fee is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the state licensing authority by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of the fee as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

12-43.3-313. Unlawful financial assistance. (1) The state licensing authority, by rule and regulation, shall require a complete disclosure of all persons having a direct or indirect financial interest, and the extent of such interest, in each license issued under this article.

(2) A person shall not have an unreported financial interest in a license pursuant to this article unless that person has undergone a fingerprint-based criminal history record check as provided for by the state licensing authority in its rules; except that this subsection (2) shall not apply to banks, savings and loan associations, or industrial banks supervised and regulated by an agency of the state or federal government, or to FHA-approved mortgagees, or to stockholders, directors, or officers thereof.

(3) This section is intended to prohibit and prevent the control of the outlets for the sale of medical marijuana by a person or party other than the persons licensed pursuant to the provisions of this article.

PART 4

LICENSE TYPES

12-43.3-401. Classes of licenses. (1) For the purpose of regulating the cultivation, manufacture, distribution, and sale of medical marijuana, the state licensing authority in its discretion, upon application in the prescribed form made to it, may issue and grant to the applicant a license from any of the following classes, subject to the provisions and restrictions provided by this article:

- (a) Medical marijuana center license;
- (b) Optional premises cultivation license;
- (c) Medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing license; and
- (d) Occupational licenses and registrations for owners, managers, operators, employees, contractors, and other support staff employed by, working in, or having access to restricted areas of the licensed premises, as determined by the state licensing authority. The state licensing authority may take any action with respect to a registration pursuant to this article as it may with respect to a license pursuant to this article, in accordance with the procedures established pursuant to this article.

(2) All persons licensed pursuant to this article shall collect sales tax on all sales made pursuant to the licensing activities.

(3) A state chartered bank or a credit union may loan money to any person licensed pursuant to this article for the operation of a licensed business.

Source: L. 2010: Entire article added, (HB 10-1284), ch. 355, p. 1667, § 1, effective July 1.

12-43.3-402. Medical marijuana center license. (1) A medical marijuana center license shall be issued only to a person selling medical marijuana pursuant to the terms and conditions of this article.

(2) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, a medical marijuana center licensee may also sell medical marijuana-infused products that are prepackaged and labeled so as to clearly indicate all of the following:

- (I) That the product contains medical marijuana;
- (II) That the product is manufactured without any regulatory oversight for health, safety, or efficacy; and
- (III) That there may be health risks associated with the consumption or use of the product.

(b) A medical marijuana licensee may contract with a medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing licensee for the manufacture of medical marijuana-infused products upon a medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing licensee's licensed premises.

(3) Every person selling medical marijuana as provided for in this article shall sell only medical marijuana grown in its medical marijuana optional premises licensed pursuant to this article. In addition to medical marijuana, a medical marijuana center may sell no more than six immature plants to a patient; except that a medical marijuana center may sell more than six immature plants, but may not exceed half the recommended plant count, to a patient who has been recommended an expanded plant count by his or her recommending physician. A medical marijuana center may sell immature plants to a primary caregiver, another medical marijuana center, or a medical marijuana-infused product manufacturer pursuant to rules promulgated by the state licensing authority. The provisions of this subsection (3) shall not apply to medical marijuana-infused products.

(4) Notwithstanding the requirements of subsection (3) of this section to the contrary, a medical marijuana licensee may purchase not more than thirty percent of its total on-hand inventory of medical marijuana from another licensed medical marijuana center in Colorado. A medical marijuana center may sell no more than thirty percent of its total on-hand inventory to another Colorado licensed medical marijuana licensee; except that the director of the division that regulates medical marijuana may grant a temporary waiver:

(a) To a medical marijuana center or applicant if the medical marijuana center or applicant suffers a catastrophic event related to its inventory; or

(b) To a new medical marijuana center licensee for a period not to exceed ninety days so the new licensee can cultivate the necessary medical marijuana to comply with this subsection (4).

(5) Prior to initiating a sale, the employee of the medical marijuana center making the sale shall verify that the purchaser has a valid registration card issued pursuant to section

25-1.5-106, C.R.S., or a copy of a current and complete new application for the medical marijuana registry administered by the department of public health and environment that is documented by a certified mail return receipt as having been submitted to the department of public health and environment within the preceding thirty-five days, and a valid picture identification card that matches the name on the registration card. A purchaser may not provide a copy of a renewal application in order to make a purchase at a medical marijuana center. A purchaser may only make a purchase using a copy of his or her application from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday. If the purchaser presents a copy of his or her application at the time of purchase, the employee must contact the department of public health and environment to determine whether the purchaser's application has been denied. The employee shall not complete the transaction if the purchaser's application has been denied. If the purchaser's application has been denied, the employee shall be authorized to confiscate the purchaser's copy of the application and the documentation of the certified mail return receipt, if possible, and shall, within seventy-two hours after the confiscation, turn it over to the department of public health and environment or local law enforcement agency. The failure to confiscate the copy of the application and document of the certified mail return receipt or to turn it over to the state health department or a state or local law enforcement agency within seventy-two hours after the confiscation shall not constitute a criminal offense.

(5.5) Transactions for the sale of medical marijuana or a medical marijuana-infused product at a medical marijuana center may be completed by using an automated machine that is in a restricted access area of the center if the machine complies with the rules promulgated by the state licensing authority regarding the transaction of sale of product at a medical marijuana center and the transaction complies with subsection (5) of this section.

(6) A medical marijuana center may provide a sample of its products to a laboratory that has an occupational license from the state licensing authority for testing and research purposes. The laboratory may develop, test, and produce medical marijuana-based products. The laboratory may contract method or product development with a licensed medical marijuana center or licensed medical marijuana infused-product manufacturer. The state licensing authority shall promulgate rules pursuant to its authority in section 12-43.3-202 (1) (b) related to acceptable testing and research practices, including but not limited to testing, standards, quality control analysis, equipment certification and calibration, and chemical identification and other substances used in bona fide research methods. A laboratory that has an occupational license from the state licensing authority for testing purposes shall not have any interest in a licensed medical marijuana center or a licensed medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer.

(7) All medical marijuana sold at a licensed medical marijuana center shall be labeled with a list of all chemical additives, including but not limited to nonorganic pesticides, herbicides, and fertilizers, that were used in the cultivation and the production of the medical marijuana.

(8) A licensed medical marijuana center shall comply with all provisions of article 34 of title 24, C.R.S., as the provisions relate to persons with disabilities.

(9) Notwithstanding the provisions of section 12-43.3-901 (4) (m), a medical marijuana center may sell below cost or donate to a patient who has been designated indigent by the state health agency or who is in hospice care:

(a) Medical marijuana; or

(b) No more than six immature plants; except that a medical marijuana center may sell or donate more than six immature plants, but may not exceed half the recommended plant count, to a patient who has been recommended an expanded plant count by his or her recommending physician; or

(c) Medical marijuana-infused products to patients.

12-43.3-403. Optional premises cultivation license. (1) An optional premises cultivation license may be issued only to a person licensed pursuant to section 12-43.3-402 (1) or 12-43.3-404 (1) who grows and cultivates medical marijuana at an additional Colorado licensed premises contiguous or not contiguous with the licensed premises of the person's medical marijuana center license or the person's medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing license.

(2) Optional premises cultivation licenses may be combined in a common area solely for the purposes of growing and cultivating medical marijuana and used to provide medical marijuana to more than one licensed medical marijuana center or licensed medical marijuana-infused product manufacturer so long as the holder of the optional premise cultivation license is also a common owner of each licensed medical marijuana center or licensed medical marijuana-infused product manufacturer to which medical marijuana is provided. In accordance with promulgated rules relating to plant and product tracking requirements, each optional premises cultivation licensee shall supply medical marijuana only to its associated licensed medical marijuana centers or licensed medical marijuana-infused product manufacturers.

12-43.3-404. Medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing license. (1) A medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing license may be issued to a person who manufactures medical marijuana-infused products, pursuant to the terms and conditions of this article.

(2) Medical marijuana-infused products shall be prepared on a licensed premises that is used exclusively for the manufacture and preparation of medical marijuana-infused products and using equipment that is used exclusively for the manufacture and preparation of medical marijuana-infused products.

(3) A medical marijuana-infused products licensee shall have a written agreement or contract with a medical marijuana center licensee, which contract shall at a minimum set forth the total amount of medical marijuana obtained from a medical marijuana center licensee to be used in the manufacturing process, and the total amount of medical marijuana-infused products to be manufactured from the medical marijuana obtained from the medical marijuana center. A medical marijuana-infused products licensee shall not use medical marijuana from more than five different medical marijuana centers in the production of one medical marijuana-infused product. The medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing licensee may sell its products to any licensed medical marijuana center.

(4) All licensed premises on which medical marijuana-infused products are manufactured shall meet the sanitary standards for medical marijuana-infused product preparation promulgated pursuant to section 12-43.3-202 (2) (a) (XII).

(5) The medical marijuana-infused product shall be sealed and conspicuously labeled in compliance with this article and any rules promulgated pursuant to this article. The labeling of medical marijuana-infused products is a matter of statewide concern.

(6) Medical marijuana-infused products may not be consumed on a premises licensed pursuant to this article.

(7) Notwithstanding any other provision of state law, sales of medical marijuana-infused products shall not be exempt from state or local sales tax.

(8) A medical marijuana-infused products licensee that has an optional premises cultivation license shall not sell any of the medical marijuana that it cultivates except for the medical marijuana that is contained in medical marijuana-infused products.

(9) (a) A medical marijuana-infused products licensee may not have more than five hundred medical marijuana plants on its premises or at its optional premises cultivation operation; except that the director of the division that regulates medical marijuana may grant a waiver in excess of five hundred marijuana plants based on the consideration of the factors in paragraph (b) of this subsection (9).

(b) The director of the division that regulates medical marijuana shall consider the following factors in determining whether to grant the waiver described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (9):

- (I) The nature of the products manufactured;
- (II) The business need;
- (III) Existing business contracts with licensed medical marijuana centers for the production of medical marijuana-infused products; and
- (IV) The ability to contract with licensed medical marijuana centers for the production of medical marijuana-infused products.

(10) A medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer may provide a sample of its products to a laboratory that has an occupational license from the state licensing authority for testing and research purposes. The state licensing authority shall promulgate rules pursuant to its authority in section 12-43.3-202 (1) (b) related to acceptable testing and research practices. A laboratory that has an occupational license from the state licensing authority for testing purposes shall not have any interest in a licensed medical marijuana center or a licensed medical marijuana-infused products manufacturer.

FEES

12-43.3-501. Medical marijuana license cash fund. (1) All moneys collected by the state licensing authority pursuant to this article shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the medical marijuana license cash fund, which fund is hereby created and referred to in this section as the “fund”. The moneys in the fund shall be subject to annual appropriation by the general assembly to the department of revenue for the direct and indirect costs associated with implementing this article. Any moneys in the fund not expended for the purpose of this article may be invested by the state treasurer as provided by law. All interest and income derived from the investment and deposit of moneys in the fund shall be credited to the fund. Any unexpended and unencumbered moneys remaining in the fund at the end of a fiscal year shall remain in the fund and shall not be credited or transferred to the general fund or another fund.

(2) The executive director of the department of revenue by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of one or more of the fees if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of one or more of the fees is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the executive director by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of one or more of the fees as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

(3) (a) The state licensing authority shall establish fees for processing the following types of applications, licenses, notices, or reports required to be submitted to the state licensing authority:

- (I) Applications for licenses listed in section 12-43.3-401 and rules promulgated pursuant to that section;
- (II) Applications to change location pursuant to section 12-43.3-310 and rules promulgated pursuant to that section;
- (III) Applications for transfer of ownership pursuant to section 12-43.3-310 and rules promulgated pursuant to that section;
- (IV) License renewal and expired license renewal applications pursuant to section 12-43.3-311; and
- (V) Licenses as listed in section 12-43.3-401.

(b) The amounts of such fees, when added to the other fees transferred to the fund pursuant to this section, shall reflect the actual direct and indirect costs of the state licensing authority in the administration and enforcement of this article so that the fees avoid exceeding the statutory limit on uncommitted reserves in administrative agency cash funds as set forth in section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S.

(c) The state licensing authority may charge applicants licensed under this article a fee for the cost of each fingerprint analysis and background investigation undertaken to qualify new officers, directors, managers, or employees.

(d) At least annually, the state licensing authority shall review the amounts of the fees and, if necessary, adjust the amounts to reflect the direct and indirect costs of the state licensing authority.

(4) Except as provided in subsection (5) of this section, the state licensing authority shall establish a basic fee that shall be paid at the time of service of any subpoena upon the state licensing authority, plus a fee for meals and a fee for mileage at the rate prescribed for state officers and employees in section 24-9-104, C.R.S., for each mile actually and necessarily traveled in going to and returning from the place named in the subpoena. If the person named in the subpoena is required to attend the place named in the subpoena for more than one day, there shall be paid, in advance, a sum to be established by the state licensing authority for each day of attendance to cover the expenses of the person named in the subpoena.

(5) The subpoena fee established pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall not be applicable to any federal, state or local governmental agency.

12-43.3-502. Fees - allocation. (1) Except as otherwise provided, all fees and fines provided for by this article shall be paid to the department of revenue, which shall transmit the fees to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall credit the fees to the medical marijuana license cash fund created in section 12-43.3-501.

(2) The expenditures of the state licensing authority shall be paid out of appropriations from the medical marijuana license cash fund created in section 12-43.3-501.

PART 6

DISCIPLINARY ACTIONS

12-43.3-601. Suspension - revocation - fines. (1) In addition to any other sanctions prescribed by this article or rules promulgated pursuant to this article, the state licensing authority or a local licensing authority has the power, on its own motion or on complaint, after investigation and opportunity for a public hearing at which the licensee shall be afforded an opportunity to be heard, to suspend or revoke a license issued by the respective authority for a violation by the licensee or by any of the agents or employees of the licensee of the provisions of this article, or any of the rules promulgated pursuant to this article, or of any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of the license issued by the state or local licensing authority. The state licensing authority or a local licensing authority has the power to administer oaths and issue subpoenas to require the presence of persons and the production of papers, books, and records necessary to the determination of a hearing that the state or local licensing authority is authorized to conduct.

(2) The state or local licensing authority shall provide notice of suspension, revocation, fine, or other sanction, as well as the required notice of the hearing pursuant to subsection (1) of this section, by mailing the same in writing to the licensee at the address contained in the license. Except in the case of a summary suspension, a suspension shall not be for a longer period than six months. If a license is suspended or revoked, a part of the fees paid therefore shall not be returned to the licensee. Any license or permit may be summarily suspended by the issuing licensing authority without notice pending any prosecution, investigation, or public hearing pursuant to the terms of section 24-4-104 (4), C.R.S. Nothing in this section shall prevent the summary suspension of a license pursuant to section 24-4-104 (4), C.R.S. Each patient registered with a medical marijuana center that has had its license summarily suspended may immediately transfer his or her primary center to another licensed medical marijuana center.

(3) (a) Whenever a decision of the state licensing authority or a local licensing authority suspending a license for fourteen days or less becomes final, the licensee may, before the operative date of the suspension, petition for permission to pay a fine in lieu of having the license suspended for all or part of the suspension period. Upon the receipt of the petition, the state or local licensing authority may, in its sole discretion, stay the proposed suspension and cause any investigation to be made which it deems desirable and may, in its sole discretion, grant the petition if the state or local licensing authority is satisfied that:

(I) The public welfare and morals would not be impaired by permitting the licensee to operate during the period set for suspension and that the payment of the fine will achieve the desired disciplinary purposes;

(II) The books and records of the licensee are kept in such a manner that the loss of sales that the licensee would have suffered had the suspension gone into effect can be determined with reasonable accuracy; and

(III) The licensee has not had his or her license suspended or revoked, nor had any suspension stayed by payment of a fine, during the two years immediately preceding the date of the motion or complaint that resulted in a final decision to suspend the license or permit.

(b) The fine accepted shall be not less than five hundred dollars nor more than one hundred thousand dollars.

(c) Payment of a fine pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (3) shall be in the form of cash or in the form of a certified check or cashier's check made payable to the state or local licensing authority, whichever is appropriate.

(4) Upon payment of the fine pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the state or local licensing authority shall enter its further order permanently staying the imposition of the suspension. If the fine is paid to a local licensing authority, the governing body of the authority shall cause the moneys to be paid into the general fund of the local licensing authority. Fines paid to the state licensing authority pursuant to subsection (3) of this section shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the medical marijuana license cash fund created in section 12-43.3-501.

(5) In connection with a petition pursuant to subsection (3) of this section, the authority of the state or local licensing authority is limited to the granting of such stays as are necessary for the authority to complete its investigation and make its findings and, if the authority makes such findings, to the granting of an order permanently staying the imposition of the entire suspension or that portion of the suspension not otherwise conditionally stayed.

(6) If the state or local licensing authority does not make the findings required in paragraph (a) of subsection (3) of this section and does not order the suspension permanently stayed, the suspension shall go into effect on the operative date finally set by the state or local licensing authority.

(7) Each local licensing authority shall report all actions taken to impose fines, suspensions, and revocations to the state licensing authority in a manner required by the state licensing authority. No later than January 15 of each year, the state licensing authority shall compile a report of the preceding year's actions in which fines, suspensions, or revocations were imposed by local licensing authorities and by the state licensing authority. The state licensing authority shall file one copy of the report with the chief clerk of the house of representatives, one copy with the secretary of the senate, and six copies in the joint legislative library.

12-43.3-602. Disposition of unauthorized marijuana or marijuana-infused products and related materials. (1) The provisions of this section shall apply in addition to any criminal, civil, or administrative penalties and in addition to any other penalties prescribed by this article or any rules promulgated pursuant to this article. Any provisions in this article related to law enforcement shall be considered a cumulative right of the people in the enforcement of the criminal laws.

(2) Every licensee licensed under this article shall be deemed, by virtue of applying for, holding, or renewing such person's license, to have expressly consented to the procedures set forth in this section.

(3) A state or local agency shall not be required to cultivate or care for any marijuana or marijuana-infused product belonging to or seized from a licensee. A state or local agency shall not be authorized to sell marijuana, medical or otherwise.

(4) If the state or local licensing authority issues a final agency order imposing a disciplinary action against a licensee pursuant to section 12-43.3-601, then, in addition to any other remedies, the licensing authority's final agency order may specify that some or all of the licensee's marijuana or marijuana-infused product is not medical marijuana or a medical marijuana-infused product and is an illegal controlled substance. The order may further specify that the licensee shall lose any interest in any of the marijuana or marijuana-infused product even if the marijuana or marijuana-infused product previously qualified as medical marijuana or a medical marijuana-infused product. The final agency order may direct the destruction of any such marijuana and marijuana-infused products, except as provided in subsections (5) and (6) of this section. The authorized destruction may include the incidental destruction of any containers, equipment, supplies, and other property associated with the marijuana or marijuana-infused product.

(5) Following the issuance of a final agency order by the licensing authority imposing a disciplinary action against a licensee and ordering destruction authorized by subsection (4) of this section, a licensee shall have fifteen days within which to file a petition for stay of agency action with the district court. The action shall be filed in the city and county of Denver, which shall be deemed to be the residence of the state licensing authority for purposes of this section. The licensee shall serve the petition in accordance with the rules of civil procedure. The district court shall promptly rule upon the petition and shall determine whether the licensee has a substantial likelihood of success on judicial review so as to warrant delay of the destruction authorized by subsection (4) of this section or whether other circumstances, including but not limited to the need for preservation of evidence, warrant delay of such destruction. If destruction is so delayed pursuant to judicial order, the court shall issue an order setting forth terms and conditions pursuant to which the licensee may maintain the marijuana and marijuana-infused product pending judicial review, and prohibiting the licensee from using or distributing the marijuana or marijuana-infused product pending the review. The licensing authority shall not carry out the destruction authorized by subsection (4) of this section until fifteen days have passed without the filing of a petition for stay of agency action, or until the court has issued an order denying stay of agency action pursuant to this subsection (5).

(6) The licensing authority shall not carry out the destruction authorized by subsection (4) of this section until it has notified the district attorney for the judicial district in which the marijuana is located to determine whether the marijuana or product constitutes evidence in a criminal proceeding such that it should not be destroyed, and until fifteen days have passed from the date of the issuance of such notice.

(7) On or before January 1, 2012, the state licensing authority shall promulgate rules governing the implementation of this section.

PART 7

INSPECTION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS

12-43.3-701. Inspection procedures. (1) Each licensee shall keep a complete set of all records necessary to show fully the business transactions of the licensee, all of which shall be open at all times during business hours for the inspection and examination of the state licensing authority or its duly authorized representatives. The state licensing authority may require any licensee to furnish such information as it considers necessary for the proper administration of this article and may require an audit to be made of the books of account and records on such occasions as it may consider necessary by an auditor to be selected by the state licensing authority who shall likewise have access to all books and records of the licensee, and the expense thereof shall be paid by the licensee.

(2) The licensed premises, including any places of storage where medical marijuana is grown, stored, cultivated, sold, or dispensed, shall be subject to inspection by the state or local licensing authorities and their investigators, during all business hours and other times of apparent activity, for the purpose of inspection or investigation. For examination of any inventory or books and records required to be kept by the licensees, access shall be required during business hours. Where any part of the licensed premises consists of a locked area, upon demand to the licensee, such area shall be made available for inspection without delay, and, upon request by authorized representatives of the state or local licensing authority, the licensee shall open the area for inspection.

(3) Each licensee shall retain all books and records necessary to show fully the business transactions of the licensee for a period of the current tax year and the three immediately prior tax years.

PART 9

UNLAWFUL ACTS - ENFORCEMENT

12-43.3-901. Unlawful acts - exceptions. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this article, it is unlawful for a person:

(a) To consume medical marijuana in a licensed medical marijuana center, and it shall be unlawful for a medical marijuana licensee to allow medical marijuana to be consumed upon its licensed premises;

(b) With knowledge, to permit or fail to prevent the use of his or her registry identification by any other person for the unlawful purchasing of medical marijuana.

(c) and (d) (Deleted by amendment, L. 2011, (HB 11-1043), ch. 266, p. 1210, § 16, effective July 1, 2011.)

(2) It is unlawful for a person to buy, sell, transfer, give away, or acquire medical marijuana except as allowed pursuant to this article.

(3) It is unlawful for a person licensed pursuant to this article:

(a) To be within a limited-access area unless the person's license badge is displayed as required by this article, except as provided in section 12-43.3-701;

(b) To fail to designate areas of ingress and egress for limited-access areas and post signs in conspicuous locations as required by this article;

(c) To fail to report a transfer required by section 12-43.3-310 (11); or

(d) To fail to report the name of or a change in managers as required by section 12-43.3-310 (12).

(4) It is unlawful for any person licensed to sell medical marijuana pursuant to this article:

(a) To display any signs that are inconsistent with local laws or regulations;

(b) To use advertising material that is misleading, deceptive, or false, or that is designed to appeal to minors;

(c) To provide public premises, or any portion thereof, for the purpose of consumption of medical marijuana in any form;

(d) (I) To sell medical marijuana to a person not licensed pursuant to this article or to a person not able to produce a valid patient registry identification card, unless the person has a copy of a current and complete new application for the medical marijuana registry administered by the department of public health and environment that is documented by a certified mail return receipt as having been submitted to the department of public health and environment within the preceding thirty-five days and the employee assisting the person has contacted the department of public health and environment and, as a result, determined the person's application has not been denied. Notwithstanding any provision in this subparagraph (I) to the contrary, a person under twenty-one years of age shall not be employed to sell or dispense medical marijuana at a medical marijuana center or grow or cultivate medical marijuana at an optional premises cultivation operation.

(II) If a licensee or a licensee's employee has reasonable cause to believe that a person is exhibiting a fraudulent patient registry identification card in an attempt to obtain medical marijuana, the licensee or employee shall be authorized to confiscate the fraudulent patient registry identification card, if possible, and shall, within seventy-two hours after the confiscation, turn it over to the state health department or local law enforcement agency. The failure to confiscate the fraudulent patient registry identification card or to turn it over to the state health department or a state or local law enforcement agency within seventy-two hours after the confiscation shall not constitute a criminal offense.

(e) To possess more than six medical marijuana plants and two ounces of medical marijuana for each patient who has registered the center as his or her primary center pursuant to section 25-1.5-106 (8) (f), C.R.S.; except that a medical marijuana center may have an amount that exceeds the six-plant and two-ounce product per patient limit if the center sells to patients that are authorized to have more than six plants and two ounces of product. In the case of a patient authorized to exceed the six-plant and two-ounce limit, the center shall obtain documentation from the patient's physician that the patient needs more than six plants and two ounces of product.

(f) To offer for sale or solicit an order for medical marijuana in person except within the licensed premises;

(g) To have in possession or upon the licensed premises any medical marijuana, the sale of which is not permitted by the license;

(h) To buy medical marijuana from a person not licensed to sell as provided by this article;

(i) To sell medical marijuana except in the permanent location specifically designated in the license for sale;

(j) To have on the licensed premises any medical marijuana or marijuana paraphernalia that shows evidence of the medical marijuana having been consumed or partially consumed;

(k) To require a medical marijuana center or medical marijuana center with an optional premises cultivation license to make delivery to any premises other than the specific licensed premises where the medical marijuana is to be sold;

(l) To sell, serve, or distribute medical marijuana at any time other than between the hours of 8 a.m. and 7 p.m. Monday through Sunday;

(m) To violate the provisions of section 6-2-103 or 6-2-105, C.R.S.;

(n) To burn or otherwise destroy marijuana or any substance containing marijuana for the purpose of evading an investigation or preventing seizure; or

(o) To abandon a licensed premises or otherwise cease operation without notifying the state and local licensing authorities at least forty-eight hours in advance and without accounting for and forfeiting to the state licensing authority for destruction all marijuana or products containing marijuana.

(5) Except as provided in sections 12-43.3-402 (4), 12-43.3-403, and 12-43.3-404, it is unlawful for a medical marijuana center, medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing operation with an optional premises cultivation license, or medical marijuana center with an optional premises cultivation license to sell, deliver, or cause to be delivered to a licensee any medical marijuana not grown upon its licensed premises, or for a licensee or medical marijuana center with an optional premises cultivation license or medical marijuana-infused products manufacturing operation with an optional premises cultivation license to sell, possess, or permit sale of medical marijuana not grown upon its licensed premises. A violation of the provisions of this subsection (5) by a licensee shall be grounds for the immediate revocation of the license granted under this article.

(6) It shall be unlawful for a physician who makes patient referrals to a licensed medical marijuana center to receive anything of value from the medical marijuana center licensee or its agents, servants, officers, or owners or anyone financially interested in the licensee, and it shall be unlawful for a licensee licensed pursuant to this article to offer anything of value to a physician for making patient referrals to the licensed medical marijuana center.

(6.5) A peace officer or a law enforcement agency shall not use any patient information to make traffic stops pursuant to section 42-4-1302, C.R.S.

(7) A person who commits any acts that are unlawful pursuant to this article or the rules authorized and adopted pursuant to this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., except for violations that would also constitute a violation of title 18, C.R.S., which violation shall be charged and prosecuted pursuant to title 18, C.R.S.

(3) “Director” means the director of the division of professions and occupations or the director’s designee.

(4) “Division” means the division of professions and occupations in the department created in section 24-34-102, C.R.S.

(5) “School speech-language pathologist” means a person licensed by the department of education to provide speech-language pathology services that are paid for by an administrative unit or a state-operated program. “School speech-language pathologist” includes a school speech-language pathology assistant authorized by the department of education pursuant to section 22-60.5-111 (10), C.R.S., to provide speech-language pathology services that are paid for by an administrative unit or a state-operated program.

(6) “Speech-language pathologist” or “certificate holder” means a person certified to practice speech-language pathology under this article.

(7) (a) “Speech-language pathology” means the application of principles, methods, and procedures related to the development, disorders, and effectiveness of human communication and related functions, which includes providing prevention, screening, consultation, assessment or evaluation, treatment, intervention, management, counseling, collaboration, and referral services for disorders of:

(I) Speech, such as speech sound production, fluency, resonance, and voice;

(II) Language, such as phonology, morphology, syntax, semantics, pragmatic and social communication skills, and literacy skills;

(III) Feeding and swallowing; and

(IV) Cognitive aspects of communication, such as attention, memory, executive functioning, and problem solving.

(b) “Speech-language pathology” also includes establishing augmentative and alternative communication techniques and strategies, including the following:

(I) Developing, selecting, and prescribing augmentative or alternative communication systems and devices, such as speech generating devices;

(II) Providing services to individuals with hearing loss and their families, such as auditory training, speech reading, or speech and language intervention secondary to hearing loss;

(III) Screening individuals for hearing loss or middle ear pathology using conventional pure-tone air conduction methods, including otoscopic inspection, otoacoustic emissions, or screening tympanometry;

(IV) Using instrumentation such as videofluoroscopy, endoscopy, or stroboscopy to observe, collect data, and measure parameters of communication and swallowing;

(V) Selecting, fitting, and establishing effective use of prosthetic or adaptive devices for communication, swallowing, or other upper aerodigestive functions, not including sensory devices used by individuals with hearing loss or the orthodontic movement of teeth for the purpose of correction of speech pathology conditions; and

(VI) Providing services to modify or enhance communication performance, such as accent modification and personal or professional communication efficacy.

(8) “State-operated program” has the same meaning as set forth in section 22-20-103 (28), C.R.S.

12-43.7-104. Use of titles restricted. (1) Only a person required to be and who is certified as a speech-language pathologist under this article or licensed by the Colorado department of education to provide speech-language pathology services may advertise as or use the title “speech-language pathologist”, “speech pathologist”, “speech therapist”, “speech correctionist”, “speech clinician”, “language pathologist”, “voice therapist”, “voice pathologist”, “aphasiologist”, or any other generally accepted terms, letters, or figures that indicate that the person is a certified speech-language pathologist.

(2) For a certificate holder who has successfully completed a doctoral degree in communication sciences and disorders as described in section 12-43.7-106 (1) (a), a certification to practice speech-language pathology issued pursuant to this article entitles the certificate holder to use the title “Doctor” or “Dr.” when accompanied by the terms “speech-language pathology” or the letters “S.L.P.”

12-43.7-105. Certification required - exception. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this article, on and after July 1, 2013, a person shall not practice speech-language pathology or represent or hold himself or herself out as being able to practice speech-language pathology in this state without possessing a valid certification issued by the director in accordance with this article and any rules adopted under this article.

(2) A person described in section 12-43.7-108 (1) is not required to obtain certification under this article.

12-43.7-106. Certification - application - qualifications - provisional certification - renewal - fees - rules. (1) Educational and experiential requirements. Every applicant for a certification as a speech-language pathologist must have:

(a) Successfully completed a master’s or higher degree in communication sciences and disorders granted by an accredited institution of higher education recognized by the United States department of education;

(b) Successfully completed a speech-language pathology clinical fellowship approved by the director, as documented by the supervising clinician or a national certifying body approved by the director; and

(c) Passed the national examination adopted by the American speech-language-hearing association or its successor association or any other examination approved by the director.

(2) Application. When an applicant has fulfilled the requirements of subsection (1) of this section, the applicant may apply for certification in the manner required by the director. The applicant shall submit an application fee with his or her application in an amount determined by the director. Additionally, if the applicant will provide speech-language pathology services to patients, the applicant shall submit to the director proof that the applicant has purchased and is maintaining or is covered by professional liability insurance in an amount determined by the director by rule.

(3) Certification. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (3), when an applicant has fulfilled the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section, the director shall issue a certification to the applicant.

(b) The director may deny a certification if the applicant has committed any act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-43.7-110.

(4) Certification by endorsement. (a) An applicant for certification by endorsement shall file an application and pay a fee as determined by the director and shall hold a current, valid license or certification in a jurisdiction that requires qualifications substantially equivalent to those required for certification by subsection (1) of this section.

(b) An applicant for certification by endorsement shall submit with the application verification that the applicant has actively practiced for a period of time determined by rules of the director or otherwise maintained competency as determined by the director. Additionally, if the applicant will provide speech-language pathology services to patients, the applicant shall submit to the director proof that the applicant has purchased and is maintaining or is covered by professional liability insurance in an amount determined by the director by rule.

(c) Upon receipt of all documents required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this subsection (4), the director shall review the application and make a determination of the applicant's qualification to be certified by endorsement.

(d) The director may deny the certification by endorsement if the applicant has committed an act that would be grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-43.7-110.

(5) Certification renewal. (a) A certificate holder shall renew the certification issued under this article according to a schedule of renewal dates established by the director. The certificate holder shall submit an application in the manner required by the director and shall pay a renewal fee in an amount determined by the director.

(b) Certifications shall be renewed or reinstated in accordance with the schedule established by the director, and the renewal or reinstatement shall be granted pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a certificate holder fails to renew his or her certification pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the certification expires. Any person whose certification has expired and who continues to practice speech-language pathology is subject to the penalties provided in this article or section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S., for reinstatement.

(6) Fees. (a) The director shall establish and collect fees under this article pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and shall base the fees charged to speech-language pathologists certified under this article on the cost to administer the program divided by the total number of speech-language pathologists, as required by section 24-34-105, C.R.S. All fees collected under this article shall be determined, collected, and appropriated in the same manner as set forth in section 24-34-105, C.R.S., and periodically adjusted in accordance with section 24-75-402, C.R.S.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this article, the division shall transmit all fees collected pursuant to this article to the state treasurer, who shall credit the fees to the division of professions and occupations cash fund created pursuant to section 24-34-105 (2) (b), C.R.S. The general assembly shall make annual appropriations from the division of professions and occupations cash fund for expenditures of the division incurred in the performance of its duties under this article.

12-43.7-107. Continuing professional competency - rules. (1) (a) A speech-language pathologist shall maintain continuing professional competency to practice.

(b) The director shall establish a continuing professional competency program that includes, at a minimum, the following elements:

(I) A self-assessment of the knowledge and skills of a speech-language pathologist seeking to renew or reinstate a certification;

(II) Development, execution, and documentation of a learning plan based on the assessment; and

(III) Periodic demonstration of knowledge and skills through documentation of activities necessary to ensure at least minimal ability to safely practice the profession; except that a speech-language pathologist certified pursuant to this article need not retake any examination required by section 12-43.7-106 for initial certification.

(2) The director shall establish that a speech-language pathologist satisfies the continuing competency requirements of this section if the speech-language pathologist meets the continuing professional competency requirements of one of the following entities:

(a) An accrediting body approved by the director; or

(b) An entity approved by the director.

(3) (a) After the program is established, a speech-language pathologist shall satisfy the requirements of the program in order to renew or reinstate a certification to practice speech-language pathology.

(b) The requirements of this section apply to individual speech-language pathologists, and nothing in this section requires a person who employs or contracts with a speech-language pathologist to comply with this section.

(4) Records of assessments or other documentation developed or submitted in connection with the continuing professional competency program are confidential and not subject to inspection by the public or discovery in connection with a civil action against a speech-language pathologist or other professional regulated under this title. A person or the director shall not use the records or documents unless used by the director to determine whether a speech-language pathologist is maintaining continuing professional competency to engage in the profession.

(5) As used in this section, "continuing professional competency" means the ongoing ability of a speech-language pathologist to learn, integrate, and apply the knowledge, skill, and judgment to practice as a speech-language pathologist according to generally accepted standards and professional ethical standards.

12-43.7-108. Scope of article - exclusions. (1) This article does not prevent or restrict the practice, services, or activities of:

(a) A school speech-language pathologist whose compensation for speech-language pathology services is paid solely by an administrative unit or state-operated program;

(b) A person licensed or otherwise regulated in this state by any other law from engaging in his or her profession or occupation as defined in the law under which he or she is regulated;

(c) A person pursuing a course of study leading to a degree in speech-language pathology at an educational institution with an accredited speech-language pathology program if that person is designated by a title that clearly indicates his or her status as a student and if he or she acts under appropriate instruction and supervision;

(d) A person participating in good faith in a clinical fellowship if the experience constitutes a part of the experience necessary to meet the requirement of section 12-43.7-106 (1) and the person acts under appropriate supervision; or

(e) Any legally qualified speech-language pathologist from another state or country when providing services on behalf of a temporarily absent speech-language pathologist certified in this state, so long as the uncertified speech-language pathologist is acting in accordance with rules adopted by the director. The uncertified practice must not occur more than once in any twelve-month period.

(2) Nothing in this article requires or allows the department of education, the department of health care policy and financing, or any other state department to adopt or apply the standards contained in this article:

(a) As the standards for endorsing or otherwise authorizing school speech-language pathologists to provide speech-language pathology services that are paid for by an administrative unit or state-operated program; or

(b) For purposes of determining whether medicaid reimbursement may be obtained for speech-language pathology services.

(3) Nothing in this article requires a professional licensed, certified, registered, or otherwise regulated under this title or title 22, C.R.S., to obtain certification under this article, or subjects the professional to discipline under this article, for engaging in activities that are within his or her professional scope of practice.

12-43.7-110. Grounds for discipline. (1) The director may take disciplinary action against a certificate holder pursuant to section 12-43.7-111 if the director finds that the certificate holder has represented or held himself or herself out as a certified speech-language pathologist after the expiration, suspension, or revocation of his or her certification.

(2) The director may revoke, suspend, or deny a certification, place a certificate holder on probation, issue a letter of admonition or a confidential letter of concern, impose a fine against a certificate holder, or issue a cease-and-desist order to a certificate holder in accordance with section 12-43.7-111 upon proof that the certificate holder:

(a) Has engaged in a sexual act with a person receiving services while a therapeutic relationship existed or within six months immediately following termination of the therapeutic relationship in writing. For the purposes of this paragraph (a):

(I) "Sexual act" means sexual contact, sexual intrusion, or sexual penetration, as defined in section 18-3-401, C.R.S.

(II) "Therapeutic relationship" means the period beginning with the initial evaluation and ending upon the written termination of treatment.

(b) Has falsified information in an application or has attempted to obtain or has obtained a certification by fraud, deception, or misrepresentation;

(c) Excessively or habitually uses or abuses alcohol or habit-forming drugs or habitually uses a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102, C.R.S., or other drugs having similar effects; except that the director has the discretion not to discipline the certificate holder if he or she is participating in good faith in a program approved by the director designed to end the use or abuse;

(d) (I) Failed to notify the director, as required by section 12-43.7-115, of a physical or mental illness or condition that impacts the speech-language pathologist's ability to perform speech-language pathology with reasonable skill and safety to patients;

(II) Failed to act within the limitations created by a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the certificate holder unable to perform speech-language pathology with reasonable skill and safety to the patient; or

(III) Failed to comply with the limitations agreed to under a confidential agreement entered pursuant to section 12-43.7-115;

(e) Has violated this article or aided or abetted or knowingly permitted any person to violate this article, a rule adopted under this article, or any lawful order of the director;

(f) Has failed to respond to a request or order of the director;

(g) Has been convicted of or pled guilty or nolo contendere to a felony or any crime related to the certificate holder's practice of speech-language pathology or has committed an act specified in section 12-43.7-112. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of the conviction or plea is conclusive evidence of the conviction or plea. In considering the disciplinary action, the director is governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(h) Has fraudulently obtained, furnished, or sold any speech-language pathology diploma, certificate, certification, renewal of certification, or record or aided or abetted such act;

(i) Has failed to notify the director of the suspension or revocation of the person's past or currently held license, certificate, or certification required to practice speech-language pathology in this or any other jurisdiction;

(j) Has failed to respond in an honest, materially responsive, and timely manner to a complaint against the certificate holder;

(k) Has resorted to fraud, misrepresentation, or deception in applying for, securing, renewing, or seeking reinstatement of a certification in this or any other state, in applying for professional liability coverage, or in taking the examination required by this article;

(l) Has failed to refer a patient to the appropriate licensed, certified, or registered health care professional when the services required by the patient are beyond the level of competence of the speech-language pathologist or beyond the scope of speech-language pathology practice;

(m) Has refused to submit to a physical or mental examination when ordered by the director pursuant to section 12-43.7-114;

- (n) Has failed to maintain or is not covered by professional liability insurance as required by section 12-43.7-106 (2) or (4) in the amount determined by the director by rule;
 - (o) Has willfully or negligently acted in a manner inconsistent with the health or safety of persons under his or her care;
 - (p) Has negligently or willfully practiced speech-language pathology in a manner that fails to meet generally accepted standards for speech-language pathology practice;
 - (q) Has failed to make essential entries on patient records or falsified or made incorrect entries of an essential nature on patient records; or
 - (r) Has otherwise violated any provision of this article or lawful order or rule of the director.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2) of this section, the director need not find that the actions that are grounds for discipline were willful but may consider whether the actions were willful when determining the nature of disciplinary sanctions to impose.

12-43.7-111. Disciplinary actions - judicial review. (1) (a) The director may commence a proceeding to discipline a certificate holder when the director has reasonable grounds to believe that the certificate holder has committed an act enumerated in section 12-43.7-110 or has violated a lawful order or rule of the director.

(b) In any proceeding under this section, the director may accept as evidence of grounds for disciplinary action any disciplinary action taken against a certificate holder in another jurisdiction if the violation that prompted the disciplinary action in the other jurisdiction would be grounds for disciplinary action under this article.

(2) The director shall conduct disciplinary proceedings in accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the director or an administrative law judge, as determined by the director, shall conduct the hearing and opportunity for review pursuant to that article. The director may exercise all powers and duties conferred by this article during the disciplinary proceedings.

(3) (a) The director may request the attorney general to seek an injunction, in any court of competent jurisdiction, to enjoin a person from committing an act prohibited by this article. When seeking an injunction under this paragraph (a), the attorney general is not required to allege or prove the inadequacy of any remedy at law or that substantial or irreparable damage is likely to result from a continued violation of this article.

(b) (I) In accordance with article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and this article, the director may investigate, hold hearings, and gather evidence in all matters related to the exercise and performance of the powers and duties of the director.

(II) In order to aid the director in any hearing or investigation instituted pursuant to this section, the director or an administrative law judge appointed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this subsection (3) may administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant records, papers, books, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter before the director or an administrative law judge.

(III) Upon failure of any witness or certificate holder to comply with a subpoena or process and upon application by the director with notice to the subpoenaed person or certificate holder, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or certificate holder resides or conducts business may issue an order requiring the person or certificate holder to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. If the person or certificate holder fails to obey the order of the court, the district court may hold the person or certificate holder in contempt of court.

(c) The director may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct hearings, take evidence, and make and report findings to the director.

(4) (a) The director, the director's staff, any person acting as a witness or consultant to the director, any witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article, and any person who lodges a complaint pursuant to this article is immune from liability in any civil action brought against him or her for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as director, staff, consultant, witness, or complainant, respectively, if the individual was acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity, made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted, and acted in the reasonable belief that his or her action was warranted by the facts.

(b) A person participating in good faith in making a complaint or report or in an investigative or administrative proceeding pursuant to this section is immune from any civil or criminal liability that otherwise might result by reason of the participation.

(5) A final action of the director is subject to judicial review by the court of appeals pursuant to section 24-4-106 (11), C.R.S. The director may institute a judicial proceeding in accordance with section 24-4-106, C.R.S., to enforce an order of the director.

(6) When a complaint or an investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, warrants formal action, the director shall not resolve the complaint by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(7) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the director and, in the opinion of the director, the complaint should be dismissed, but the director has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the certificate holder that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, the director may send a confidential letter of concern to the certificate holder.

(8) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the director, does not warrant formal action but should not be dismissed as being without merit, the director may send a letter of admonition to the certificate holder.

(b) When the director sends a letter of admonition to a certificate holder, the director shall notify the certificate holder of his or her right to request in writing, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that the director initiate formal disciplinary proceedings to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct described in the letter of admonition.

(c) If the certificate holder timely requests adjudication, the director shall vacate the letter of admonition and shall process the matter by means of formal disciplinary proceedings.

(9) The director may include in a disciplinary order that allows the certificate holder to continue to practice on probation any conditions the director deems appropriate to assure that the certificate holder is physically, mentally, morally, and otherwise qualified to practice speech-language pathology in accordance with generally accepted professional standards of practice. If the certificate holder fails to comply with any conditions imposed by the director pursuant to this subsection (9), and the failure to comply is not due to conditions beyond the certificate holder's control, the director may order suspension of the certificate holder's certification to practice speech-language pathology in this state until the certificate holder complies with the conditions.

(10) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a certificate holder is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required certification, the director may issue an order to cease and desist the activity. The order must set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to constitute the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or uncertified practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (10), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. The director shall conduct the hearing pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(11) (a) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other provision of this article, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the director may issue to the person an order to show cause as to why the director should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or uncertified practice.

(b) The director shall promptly notify a person against whom he or she issues an order to show cause pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (11) and shall include in the notice a copy of the order, a statement of the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the director for a hearing on the order. The director may serve the notice on the person against whom the order has been issued by personal service, by first-class, postage prepaid United States mail, or in another manner as may be practicable. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this paragraph (b) constitutes notice of the order to the person.

(c) (I) The director shall conduct the hearing on an order to show cause no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date the director transmits or serves the notification as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11). The director may continue the hearing by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the director conduct the hearing later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (11) does not appear at the hearing, the director may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served on the person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (11) and any other evidence related to the matter that the director deems appropriate. The director shall issue the order within ten days after the director's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order becomes final as to that person by operation of law. The director shall conduct the hearing pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the director reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required certification, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting a violation of this article, the director may issue a final cease-and-desist order directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or uncertified practices.

(IV) The director shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (11), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order is issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) is effective when issued and is a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(12) If it appears to the director, based upon credible evidence presented to the director, that a person has engaged or is about to engage in an uncertified act or practice; an act or practice constituting a violation of this article, a rule promulgated pursuant to this article, or an order issued pursuant to this article; or an act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the director may enter into a stipulation with the person.

(13) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the director may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested the attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(14) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the director's determination or of the director's final order as provided in subsection (5) of this section.

(15) Any person whose certification is revoked or who surrenders his or her certification to avoid discipline is ineligible to apply for certification under this article for at least two years after the date of revocation of the certification. The director shall treat a subsequent application for certification from a person whose certification was revoked as an application for a new certification under this article.

12-43.7-112. Unauthorized practice - penalties. A person who practices or offers or attempts to practice speech-language pathology without an active certification issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section

18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense. For the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 1 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S.

12-43.7-114. Mental and physical examination of certificate holders. (1) If the director has reasonable cause to believe that a certificate holder is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety, the director may order the certificate holder to take a mental or physical examination administered by a physician or other licensed health care professional designated by the director. Except where due to circumstances beyond the certificate holder's control, if the certificate holder fails or refuses to undergo a mental or physical examination, the director may suspend the certificate holder's certification until the director has made a determination of the certificate holder's fitness to practice. The director shall proceed with an order for examination and shall make his or her determination in a timely manner.

(2) The director shall include in an order requiring a certificate holder to undergo a mental or physical examination the basis of the director's reasonable cause to believe that the certificate holder is unable to practice with reasonable skill and safety. For purposes of a disciplinary proceeding authorized under this article, the certificate holder is deemed to have waived all objections to the admissibility of the examining physician's or licensed health care professional's testimony or examination reports on the grounds that they are privileged communication.

(3) The certificate holder may submit to the director testimony or examination reports from a physician chosen by the certificate holder and pertaining to any condition that the director has alleged may preclude the certificate holder from practicing with reasonable skill and safety. The director may consider the testimony and reports submitted by the certificate holder in conjunction with, but not in lieu of, the testimony and examination reports of the physician designated by the director.

(4) The results of a mental or physical examination ordered by the director shall not be used as evidence in any proceeding other than one before the director, are not a public record, and are not available to the public.

12-43.7-115. Confidential agreement to limit practice - violation grounds for discipline. (1) If a speech-language pathologist suffers from a physical or mental illness or condition that renders the person unable to practice speech-language pathology or practice as a speech-language pathologist with reasonable skill and patient safety, the speech-language pathologist shall notify the director of the illness or condition in a manner and within a period of time determined by the director. The director may require the speech-language pathologist to submit to an examination to evaluate the extent of the illness or condition and its impact on the speech-language pathologist's ability to practice with reasonable skill and safety to patients.

(2) (a) Upon determining that a speech-language pathologist with a physical or mental illness or condition is able to render limited speech-language pathology services with reasonable skill and patient safety, the director may enter into a confidential agreement with the speech-language pathologist in which the speech-language pathologist agrees to limit his or her practice based on the restrictions imposed by the illness or condition, as determined by the director.

(b) The agreement must specify that the speech-language pathologist is subject to periodic reevaluations or monitoring as determined appropriate by the director.

(c) The parties may modify or dissolve the agreement as necessary based on the results of a reevaluation or of monitoring.

(d) By entering into an agreement with the director pursuant to this section to limit his or her practice, the speech-language pathologist is not engaging in activities that constitute grounds for discipline pursuant to section 12-43.7-110. The agreement is an administrative action and does not constitute a restriction or discipline by the director. However, if the speech-language pathologist fails to comply with the terms of an agreement entered into pursuant to this section, the failure constitutes grounds for disciplinary action under section 12-43.7-110 (2) (d), and the speech-language pathologist is subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-43.7-111.

(3) This section does not apply to a licensee subject to discipline under section 12-43.7-110 (2) (c).

12-43.7-116. Protection of medical records - certificate holder's obligations - verification of compliance - noncompliance grounds for discipline - rules. (1) Each speech-language pathologist responsible for patient records shall develop a written plan to ensure the security of patient medical records. The plan must address at least the following:

(a) The storage and proper disposal of patient medical records;

(b) The disposition of patient medical records in the event the certificate holder dies, retires, or otherwise ceases to practice or provide speech-language pathology services to patients; and

(c) The method by which patients may access or obtain their medical records promptly if any of the events described in paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) occur.

(2) Upon initial certification under this article and upon renewal of a certification, the applicant or certificate holder shall attest to the director that he or she has developed a plan in compliance with this section.

(3) A certificate holder shall inform each patient in writing of the method by which the patient may access or obtain his or her medical records if an event described in paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section occurs.

(4) A speech-language pathologist who fails to comply with this section is subject to discipline in accordance with section 12-43.7-111.

(5) The director may adopt rules reasonably necessary to implement this section.

PART 1

HOTELS

12-44-101. Definitions - evidence of intent. As used in this part 1, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) “Agreement with such public establishment” means any written or verbal agreement as to the price to be charged for, and the acceptance of, food, beverage, service, or accommodations where the price to be charged therefor is printed on a menu or schedule of rates shown to or made available by a public establishment to the patron and includes the acceptance of such food, beverage, service, or accommodations for which a reasonable charge is made.
- (2) “Notice”, as used in section 12-44-103, shall be given by posting a printed copy of sections 12-44-101 to 12-44-103 at any conspicuous place within the sleeping accommodations.
- (3) “Public establishment” means any establishment selling or offering for sale prepared food or beverages to the public generally, or any establishment leasing or renting overnight sleeping accommodations to the public generally, including, but not exclusively, restaurants, cafes, dining rooms, lunch counters, coffee shops, boarding houses, hotels, motor hotels, motels, and rooming houses, unless the rental thereof is on a month-to-month basis or a longer period of time.

(4) It shall be evidence of an intent to defraud that food, service, or accommodations were given to any person who gave false information concerning his name or address, or both, in obtaining such food, service, or accommodations, or that such person removed or attempted to remove his baggage from the premises of such public establishment without giving notice of his intent to do so to such public establishment. These provisions shall not constitute the sole means of establishing evidence that a person accused under this part 1 had an intent to defraud. Proof of such intent to defraud may be made by any facts or circumstances sufficient to establish such intent to defraud beyond a reasonable doubt as provided by law.

(5) If any person, partnership, or corporation shall by written or verbal complaint, or otherwise, institute or cause to be instituted any prosecution for any violation of this section and shall thereafter, whether or not restitution is sought or received from the alleged offender, fail to cooperate in the full prosecution of the alleged offender without reasonable cause, the court having jurisdiction, on motion of the prosecuting attorney appearing therein and, after notice to such person, partnership, or corporation and an opportunity to be heard, may give judgment against such person, partnership, or corporation and in favor of the county wherein prosecution was commenced for all costs of the prosecution, including a reasonable allowance for the time of the prosecuting attorney.

12-44-101.5. Public establishment - vendor contract. A contract between a vendor and a public establishment shall be invalid unless the vendor enters into the contract directly with the public establishment's owner, general manager, or a person with authority to enter into a contract as specifically designated in writing by such owner or general manager. The acceptance of delivered items by a public establishment from a vendor that includes an invoice stating the terms of a contract shall not constitute acceptance of such terms and the contract shall be void.

12-44-102. Defrauding an innkeeper. A person who, with intent to defraud, procures food or accommodations from a public establishment without making payment therefor in accordance with his or her agreement with the public establishment is guilty of a misdemeanor if the total amount due under the agreement is one thousand dollars or less and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and, if the amount due under the agreement is more than one thousand dollars, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

This section does not deny equal protection because it makes the prosecution of the crime dependent upon the willingness of the innkeeper to accept late payment. People v. Ausley, 185 Colo. 256, 523 P.2d 460 (1974).

Dividing line between felonies and misdemeanors of $50 is constitutional. People v. Ausley, 185 Colo. 256, 523 P.2d 460 (1974).

Section is not unconstitutional because it makes failure to pay a contractual debt a crime. People v. Ausley, 185 Colo. 256, 523 P.2d 460 (1974).

Section specifically requires intent to defraud. People v. Ausley, 185 Colo. 256, 523 P.2d 460 (1974).

Intent cannot be inferred solely from fact of nonpayment. People v. Ausley, 185 Colo. 256, 523 P.2d 460 (1974).

Guilty plea to violation of this statute held voluntary. People v. McClellan, 183 Colo. 176, 515 P.2d 1127 (1973).

The enactment of this section does not preclude prosecution for theft pursuant to § 18-4-401 because it does not present a comprehensive regulatory scheme intended to limit prosecution under the general theft statute. People v. Sharp, 104 P.3d 252 (Colo. App. 2004).

Applied in People v. Piskula, 197 Colo. 148, 595 P.2d 219 (1979).

12-44-103. Notice prerequisite to conviction. No conviction shall be had under section 12-44-102, unless it is made to appear upon the trial for a violation of section 12-44-102 that the person charged with such violation was given notice of the terms and provisions of sections 12-44-101 to 12-44-103.

12-44-105. Safe for valuables - notice. Every landlord or keeper of a hotel or public inn in this state who provides in the office of his hotel, inn, or other convenient place a safe, vault, or other suitable receptacle, for the secure custody of money, jewelry, ornaments, or other valuable articles other than necessary baggage belonging to the guests or patrons of such hotel or public inn, and who keeps posted in a public and conspicuous place in the office, public room, and public parlors of such hotel or public inn, and upon the inside entrance door of every public sleeping room in such hotel or public inn a notice printed in English stating such fact, shall not be liable for the loss of any money, jewelry, ornaments, or other valuable articles, other than necessary baggage, sustained by such guest or patron by theft or otherwise, unless such guest or patron delivers such money, jewelry, ornaments, or other valuable articles, other than necessary baggage, to the landlord or keeper of such hotel or public inn, or person in charge of the office of such hotel or public inn, for deposit in such safe, vault, or other receptacle. Such liability shall not be greater than the amount at the time of deposit declared by the guest or patron to be the value of the article deposited.

12-44-106. Maximum amount landlord bound to receive. No landlord or keeper of any hotel or public inn is obliged to receive such property from any guest or patron for such custody under the provisions of section 12-44-105, exceeding in value the sum of five thousand dollars, nor is he liable for any loss thereof by theft or otherwise in any sum exceeding the sum of five thousand dollars, unless the landlord or keeper of such hotel or public inn, or person in charge of the office, assumes in writing a greater liability.

12-44-107. Landlord not responsible - when. The landlord or keeper of any hotel or public inn shall not be liable to any guest or patron of such hotel or public inn for the loss within his hotel or public inn of any article of wearing apparel or other necessary baggage belonging to any guest or patron, unless the same had been left within a room assigned to such guest or patron, or had been especially entrusted to the care or custody of the landlord or keeper of such hotel or public inn, or to an employee or servant thereof entrusted with the duty of receiving or caring for such article in the hotel or public inn.

12-44-108. Responsibility when key furnished. When the landlord or keeper of any hotel or public inn provides the doors of the rooms or sleeping apartments in such hotel or public inn with locks and keys in good order and repair and such room or sleeping apartment is turned over to the possession of any guest or patron together with the key to the door thereof, the landlord or keeper of such hotel or public inn shall not be liable to any guest or patron thereof occupying such room or apartment for loss of any article of personal property left within such room or apartment by such guest or patron while in possession thereof, unless the door in such room or apartment was left locked when unoccupied, and after being locked the key thereto was delivered to the person in charge of the office of such hotel or public inn. If any article of personal property is taken by an employee or servant of the landlord or keeper of such hotel or public inn, then the provisions of this section shall not prevent such guest or patron from recovering the value of such article, not to exceed the sum of two hundred dollars for all such articles.

12-44-109. Maximum liability for articles lost from rooms. The landlord or keeper of any hotel or public inn shall not be liable for the loss of any article left by any guest or patron in any room assigned to or occupied by such guest or patron, greater, in any event, than the sum of two hundred dollars for all articles which may be lost by said guest or patron, except by an agreement in writing made by the landlord or keeper of such hotel or public inn, or person in charge of the office, assuming a greater liability.

12-44-110. Liability for baggage left by guest. In case any person who has been the guest or patron of any hotel or public inn ceases to be such guest or patron and leaves with the landlord or keeper of such hotel or public inn any baggage or other personal property for safekeeping, and the landlord or keeper accepts and receives the same for safekeeping, and makes no charge for services or storage in keeping such property, then such landlord or keeper of a hotel or public inn shall be liable only as a gratuitous bailee and as such shall be liable for no sum greater than fifty dollars.

ANNOTATION

This section applies to baggage left for safe-keeping only, not to that in pledge. Dutton Hotel Co. v. Fitzpatrick, 69 Colo. 229, 193 P. 549 (1920).

Where a guest, having paid her bill at defendant's hotel, was told by the clerk that her baggage would be sent to her residence as she had requested, and the baggage was then brought by a servant to the baggage room, and while the servant was looking for an expressman it was stolen, it was held that the case was not within this section and that defendant was liable for the full value. New Albany Hotel Co. v. Dingman, 66 Colo. 306, 181 P. 126 (1919).

12-44-111. Liability in case of fire or accident. The landlord or keeper of any hotel or public inn shall not be liable for loss of or damage to the property of any guest or patron of such hotel or public inn by fire or by any unforeseen causes or by inevitable accident, unless such loss or damage occurs on account of his negligence or the negligence of his servants or employees.

"Unforeseen causes", within this section, cannot be anticipated as likely to occur, and thus the theft of the baggage of a guest at an inn, or an ordinary burglary, is not an unforeseen cause. New Albany Hotel Co. v. Dingman, 66 Colo. 306, 181 P. 126 (1919).

Where a hotel's uniformed employee, after inquiry and consent, assumed custody and control of guest's automobile with the understanding that it was to be stored in a nearby garage overnight, but instead such employee used the automobile for a "joy ride" and left it on a public street in a damaged condition, and articles of personal property were removed or stolen from the glove compartment, the hotel was liable for the loss and damage resulting from its employee's conduct. Bidlake v. Shirley Hotel Co., 133 Colo. 166, 292 P.2d 749 (1956).

12-44-112. Liability limited to damages. None of the provisions of sections 12-44-105 to 12-44-112 shall be construed to render the landlord or keeper of a hotel or public inn in this state liable in a greater sum than the actual loss or damage sustained.

PART 3

INNKEEPERS' RIGHTS

12-44-301. Definitions. As used in this part 3, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (1) "Innkeeper" means the owner, operator, or manager of a lodging establishment.
- (2) "Lodging establishment" means a bed and breakfast, as defined in section 12-47-103 (3), or a hotel, motel, resort, or public inn, as defined in section 12-44-101 (3).
- (3) "Minor" means a person under eighteen years of age.
- (4) "Resort" means a hotel with related sports and recreational facilities for the convenience of its guests or the general public located contiguous or adjacent to the hotel.

Source: L. 95: Entire part added, p. 241, § 1, effective July 1. L. 97: (2) amended, p. 301, § 10, effective July 1.

12-44-302. Innkeepers' right to refuse accommodations - exceptions. (1) An innkeeper has the right to refuse or deny accommodations, facilities, and the privileges of a lodging establishment to any person who is not willing or able to pay for such accommodations, facilities, and services. The innkeeper shall have the right to require a prospective guest to demonstrate his or her ability to pay by cash, valid credit card, or a validated check, and if the prospective guest is a minor, the innkeeper may require a parent or legal guardian of such minor or other responsible adult:

- (a) To provide a valid credit card number or agree, in writing, to pay for the cost of:
 - (I) The guest room, including applicable taxes;
 - (II) All charges made by the minor; and
 - (III) Any damages caused by the minor or the minor's guests to the guest room or its furnishings; or
- (b) To provide an advance cash payment to cover the cost of the guest room for all nights reserved, including applicable taxes, plus a cash deposit to be held toward the payment of any charges made by the minor and any damages to the guest room or its furnishings. The cash deposit shall be refunded, unless applied to charges or damages, following a joint inspection of the room. It is the obligation of the guest to join the innkeeper during the inspection. Should the guest fail to join the innkeeper, the guest thereby waives his or her right to the joint inspection. Such refund, if any, shall immediately be made to the extent it is not used to cover the described charges or damages.

12-44.5-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Authentic Indian arts and crafts" means any product which is handcrafted by Indian labor or workmanship and is not made from synthetic or artificial materials.

(2) "Findings" means the smaller component parts of a handcrafted item, such as clasps, glass, silver, or synthetic beads, stamped parts not used as a major part of a handcrafted item, leather backings, binding materials, and other ingredient parts not a major part of a handcrafted item.

(3) "Handcrafted" means the production of a product wholly by hand tools, with the exception of buffing or polishing and the findings used upon such products.

(4) "Other arts and crafts" means any product which is represented as an Indian design or product but is not handcrafted by Indian labor or workmanship or which is made by machine or from synthetic or artificial materials.

(5) "Imitation turquoise" means any artificial compound or mineral manufactured or treated so as to closely approximate turquoise in composition or color or any other mineral represented as turquoise when in fact it is not.

(6) "Indian" means any person who is enrolled or is a lineal descendent of one enrolled upon an enrollment listing of the bureau of Indian affairs or upon the enrollment listing of a recognized Indian tribe domiciled in the United States or a person recognized by any Indian tribe as being Indian.

(7) "Indian tribe" means any Indian tribe, organized band, or pueblo which is domiciled in the United States.

(8) "Natural" means the status of a mineral component, used in the preparation of authentic Indian arts and crafts, which does not include any chemical alteration or discoloration.

(9) "Plasticized" means the process through which natural turquoise of a soft, porous nature is altered by impregnating it with acrylic resin or any other substance of a similar nature to produce a change in coloration of the turquoise and allow it to accept a polished finish.

(10) "Represented" means the presentation of a product in words, description, state of being, or symbols when said product is offered for sale, trade, exchange, or purchase.

(11) "Spin cast" means the casting of jewelry components, other than findings, by means of centrifugal force.

(12) "Stabilized" means the chemical process through which natural turquoise of a soft, porous nature is altered to produce a change in the coloration of the natural mineral.

(13) "Treated" means any chemical process through which a natural turquoise is altered to produce a change in coloration of the natural mineral.

(14) "Turquoise" means a blue, green, greenish-blue, or sky-blue mineral, containing phosphorus, aluminum, copper, and iron, used as a gemstone in its cut and polished form.

(15) "Unnatural" means the status of any mineral compound or substance which is not natural or which has been chemically altered, including a stabilized, plasticized, or treated mineral and imitation turquoise.

12-44.5-104. Inquiry as to producer. (1) It is the duty of every person selling or offering for sale at retail authentic Indian arts and crafts or other arts and crafts to the general public to make due inquiry of their suppliers concerning the methods used in producing such arts and crafts and to determine whether such arts and crafts are in fact authentic.

(2) It is hereby made the duty of every person selling or offering for sale at retail to the general public natural or unnatural turquoise to make due inquiry of their suppliers concerning the source, grade, and quality of the turquoise for resale.

(3) If the supplier cannot authenticate to the seller the origin and process of manufacture regarding the Indian arts and crafts to be sold or traded to the seller, the seller shall not sell said arts and crafts to the general public as authentic Indian arts and crafts.

12-44.5-105. Unlawful acts. (1) A person shall not knowingly:

(a) Sell or offer for sale any products represented as authentic Indian arts and crafts unless such products are in fact authentic Indian arts and crafts;

(b) Sell or offer to sell any authentic Indian arts and crafts purporting to be silver unless such products are made of coin silver or sterling silver which is not less than ninety percent pure silver by weight or unless said person provides a statement to the purchaser at retail concerning the content of the silver used in such arts or crafts;

(c) Sell or offer to sell any authentic Indian arts and crafts that are not separately displayed from other arts and crafts and the authentic Indian arts and crafts are not clearly designated with a tag attached to each product and containing the words "Authentic Indian" in letters not less than one-quarter inch high or, if the authentic Indian arts and crafts can clearly be labeled by the use of a display card, then in lieu of tagging each article the person may label the authentic Indian arts and crafts with a printed display card in letters not less than one-half inch in height and containing the words "Authentic Indian". The label or display card shall be maintained with the related crafts in an area separate from other arts and crafts so as to clearly designate the authentic Indian arts and crafts.

(d) Sell or offer to sell spin cast components of authentic Indian jewelry, other than findings, or use spin cast components in authentic Indian jewelry unless such jewelry is labeled as being so cast in its manufacture.

12-44.5-106. Unfair trade practices. (1) A person shall not:

(a) Use a false or misleading statement, written or oral, or the lack thereof, a visual description or the lack thereof, or any representation or lack thereof made in connection with the sale or trade of Indian arts and crafts in the regular course of trade or commerce with the intent to deceive or mislead any person;

(b) Falsely represent turquoise being sold as having characteristics, elements, or qualities it does not have;

(c) Falsely represent turquoise being sold as natural turquoise if in fact it is in an unnatural state;

(d) Make a false or misleading statement of fact concerning the price or value for the purpose of selling or trading turquoise.

- 12-45-103. Definitions. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:
- (1) “Board” or “state board” means the state board of landscape architects, created in section 12-45-105.
 - (2) “Director” means the director of the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.
 - (3) “Division” means the division of professions and occupations in the department of regulatory agencies.
 - (4) “Habit-forming drug” means a drug or medicine required to be labeled under section 25-5-415, C.R.S., or the “Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act”, 21 U.S.C. sec. 301 et seq., as a habit-forming drug.
 - (5) “Infrastructure” means elements of the public domain that support developments such as roads, streets, parks, plazas, and other places that are not privately owned and managed.
 - (6) “Landscape architect” means a person who engages in the practice of landscape architecture.

(7) "Planning" means preparing layouts and schemes for land areas, infrastructure systems, facilities, or objects. "Planning" includes technical documentation.

(8) (a) "Practice of landscape architecture" means:

(I) The application of landscape architectural higher education, training, and experience as well as required mathematical, physical, and social science skills to consult, evaluate, plan, and design projects and improvements principally directed at the functional and aesthetic uses of land;

(II) Collaboration with architects and engineers during the design of public infrastructure projects such as roads, bridges, buildings, and other structures, concerning the functional and aesthetic requirements of the area and project site; or

(III) Assistance in the preparation and administration of construction documents, contracts, and contract offers related to site landscape improvements.

(b) "Practice of landscape architecture" does not include acts exempted by section 12-45-118.

(9) "Substantial gift" means a gift, donation, or other consideration sufficient to influence a person to act in a specific manner. The term does not include a gift of nominal value such as reasonable entertainment or hospitality or an employer's reward to an employee for work performed.

(10) "Supervision" means the actions taken by a landscape architect in directing, personally reviewing, correcting, or approving the work performed by an employee or subcontractor of the landscape architect.

12-45-104. License required. On and after January 1, 2008, a person shall not practice landscape architecture or represent himself or herself as a landscape architect unless the person has a license issued by the board. A person licensed by the board is entitled to use the stamp specified in section 12-45-117, which shall constitute a professional credential attesting to the minimum competence of the landscape architect.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-45-102 as it existed prior to 1977.

12-45-105. Board - composition - appointments - terms. (1) There is hereby created in the division the Colorado state board of landscape architects. The board shall consist of five members who shall have the following qualifications:

(a) Three members shall:

(I) Be licensed landscape architects in Colorado or persons who are eligible to be licensed in Colorado as landscape architects at the time of the formation of the board;

(II) Have at least three years of experience in the practice of landscape architecture; and

(III) Be residents of the state of Colorado.

(b) (I) Two members shall:

(A) Not be licensed landscape architects nor practice landscape architecture in any jurisdiction;

(B) Not have a current or prior significant personal or financial interest in the practice of landscape architecture; and

(C) Be residents of the state of Colorado.

(II) Of the two members appointed pursuant to this paragraph (b), one member shall be a building or landscape contractor in Colorado.

(2) Appointments to the board shall be made by the governor and shall be made to provide for staggering of terms of members so that not more than two members' terms expire each year. Thereafter appointments shall be for terms of four years. Each board member shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which the member is appointed or until a successor has been duly appointed and qualified. Appointees shall be limited to two full terms. The governor may remove a member of the board for misconduct, incompetence, neglect of duty, or an act that would justify the revocation of the board member's license to practice landscape architecture, if applicable.

(3) The board shall meet on or before August 30 of each year and elect from its members a chair and vice-chair. The board shall meet at such other times as it deems necessary, but not less than twice a year.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-45-103 as it existed prior to 1977.

12-45-106. Immunity. (1) A member of the board or the board's staff, a person acting as a witness or consultant to the board, and a witness testifying in a proceeding authorized under this article shall be immune from liability in a civil action for acts occurring while acting in his or her capacity as a board member, member of the board's staff, consultant, or witness if the person acting in good faith within the scope of his or her respective capacity made a reasonable effort to obtain the facts of the matter as to which he or she acted and acted with the reasonable belief that the action was warranted by the facts.

(2) Any person participating in good faith in making a complaint or participating in an investigation or administrative proceeding pursuant to this article shall be immune from any civil or criminal liability that may result from such participation.

12-45-107. Powers and duties of board - rules. (1) The board shall have the following powers and duties:

- (a) To promulgate rules necessary to effectuate this article;
- (b) To examine license applicants for qualifications;
- (c) To review special cases as authorized in this article;
- (d) To grant the licenses of duly qualified applicants to practice landscape architecture in accordance with this article;

(e) (I) To administer oaths, take affirmations of witnesses, and issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of all relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, and materials in any hearing, investigation, accusation, or other matter coming before the board. The board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to perform the functions of this paragraph (e) and to take evidence and to make findings and report them to the board.

(II) Upon failure of any witness to comply with such subpoena or process, the district court of the county in which the subpoenaed person or licensee resides or conducts business, upon application by the board or director with notice to the subpoenaed person or licensee, may issue to the person or licensee an order requiring that person or licensee to appear before the director; to produce the relevant papers, books, records, documentary evidence, or materials if so ordered; or to give evidence touching the matter under investigation or in question. Failure to obey the order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt of court.

- (f) To adopt and use a seal;

(g) To conduct hearings in accordance with section 24-4-105, C.R.S., upon complaints concerning the conduct of landscape architects; except that the board may appoint an administrative law judge pursuant to part 10 of article 30 of title 24, C.R.S., to conduct such hearings;

(h) To refer for prosecution by the district attorney or the attorney general persons violating this article;

(i) To require a licensed landscape architect to have a stamp as prescribed by the board; and

(j) To deny the issuance or renewal of, suspend for a specified period, or revoke a license; issue a letter of admonition to or censure or place on probation any person who, while holding a landscape architect license, violates any provision of this article; issue confidential letters of concern; issue cease-and-desist orders; or impose other conditions or limitations on a licensee.

12-45-108. Management of fees and expenses of board. (1) Fees collected pursuant to section 12-45-111 shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same in accordance with section 24-34-105, C.R.S. The general assembly shall make annual appropriations pursuant to said section for the expenditures of the board.

(2) The board may employ such technical, clerical, investigative, or other assistance necessary for the proper performance of the board's duties, subject to the provisions of section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, and may make expenditures that are necessary for the proper performance of the board's duties under this article.

12-45-109. Records. (1) The board shall keep a record of its proceedings, a register of all applications for licensing, and other information deemed necessary by the board.

(2) The records of the board shall be public records pursuant to article 72 of title 24, C.R.S. Copies of records and papers of the board or the department of regulatory agencies concerning the administration of this article, when certified and authenticated by seal, shall be received by a court in the same manner as original documents.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-45-103 as it existed prior to 1977.

12-45-110. Licensure - application - qualifications - rules. (1) Application. (a) An application for licensure shall include evidence of the education and practical experience required by this section and the rules of the board.

(b) A person applying for licensure under this article shall disclose whether he or she has been denied licensure or disciplined as a landscape architect or practiced landscape architecture in violation of this article. If an applicant has violated this article, the board may deny an application for licensure. When determining whether a person has violated this article, section 24-5-101, C.R.S., shall govern the board's actions.

(c) Applicants may seek licensure in one of the following manners:

(I) Licensure by examination as described in subsection (3) of this section;

(II) Licensure by endorsement as described in subsection (4) of this section; or

(III) Licensure by prior practice as described in subsection (5) of this section.

(2) Education and experience. The board shall set minimum educational and experience requirements for licensure by examination, subject to the following guidelines:

(a) The board may require either:

(I) (A) Practical experience for a specified period, not to exceed three years, or education or experience determined by the board to be substantially equivalent; and

(B) A professional degree from a program accredited by the landscape architectural accreditation board, or any successor organization, or education or experience determined by the board to be substantially equivalent; or

(II) Practical experience for a specified period, not to exceed ten years, under the direct supervision of a licensed landscape architect or a landscape architect with an equivalent level of competence as defined by rules of the board; or

(III) A combination of such practical experience and education, not to exceed ten years.

(b) One year of the experience required by this subsection (2) may be practical field experience in construction techniques, teaching, or research in a program accredited by the landscape architectural accreditation board or an equivalent successor organization.

(c) Subject to review and approval by the board pursuant to rules, a graduate of an unaccredited program of landscape architecture or a related field shall be eligible to substitute education for the practical experience required by the board pursuant to this subsection (2).

(d) (I) Prior to licensure, an applicant by examination shall pass an examination developed or adopted by the board that measures the minimum level of competence necessary to be a licensed landscape architect. The board shall designate and notify applicants of the time and location for examinations. The board may engage a private contractor to administer the examinations.

(II) The board may adopt the examinations, recommended grading procedures, and educational and practical experience requirements and equivalents of the council of landscape architectural registration boards or a successor organization if such examinations, procedures, and requirements and equivalents do not conflict with the requirements of this article.

(3) Licensure by examination. (a) Before being licensed pursuant to this subsection (3), an applicant for licensure by examination shall pass an examination developed or adopted by the board to measure the minimum level of competence.

(b) The board shall designate a time and location for examinations and shall notify applicants of this time and location in a timely manner. The board may contract for assistance in administering the examinations.

(c) The board may adopt the examinations, recommended grading procedures, and educational and practical experience requirements of the council of landscape architectural registration boards or any substantially equivalent successor organization if such examinations, procedures, and requirements do not conflict with the requirements of this article.

(4) Licensure by endorsement. (a) An applicant for licensure by endorsement shall file an application as prescribed by the board and shall hold a current valid license or registration in a jurisdiction requiring qualifications substantially equivalent to those required for licensure by subsections (2) and (3) of this section.

(b) The board shall provide procedures for an applicant to apply directly to the board for a license by endorsement. A certified record from the council of landscape architectural registration boards, or its successor organization, shall qualify a candidate to submit an application to the board for licensure by endorsement.

(c) The board may develop or adopt a supplementary examination to measure the minimum competence of applicants for licensure by endorsement. The supplementary examination shall be administered at the discretion of the board when an applicant for licensure by endorsement has otherwise failed to sufficiently demonstrate minimum competence.

(5) Licensure by prior practice. (a) The board shall adopt rules authorizing the issuance of a license to qualified candidates who practiced landscape architecture before January 1, 2008.

(b) The following evidence, as verified by the board, shall be acceptable as proof that a candidate is qualified for licensure by prior practice:

(I) (A) A diploma or certificate of graduation from a landscape architecture degree program accredited by the landscape architecture accreditation board or its successor organization; and

(B) Evidence of at least six years of practical experience in the practice of landscape architecture sufficient to satisfy the board that the applicant has minimum competence in the practice of landscape architecture; or

(II) Evidence that the applicant has at least ten years of practical experience in the practice of landscape architecture sufficient to satisfy the board that the applicant has minimum competence in the practice of landscape architecture.

(c) All experience required to qualify for licensure by prior practice shall be obtained before January 1, 2008; except that one year of required experience for licensure by prior practice may accrue after January 1, 2008.

(d) The board may develop or adopt a supplementary examination to measure the minimum competence of applicants for licensure by prior practice. The supplementary examination shall be administered at the discretion of the board when an applicant for licensure by prior practice has otherwise failed to sufficiently demonstrate minimum competence.

(6) Issuance of license. Upon application and satisfaction of the requirements of this section, the board shall issue a license to practice landscape architecture. The board is not required to issue a license if the applicant is subject to discipline pursuant to this article.

(7) Lapse of application. If an applicant fails to meet the licensing requirements within three years after filing an application, the application shall be void. The board may authorize an applicant for licensure by examination to reattempt the examination without limitation and may exempt an applicant from this subsection (7) so long as the applicant reattempts the examination within thirty-one months after the last examination.

(8) Renewal and reinstatement. All licenses shall expire pursuant to a schedule established by the director. Licenses shall be renewed or reinstated pursuant to section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. The director may establish renewal fees and delinquency fees for reinstatement pursuant to section 24-34-105, C.R.S. If a person fails to renew his or her license pursuant to the schedule established by the director, the license shall expire. Any person whose license has expired shall be subject to penalties provided in this article or in section 24-34-102 (8), C.R.S. All fees collected under this article shall be deposited in accordance with section 12-45-111.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-45-111 as it existed prior to 1977.

12-45-112. Professional liability. (1) The shareholders, members, or partners of an entity that practices landscape architecture are liable for the acts, errors, and omissions of the employees, members, and partners of the entity, except when the entity maintains a qualifying policy of professional liability insurance as set forth in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) (a) A qualifying policy of professional liability insurance shall meet the following minimum standards:

(I) The policy shall insure the entity against liability imposed upon it by law for damages arising out of the negligent acts, errors, and omissions of all professional and nonprofessional employees, members, and partners; and

(II) The insurance shall be in a policy amount of at least seventy-five thousand dollars multiplied by the total number of landscape architects in or employed by the entity, up to a maximum of five hundred thousand dollars.

(b) In addition, the policy may include:

(I) A provision stating that the policy shall not apply to the following:

(A) A dishonest, fraudulent, criminal, or malicious act or omission of the insured entity or of any stockholder, employee, member, or partner of the insured entity;

(B) The conduct of a business enterprise that is not the practice of landscape architecture by the insured entity;

(C) The conduct of a business enterprise in which the insured entity may be a partner or that may be controlled, operated, or managed by the insured entity in its own or in a fiduciary capacity, including, but not limited to, the ownership, maintenance, or use of property;

(D) Bodily injury, sickness, disease, or death of a person; or

(E) Damage to, or destruction of, tangible property owned by the insured entity;

(II) Any other reasonable provisions with respect to policy periods, territory, claims, conditions, and ministerial matters.

12-45-113. Grounds for disciplinary action. (1) The board shall investigate the activities of a licensee or other person upon its own motion or upon the receipt of a written, signed complaint alleging grounds for disciplinary action under this article.

(2) Grounds for disciplinary action shall include:

(a) Fraud or a material misstatement of fact made in procuring or attempting to procure a license;

(b) An act or omission that fails to meet the generally accepted standards of the practice of landscape architecture and that endangers life, health, property, or the public welfare;

(c) Fraud or deceit in the practice of landscape architecture;

(d) Affixing a seal or authorizing a seal to be affixed to a document if such act misleads another into incorrectly believing that a licensed landscape architect was the document's author or was responsible for its preparation;

(e) Violation of or aiding or abetting in the violation of this article, a rule promulgated by the board under this article, or an order of the board issued under this article;

(f) Being convicted of or pleading nolo contendere to a felony in Colorado or to any crime outside Colorado that would constitute a felony in Colorado, if the felony or other crime concerns the practice of landscape architecture. A certified copy of the judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction of a conviction or plea shall be presumptive evidence of the conviction or plea in any hearing under this article. The board shall be governed by section 24-5-101, C.R.S., when considering the conviction or plea.

(g) Use of false, deceptive, or misleading advertising;

(h) Habitual or excessive use or abuse of alcohol or a habit-forming drug or habitual use of a controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-102 (5), C.R.S., or other drug having similar effects, when the use or abuse renders the landscape architect unfit to engage in the practice of landscape architecture;

(i) Use of a schedule I controlled substance, as defined in section 18-18-203, C.R.S.;

(j) Failure to report to the board a landscape architect known to have violated this article or any board order or rule. Potential violations of this paragraph (j) include knowledge of an action or arbitration in which claims regarding the life and safety of the users of a site are alleged.

(k) Making or offering a substantial gift to influence a prospective or existing client or employer to use or refrain from using a specific landscape architect;

(l) Failure to exercise adequate professional supervision of persons assisting in the practice of landscape architecture under a licensed landscape architect;

(m) Performing services beyond the competence, training, or education of a landscape architect;

(n) Selling, fraudulently obtaining, or fraudulently furnishing a license or renewal of a license to practice landscape architecture;

(o) Practicing landscape architecture or advertising, representing, or holding oneself out as a licensed landscape architect or using the title "landscape architect" or "licensed landscape architect" unless the person is licensed pursuant to this article; or

(p) Otherwise violating any provision of this article.

(3) A disciplinary action in another state or jurisdiction taken on grounds that would constitute a violation under this article shall be prima facie evidence of grounds for disciplinary action under this section.

Source: L. 2007: Entire article RC&RE, p. 1432, § 1, effective August 3.

Editor's note: The provisions of this section are similar to provisions of several former sections as they existed prior to 1977. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

12-45-114. Disciplinary actions by board - licenses denied, suspended, or revoked - cease-and-desist orders. (1) The board may deny, refuse to renew, suspend, or revoke any license, may place a licensee on probation, may place conditions or limitations on the license, or may impose a censure or fine if, after notice and hearing, the board determines that the licensee has committed any of the acts specified in section 12-45-113.

(2) (a) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the board's opinion, does not warrant formal action but that should not be dismissed as being without merit, the board may issue and send to the licensee, by certified mail, a written letter of admonition.

(b) When a letter of admonition is sent by the board, the licensee shall be advised that he or she has the right to request, within twenty days after receipt of the letter, that formal disciplinary proceedings be initiated to adjudicate the propriety of the conduct upon which the letter of admonition is based.

(c) Upon receipt of a timely request for adjudication pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (2), the board shall void the letter of admonition and shall institute formal disciplinary proceedings to address the matter.

(3) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of conduct that does not warrant formal action by the board and, in the opinion of the board, the complaint should be dismissed, but the board has noticed indications of possible errant conduct by the licensee that could lead to serious consequences if not corrected, a confidential letter of concern may be issued to the licensee. The confidential letter of concern and notice of the issuance of the letter shall be sent to the licensee by certified mail. Issuance of a confidential letter of concern shall not be construed to be discipline.

(4) When a complaint or investigation discloses an instance of misconduct that, in the opinion of the board, warrants formal action, the complaint shall not be resolved by a deferred settlement, action, judgment, or prosecution.

(5) If the board determines that a person licensed to practice landscape architecture pursuant to this article is subject to disciplinary action under this section, the board may, in lieu of or in addition to other discipline, require a licensee to take courses of professional training or education. The board shall determine the educational conditions to be imposed on the licensee, including, but not limited to, the type and number of hours of training or education. All training or education courses are subject to approval by the board, and the licensee shall furnish proof of satisfactory completion of the training or education.

(6) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a licensee is acting in a manner that is an imminent threat to the health and safety of the public, or a person is acting or has acted without the required license, the board may issue an order to cease and desist such activity. The order shall set forth the statutes and rules alleged to have been violated, the facts alleged to have constituted the violation, and the requirement that all unlawful acts or unlicensed or unregistered practices immediately cease.

(b) Within ten days after service of the order to cease and desist pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (6), the respondent may request a hearing on the question of whether acts or practices in violation of this article have occurred. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(7) (a) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence as presented in a written complaint by any person, that a person has violated any other portion of this article, then, in addition to any specific powers granted pursuant to this article, the board may issue to such person an order to show cause as to why the board should not issue a final order directing the person to cease and desist from the unlawful act or unlicensed practice.

(b) A person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) shall be promptly notified by the board of the issuance of the order, along with a copy of the order, the factual and legal basis for the order, and the date set by the board for a hearing on the order. Such notice may be served by personal service, by first-class United States mail, postage prepaid, or as may be practicable upon any person against whom the order is issued. Personal service or mailing of an order or document pursuant to this subsection (7) shall constitute notice of the order and hearing to the person.

(c) (I) The hearing on an order to show cause shall be commenced no sooner than ten and no later than forty-five calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification by the board as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (7). The hearing may be continued by agreement of all parties based upon the complexity of the matter, number of parties to the matter, and legal issues presented in the matter, but in no event shall the hearing commence later than sixty calendar days after the date of transmission or service of the notification.

(II) If a person against whom an order to show cause has been issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (7) does not appear at the hearing, the board may present evidence that notification was properly sent or served upon such person pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (7) and such other evidence related to the matter as the board deems appropriate. The board shall issue the order within ten days after the board's determination related to reasonable attempts to notify the respondent, and the order shall become final as to that person by operation of law. Such hearing shall be conducted pursuant to sections 24-4-104 and 24-4-105, C.R.S.

(III) If the board reasonably finds that the person against whom the order to show cause was issued is acting or has acted without the required license, or has or is about to engage in acts or practices constituting violations of this article, a final cease-and-desist order may be issued, directing the person to cease and desist from further unlawful acts or unlicensed practice.

(IV) The board shall provide notice, in the manner set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection (7), of the final cease-and-desist order within ten calendar days after the hearing conducted pursuant to this paragraph (c) to each person against whom the final order has been issued. The final order issued pursuant to subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (c) shall be effective when issued and shall be a final order for purposes of judicial review.

(8) If it appears to the board, based upon credible evidence presented to the board, that a person has engaged in or is about to engage in any unlicensed act or practice, any act or practice constituting a violation of this article, any rule promulgated pursuant to this article, any order issued pursuant to this article, or any act or practice constituting grounds for administrative sanction pursuant to this article, the board may enter into a stipulation with such person.

(9) If any person fails to comply with a final cease-and-desist order or a stipulation, the board may request the attorney general or the district attorney for the judicial district in which the alleged violation exists to bring, and if so requested such attorney shall bring, suit for a temporary restraining order and for injunctive relief to prevent any further or continued violation of the final order.

(10) Any disciplinary action taken by the board and judicial review of such action shall be in accordance with the provisions of article 4 of title 24, C.R.S., and the hearing and opportunity for review shall be conducted pursuant to said article by the board or an administrative law judge at the board's discretion.

(11) A person aggrieved by the final cease-and-desist order may seek judicial review of the board's determination or of the board's final order as provided in section 12-45-116.

(12) (a) In addition to the penalties provided for in this section, and in lieu of revoking a license upon a finding of misconduct by the board, a person who violates this article or rules promulgated pursuant to this article may be punished by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars.

(b) A fine collected pursuant to this subsection (12) shall be transmitted to the state treasurer, who shall credit the same to the general fund.

(13) Except as provided in subsection (14) of this section, a license that is revoked shall not be reinstated within two years after the effective date of the revocation.

(14) On its own motion or upon application after the imposition of discipline, the board may reconsider its prior action and reinstate a license, terminate suspension or probation, or reduce the severity of its prior disciplinary action.

Editor's note: The provisions of this section are similar to provisions of several former sections as they existed prior to 1977. For a detailed comparison, see the comparative tables located in the back of the index.

12-45-115. Unauthorized practice - penalties. (1) Any person who practices or offers or attempts to practice landscape architecture without an active license issued under this article commits a class 2 misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-501, C.R.S., for the first offense, and, for the second or any subsequent offense, the person commits a class 6 felony and shall be punished as provided in section 18-1.3-401, C.R.S.

(2) A violation of this section may be prosecuted by the district attorney of the judicial district in which the offense was committed or by the attorney general of the state of Colorado in the name of the people of the state of Colorado. In such action, the court may issue an order, enter judgment, or issue a preliminary or final injunction.

12-45-117. Landscape architect's stamp. (1) A licensed landscape architect shall obtain a stamp of a design authorized by the board. The stamp shall bear the name, date of licensing, and license number of the landscape architect, together with the legend "Colorado - Licensed Landscape Architect".

(2) A landscape architect's records and documents shall be prepared, recorded, and retained in the following manner:

(a) The stamp, signature of the landscape architect whose name appears on the stamp, and date of the landscape architect's signature shall be placed on reproductions of drawings to establish a record set of contract documents.

(b) The record set shall be prominently identified and shall be for the permanent record of the landscape architect, the project owner, and the regulatory authorities who have jurisdiction over the project.

(c) The stamp and the date the document is stamped shall be placed on the cover, title page, and table of contents of specifications and on each reproduction of drawings prepared under the direct supervision of the landscape architect.

(d) Subsequently issued addenda, revisions, clarifications, or other modifications shall be properly identified and dated for the record set.

(e) Where consultant drawings and specifications are incorporated into the record set, their origin shall be clearly identified and dated to distinguish them from stamped documents.

(f) Except as required for compliance with a federal contract, the landscape architect shall not stamp reproductions or copies that are transferred from the landscape architect's possession or supervision.

(g) A record set shall be retained by the landscape architect for a minimum of three years after beneficial occupancy or beneficial use of the project.

(h) One original document may be stamped, signed, and dated as required for federal government contracts.

(3) The board, by rule, may authorize the use of an electronic stamp, an electronic seal, and recording of electronic records in a manner substantially equivalent to the requirements of subsections (1) and (2) of this section.

12-45-118. Exemptions. (1) The following shall be exempt from the provisions of this article:

(a) The practice of architecture by licensed architects pursuant to part 3 of article 25 of this title;

(b) The practice of professional engineering by registered professional engineers pursuant to part 1 of article 25 of this title;

(c) The practice of professional land surveying by licensed land surveyors pursuant to part 2 of article 25 of this title;

(d) Residential landscape design, consisting of landscape design services for single- and multi-family residential properties of four or fewer units not including common areas;

(e) The design of irrigation systems by professionals qualified by appropriate experience or certification; and

(f) Landscape installation and construction services, including, but not limited to, all contracting services not within the scope of the practice of landscape architecture.

(2) Nothing in this article shall prohibit or limit a municipality or county of this state, in the reasonable exercise of its police power, from adopting codes that may be necessary for the protection of the inhabitants of the municipality or county.

(3) Nothing in this article shall be construed to limit or extend the rights of another profession or craft.

(4) Nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit the practice of landscape architecture by any employee of the United States government or any bureau, division, or agency of the United States while discharging his or her official duties.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-46-101 is similar to § 12-46-101 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 46, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Applied in Adams County Golf, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 199 Colo. 423, 610 P.2d 97 (1980).

12-46-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby declares that it is in the public interest that fermented malt beverages shall be manufactured, imported, and sold only by persons licensed as provided in this article. The general assembly further declares that it is lawful to manufacture and sell fermented malt beverages containing not more than three and two-tenths percent alcohol by weight subject to the provisions of this article and applicable provisions of articles 47 and 48 of this title.

(2) The general assembly recognizes that fermented malt beverages are separate and distinct from malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors, and as such require a separate and distinct regulatory framework under this article. To aid administrative efficiency, however, the provisions in article 47 of this title shall apply to the regulation of fermented malt beverages, except when otherwise expressly provided for in this article.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment to title 12, article 46, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Statewide exercise of police power. Legislation in the area of fermented malt beverages, representing an exercise of the state’s police power, is of statewide concern, and not a matter of local and municipal concern subject to council action. Big Top, Inc. v. Schooley, 149 Colo. 116, 368 P.2d 201 (1962).

One reason for holding fermented malt beverages to be of statewide concern is the pronouncement that legislation in this area represents the exercise of the state's police power. Big Top, Inc. v. Schooley, 149 Colo. 116, 368 P.2d 201 (1962).

Depriving localities of jurisdiction. Where the state has adopted a statute on a matter of statewide interest or concern, the local governmental units are deprived of jurisdiction over such subjects. Sierota v. Scott, 143 Colo. 248, 352 P.2d 671 (1960).

"Fermented malt beverages" may not be a matter of local and municipal concern. Big Top, Inc. v. Schooley, 149 Colo. 116, 368 P.2d 201 (1962).

12-46-103. Definitions. Definitions applicable to this article also appear in article 47 of this title. As used in this article, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Fermented malt beverage" means any beverage obtained by the fermentation of any infusion or decoction of barley, malt, hops, or any similar product or any combination thereof in water containing not less than one-half of one percent alcohol by volume and not more than three and two-tenths percent alcohol by weight or four percent alcohol by volume; except that "fermented malt beverage" shall not include confectionery containing alcohol within the limits prescribed by section 25-5-410 (1) (i) (II), C.R.S.

(2) "License" means a grant to a licensee to manufacture or sell fermented malt beverages as provided by this article.

(3) "Licensed premises" means the premises specified in an application for a license under this article which are owned or in possession of the licensee and within which such licensee is authorized to sell, dispense, or serve fermented malt beverages in accordance with the provisions of this article.

(4) "Local licensing authority" means the governing body of a municipality or city and county, the board of county commissioners of a county, or any authority designated by municipal or county charter, municipal ordinance, or county resolution.

(5) "Sell at wholesale" means selling to any other than the intended consumer of fermented malt beverages. "Sell at wholesale" shall not be construed to prevent a brewer or wholesale beer dealer from selling fermented malt beverages to the intended consumer thereof or to prevent a licensed manufacturer or importer from selling such beverages to a licensed wholesaler.

(6) "State licensing authority" means the executive director of the department of revenue or the deputy director of the department of revenue if the executive director so designates.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-46-103 as it existed prior to 1997.

12-46-104. Licenses - state license fees - requirements. (1) The licenses to be granted and issued by the state licensing authority pursuant to this article for the manufacture, importation, and sale of fermented malt beverages shall be as follows:

(a) (I) A manufacturer's license shall be granted and issued to any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation qualifying under section 12-47-301 and not prohibited from licensure under section 12-47-307 to manufacture and sell fermented malt beverages upon the payment of an annual license fee of one hundred fifty dollars to the state licensing authority. A manufacturer so licensed may have additional warehouses in the state upon payment of the wholesaler's license fee as provided in this section.

This article does not delegate power to prohibit sales of 3.2 beer if a municipality chooses to issue a license in the first place. Sierota v. Scott, 143 Colo. 248, 352 P.2d 671 (1960).

Moreover, this article is not one for revenue only but is one related to the exercise of the police power and to regulate the businesses enumerated. MacArthur v. Sierota, 122 Colo. 115, 221 P.2d 346 (1950).

The collection of fees by a city is not a local and municipal matter; article XXII of the Colorado Constitution concerning intoxicating liquors, applies to the whole state. City and County of Denver v. People, 103 Colo. 565, 88 P.2d 89, appeal dismissed, 307 U.S. 615, 59 S. Ct. 1044, 83 L. Ed. 1496 (1939).

(II) A manufacturer that has received a license pursuant to this paragraph (a) shall be authorized to manufacture fermented malt beverages upon an alternating proprietor licensed premises, as defined in section 12-47-103, as approved by the state licensing authority, but the manufacturer shall not conduct retail sales of fermented malt beverages from an area licensed or defined as an alternating proprietor licensed premises.

(b) A wholesaler's license shall be granted and issued to any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation qualifying under section 12-47-301 and not prohibited from licensure under section 12-47-307 to sell fermented malt beverages upon the payment of an annual license fee of one hundred fifty dollars to the state licensing authority. Each wholesaler's license application shall designate the territory within which the licensee may sell the designated products of any manufacturer, as agreed upon by the licensee and the manufacturer of such products.

(c) A retailer's license shall be granted and issued to any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation qualifying under section 12-47-301 and not prohibited from licensure under section 12-47-307 to sell at retail the said fermented malt beverages upon paying an annual license fee of seventy-five dollars to the state licensing authority.

(d) (I) A nonresident manufacturer's license shall be granted and issued to any person manufacturing fermented malt beverages outside of the state of Colorado for the sole purposes listed in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (d), upon the payment of an annual license fee of one hundred fifty dollars to the state licensing authority.

(II) An importer's license shall be granted and issued to any person importing fermented malt beverages into this state for the sole purposes listed in subparagraph (III) of this paragraph (d), upon the payment of an annual license fee of one hundred fifty dollars to the state licensing authority.

(III) The licenses referred to in subparagraphs (I) and (II) of this paragraph (d) shall be issued for the following purposes only:

(A) To import and sell fermented malt beverages within this state to a person licensed as a wholesaler pursuant to this section;

(B) To maintain stocks of fermented malt beverages and to operate fermented malt beverages warehouses by procuring a wholesaler's license as provided in this section;

(C) To solicit orders from retail licensees and fill such orders through licensed wholesalers.

(IV) Each applicant for a license as a manufacturer, nonresident manufacturer, or importer of fermented malt beverages shall enter into a written contract with each wholesaler with which the applicant intends to do business, which contract shall designate the territory within which the product of such applicant shall be sold by the respective wholesaler. The contract shall be submitted to the state licensing authority with an application, and such applicant, if licensed, shall have a continuing duty to submit any subsequent revisions, amendments, or superseding contracts to the state licensing authority.

(V) A manufacturer, nonresident manufacturer, or importer licensed to sell fermented malt beverages under this article shall not contract with more than one wholesaler to sell the products of such manufacturer, nonresident manufacturer, or importer in the same territory.

(1.5) Notwithstanding the amount specified for any fee in subsection (1) of this section, the state licensing authority by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of one or more of the fees if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of one or more of the fees is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the state licensing authority by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of one or more of the fees as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

(2) The manufacturer's or wholesaler's licenses provided by this article shall permit the licensee to sell fermented malt beverages in sealed containers to retailers and consumers thereof, as long as the beverages have been unloaded and placed in the physical possession of a licensed wholesaler at its licensed premises in this state and inventoried for purposes of tax collection before being delivered to any such retailer or consumer. Wholesalers of fermented malt beverages receiving products to be held as required by this subsection (2) shall be liable for the payment of any tax due on such products under section 12-47-503.

(3) It is unlawful for any manufacturer or wholesaler or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with any of the licensees described in this article to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any retail licensee licensed pursuant to this article, or for any retail licensee under this article to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any manufacturer or wholesaler or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested in or with any of the manufacturers or wholesalers licensed pursuant to this article.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, "The Liquor Code — Colorado Revised Statute Antiquated", see 38 U. Colo. L. Rev. 248 (1965).

12-46-105. Fees and taxes - allocation. (1) (a) The state licensing authority shall establish fees for processing the following types of applications, notices, or reports required to be submitted to the state licensing authority: Applications for new fermented malt beverage licenses pursuant to section 12-47-301 and regulations thereunder; applications for change of location pursuant to section 12-47-301 and regulations thereunder; applications for changing, altering, or modifying licensed premises pursuant to section 12-47-301 and regulations thereunder; applications for warehouse or branch house permits pursuant to section 12-46-104 and regulations thereunder; applications for duplicate licenses; and notices of change of name or trade name pursuant to section 12-47-301 and regulations thereunder. The amounts of such fees, when added to the other fees and taxes transferred to the liquor enforcement division and state licensing authority cash fund pursuant to subsection (2) of this section and section 12-47-502 (1), shall reflect the direct and indirect costs of the liquor enforcement division and the state licensing authority in the administration and enforcement of this article and articles 47 and 48 of this title. At least annually, the amounts of the fees shall be reviewed and, if necessary, adjusted to reflect such direct and indirect costs.

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection (1), the state licensing authority shall establish a basic fee that shall be paid at the time of service of any subpoena upon the state licensing authority or upon any employee of the division, plus a fee for meals and a fee for mileage at the rate prescribed for state officers and employees in section 24-9-104, C.R.S., for each mile actually and necessarily traveled in going to and returning from the place named in the subpoena. If the person named in the subpoena is required to attend the place named in the subpoena for more than one day, there shall be paid, in advance, a sum to be established by the state licensing authority for each day of attendance to cover the expenses of the person named in the subpoena.

(c) The subpoena fee established pursuant to paragraph (b) of this subsection (1) shall not be applicable to any state or local governmental agency.

(2) (a) All state license fees provided for by this article and all fees provided for by paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section for processing applications, reports, and notices shall be paid to the department of revenue, which shall transmit the fees and taxes to the state treasurer. The state treasurer shall credit eighty-five percent of the fees and taxes to the old age pension fund and the balance to the general fund.

(b) An amount equal to the revenues attributable to fifty dollars of each state license fee provided for by this article and the processing fees provided for by paragraphs (a) and (b) of subsection (1) of this section shall be transferred out of the general fund to the liquor enforcement division and state licensing authority cash fund. Such transfer shall be made by the state treasurer as soon as possible after the twentieth day of the month following the payment of such fees.

(c) The expenditures of the state licensing authority and the liquor enforcement division shall be paid out of appropriations from the liquor enforcement division and state licensing authority cash fund as provided in section 24-35-401, C.R.S.

(3) Eighty-five percent of the local license fees set forth in section 12-46-107 (2) shall be paid to the department of revenue, which shall transmit the fees to the state treasurer to be credited to the old age pension fund.

12-46-106. Lawful acts. It is lawful for a person under eighteen years of age who is under the supervision of a person on the premises over eighteen years of age to be employed in a place of business where fermented malt beverages are sold at retail in containers for off-premises consumption. During the normal course of such employment, any person under eighteen years of age may handle and otherwise act with respect to fermented malt beverages in the same manner as that person does with other items sold at retail; except that no person under eighteen years of age shall sell or dispense fermented malt beverages, check age identification, or make deliveries beyond the customary parking area for the customers of the retail outlet. This section shall not be construed to permit the violation of any other provisions of this section under circumstances not specified in this section.

12-46-107. Local licensing authority - application - fees. (1) The local licensing authority shall issue only the following classes of fermented malt beverage licenses:

- (a) Sales for consumption off the premises of the licensee;
- (b) Sales for consumption on the premises of the licensee;
- (c) Sales for consumption both on and off the premises of the licensee. A person licensed pursuant to this paragraph (c) may deliver at retail fermented malt beverages in factory-sealed containers in conjunction with the delivery of food products if such person has obtained a permit for the delivery of fermented malt beverages from the state licensing authority. The state licensing authority shall promulgate rules as are necessary for the proper delivery of fermented malt beverages pursuant to this paragraph (c) and shall have the authority to issue a permit to any person who is licensed pursuant to and delivers fermented malt beverages under this paragraph (c).

(2) The local licensing authority shall collect an annual license fee of twenty-five dollars if the licensed premises is located in a municipality or city and county and fifty dollars if the licensed premises is located outside the corporate limits of a municipality or city and county.

PART 1

GENERAL PROVISIONS

12-47-101. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the “Colorado Liquor Code”.

Source: L. 97: Entire article amended with relocations, p. 225, § 3, effective July 1.

Editor’s note: This section is similar to former § 12-47-101 as it existed prior to 1997.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-47-101 is similar to § 12-47-101 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

Intent and primary purpose of the Colorado liquor code is to authorize, subject to regulation and safeguards, the sale and consumption of intoxicating liquors, and, at the same time, to completely outlaw and eradicate the vices and ill effects which had come to be associated with the sale of such beverages. Clown’s Den, Inc. v. Canjar, 33 Colo. App. 212, 518 P.2d 957 (1974).

This article has to do with malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors. Big Top, Inc. v. Schooley, 149 Colo. 116, 368 P.2d 201 (1962).

Contractual limitations on the sale of intoxicating liquors generally are not against the statute or its implied or expressed policy. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

If parties to a contract desire to place restrictions on the sale of liquors greater than this article imposes, the law will sanction the agreement, and this is true even though a contracting party gains an advantage thereby. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Legal sales activities. Sales activities which are not restricted, limited, or otherwise regulated by this article are not illegal. People v. Kagan, 195 Colo. 76, 575 P.2d 416 (1978).

Liquor code is not to be subjected to strained or narrow construction. Clown's Den, Inc. v. Canjar, 33 Colo. App. 212, 518 P.2d 957 (1974).

The right of a licensee in his relation to the state is narrow, confined, and transitory. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Applied in Waymire v. Ahern, 152 Colo. 46, 380 P.2d 239 (1963).

12-47-102. Legislative declaration. (1) The general assembly hereby declares that this article shall be deemed an exercise of the police powers of the state for the protection of the economic and social welfare and the health, peace, and morals of the people of this state and that no provisions of this article shall ever be construed so as to authorize the establishment or maintenance of any saloon.

(2) The general assembly further declares that it is lawful to manufacture and sell for beverages or medicinal purposes alcohol beverages, subject to the terms, conditions, limitations, and restrictions in this article.

L. 2011: (2) amended, (SB 11-060), ch. 171, p. 605, § 15, effective May 13.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-47-102 as it existed prior to 1997.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Exercise of police power. The state liquor code is deemed an exercise of the police power and a vested interest on the ground of conditions once obtained cannot be asserted against the proper exercise of this power. City and County of Denver v. People, 103 Colo. 565, 88 P.2d 89, appeal dismissed, 307 U.S. 615, 59 S. Ct. 1044, 83 L. Ed. 1496 (1939).

Statutes dealing with the liquor industry are founded on public policy and constitute an exercise of the police powers of the state. Spero v. Bd. of Trustees, 35 Colo. App. 64, 529 P.2d 327 (1974).

Purpose. The purpose of this article is the "protection of the economic and social welfare, the health and peace and morals", of any given locality in the state. Van DeVeght v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

The aim, intent, and primary purpose of the people in the adoption of art. XXII, Colo. Const., and of the general assembly in the passage of this article, was to completely outlaw and eradicate the old-time public saloon or bar-room with its well-known obnoxious characteristics, vices, and effects, and at the same time to authorize, under proper regulations and safeguards, the sale and consumption of intoxicating liquors in bona fide restaurants and hotels. City and County of Denver v. Gushurst, 120 Colo. 465, 210 P.2d 616 (1949).

The primary purpose of the liquor laws of this state is to authorize the sale and consumption of intoxicating beverages while simultaneously protecting the public's health, safety, and welfare. New Safari Lounge, Inc. v. City of Colo. Springs, 193 Colo. 428, 567 P.2d 372 (1977).

The liquor code was enacted to control the manufacture, distribution, and sale of liquor for the protection of the economic and social welfare and health, peace, and morals of the people of Colorado. Squire Restaurant and Lounge v. Denver, 890 P.2d 164 (Colo. App. 1994).

Section indicates legislative intent to regulate all aspects of licensing process including criminal penalties. People v. Bagby, 734 P.2d 1059 (Colo. 1987).

Applicability of liquor code. The provisions of this article do not apply to third persons who are not applicants of licensees and whose conduct does not violate specific provisions of this article but does violate specific provisions of the criminal code. People v. Eckley, 775 P.2d 566 (Colo. 1989).

State declares public policy. The public policy of the state concerning intoxicating liquor is for the law-making power to declare, and a municipality has no such power. City of Colo. Springs v. Graham, 143 Colo. 97, 352 P.2d 273 (1960).

Which includes issuance of hotel and restaurant licenses. The general assembly of the state of Colorado has authorized the issuance of hotel and restaurant liquor licenses throughout the state, therefore, the public policy has thus been determined. Farmer v. City Council, 153 Colo. 306, 385 P.2d 596 (1963).

There is no inherent right to carry on the business of selling alcoholic beverages. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959).

Mere privilege exercised under license. It is settled doctrine that the right to sell intoxicating liquors depends upon strict compliance of the vendor with the requirements of the laws in force in the community where the sale is proposed, and no absolute right to engage in the traffic has ever been admitted in this state, and it is and always has been a mere privilege exercised under a license granted by public authority. Schwartz v. People, 46 Colo. 239, 104 P. 92 (1909) (decided prior to earliest source, L. 35, p. 597, § 1).

No mandate to permit sale. Where petitioner contended that the liquor code is a mandate to permit the sale of liquor except in local option territory, the court said that it did not so construe it, because it makes the sale of liquor lawful, "subject to the terms, conditions, limitations, and restrictions contained in this article". Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

However, a liquor license vests a personal right in the licensee to conduct the business. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Though not technically property, a liquor license is a valuable right and possesses some of the characteristics of property, and it may be revoked for breach of the conditions upon which it was issued. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

The license confers the right to do that which without the license would be unlawful. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Liquor-related businesses form a distinct and justifiable class for regulatory purposes, and thus for taxing purposes. Tom's Tavern, Inc. v. City of Boulder, 186 Colo. 321, 526 P.2d 1328 (1974).

Objection based on abhorrence of alcohol not considered. The general assembly decreed that the business of manufacturing, distributing, and selling of liquor is lawful when supervised and controlled as provided by law, hence, the supreme court cannot consider objections to a license rooted solely in basic abhorrence of alcoholic beverages in any form, at any place, at any time. Ladd v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 146 Colo. 366, 361 P.2d 627 (1961).

Because those opposing the granting of any application for a liquor license under all circumstances anywhere are not in harmony with the law on that subject as established by the general assembly. Ladd v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 146 Colo. 366, 361 P.2d 627 (1961).

Applied in Citizens for Free Enter. v. Dept. of Rev., 649 P.2d 1054 (Colo. 1982).

12-47-103. Definitions. As used in this article and article 46 of this title, unless the context otherwise requires:

(1) "Adult" means a person lawfully permitted to purchase alcohol beverages.

(2) "Alcohol beverage" means fermented malt beverage or malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors; except that "alcohol beverage" shall not include confectionery containing alcohol within the limits prescribed by section 25-5-410 (1) (i) (II), C.R.S.

(2.5) "Alternating proprietor licensed premises" means a distinct and definite area, as specified in an alternating use of premises application, that is owned by or in possession of a person licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (a), 12-47-402, 12-47-403, or 12-47-415 and within which such licensee and other persons licensed pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (a), 12-47-402, 12-47-403, or 12-47-415, are authorized to manufacture and store vinous liquors, malt liquors, or fermented malt beverages in accordance with the provisions of this article or article 46 of this title, as applicable.

(3) "Bed and breakfast" means an overnight lodging establishment that provides at least one meal per day at no charge other than a charge for overnight lodging and does not sell alcohol beverages by the drink.

(4) "Brew pub" means a retail establishment that manufactures not more than one million eight hundred sixty thousand gallons of malt liquor and fermented malt beverages on its licensed premises or licensed alternating proprietor licensed premises, combined, each calendar year.

(5) "Brewery" means any establishment where malt liquors or fermented malt beverages are manufactured, except brew pubs licensed under this article.

(6) "Club" means:

(a) A corporation that:

- (I) Has been incorporated for not less than three years; and
- (II) Has a membership that has paid dues for a period of at least three years; and
- (III) Has a membership that for three years has been the owner, lessee, or occupant of an establishment operated solely for objects of a national, social, fraternal, patriotic, political, or athletic nature, but not for pecuniary gain, and the property as well as the advantages of which belong to the members;

(b) A corporation that is a regularly chartered branch, or lodge, or chapter of a national organization that is operated solely for the objects of a patriotic or fraternal organization or society, but not for pecuniary gain.

(6.5) "Colorado grown" means wine produced from one hundred percent Colorado-grown grapes, other fruits, or other agricultural products containing natural sugar, including honey, manufactured by a winery that is located in Colorado and licensed pursuant to part 3 of this article.

(6.6) "Common consumption area" means an area designed as a common area in an entertainment district approved by the local licensing authority that uses physical barriers to close the area to motor vehicle traffic and limit pedestrian access.

(7) "Distillery" means any establishment where spirituous liquors are manufactured.

(7.5) "Entertainment district" means an area located within a municipality that is designated as its entertainment district of no more than one hundred acres containing at least twenty thousand square feet of premises licensed as a tavern, hotel and restaurant, brew pub, retail gaming tavern, or vintner's restaurant when the district is created.

(8) "Fermented malt beverage" has the same meaning as provided in section 12-46-103 (1).

(9) "Good cause", for the purpose of refusing or denying a license renewal or initial license issuance, means:

(a) The licensee or applicant has violated, does not meet, or has failed to comply with any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of this article or any rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to this article;

(b) The licensee or applicant has failed to comply with any special terms or conditions that were placed on its license in prior disciplinary proceedings or arose in the context of potential disciplinary proceedings;

(c) In the case of a new license, the applicant has not established the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood or the desires of its adult inhabitants as provided in section 12-47-301 (2); or

(d) Evidence that the licensed premises have been operated in a manner that adversely affects the public health, welfare, or safety of the immediate neighborhood in which the establishment is located, which evidence must include a continuing pattern of fights, violent activity, or disorderly conduct. For purposes of this paragraph (d), "disorderly conduct" has the meaning as provided for in section 18-9-106, C.R.S.

(10) "Hard cider" means an alcohol beverage containing at least one-half of one percent and less than seven percent alcohol by volume that is made by fermentation of the natural juice of apples or pears, including but not limited to flavored hard cider and hard cider containing not more than 0.392 gram of carbon dioxide per hundred milliliters. For the purpose of simplicity of administration of this article, hard cider shall in all respects be treated as a vinous liquor except where expressly provided otherwise.

(11) "Hotel" means any establishment with sleeping rooms for the accommodation of guests and having restaurant facilities.

(12) "Inhabitant", with respect to cities or towns having less than forty thousand population, means an individual who resides in a given neighborhood or community for more than six months each year.

(13) "License" means a grant to a licensee to manufacture or sell alcohol beverages as provided by this article.

(14) "Licensed premises" means the premises specified in an application for a license under this article that are owned or in possession of the licensee within which the licensee is authorized to sell, dispense, or serve alcohol beverages in accordance with this article.

(15) "Limited winery" means any establishment manufacturing not more than one hundred thousand gallons, or the metric equivalent thereof, of vinous liquors annually within Colorado.

(16) "Liquor-licensed drugstore" means any drugstore licensed by the state board of pharmacy that has also applied for and has been granted a license by the state licensing authority to sell malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors in original sealed containers for consumption off the premises.

(17) "Local licensing authority" means the governing body of a municipality or city and county, the board of county commissioners of a county, or any authority designated by municipal or county charter, municipal ordinance, or county resolution.

(18) "Location" means a particular parcel of land that may be identified by an address or by other descriptive means.

(19) "Malt liquors" includes beer and shall be construed to mean any beverage obtained by the alcoholic fermentation of any infusion or decoction of barley, malt, hops, or any other similar product, or any combination thereof, in water containing more than three and two-tenths percent of alcohol by weight or four percent alcohol by volume.

(20) "Meal" means a quantity of food of such nature as is ordinarily consumed by an individual at regular intervals for the purpose of sustenance.

(21) "Medicinal spirituous liquors" means any alcohol beverage, excepting beer and wine, that has been aged in wood for four years and bonded by the United States government and is at least one hundred proof.

(22) (a) "Optional premises" means:

(I) The premises specified in an application for a hotel and restaurant license under this article with related outdoor sports and recreational facilities for the convenience of its guests or the general public located on or adjacent to the hotel or restaurant within which the licensee is authorized to sell or serve alcohol beverages in accordance with this article and at the discretion of the state and local licensing authorities; or

(II) The premises specified in an application for an optional premises license located on an applicant's outdoor sports and recreational facility.

(b) For purposes of this subsection (22), "outdoor sports and recreational facility" means a facility that charges a fee for the use of such facility.

(23) "Person" means a natural person, partnership, association, company, corporation, or organization or a manager, agent, servant, officer, or employee thereof.

(23.5) "Personal consumer" means an individual who is at least twenty-one years of age, does not hold an alcohol beverage license issued in this state, and intends to use wine purchased under section 12-47-104 for personal consumption only and not for resale or other commercial purposes.

(24) "Premises" means a distinct and definite location, which may include a building, a part of a building, a room, or any other definite contiguous area.

(24.5) "Promotional association" means an association that is incorporated within Colorado, organizes and promotes entertainment activities within a common consumption area, and is organized or authorized by two or more people who own or lease property within an entertainment district.

(25) "Racetrack" means any premises where race meets or simulcast races with pari-mutuel wagering are held in accordance with the provisions of article 60 of this title.

(26) "Rectify" means to blend spirituous liquor with neutral spirits or other spirituous liquors of different age.

(27) "Rectifying plant" means any establishment where spirituous liquors are blended with neutral spirits or other spirituous liquors of different age.

(28) "Resort complex" means a hotel with at least fifty sleeping rooms and that has related sports and recreational facilities for the convenience of its guests or the general public located contiguous or adjacent to the hotel. For purposes of a resort complex only, "contiguous or adjacent" means within the overall boundaries or scheme of development or regularly accessible from the hotel by its members and guests.

(29) "Resort hotel" means a hotel, as defined in subsection (11) of this section, with well-defined occupancy seasons.

(30) "Restaurant" means an establishment, which is not a hotel as defined in subsection (11) of this section, provided with special space, sanitary kitchen and dining room equipment, and persons to prepare, cook, and serve meals, where, in consideration of payment, meals, drinks, tobaccos, and candies are furnished to guests and in which nothing is sold excepting food, drinks, tobaccos, candies, and items of souvenir merchandise depicting the theme of the restaurant or the geographical or historic subjects of the nearby area. Any establishment connected with any business wherein any business is conducted, excepting hotel business, limited gaming conducted pursuant to article 47.1 of this title, or the sale of food, drinks, tobaccos, candies, or such items of souvenir merchandise, is declared not to be a restaurant. Nothing in this subsection (30) shall be construed to prohibit the use in a restaurant of orchestras, singers, floor shows, coin-operated music machines, amusement devices that pay nothing of value and cannot by adjustment be made to pay anything of value, or other forms of entertainment commonly provided in restaurants.

(31) "Retail liquor store" means an establishment engaged only in the sale of malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors and soft drinks and mixers, all in sealed containers for consumption off the premises; tobaccos, tobacco products, smokers' supplies, and nonfood items related to the consumption of such beverages; and liquor-filled candy and food items approved by the state licensing authority, which are prepackaged, labeled, and directly related to the consumption of such beverages and are sold solely for the purpose of cocktail garnish in containers up to sixteen ounces. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the sale of food items that could constitute a snack, a meal, or portion of a meal.

(32) "School" means a public, parochial, or nonpublic school that provides a basic academic education in compliance with school attendance laws for students in grades one to twelve. "Basic academic education" has the same meaning as set forth in section 22-33-104 (2) (b), C.R.S.

(33) "Sealed containers" means any container or receptacle used for holding an alcohol beverage, which container or receptacle is corked or sealed with any stub, stopper, or cap.

(34) "Sell" or "sale" means any of the following: To exchange, barter, or traffic in; to solicit or receive an order for except through a licensee licensed under this article or article 46 or 48 of this title; to keep or expose for sale; to serve with meals; to deliver for value or in any way other than gratuitously; to peddle or to possess with intent to sell; to possess or transport in contravention of this article; to traffic in for any consideration promised or obtained, directly or indirectly.

(35) "Sell at wholesale" means selling to any other than the intended consumer of malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors. "Sell at wholesale" shall not be construed to prevent a brewer or wholesale beer dealer from selling malt liquors to the intended consumer thereof, or to prevent a licensed manufacturer or importer from selling malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors to a licensed wholesaler.

(36) "Spirituous liquors" means any alcohol beverage obtained by distillation, mixed with water and other substances in solution, and includes among other things brandy, rum, whiskey, gin, and every liquid or solid, patented or not, containing at least one-half of one percent alcohol by volume and which is fit for use for beverage purposes. Any liquid or solid containing beer or wine in combination with any other liquor, except as provided in subsections (19) and (39) of this section, shall not be construed to be fermented malt or malt or vinous liquor but shall be construed to be spirituous liquor.

(37) "State licensing authority" means the executive director of the department of revenue or the deputy director of the department of revenue if the executive director so designates.

(37.5) "Tastings" means the sampling of malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors that may occur on the premises of a retail liquor store licensee or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee by adult patrons of the licensee pursuant to the provisions of section 12-47-301 (10).

(38) "Tavern" means an establishment serving alcohol beverages in which the principal business is the sale of alcohol beverages at retail for consumption on the premises and where sandwiches and light snacks are available for consumption on the premises.

(39) "Vinous liquors" means wine and fortified wines that contain not less than one-half of one percent and not more than twenty-one percent alcohol by volume and shall be construed to mean an alcohol beverage obtained by the fermentation of the natural sugar contents of fruits or other agricultural products containing sugar.

(39.5) “Vintner’s restaurant” means a retail establishment that sells food for consumption on the premises and that manufactures not more than two hundred fifty thousand gallons of wine on its premises each year.

(40) “Winery” means any establishment where vinous liquors are manufactured; except that the term does not include a vintner’s restaurant licensed pursuant to section 12-47-420.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-47-103 is similar to § 12-47-103 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Definition of words “sell” or “sale”, in subsection (24), must be considered in light of the purpose underlying this article. Contemporary Enters., Inc. v. Charnes, 44 Colo. App. 26, 613 P.2d 339 (1980).

Words “distinct” and “definite” in subsection (15) should be given their ordinary and generally accepted meanings. Denial of request for modification, where premises would still be distinct and definite as those terms are ordinarily defined, is arbitrary and capricious. East 40th Corp. v. City of Aurora, 746 P.2d 55 (Colo. App. 1987).

The operation of shuffleboards for gain or profit constitutes a business within the meaning of subsection (21) and is prohibited by law in restaurants where liquor is sold with meals. City and County of Denver v. Gushurst, 120 Colo. 465, 210 P.2d 616 (1949).

The playing of the game of shuffleboard does not come within the exceptions in subsection (21) and cannot be considered as an ancillary or auxiliary activity in aid of the main business of serving meals, but on the contrary is a separate and distinct business wholly incompatible with the type of restaurant defined in that subsection. City and County of Denver v. Gushurst, 120 Colo. 465, 210 P.2d 616 (1949).

The presence and operation of a “Chicago Coin Pistol” machine constitutes a separate and distinct business and is prohibited in restaurants which are licensed to sell intoxicating liquor by the drink. MacArthur v. Wyscaver, 120 Colo. 525, 211 P.2d 556 (1949); City and County of Denver v. Gushurst, 120 Colo. 465, 210 P.2d 616 (1949).

Pizza Hut outlets are restaurants and not stores or mercantile establishments. Pizza Hut, Inc. v. Dolan, 619 P.2d 508 (Colo. App. 1980).

The sale of cigarettes, mints, and salad dressings does not exclude Pizza Hut outlets from the category of restaurants. Pizza Hut, Inc. v. Dolan, 619 P.2d 508 (Colo. App. 1980).

Sale of “charge-a-drink” cards did not constitute sale of liquor under article. The activities of a company which sold “charge-a-drink” cards which entitled the holder to obtain, without charge, one drink worth up to $2 at each of 40 restaurants and lounges did not constitute the sale of liquor under the terms of this article. Contemporary Enters., Inc. v. Charnes, 44 Colo. App. 26, 613 P.2d 339 (1980).

Applied in Chroma Corp. v. County of Adams, 36 Colo. App. 345, 543 P.2d 83 (1975).

12-47-104. Wine shipments - permits. (1) (a) The holder of a winery direct shipper’s permit may sell and deliver wine that is produced or bottled by the permittee to a personal consumer located in Colorado.

(b) The holder of a winery direct shipper’s permit may not sell or ship wine to a minor, as defined in section 2-4-401 (6), C.R.S.

(2) A winery direct shipper's permit may be issued to only a person who applies for such permit to the state licensing authority and who:

(a) Operates a winery located in the United States and holds all state and federal licenses, permits, or both, necessary to operate the winery, including the federal winemaker's and blender's basic permit;

(b) Expressly submits to personal jurisdiction in Colorado state and federal courts for civil, criminal, and administrative proceedings and expressly submits to venue in the city and county of Denver, Colorado, as proper venue for any proceedings that may be initiated by or against the state licensing authority; and

(c) Except as provided in sections 12-47-402 (1) and 12-47-406 (3), does not directly or indirectly have any financial interest in a Colorado wholesaler or retailer licensed pursuant to section 12-47-406 or 12-47-407.

(3) (a) All wine sold or shipped by the holder of a winery direct shipper's permit shall be in a package that is clearly and conspicuously labeled, showing that:

(I) The package contains wine; and

(II) The package may be delivered only to a person who is twenty-one years of age or older.

(b) Wine sold or shipped by a holder of a winery direct shipper's permit may not be delivered to any person other than:

(I) The person who purchased the wine;

(II) A recipient designated in advance by such purchaser; or

(III) A person who is twenty-one years of age or older.

(c) Wine may be delivered only to a person who is twenty-one years of age or older after the person accepting the package:

(I) Presents valid proof of identity and age; and

(II) Personally signs a receipt acknowledging delivery of the package.

(4) The holder of a winery direct shipper's permit shall maintain records of all sales and deliveries made under the permit in accordance with section 12-47-701.

(5) A personal consumer purchasing wine from the holder of a winery direct shipper's permit may not resell the wine.

(6) The state licensing authority may adopt rules and forms necessary to implement this section.

12-47-105. Local option. The operation of this article shall be statewide unless any municipality or city and county, by a majority of the registered electors of any municipality or city and county, voting at any regular election or special election called for that purpose in accordance with the election laws of this state, decides against the right to sell alcohol beverages or to limit the sale of alcohol beverages to any one or more of the classes of licenses as provided by this article within their respective limits. Said local option question shall be submitted only upon a petition signed by not less than fifteen percent of the registered electors in the municipality or city and county; otherwise, the procedure with reference to the calling and holding of the elections shall be substantially in accordance with the election laws of the state. The expenses of the election shall be borne by the municipality or city and county in which the elections are held. The question of prohibition of sale of alcohol beverages or the limitation of sales to any one or more of the classes of licenses provided in this article shall not be submitted to the registered electors more than once in any four-year period.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Exclusive method. It is not the law that a majority of the people of a locality must favor the issuance of a liquor license before it may be granted; and this section provides the only method by which the electorate may decide for or against the right to sell intoxicating liquors. KBT Corp. v. Walker, 148 Colo. 274, 365 P.2d 685 (1961); Farmer v. City Council, 153 Colo. 306, 385 P.2d 596 (1963).

Under the local option provisions of the liquor code cities may be "dry" in counties that are otherwise "wet". Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 441, 319 P.2d 487 (1957).

There is no such thing under the law as county-wide local option. Ladd v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 146 Colo. 366, 361 P.2d 627 (1961).

12-47-106. Exemptions. (1) The provisions of this article shall not apply to the sale or distribution of sacramental wines sold and used for religious purposes.

(2) (a) Any provision of this article or article 46 of this title to the contrary notwithstanding, when permitted by federal law and rules and regulations promulgated pursuant thereto, a head of a family may produce for family use and not for sale such amount of fermented malt beverage or malt or vinous liquor as is exempt from the federal excise tax on such alcohol beverage when produced by a head of a family for family use and not for sale.

(b) The production of fermented malt beverages or malt or vinous liquors under the circumstances set forth in this subsection (2) shall be in strict conformity with federal law and rules and regulations issued pursuant thereto.

(c) Fermented malt beverages or malt or vinous liquors produced pursuant to the provisions of this subsection (2) shall be exempt from any tax imposed by this article, and the producer shall not be required to obtain any license provided by this article or article 46 of this title.

(d) Malt liquors produced pursuant to this subsection (2) may be transported and delivered by the producer to any licensed premise where consumption of malt liquors by persons over the age of twenty-one is authorized for use at organized affairs, exhibitions, or competitions, such as home brew contests, tastings, or judgments. Consumption shall be limited solely to the participants in and judges of such events. Malt liquors used for the purposes described in this paragraph (d) shall be served in portions not exceeding six ounces and shall not be sold, offered for sale, or made available for consumption by the general public.

(3) (a) The provisions of this article or article 46 of this title, with the exception of the requirements of section 12-47-503, shall not apply to the occasional sale of an alcohol beverage to any individual twenty-one years of age or older at public auction by any person where such auction sale is for the purpose of disposing of such alcohol beverage as may lawfully have come into the possession of such person in the due course of such person's regular business in the following manner:

(I) By reason of the failure of the owner of such alcohol beverage to claim the same or to furnish instructions as to the disposition thereof;

(II) By reason of the foreclosure of any lawful lien upon such alcohol beverage by said person in accordance with lawful procedure;

(III) By reason of salvage of such alcohol beverage, in the case of carriers, from shipments damaged in transit;

(IV) By reason of a lawful donation of such alcohol beverage to an organization qualifying under section 12-48-102 for a special event permit; except that no more than four public auctions per year shall be conducted pursuant to this subparagraph (IV).

(b) The state licensing authority shall be presented records of all transactions referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3).

(4) Any passenger twenty-one years of age or older arriving at any airport in this state on an air flight originating in a foreign country who is thereby subject to customs clearance at such airport may lawfully possess up to one gallon or four liters (one imperial gallon), whichever measure is applicable, of an alcohol beverage without liability for the Colorado excise tax thereon.

(5) This article shall not apply to state institutions of higher education when such institutions are engaged in the manufacture of vinous liquor on alternating proprietor licensed premises or premises licensed pursuant to section 12-47-402 or 12-47-403, for the purpose of enology research and education.

12-47-107. Permitted acts. Any person who has an interest in a liquor license may also be listed as an officer or director on a license owned by a municipality or governmental entity if such person does not individually manage or receive any direct financial benefit from the operation of such license.

PART 2

STATE LICENSING AUTHORITY - DUTIES

12-47-201. State licensing authority - creation. (1) For the purpose of regulating and controlling the licensing of the manufacture, distribution, and sale of alcohol beverages in this state, there is hereby created the state licensing authority, which shall be the executive director of the department of revenue or the deputy director of the department of revenue if the executive director so designates.

(2) The executive director of the department of revenue shall be the chief administrative officer of the state licensing authority and may employ, pursuant to section 13 of article XII of the state constitution, such clerks and inspectors as may be determined to be necessary.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-47-104 as it existed prior to 1997.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-47-201 is similar to § 12-46-104 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 46, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, a relevant case construing that provision has been included in the annotations to this section.

Applied in Adams County Golf, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 199 Colo. 423, 610 P.2d 97 (1980).

12-47-202. Duties of state licensing authority. (1) The state licensing authority shall:

(a) Grant or refuse licenses for the manufacture, distribution, and sale of alcohol beverages as provided by law and suspend or revoke such licenses upon a violation of this article, article 46 or 48 of this title, or any rule or regulation adopted pursuant to such articles;

(b) Make such general rules and regulations and such special rulings and findings as necessary for the proper regulation and control of the manufacture, distribution, and sale of alcohol beverages and for the enforcement of this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title and alter, amend, repeal, and publish the same from time to time;

(c) Hear and determine at public hearing all complaints against any licensee and administer oaths and issue subpoenas to require the presence of persons and production of papers, books, and records necessary to the determination of any hearing so held;

(d) Keep complete records of all acts and transactions of the state licensing authority, which records, except confidential reports obtained from the licensee showing the sales volume or quantity of alcohol beverages sold or stamps purchased or customers served, shall be open for inspection by the public;

(e) Prepare and transmit annually, in the form and manner prescribed by the heads of the principal departments pursuant to section 24-1-136, C.R.S., a report accounting to the governor for the efficient discharge of all responsibilities assigned by law or directive to the state licensing authority;

(f) Notify all persons to whom wholesale licenses have been issued as to applications for licenses and renewals of the licenses provided in sections 12-46-104 (1) and 12-47-407 to 12-47-418.

(2) (a) (I) Rules and regulations made pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection (1) of this section may cover, but shall not be limited to, the following subjects:

(A) Compliance with or enforcement or violation of any provision of this article, article 46 or 48 of this title, or any rule or regulation issued pursuant to such articles;

(B) Specifications of duties of officers and employees;

(C) Instructions for local licensing authorities and law enforcement officers;

(D) All forms necessary or convenient in the administration of this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title;

(E) Inspections, investigations, searches, seizures, and such activities as may become necessary from time to time, including a range of penalties for use by licensing authorities, which shall include aggravating and mitigating factors to be considered, when persons under twenty-one years of age are utilized to investigate sales of alcohol beverages by liquor licensees to underage persons;

(F) Limitation of number of licensees as to any area or vicinity;

(G) Misrepresentation, unfair practices, and unfair competition;

(H) Control of signs and other displays on licensed premises;

(I) Use of screens;

(J) Identification of licensees and their employees;

(K) Storage, warehouses, and transportation;

(L) Health and sanitary requirements;

(M) Standards of cleanliness, orderliness, and decency, and sampling and analysis of products;

(N) Standards of purity and labeling;

(O) Records to be kept by licensees and availability thereof;

(P) Practices unduly designed to increase the consumption of alcohol beverages;

(Q) Implementation, standardization, and enforcement of alternating proprietor licensed premises. The state licensing authority shall consult with interested parties from the alcohol beverage industry in developing appropriate rules to ensure adequate oversight and regulation of alternating proprietor licensed premises.

(R) Such other matters as are necessary for the fair, impartial, stringent, and comprehensive administration of this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title;

(S) The testing of the alcohol content of malt liquor and fermented malt beverage sold by persons licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title. The state licensing authority shall adopt such rules no later than January 1, 2011.

(II) Nothing in this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title shall be construed as delegating to the state licensing authority the power to fix prices. The licensing authority shall make no rule that would abridge the right of any licensee to fairly, honestly, and lawfully advertise the place of business of or the commodities sold by such licensee. All such rules shall be reasonable and just.

(b) (I) (A) The state licensing authority shall make no rule regulating or prohibiting the sale of alcohol beverages on credit offered or extended by a licensee to a retailer where the credit is offered or extended for thirty days or less. The state licensing authority shall enforce the prohibition against extending credit for more than thirty days for the sale of alcohol beverages pursuant to 27 CFR part 6 and may adopt rules regulating or prohibiting the sale of alcohol beverages on credit where the credit is offered or extended for more than thirty days, consistent with the federal regulations.

(B) Nothing in this subparagraph (I) allows the state licensing authority to adopt a rule that restricts the ability of a licensee to, or prohibits a licensee from, making sales of alcohol beverages, on a cash-on-delivery basis, to a retailer who is or may be in arrears in payments to a licensee for prior alcohol beverage sales.

(II) Licensees shall comply with the prohibition against extending credit to a retailer for more than thirty days for the sale of alcohol beverages, including beer, contained in 27 CFR part 6 and with rules adopted by the state licensing authority that are consistent with 27 CFR part 6.

(III) As used in this paragraph (b), “licensee” shall have the same meaning as “industry member”, as defined in 27 CFR 6.11, and includes a person engaged in business as a distiller, brewer, rectifier, blender, or other producer; as an importer or wholesaler of alcohol beverages; or as a bottler or warehouseman and bottler of spiritous liquors.

(3) In any hearing held by the state licensing authority pursuant to this article or article 46 or 48 of this title, no person may refuse, upon request of the state licensing authority, to testify or provide other information on the ground of self-incrimination; but no testimony or other information produced in the hearing or any information directly or indirectly derived from such testimony or other information may be used against such person in any criminal prosecution based on a violation of this article or article 46 or 48 of this title except a prosecution for perjury in the first degree committed in so testifying. Continued refusal to testify or provide other information shall constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of any license granted pursuant to this article or article 46 or 48 of this title.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. Since § 12-47-202 is similar to §§ 12-46-105 and 12-47-105 as they existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, articles 46 and 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

State licensing authority has jurisdiction to revoke expired liquor license. Department may revoke a license upon a violation of this article or a rule promulgated under this article. This article is silent concerning when the proceedings must be completed; therefore, the state licensing authority has jurisdiction to revoke a license so long as the violation occurs before the license expires. Trappers Lake Lodge & Resort, LLC v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 179 P.3d 198 (Colo. App. 2007).

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-46-105.

No untrammelled authority. An agency empowered with discretion to grant or deny a fermented malt beverage license does not have untrammelled power; it too is subject to standards and delimitations. Capra v. Davenport, 158 Colo. 537, 408 P.2d 448 (1965).

Nor unbridled discretion. The general assembly in giving to the licensing authority the power to grant or deny a license did not give it unbridled discretion, and did not permit it to exercise such discretion without the application of the standards upon which its conclusion was to be exercised. Capra v. Davenport, 158 Colo. 537, 408 P.2d 448 (1965).

Prima facie right to license established. Where an applicant establishes a prima facie right to a license to dispense 3.2 beer at its race track, and the only evidence before the commissioners in opposition thereto is incompetent and irrelevant, the license should be granted. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 441, 319 P.2d 487 (1957).

Denial because of neighborhood arbitrary and capricious. The denial of a license to dispense 3.2 beer to a kennel club on the ground that the reasonable requirements of a neighborhood do not warrant issuance thereof is not supported by evidence where the neighborhood is not supplied at all and that there are no such outlets within a radius of five miles, and is arbitrary and capricious. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 441, 319 P.2d 487 (1957).

Department acts capriciously and arbitrarily without proper statutory framework. Where there is no statutory framework within which a transfer application for a 3.2 percent license can properly be denied, the department acts capriciously and arbitrarily in denying the application. Adams County Golf, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 199 Colo. 423, 610 P.2d 97 (1980).

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-47-105.

Authority granted to director to define criminal conduct is not an unconstitutional delegation of legislative authority. Although the general assembly may not delegate to an administrative agency the power to define criminal conduct, it may authorize the agency to adopt rules carrying criminal sanctions as long as the statutory scheme provides sufficient standards and safeguards to protect against the unreasonable exercise of discretionary power and offers adequate notice of the penalties applicable to a violator. People v. Lowrie, 761 P.2d 778 (Colo. 1988).

Enabling legislation which charges the director to adopt rules and regulations not only with respect to the sale of alcoholic beverages in licensed taverns but also in relation to practices unduly designed to increase the consumption of alcoholic beverages provides sufficient standards and safeguards to protect the public against the unreasonable exercise of the director's power. Prohibiting the service of alcoholic beverages to intoxicated persons and the performance of certain live entertainment are therefore constitutional and not an unauthorized delegation of legislative authority. People v. Lowrie, 761 P.2d 778 (Colo. 1988).

The licensing authority is charged with the duty and task of determining whether a license should be granted or denied. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

The Colorado liquor code does not authorize a conspiracy to fix prices to the injury of competitors. United States v. Colo. Wine & Liquor Dealers Ass'n, 47 F. Supp. 160 (D. Colo. 1942), aff'd sub nom. United States v. Frankfort Distilleries, Inc., 324 U.S. 293, 65 S. Ct. 661, 89 L. Ed. 951 (1945).

Licensee presumed to know regulations. Having applied for and received a license pursuant to the state liquor code, a licensee is presumed to know the regulations governing use of that license. Chroma Corp. v. County of Adams, 36 Colo. App. 345, 543 P.2d 83 (1975).

Regulation prohibiting employees of liquor licensee from soliciting drinks was not overbroad and was reasonably related to a valid exercise of police power. 4-D Bros. v. Heckers, 33 Colo. App. 421, 522 P.2d 749 (1974).

Regulation of department of revenue, prohibiting liquor establishment licensee from employing a person to "mingle with patrons" and personally solicit the purchase or sale of drinks for use of one soliciting, was a proper exercise of authority delegated by the general assembly. People v. Willson, 187 Colo. 141, 528 P.2d 1315 (1974).

Validity of credit sales recognized. No rules or regulations pertaining to sales on credit have been promulgated by the state licensing authority; however, it is clear that the validity of credit sales is recognized. Majestic Marketing Co. v. Anderson Enterprises of Colo., Inc., 32 Colo. App. 369, 511 P.2d 943 (1973).

An applicant for a liquor license is entitled to a hearing on application, and if refused, to be advised of the reasons therefor. Sheeley v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 137 Colo. 350, 325 P.2d 275 (1958).

The action of the board in failing to hold a hearing and in refusing to give reasons for denial of a license is improper. Sheeley v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 137 Colo. 350, 325 P.2d 275 (1958).

Where a hearing has been held but no record made by the board, no judicial determination can be made as to whether the denial of an application itself is arbitrary and capricious, and that the courts should not in such a case order the board to issue a license but should remand the matter to the board for a hearing, the taking and recording of evidence and the making of specific findings of fact. Sheeley v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 137 Colo. 350, 325 P.2d 275 (1958).

Remand for hearing proper. In an action to compel a board of county commissioners to issue a liquor license, where it is shown that the board refused to issue the license but held no hearing and gave no reasons for such refusal, an order requiring the applicant to republish his notice and directing the board to hold a regular hearing thereon with a court reporter present is proper, since a liquor license cannot be secured by default. Sheeley v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 137 Colo. 350, 325 P.2d 275 (1958).

Director's request to see documents not violative of secrecy of grand jury. Request by director to see documents, which had been, or may at some time be, shown to a grand jury, which was examining books and records of liquor outlets but had not as yet returned an indictment, did not violate the policy of secrecy surrounding grand jury proceedings. Granbery v. District Court 187 Colo. 316, 531 P.2d 390 (1975).

Regulations under the liquor code are presumed to be valid, and the burden is upon the party challenging the constitutionality to establish by a clear and convincing showing beyond a reasonable doubt an asserted invalidity. C.V. Enters., Inc. v. State, Dept. of Rev., 42 Colo. App. 337, 593 P.2d 984 (1979).

Sale of "charge-a-drink" cards did not constitute sale of liquor. A company which sold "charge-a-drink" cards, which entitled holder to obtain, without charge, one drink worth up to $2 at each of 40 restaurants and lounges was not a liquor retailer since its activities do not constitute a sale of liquor under the terms of this article. Contemporary Enters., Inc. v. Charnes, 44 Colo. App. 26, 613 P.2d 339 (1980).

Applied in People ex rel. Heckers v. District Court, 170 Colo. 533, 463 P.2d 310 (1970); Citizens for Free Enter. v. Dept. of Rev., 649 P.2d 1054 (Colo. 1982).

12-47-203. Performance of duties. (1) The performance of the functions or activities set forth in this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title shall be subject to available appropriations; but nothing in this section shall be construed to remove from the state licensing authority the responsibility for performing such functions or activities in accordance with law at the level of funding provided.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the state shall be the final interpretive authority as it relates to this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, concerning persons licensed pursuant to this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title as wholesalers, manufacturers, importers, and public transportation system licensees.

PART 3

STATE AND LOCAL LICENSING

12-47-301. Licensing in general. (1) No local licensing authority shall issue a license provided for in this article or article 46 or 48 of this title until that share of the license fee due the state has been received by the department of revenue. All licenses granted pursuant to this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title shall be valid for a period of one year from the date of their issuance unless revoked or suspended pursuant to section 12-47-601 or 12-47-306.

(2) (a) Before granting any license, all licensing authorities shall consider, except where this article and article 46 of this title specifically provide otherwise, the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood, the desires of the adult inhabitants as evidenced by petitions, remonstrances, or otherwise, and all other reasonable restrictions that are or may be placed upon the neighborhood by the local licensing authority. With respect to a second or additional license described in section 12-47-401 (1) (j) to (1) (t) or 12-47-410 (1) or in a financial institution referred to in section 12-47-308 (4) for the same licensee, all licensing authorities shall consider the effect on competition of the granting or disapproving of additional licenses to such licensee, and no application for a second or additional hotel and restaurant or vintner's restaurant license that would have the effect of restraining competition shall be approved.

(b) A local licensing authority or the state on state-owned property may deny the issuance of any new tavern or retail liquor store license whenever such authority determines that the issuance of such license would result in or add to an undue concentration of the same class of license and, as a result, require the use of additional law enforcement resources.

(3) (a) Each license issued under this article and article 46 of this title is separate and distinct. It is unlawful for any person to exercise any of the privileges granted under any license other than that which the person holds or for any licensee to allow any other person to exercise such privileges granted under the licensee's license, except as provided in section 12-46-104 (1) (a), 12-47-402 (2.5), 12-47-403 (2) (a), 12-47-403.5, or 12-47-415 (1) (b). A separate license shall be issued for each specific business or business entity and each geographical location, and in said license the particular alcohol beverages the applicant is authorized to manufacture or sell shall be named and described. For purposes of this section, a resort complex with common ownership, a hotel and restaurant licensee with optional premises, an optional premises licensee for optional premises located on an outdoor sports and recreational facility, and a wine festival at which more than one licensee participates pursuant to a wine festival permit shall be considered a single business and location.

(b) At all times a licensee shall possess and maintain possession of the premises or optional premises for which the license is issued by ownership, lease, rental, or other arrangement for possession of such premises.

(4) (a) The licenses provided pursuant to this article and article 46 of this title shall specify the date of issuance, the period which is covered, the name of the licensee, the premises or optional premises licensed, the optional premises in the case of a hotel and restaurant license, and the alcohol beverages that may be sold on such premises or optional premises. The license shall be conspicuously placed at all times on the licensed premises or optional premises, and all sheriffs and police officers shall see to it that every person selling alcohol beverages within their jurisdiction has procured a license to do so.

(b) No local licensing authority shall issue, transfer location of, or renew any license to sell any alcohol beverages until the person applying for such license produces a license issued and granted by the state licensing authority covering the whole period for which a license or license renewal is sought.

(5) In computing any period of time prescribed by this article, the day of the act, event, or default from which the designated period of time begins to run shall not be included. Saturdays, Sundays, and legal holidays shall be counted as any other day.

(6) (a) Licensees at facilities owned by a municipality, county, or special district or at publicly or privately owned sports and entertainment venues with a minimum seating capacity of one thousand five hundred seats may possess and serve for on-premises consumption any type of alcohol beverage as may be permitted pursuant to guidelines established by the local and state licensing authorities, and the licensees need not have meals available for consumption.

(b) Nothing in this article shall prohibit a licensee at a sports and entertainment venue described in paragraph (a) of this subsection (6) from selling or providing alcohol beverages in sealed containers, as authorized by the license in effect, to adult occupants of luxury boxes located at stadiums, arenas, and similar sports and entertainment venues that are included within the licensed premises of the licensee. However, no person shall be allowed to leave the licensed premises with a sealed container of alcohol beverage that was obtained in the luxury box. As used in this paragraph (b), "luxury box" means a limited public access room or booth that is used by its occupants and their guests at sports and entertainment venues that are provided within the licensed premises.

(7) A licensee shall report each transfer or change of financial interest in the license to the state licensing authority and, for retail licenses, to the local licensing authority within thirty days after the transfer or change. A report shall be required for transfers of capital stock of a public corporation; except that a report shall not be required for transfers of such stock totaling less than ten percent in any one year, but any transfer of a controlling interest shall be reported regardless of size. It is unlawful for the licensee to fail to report a transfer required by this subsection (7). Such failure to report shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of the license.

(8) Each licensee holding a fermented malt beverage on-premises license or on- and off-premises license, beer and wine license, tavern license, club license, arts license, or racetrack license shall manage such premises himself or herself or employ a separate and distinct manager on the premises and shall report the name of such manager to the state and local licensing authorities. Such licensee shall report any change in managers to the state and local licensing authorities within thirty days after the change. It is unlawful for the licensee to fail to report the name of or any change in managers as required by this subsection (8). Such failure to report shall be grounds for suspension of the license.

(9) (a) A licensee may move his or her permanent location to any other place in the same city, town, or city and county for which the license was originally granted, or in the same county if such license was granted for a place outside the corporate limits of any city, town, or city and county, but it shall be unlawful to sell any alcohol beverage at any such place until permission to do so is granted by all the licensing authorities provided for in this article.

(b) In permitting such change of location, such licensing authorities shall consider the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood to which the applicant seeks to change his or her location, the desires of the adult inhabitants as evidenced by petitions, remonstrances, or otherwise, and all reasonable restrictions that are or may be placed upon the new district by the council, board of trustees, or licensing authority of the city, town, or city and county or by the board of county commissioners of any county.

(10) (a) The provisions of this subsection (10) shall only apply within a county, city and county, or municipality if the governing body of the county, city and county, or municipality adopts an ordinance or resolution authorizing tastings pursuant to this subsection (10). The ordinance or resolution may provide for stricter limits than this subsection (10) on the number of tastings per year per licensee, the days on which tastings may occur, or the number of hours each tasting may last.

(b) A retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee who wishes to conduct tastings may submit an application or application renewal to the local licensing authority. The local licensing authority may reject the application if the applicant fails to establish that he or she is able to conduct tastings without violating the provisions of this section or creating a public safety risk to the neighborhood. A local licensing authority may establish its own application procedure and may charge a reasonable application fee.

(c) Tastings shall be subject to the following limitations:

(I) Tastings shall be conducted only by a person who has completed a server training program that meets the standards established by the liquor enforcement division in the department of revenue and who is either a retail liquor store licensee or a liquor-licensed drugstore licensee, or an employee of a licensee, and only on a licensee's licensed premises.

(II) The alcohol used in tastings shall be purchased through a licensed wholesaler, licensed brew pub, or winery licensed pursuant to section 12-47-403 at a cost that is not less than the laid-in cost of such alcohol.

(III) The size of an individual alcohol sample shall not exceed one ounce of malt or vinous liquor or one-half of one ounce of spirituous liquor.

(IV) Tastings shall not exceed a total of five hours in duration per day, which need not be consecutive.

(V) Tastings shall be conducted only during the operating hours in which the licensee on whose premises the tastings occur is permitted to sell alcohol beverages, and in no case earlier than 11 a.m. or later than 7 p.m.

(VI) The licensee shall prohibit patrons from leaving the licensed premises with an unconsumed sample.

(VII) The licensee shall promptly remove all open and unconsumed alcohol beverage samples from the licensed premises or shall destroy the samples immediately following the completion of the tasting.

(VIII) The licensee shall not serve a person who is under twenty-one years of age or who is visibly intoxicated.

(IX) The licensee shall not serve more than four individual samples to a patron during a tasting.

(X) Alcohol samples shall be in open containers and shall be provided to a patron free of charge.

(XI) Tastings may occur on no more than four of the six days from a Monday to the following Saturday, not to exceed one hundred four days per year.

(XII) No manufacturer of spirituous or vinous liquors shall induce a licensee through free goods or financial or in-kind assistance to favor the manufacturer's products being sampled at a tasting. The licensee shall bear the financial and all other responsibility for a tasting.

(d) A violation of a limitation specified in this subsection (10) or of section 12-47-801 by a retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee, whether by his or her employees, agents, or otherwise, shall be the responsibility of the retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee who is conducting the tasting.

(e) A retail liquor store or liquor-licensed drugstore licensee conducting a tasting shall be subject to the same revocation, suspension, and enforcement provisions as otherwise apply to the licensee.

(f) Nothing in this subsection (10) shall affect the ability of a Colorado winery licensed pursuant to section 12-47-402 or 12-47-403 to conduct a tasting pursuant to the authority of section 12-47-402 (2) or 12-47-403 (2) (e).

(11) (a) This subsection (11) applies only within an entertainment district that a governing body of a local licensing authority has created by ordinance or resolution. This subsection (11) does not apply to a special event permit issued under article 48 of this title or the holder thereof unless the permit holder desires to use an existing common consumption area and agrees in writing to the requirements of this article and the local licensing authority concerning the common consumption area.

(b) A governing body of a local licensing authority may create an entertainment district by adopting an ordinance or resolution. An entertainment district shall not exceed one hundred acres. The ordinance or resolution may impose stricter limits than required by this subsection (11) on the size, security, or hours of operation of any common consumption area created within the entertainment district.

(c) (I) A certified promotional association may operate a common consumption area within an entertainment district and authorize the attachment of a licensed premises to the common consumption area.

(II) An association or tavern, hotel and restaurant, brew pub, retail gaming tavern, or vintner's restaurant licensee who wishes to create a promotional association may submit an application to the local licensing authority. To qualify for certification, the promotional association must:

(A) Have a board of directors;

(B) Have at least one director from each licensed premises attached to the common consumption area on the board of directors; and

(C) Agree to submit annual reports by January 31 of each year to the local licensing authority showing a detailed map of the boundaries of the common consumption area, the common consumption area's hours of operation, a list of attached licensed premises, a list of the directors and officers of the promotional association, security arrangements within the common consumption area, and any violation of this article committed by an attached licensed premises.

(III) The local licensing authority may refuse to certify or may decertify a promotional association of a common consumption area if the promotional association:

(A) Fails to submit the report required by sub-subparagraph (C) of subparagraph (II) of this paragraph (c) by January 31 of each year;

(B) Fails to establish that the licensed premises and common consumption area can be operated without violating this article or creating a safety risk to the neighborhood;

(C) Fails to have at least two licensed premises attached to the common consumption area;

(D) Fails to obtain or maintain a properly endorsed general liability and liquor liability insurance policy that is reasonably acceptable to the local licensing authority and names the local licensing authority as an additional insured;

(E) The use is not compatible with the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood or the desires of the adult inhabitants; or

(F) Violates section 12-47-909.

(d) A person shall not attach a premises licensed under this article to a common consumption area unless authorized by the local licensing authority.

(e) (I) A tavern, hotel and restaurant, brew pub, retail gaming tavern, or vintner's restaurant licensee who wishes to attach to a common consumption area may submit an application to the local licensing authority. To qualify, the licensee must include a request for authority to attach to the common consumption area from the certified promotional association of the common consumption area unless the promotional association does not exist when the application is submitted; if so, the applicant shall request the authority when a promotional association is certified and shall demonstrate to the local licensing authority that the authority has been obtained by the time the applicant's license issued under this article is renewed.

(II) The local licensing authority may deauthorize or refuse to authorize or reauthorize a licensee's attachment to a common consumption area if the licensed premises is not within or on the perimeter of the common consumption area and if the licensee:

(A) Fails to obtain or retain authority to attach to the common consumption area from the certified promotional association;

(B) Fails to establish that the licensed premises and common consumption area can be operated without violating this article or creating a safety risk to the neighborhood; or

(C) Violates section 12-47-909.

(f) A local licensing authority may establish application procedures and a fee for certifying a promotional authority or authorizing attachment to a common consumption area. The authority shall establish the fee in an amount designed to reasonably offset the cost of implementing this subsection (11). Notwithstanding any other provision of this article, a local authority may set the hours during which a common consumption area and attached licensed premises may serve alcohol and the customers may consume alcohol. Before certifying a promotional association, the local licensing authority shall consider the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood, the desires of the adult inhabitants as evidenced by petitions, remonstrances, or otherwise, and all other reasonable restrictions that are or may be placed upon the neighborhood by the local licensing authority.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-47-301 is similar to §§ 12-46-106, 12-46-108, and 12-47-106 as they existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, articles 46 and 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing those provisions have been included in the annotations to this section.

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-46-106.

It was the legislative intent in passing this article to vest a wide discretion in licensing authorities. MacArthur v. Sierota, 122 Colo. 115, 221 P.2d 346 (1950); Geer v. Susman, 134 Colo. 6, 298 P.2d 948 (1956); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 136 Colo. 421, 318 P.2d 596 (1957); Bailey v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 151 Colo. 115, 376 P.2d 519 (1962); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bova, 153 Colo. 230, 385 P.2d 590 (1963).

In acting on an application for a liquor license, the licensing authority has considerable latitude and broad discretionary power. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Nat'l Tea Co., 149 Colo. 80, 367 P.2d 909 (1962).

No authority to establish local public policy. The wide discretion vested in the licensing authority in granting or denying beverage licenses is not to be construed as authority to establish a local public policy, either by express resolution or by secret agreement contrary to the state statute legalizing the issuance of such licenses. Buddy & Lloyd's Store No. 1, Inc. v. City Council, 139 Colo. 152, 337 P.2d 389 (1959); Sierota v. Scott, 143 Colo. 248, 352 P.2d 671 (1960).

The licensing authority must not act arbitrarily or capriciously. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 136 Colo. 421, 318 P.2d 596 (1957).

Nor does it have untrammelled power. An agency empowered with discretion to grant or deny a fermented malt beverage license does not have untrammelled power; it too is subject to standards and delimitations. Capra v. Davenport, 158 Colo. 537, 408 P.2d 448 (1965).

The power to license the sale of alcoholic beverages includes the power to refuse a license, even when the statutory or preliminary requirements are complied with. Geer v. Susman, 134 Colo. 6, 298 P.2d 948 (1956).

The licensing authorities of the state have authority to issue a number of licenses for the sale of fermented malt beverages to a licensee. Big Top, Inc. v. Schooley, 149 Colo. 116, 368 P.2d 201 (1962).

The city and county of Denver could not, under the guise of regulation, prohibit the issuance of more than one license to sell fermented malt beverages where the general assembly, by whom the delegation to regulate was made, has clearly indicated that a licensee may be issued multiple licenses under this article. Big Top, Inc. v. Schooley, 149 Colo. 116, 368 P.2d 201 (1962).

This article authorizes municipalities to make reasonable rules and regulations governing the sale of 3.2 beer. Sierota v. Scott, 143 Colo. 248, 352 P.2d 671 (1960).

Each license application must be determined upon the facts as they exist at the time, not as they may have existed when a previous application was made. Vigil v. Burrell, 157 Colo. 507, 404 P.2d 147 (1965).

A licensee under this article does not have a vested right to a renewal. City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

The question of renewal becomes one for the exercise of the discretion of the licensing authority and it may refuse to renew such license upon good cause shown. City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

A licensing authority may not arbitrarily or summarily deny a renewal. City of Manitou

Spring v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

What is good cause for denial of license renewal depends upon the circumstances of the case. City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

Where county commissioners disregard the evidence presented, the denial of a license is arbitrary and capricious. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Nat'l Tea Co., 149 Colo. 80, 367 P.2d 909 (1962); Hirsch v. Bd. of Trustees, 150 Colo. 50, 370 P.2d 760 (1962).

It is the duty of the local licensing authority to exercise its discretion on the basis of all of the evidence adduced at the hearing on the application, and not from a synopsis of the hearing officer. Big Top, Inc. v. Hoffman, 156 Colo. 362, 399 P.2d 249 (1965).

Doubts resolved in favor of authority. Where the evidence shows the need of an applicant for a license, but not convincingly, the requirement of the community for it, all reasonable doubt must be resolved in favor of the licensing authority. Geer v. Susman, 134 Colo. 6, 298 P.2d 948 (1956); City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961); Bailey v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 151 Colo. 115, 376 P.2d 519 (1962).

It is the duty of an applicant to make out a prima facie case before the licensing authority, and having made out a prima facie case, then those opposing the granting of the license should have an opportunity to show cause why the license should not be issued. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 136 Colo. 421, 318 P.2d 596 (1957).

Lack of hearing, etc., no basis for order to issue license. A finding by the trial court that there was no hearing, no evidence taken, and no consideration on the merits of an application for a liquor license before a board of county commissioners is not sufficient to sanction an order directing the board to issue the license. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 136 Colo. 421, 318 P.2d 596 (1957).

Where the record fails to disclose any valid reason for the denial of an application to dispense 3.2 beer, a judgment finding that the board of county commissioners abused its discretion in denying such license and ordering the same to issue was not erroneous. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Skaff, 139 Colo. 452, 340 P.2d 866 (1959).

Refusal where store located close to school. The licensing authority, in its discretion, could refuse to issue a license to sell at retail 3.2 percent beer to an applicant whose store was located only 176 feet from a school with students both above and below the age of 18 who frequented such store. MacArthur v. Sierota, 122 Colo. 115, 221 P.2d 346 (1950).

Where an applicant sought a license to dispense 3.2 beer in a residential neighborhood where a considerable juvenile and teenage problem existed, and such license was denied by the licensing authority on the ground that existing outlets were sufficient to meet the requirements of the community, and that a substantial number of persons living in the area desired that the license be denied, a claim that the licensing authority failed to give candid and honest consideration to the facts before him in the exercise of his discretion falls short of that required to overcome the presumption of validity attending his administrative acts. Geer v. Susman, 134 Colo. 6, 298 P.2d 948 (1956).

Where neighborhood requirements were adequately served. Where record does not reflect that reasonable requirements of neighborhood are not being adequately served by existing 3.2 percent beer outlets, one of which is to be found within distance of one city block from premises of applicant and another within two or three blocks east of applicant's store, denial of application by licensing authority under such circumstances was neither arbitrary nor capricious. Capra v. U-Tote'm of Colo. Inc., 159 Colo. 130, 410 P.2d 171 (1966).

Despite inconvenience. Where the evidence showed nine outlets for the sale of beer within a radius of six blocks of applicant's store, and the testimony for applicant was limited and related only to an inconvenience in the location of other beer outlets, it could not be said that the showing made by applicant of the need for another beer outlet in the neighborhood was so plain and certain that the action of the licensing authority in denying the application was arbitrary and without good cause. MacArthur v. Sierota, 122 Colo. 115, 221 P.2d 346 (1950).

Denial of a license because of speculative reasons such as possible vandalism, noise, or disturbances, where it is obvious that these factors alone and not the required factors were the basis for the denial, is without legal justification. Mobell v. Meyer, 172 Colo. 12, 469 P.2d 414 (1970).

Denial of a license because of resulting traffic and parking problems is without legal justification. Mobell v. Meyer, 172 Colo. 12, 469 P.2d 414 (1970).

Issuance of other license not an admission of need. Where an application for a beer license was refused, the subsequent issuance of a license for the sale of malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors to another applicant on premises only three blocks away was not an admission that there was a reasonable need and requirement for another licensed place in the neighborhood nor did it prove that the denial of the license to the applicant was plainly arbitrary. MacArthur v. Sierota, 122 Colo. 115, 221 P.2d 346 (1950).

A reference in the findings to previous proceedings was improper. Vigil v. Burress, 157 Colo. 507, 404 P.2d 147 (1965).

County may lawfully issue 3.2 percent license to nonprofit corporation which is licensee-concessionaire of a portion of golf clubhouse facilities, in order to provide such service to the patrons of the golf course and to the general public. Adams County Golf, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 199 Colo. 423, 610 P.2d 97 (1980).

Applied in Duran v. Riggs, 147 Colo. 278, 363 P.2d 656 (1961).

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-46-108.

Law reviews. For article, "Moral Character of the Liquor Licensee or Applicant", see 25 Colo. Law. 79 (February 1996).

The applicable legal requirements to be considered in issuing licenses are set forth in this section which deals with qualifications and conditions for license. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Skaff, 139 Colo. 452, 340 P.2d 866 (1959).

In the exercise of the police power the licensing authority may refuse to issue or renew a license for any good cause, and the courts may reverse the decision only if the refusal was arbitrary or without good cause under the circumstances of the case. City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

Discretion of licensing authority. In acting on liquor applications, there is considerable latitude and discretion in the local licensing authority. However, its power to act is not a completely unbridled one and its action is subject to judicial review. Nat'l Convenience Stores, Inc. v. City of Englewood, 192 Colo. 109, 556 P.2d 476 (1976).

This section does not relieve applicants of the duty to prove a reasonable requirement for the proposed outlet, an essential prerequisite to the granting of a license. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

The applicant has the burden of showing prima facie that the desires and reasonable requirements of the neighborhood dictate the issuance of the license. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Nat'l Tea Co., 149 Colo. 80, 367 P.2d 909 (1962).

Language concerning good moral character in section 12-48.5-108, which is similar to language in this section, is applied in R & F Enters., Inc. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 199 Colo. 137, 606 P.2d 64 (1980).

The liquor licensing authority has a duty to consider the character and reputation of the applicant. MacLarty v. Whiteford, 30 Colo. App. 378, 496 P.2d 1071 (1972).

Consideration of conduct and location proper. It is entirely proper for a licensing authority to take into account not only the conduct of the licensee but also conditions which render a continuance of a 3.2 beer license in a particular location against the public interest. City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

The licensing authority is not limited in its consideration to the applicant's character, the need of the neighborhood, and the desires of the inhabitants. City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

No arbitrariness in board's definition of neighborhood. Where the board in defining the neighborhood involved included therein not only the two subdivisions mentioned but also a few blocks south and west of said Duran's subdivision, wherein were located three existing 3.2 outlets, and also included in the neighborhood the fringe area adjacent, the board did not act arbitrarily in defining neighborhood to be affected. Duran v. Riggs, 147 Colo. 278, 363 P.2d 656 (1961).

The term "neighborhood" signifies nearness as opposed to remoteness. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 441, 319 P.2d 487 (1957).

But not entire county. Moreover, no authority justifies the conclusion that the "neighborhood" involved in an application for a liquor license can be expanded to include an entire county. Kerr v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 170 Colo. 227, 460 P.2d 235 (1969).

Requirements of neighborhood and desires of inhabitants considered. This section requires the local licensing authority to consider not only the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood, but also the desires of its inhabitants. Neither is in itself controlling, but both must be considered together. Duran v. Riggs, 147 Colo. 278, 363 P.2d 656 (1961); Bailey v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 151 Colo. 115, 376 P.2d 519 (1962); Mobell v. Meyer, 172 Colo. 12, 469 P.2d 414 (1970).

In regard to an application for a 3.2 percent beer license, local authorities are to consider the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants. U-Tote-M of Colo., Inc. v. City of Greenwood Vill., 39 Colo. App. 28, 563 P.2d 373 (1977).

Record must show prima facie desires, etc., of neighborhood. The granting or denial of a beverage license depends on the record made by an applicant before the local licensing authority and must show prima facie the desires and reasonable requirements of the neighborhood. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Nat'l Tea Co., 149 Colo. 80, 367 P.2d 909 (1962).

Under the statutory standard the applicant has the burden of making a prima facie showing that the desires of the inhabitants and reasonable requirements of the neighborhood establish the need for the issuance of the license. Nat'l Convenience Stores, Inc. v. City of Englewood, 192 Colo. 109, 556 P.2d 476 (1976).

Where the record before county commissioners discloses that the residents of a neighborhood indicated a desire that a license to dispense 3.2 beer be issued to an applicant and that there is no similar outlet in the entire community, a determination by a trial court that a denial of the application by the board was arbitrary and without good cause is proper. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Skaff, 139 Colo. 452, 340 P.2d 866 (1959).

Where evidence discloses that the overwhelming majority of persons living in a town are opposed to the granting of a liquor license, denial of the application therefor by board of county commissioners is neither arbitrary nor an abuse of discretion. Bailey v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 151 Colo. 115, 376 P.2d 519 (1962).

Prospective patrons considered. In determining whether a license to dispense 3.2 beer should be granted or denied to a dog racing kennel club, the patrons of the track were to be considered in determining the needs of the particular location. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 441, 319 P.2d 487 (1957).

Inhabitants' petitions considered. This section precludes the licensing agency from granting a license until it has given good faith consideration to inhabitants' petitions and remonstrances. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

The number of persons signing for or against a license is not wholly determinative of either the reasonable requirements or the desires of the neighborhood. Vigil v. Burress, 157 Colo. 507, 404 P.2d 147 (1965).

It is not dispositive that plaintiff obtained more signatures in favor of the license than were presented by defendant in opposition. U-Tote-M of Colo., Inc. v. City of Greenwood Vill., 39 Colo. App. 28, 563 P.2d 373 (1977).

Other proof. This section in no way limits the board in giving proper consideration to other proof of the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood or the desires of the inhabitants thereof. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Letters from various organizations and individuals from a city at large have no probative value whatever. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 441, 319 P.2d 487 (1957).

The desires of the citizens of one county cannot be controlling on the board of county commissioners of another county. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 441, 319 P.2d 487 (1957).

Evidence before a licensing authority relating to teenage problems, noise, and rowdiness, indicating that such conditions were in substantial measure due to existence of 3.2 beer license of the applicant, authorized the licensing authority to determine that the license in the particular location was against the public interest. City of Manitou Springs v. Walk, 149 Colo. 43, 367 P.2d 744 (1961).

Denial of a license because of resulting traffic and parking problems is without legal justification. Mobell v. Meyer, 172 Colo. 12, 469 P.2d 414 (1970).

Denial of a license because of speculative reasons such as possible vandalism, noise, or disturbances, where it is obvious that these factors alone and not the required factors were the basis for the denial, is without legal justification. Mobell v. Meyer, 172 Colo. 12, 469 P.2d 414 (1970).

The mere existence of other outlets in the neighborhood, although a factor to be considered by the licensing authority, is not in itself a sufficient ground for denying a license. Nat'l Convenience Stores, Inc. v. City of Englewood, 192 Colo. 109, 556 P.2d 476 (1976).

The number and location of outlets licensed under the state "liquor code" are not a controlling factor in determining whether a license to dispense at retail fermented malt beverage by the package should be granted. Hirsch v. Bd. of Trustees, 150 Colo. 50, 370 P.2d 760 (1962).

The lack of proof that the neighborhood is not adequately served precludes issuance of a license. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

The proximity of the proposed outlet to the existing outlet is an important factor properly to be considered by the licensing authority. Big Top, Inc. v. Hoskinson, 158 Colo. 400, 407 P.2d 26 (1965).

Must distinguish "package" and "by the drink" outlets. Where it appeared from the licensing agency findings that in consideration of the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood it refused to take cognizance of the distinction between outlets dispensing 3.2 beer by the package and a proposed outlet which would offer 3.2 beer by the drink, it acted arbitrarily. Kerr v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 170 Colo. 227, 460 P.2d 235 (1969).

Outlets found inadequate. A complete absence of a 3.2 outlet within a radius of five miles cannot be said to serve the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood. Cloverleaf Kennel Club v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 136 Colo. 441, 319 P.2d 487 (1957); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Skaff, 139 Colo. 452, 340 P.2d 866 (1959).

Where the record disclosed that only one outlet as that for which license was sought had been authorized in entire county, located at a distance of 25 miles from city where applicant resided, a license to sell 3.2 beer was unlawfully denied by the city council. McNeill v. City Council, 148 Colo. 277, 365 P.2d 687 (1961).

Where the record disclosed not a single outlet in a town for the dispensing of 3.2 beer, a finding by the town board of trustees that the area was served adequately with such beverage was wholly unsupported. Hirsch v. Bd. of Trustees, 150 Colo. 50, 370 P.2d 760 (1962).

Cases Decided Under Former § 12-47-106.

- I. General Consideration.
- II. Neighborhood Requirements.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For comment on Campbell v. City Council, appearing below, see 35 U. Colo. L. Rev. 252 (1963). For note, "The Liquor Code — Colorado Revised Statute Antiquated", see 38 U. Colo. L. Rev. 248 (1965).

Delegation of legislative authority to the Department of Excise and Licenses to adopt rules and conduct hearings on applications to renew liquor licenses is not unconstitutional on the basis that the statute fails to provide sufficient standards for defining "good cause". Squire Restaurant and Lounge v. Denver, 890 P.2d 164 (Colo. App. 1994).

Statutory licensing guide. The licensing authority is by statute charged with the duty and task of determining whether a license should be granted or denied, and the statutory guide provided for the board in performing this duty is found in this section. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Supreme court decisions. Another source of guidance for the board in performing its duties as a licensing authority is the numerous pronouncements of the supreme court. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Three principles pervade all of the pertinent decisions: (1) The licensing authorities are vested with a very wide discretion; (2) all reasonable doubts as to the correctness of the board's rulings are to be resolved in favor of the board; (3) the determination of the board will not be disturbed by the courts unless it appears that the board has abused its discretion. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

The issuance of licenses under the liquor code depends in the final analysis on the judgment of the licensing authority and not upon that of citizens or the court; and all reasonable doubt must be resolved in favor of the licensing authority. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

It was the intention of the general assembly to vest a wide discretion in local licensing authorities in the issuance of licenses for sale of alcoholic beverages. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959).

Governed by facts and circumstances. While a wide discretion is vested in the county commissioners with respect to the issuance of liquor licenses, the exercise of that discretion must be governed by a proper consideration of the facts and circumstances in each case. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The exercise of this discretion cannot be dispensed with by the adoption of a policy to deny all applications. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The discretion of the licensing officer in granting or refusing a license is well established by the decisions of the supreme court. Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

The general assembly has established the public policy for the entire state, and this cannot be overridden by local governments by mere fiat nor ignored by the courts. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

No contrary local policy authorized. The wide discretion which is vested in the licensing authority in granting or denying licenses is not to be construed as authority to establish a local public policy either by express resolution or by secret agreement contrary to the state statutes which have legalized the issuance of this particular type of license. Ladd v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 146 Colo. 366, 361 P.2d 627 (1961).

Licensing procedures must not be used as a means of establishing local option and circumventing statutory requirements. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

Local authority to license, not to regulate. The board of county commissioners has no authority to regulate the sale of malt and vinous liquors, other than 3.2 percent beer, but only to grant, suspend, or revoke licenses as provided by this section. Gettman v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 122 Colo. 185, 221 P.2d 363 (1950).

A resolution of a city council limiting the number of liquor licenses on the basis of citywide population is invalid as tantamount to a prejudgment of any application, this article requiring a hearing, and issuance or denial of a license on the merits of each application. City of Colo. Springs v. Graham, 143 Colo. 97, 352 P.2d 273 (1960).

No authority to regulate hours. No attempt to delegate to the board of county commissioners any authority of regulation as to hours when malt or vinous liquors may be sold or the authority to promulgate other rules and regulations is made by this section. Gettman v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 122 Colo. 185, 221 P.2d 363 (1950).

Personal right vested in licensee. A liquor license vests a personal right in the licensee and confers the right to do that which without the license would be unlawful, such right being coextensive with the duration of the license and is restricted to a certain location, unless change thereof is granted upon application to, and after a hearing by, the licensing authority. A. D. Jones

& Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Liquor license is a property right entitled to due process protection including notice and an opportunity to be heard and, therefore, due process was denied when claimant for liquor license renewal was not notified that evidence would be taken on the needs and desires of the neighborhood. Price Haskell v. Denver Dept. of Excise & Licenses, 694 P.2d 364 (Colo. App. 1984).

This section permits removal to another location of a hotel and restaurant license upon a proper showing. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

While the section permits removal to another location of a hotel or restaurant license upon a proper showing, a contract by which the parties agree that the licensee will not exercise this privilege, but upon termination of the tenancy will surrender the license to the licensing authority, is not in violation of the law since it is not an agreement for the transfer of the license. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Full, fair, and impartial hearing. Where an applicant was given full opportunity to present all testimony and documentary evidence it desired, and availed itself of such opportunity, the fact that the chairman of the board of county commissioners at beginning of hearing expressed the opinion that needs of the neighborhood were presently met, falls short of denial to applicant of full, fair, and impartial hearing. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

No court may substitute its judgment for that of the local licensing authority when there is any evidence in the record that supports the conclusion of the licensing authority. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977); Duren, Inc. v. City of Lakewood, 709 P.2d 74 (Colo. App. 1985).

Denial upheld where not arbitrary or capricious. While not supported by a preponderance, the denial of a retail license will be upheld if supported by sufficient evidence, if the licensing authority did not act arbitrarily and capriciously. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Thompson, 167 Colo. 402, 448 P.2d 639 (1968).

"Good cause" standard fails to give sufficient notice. Standard in liquor code of "good cause" as the criterion for determining if a liquor license is renewed, without any implementing rules, fails to give sufficient definiteness of what conduct and conditions are required to avoid nonrenewal, fails to insure rational and consistent administrative action and effective subsequent judicial review of that action, and therefore violates due process. Some limit must be provided by the Department of Excise and Licenses to guide discretion in determining if "good cause" for refusing to renew a liquor license exists. Squire Restaurant and Lounge v. Denver, 890 P.2d 164 (Colo. App. 1994).

Abuse of discretion. An example of refusal for good cause is where the board of county commissioners refused to grant a liquor license to an operator of a rural hotel and based its decision on the fact that the premises could be reached only by a dangerous, winding country road in a mountainous area and also on the ground of the proximity of young people at a nearby college, it was held not to be an abuse of discretion. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The right of a licensing authority to refuse for good cause, of necessity vests in the board of county commissioners in any county in the first instance the right to determine what is good cause for refusal. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

Prior license action not binding. The board is not bound by any prior action of any licensing authority with relation to the facts pertaining to the issuance of any license for former years, but is called upon to exercise its own discretion as of the date of a new application. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Conceivably, the licensing authority passing upon a new application, in the exercise of its discretion, might with propriety reject an application which a former board, upon the same facts, approved, and in so doing the board would not, of necessity, be guilty of an abuse of discretion, or an arbitrary and capricious exercise thereof. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958); Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

That a licensing officer had previously denied the application to another to operate an establishment at the same premises does not preclude the issuance of a license to an applicant who in his judgment and discretion is qualified therefor. Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

Evidence at second court-ordered hearing. Upon a second hearing on an application for a liquor license, held pursuant to an order of court, the licensing authority is not limited only to the exhibits offered at the first hearing and the testimony of those witnesses only who testified therein. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Applied in Awr Corp. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 154 Colo. 511, 391 P.2d 675 (1964); Smith v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 155 Colo. 175, 394 P.2d 840 (1964).

II. NEIGHBORHOOD REQUIREMENTS.

Applications are considered and determined upon a geographical basis, a neighborhood, and not upon a citywide population basis. City of Colo. Springs v. Graham, 143 Colo. 97, 352 P.2d 273 (1960).

Determined by city council. The members of a city council, as the local licensing authority, knowing the area which they represent and the problems confronting it, are better able to consider what should constitute the "neighborhood" after considering all of the evidence presented to it than is the supreme court. Campbell v. City Council, 150 Colo. 471, 374 P.2d 348 (1962).

The geographic extent of the neighborhood will vary from case to case. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Never entire county. No authority justifies the conclusion that the "neighborhood" involved in an application for a liquor license can be expanded to include an entire county. Bolton v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 164 Colo. 112, 432 P.2d 761 (1967).

Boundary lines of a city do not exclude residents on one side or the other from the "neighborhood" to be considered in connection with applications for liquor licenses. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The existence or nonexistence of outlets on either side of a city boundary are to be considered by the licensing authority in determining whether reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being met. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The fact that a particular type of license is not authorized in the neighborhood does not require the issuance of such a license if, in fact, the needs of the neighborhood, with respect to the type of beverage authorized to be sold by the license requested, are being met by existing licenses. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The licensing of so-called "fringe stores" is not a matter that in and of itself is a bar to the issuance of licenses, but is merely a circumstance to which the board is entitled to give such reasonable weight as it shall determine. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Applicant's showing of neighborhood. It is incumbent upon an applicant for a liquor license to show with some degree of clarity the area of the neighborhood requiring the service proposed to be rendered. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

The test under subsection (2) is still the "desires of the inhabitants" and "the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood". Tavella v. Eppinger, 152 Colo. 506, 383 P.2d 314 (1963).

Before a liquor license can be issued under subsection (2), two requirements must be affirmatively established: 1. that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are not being met by existing outlets, and 2. that the inhabitants of the neighborhood desire its issuance. Heinz v. Bauer, 150 Colo. 589, 375 P.2d 520 (1962).

The licensing authority must determine both the reasonable requirements of a neighborhood and the desires of its inhabitants. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

Unless both requirements are met no license may issue. Heinz v. Bauer, 150 Colo. 589, 375 P.2d 520 (1962).

Establishing these two requirements is the statutory responsibility of the board. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Showing of inadequate service required. An applicant is entitled to a license only on proof that the neighborhood sought to be served is not adequately served by the other licensed outlets. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

This section does not relieve applicants of the duty to prove a reasonable requirement for the proposed outlet, an essential prerequisite to the granting of a license. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Where there are a number of licensed outlets in an area, an applicant for an additional liquor license has the burden to establish by competent evidence that the needs of the community are not being adequately met by existing outlets. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Evergreen Lanes, Inc., 154 Colo. 413, 391 P.2d 372 (1964).

Lack of proof of the fact that the neighborhood is not adequately served precludes the issuance of a license. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Economic competition considered. Whether any benefit will result to the public from competition in the sale of intoxicating liquor in a particular area is a matter which the licensing authority may consider in determining the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants, the weight to be accorded such matter being within the sound discretion of the authority. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

The weight to be accorded to such matters as whether any benefit will result to the public from economic competition lies within the sound discretion of the board of county supervisors. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

Number and proximity of other outlets considered. Besides considering the number of outlets in the area, the board of county commissioners may properly take into account in its consideration of the case the fact that close to the location for which a license is sought there are existing outlets to serve the public. Jennings v. Hoskinson, 152 Colo. 276, 382 P.2d 807 (1963).

The existence of a desire for a new outlet is some evidence that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood were not being met. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

Regardless of their reasons, the desires of the inhabitants are to be considered. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Where protests were based on the general policy that liquor is evil, and secondly that there was a package store nearby, such protests were not relevant and should not have been considered since the application was for liquor by the drink. Since there was no competent evidence before the board to negate the affirmative showing by the applicant, and the board arbitrarily restricted the neighborhood, the license should have been granted. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Consideration of proof unlimited. This section in no way limits the board in giving proper consideration to other proof of the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood or the desires of the inhabitants thereof. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Effect of petitions and remonstrances of inhabitants. While the expression of opinions as to the requirements of the neighborhood and the needs of the inhabitants thereof, contained in petitions and remonstrances, are entitled to consideration, they are not controlling since this section requires that the issuance of licenses shall depend on the judgment of the licensing authority and not on that of citizens or the court. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950); MacArthur v. Sanzalone, 123 Colo. 166, 225 P.2d 1044 (1950).

The statute precludes the board from granting a license until it has given good faith consideration to inhabitants' petitions and remonstrances. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Geographical distinctions within a neighborhood do not determine the efficacy of petitions or remonstrances in liquor licensing cases. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The fact that a greater number of inhabitants had signed petitions favoring issuance of the license does not of itself mandate issuance thereof. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

Where remonstrances against the granting of a beverage license are signed by others than those resident in a defined neighborhood of a licensee's outlet, and its issuance is supported by several hundred persons resident in the immediate neighborhood, the petitions supporting the application are sufficient to justify its issuance, and there being nothing to indicate that a city council acted arbitrarily or capriciously in granting a license, the courts will not interfere. Hanna v. Henderson, 140 Colo. 481, 345 P.2d 384 (1959).

Votes in local option election. The desires of the citizens "otherwise" expressed by their votes in a local option election is likewise admissible evidence to be considered in ascertaining the "desires of the inhabitants", and given such weight as the board of commissioners deemed proper under this section. Van De Vegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Needs of traveling public. In determining the reasonable requirements of neighborhood upon application for a restaurant liquor license, evidence of the reasonable need of the traveling public and transients is valid to show such need and demand. Campbell v. City Council, 150 Colo. 471, 374 P.2d 348 (1962).

Showing of inadequate service sufficient. Where the record discloses that there are no restaurant liquor licenses in the city, and no such license in the entire county, the nearest outlet of the kind being 50 miles distant, it cannot be said that the reasonable requirements of the area have been met. Farmer v. City Council, 153 Colo. 306, 385 P.2d 596 (1963).

Where there is a substantial showing that a liquor outlet is desired in a community, it cannot be said that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being served when it appears that the nearest outlet of the kind sought is 12 or 13 miles distant from the location requested. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Whale, 154 Colo. 271, 389 P.2d 588 (1964).

Where the only licenses presently existing in a city are for private clubs and package liquor stores, and more favor than disfavor the license in the immediate neighborhood, there is no basis upon which the application of plaintiff may legally be denied since there are no licenses of the type sought within a five mile radius. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

Where the general assembly has authorized the issuance of hotel and restaurant liquor licenses throughout the state, thus determining the public policy, and where the evidence disclosed that no such license had ever been issued in city of size and population disclosed by the record, and substantial support for the issuance of such license is shown, it cannot be said that reasonable requirements of the area have been met. KBT Corp. v. Walker, 148 Colo. 274, 365 P.2d 685 (1961).

Denial arbitrary and capricious. Where there is no liquor outlet of a given classification within a radius of several miles, the refusal to grant such a license is arbitrary and capricious where substantial support for the issuance thereof is shown. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Where an application for a hotel and restaurant liquor license was denied and evidence disclosed that there was no such outlet within a radius of 35 miles of city, the determination of city council that the neighborhood was adequately supplied by existing outlets was arbitrary and capricious. KBT Corp. v. Walker, 148 Colo. 274, 365 P.2d 685 (1961).

Showing of inadequate service insufficient. Where there are a number of licensed outlets in an area in which a restaurant license is sought, evidence that many residents of the neighborhood desired to dine at applicants' restaurant and desired to be served liquor with their meals, does not alone establish that existing outlets were inadequate to satisfy the desires of the inhabitants and the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bova, 153 Colo. 230, 385 P.2d 590 (1963).

The finding of the trial court that the applicant plans to provide a general recreation facility and that such facility is unlike any presently existing in the area, and this is fully borne out by the evidence and is undisputed, does not evidence the fact that the neighborhood in question requires another liquor outlet, especially where the undisputed evidence is that the proposed development will proceed whether or not a liquor license is granted. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Evergreen Lanes, Inc., 154 Colo. 413, 391 P.2d 372 (1964).

Though the applicant proved the majority of those interested desired the license to issue, and it undoubtedly would be a convenience to have such a store within the shopping center where there is more adequate parking and one stop service, nevertheless it is also true that the physical facts could, and in the judgment of the authority did, show that the present reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being met. Brentwood Liquors, Inc. v. Schooley, 147 Colo. 324, 363 P.2d 670 (1961).

Denial not capricious or arbitrary. Where even though the desire of the neighborhood was that the license should issue, nonetheless the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood were adequately met by the existing outlets, in particular a liquor store next door to the applicant, the city council in so finding did not act arbitrarily or capriciously, but well within the limits of its discretionary power. McIntosh v. Council of City of Littleton, 145 Colo. 533, 360 P.2d 136 (1961).

Where the evidence in the record showed the existence of many licensed restaurants and liquor stores in the vicinity, this was potent evidence to support the finding that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood had been met and that the denial of a license was not capricious or arbitrary. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950).

Where evidence disclosed three existing hotel and restaurant liquor licenses in an area designated as a neighborhood and others in close proximity thereto, a finding by the licensing authority of lack of need for issuance of license applied for, based upon a fair appraisal of the evidence, cannot be held to be arbitrary. Schooley v. Steinberg, 148 Colo. 222, 365 P.2d 245 (1961).

Where the record disclosed two package liquor outlets and two establishments serving liquor by the drink within half to three quarters of a mile of applicant's location, denial of a package liquor license by board of county commissioners was not arbitrary or capricious. Malouff v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 150 Colo. 11, 370 P.2d 161 (1962).

Where the board of commissioners did not refuse to receive any evidence offered, and the evidence showed the location of the proposed dispensary to be in close proximity to state college, and where the board had before it protests admitted to have been made by many of the officials of the college and of the public schools, as well as petitions signed by citizens, the court could not say that the board acted arbitrarily or capriciously in refusing a license when such action was based on evidence from which reasonable men might honestly draw different conclusions. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Prima facie need for license shown. Where prior to condemnation by the state for highway purposes, there were two successful outlets in Silver Plume; that because of the condemnation proceedings there were none at the time of the application; that the nearest such outlet was two and one-half miles away; that 34 residents indicated the need for such an outlet; and where after denial of the application, but prior to the district court's review thereof, the trustees issued a similar license to a nearby establishment, the evidence constitutes a prima facie showing of need for the license. Booth v. Trustees of Town of Silver Plume, 28 Colo. App. 470, 474 P.2d 227 (1970).

12-47-302. License renewal. (1) Ninety days prior to the expiration date of an existing license, the state licensing authority shall notify the licensee of such expiration date by first class mail at the business' last-known address. Application for the renewal of an existing license shall be made to the local licensing authority not less than forty-five days and to the state licensing authority not less than thirty days prior to the date of expiration. No application for renewal of a license shall be accepted by the local licensing authority after the date of expiration, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, but filing with the local licensing authority shall be deemed filing with the state, and all renewals filed with the local licensing authorities prior to expiration, and subsequently approved, shall be processed by the state licensing authority, and the expiration date is extended until the state license is processed. The state or the local licensing authority, for good cause, may waive the forty-five- or thirty-day time requirements set forth in this subsection (1). The local licensing authority may cause a hearing on the application for renewal to be held. No renewal hearing provided for by this subsection (1) shall be held by the local licensing authority until a notice of hearing has been conspicuously posted on the licensed premises for a period of ten days and notice of the hearing has been provided the applicant at least ten days prior to the hearing. The licensing authority may refuse to renew any license for good cause, subject to judicial review. Any renewal hearing held by the state licensing authority shall be pursuant to section 12-47-305 (2).

(2) (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, a licensee whose license has been expired for not more than ninety days may file a late renewal application upon the payment of a nonrefundable late application fee of five hundred dollars each to the state and local licensing authorities. A licensee who files a late renewal application and pays the requisite fees may continue to operate until both state and local licensing authorities have taken final action to approve or deny such licensee's late renewal application.

(b) No state or local licensing authority shall accept a late renewal application more than ninety days after the expiration of a licensee's permanent annual license. Any licensee whose permanent annual license has been expired for more than ninety days must apply for a new license pursuant to section 12-47-311 and shall not sell or possess for sale any alcohol beverage until all required licenses have been obtained.

(c) Notwithstanding the amount specified for the fee in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), the state licensing authority by rule or as otherwise provided by law may reduce the amount of the fee if necessary pursuant to section 24-75-402 (3), C.R.S., to reduce the uncommitted reserves of the fund to which all or any portion of the fee is credited. After the uncommitted reserves of the fund are sufficiently reduced, the state licensing authority by rule or as otherwise provided by law may increase the amount of the fee as provided in section 24-75-402 (4), C.R.S.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For comment on Campbell v. City Council, appearing below, see 35 U. Colo. L. Rev. 252 (1963). For note, "The Liquor Code — Colorado Revised Statute Antiquated", see 38 U. Colo. L. Rev. 248 (1965).

Annotator's note. Section 12-47-302 is similar to § 12-47-106 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions. Relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to § 12-47-301.

Statute is not unconstitutionally vague. A licensee has no property right in the renewal of a license and need not be provided procedural due process protections attendant to a property right. Morris-Schindler, LLC v. City & County of Denver, 251 P.3d 1076 (Colo. App. 2010).

Delegation of legislative authority to the Department of Excise and Licenses to adopt rules and conduct hearings on applications to renew liquor licenses is not unconstitutional on the basis that the statute fails to provide sufficient standards for defining "good cause". Squire Restaurant and Lounge v. Denver, 890 P.2d 164 (Colo. App. 1994).

Statutory licensing guide. The licensing authority is by statute charged with the duty and task of determining whether a license should be granted or denied, and the statutory guide provided for the board in performing this duty is found in this section. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Supreme court decisions. Another source of guidance for the board in performing its duties as a licensing authority is the numerous pronouncements of the supreme court. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Three principles pervade all of the pertinent decisions: (1) The licensing authorities are vested with a very wide discretion; (2) all reasonable doubts as to the correctness of the board's rulings are to be resolved in favor of the board; (3) the determination of the board will not be disturbed by the courts unless it appears that the board has abused its discretion. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

The issuance of licenses under the liquor code depends in the final analysis on the judgment of the licensing authority and not upon that of citizens or the court; and all reasonable doubt must be resolved in favor of the licensing authority. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

It was the intention of the general assembly to vest a wide discretion in local licensing authorities in the issuance of licenses for sale of alcoholic beverages. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959).

Governed by facts and circumstances. While a wide discretion is vested in the county commissioners with respect to the issuance of liquor licenses, the exercise of that discretion must be governed by a proper consideration of the facts and circumstances in each case. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The exercise of this discretion cannot be dispensed with by the adoption of a policy to deny all applications. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The discretion of the licensing officer in granting or refusing a license is well established by the decisions of the supreme court. Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

The general assembly has established the public policy for the entire state, and this cannot be overridden by local governments by mere fiat nor ignored by the courts. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

No contrary local policy authorized. The wide discretion which is vested in the licensing authority in granting or denying licenses is not to be construed as authority to establish a local public policy either by express resolution or by secret agreement contrary to the state statutes which have legalized the issuance of this particular type of license. Ladd v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 146 Colo. 366, 361 P.2d 627 (1961).

Licensing procedures must not be used as a means of establishing local option and circumventing statutory requirements. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

Local authority to license, not to regulate. The board of county commissioners has no authority to regulate the sale of malt and vinous liquors, other than 3.2 percent beer, but only to grant, suspend, or revoke licenses as provided by this section. Gettman v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 122 Colo. 185, 221 P.2d 363 (1950).

A resolution of a city council limiting the number of liquor licenses on the basis of citywide population is invalid as tantamount to a prejudgment of any application. This article requires a hearing and issuance or denial of a license on the merits of each application. City of Colo. Springs v. Graham, 143 Colo. 97, 352 P.2d 273 (1960).

No authority to regulate hours. This section makes no attempt to delegate to the board of county commissioners any authority of regulation as to hours when malt or vinous liquors may be sold or the authority to promulgate other rules and regulations. Gettman v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 122 Colo. 185, 221 P.2d 363 (1950).

Personal right vested in licensee. A liquor license vests a personal right in the licensee and confers the right to do that which without the license would be unlawful, such right being coextensive with the duration of the license and is restricted to a certain location, unless change thereof is granted upon application to, and after a hearing by, the licensing authority. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Liquor license is a property right entitled to due process protection including notice and an opportunity to be heard and, therefore, due process was denied when claimant for liquor license renewal was not notified that evidence would be taken on the needs and desires of the neighborhood. Price Haskel v. Denver Dept. of Excise & Licenses, 694 P.2d 364 (Colo. App. 1984).

This section permits removal to another location of a hotel and restaurant license upon a proper showing. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

While the section permits removal to another location of a hotel or restaurant license upon a proper showing, a contract by which the parties agree that the licensee will not exercise this privilege, but upon termination of the tenancy will surrender the license to the licensing authority, is not in violation of the law since it is not an agreement for the transfer of the license. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Full, fair, and impartial hearing. Where an applicant was given full opportunity to present all testimony and documentary evidence it desired, and availed itself of such opportunity, the fact that the chairman of the board of county commissioners at beginning of hearing expressed the opinion that needs of the neighborhood were presently met falls short of denial to applicant of a full, fair, and impartial hearing. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

No court may substitute its judgment for that of the local licensing authority when there is any evidence in the record that supports the conclusion of the licensing authority. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977); Duren, Inc. v. City of Lakewood, 709 P.2d 74 (Colo. App. 1985).

Denial upheld where not arbitrary or capricious. While not supported by a preponderance, the denial of a retail license will be upheld if supported by sufficient evidence, if the licensing authority did not act arbitrarily and capriciously. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Thompson, 167 Colo. 402, 448 P.2d 639 (1968).

The nonrenewal of a liquor license is not a sanction. Morris-Schindler, LLC v. City & County of Denver, 251 P.3d 1076 (Colo. App. 2010).

"Good cause" standard fails to give sufficient notice. Standard in liquor code of "good cause" as the criterion for determining if a liquor license is renewed, without any implementing rules, fails to give sufficient definiteness of what conduct and conditions are required to avoid nonrenewal, fails to insure rational and consistent administrative action and effective subsequent judicial review of that action, and therefore violates due process. Some limit must be provided by the Department of Excise and Licenses to guide discretion in determining if "good cause" for refusing to renew a liquor license exists. Squire Restaurant & Lounge v. Denver, 890 P.2d 164 (Colo. App. 1994) (decided under former law).

Any violation of a provision of the Colorado Liquor Code constitutes good cause for nonrenewal. Morris-Schindler, LLC v. City & County of Denver, 251 P.3d 1076 (Colo. App. 2010).

Abuse of discretion. An example of refusal for good cause is where the board of county commissioners refused to grant a liquor license to an operator of a rural hotel and based its decision on the fact that the premises could be reached only by a dangerous, winding country road in a mountainous area and also on the ground of the proximity of young people at a nearby college, it was held not to be an abuse of discretion. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The right of a licensing authority to refuse for good cause, of necessity vests in the board of county commissioners in any county in the first instance the right to determine what is good cause for refusal. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

Prior license action not binding. The board is not bound by any prior action of any licensing authority with relation to the facts pertaining to the issuance of any license for former years, but is called upon to exercise its own discretion as of the date of a new application. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Conceivably, the licensing authority passing upon a new application, in the exercise of its discretion, might with propriety reject an application which a former board, upon the same facts, approved, and in so doing the board would not, of necessity, be guilty of an abuse of discretion, or an arbitrary and capricious exercise thereof. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958); Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

That a licensing officer had previously denied the application to another to operate an establishment at the same premises does not preclude the issuance of a license to an applicant who in his judgment and discretion is qualified therefor. Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

Evidence at second court-ordered hearing. Upon a second hearing on an application for a liquor license, held pursuant to an order of court, the licensing authority is not limited only to the exhibits offered at the first hearing and the testimony of those witnesses only who testified therein. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Sanctions criteria set forth in § 12-47-601 do not govern a decision not to renew under subsection (1) of this section. Morris-Schindler, LLC v. City & County of Denver, 251 P.3d 1076 (Colo. App. 2010).

II. NEIGHBORHOOD REQUIREMENTS.

Applications are considered and determined upon a geographical basis, a neighborhood, and not upon a citywide population basis. City of Colo. Springs v. Graham, 143 Colo. 97, 352 P.2d 273 (1960).

Determined by city council. The members of a city council, as the local licensing authority, knowing the area which they represent and the problems confronting it, are better able to consider what should constitute the "neighborhood" after considering all of the evidence presented to it than is the supreme court. Campbell v. City Council, 150 Colo. 471, 374 P.2d 348 (1962).

The geographic extent of the neighborhood will vary from case to case. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Never entire county. No authority justifies the conclusion that the "neighborhood" involved in an application for a liquor license can be expanded to include an entire county. Bolton v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 164 Colo. 112, 432 P.2d 761 (1967).

Boundary lines of a city do not exclude residents on one side or the other from the "neighborhood" to be considered in connection with applications for liquor licenses. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The existence or nonexistence of outlets on either side of a city boundary are to be considered by the licensing authority in determining whether reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being met. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The fact that a particular type of license is not authorized in the neighborhood does not require the issuance of such a license if, in fact, the needs of the neighborhood, with respect to the type of beverage authorized to be sold by the license requested, are being met by existing licenses. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The licensing of so-called "fringe stores" is not a matter that in and of itself is a bar to the issuance of licenses, but is merely a circumstance to which the board is entitled to give such reasonable weight as it shall determine. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Applicant's showing of neighborhood. It is incumbent upon an applicant for a liquor license to show with some degree of clarity the area of the neighborhood requiring the service proposed to be rendered. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

The test under subsection (2) is still the "desires of the inhabitants" and "the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood". Tavella v. Eppinger, 152 Colo. 506, 383 P.2d 314 (1963).

Before a liquor license can be issued under subsection (2), two requirements must be affirmatively established: 1. that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are not being met by existing outlets, and 2. that the inhabitants of the neighborhood desire its issuance.

Heinz v. Bauer, 150 Colo. 589, 375 P.2d 520 (1962).

The licensing authority must determine both the reasonable requirements of a neighborhood and the desires of its inhabitants. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

Unless both requirements are met no license may issue. Heinz v. Bauer, 150 Colo. 589, 375 P.2d 520 (1962).

Establishing these two requirements is the statutory responsibility of the board. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Showing of inadequate service required. An applicant is entitled to a license only on proof that the neighborhood sought to be served is not adequately served by the other licensed outlets. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

This section does not relieve applicants of the duty to prove a reasonable requirement for the proposed outlet, an essential prerequisite to the granting of a license. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Where there are a number of licensed outlets in an area, an applicant for an additional liquor license has the burden to establish by competent evidence that the needs of the community are not being adequately met by existing outlets. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Evergreen Lanes, Inc., 154 Colo. 413, 391 P.2d 372 (1964).

Lack of proof of the fact that the neighborhood is not adequately served precludes the issuance of a license. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Economic competition considered. Whether any benefit will result to the public from competition in the sale of intoxicating liquor in a particular area, is a matter which the licensing authority may consider in determining the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants, the weight to be accorded such matter being within the sound discretion of the authority. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

The weight to be accorded to such matters as whether, any benefit will result to the public from economic competition lies within the sound discretion of the board of county supervisors. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

Number and proximity of other outlets considered. Besides considering the number of outlets in the area, the board of county commissioners may properly take into account in its consideration of the case the fact that close to the location for which a license is sought there are existing outlets to serve the public. Jennings v. Hoskinson, 152 Colo. 276, 382 P.2d 807 (1963).

The existence of a desire for a new outlet is some evidence that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood were not being met. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

Regardless of their reasons, the desires of the inhabitants are to be considered. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Where protests were based on the general policy that liquor is evil, and secondly that there was a package store nearby, such protests were not relevant and should not have been considered since the application was for liquor by the drink, and since there was no competent evidence before the board to negate the affirmative showing by the applicant, and the board arbitrarily restricted the neighborhood, the license should have been granted. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Consideration of proof unlimited. This section in no way limits the board in giving proper consideration to other proof of the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood or the desires of the inhabitants thereof. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Effect of petitions and remonstrances of inhabitants. While the expression of opinions as to the requirements of the neighborhood and the needs of the inhabitants thereof, contained in petitions and remonstrances, are entitled to consideration, they are not controlling since this section requires that the issuance of licenses shall depend on the judgment of the licensing authority and not on that of citizens or the court. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950); MacArthur v. Sanzalone, 123 Colo. 166, 225 P.2d 1044 (1950).

The statute precludes the board from granting a license until it has given good-faith consideration to inhabitants' petitions and remonstrances. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Geographical distinctions within a neighborhood do not determine the efficacy of petitions or remonstrances in liquor licensing cases. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The fact that a greater number of inhabitants had signed petitions favoring issuance of the license does not of itself mandate issuance thereof. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

Where remonstrances against the granting of a beverage license are signed by others than those resident in a defined neighborhood of a licensee's outlet, and its issuance is supported by several hundred persons resident in the immediate neighborhood, the petitions supporting the application are sufficient to justify its issuance, and there being nothing to indicate that a city council acted arbitrarily or capriciously in granting a license, the courts will not interfere. Hanna v. Henderson, 140 Colo. 481, 345 P.2d 384 (1959).

Votes in local option election. The desires of the citizens "otherwise" expressed by their votes in a local option election is likewise admissible evidence to be considered in ascertaining the "desires of the inhabitants", and given such weight as the board of commissioners deemed proper under this section. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Needs of traveling public. In determining the reasonable requirements of neighborhood upon application for a restaurant liquor license, evidence of the reasonable need of the traveling public and transients is valid to show such need and demand. Campbell v. City Council, 150 Colo. 471, 374 P.2d 348 (1962).

Showing of inadequate service sufficient. Where the record discloses that there are no restaurant liquor licenses in the city, and no such license in the entire county, the nearest outlet of the kind being 50 miles distant, it cannot be said that the reasonable requirements of the area have been met. Farmer v. City Council, 153 Colo. 306, 385 P.2d 596 (1963).

Where there is a substantial showing that a liquor outlet is desired in a community, it cannot be said that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being served when it appears that the nearest outlet of the kind sought is 12 or 13 miles distant from the location requested. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Whale, 154 Colo. 271, 389 P.2d 588 (1964).

Where the only licenses presently existing in a city are for private clubs and package liquor stores, and more favor than disfavor the license in the immediate neighborhood, there is no basis upon which the application of plaintiff may legally be denied since there are no licenses of the type sought within a five mile radius. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

Where the general assembly has authorized the issuance of hotel and restaurant liquor licenses throughout the state, thus determining the public policy, and where the evidence disclosed that no such license had ever been issued in city of size and population disclosed by the record, and substantial support for the issuance of such license is shown, it cannot be said that reasonable requirements of the area have been met. KBT Corp. v. Walker, 148 Colo. 274, 365 P.2d 685 (1961).

Denial arbitrary and capricious. Where there is no liquor outlet of a given classification within a radius of several miles, the refusal to grant such a license is arbitrary and capricious where substantial support for the issuance thereof is shown. Bd. of County Comm'rs v.

Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Where an application for a hotel and restaurant liquor license was denied and evidence disclosed that there was no such outlet within a radius of 35 miles of city, the determination of city council that the neighborhood was adequately supplied by existing outlets was arbitrary and capricious. KBT Corp. v. Walker, 148 Colo. 274, 365 P.2d 685 (1961).

Showing of inadequate service insufficient.

Where there are a number of licensed outlets in an area in which a restaurant license is sought, evidence that many residents of the neighborhood desired to dine at applicants' restaurant and desired to be served liquor with their meals, does not alone establish that existing outlets were inadequate to satisfy the desires of the inhabitants and the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bova, 153 Colo. 230, 385 P.2d 590 (1963).

The finding of the trial court that the applicant plans to provide a general recreation facility and that such facility is unlike any presently existing in the area, and this is fully borne out by the evidence and is undisputed, does not evidence the fact that the neighborhood in question requires another liquor outlet, especially where the undisputed evidence is that the proposed development will proceed whether or not a liquor license is granted. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Evergreen Lanes, Inc., 154 Colo. 413, 391 P.2d 372 (1964).

Though the applicant proved the majority of those interested desired the license to issue, and it undoubtedly would be a convenience to have such a store within the shopping center where there is more adequate parking and one stop service, nevertheless it is also true that the physical facts could, and in the judgment of the authority did, show that the present reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being met. Brentwood Liquors, Inc. v. Schooley, 147 Colo. 324, 363 P.2d 670 (1961).

Denial not capricious or arbitrary. Where even though the desire of the neighborhood was that the license should issue, nonetheless the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood were adequately met by the existing outlets, in particular a liquor store next door to the applicant, the city council in so finding did not act arbitrarily or capriciously, but well within the limits of its discretionary power. McIntosh v. Council of City of Littleton, 145 Colo. 533, 360 P.2d 136 (1961).

Where the evidence in the record showed the existence of many licensed restaurants and liquor stores in the vicinity, this was potent evidence to support the finding that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood had been met and that the denial of a license was not capricious or arbitrary. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950).

Where evidence disclosed three existing hotel and restaurant liquor licenses in an area designated as a neighborhood and others in close proximity thereto, a finding by the licensing authority of lack of need for issuance of license applied for, based upon a fair appraisal of the evidence, cannot be held to be arbitrary. Schooley v. Steinberg, 148 Colo. 222, 365 P.2d 245 (1961).

Where the record disclosed two package liquor outlets and two establishments serving liquor by the drink within half to three quarters of a mile of applicant's location, denial of a package liquor license by board of county commissioners was not arbitrary or capricious. Malouff v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 150 Colo. 11, 370 P.2d 161 (1962).

Where the board of commissioners did not refuse to receive any evidence offered, and the evidence showed the location of the proposed dispensary to be in close proximity to state college, and where the board had before it protests admitted to have been made by many of the officials of the college and of the public schools, as well as petitions signed by citizens, the court could not say that the board acted arbitrarily or capriciously in refusing a license when such action was based on evidence from which reasonable men might honestly draw different conclusions. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Prima facie need for license shown. Where prior to condemnation by the state for highway purposes, there were two successful outlets in Silver Plume; that because of the condemnation proceedings there were none at the time of the application; that the nearest such outlet was two and one-half miles away; that 34 residents indicated the need for such an outlet; and where after denial of the application, but prior to the district court's review thereof, the trustees issued a similar license to a nearby establishment, the evidence constitutes a prima facie showing of need for the license. Booth v. Trustees of Town of Silver Plume, 28 Colo. App. 470, 474 P.2d 227 (1970).

12-47-303. Transfer of ownership and temporary permits. (1) (a) No license granted under the provisions of this article or article 46 of this title shall be transferable except as provided in this subsection (1), but this shall not prevent a change of location as provided in section 12-47-301 (9).

(b) When a license has been issued to a husband and wife, or to general or limited partners, the death of a spouse or partner shall not require the surviving spouse or partner to obtain a new license. All rights and privileges granted under the original license shall continue in full force and effect as to such survivors for the balance of the license period.

(c) For any other transfer of ownership, application shall be made to the state and local licensing authorities on forms prepared and furnished by the state licensing authority. In determining whether to permit a transfer of ownership, the licensing authorities shall consider only the requirements of section 12-47-307 and 1 CCR 203-2, rule 47-302, entitled "Changing, Altering, or Modifying Licensed Premises", or any analogous successor rule. The local licensing authority may cause a hearing on the application for transfer of ownership to be held. No hearing provided for by this paragraph (c) shall be held by the local licensing authority until a notice of hearing has been conspicuously posted on the licensed premises for a period of ten days and notice of the hearing has been provided the applicant at least ten days prior to the hearing. Any transfer of ownership hearing by the state licensing authority shall be pursuant to section 12-47-305 (2).

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this article to the contrary, a local licensing authority shall have discretionary authority to issue a temporary permit to a transferee of any retail class of alcohol beverage license issued by the local licensing authority pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title. Such temporary permit shall authorize a transferee to continue selling such alcohol beverages as permitted under the permanent license during the period in which an application to transfer the ownership of the license is pending.

(3) A temporary permit shall authorize a transferee to conduct business and sell alcohol beverages at retail in accordance with the license of the transferor subject to compliance with all of the following conditions:

(a) The premises where such alcohol beverages are sold shall have been previously licensed by the state and local licensing authorities, and such license shall have been valid at the time the application for transfer of ownership was filed with the local licensing authority that has jurisdiction to approve an application for a temporary permit.

(b) The applicant has filed with the local licensing authority on forms provided by the department of revenue an application for the transfer of the liquor license. Such application shall include, but not be limited to, the following information:

(I) The name and address of the applicant; if the applicant is a partnership, the names and addresses of all the partners; and, if the applicant is a corporation, association, or other organization, the names and addresses of the president, vice-president, secretary, and managing officer;

(II) The applicant's financial interest in the proposed transfer;

(III) The premises for which the temporary permit is sought;

(IV) Such other information as the local licensing authority may require; and

(V) A statement that all accounts for alcohol beverages sold to the applicant are paid.

(c) The application for a temporary permit shall be filed no later than thirty days after the filing of the application for transfer of ownership and shall be accompanied by a temporary permit fee not to exceed one hundred dollars.

(d) When applying with the local licensing authority for a temporary permit, the applicant shall provide a copy, by facsimile or otherwise, of the statement made pursuant to subparagraph (V) of paragraph (b) of this subsection (3) to the state licensing authority. Such statement is a public record and shall be open to inspection by the public.

(4) A temporary permit, if granted, by a local licensing authority shall be issued within five working days after the receipt of such application. A temporary permit issued pursuant to this section shall be valid until such time as the application to transfer ownership of the license to the applicant is granted or denied or for one hundred twenty days, whichever occurs first; except that, if the application to transfer the license has not been granted or denied within the one-hundred-twenty-day period and the transferee demonstrates good cause, the local licensing authority may extend, in its discretion, the validity of said permit for an additional period not to exceed sixty days.

(5) A temporary permit shall also be authorized in the event of a transfer of possession of the licensed premises by operation of law, a petition in bankruptcy pursuant to federal bankruptcy law, the appointment of a receiver, a foreclosure action by a secured party, or a court order dispossessing the prior licensee of all rights of possession pursuant to article 40 of title 13, C.R.S.

(6) A temporary permit may be canceled, revoked, or summarily suspended if the local or state licensing authority determines that there is probable cause to believe that the transferee has violated any provision of this article or article 46 of this title or has violated any rule or regulation adopted by the local or state licensing authority or has failed to truthfully disclose those matters required pursuant to the application forms required by the department of revenue.

ANNOTATION

I. General Consideration.

II. Neighborhood Requirements.

I. GENERAL CONSIDERATION.

Law reviews. For comment on Campbell v. City Council, appearing below, see 35 U. Colo. L. Rev. 252 (1963). For note, "The Liquor Code — Colorado Revised Statute Antiquated", see 38 U. Colo. L. Rev. 248 (1965).

Annotator's note. § 12-47-303 is similar to § 12-47-106 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions. Relevant cases construing § 12-47-106 have been included in the annotations to § 12-47-301.

Delegation of legislative authority to the Department of Excise and Licenses to adopt rules and conduct hearings on applications to renew liquor licenses is not unconstitutional on the basis that the statute fails to provide sufficient standards for defining "good cause". Squire Restaurant and Lounge v. Denver, 890 P.2d 164 (Colo. App. 1994).

Statutory licensing guide. The licensing authority is by statute charged with the duty and task of determining whether a license should be granted or denied, and the statutory guide provided for the board in performing this duty is found in this section. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Supreme court decisions. Another source of guidance for the board in performing its duties as a licensing authority is the numerous pronouncements of the supreme court. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Three principles pervade all of the pertinent decisions: (1) The licensing authorities are vested with a very wide discretion; (2) all reasonable doubts as to the correctness of the board's rulings are to be resolved in favor of the board; (3) the determination of the board will not be disturbed by the courts unless it appears that the board has abused its discretion. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

The issuance of licenses under the liquor code depends in the final analysis on the judgment of the licensing authority and not upon that of citizens or the court; and all reasonable doubt must be resolved in favor of the licensing authority. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

It was the intention of the general assembly to vest a wide discretion in local licensing authorities in the issuance of licenses for sale of alcoholic beverages. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959).

Governed by facts and circumstances. While a wide discretion is vested in the county commissioners with respect to the issuance of liquor licenses, the exercise of that discretion must be governed by a proper consideration of the facts and circumstances in each case. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The exercise of this discretion cannot be dispensed with by the adoption of a policy to deny all applications. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The discretion of the licensing officer in granting or refusing a license is well established by the decisions of the supreme court. Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

The general assembly has established the public policy for the entire state, and this cannot be overridden by local governments by mere fiat nor ignored by the courts. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

No contrary local policy authorized. The wide discretion which is vested in the licensing authority in granting or denying licenses is not to be construed as authority to establish a local public policy either by express resolution or by secret agreement contrary to the state statutes which have legalized the issuance of this particular type of license. Ladd v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 146 Colo. 366, 361 P.2d 627 (1961).

Licensing procedures must not be used as a means of establishing local option and circumventing statutory requirements. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

Local authority to license, not to regulate. The board of county commissioners has no authority to regulate the sale of malt and vinous liquors, other than 3.2 percent beer, but only to grant, suspend, or revoke licenses as provided by this section. Gettman v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 122 Colo. 185, 221 P.2d 363 (1950).

A resolution of a city council limiting the number of liquor licenses on the basis of citywide population is invalid as tantamount to a prejudgment of any application. This article requires a hearing and issuance or denial of a license on the merits of each application. City of Colo. Springs v. Graham, 143 Colo. 97, 352 P.2d 273 (1960).

No authority to regulate hours. This section makes no attempt to delegate to the board of county commissioners any authority of regulation as to hours when malt or vinous liquors may be sold or the authority to promulgate other rules and regulations. Gettman v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 122 Colo. 185, 221 P.2d 363 (1950).

Personal right vested in licensee. A liquor license vests a personal right in the licensee and confers the right to do that which without the license would be unlawful, such right being coextensive with the duration of the license and is restricted to a certain location, unless change thereof is granted upon application to, and after a hearing by, the licensing authority. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Liquor license is a property right entitled to due process protection including notice and an opportunity to be heard and, therefore, due process was denied when claimant for liquor license renewal was not notified that evidence would be taken on the needs and desires of the neighborhood. Price Haskel v. Denver Dept. of Excise & Licenses, 694 P.2d 364 (Colo. App. 1984).

This section permits removal to another location of a hotel and restaurant license upon a proper showing. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

While the section permits removal to another location of a hotel or restaurant license upon a proper showing, a contract by which the parties agree that the licensee will not exercise this privilege, but upon termination of the tenancy will surrender the license to the licensing authority, is not in violation of the law since it is not an agreement for the transfer of the license. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

Full, fair, and impartial hearing. Where an applicant was given full opportunity to present all testimony and documentary evidence it desired, and availed itself of such opportunity, the fact that the chairman of the board of county commissioners at beginning of hearing expressed the opinion that needs of the neighborhood were presently met falls short of denial to applicant of a full, fair, and impartial hearing. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

No court may substitute its judgment for that of the local licensing authority when there is any evidence in the record that supports the conclusion of the licensing authority. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977); Duren, Inc. v. City of Lakewood, 709 P.2d 74 (Colo. App. 1985).

Denial upheld where not arbitrary or capricious. While not supported by a preponderance, the denial of a retail license will be upheld if supported by sufficient evidence, if the licensing authority did not act arbitrarily and capriciously. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Thompson, 167 Colo. 402, 448 P.2d 639 (1968).

"Good cause" standard fails to give sufficient notice. Standard in liquor code of "good cause" as the criterion for determining if a liquor license is renewed, without any implementing rules, fails to give sufficient definiteness of what conduct and conditions are required to avoid nonrenewal, fails to insure rational and consistent administrative action and effective subsequent judicial review of that action, and therefore violates due process. Some limit must be provided by the Department of Excise and Licenses to guide discretion in determining if "good cause" for refusing to renew a liquor license exists. Squire Restaurant and Lounge v. Denver, 890 P.2d 164 (Colo. App. 1994).

Abuse of discretion. An example of refusal for good cause is where the board of county commissioners refused to grant a liquor license to an operator of a rural hotel and based its decision on the fact that the premises could be reached only by a dangerous, winding country road in a mountainous area and also on the ground of the proximity of young people at a nearby college, it was held not to be an abuse of discretion. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

The right of a licensing authority to refuse for good cause, of necessity vests in the board of county commissioners in any county in the first instance the right to determine what is good cause for refusal. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Buckley, 121 Colo. 108, 213 P.2d 608 (1949).

Prior license action not binding. The board is not bound by any prior action of any licensing authority with relation to the facts pertaining to the issuance of any license for former years, but is called upon to exercise its own discretion as of the date of a new application. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Conceivably, the licensing authority passing upon a new application, in the exercise of its discretion, might with propriety reject an application which a former board, upon the same facts, approved, and in so doing the board would not, of necessity, be guilty of an abuse of discretion, or an arbitrary and capricious exercise thereof. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958); Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

That a licensing officer had previously denied the application to another to operate an establishment at the same premises does not preclude the issuance of a license to an applicant who in his judgment and discretion is qualified therefor. Cronin v. Ward, 144 Colo. 192, 355 P.2d 655 (1960).

Evidence at second court-ordered hearing. Upon a second hearing on an application for a liquor license, held pursuant to an order of court, the licensing authority is not limited only to the exhibits offered at the first hearing and the testimony of those witnesses only who testified therein. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

Applied in Awr Corp. v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 154 Colo. 511, 391 P.2d 675 (1964); Smith v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 155 Colo. 175, 394 P.2d 840 (1964).

II. NEIGHBORHOOD REQUIREMENTS.

Applications are considered and determined upon a geographical basis, a neighborhood, and not upon a citywide population basis. City of Colo. Springs v. Graham, 143 Colo. 97, 352 P.2d 273 (1960).

Determined by city council. The members of a city council, as the local licensing authority, knowing the area which they represent and the problems confronting it, are better able to consider what should constitute the "neighborhood" after considering all of the evidence presented to it than is the supreme court. Campbell v. City Council, 150 Colo. 471, 374 P.2d 348 (1962).

The geographic extent of the neighborhood will vary from case to case. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Never entire county. No authority justifies the conclusion that the "neighborhood" involved in an application for a liquor license can be expanded to include an entire county. Bolton v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 164 Colo. 112, 432 P.2d 761 (1967).

Boundary lines of a city do not exclude residents on one side or the other from the "neighborhood" to be considered in connection with applications for liquor licenses. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The existence or nonexistence of outlets on either side of a city boundary are to be considered by the licensing authority in determining whether reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being met. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The fact that a particular type of license is not authorized in the neighborhood does not require the issuance of such a license if, in fact, the needs of the neighborhood, with respect to the type of beverage authorized to be sold by the license requested, are being met by existing licenses. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The licensing of so-called "fringe stores" is not a matter that in and of itself is a bar to the issuance of licenses, but is merely a circumstance to which the board is entitled to give such reasonable weight as it "shall determine." Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Applicant's showing of neighborhood. It is incumbent upon an applicant for a liquor license to show with some degree of clarity the area of the neighborhood requiring the service proposed to be rendered. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

The test under subsection (2) is still the "desires of the inhabitants" and "the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood". Tavella v. Eppinger, 152 Colo. 506, 383 P.2d 314 (1963).

Before a liquor license can be issued under subsection (2), two requirements must be affirmatively established: 1. that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are not being met by existing outlets, and 2. that the inhabitants of the neighborhood desire its issuance. Heinz v. Bauer, 150 Colo. 589, 375 P.2d 520 (1962).

The licensing authority must determine both the reasonable requirements of a neighborhood and the desires of its inhabitants. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

Unless both requirements are met, no license may issue. Heinz v. Bauer, 150 Colo. 589, 375 P.2d 520 (1962).

Establishing these two requirements is the statutory responsibility of the board. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Showing of inadequate service required. An applicant is entitled to a license only on proof that the neighborhood sought to be served is not adequately served by the other licensed outlets. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Salardino, 138 Colo. 66, 329 P.2d 629 (1958).

This section does not relieve applicants of the duty to prove a reasonable requirement for the proposed outlet, an essential prerequisite to the granting of a license. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Where there are a number of licensed outlets in an area, an applicant for an additional liquor license has the burden to establish by competent evidence that the needs of the community are not being adequately met by existing outlets. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Evergreen Lanes, Inc., 154 Colo. 413, 391 P.2d 372 (1964).

Lack of proof of the fact that the neighborhood is not adequately served precludes the issuance of a license. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Economic competition considered. Whether any benefit will result to the public from competition in the sale of intoxicating liquor in a particular area is a matter which the licensing authority may consider in determining the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants, the weight to be accorded such matter being within the sound discretion of the authority. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

The weight to be accorded to such matters as whether any benefit will result to the public from economic competition lies within the sound discretion of the board of county supervisors. Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

Number and proximity of other outlets considered. Besides considering the number of outlets in the area, the board of county commissioners may properly take into account in its consideration of the case the fact that close to the location for which a license is sought there are existing outlets to serve the public. Jennings v. Hoskinson, 152 Colo. 276, 382 P.2d 807 (1963).

The existence of a desire for a new outlet is some evidence that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood were not being met. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

Regardless of their reasons, the desires of the inhabitants are to be considered. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Where protests were based on the general policy that liquor is evil, and secondly that there was a package store nearby, such protests were not relevant and should not have been considered since the application was for liquor by the drink, and since there was no competent evidence before the board to negate the affirmative showing by the applicant, and the board arbitrarily restricted the neighborhood, the license should have been granted. Bd. of County

Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Consideration of proof unlimited. This section in no way limits the board in giving proper consideration to other proof of the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood or the desires of the inhabitants thereof. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Effect of petitions and remonstrances of inhabitants. While the expression of opinions as to the requirements of the neighborhood and the needs of the inhabitants thereof, contained in petitions and remonstrances, are entitled to consideration, they are not controlling since this section requires that the issuance of licenses shall depend on the judgment of the licensing authority and not on that of citizens or the court. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950); MacArthur v. Sanzalone, 123 Colo. 166, 225 P.2d 1044 (1950).

The statute precludes the board from granting a license until it has given good-faith consideration to inhabitants' petitions and remonstrances. Hauf Brau v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 145 Colo. 522, 359 P.2d 659 (1961).

Geographical distinctions within a neighborhood do not determine the efficacy of petitions or remonstrances in liquor licensing cases. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The fact that a greater number of inhabitants had signed petitions favoring issuance of the license does not of itself mandate issuance thereof. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

Where remonstrances against the granting of a beverage license are signed by others than those resident in a defined neighborhood of a licensee's outlet, and its issuance is supported by several hundred persons resident in the immediate neighborhood, the petitions supporting the application are sufficient to justify its issuance, and there being nothing to indicate that a city council acted arbitrarily or capriciously in granting a license, the courts will not interfere. Hanna v. Henderson, 140 Colo. 481, 345 P.2d 384 (1959).

Votes in local option election. The desires of the citizens "otherwise" expressed by their votes in a local option election is likewise admissible evidence to be considered in ascertaining the "desires of the inhabitants", and given such weight as the board of commissioners deemed proper under this section. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Needs of traveling public. In determining the reasonable requirements of neighborhood upon application for a restaurant liquor license, evidence of the reasonable need of the traveling public and transients is valid to show such need and demand. Campbell v. City Council, 150 Colo. 471, 374 P.2d 348 (1962).

Showing of inadequate service sufficient. Where the record discloses that there are no restaurant liquor licenses in the city, and no such license in the entire county, the nearest outlet of the kind being 50 miles distant, it cannot be said that the reasonable requirements of the area have been met. Farmer v. City Council, 153 Colo. 306, 385 P.2d 596 (1963).

Where there is a substantial showing that a liquor outlet is desired in a community, it cannot be said that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being served when it appears that the nearest outlet of the kind sought is 12 or 13 miles distant from the location requested. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Whale, 154 Colo. 271, 389 P.2d 588 (1964).

Where the only licenses presently existing in a city are for private clubs and package liquor stores, and more favor than disfavor the license in the immediate neighborhood, there is no basis upon which the application of plaintiff may legally be denied since there are no licenses of the type sought within a five mile radius. Le Pore v. Larkin, 146 Colo. 311, 361 P.2d 343 (1961).

Where the general assembly has authorized the issuance of hotel and restaurant liquor licenses throughout the state, thus determining the public policy, and where the evidence disclosed that no such license had ever been issued in city of size and population disclosed by the record, and substantial support for the issuance of such license is shown, it cannot be said that reasonable requirements of the area have been met. KBT Corp. v. Walker, 148 Colo. 274, 365 P.2d 685 (1961).

Denial arbitrary and capricious. Where there is no liquor outlet of a given classification within a radius of several miles, the refusal to grant such a license is arbitrary and capricious where substantial support for the issuance thereof is shown. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bickel, 155 Colo. 465, 395 P.2d 208 (1964); Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Johnson, 170 Colo. 259, 460 P.2d 770 (1969).

Where an application for a hotel and restaurant liquor license was denied and evidence disclosed that there was no such outlet within a radius of 35 miles of city, the determination of city council that the neighborhood was adequately supplied by existing outlets was arbitrary and capricious. KBT Corp. v. Walker, 148 Colo. 274, 365 P.2d 685 (1961).

Showing of inadequate service insufficient. Where there are a number of licensed outlets in an area in which a restaurant license is sought, evidence that many residents of the neighborhood desired to dine at applicants' restaurant and desired to be served liquor with their meals did not alone establish that existing outlets were inadequate to satisfy the desires of the inhabitants and the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bova, 153 Colo. 230, 385 P.2d 590 (1963).

The finding of the trial court that the applicant plans to provide a general recreation facility and that such facility is unlike any presently existing in the area, and this is fully borne out by the evidence and is undisputed, does not evidence the fact that the neighborhood in question requires another liquor outlet, especially where the undisputed evidence is that the proposed development will proceed whether or not a liquor license is granted. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Evergreen Lanes, Inc., 154 Colo. 413, 391 P.2d 372 (1964).

Though the applicant proved the majority of those interested desired the license to issue, and it undoubtedly be a convenience to have such a store within the shopping center where there is more adequate parking and one stop service, nevertheless it is also true that the physical facts could, and in the judgment of the authority did, show that the present reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being met. Brentwood Liquors, Inc. v. Schooley, 147 Colo. 324, 363 P.2d 670 (1961).

Denial not capricious or arbitrary. Where even though the desire of the neighborhood was that the license should issue, nonetheless the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood were adequately met by the existing outlets, in particular a liquor store next door to the applicant, the city council in so finding did not act arbitrarily or capriciously, but well within the limits of its discretionary power. McIntosh v. Council of City of Littleton, 145 Colo. 533, 360 P.2d 136 (1961).

Where the evidence in the record showed the existence of many licensed restaurants and liquor stores in the vicinity, this was potent evidence to support the finding that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood had been met and that the denial of a license was not capricious or arbitrary. MacArthur v. Presto, 122 Colo. 202, 221 P.2d 934 (1950).

Where evidence disclosed three existing hotel and restaurant liquor licenses in an area designated as a neighborhood and others in close proximity thereto, a finding by the licensing authority of lack of need for issuance of license applied for, based upon a fair appraisal of the evidence, cannot be held to be arbitrary. Schooley v. Steinberg, 148 Colo. 222, 365 P.2d 245 (1961).

Where the record disclosed two package liquor outlets and two establishments serving liquor by the drink within half to three quarters of a mile of applicant's location, denial of a package liquor license by board of county commissioners was not arbitrary or capricious. Malouff v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 150 Colo. 11, 370 P.2d 161 (1962).

Where the board of commissioners did not refuse to receive any evidence offered, and the evidence showed the location of the proposed dispensary to be in close proximity to a state college, and where the board had before it protests admitted to have been made by many of the officials of the college and of the public schools, as well as petitions signed by citizens, the court could not say that the board acted arbitrarily or capriciously in refusing a license when such action was based on evidence from which reasonable men might honestly draw different conclusions. Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

Prima facie need for license shown. Where prior to condemnation by the state for highway purposes, there were two successful outlets in Silver Plume; that because of the condemnation proceedings there were none at the time of the application; that the nearest such outlet was two and one-half miles away; that 34 residents indicated the need for such an outlet; and where after denial of the application, but prior to the district court's review thereof, the trustees issued a similar license to a nearby establishment, the evidence constitutes a prima facie showing of need for the license. Booth v. Trustees of Town of Silver Plume, 28 Colo. App. 470, 474 P.2d 227 (1970).

12-47-304. State licensing authority - application and issuance procedures - definitions. (1) (a) Applications for licenses under the provisions of this article and articles 46 and 48 of this title shall be made to the state licensing authority on forms prepared and furnished by the state licensing authority and shall set forth such information as the state licensing authority may require to enable the authority to determine whether a license should be granted. Such information shall include the name and address of the applicant, and if a partnership, also the names and addresses of all the partners, and if a corporation, association, or other organization, also the names and addresses of the president, vice-president, secretary, and managing officer, together with all other information deemed necessary by the licensing authority. Each application shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of such person or persons as the state licensing authority may prescribe.

(b) Notwithstanding the requirements of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), an applicant seeking licenses for multiple locations may request the state licensing authority to establish a master file. All requests for a master file shall be made on forms provided by the state licensing authority and shall contain such information as the state licensing authority may require to enable the authority to determine the suitability of the license applicant and its principal owners as required pursuant to section 12-47-307. The state licensing authority shall either approve the request for a master file and issue an approval letter, or deny the request pursuant to the provisions of section 12-47-305. Any change to information contained in the master file shall be reported by the applicant or licensee to the state licensing authority within thirty days after the change. Failure to report all changes as required may be grounds for suspension or revocation of a license or licenses as determined by the state licensing authority. No local licensing authority shall require applicants with an approved master file to file additional background investigation forms or fingerprints. Nothing in this section shall prohibit a local licensing authority from conducting its own investigation, or from verifying any of the information provided by the applicant, or from denying the application of the applicant pursuant to the provisions set forth in section 12-47-307.

(c) As used in this part 3, “master file” means a file that is established by the state licensing authority and that contains licensing and background information for an applicant seeking licenses pursuant to this article in multiple locations. Such master file shall be available to the local licensing authority.

(d) The state licensing authority shall promulgate rules governing the minimum number of multiple locations required to establish and maintain a master file.

(2) (a) Before granting any license for which application has been made, the state licensing authority or one or more of its inspectors may visit and inspect the plant or property in which the applicant proposes to conduct business and investigate the fitness to conduct such business of any person or the officers and directors of any corporation applying for a license. In investigating the fitness of the applicant or a licensee, the state licensing authority may have access to criminal history record information furnished by a criminal justice agency subject to any restrictions imposed by such agency. In the event the state licensing authority takes into consideration information concerning the applicant’s criminal history record, the state licensing authority shall also consider any information provided by the applicant regarding such criminal history record, including but not limited to evidence of rehabilitation, character references, and educational achievements, especially those items pertaining to the period of time between the applicant’s last criminal conviction and the consideration of the application for a license.

(b) As used in paragraph (a) of this subsection (2), “criminal justice agency” means any federal, state, or municipal court or any governmental agency or subunit of such agency that performs the administration of criminal justice pursuant to a statute or executive order and that allocates a substantial part of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice.

(3) The state licensing authority shall not issue a license pursuant to this section until the local licensing authority has approved the application provided for in section 12-47-309.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For note, “The Liquor Code — Colorado Revised Statute Antiquated”, see 38 U. Colo. L. Rev. 248 (1965).

Annotator’s note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Applicability of liquor code. The provisions of this article do not apply to third persons who are not applicants of licensees and whose conduct does not violate specific provisions of this article but does violate specific provisions of the criminal code. People v. Eckley, 775 P.2d 566 (Colo. 1989).

The issuance of licenses shall depend on the judgment of the licensing authority and not on that of other citizens. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959).

Whether a license should or should not be granted is a matter resting within the discretion of the licensing authority, and will not be disturbed in the absence of a showing of abuse of that discretion. Harvey v. Schooley, 152 Colo. 384, 382 P.2d 189 (1963).

It is within the discretion of the licensing authority to determine the facts and to conclude that an application should be denied. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959).

There is no inherent right to carry on the business of selling alcoholic beverages. The licensing authority in the exercise of its administrative discretion may determine whether in the light of all the evidence and surrounding facts and circumstances, the granting of a particular license is or is not justified. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959).

It is nowhere provided that the state licensing authority must conduct a public hearing. Potter v. Anderson, 155 Colo. 25, 392 P.2d 650 (1964).

State may use local investigative reports. There is nothing in the law that makes it illegal for the state licensing authority to use the investigation reports and hearing record of the local licensing authority which by law must conduct a hearing. Potter v. Anderson, 155 Colo. 25, 392 P.2d 650 (1964).

Denial of second application for particular location. This section provides in substance that no application for a liquor license shall be granted for a particular location if the same applicant has been denied a license for that location within two years prior to the second application. Harvey v. Schooley, 152 Colo. 384, 382 P.2d 189 (1963).

The holder of a liquor license cannot apply for a transfer of his license to a facility where, during the preceding two years, a license has been denied for the reason that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants were being satisfied by existing outlets. Sixth Ave. Liquors, Inc. v. Kalbin, 44 Colo. App. 232, 615 P.2d 56 (1980).

A sole applicant for issuance of a license is not "the same person or persons" as a partnership, whose application for a liquor license had previously been denied. Harvey v. Schooley, 152 Colo. 384, 382 P.2d 189 (1963).

Burden on applicant. It is incumbent upon an applicant for a liquor license to make a prima facie showing of facts which satisfy the requisites of the liquor code. Geer v. Hall, 138 Colo. 384, 333 P.2d 1040 (1959).

All reasonable doubt must be resolved in favor of the findings of the licensing authority, and unless it clearly appears that under the whole record an action of that authority is arbitrary and capricious, the supreme court may not order a different result. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959); Lab Dev. Co. v. Hill, 152 Colo. 338, 381 P.2d 811 (1963).

Duty to consider neighborhood requirements and desires. The licensing authority has the duty and authority to consider the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants as evidenced by petition, remonstrances, or otherwise. Gem Beverage Co. v. Geer, 138 Colo. 420, 334 P.2d 744 (1959).

The test in consideration of a license application is still the "desires of the inhabitants" and "the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood". Travella v. Eppinger, 152 Colo. 506, 383 P.2d 314 (1963).

Applied in In re Title Pertaining to Sale of Table Wine in Grocery Stores, 646 P.2d 916 (Colo. 1982).

12-47-305. Denial of application. (1) The state licensing authority shall refuse a state license if the premises on which the applicant proposes to conduct its business do not meet the requirements of this article, or if the character of the applicant or its officers or directors is such that violations of this article or article 46 or 48 of this title would be likely to result if a license were granted, or if in its opinion licenses already granted for the particular locality are adequate for the reasonable needs of the community.

(2) The state licensing authority shall not refuse a state license after a local license has been granted, except upon hearing after fifteen days' notice to the applicant and to the local licensing authority. The notice shall be in writing and shall state grounds upon which the application may be refused. If the applicant does not respond to the notice within fifteen days after the date of the notice, the application for a license shall be denied. Such hearing shall be conducted in accordance with the provisions of section 24-4-105, C.R.S., and judicial review of the state licensing authority's decision shall be pursuant to section 24-4-106, C.R.S.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Antitrust", see 55 Den. L.J. 415 (1978).

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Three grounds for refusal. By the express provisions of this section, the state licensing authority is authorized and directed to refuse to grant a license for the failure of an applicant to meet statutory requirements in three particulars only, viz: (1) that the premises for which the license is sought do not meet the requirements of the law; (2) that the character of applicant or its officers is such that violation of the liquor law would likely result; and (3) that existing outlets are adequate for the reasonable needs of the community. MacArthur v. Bishop, 123 Colo. 452, 230 P.2d 589 (1951); Stanley v. Anderson, 158 Colo. 576, 408 P.2d 984 (1965).

This section contains no requirement of formal findings. MacArthur v. Bishop, 123 Colo. 452, 230 P.2d 589 (1951).

Where there was substantial evidence to support the action of the licensing authority, and no jurisdictional or quasi-jurisdictional determination or finding was required, and no specific findings were requested and refused, the decision of the licensing authority to refuse a license could not be challenged on the ground that he failed to make any findings or state any reason for his refusal. MacArthur v. Bishop, 123 Colo. 452, 230 P.2d 589 (1951).

Witnesses not required. The power of an agency to do justice informally and promptly is not limited to cases where witnesses have been heard, and without any witnesses at all it may act of its own knowledge, for it is made up of men with special qualifications of training and experience. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

When an agency acts on its own knowledge, it must set forth in its return the facts known to its members, but not otherwise disclosed. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

Facts as to hardship required. To characterize a situation as a hardship without more does not tend in any substantial degree to enlighten a reviewing court, and therefore there must be disclosure of the facts from which a hardship is inferred. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

Notice of hearing responsibility of local authority. The question of whether there has been compliance with the requirement that notice of hearing be given upon the application for a county license is a matter which has been specifically and exclusively entrusted to the local licensing authority. Stanley v. Anderson, 158 Colo. 576, 408 P.2d 984 (1965).

Finding of adequacy of notice binding. The determination of the commissioners on the issue of whether posting of notice of hearing before the commissioners has been adequate is binding upon the state licensing authority. Stanley v. Anderson, 158 Colo. 576, 408 P.2d 984 (1965).

The state licensing authority does not have statutory authority to inquire into the adequacy of posting, once the local licensing authority has made its determination of such question. Stanley v. Anderson, 158 Colo. 576, 408 P.2d 984 (1965).

To favor one applicant over another is discriminatory and suggests the exercise of an unwarranted and uncontrolled discretion on the part of the licensing authority. Geer v. Presto, 135 Colo. 536, 313 P.2d 980 (1957).

Basis for finding denial arbitrary and capricious. Capricious or arbitrary exercise of discretion by an administrative board can arise by exercising its discretion in such manner after a consideration of evidence before it as clearly to indicate that its action is based on conclusions from the evidence such that reasonable men fairly and honestly considering the evidence must reach contrary conclusions. Geer v. Stathopoulos, 135 Colo. 146, 309 P.2d 606 (1957).

Denial not arbitrary and capricious. Where the record of a hearing on an application for a liquor license discloses a situation with reference to which reasonable minds might reach different conclusions, the action of the board of county commissioners in denying such application cannot be adjudged arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable as a matter of law. Bd. of County Comm'rs v. Bonicelli, 151 Colo. 308, 377 P.2d 124 (1962).

Evidence sufficient to deny license. Where a plat put in evidence disclosed the existence of 93 liquor outlets within a radius of six blocks of the premises for which the license was sought, and of these, more than half were hotel and restaurant licenses, the evidence was sufficient to support the denial of a hotel and restaurant liquor license. MacArthur v. Bishop, 123 Colo. 452, 230 P.2d 589 (1951).

Issuance of a license to another person in an area, shortly after the rejection of applicant's application on the ground that the needs of the neighborhood were satisfied, would be arbitrary and discriminatory. Geer v. Presto, 135 Colo. 536, 313 P.2d 980 (1957).

12-47-306. Inactive licenses. The state or local licensing authority, in its discretion, may revoke or elect not to renew a retail license if it determines that the licensed premises has been inactive, without good cause, for at least one year or, in the case of a retail license approved for a facility that has not been constructed, such facility has not been constructed and placed in operation within two years after approval of the license application or construction of the facility has not commenced within one year after such approval.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-47-110 (1) as it existed prior to 1997.

12-47-307. Persons prohibited as licensees. (1) (a) No license provided by this article or article 46 or 48 of this title shall be issued to or held by:

- (I) Any person until the annual fee therefor has been paid;
 - (II) Any person who is not of good moral character;
 - (III) Any corporation, any of whose officers, directors, or stockholders holding ten percent or more of the outstanding and issued capital stock thereof are not of good moral character;
 - (IV) Any partnership, association, or company, any of whose officers, or any of whose members holding ten percent or more interest therein, are not of good moral character;
 - (V) Any person employing, assisted by, or financed in whole or in part by any other person who is not of good character and reputation satisfactory to the respective licensing authorities;
 - (VI) Any person unless such person's character, record, and reputation are satisfactory to the respective licensing authority;
 - (VII) Any natural person under twenty-one years of age.
- (b) (I) In making a determination as to character or when considering the conviction of a crime, a licensing authority shall be governed by the provisions of section 24-5-101, C.R.S.

(II) With respect to arts or club license applications, an investigation of the character of the president or chair of the board and the operational manager shall be deemed sufficient to determine whether to issue the arts or club license to the applicant.

(2) No license provided by this article shall be issued to or held by any peace officer, or the state licensing authority, or any of its inspectors or employees.

(3) (a) In investigating the qualifications of the applicant or a licensee, the local licensing authority may have access to criminal history record information furnished by a criminal justice agency subject to any restrictions imposed by such agency. In the event the local licensing authority takes into consideration information concerning the applicant's criminal history record, the local licensing authority shall also consider any information provided by the applicant regarding such criminal history record, including but not limited to evidence of rehabilitation, character references, and educational achievements, especially those items pertaining to the period of time between the applicant's last criminal conviction and the consideration of the application for a license.

(b) As used in paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), "criminal justice agency" means any federal, state, or municipal court or any governmental agency or subunit of such agency that performs the administration of criminal justice pursuant to a statute or executive order and that allocates a substantial part of its annual budget to the administration of criminal justice.

(c) At the time of the application for a license, the applicant shall submit fingerprints and file personal history information concerning the applicant's qualifications for a license on forms prepared by the state licensing authority. The state and local licensing authorities shall submit such fingerprints to the Colorado bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting fingerprints-based criminal history record checks. The Colorado bureau of investigation shall forward the fingerprints to the federal bureau of investigation for the purpose of conducting fingerprints-based criminal history record checks. An applicant who has previously submitted fingerprints for alcohol beverage licensing purposes may request that the fingerprints on file be used. The licensing authorities shall use the information resulting from the fingerprints-based criminal history record check to investigate and to determine if an applicant is qualified for a license pursuant to this article and article 46 of this title. The licensing authority shall not be prohibited from verifying any of the information required to be submitted by an applicant pursuant to this section. An applicant shall not be required to submit additional information beyond that required in this subsection (3) unless the licensing authority has determined any of the following:

- (I) The applicant has misrepresented a material fact;
- (II) The applicant has an established criminal history record;
- (III) A prior criminal or administrative proceeding determined that the applicant violated alcohol beverage laws;
- (IV) The information submitted by an applicant is incomplete; or
- (V) The character, record, or reputation of the applicant, his or her agent, or his or her principal is such that a potential violation of this article or article 46 of this title may occur if a license is issued to the applicant.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "Moral Character of the Liquor Licensee or Applicant", see 25 Colo. Law. 79 (February 1996).

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Only offenses involving "moral turpitude" basis for denial. This section as "governed" and modified by § 24-5-101 requires that only those offenses involving "moral turpitude" can serve as justification for denial of a liquor license. Hartman v. Wadlow, 37 Colo. App. 90, 545 P.2d 735 (1975), aff'd, 191 Colo. 196, 551 P.2d 201 (1976).

Negative response to question regarding suspension or revocation of liquor license was a misrepresentation of a material fact with respect to prior cancelled license and, therefore, could constitute grounds for license revocation. Fueston v. City of Colo. Springs, 713 P.2d 1323 (Colo. App. 1985).

Not driving while ability impaired. While "driving a motor vehicle while ability is impaired" is a serious offense, nevertheless it does not rise to the magnitude of being one involving moral turpitude. Hartman v. Wadlow, 37 Colo. App. 90, 545 P.2d 735 (1975), aff'd, 191 Colo. 196, 551 P.2d 201 (1976).

Effect of nolo contendere plea. The state licensing authority cannot utilize the plea of nolo contendere at a hearing called by him as evidence of a conviction of a violation of the liquor law. Bruce v. Leo, 129 Colo. 129, 267 P.2d 1014 (1954).

This section prohibits the sale of intoxicating liquor by the drink within 500 feet of a public or parochial school. Geer v. Rabinoff, 138 Colo. 8, 328 P.2d 375 (1958); Harvey v. Schooley, 152 Colo. 384, 382 P.2d 189 (1963).

The general assembly has enacted no such restriction on the sale of liquors in sealed containers not to be consumed at the place where sold. Geer v. Rabinoff, 138 Colo. 8, 328 P.2d 375 (1958).

An area covered by a parking lot adjacent to restaurant is not to be considered in computing distance from a school. Harvey v. Schooley, 152 Colo. 384, 382 P.2d 189 (1963).

No liquor can be sold on a parking lot. Harvey v. Schooley, 152 Colo. 384, 382 P.2d 189 (1963).

"Record" defined. Although the word "record", referred to in paragraph (1)(a)(VIII), may be somewhat broad, its context certainly includes violations of statutory law of the state. Mr. Lucky's, Inc. v. Dolan, 197 Colo. 195, 591 P.2d 1021 (1979).

Judicial review of licensing board. A liquor licensing board which revokes or suspends a license under this section is subject to judicial review for abuse of discretion. Mr. Lucky's, Inc. v. Dolan, 197 Colo. 195, 591 P.2d 1021 (1979).

Applied in Van DeVegt v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 98 Colo. 161, 55 P.2d 703 (1936).

12-47-308. Unlawful financial assistance. (1) (a) It is unlawful for any person licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title as a manufacturer, limited winery licensee, wholesaler, or importer, or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with any of said licensees, to furnish, supply, or loan, in any manner, directly or indirectly, to any person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to this article or article 46 or 48 of this title any financial assistance, including the extension of credit for more than thirty days, as specified in section 12-47-202 (2) (b) or in rules of the state licensing authority, or any equipment, fixtures, chattels, or furnishings used in the storing, handling, serving, or dispensing of food or alcohol beverages within the premises or for making any structural alterations or improvements in or on the building in which such premises are located. This section shall not apply to signs or displays within such premises.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), any person or party described in said paragraph (a) may provide financial or in-kind assistance, directly or indirectly, to a nonprofit arts organization that has been issued an arts license pursuant to section 12-47-417 or to a state-supported institution of higher education in Colorado, including junior colleges, area vocational schools, and the Auraria higher education center, or the governing board of a state-supported institution of higher education, or to a nonpublic institution of higher education as defined in section 23-3.7-102, C.R.S., that is operating pursuant to 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, if the institution has been issued a license pursuant to article 46, 47, or 48 of this title.

(2) The state licensing authority, by rule and regulation, shall require a complete disclosure of all persons having a direct or indirect financial interest, and the extent of such interest, in each hotel and restaurant license and each retail gaming tavern license issued under this article. A willful failure to report and disclose the financial interests of all persons having a direct or indirect financial interest in a hotel and restaurant license or in a retail gaming tavern license shall be grounds for suspension or revocation of such license by the state licensing authority. The invalidity of any provision of this subsection (2) concerning interest in more than one hotel and restaurant license or retail gaming tavern license shall invalidate all interests in more than one hotel and restaurant license or retail gaming tavern license, and such invalidity shall make any such interest unlawful financial assistance.

(3) (a) It is unlawful for any person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title to receive and obtain from the persons or parties described and referred to in subsection (1) (a) of this section, directly or indirectly, any financial assistance or any equipment, fixtures, chattels, or furnishings used in the storing, handling, serving, or dispensing of food or alcohol beverages within the premises or from making any structural alterations or improvements in or on the building on which such premises are located. This subsection (3) shall not apply to signs or displays within such premises or to advertising materials that are intended primarily to advertise the product of the wholesaler or manufacturer and that have only negligible value in themselves or to the inspection and servicing of malt or vinous liquor-dispensing equipment to the extent necessary for the maintenance of reasonable standards of purity, cleanliness, and health.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this subsection (3), a nonprofit arts organization that has been issued an arts license pursuant to section 12-47-417 or a state-supported institution of higher education in Colorado, including junior colleges, area vocational schools, and the Auraria higher education center, or the governing board of a state-supported institution of higher education, or a nonpublic institution of higher education as defined in section 23-3.7-102, C.R.S., that is operating pursuant to 26 U.S.C. sec. 501 (c) (3) of the federal "Internal Revenue Code of 1986", as amended, if the institution has been issued a license pursuant to article 46, 47, or 48 of this title, may receive financial or in-kind assistance, directly or indirectly, from the persons or parties described and referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of this section.

(4) (a) Except as otherwise authorized, it is unlawful for any person or corporation holding any license pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title or any person who is a stockholder, director, or officer of any corporation holding a license pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title to be a stockholder, director, or officer or to be interested, directly or indirectly, in any person or corporation that lends money to any person or corporation licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title, but this subsection (4) shall not apply to banks, savings and loan associations, or industrial banks supervised and regulated by an agency of the state or federal government, or to FHA-approved mortgagees, or to stockholders, directors, or officers thereof; and it is unlawful for any person or corporation licensed pursuant to this article or article 46 of this title, or any stockholder, director, or officer of such corporation, to make any loan or be interested, directly or indirectly, in any loan to any other person licensed pursuant to the provisions of this article or article 46 of this title; except that this paragraph (a) shall not apply to any financial institution that comes into possession of a licensed premises by virtue of a foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure if such financial institution does not retain such premises for longer than one year or for such time exceeding one year as provided in paragraph (b) of this subsection (4).

(b) In the case of a financial institution that comes into possession of a licensed premises by virtue of a foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure, the state and the local licensing authority may grant a transfer of ownership for such license for a period of one year and, upon notice and hearing, renewal of such license may be granted. This paragraph (b) shall apply in the case of every foreclosure or deed in lieu of foreclosure in which disposition of the license has not otherwise been made by the state or local licensing authority.

(5) It is unlawful for any owner, part owner, shareholder, stockholder, or person interested, directly or indirectly, in any retail business or establishment of a person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to the provisions of this article or article 46 or 48 of this title to enter into any agreement with any person or party or to receive, possess, or accept any money, fixtures, supplies, or things of value from any person or party, whereby a person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to this article or article 46 or 48 of this title may be influenced or caused, directly or indirectly, to buy, sell, dispense, or handle the product of any manufacturer of alcohol beverages. This subsection (5) shall not apply to displays within such premises.

(6) Any transaction, agreement, or arrangement prohibited by the provisions of this section, if made and entered into by and between the persons and parties described and referred to in this section, is unlawful, illegal, invalid, and void, and any obligation or liability arising out of such transaction, agreement, or arrangement shall be unenforceable in any court of this state by or against any such persons and parties entering into such transaction, agreement, or arrangement.

(7) This section is intended to prohibit and prevent the control of the outlets for the sale of alcohol beverages by any persons or parties other than the persons licensed pursuant to the provisions of this article or article 46 or 48 of this title.

(8) It is unlawful for an owner, part owner, shareholder, or person interested directly or indirectly in a brew pub or vintner's restaurant license to conduct, own in whole or in part, or be directly or indirectly interested in a wholesaler's license issued under this article or article 46 of this title.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, "The Colorado Liquor Code: Distinct and Definite Requirements", see 17 Colo. Law. 841 (1988).

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

This section interdicts any transaction, agreement, or arrangement prohibited by it and provides that any obligation or liability arising out of any such transaction, agreement, or arrangement shall be unenforceable in any court by or against any such persons and parties entering into such transaction. Fishman v. Davis, 112 F.2d 432 (10th Cir. 1940).

A plain reading of this section demonstrates that the general assembly did not speak to the precise question of below-cost sales of alcohol by manufacturers to retailer, and therefore deference to agency construction is appropriate. Wine & Spirits Wholesalers v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 919 P.2d 894 (Colo. App. 1996).

A person who held a retail liquor license could not acquire an interest in the business of a bankrupt wholesaler, and a transaction whereby he attempts to acquire such an interest is void under this section and any claim or obligation arising therefrom is unenforceable, because he could not advance money to the bankrupt for an interest in its business and obtain a claim which was enforceable in the bankruptcy court against the estate. Fishman v. Davis, 112 F.2d 432 (10th Cir. 1940).

Finding of lack of any indirect interest in another retail liquor store is supported by competent evidence on the record and is not arbitrary nor capricious. The evidence does not show that the stock transfer of ownership of another liquor store to the wife of the licensee was a sham transaction nor that the licensee retained control of or any interest in another liquor store. Brass Monkey v. Louisville City Council, 870 P.2d 636 (Colo. App. 1994).

Liquor wholesaler's extension of credit to retailer unaccompanied with control or attempt to control is not unlawful under the Colorado liquor law. Majestic Marketing Co. v. Anderson Enterprises of Colo., Inc. 32 Colo. App. 369, 511 P.2d 943 (1973).

Where decedent, part owner of one bar, advanced money for the construction and equipment of another bar, plaintiff claiming by and through decedent as his heir and as executrix of decedent's estate was barred from recovering moneys advanced by decedent for construction of the other bar. Frederics v. Wilson, 31 Colo. App. 117, 500 P.2d 384 (1972).

When asserting rights of decedent, a claimant is subject to the limitations appurtenant to any claim decedent might have had, thus, the working of this section itself, and clear public policy, would bar recovery. Frederics v. Wilson, 31 Colo. App. 117, 500 P.2d 384 (1972).

Giving of a chattel mortgage was in violation of this section. Fishman v. Davis, 112 F.2d 432 (10th Cir. 1940).

Installment sale by wholesaler not prohibited. Absent proof of control or attempt to control a retail licensee by a wholesale licensee, an installment sale or lease of equipment by a wholesaler to a retailer is not prohibited by this section. Nobel, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 652 P.2d 1084 (Colo. App. 1982).

Installment sale by wholesaler does not constitute unlawful financial assistance. The leasing of equipment and the sale of equipment on credit by a wholesale liquor licensee to a retail liquor licensee, absent control or attempt to control the retail licensee, does not constitute unlawful financial assistance. Nobel, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 652 P.2d 1084 (Colo. App. 1982).

Applied in Law Offices of Bernard D. Morley, P.C. v. MacFarlane, 647 P.2d 1215 (Colo. 1982); People v. Luciano, 662 P.2d 480 (Colo. 1983).

12-47-309. Local licensing authority - applications - optional premises licenses.

(1) A local licensing authority may issue only the following alcohol beverage licenses upon payment of the fee specified in section 12-47-505:

- (a) Retail liquor store license;
- (b) Liquor-licensed drugstore license;
- (c) Beer and wine license;
- (d) Hotel and restaurant license;
- (e) Tavern license;
- (f) Brew pub license;
- (g) Club license;
- (h) Arts license;
- (i) Racetrack license;
- (j) Optional premises license;
- (k) Retail gaming tavern license;
- (l) Vintner's restaurant license.

(2) An application for any license specified in subsection (1) of this section or section 12-46-107 shall be filed with the appropriate local licensing authority on forms provided by the state licensing authority and containing such information as the state licensing authority may require. Each application shall be verified by the oath or affirmation of such persons as prescribed by the state licensing authority.

(3) The applicant shall file at the time of application plans and specifications for the interior of the building if the building to be occupied is in existence at the time. If the building is not in existence, the applicant shall file a plot plan and a detailed sketch for the interior and submit an architect's drawing of the building to be constructed. In its discretion, the local licensing authority may impose additional requirements necessary for the approval of the application.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Before there can be any issuance of a liquor license or a transfer thereof at the local level, the state authority must approve the action of the local authority. Moschetti v. Liquor Licensing Auth., 176 Colo. 281, 490 P.2d 299 (1971).

Oath requirement is mandatory. Spero v. Bd. of Trustees, 35 Colo. App. 64, 529 P.2d 327 (1974).

The requirement that the contents of a liquor license application be verified is mandatory. Mr. Lucky's, Inc. v. City of Glendale, 42 Colo. App. 322, 596 P.2d 1218 (1979).

Private parties may not waive requirements. Because the requirement of a verified application is mandatory and because statutes dealing with the liquor industry are founded on public policy, and constitute an exercise of the police powers of the state, private parties may not waive the requirements of this statute. Spero v. Bd. of Trustees, 35 Colo. App. 64, 529 P.2d 327 (1974).

Failure to verify properly application prior to expiration date for filing renewal application is not fatal, because a hearing on the application may be held after the filing period has expired. Mr. Lucky's, Inc. v. City of Glendale, 42 Colo. App. 322, 596 P.2d 1218 (1979).

Amendment made on license application and sworn to anew. Where an applicant desires to amend his application required for a liquor license either by changing an answer previously given or by furnishing answers to questions not previously answered, the amendment must be made on the application itself and sworn to anew. Spero v. Bd. of Trustees, 35 Colo. App. 64, 529 P.2d 327 (1974).

Liquor license application may be amended prior to or at hearing to review application in order to correct or add information thereto. A proper verification for the application can be supplied prior to or at the hearing on the application. Mr. Lucky's, Inc. v. City of Glendale, 42 Colo. App. 322, 596 P.2d 1218 (1979).

Term "plans and specifications" in subsection (4) has a special meaning and includes not only the dimensions and mode of construction, but a description of the material, its kind, length, breadth, and thickness, and the manner of joining the separate parts. It is a particular and detailed account; the accurate description of the materials to be used and work to be performed in the construction of a building; a written instrument containing a good minute description, account, or enumeration of particulars. Spero v. Bd. of Trustees, 35 Colo. App. 64, 529 P.2d 327 (1974).

Failure to file specifications more than formal defect. The failure of liquor license applicant to have detailed specifications of the interior as required under subsection (4) is more than a formal defect. Spero v. Bd. of Trustees, 35 Colo. App. 64, 529 P.2d 327 (1974).

Failure to file building plans at the time of the application is not fatal. Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

There is no statutory prohibition against amending an application or supplying a deficiency prior to the consideration of the application, or at the hearing. Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

May file specifications up to and including hearing. An applicant for a liquor license can file the plans and specifications and architect's drawings required under subsection (4) at any time up to and including the hearing. Spero v. Bd. of Trustees, 35 Colo. App. 64, 529 P.2d 327 (1974).

Applied in City of Aurora v. Morris, 160 Colo. 289, 417 P.2d 7 (1966).

12-47-310. Optional premises license - local option. (1) No optional premises license, or optional premises permit for a hotel and restaurant license, as defined in section 12-47-103 (22) (a), shall be issued within any municipality or the unincorporated portion of any county unless the governing body of the municipality has adopted by ordinance, or the governing body of the county has adopted by resolution, specific standards for the issuance of optional premises licenses or for optional premises for a hotel and restaurant license. No municipality or county shall be required to adopt such standards or make such licenses available within its jurisdiction.

(2) In addition to all other standards applicable to the issuance of licenses under this article, the governing body may adopt additional standards for the issuance of optional premises licenses or for optional premises for a hotel and restaurant license that may include:

(a) The specific types of outdoor sports and recreational facilities that are eligible to apply for an optional premises license or an optional premises for a hotel and restaurant license;

(b) Restrictions on the number of optional premises that any one licensee may have on an outdoor sports or recreational facility;

(c) A restriction on the minimum size of any applicant's outdoor sports or recreational facility that would be eligible for the issuance of an optional premises license or optional premises for a hotel and restaurant license;

(d) Any other requirements necessary to ensure the control of the premises and the ease of enforcement.

(3) An applicant for a hotel and restaurant license who desires to sell or serve alcohol beverages on optional premises shall file with the optional premises permit application a list of the optional premises locations. Such application and list shall be filed with the state and local licensing authorities upon initial application, and each license year thereafter. Approval of the areas must be obtained from the state licensing authority and the local licensing authority. The decision of each authority shall be discretionary. In the event that the state and local licensing authorities allow the area or areas to be designated optional premises, no alcohol beverages may be served on the optional premises without the licensee having provided written notice to the state and local licensing authorities forty-eight hours prior to serving alcohol beverages on the optional premises. Such notice shall contain the specific days and hours on which the optional premises are to be used. This subsection (3) shall not be construed to permit the violation of any other provision of this article under circumstances not specified in this subsection (3).

(4) An applicant for an optional premises license who desires to sell, dispense, or serve alcohol beverages on optional premises shall file with the optional premises license application a list of the optional premises locations and the area in which the applicant desires to store alcohol beverages for future use on the optional premises. The applicant shall file the application and additional information with the state and local licensing authorities upon initial application, and each license year thereafter. Approval of the license and areas must be obtained from the state licensing authority and the local licensing authority. The decision of each authority shall be discretionary. In the event that the state and local licensing authorities allow the area or areas to be designated optional premises, no alcohol beverages may be served on the optional premises without the licensee having provided written notice to the state and local licensing authorities forty-eight hours prior to serving alcohol beverages on the optional premises. The notice must contain the specific days and hours on which the optional premises are to be used. This subsection (4) does not permit the violation of any other provision of this article under circumstances not specified in this subsection (4).

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-47-135.5, and subsections (3) and (4) are similar to former § 12-47-135 (6) and (7), as they existed prior to 1997.

12-47-311. Public notice - posting and publication. (1) Upon receipt of an application, except an application for renewal or for transfer of ownership, the local licensing authority shall schedule a public hearing upon the application not less than thirty days from the date of the application and shall post and publish the public notice thereof not less than ten days prior to such hearing. Public notice shall be given by the posting of a sign in a conspicuous place on the premises for which application has been made and by publication in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the premises are located.

(2) Notice given by posting shall include a sign of suitable material, not less than twenty-two inches wide and twenty-six inches high, composed of letters not less than one inch in height and stating the type of license applied for, the date of the application, the date of the hearing, and the name and address of the applicant, and such other information as may be required to fully apprise the public of the nature of the application. If the applicant is a partnership, the sign shall contain the names and addresses of all partners, and if the applicant is a corporation, association, or other organization, the sign shall contain the names and addresses of the president, vice-president, secretary, and manager or other managing officers.

(3) Notice given by publication shall contain the same information as that required for signs.

(4) If the building in which the alcohol beverage is to be sold is in existence at the time of the application, any sign posted as required in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be placed so as to be conspicuous and plainly visible to the general public. If the building is not constructed at the time of the application, the applicant shall post the premises upon which the building is to be constructed in such a manner that the notice shall be conspicuous and plainly visible to the general public.

(5) At the public hearing held pursuant to this section, any party in interest shall be allowed to present evidence and to cross-examine witnesses.

(b) As used in this subsection (5), "party in interest" means any of the following:

(I) The applicant;

(II) An adult resident of the neighborhood under consideration;

(III) The owner or manager of a business located in the neighborhood under consideration;

(IV) The principal or representative of any school located within five hundred feet of the premises for which the issuance of a license pursuant to section 12-47-309 (1) is under consideration.

(c) The local licensing authority, in its discretion, may limit the presentation of evidence and cross-examination so as to prevent repetitive and cumulative evidence or examination.

(d) Nothing in this subsection (5) shall be construed to prevent a representative of an organized neighborhood group that encompasses part or all of the neighborhood under consideration from presenting evidence subject to this section. Such representative shall reside within the neighborhood group's geographic boundaries and shall be a member of the neighborhood group. Such representative shall not be entitled to cross-examine witnesses or seek judicial review of the licensing authority's decision.

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

An owner of a business located within the neighborhood is a party in interest to the extent that he may present evidence at the hearing before the licensing authority. Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

A competitor has standing to challenge granting of a liquor license and to appeal any adverse judgment if the competitor is also a resident of the affected neighborhood. Brass

Monkey v. Louisville City Council, 870 P.2d 636 (Colo. App. 1994).

The term “party in interest” grants only the limited right to participate in the evidentiary hearing and not the right to participate as a party in judicial proceedings to review the action of the licensing authority. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193, Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

No-cross-examination order exceeded council authority. While the licensing authority may limit the presentation of evidence and cross-examination so as to prevent repetitive or cumulative evidence or cross-examination, the council exceeded its authority by arbitrarily ordering that no cross-examination of witnesses would be allowed at this public hearing. Mobell v. Meyer, 172 Colo. 12, 469 P.2d 414 (1970).

12-47-312. Results of investigation - decision of authorities. (1) Not less than five days prior to the date of hearing, the local licensing authority shall make known its findings based on its investigation in writing to the applicant and other interested parties. The local licensing authority has authority to refuse to issue any licenses provided in sections 12-47-309 (1) and 12-46-107 for good cause, subject to judicial review.

(2) (a) Before entering any decision approving or denying the application, the local licensing authority shall consider, except where this article specifically provides otherwise, the facts and evidence adduced as a result of its investigation, as well as any other facts, the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood for the type of license for which application has been made, the desires of the adult inhabitants, the number, type, and availability of alcohol beverage outlets located in or near the neighborhood under consideration, and any other pertinent matters affecting the qualifications of the applicant for the conduct of the type of business proposed; except that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood shall not be considered in the issuance of a club liquor license. The reasonable requirements of the neighborhood may, but are not required to, be considered in the conversion or transfer of a liquor-licensed drugstore license to a retail liquor store license.

(b) Any petitioning otherwise required to establish the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood shall be waived for a bed and breakfast permit applicant unless the local licensing authority has previously taken affirmative, official action to rescind the availability of such waiver in all subsequent cases.

(3) Any decision of a local licensing authority approving or denying an application shall be in writing stating the reasons therefor, within thirty days after the date of the public hearing, and a copy of such decision shall be sent by certified mail to the applicant at the address shown in the application.

(4) No license shall be issued by any local licensing authority after approval of an application until the building in which the business is to be conducted is ready for occupancy with such furniture, fixtures, and equipment in place as is necessary to comply with the applicable provisions of this article and article 46 of this title, and then only after inspection of the premises has been made by the licensing authority to determine that the applicant has complied with the architect’s drawing and the plot plan and detailed sketch for the interior of the building submitted with the application.

(5) After approval of any application, the local licensing authority shall notify the state licensing authority of such approval, who shall investigate and either approve or disapprove such application.

ANNOTATION

Law reviews. For article, “A Primer on Liquor License Application Hearings in Colorado”, see 31 Colo. Law. 11 (September 2002).

Annotator’s note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

In forfeiture removal action, absent the owner’s permission, it is a trespass for the officers to remain on the premises longer than is necessary to remove the seized property. Walker

v. City of Denver, 720 P.2d 619 (Colo. App. 1986).

While the right of public officers to seize personal property carries with it the right to remove the property from the premises, such removal is unjustified if it would result in the destruction or substantial damage to the real property. Walker v. City of Denver, 720 P.2d 619 (Colo. App. 1986).

The fact that a particular type of license is not authorized in the neighborhood does not require the issuance of such a license if, in fact, the needs of the neighborhood, with respect to the type of beverage authorized to be sold by the license requested, are being met by the existing licenses. Canjar v. Huerta, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977) (decided under § 12-47-116 before the 1976 repeal and reenactment of this article).

Date of city council's written decision commenced 30-day period. Where the city council approved an application for a package liquor license and entered its written decision in the form of a statement of approval upon the license application form, which was signed by the mayor and attested by the city clerk, it is the date of the written decision, endorsed upon the application form, and not the date on which applicants received the letter of notification, which commences the 30-day period within which to appeal the decision. White v. City Council, 33 Colo. App. 97, 515 P.2d 487 (1973).

The period of limitation under subsection (3) of this section was properly measured from the conclusion of a second hearing where, at the conclusion of the first hearing on the license application, the matter was tabled for further consideration, and no final action was taken. U-Tote-M of Colo., Inc. v. City of Greenwood Vill., 39 Colo. App. 28, 563 P.2d 373 (1977).

The intent of a law which grants discretionary power to licensing officers, whether expressly or by necessary implication, is that the discretionary decision shall be the outcome of examination and consideration, in other words, that it shall constitute a discharge of official duty, and not a mere expression of personal will. Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

Basis for capricious or arbitrary exercise of discretion. Capricious or arbitrary exercise of discretion by an administrative board can arise by failing to give candid and honest consideration of the evidence before it on which it is authorized to act in exercising its discretion, and by exercising its discretion in such manner after a consideration of the evidence before it as to clearly indicate that its action is based on conclusions from the evidence such that reasonable men fairly and honestly considering the evidence must reach contrary conclusions. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967); Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

"Neighborhood" doesn't include whole county. No authority justifies the conclusion that the "neighborhood" involved in an application for a liquor license can be expanded to include and entire county. Bolton v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 164 Colo. 112, 432 P.2d 761 (1967).

Boundary lines of a city do not exclude residents on one side or the other from the "neighborhood" to be considered in connection with applications for liquor licenses. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The existence or nonexistence of outlets on either side of a city boundary are to be considered by the licensing authority in determining whether reasonable requirements of the neighborhood are being met. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

"In or near" are spatial concepts; "in" means inside of, within the bounds or limits of, and "near" denotes close by, neighboring, or not far from. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

In noting the "nearness" of the other outlets the board must consider also their "availability", and "availability" contemplates suitability for the accomplishment of a given purpose, capability of advantageous use or employment. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

The licensing authority can require compliance with a zoning law before permitting a store to open. Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

Opportunity to comply with the zoning laws and restrictions would of necessity be granted to anyone desiring to open a lawful business. Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

If the absence of adequate toilet facilities violated a county zoning resolution, it would not be ground in and of itself for denial of the application for a liquor license. Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

The existence of "desire" for a new outlet is some evidence that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood were not being met. Anderson v. Spencer, 162 Colo. 328, 426 P.2d 970 (1967).

Consideration of size of outlet. In the absence of guidelines on the size of a proposed outlet in the statute and in the absence of a county zoning requirement for the location involved, a denial based on such grounds is not lawful. Goehring v. Bd. of County Comm'rs, 172 Colo. 1, 469 P.2d 137 (1970).

What findings must include. When a board considers "other pertinent matters" during the course of making its investigation, it must in its findings point out how it feels the applicant's qualifications to conduct the proposed business were affected by those matters. Wadlow v. Hartman, 191 Colo. 196, 551 P.2d 201 (1976).

Trial court had no jurisdiction. Where there was no showing in the trial court that protestants had exhausted their administrative remedies or that certiorari proceedings to review the decision of a local licensing authority to grant an application for a retail liquor store license were not moot, the trial court had no jurisdiction over the subject matter of the certiorari proceedings and should have dismissed the action. Larson v. City & County of Denver, 33 Colo. App. 153, 516 P.2d 448 (1973).

Specifications and inspection mandatory. Under subsection (4), the filing of plans and specifications is mandatory and may not be waived and prior to granting a liquor license the local authority must inspect the premises to determine that the applicant has complied with the architect's drawing and plans and specifications submitted upon the application. Norris v. Grimsley, 41 Colo. App. 231, 585 P.2d 925 (1978).

City council's denial of liquor license application was unsupported by competent evidence and was arbitrary where evidence presented by applicant established a prima facie case for issuance and the only rebuttal evidence was the existence of other liquor stores and a survey result that 26% percent expressed opposition. Brass Monkey v. Louisville City Council, 870 P.2d 636 (Colo. App. 1994).

Applied in Kornfeld v. Yost, 37 Colo. App. 483, 551 P.2d 219 (1976), rev'd on other grounds sub nom. Kornfeld v. Perl Mack Liquors, Inc., 193 Colo. 442, 567 P.2d 383 (1977).

12-47-313. Restrictions for applications for new license. (1) No application for the issuance of any license specified in section 12-47-309 (1) or 12-46-107 (1) shall be received or acted upon:

(a) (I) If the application for a license described in section 12-47-309 (1) concerns a particular location that is the same as or within five hundred feet of a location for which, within the two years next preceding the date of the application, the state or a local licensing authority denied an application for the same class of license for the reason that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the adult inhabitants were satisfied by the existing outlets.

(II) Subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (a) shall not apply to cities in which limited gaming is permitted pursuant to section 9 of article XVIII of the state constitution.

(III) No licensing authority shall consider an application for any license to sell fermented malt beverages at retail pursuant to section 12-46-107 (1) if, within one year before the date of the application, the state or a local licensing authority has denied an application at the same location for the reason that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood or the desires of the inhabitants were satisfied by the existing outlets.

(b) Until it is established that the applicant is, or will be, entitled to possession of the premises for which application is made under a lease, rental agreement, or other arrangement for possession of the premises, or by virtue of ownership thereof;

(c) For a location in an area where the sale of alcohol beverages as contemplated is not permitted under the applicable zoning laws of the municipality, city and county, or county;

(d) (I) If the building in which the alcohol beverages are to be sold pursuant to a license described in section 12-47-309 (1) is located within five hundred feet of any public or parochial school or the principal campus of any college, university, or seminary; except that this provision shall not affect the renewal or reissuance of a license once granted or apply to licensed premises located or to be located on land owned by a municipality, or apply to an existing licensed premises on land owned by the state, or apply to a liquor license in effect and actively doing business before the principal campus was constructed, or apply to any club located within the principal campus of any college, university, or seminary that limits its membership to the faculty or staff of the institution.

(II) The distances referred to in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (d) are to be computed by direct measurement from the nearest property line of the land used for school purposes to the nearest portion of the building in which liquor is to be sold, using a route of direct pedestrian access.

(III) The local licensing authority of any city and county, by rule or regulation, the governing body of any other municipality, by ordinance, and the governing body of any other county, by resolution, may eliminate or reduce the distance restrictions imposed by this paragraph (d) for any class of license, or may eliminate one or more types of schools or campuses from the application of any distance restriction established by or pursuant to this paragraph (d).

(IV) In addition to the requirements of section 12-47-312 (2), the local licensing authority shall consider the evidence and make a specific finding of fact as to whether the building in which the liquor is to be sold is located within any distance restrictions established by or pursuant to this section. This finding shall be subject to judicial review pursuant to section 12-47-802.

(2) An application for the issuance of a tavern or retail liquor store license may be denied under this article if the local licensing authority or the state on state-owned property determines, pursuant to section 12-47-301 (2) (b), that the issuance of such license would result in or add to an undue concentration of the same class of license and, as a result, require the use of additional law enforcement resources.

(2) Section 12-47-138 (2), created by House Bill 97-1222, was renumbered to § 12-47-313 (2) and harmonized with amendments made by House Bill 97-1076.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Section 12-47-313 is similar to §§ 12-46-106 and 12-47-138 as they existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, articles 46 and 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions. Relevant cases construing § 12-47-138 have been included in the annotations to this section. Relevant cases construing § 12-46-106 have been included under § 12-47-301.

Previous denial based upon location prohibits application for transfer of license. The holder of a liquor license cannot apply for a transfer of his license to a facility where, during the preceding two years, a license has been denied for the reason that the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the inhabitants were being satisfied by existing outlets. Sixth Ave. Liquors, Inc. v. Kalbin, 44 Colo. App. 232, 615 P.2d 56 (1980).

Condition placed upon use review is impermissible attempt to regulate the hours in which alcohol beverages may be sold. The condition placed upon business does not amount to an exercise in zoning because it applies to a particular business only. Berger v. City of Boulder, 195 P.3d 1138 (Colo. App. 2008).

Land owned by the school board and used for the purpose of carrying out the physical education and athletic programs of the school is "land used for school purposes" for the purposes of this section. La Loma, Inc. v. City & County of Denver, 40 Colo. App. 55, 572 P.2d 1219 (1977).

The university of Colorado medical school is not a principal campus of the university of Colorado for the purposes of subsection (1)(d).

Londer v. Friednash, 38 Colo. App. 350, 560 P.2d 102 (1976).

The university of Colorado at Denver was established as a principal campus in the Denver area. However, the medical school, presently located elsewhere within Denver, was not and has not been declared to be a separate state institution with a constitutionally established principal campus, and its location remains entrusted to the discretion of the regents. Londer v. Friednash, 38 Colo. App. 350, 560 P.2d 102 (1976).

The John F. Kennedy child development center is not a public school for the purposes of subsection (1)(d). Londer v. Friednash, 38 Colo. App. 350, 560 P.2d 102 (1976).

There was no evidence in the record that the John F. Kennedy child development center, which is associated with the medical school of the university of Colorado and is not subject to open enrollment by the public, is a public school other than the fact of its voluntary participation in a cooperative preschool program. Londer v. Friednash, 38 Colo. App. 350, 560 P.2d 102 (1976).

Meaning of subsection (1)(d)(III). In view of the general rule of statutory construction that relative and qualifying words and phrases, where no contrary intention appears, will be construed to refer solely to the last antecedent with which they are closely connected, the last clause of subsection (1)(d)(III) modifies only "to the nearest portion of the building in which liquor is to be sold", and consequently, measurement should proceed from the point nearest a proposed liquor store on the property line of a school by direct pedestrian route rather than the nearest gateway. Moschetti v. Liquor Licensing Auth., 176 Colo. 281, 490 P.2d 299 (1971).

The measurement between the school and the restaurant of the liquor license applicant begins at the point on the school property line that is nearest to the restaurant for a pedestrian, even though another point on the property line may be closer to the restaurant as the crow flies.

Mariscos Las Islitas, Inc. v. Gonzales, 122 P.3d 1082 (Colo. App. 2005).

A measurement following a path of “pedestrian access” which is artificially circuitous is not valid. Moschetti v. Liquor Licensing Auth., 176 Colo. 281, 490 P.2d 299 (1971).

Applied in In re Title Pertaining to Sale of Table Wine in Grocery Stores, 646 P.2d 916 (Colo. 1982).

PART 4

CLASSES OF LICENSES AND PERMITS

12-47-401. Classes of licenses. (1) For the purpose of regulating the manufacture, sale, and distribution of alcohol beverages, the state licensing authority in its discretion, upon application in the prescribed form made to it, may issue and grant to the applicant a license from any of the following classes, subject to the provisions and restrictions provided by this article:

- (a) Manufacturer’s license;
- (b) Limited winery license;
- (c) Nonresident manufacturer’s license;
- (d) Importer’s license;
- (e) Malt liquor importer’s license;
- (f) Wholesaler’s liquor license;
- (g) Wholesaler’s beer license;
- (h) Retail liquor store license;
- (i) Liquor-licensed drugstore license;
- (j) Beer and wine license;
- (k) Hotel and restaurant license;
- (l) Tavern license;
- (m) Brew pub license;
- (n) Club license;
- (o) Arts license;
- (p) Racetrack license;
- (q) Public transportation system license;
- (r) Optional premises license;
- (s) Retail gaming tavern license;
- (t) Vintner’s restaurant license.

ANNOTATION

Annotator’s note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

Separate classification for “hotel and restaurant” and “beer and wine” licenses. A license permitting hotels and restaurants to sell spirituous liquors in addition to beer and wine to their patrons is an entirely separate class of permit from a “beer and wine” license. Huerta v. Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev’d on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The need for separate classification is obvious in that an exclusively beer and wine license in a restaurant situation will serve a different clientele than that of a license which also provides for the service of spirituous liquors. Huerta v. Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev'd on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

Provision for the separate classifications of hotel and restaurant license and beer and wine license was not an arbitrary or unreasonable act on the part of the general assembly. Huerta v. Canjar, 37 Colo. App. 462, 550 P.2d 897 (1976), rev'd on other grounds, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

The fact that a particular type of license is not authorized in the neighborhood does not require the issuance of such a license, if, in fact, the needs of the neighborhood, with respect to the type of beverage authorized to be sold by the license requested, are being met by existing licenses. Huerta v. Canjar, 193 Colo. 388, 566 P.2d 1071 (1977).

Ordinance taxing different classes of liquor licenses imposed under city's taxing power. City ordinance, which levied varying occupation taxes upon holders of different classes of liquor licenses, but which taxed all licensees holding the same type of license the identical amount each year, was a revenue-raising measure imposed under the city's taxing power, and not a regulatory measure imposed under the state's police power. Springston v. City of Fort Collins, 184 Colo. 126, 518 P.2d 939 (1974).

Not discriminatory. City ordinance, which levied varying occupational taxes upon holders of different classes of liquor licenses, but which taxed all licensees holding the same type of license the identical amount each year, was not discriminatory. Springston v. City of Fort Collins, 184 Colo. 126, 518 P.2d 939 (1974).

Applied in Dept. of Rev. v. Rosenthal, 197 Colo. 506, 594 P.2d 580 (1979).

12-47-402. Manufacturer's license. (1) A manufacturer's license shall be issued by the state licensing authority to persons distilling, rectifying, or brewing within this state for the following purposes only:

(a) To produce, manufacture, or rectify malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors;

(b) To sell malt or vinous liquors of their own manufacture within this state. Brewers or winers licensed under this section may solicit business directly from licensed retail persons or consumers by procuring a wholesaler's license as provided in this article; except that any malt liquor sold at wholesale by a brewer that has procured a wholesaler's license shall be unloaded and placed in the physical possession of a licensed wholesaler at the wholesaler's licensed premises in this state and inventoried for purposes of tax collection prior to delivery to a retailer or consumer. Wholesalers of malt liquors receiving products to be held as required by this paragraph (b) shall be liable for the payment of any tax due on such products under section 12-47-503 (1) (a).

(c) To sell vinous or spirituous liquors of their own manufacture within the state to persons licensed by this article without procuring a wholesaler's license;

(d) To sell malt, vinous, or spirituous liquors in other states, the laws of which permit the sale of alcohol beverages;

(e) To sell for export to foreign countries if such export for beverage or medicinal purposes is permitted by the laws of the United States; but Colorado distillers, rectifiers, winers, and brewers licensed under this section may sell their products distilled, rectified, or brewed in this state directly to licensed retail licensees by procuring a wholesaler's license.

(2) Any winery that has received a license pursuant to this section is authorized to conduct tasting and sell vinous liquors of its own manufacture, as well as other vinous liquors manufactured by other Colorado wineries licensed pursuant to this section or section 12-47-403, on the licensed premises of the winery and at one other licensed sales room location at no additional cost, whether included in the license at the time of the original license issuance or by supplemental application.

(2.5) (a) Any winery that has received a license pursuant to this section shall be authorized to manufacture vinous liquors upon an alternating proprietor licensed premises, as approved by the state licensing authority, but retail sales of vinous liquors shall not be conducted from an area licensed or defined as an alternating proprietor licensed premises.

(b) Any brewery that has received a license pursuant to this section shall be authorized to manufacture malt liquors upon an alternating proprietor licensed premises, as approved by the state licensing authority, but retail sales of malt liquors shall not be conducted from an area licensed or defined as an alternating proprietor licensed premises.

(c) Any winery or brewery that holds a wholesaler's license pursuant to section 12-46-104 (1) (b) or 12-47-406 may engage in the wholesale sale of alcohol beverages that the licensee manufactured at an alternating proprietor licensed premises from both its licensed premises and the alternating proprietor licensed premises where the alcohol beverages were manufactured.

(3) Any winery that has received a license pursuant to this section is authorized to serve and sell food, general merchandise, and nonalcohol beverages for consumption on the premises of any licensed premises or to be taken by the consumer.

(3.5) A winery that has received a license pursuant to this section may ship wine directly to personal consumers if such winery also has received a winery direct shipper's permit under section 12-47-104.

(4) (a) It is unlawful for a manufacturer licensed under this article or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with a licensed manufacturer to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to this article.

(b) It is unlawful for any licensed manufacturer of vinous or spirituous liquors or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with such a licensed manufacturer to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any vinous or spirituous wholesale licensee; except that any such financial interest that occurred on or before July 1, 1969, shall be lawful.

(5) Each applicant for a license as a brewer shall enter into a written contract with each wholesaler with which the applicant intends to do business that designates the territory within which the product of such applicant is sold by the respective wholesaler. The contract shall be submitted to the state licensing authority with an application, and such applicant, if licensed, shall have a continuing duty to submit any subsequent revisions, amendments, or superseding contracts to the state licensing authority.

(6) (a) Any manufacturer of spirituous liquors that has received a license pursuant to this section is authorized to conduct tastings and sell to customers spirituous liquors of its own manufacture on its licensed premises and at one other licensed sales room location at no additional cost. Such additional sales room location may be included in the license at the time of the original license issuance or by supplemental application.

(b) Any manufacturer of spirituous liquors that has received a license pursuant to this section is authorized to serve and sell food, general merchandise, and nonalcohol beverages for consumption on the premises or to be taken off the premises by the consumer.

(c) Prior to operating an additional sales room location, a manufacturer of spirituous liquors that has received a license pursuant to this section shall send a copy of the application or supplemental application for an additional sales room to the local licensing authority in the jurisdiction in which such sales room is proposed. The local licensing authority may request that the proposed sales room location license be denied by the state licensing authority if the local licensing authority determines that issuance of the proposed sales room license would be in conflict with the reasonable requirements of the neighborhood and the desires of the adult inhabitants as evidenced by petitions, remonstrances, or otherwise.

(d) The state licensing agency shall not grant a license for an additional sales room unless the applicant has complied with local zoning restrictions and the provisions of section 12-47-301 (2) (a).

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. The following annotations include cases decided under this section as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 47, which resulted in the relocation of provisions.

A liquor license cannot be obtained except upon payment of fixed fees. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

License fees are required to be paid annually. A. D. Jones & Co. v. Parsons, 136 Colo. 434, 319 P.2d 480 (1957).

12-47-403. Limited winery license. (1) A Colorado limited winery license shall be granted by the state licensing authority to an applicant that certifies that it will manufacture not more than one hundred thousand gallons, or the metric equivalent thereof, of vinous liquors within Colorado. Each limited winery licensee shall annually certify to the state licensing authority its compliance with this subsection (1) and shall be subject to revocation of its license for false certification.

(2) A limited winery licensee is authorized:

(a) (I) To manufacture vinous liquors upon its licensed premises and, in order to enhance the growth and viability of the Colorado wine industry, upon alternating proprietor licensed premises, as approved by the state licensing authority.

(II) Repealed.

(b) To sell vinous liquors of its own manufacture within this state at wholesale, at retail, or to personal consumers, including, if the limited winery also has received a winery direct shipper's permit under section 12-47-104, sales to be delivered by common carrier to personal consumers;

(c) To sell vinous liquors of its own manufacture in other states, the laws of which permit the sale of such wines and liquors;

(d) To sell vinous liquors of its own manufacture for export to foreign countries if such export is permitted by the laws of the United States;

(e) To conduct tastings and sell vinous liquors of its own manufacture, as well as vinous liquors manufactured by other Colorado wineries, on the licensed premises of the limited winery and up to five other licensed premises, whether included in the license at the time of the original license or by supplemental application; except that no retail sales shall be conducted from an area licensed or defined as an alternating proprietor licensed premises.

(f) To serve and sell food, general merchandise, and nonalcohol beverages for consumption on the premises of any licensed premises or to be taken by the consumer.

(2.3) In order to encourage and maintain the integrity and authenticity of Colorado's viticultural identity, support the wine-grape and fruit growing industries in Colorado, and inform the consumer of the source of grapes and fruit used by Colorado limited wineries to produce vinous liquors, the liquor enforcement division shall, after consultation with the Colorado wine industry and other interested parties from the alcohol beverage industry, within one year after June 1, 2005, enact rules for the implementation, standardization, and enforcement of appellation labeling requirements that are consistent with, and, with respect to the origin of the grapes and other fruit used to manufacture the vinous liquor, more informative than currently required by federal wine labeling regulations, 27 CFR, chapter 1, part 4, "labeling and advertising of wine" and related regulations. Colorado's labeling regulations shall apply to a manufacturer licensed pursuant to section 12-47-402 or a Colorado limited winery licensed under this section in the manufacture of the vinous liquor contained in the labeled bottle. Honey wine, including honey wine flavored with fruit, herbs, or spices, shall be exempt from the labeling requirements included in this section.

(2.7) (a) A winery may affix the phrase "Colorado Grown" to bottles of wine described in section 12-47-103 (6.5).

(b) Effective July 1, 2006, it shall be unlawful for a Colorado winery to make any misleading statement on its product label regarding the origin of grapes, fruit, or other agricultural products used to make vinous liquor. This paragraph (b) shall not be construed to apply to the winery's name or address or to an appellation allowed under federal regulations.

(3) A person who has a financial interest in a limited winery license and relinquishes such license to apply for another license under this article shall be prohibited from obtaining a limited winery license for three years from the date of issuance of such other license.

(4) (a) It is unlawful for any limited winery licensee or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with a limited winery licensee to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to this article.

(b) It is unlawful for any limited winery licensee or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with a limited winery licensee to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any vinous or spirituous wholesale licensee.

12-47-403.5. Wine festival permit. (1) A wine festival permit application may be filed with the state licensing authority by any limited winery licensee or by any manufacturer licensee that is licensed to manufacture vinous liquors. The applicant shall specify the licensed premises for the first of the wine festivals to be held, which application shall be filed at least ten business days before such festival is to be held. The applicant shall include a twenty-five dollar annual processing fee with the application filed with the state licensing authority. Such fee shall entitle the permittee to use the wine festival permit for twelve months after the date of issuance, so long as such permittee notifies the state licensing authority and the appropriate local licensing authority of the location of all other wine festivals under this permit at least ten business days before any such festival is to be held. A wine festival permit shall entitle the permittee to hold no more than nine wine festivals during the twelve-month period.

(2) The applicant shall be the licensee filing the application, but any wine festival permit that is issued as a result of such application shall be considered to be jointly held by the permittee and the participating limited winery licensees or manufacturer licensees that are licensed to manufacture vinous liquors.

(3) Notification of all subsequent festivals shall be by supplemental application, as approved by the state licensing authority.

(4) The state licensing authority may deny a wine festival permit or supplemental application for any of the following reasons:

(a) A documented history of violations of this article or rules issued under this article by any participating licensee;

(b) The filing of an incomplete or late application; or

(c) A finding that the application, if granted, would result in violations of this article or rules issued under this article or violations of the laws of a local government.

(5) After the issuance of an initial wine festival permit, all supplemental applications that are complete and filed in a timely manner shall be deemed approved unless the state licensing authority provides the permittee with a notice of denial at least seventy-two hours prior to the date of the event.

(6) The permittee and participating licensees are authorized to use the licensed premises jointly to conduct wine tastings and sell any vinous liquors manufactured by a Colorado limited winery or manufacturer licensed to manufacture vinous liquors. No wine festival permit shall authorize the permittee to use the licensed premises for more than seventy-two hours for any one wine festival.

(7) If a violation of this article occurs during a wine festival and the licensee responsible for the violation can be identified, such licensee may be charged and the appropriate penalties shall apply. If the responsible party cannot be identified, the state licensing authority may send a written notice to every licensee identified on the permit application and may fine each the same dollar amount, which amount shall not exceed twenty-five dollars per licensee or two hundred dollars in the aggregate. No joint fine levied pursuant to this subsection (7) shall apply to the revocation of the licensee's license under section 12-47-601.

(8) A joint fine levied pursuant to subsection (7) of this section shall not create or increase civil liability under section 12-47-801 (3) for a participating licensee or create joint liability for such a licensee.

12-47-404. Importer's license. (1) (a) An importer's license shall be issued to persons importing vinous or spirituous liquors into this state for the following purposes only:

- (I) To import and sell such liquors to wholesale liquor licensees;
- (II) To solicit orders from retail licensees and fill such orders through wholesale liquor licensees.

(b) Such license shall not permit the licensee to maintain stocks of alcohol beverages in this state.

(2) It is unlawful for any licensed importer of vinous or spirituous liquors or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with such a licensed importer to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any vinous or spirituous wholesale licensee; except that any such financial interest that occurred on or before July 1, 1969, shall be lawful.

12-47-405. Nonresident manufacturers and importers of malt liquor. (1) A non-resident manufacturer's license shall be issued to persons brewing malt liquor outside the state of Colorado for the purposes listed in subsection (3) of this section.

(2) A malt liquor importer's license shall be issued to persons importing malt liquor into this state for the purposes listed in subsection (3) of this section.

(3) The licenses referred to in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall be issued for the following purposes only:

(a) To import and sell malt liquors within the state of Colorado to persons licensed as wholesalers pursuant to this article;

(b) To maintain stocks of malt liquors and to operate malt liquor warehouses by procuring a malt liquor wholesaler's license for each such operation as provided in this article;

(c) To solicit orders from retail licensees and fill such orders through malt liquor wholesalers.

(4) Any person holding a nonresident manufacturer's license or a malt liquor importer's license shall also be eligible to obtain a vinous and spirituous liquor importer's license pursuant to section 12-47-404; except that each such license obtained shall be separate and distinct.

(5) Each manufacturer, nonresident manufacturer, and malt liquor importer shall enter into a written contract with each wholesaler with which such manufacturer, nonresident manufacturer, and malt liquor importer intends to do business that designates the territory within which the product of such manufacturer, nonresident manufacturer, and malt liquor importer is sold by the respective wholesaler. A manufacturer, nonresident manufacturer, and malt liquor importer shall not contract with more than one wholesaler to sell their products within the same territory. The contract shall be submitted to the state licensing authority with any application, and such applicant, if licensed, shall have a continuing duty to submit any subsequent revisions, amendments, or superseding contracts to the state licensing authority.

(6) It is unlawful for a nonresident manufacturer licensed under this article, or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with such a licensee, to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to this article.

Editor's note: This section is similar to former § 12-47-114.1 as it existed prior to 1997.

12-47-406. Wholesaler's license. (1) (a) A wholesaler's liquor license shall be issued to persons selling vinous or spirituous liquors at wholesale for the following purposes only:

(I) To maintain and operate one or more warehouses in this state to handle vinous or spirituous liquors;

(II) To take orders for vinous and spirituous liquors at any place and deliver vinous and spirituous liquors on orders previously taken to any place if the licensee has procured a wholesaler's liquor license and the place where orders are taken and delivered is a place regularly licensed pursuant to the provisions of this article;

(III) To package vinous and spirituous liquors that a licensed importer has legally transported into Colorado or that a licensed manufacturer has legally produced in Colorado.

(b) A wholesaler's beer license shall be issued to persons selling malt liquors at wholesale who designate to the state licensing authority on their application the territory within which the licensee may sell the designated products of any brewer as agreed upon by the licensee and the brewer of such products for the following purposes only:

(I) To maintain and operate warehouses and one salesroom in this state to handle malt liquors to be denominated a wholesale beer store;

(II) To take orders for malt liquors at any place within the territory designated on the license application and deliver malt liquors on orders previously taken to any place within the designated geographical territory, if the licensee has procured a wholesaler's beer license and the place where orders are taken and delivered is a place regularly licensed pursuant to the provisions of this article.

(c) Each license shall be separate and distinct, but any person may secure both licenses upon the payment in advance of both fees provided in this article.

(d) All malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors purchased by any licensee under this section, and all malt, vinous, and spirituous liquors shipped into this state by or to any such licensee, shall be placed in the physical possession of such licensee at the licensee's warehouse facilities prior to delivery to persons holding licenses under this article.

(e) (I) A brewer or importer licensed pursuant to this article shall not sell malt liquors to a wholesaler without having a written contract with such wholesaler that designates the specific products of such brewer or importer to be sold by the wholesaler and that establishes the territory within which the wholesaler may sell the designated products.

(II) A brewer or importer shall not contract with more than one wholesaler to sell the products of such brewer or importer within the same territory.

(2) It is unlawful for any licensed wholesaler or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with a licensed wholesaler to be interested financially, directly or indirectly, in the business of any person licensed to sell at retail pursuant to this article.

(3) It is unlawful for a licensed wholesaler of vinous or spirituous liquors or any person, partnership, association, organization, or corporation interested financially in or with such a wholesaler to be interested financially in the business of any licensed manufacturer or importer of vinous or spirituous liquors; except that any such financial interest that occurred on or before July 1, 1969, shall be lawful.

ANNOTATION

Annotator's note. Since § 12-47-406 is similar to § 12-47-115 as it existed prior to the 1997 amendment of title 12, article 46, which resulted in the relocation of provisions, relevant cases construing that provision have been included in the annotations to this section.

The purchase of beer at retail stores for resale outside Colorado does not require a beer wholesaler's license, since that activity is not covered by this section. People v. Kagan, 195 Colo. 76, 575 P.2d 416 (1978).

Section as basis for defense to antitrust action. See Adolph Coors Co. v. A & S Whsles., Inc., 561 F.2d 807 (10th Cir. 1977) (decided under § 12-47-108 as it existed prior to the 1976 repeal and reenactment of this article).

Applied in Nobel, Inc. v. Colo. Dept. of Rev., 652 P.2d 1084 (Colo. App. 1982).

12-47-406.3. Termination of wholesalers - remedies - definitions. (1) (a) Except as provided in subsections (2) to (4) of this section, no supplier shall terminate an agreement with a wholesaler unless all of the following occur:

(I) The wholesaler fails to comply with a provision of a written agreement between the wholesaler and the supplier;

(II) The wholesaler receives written notification by certified mail, return receipt requested, from the supplier of the alleged noncompliance and is afforded no less than sixty days in which to cure such noncompliance;

(III) The wholesaler fails to cure such noncompliance within the allotted sixty-day cure period; and

(IV) The supplier provides written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the wholesaler of such continued failure to comply with the agreement. The notification shall contain a statement of the intention of the supplier to terminate or not renew the agreement, the reasons for termination or nonrenewal, and the date the termination or nonrenewal shall take effect.

(b) If a wholesaler cures an alleged noncompliance within the cure period provided in subparagraph (II) of paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), any notice of termination from a supplier to a wholesaler shall be null and void.

(2) A supplier may immediately terminate an agreement with a wholesaler, effective upon furnishing written notification to the wholesaler by certified mail, return receipt requested, for any of the following reasons:

(a) The wholesaler's failure to pay any account when due and upon written demand by the supplier for such payment, in accordance with agreed payment terms;

(b) The assignment or attempted assignment by the wholesaler for the benefit of creditors, the institution of proceedings in bankruptcy by or against the wholesaler, the dissolution or liquidation of the wholesaler, or the insolvency of the wholesaler;

(c) The revocation or suspension of, or the failure to renew for a period of more than fourteen days, a state, local, or federal license or permit to sell products in this state;

(d) Failure of an owner of a wholesaler to sell his or her ownership interest in the distribution rights to the supplier's products within one hundred twenty days after such owner of a wholesaler has been convicted of a felony that, in the supplier's sole judgment, adversely affects the goodwill of the wholesaler or supplier;

(e) A wholesaler has been convicted of, found guilty of, or pled guilty or nolo contendere to, a charge of violating a law or regulation of the United States or of this state if it materially and adversely affects the ability of the wholesaler or supplier to continue to sell its products in this state;

(f) Any attempted transfer of ownership of the wholesaler, stock of the wholesaler, or stock of any parent corporation of the wholesaler, or any change in the beneficial ownership or control of any entity, without obtaining the prior written approval of the supplier, except as may otherwise be permitted pursuant to a written agreement between the parties;

(g) Fraudulent conduct in the wholesaler's dealings with the supplier or its products, including the intentional sale of products outside the supplier's established quality standards;

(h) The wholesaler ceases to conduct business for five consecutive business days, unless such cessation is the result of an act of God, war, or a condition of national, state, or local emergency; or

(i) Any sale of products, directly or indirectly, to customers located outside the territory assigned to the wholesaler by the supplier. This paragraph (i) shall not prohibit wholesalers from making sales to licensed retailers who buy off the wholesaler's dock, so long as the retailer's licensed location is within the wholesaler's assigned territory.

(3) The supplier shall have the right to terminate an agreement with a wholesaler at any time by giving the wholesaler at least ninety days' written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested, with copies by first-class mail to all other wholesalers in all other states who have entered into the same distribution agreement with the supplier.

(4) If a particular brand of products is transferred by purchase or otherwise from a supplier to a successor supplier, the following shall occur:

(a) The successor supplier shall notify the existing wholesaler of the successor supplier's intent not to appoint the existing wholesaler for all or part of the existing wholesaler's territory for the product. The successor supplier shall mail the notice of termination by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the existing wholesaler. The successor supplier shall include in the notice the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of the successor wholesalers.

(b) (I) The successor wholesaler shall negotiate with the existing wholesaler to determine the fair market value of the existing wholesaler's right to distribute the product in the existing wholesaler's territory immediately before the successor supplier acquired rights to the particular brand of products. The successor wholesaler and the existing wholesaler shall negotiate the fair market value in good faith.

(II) The existing wholesaler shall continue to distribute the product until payment of the compensation agreed to under subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (b), or awarded under paragraph (c) of this subsection (4), is received.

(c) (I) If the successor wholesaler and the existing wholesaler fail to reach a written agreement on the fair market value within thirty days after the existing wholesaler receives the notice required pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4), the successor wholesaler or the existing wholesaler shall send a written notice to the other party requesting arbitration pursuant to the uniform arbitration act, part 2 of article 22 of title 13, C.R.S. Arbitration shall be held for the purpose of determining the fair market value of the existing wholesaler's right to distribute the product in the existing wholesaler's territory immediately before the successor supplier acquired rights to the particular brand of products.

(II) Notice of intent to arbitrate shall be sent, as provided in subparagraph (I) of this paragraph (c), not later than thirty-five days after the existing wholesaler receives the notice required pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subsection (4). The arbitration proceeding shall conclude not later than forty-five days after the date the notice of intent to arbitrate is mailed to a party.

(III) Any arbitration held pursuant to this subsection (4) shall be conducted in a city within this state that:

(A) Is closest to the existing wholesaler; and

(B) Has a population of more than twenty thousand.

(IV) Any arbitration held pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall be conducted before one impartial arbitrator to be selected by the American arbitration association or its successor. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the rules and procedures of the uniform arbitration act, part 2 of article 22 of title 13, C.R.S.

(V) An arbitrator's award in any arbitration held pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall be monetary only and shall not enjoin or compel conduct. Any arbitration held pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall be in lieu of all other remedies and procedures.

(VI) The cost of the arbitrator and any other direct costs of an arbitration held pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall be equally divided by the parties engaged in the arbitration. All other costs shall be paid by the party incurring them.

(VII) The arbitrator in any arbitration held pursuant to this paragraph (c) shall render a written decision not later than thirty days after the conclusion of the arbitration, unless this time is extended by mutual agreement of the parties and the arbitrator. The decision of the arbitrator is final and binding on the parties. The arbitrator's award may be enforced by commencing a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction. Under no circumstances may the parties appeal the decision of the arbitrator.

(VIII) An existing wholesaler or successor wholesaler who fails to participate in the arbitration hearings in any arbitration held pursuant to this paragraph (c) waives all rights the existing wholesaler or successor wholesaler would have had in the arbitration and is considered to have consented to the determination of the arbitrator.

(IX) If the existing wholesaler does not receive payment from the successor wholesaler of the settlement or arbitration award required under paragraph (b) or (c) of this subsection (4) within thirty days after the date of the settlement or arbitration award:

(A) The existing wholesaler shall remain the wholesaler of the product in the existing wholesaler's territory to at least the same extent that the existing wholesaler distributed the product immediately before the successor wholesaler acquired rights to the product; and

(B) The existing wholesaler is not entitled to the settlement or arbitration award.

(5) (a) Any wholesaler or supplier who is aggrieved by a violation of any provision of subsections (1) and (3) of this section shall be entitled to recovery of damages caused by the violation. Except for a dispute arising under subsection (4) of this section, damages shall be sought in a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(b) Any dispute arising under subsections (1) and (3) of this section may also be settled by such dispute resolution procedures as may be provided by a written agreement between the parties.

(6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit or prohibit good-faith settlements voluntarily entered into by the parties.

(7) Nothing in this section shall be construed to give an existing wholesaler or a successor wholesaler any right to compensation if an agreement with the existing wholesaler or successor wholesaler is terminated by a successor supplier pursuant to subsections (1) to (3) of this section.

(8) Nothing in this section shall apply to a manufacturer that produces less than three hundred thousand gallons of malt beverages per calendar year.

(9) As used in this section:

(a) "Existing wholesaler" means a wholesaler who distributes a particular brand of products at the time a successor supplier acquires rights to manufacture or import the particular brand of products.

(b) "Fair market value" means the value that would be determined in a transaction entered into without duress or threat of termination of the existing wholesaler's right and shall include all elements of value, including goodwill and going-concern value.

(c) "Products" means fermented malt beverages and malt liquors.
